

NDSU's United Way drive recognized

President Chapman accepts an award from United Way First Vice Campaign Chair Scott Green.

NDSU has been recognized by the United Way of Cass Clay for its successful 2006 campus campaign that topped $100,000 in gifts.

NDSU received a plaque presented to President Joseph A. Chapman by Scott Green, first vice chair of the United Way campaign and market president of the Bank of the West. The presentation occurred during the President's Council meeting Oct. 24.

"The successful campaign was the result of the generosity and strong involvement of our faculty, staff and students," said Chapman.

"By working together with United Way, the people of NDSU are making a meaningful, positive difference in our community."

According to Char Goodyear, NDSU employee campaign coordinator, the university's 2006 campaign raised a record $104,603. "We saw active participation in departments across our campus. It was an outstanding effort by NDSU personnel and students." Goodyear said, noting that the goal for the current 2007 campaign is $109,800.

For information about United Way, visit www.uwcc.net or call 237-5050. For information about the NDSU campaign, contact Goodyear at 1-1068 or char.goodyear@ndsu.edu.

Technology Incubator NDSU dedicated

Technology Incubator NDSU was dedicated during ceremonies Oct. 23. The facility is located at the Research and Technology Park.

Technology Incubator NDSU serves to provide proactive, value-added support to start-up companies in advanced manufacturing, information technology, bioscience and advanced materials technology. The facility houses seven companies and employs 77 people.

"This is about North Dakota. It is about the exciting partnerships that spur our state's economy," NDSU President Joseph A. Chapman said. "Our success demonstrates what can happen when we work together as a community, and we have done an incredible job. We have redefined the future of our state."

The facility was approved by the state legislature in 2003 as one of the state's first Centers of Excellence. During 2005, the project received a $1.25 million Centers of Excellence grant. Gov. John Hoeven also worked with the U.S. Economic Development Administration to secure a $1.75 million grant. Private sector sponsors secured $4 million for the project.

Hoeven said the facility partners NDSU with innovative companies to create good paying jobs. "It's this kind of environment that gives some of our best and brightest an opportunity to transform their ideas into real businesses," he said.

Tony Grindberg, executive director of the NDSU Research and Technology Park Inc., said, "On a macro-strategic level, it helps to create an entrepreneurial state and community to expand ideas through technology innovation."

cont.

NEXT ISSUE

Publication date: Wednesday, Oct. 31
Submissions due: noon Nov. 1
Old Main 204
Voice: 231-8326
Fax: 231-1989
sadie.anderson@ndsu.edu
www.ndsu.edu/news

CHANGE OF ADDRESS FOR IHAS

char.goodyear@ndsu.edu

Tenants of Technology Incubator NDSU include Appareo Systems, Bobcat, Feed Management Systems, Pedigree Technologies, Precision Partners, Appolis Mobile Business Solutions and Intelligent InSites.

NDSU takes action on animal research deficiencies

The USDA Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service (APHIS) has assessed $12,218 in penalties against NDSU for what APHIS views as violations of federal regulations regarding care, research protocols, training and facilities related to animal research.

According to the settlement agreement between APHIS and NDSU, there were 27 violations. All infractions have been corrected. Under the terms of the settlement agreement, NDSU agrees to pay the civil penalty in full settlement with APHIS, while neither admitting nor denying any violations.

NDSU has spent $59,578 in one-time costs to correct the deficiencies, and will spend another $137,000 annually for additional veterinary staffing.

Dr. Jayma Moore, chair of the NDSU Institutional Animal Care and Use Committee (IACUC), said, "As an IACUC, the well-being of the animals at NDSU is our primary concern. We appreciate the support and commitment of NDSU's administration toward fulfillment of that responsibility. We take seriously all animal-related issues, and will continue to work closely with our federal partners in order to assure the welfare of all those in our care."

The settlement agreement followed an APHIS administrative investigation conducted over a period of several months.

Nominations sought for Tapestry of Diverse Talents

The Tapestry of Diverse Talents, a program of the Memorial Union, is a pictorial mosaic that recognizes students, faculty, staff and alumni for their contributions to diversity at NDSU.

Nominations are being accepted for individuals who have impacted campus life.

For applications, stop by the Student Activities Office, located in the Memorial Union, room 360, or go to mu.ndsu.edu and click on Tapestry of Diverse Talents.

