Staudinger-Hauck Nuptials Tuesday At Richardton

Miss Magdalena Staudinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Staudinger of Richardton, became the bride of Paul A. Hauck at a 10 o'clock nuptial mass in St. Mary's church in Richardton Tuesday. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Julius.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex A. Hauck of Richardton, was recently discharged from the army. He served in the Pacific.

Attendants of the bride were her two sisters, Miss Deloris and Miss Margie Staudinger. Flower girl was little Delilah Mae Hauck, niece of the bride. A brother of the bride, Dowain Staudinger, was ring bearer.

Ben Hauck and Dan Senn of Richardton, brother and cousin of the groom respectively, attended him. Witnesses were Christ Schaaf and Jack Reisenauer.

The bride chose a white gown with a jersey bodice and net skirt and train. The sweetheart neckline was outlined in gold bead embroidery. Sleeves were long and tight. Her veil was fingertip length and fell from a pearl crown. She carried a white prayerbook and wore a gold locket, gift of the groom.

Both Miss Margie and Miss Deloris Staudinger wore white gowns. Miss Deloris wore white marquisette, with lace at the cuffs of the long full sleeves, a lace yoke and Eton collar. She wore a yellow chapel veil falling from a flower tiara and carried pink and white carnations with streamers. Miss Margie's dress was white jersey with a net skirt and short sleeves. She wore a blue chapel veil and carried similar flowers.

After the ceremony, dinner was served by the parents of the couple to 125 guests at St. Mary's school. A three tier wedding cake ornamented with a small bride and groom centered the table.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. D. R. Silvy, sister of the bride, who came from the state of Washington.

The couple will be at home on a Richardton farm.
