HISTORY

According to the Student Activities Office website (12/03), the mission of the office is “to further advance the mission of North Dakota State University and the Memorial Union by engaging and empowering student potential so as to foster personal leadership development, diversity appreciation and positive social and personal growth.”

SCOPE AND CONTENT
The information for the Greeks, Homecoming, Festival Concert Series, and Campus Attractions are fairly extensive and provide in-depth information. For the most part, the series are arranged chronologically with those undated items at the end. Where a series is long, sub-groups are found within the series and these are also arranged chronologically.

These records from the NDSU Student Activities Office include: Campus Attractions (1971-2005); MU Breaks (formerly Skills Warehouse) (1970s-2000s); Powwows (2002-2004); Student Activities Office & Board (1971-2005); Lively Arts Series (formerly Festival Concert Series) (1976-2004); Advertisements, Yearly Events Programs, Event Programs, Festival Preview, General; Volunteer Network (1988-2001); Homecoming (1955-2003);

PLEASE NOTE: Boxes 1-6 contained Greek Life material, which has been shifted to the Greek Life Records