Nominations are due by Nov. 9. For more information, contact Angela Mathers at 1-7350 or angela.m.mathers@ndsu.edu.

Naomi Fischer dies

Naomi Fischer, 73, the wife of former interim NDSU President Allan G. Fischer, died Oct. 23 at MeritCare, Fargo.

Fischer graduated from Hillcrest Lutheran Academy, Fergus Falls, Minn., and attended Augsburg College, Minneapolis. She met Allan Fischer in 1953 in Speculator, N.Y., where they both worked at the Camp-of-the-Woods. The couple married in 1956, and lived in New Jersey, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Minnesota and North Dakota, before making their home in rural Moorhead.

She was a founding member of the Red River Valley Watercolor Society, and she was active in a woman's sextet at Knollbrook Covenant Church.

Allan Fischer, who joined the NDSU faculty in 1968, was dean of the College of Science and Mathematics, was director of Governor's School and served as interim university president in 1998-99. He retired from NDSU in the summer of 1999.

Survivors include her husband, one son, one daughter and four grandchildren.

Memorials may be directed to Naomi and Allan Fischer Scholarship at NDSU; Camp-of-the-Woods, Gospel Volunteers of the World; or the Agnes and William Windahl Scholarship at Hillcrest Lutheran Brethren Schools, Fergus Falls.

PEOPLE

Computer science students excel at programming competition

The computer programming competition teams from NDSU's computer science department swept the prestigious eighth annual Digi-Key Collegiate Computing Competition on Oct. 19.

Team Phi Rho, earning first place, and Team Dacodas, earning second place, represented NDSU. This is the first time in the history of the Digi-Key Collegiate Computing Competition that any university has won both first and second place.

Team Phi Rho members include Adam Helsene, Dustin Kerber, Eric Odegaard and Evan Braaten. Team Dacodas members include Aaron Feickert, Abram Jackson, Amar Nishant Singh and Robert Foertsch. The students are all juniors and seniors in the computer science program.

The competition was held in Thief River Falls, Minn., at the Digi-Key corporate headquarters. NDSU competed against Bemidji State University, St. Cloud State University, University of Minnesota-Duluth, University of Minnesota-Morris, University of North Dakota, Concordia College and Mayville State University.

The first place team won $200 for each team member, $3,000 for the computer science department and a trophy. The second place team won $150 for each team member and $1,800 for the computer science department.

Representatives of the Digi-Key's information technology department are scheduled to present a trophy and prize money on Nov. 2. They also will be recruiting for two permanent positions and student internships for the summer of 2008.

Kelley to discuss 'memory artists'

Suzanne Kelley, graduate student in history and religious studies, is scheduled to present "Memory Artists of the Great Plains" at 3-5 p.m. Friday, Nov. 16, in the Memorial Union Gallery. The presentation is one in the series of colloquia sponsored by the history, philosophy and religious studies faculty at NDSU.

Memory artists are self-taught painters, who late in life begin painting their recollections of youthful experiences. Students, faculty, staff and the public are welcome to attend and discuss an aspect of regional history to which most people are not exposed.

For more information or special accommodations, contact Mark Harvey, professor of history and religion, at mark.harvey@ndsu.edu or Dennis Cooley, associate professor of philosophy and ethics, at dennis.cooley@ndsu.edu.

Publications Services projects win national awards

Staff from NDSU's Publications Services recently won a Judge's Choice award and a Gold Cube for a brochure designed for the Office of Admission. The University and College Designers Association (UCDA) announced the results of its 2007 competition at a national convention in Toronto in October. NDSU won the top prize in an admission recruitment category. Out of 155 awards presented, only seven projects received gold cubes.

NDSU also won three awards of excellence in other categories for the 2006 president's annual report, the 2006 NDSU viewbook and the 2006 admission campaign. Competition in NDSU's categories included work from Penn State, the University of Southern California, the School of Visual Arts, Seton Hall and the University of Washington, among others.

Brad Clemenson designed the projects, with photography by Dan Koeck and copy editing by Kathy Laid.

Judging for the national contest was based on excellence in concept, design, illustration, typography and printing, as well as effectiveness, quality and creativity in solving the problems inherent in institutional design.

