Where Bison Tread

CONVOCAATION TODAY AT 11:15

The Royal Party . . .

Farm Transfer Authorities To Speak November 2-3

Dr. Marshall Harris from the United States Department of Agriculture in Washington and Mr. E. B. Hill from Michigan State college will visit the NDAC campus on November 2 and 3. They will conduct a clinic on family farm transfer from one generation to another.

Dr. Harris and Mr. Hill are touring

13 north central states under the auspices of the Regional Land Tenure committee.

A discussion will be held Wednesday, November 2 in Morrill hall from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. The subject will be "What can we do to improve conditions on which the farm can be passed on without excessive debts, small parts portioned out, or unfairness to family members?"

Anyone who has had any experience in farm transfer or wants to discuss such a problem see Dr. Schickele who will arrange a personal interview with Dr. Harris and Mr. Hill.

Dr. Harris is an authority on family farm and tenure problems. He has written several books, the latest one is "Family Farm Policy." Mr. Hill is a professor of farm management at East Lansing, Michigan. He has much experience in developing father and son arrangements and wills to transfer farms.

Engineers To Meet

An important meeting of the Engineers club will be held Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in room 22 of the Engineering building. This meeting is important to all engineers who are also requested to watch for questionnaires on Monday.

Casts Chosen For The Village Fair One-Act Plays

Casts have been chosen for the four one act plays which will be presented at the Village Fair in the Little Country Theater on Wednesday, at 7:30.

The four classes will compete with casts and directors chosen from the respective classes. The plays are supervised by the play production class under the direction of Alfred B. Arvold.

The cast of the senior production, "The Clod," includes Jack O'Clairion, Shirley Brua, Clink McGeary, John Hesse and Clair Hougum. Directors are Jim Dawson, Charles Bertel, Donna Borman and Carolyn Allen.

"Sparkin'" directed by Don Stewart has been cast from the junior class with Jean Davis, Lois Cunningham, Rosemarie Lohse and Paul Erickson taking part.

Margaret Eininger is directing the sophomore production of "The Flattering Word." Members of the cast include Beverly Kurst, Norma Rypka, Phyllis Gorder and Kenneth Ketchner.

Rehearsing in the freshman play, "Goodnight, Please," are Jim Schrimph, Robert Velure, Gail Lohse, Iona Dazell, John Rushfieldt, Marlin Jenson, and Rhoda Israelson. Jean Moll is directing the play.

Final Plans Completed For Homecoming

With high hopes for bright blue weather and a Bison victory final plans have been completed for Homecoming festivities. The kick-off will be made at convocation this morning with the Rahjaks leading the cheers. Classes will be dismissed after convo.

In a preview game the Papooses tangle with Yearlings at Dakota Field tonight at 7:00. After the game Rahjaks plans include a bonfire and snake dance in downtown Fargo.

Fraternity and sorority house decorations must be completed by 6:00 p.m. and will be judged sometime this evening.

The parade is scheduled to be organized at twelfth and twelfth by 9:00 a.m. The procession will move down twelfth avenue to Broadway and will disband on eighth street and second avenue south.

The colorful procession will be headed by a police escort. They will be followed by the honored guests including Governor and Mrs. Aandahl, President and Mrs. Hultz, President and Mrs. West of NDU, Colonel and Mrs. Lovsnes, Major and Mrs. Phillips, Mayor and Mrs. Dawson and the board of higher education.

Marching with the ROTC Battalion will be members of Guidon, honorary auxiliary of Scabbard and Blade. Wahpeton and Breckenridge High School bands will march in the parade with the Gold Star band.

Eighteen floats will also take part in the parade. These floats will be judged and winners will be announced at half-time at the game.

Queen Eunice Toussaint and her attendants, Rosemary Sullivan and Doris Holzman, with their honor guard will add the final touch to the pageantry.

Registration for alumni and former students will be after the parade at the Elks club. Three members will be elected to the Alumni Board at the business meeting during the morning. A luncheon is scheduled for 12:00. A Coffee Bar will be in operation after the game in the College Y for all alumni and former students.

