THANK YOU

Today is special just because
It's our fiftieth wedding day;
And because you've come to share it,
It's perfect in every way.

All of your friendly greetings
And your good wishes too,
Will become treasured memories
Of this time spent with you.

We want to thank each of you
For being here today;
May God bless and keep you safe
As you go on your way.

Look at the new
For the past is gone
Look not at the sun
Setting
But set your eyes on
The dawn
Hold your memories deep
Inside your heart
For new things to come
Spread your hands apart
Place aside all your fears
And make this year your Golden year.
