Germans from Russia Heritage Collection
North Dakota State University Library
Fargo, North Dakota

Visit us online: www.ndsu.edu/grhc
Telephone: 701-231-6596

- Whether you seek information on your family tree or the perfect kuchen recipe, the Germans from Russia Heritage Collection is a valuable resource.

Since it's inception in 1978, this privately funded, specialized archives has become one of the most comprehensive collections of German-Russian resources in the world.

Our Focus...
- Clothing and Textiles
- Cultural Traditions
- Folklore
- Foodways
- Genealogy
- Historic Photographs
- Oral History
- Publishing
- Research
- Translations

Items Available for Purchase
- Cookbooks
- German Books
- English Books
- North Dakota/South Dakota Books
- Videotapes, CD’s and DVD’s
- Maps
Journey to the Homeland Tours

What?
- Tours for individuals and families to visit Odessa, Ukraine, the former German villages, and Germany

When?
- Annually (May-June)

For more information contact Michael M. Miller 701-231-8416 or visit our website: www.ndsu.edu/grhc

Dakota Memories Oral History Project

Project Objectives:
- to record German-Russian life stories
- to identify and preserve the cultural traditions of German-Russians
- to document German-Russian family life, childhood, social structures, and daily life activities

How do I participate?
- Our staff maintains a list of potential narrators. If you are interested in being interviewed or you know someone who is, please contact: GRHC, 701-231-6596
- To learn more about the Dakota Memories Oral History Project, please visit our website: www.ndsu.edu/grhc/dakotamemories