Photographs for Helmuth H. Huber Interview

Reformed Church was built in Balzer, Volga Region, Russia between 1849 to 1851. This was the third church built in Balzer. It was built with brick handmade by Russian women and then stuccoed and white washed inside and outside. The steeple was removed in 1941 or 1942 and use by the Russians as a theatre and club house for Russian soldiers. Helmuth Huber's father, Henry Huber, was confirmed in this church.