Kutka gets manuscript published

Kutka

Frank Kutka, sustainable agriculture specialist at the Dickinson Research Extension Center, recently had an article published in Crop Science.

"How Many Parents Give the Highest Yield in Predicted Synthetic and Composite Populations of Maize?" was co-authored with Margaret Smith from the Cornell University

Department of Plant Breeding and Genetics. The article appeared in the September issue of Crop Science, and the abstract is available at crop.scijournals.org/cgi/content/abstract/47/5/1905.

Kutka is the coordinator of the Sustainable Agriculture Research and Education (SARE) program in North Dakota and South Dakota. He also has served as assistant director of the Dickinson Research Extension Center since 2005.

Cox publishes translation

John K. Cox, professor and head of the history department, has published a translation of a short story by Danilo Kis, a novelist who is most famous for autobiographical novels of the Holocaust, such as "Garden, Ashes" and "Hourglass."

Cox translated the work, "An American Story," from Serbian and it will appear in the December 2007 issue of World Literature Today. The translation is set against the backdrop of racism in the United States in the 1930s.

Kis, who lived from 1935-89, also wrote plays, essays, poetry and stories; many of them on themes derived from political history. According to Cox, Kis' primary thematic concern is the fate of individuals, especially outsiders, in authoritarian societies. His works also are characterized by innovation in form and style.

Cox's translation of Kis' first novel, "Mansarda," is expected to be published soon.

Founded in 1970, UCDA promotes excellence in visual communication for educational institutions. It includes more than 1,000 members throughout the United States and Canada.

Strom gives guest lectures at University of Guelph

Strom

Claire Strom, associate professor of history and editor of Agricultural History, recently visited the University of Guelph in Canada and gave two guest lectures. She talked to doctoral students from three universities including the University of Guelph, the University of Waterloo and Wilfrid Laurier University.

In Strom's presentations, she talked about academic journals and the process of publishing an article. She also addressed the rural history faculty and students regarding her forthcoming book on cattle tick eradication and on the interstices of zoonosis and human history.

Douglas McCalla, research chair in Canadian rural history, wrote that Strom's trip was a "spectacularly successful visit—great for faculty and our other visitors and maybe even more for the students involved—raising our eyes above the all-too-immediate horizons and engaging not only Strom's research, but the larger shape of our collective field(s). The conversations amongst us that started while she was here will continue, with a tremendous infusion of energy."

History students participate in restoration project

Students from History 431, "The North American Plains," with support from the Center for Heritage Renewal, took part in the Hutmacher farmstead restoration project in Dunn County on Oct. 13-14. The farmstead is a complex of buildings constructed of locally quarried stone and locally harvested timber by a German-Russian family.

Students Toni Berning, Aaron Granley, Ann Erling, Molly Lefor, Dan McCollum, Ashleigh Pust, David Suda, Todd Volk and Cory Wheeler were members of the service learning party. The group was led by Tom Isern, professor of history, who is director of the Center for Heritage Renewal, instructor of the course and a board member of Preservation North Dakota. History doctoral student Suzzanne Kelley also worked at the site, representing Phi Alpha Theta, the NDSU history honor society.

cont.

Restoration of the complex is proceeding under the auspices of Preservation North Dakota, the state organization for historic preservation, and executive director Dale Bentley through a National Park Service "Save America's Treasures" grant.

The NDSU delegation worked with Preserve North Dakota representatives and visited with descendants of the Hutmacher family. The students worked primarily on restoring of the farmhouse's brush and flax straw roof, and repairing the building's walls using a mortar of clay and sand.

Details of the project, including photos and a Weblog by students, can be accessed at www.ndsu.nodak.edu/heritage/.

EVENTS

American Indian heritage events scheduled

Multicultural Student Services has planned several American Indian heritage events for the 2007-08 academic year. All events are free and open to the public. For more information, call 1-7314.

Stan Williams, an Ojibwe spiritual leader from Winnipeg, Manitoba, is scheduled to present an opening prayer and pipe ceremony at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday, Nov. 6, on the east patio of the Memorial Union. Following the ceremony, Williams is scheduled to present an Ojibwe culture presentation at 10 a.m. in the Memorial Union Arikara Room.

