SCOPE AND CONTENT

There are twenty-three Music Department Scrapbooks, which consist primarily of clippings and programs that related to the Music Department, its faculty, students, and alumni. In some instances there are photographs, but those are the exception, not the rule. Material in the scrapbooks is fairly inclusive, covering faculty and student recitals, homecoming, concerts, Madrigal dinners, honors convocations, commencement, articles from the proposal to the completion of the Music Education building and the demolition of Festival Hall, letters in praise of various performances, tours, and festivals. One Music

In the late 1930s, the Alpha Mu chapter of Kappa Kappa Psi was established at the NDAC campus. It is a “national organization made up of college bandmen who are elected on the basis of musicianship, scholarship, and character.” (Bison yearbook, 1938) The two scrapbooks for Kappa Kappa Psi cover 1958-1965 and 1965-1972/73.

In 1951 Tau Beta Sigma was established on the NDAC campus. Tau Beta Sigma consisted of women students who have participated in two quarters of work in the Gold Star Band and have maintained a GPA of 2.7. (Bison yearbook, 1953) The three scrapbooks for Tau Beta Sigma cover 1951-1969, 1970-1985, and 1985-1987, with numerous gaps.
