Join us to celebrate the release of the new documentary, Women Behind the Plow, and the GRHC’s new book, Emilie: The Girl from Bessarabia. The NDSU Main Library will be transformed into a “museum” for the event, featuring a number of exhibits to view, including:

- Women Behind the Plow | Sponsored by the Tri-County Tourism Alliance
- Women in Agriculture | Sponsored by the NDSU Libraries
- The Story of the Germans from Russia | Preserving Architecture: Sustaining German-Russian Heritage | Homesteads of North Dakota | Iron Spirits: North Dakota Blacksmith-made Grave Crosses | Four exhibits sponsored by the GRHC
- German-Russian Textiles & Clothing | Sponsored by the Emily P. Reynolds Historic Costume Collection

There will also be an opportunity to purchase a copy of Emilie: The Girl from Bessarabia and have it autographed by the translator, James Gessele.

Complimentary kuchen and coffee will be served.

Parking:
T Lot
*Free for event. Do not park in the far east row next to sidewalk.

Open House:
NDSU Main Library
1201 Albrecht Blvd.

Questions?
Contact Jeremy Kopp at 701.231.6596