Cedric Wildbill, creator of the film "American Cowboys," is scheduled to give a presentation at noon, Wednesday, Nov. 7, in the Memorial Union Century Theatre. Wildbill will be available to discuss "American Cowboys," a documentary about the legendary rodeo careers in the early 1900s of Native rodeo star Jackson Sundown and George Fletcher, an African-American man who grew up on the Umatilla reservation. The film received an honorable mention for the American Indian Voices Best Documentary feature at the 2007 Fargo Film Festival.

Mary Louise Defender Wilson is scheduled to present "Stories and Traditions of the Dakotah Sioux" at 12:30 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 8, in the Memorial Union Century Theatre. Defender Wilson is an elder and traditional storyteller from the Standing Rock Sioux Indian Reservation in North Dakota. The event is sponsored by the North Dakota Council on the Arts, NDSU Anthropology Club and NDSU Sociology Club.

Former North Dakota Gov. Ed Schafer and former chairman of the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe Charlie Murphy are scheduled to give a presentation on the North Dakota government and the North Dakota American Indian tribal government relations at noon Wednesday, Nov. 14, in the Memorial Union Prairie Rose room. They will discuss topics impacting both government systems and how the respective government departments operate and work together in areas including hunting, fishing, gaming and others. The event is sponsored by the NDSU Native American Student Association.

The NDSU Native American Student Association is planning an Indian Taco Sale for 11 a.m.-2 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 15, at the University Lutheran Student Center.

The NDSU Anti-Racism Team is scheduled to present a documentary short film titled "Share the Wealth" at 12:30 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 20, in the Memorial Union Hidatsa Room. The film is about a Native woman on an urban street encountering a stereotyped misunderstanding. A group discussion will follow the film.

Keith Bear, a Native storyteller and flute player, is scheduled to give a presentation at 7 p.m. Monday, Jan. 28, in Beckwith Recital Hall.

Ojibwe language lessons are scheduled for 7-9 p.m. Wednesdays, beginning in February and running through mid-March in the Memorial Union. Alex Decoteau is scheduled to instruct each session. He is a fluent speaker of Ojibwe and has taught the language on the Turtle Mountain Indian and White Earth Indian reservation schools.

The 18th Annual Woodlands and High Plains Pow-wow is scheduled for 11 a.m. Saturday, March 15, at the Concordia College Memorial Auditorium. The pow-wow is a collaboration between Concordia College, Minnesota State University Moorhead and NDSU. Grand entries are scheduled for 1 p.m. and 7 p.m. A meal is planned for 5 p.m.

Defensive driving course scheduled

Robin Reidman, North Dakota Department of Transportation, is scheduled to give a defensive driving course at 12:30-4:30 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 13, in Sudro Hall, room 26.

Fleet Services requires people who operate fleet vehicles, on at least a monthly basis, to take the National Safety Council Defensive Driving Course (DDC) as soon as practical after accepting employment and every four years thereafter. Training for people who operate fleet vehicles less than monthly is at the discretion of agency trainers or risk managers.

Fleet Services also requires those who have been involved in a motor vehicle accident with a State Fleet vehicle or those who have received a traffic citation while operating a State Fleet vehicle in the past 12 months to attend the DDC course within the calendar year of the accident or citation.

The University Police and Safety Office (UP&SO) encourages people who operate State Fleet vehicles less than monthly to attend the DDC class also, keeping in mind that priority will be given to those who meet the requirements above. Class size is limited to 40 people.

For registration, contact Bill Vandal with the UP&SO at william.vandal@ndsu.edu or 1-5637.

'Masculinity' brown bag scheduled

The YMCA of NDSU brown bag seminar "Masculinity, Men and Boys" is scheduled for noon-1 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 31, in the Memorial Union Prairie Rose room.

Multicultural Student Services staff will facilitate a discussion on the topic of masculinity, men and boys after viewing the film, "HIP-HOP: Beyond Beats and Rhymes."

Brown bag seminars are held at noon Wednesdays in the Memorial Union. The events are free and open to the public. For more information, contact Sue Andrews at 1-5225.

Office of International Programs to sponsor passport drive

As part of International Education Week, a passport drive is scheduled for 10 a.m.-2 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 15, in the Memorial Union Plains Ballroom.

Individuals can apply for a new passport or renew an expiring passport. Applicants must bring a certified copy of their birth certificate and another form of identification such as a driver's license, a military ID or government ID. A social security card or student ID are not sufficient forms of identification.

