SCOPE AND CONTENT

The Anton Friedrich Collection consists of seven Romanian birth, marriage, and wedding certificates; a passport; and a shawl. The collection dates to the late 1920s. The collection has been organized into two series: Certificate and Textile.

The Certificate Series contains seven Romanian birth, marriage, and wedding certificates and a passport. The documents are mostly in Romanian and date to the late 1920s. The passport has two people in it: Matias L Fridrich, age 22, born in 1904, and Juliana Tueser [Tuchscherer] Fridrich, age 20, born in 1907. The documents were prepared in Romania (1927-1929) for immigration purposes for Matthias Friedrich and Julianna (Tuchscherer) Friedrich.

The Textile Series is comprised of one shawl. The shawl is made of heavy wool with twill weave. It is 60" x 64" in black and very dark green. The shawl also occasionally has single rows in red, lavender, and black. It is plaid design formed by wide rows of green and lavender and has 4" fringe on all four sides with some still twisted back. The shawl belonged to Julianna (Tuchscherer) Friedrich. She came from Romania to Saskatchewan, Canada in 1929.
