It seems like this time of the year there is a football or basketball game on TV most days.

So, this week I am sharing two recipes for snacks to be enjoyed while cheering on your favorite team. The Party Mix is one I have made for many years. Cousin Laurie (Albrecht) Voegele gave me the Corn Chex Treats recipe. So, with the two, you have a salty and a sweet treat to enjoy.

Party Mix
- 1 lb. almonds
- 18 C. of a mix of cereal Chex and pretzels
- ½ lb. butter
- 4 Tbsp. Worcestershire sauce
- 2 tsp. garlic salt
- 1 tsp. salt

Heat oven to 225 degrees. Melt butter and stir in spices and sauce. Pour over nut and cereal mix. Stir until evenly coated. Bake for 2 hours. Stir frequently.

Corn Chex Treats
- 6 C. Corn Chex cereal
- 1 C. mixed nuts
- 6 cubes (1/2 block) of white almond bark
- 2 Tbsp. peanut butter

“Prayer is the deliberate and preserving action of the soul. Prayer fastens the soul to God.” — St. Julian of Norwich