The passport drive is open to the public. Applications are available at travel.state.gov/passport. For more information on processing times, go to travel.state.gov/passport/get/processing/processing\_1740.html.

For more information, contact Sara Johnson, Office of International Programs, at 1-7895 or sara.j.johnson@ndsu.edu. More information also is available at www.ndsu.nodak.edu/International/PassportDrive.shtml.

Pharmaceutical Sciences Research Lecture Series to begin in November

The NDSU Department of Pharmaceutical Sciences is beginning a new lecture series. Stephen Lory, professor of microbiology and molecular genetics at Harvard Medical School, Boston, is scheduled to give the first lecture of the Pharmaceutical Sciences Research Lecture Series.

The seminar, titled "Transcriptional and Post-transcriptional Regulatory Networks Control the Expression of Virulence Genes," is scheduled for 8:30 a.m. Tuesday, Nov. 6, in Sudro Hall, room 22.

Lory also is the director of the Center of Genome Applications and Therapeutics at Harvard Medical School, and serves as director for the Small Molecule Screening Core Facility at the New England Regional Center of Excellence for Biodefense and Emerging Infectious Diseases Research, also at Harvard Medical School.

His major research efforts are directed towards understanding the molecular basis of pathogenesis of human infections caused by gram-negative bacteria. Lory's laboratory utilizes DNA microarrays (chips) to analyze global patterns of gene expression during infection, both in the bacterium and the host.

He has more than 100 publications in peer-reviewed journals, two books and 20 reviews.

The seminar is open to all persons interested in pharmaceutical and biomedical research. For more information, contact Jagdish Singh, professor and chair of pharmaceutical sciences, at 1-7943.

SHORTS AND REMINDERS

Music lessons available

Music lessons in voice, piano, violin, guitar and other instruments are available to all NDSU students, faculty and staff depending on teacher availability. Lessons may be taken for credit. There is an applied lesson fee of $275 for the entire semester. For more information, contact the Division of Fine Arts office at 1-7932.

Game to be televised

Athletic department officials have announced the NDSU vs. Illinois State University game on Nov. 3 will be televised by KVLV-TV (Channel 11, Fargo) on the statewide NBC network with a 4:07 p.m. kickoff. The game was originally scheduled for 6 p.m.

Saddle and Sirloin club to sell smoked turkeys

The NDSU Saddle and Sirloin club is selling smoked turkeys in time for Thanksgiving. The money raised will help provide funds to Saddle and Sirloin Club members planning to attend the national Block and Bridle convention.

The turkeys cost $22 and will weigh between 12-14 pounds. They will be smoked in the NDSU Meat Science and Technology Laboratory.

Order forms are available at the front desk in Hultz Hall and at the Meat Science and Technology Laboratory, located in Sheppard Arena. Orders also can be placed by contacting the animal and range sciences department at 1-7641 or the Meat Science and Technology Laboratory at 1-8107. Orders must be placed by Wednesday, Nov. 7, and can be picked up in Sheppard Arena on Nov. 16, 19, 20 and 21.

Positions Available

Positions open and screening dates through the Office of Human Resources, Room 205, Old Main:

Communications Call Center Operator/#00018593
University Police and Safety Office
$26,500+/year
Nov. 8

Communications Call Center Supervisor/#00024953
University Police and Safety Office
$28,000+/year
Nov. 8

Nutrition Education Assistant, EFNEP/#00018544
Expanded Food and Nutrition Education Program
Office headquarters at the United Tribes Technical College
Bismarck, N.D.
$16,740/year
9 months; 40 hours per week
Contingent on availability of Federal Funds
Open until filled

Nutrition Education Assistant, EFNEP
Expanded Food and Nutrition Education Program
NDSU Extension Service-Fort Berthold
New Town, N.D.
$22,318/year
12 months; 40 hours per week
Contingent on availability of federal funds
Open until filled

Lead Food Service Worker/#00020670
9 months (August-May); 40 hours per week
Monday-Friday, weekend rotation; 6:30 a.m.-3 p.m.
Dining Services-Memorial Union
$9+/hour
Nov. 2

Equipment Operator
Facilities Management
$22,000+/year
Oct. 31 (re-opened)

P.M. Custodian/#00021701
9 months (August-May); 40 hours/week
Monday-Friday, 1-9:30 p.m.
Dining Services-Memorial Union
$8.45+/hour
Open until filled

Custodian/#00020733
12 months
Monday-Friday, 6:30 a.m.-3 p.m.
Summer hours may vary
Dining Services-West Dining Center
$8.45+/hour
Open until filled

Heating Plant Operator (Entry Level)
Rotating Shifts-Full-time, seasonal position
Less than 8 months
Facilities Management
$11.50/hour
Nov. 2

Staff Scientist
Chemistry and Molecular Biology
$30,000+/year
Nov. 1

Animal Scientist/#00020127
Central Grasslands Research Extension Center
Streeter, N.D.
Salary commensurate with experience
Open until filled

Instructional Services Consultant/#00023560
Information Technology Services
Salary commensurate with experience
Nov. 9

Systems Administrator/#00020192
Information Technology Services
Salary commensurate with experience
Nov. 9

IT Systems Developer/#00026120
Center for Nanoscale Science and Engineering (CNSE)
50,000+/year
Nov. 5 (re-opened)

Assistant Director for Technology Transfer/
Licensing Associate/#00018514
Sponsored Programs Administration/
NDSU Research Foundation
Salary commensurate with experience
Open until filled

Database and System Services Manager/#00021790
Information Technology Services (ITS)
Salary commensurate with experience
Open until filled

Programmer Analyst
NDUS ConnectND
Fargo
$41,500+/year
Open until filled

Position openings also are available through the NDSU Web site at www.ndsu.edu/jobs.

CALENDAR

October

- 31 YMCA of NDSU—brown bag seminar, “Masculinity, Men and Boys,” noon, Memorial Union, Prairie Rose
- 31 Soil Science Seminar—Dale Enerson, North Dakota Farmers Union, “Carbon Sequestration in CRP,” 3 p.m., Loftsgard Hall, Room 114
- 31 Men’s basketball vs. Bemidji State University, 7 p.m., Bison Sports Arena

November

- 1 Entomology Seminar—Louis S. Hesler, research entomologist, “Bird Cherry-Oat Aphid: More than just an Aphid Pest,” 10:30 a.m., USDA-ARS Northern Crops Science Laboratory
- 1-9 Baccalaureate exhibition—Jenna Heinle, Downtown Gallery, 650 NP Ave. Reception 5 p.m. Friday, Nov. 2.
- 2 Animal and Range Sciences—Leslie Lekatz, NDSU graduate student, “The Good, The Bad, The Ugly: Pros, Cons and Controversy of Sow Confinement Crates,” 3 p.m., Hultz Hall 104
- 2 Psychology Colloquium—Jennifer Muehlenkamp, University of North Dakota, “Relationships Between Suicide and Non-Suicidal Self-Injury in Youth,” 3:30 p.m., Minard Annex 138
- 2 Plant Sciences 790 Seminar—Andrzej Noyszewski, graduate student, “Biotechnology, Media and Public Opinion: How We Create Opinions,” 3:30 p.m., Loftsgard Hall, Room 114
- 2 Men’s basketball vs. Minnesota State University Moorhead, 7 p.m., Bison Sports Arena
- 3 Football vs. Illinois State University, 4 p.m., Fargodome
- 4 Gold Star Marching Band: Sounds of the Gridiron Concert, 2 p.m., Bentson Bunker Fieldhouse. Free admission.
- 5 Art Cinema Series—“Fur: an Imaginary Portrait of Diane Arbus,” 7 p.m., Fargo Theatre. Admission $5.
- 5 Women’s basketball vs. University of Minnesota-Crookston (Exhibition), 7 p.m., Bison Sports Arena
- 5 Woodwind Chamber Night Concert, 7:30 p.m., Beckwith Recital Hall. Free admission.

- 6 American Indian Heritage Event—Stan Williams, Ojibwe spiritual leader, Ojibwe culture presentation, prayer and pipe ceremony, 9:30 a.m., Memorial Union Arikara room
- 6 Science, Religion and Lunch Seminar—Syed Ahmad, “Evidence on the Sojourn of Jesus to India,” noon, Memorial Union, Mandan Room
- 8 Flu Shot Clinic, 9 a.m.-4:30 p.m., Memorial Union Prairie Rose Room. The cost is $20.
- 8 Faculty Recital—Michael Thrasher, clarinet, 7:30 p.m., Beckwith Recital Hall. Free Admission.
- 7 American Indian Heritage Event—Cedric Wildbill, maker of the film “American Cowboys,” presentation and discussion, noon, Memorial Union Century Theatre
- 7 Soil Science Seminar—Chris Perleberg, graduate student, “Correlation of Iron Chlorosis and Salinity Tolerance in Soybean Cultivars,” 3 p.m., Loftsgard Hall, Room 114
- 8 Entomology Seminar—Pat MacKay, University of Manitoba, and Bob Lamb, Cereal Research Center at Agriculture and Agri-Food Canada, “Aphids and Entomologists in the Woods: Population Dynamics of an Aphid on its Native Host,” 10:30 a.m., USDA-ARS Northern Crops Science Laboratory
- 8 American Indian Heritage Event—Mary Louise Defender Wilson, elder and traditional storyteller from Standing Rock Sioux Indian Reservation, “Stories and Traditions of the Dakotah Sioux,” 12:30 p.m., Memorial Union Century Theatre
- 9 Psychology Colloquium—Bradford Brown, University of Wisconsin, “Does Mom Really Need to Know? Parent Information Seeking and Adolescent Censorship of Information About Peers,” 3:30 p.m., Minard Annex 138
- 9 Plant Sciences 790 Seminar—Mike Ostlie, graduate student, “Allelochemicals in Wheat for Reducing Resistant Weed Populations,” 3:30 p.m., Loftsgard Hall, Room 114
- 9 Volleyball vs. Oral Roberts University, 7 p.m., Bentson Bunker Fieldhouse
- 9 NDSU Baroque Festival: Opera Theatre presents “Dido and Aeneas” by Henry Purcell, 7:30 p.m., Festival Concert Hall. Tickets are $10 for adults and $5 for students.
- 10 Volleyball vs. Centenary College, 7 p.m., Bentson Bunker Fieldhouse
- 11 NDSU Baroque Festival: Baroque Chamber Concert, 2 p.m., Festival Concert Hall. Tickets are $15 for adults, $12 for seniors and $5 for students.
- 12 Veterans Day holiday observed—university closed
- 13 Career Center—Tri-College Career and Internship Fair, noon-4 p.m., Ramada Plaza Suites
- 13 Science, Religion and Lunch Seminar—Tony Flood, “Non-scientific Presuppositions of Popular Scientific Movements,” noon, Memorial Union, Mandan Room
- 13 NDSU Saxophone Quartets Concert, 7:30 p.m., Beckwith Recital Hall. Free Admission.
- 14 YMCA of NDSU—brown bag seminar, “North Dakota State Government and North Dakota American Indian Tribal Government Relations,” noon, Memorial Union, Prairie Rose
- 14 Multicultural Student Services—Community of Color Town Hall, noon-1 p.m., Century Theatre, Memorial Union
- 14 Soil Science Seminar—Keith Anderson, graduate student, “Ghost Natrics and Poor Man’s Fargo: Soils with no Home in Taxonomy,” 3 p.m., Loftsgard Hall, Room 114
- 14 Physics—Jennifer Hovis, Purdue University, Department of Chemistry, “Transforming Lipids from Passive to Active Participants in Cellular Function,” 4 p.m., South Engineering 221
- 14 Men’s basketball vs. Minot State University, 7 p.m., Bison Sports Arena
- 14 Brass Chamber Night, 7:30 p.m., Beckwith Recital Hall. Free Admission.
- 14-18 Little Country Theatre—“The Cherry Orchard,” 7:30 p.m. Wednesday-Saturday, 2 p.m. Sunday, Walsh Studio Theatre. Tickets are $12 for adults; $10 for seniors, NDSU faculty, staff, alumni and non-NDSU students; and $4 for NDSU students.
- 15 American Indian Heritage Event—Indian Taco Sale, 11 a.m.-2 p.m., University Lutheran Student Center
- 15 Entomology Seminar—Steven S. Xu, research geneticist at USDA-ARS Cereal Crops Research Unit, “Identification and Genetic Characterization of Hessian Fly Resistance in Synthetic Wheat,” 10:30 a.m., USDA-ARS Northern Crops Science Laboratory
- 15 World iView Speaker Series—Heather Gill-Robinson, assistant professor of sociology/anthropology, “International Mummy Studies: Unwrapping History,” noon, Memorial Union, Prairie Rose Room
- 15 Baccalaureate exhibition—Ryan Graba, Downtown Gallery, 650 NP Ave. Reception 5 p.m. Friday, Nov. 16.
- 16 History Colloquium—Suzanne Kelley, graduate student, dissertation research on memory artists of the Great Plains, 3 p.m., Morrill Hall 107
- 16 Psychology Colloquium—Mikel Olson, Concordia College, “The Involvement of the Structural Regulatory Proteins MMP-3 and Cortactin in Associative Memory Formation,” 3:30 p.m., Minard Annex 138
- 16 Plant Sciences 790 Seminar—Fabio Pedraza-Garcia, graduate student, “A Tale of Gluttony: Wine and Polyphenols,” 3:30 p.m., Loftsgard Hall, Room 114
- 16 Women’s basketball vs. University of Idaho, time to be determined, Bison Sports Arena

- 17 Men's basketball vs. North Carolina Central University, 7 p.m., Bison Sports Arena
- 19 LunchBytes Series—"Available 'Power Tools' for Blackboard!" 12:10-12:50 p.m., Memorial Union, Rose Room
- 19 Percussion Ensemble Concert, 7:30 p.m., Festival Concert Hall. Tickets are $5 for adults and $2 for students and seniors.
- 20 American Indian Heritage Event—NDSU Anti-Racism Team presents "Share the Wealth," 12:30 p.m., Memorial Union Hidatsa room
- 20 NDSU Division of Fine Arts and Fargo-Moorhead Symphony present "Vienna Boys Choir Holiday Concert," 7:30 p.m., Festival Concert Hall. Tickets are $30 for adults, $24 for seniors and $15 for students.
- 21 Soil Science Seminar—Roxanne Johnson, graduate student, "Mineral Toxicosis: The Research of Tolerable Levels in Livestock Water," 3 p.m., Loftsgard Hall, Room 114
- 22 Thanksgiving holiday—university closed
- 28 YMCA of NDSU—brown bag seminar, "HIV/AIDS," noon, Memorial Union, Prairie Rose
- 28 Soil Science Seminar—Dan Sawatzky, undergraduate student, "The Red River Basin Riparian Project: Helping Minimize Environmental Pollution," 3 p.m., Loftsgard Hall, Room 114
- 28 Soil Science Seminar—Deven Styczynski, undergraduate student, "Deep Tillage Analysis," 3 p.m., Loftsgard Hall, Room 114
- 29-Dec. 7 Baccalaureate exhibition—Kathy Chornuk, Downtown Gallery, Reineke Visual Arts Gallery. Reception 5 p.m. Friday, Nov. 30.
- 29 Men's basketball vs. Mayville State University, 7 p.m., Bison Sports Arena
- 30 Psychology Colloquium—Linda Langley, NDSU assistant professor of psychology, "Aging and the Time Course of Attention," 3:30 p.m., Minard Annex 138
- 30 Plant Sciences 790 Seminar—Juan Caffarel, graduate student, "Wheat Production and Global Warming," 3:30 p.m., Loftsgard Hall, Room 114
- 30- Dec. 2 Annual Madrigal Dinners featuring the NDSU Opera Theatre "Amahl and the Night Visitors" by Menotti. Dinner and Opera, 6 p.m. Tickets are $35. Opera only, 8 p.m. Tickets are $20. Fargo-Moorhead Opera Family Matinee, Dec. 1, 11 a.m. and 1 p.m.

Non-discrimination Policy

"North Dakota State University does not discriminate in employment decisions or educational programs and activities on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex (gender), disability, age, Vietnam Era Veterans status, sexual orientation, status with regard to marriage or public assistance, or participation in lawful activity off the employer's premises during nonworking hours which is not in direct conflict with the essential business-related interests of the employer." Inquiries regarding the non-discrimination policies can be directed to the Executive Director and Chief Diversity Officer, 202 Old Main, (701) 231-7708.

University Relations

North Dakota State University

PO Box 5167

Fargo, ND 58105