Kick-off time for the traditional gridiron clash between the Sioux and the Bison will be 2:00 p.m. Half-time activities at the game include the crowning of the Queen Eunice, introduction of honored guests and presentation of the float and house decoration awards. The winning floats will circle the stadium. The Gold Star band will also present a drill and review.

After the game fraternity and sorority houses will throw open their doors to students, alumni and friends.

The festivities will be rounded out by the informal dance from 8:00 to 12:00 p.m. at the Field House with Jan Garber and his orchestra providing the tops in dance music.

Olson To Speak To Camera Club

The NDAC Camera club will hear Dan Olson, Fargo photographer, at a meeting Tuesday evening at the college Y.

The subject of Olson's talk will be "Developing Technique for Beginners."

The meeting will be held in the Fireside room at 8.

Open Houses Set For After Game

Open houses will be held after the game at Dacotah field at 2 p.m. Saturday in conjunction with homecoming activities at NDAC.

Those in charge of fraternity open houses will be Bill Ackenhansen, ATO; Frank Hayashi, SAE; Harlan Holly, Sigma Chi; Curtis Bloomquist, Sigma Phi Delta; and Jim Bundy, Theta Chi.

Sorority open houses will be under the direction of Virginia Arneson, Gamma Phi Beta; Junette Hill, Kappa Alpha Theta; Catherine Dowswell, Kappa Kappa Gamma; and Marilyn Allen, Phi Mu.

NDAC's Gold Star Band will entertain at a coffee hour after the game for bands from NDU, Wahpeton high school and Breckenridge high school.

All alumni will register at 11 a.m. at the Elks Club. Following registration, a lunch will be served at the club at 12 noon. After the lunch a meeting will be held at which time three members of the Board of Directors will be elected.

'49 Graduate In N. Y. City

Miss Anne Stegner, NDAC '49, of Amidon, N. Dak., has begun a three-month period of full time employment at Russeks Fifth Avenue, one of New York City's largest department stores as part of her training at the New York University School of Retailing, Dean Charles M. Edwards announced recently.

Under the store-service plan of the school of retailing, graduate students are able to combine classroom training with practical on-the-job experience.

While at NDAC Miss Stegner was president of Panhellenic council, a member of Guidon, Senior Staff, Women's Senate and Tryota. She was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta Fraternity, and co-editor of the Bison Yearbook. Her name may be found listed in Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges. She was also selected one of twelve representative seniors for 1949.

Religious Emphasis Week Set Oct. 31-Nov. 3 Moberg Heads Geographers

HOHN

Four Speakers To Present "Major In Christ" During Week

This year "Religious Emphasis" week should be one of the most outstanding that NDAC has had. It will be held October 31 through November 3.

This year's theme of "Major in Christ" will be presented to the students and faculty by four very outstanding speakers.

Reverend Thomas Craig McQueen will speak at convocation Tuesday on the topic, "One Way to Peace and Security." His topic for the rest of the week will be "Christian International Relations." Reverend McQueen is the minister at Westminster Congregational church in Spokane, Washington.

Dr. Edgar M. Carlson, president of Gustavus Adolphus college, will use as his topic for the week, "Christian Ethics and the College Student."

Dr. Roland Gilbert Hohn of the First Methodist church will, by popular demand, be this year's speaker on "Courtship and Marriage."

Father Hovda of St. Mary's Cathedral in Fargo will speak on the topic, "Campus Living."

The program for the week will include visitation of classes by the speakers. At this time the speakers will speak briefly, then they will give the students in the class a chance to ask questions and "talk back."

Monday evening each fraternity and sorority will have a guest speaker. He will dine with the members and then have a discussion on a topic of their choice.

Tuesday morning at 9:40 a convocation will be held at which time Reverend McQueen will speak, and the program for the week will be presented.

Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday at 3:00 in the college "Y" the speakers will each have a conference hour at which time students may go to them for individual discussions. From 4:00 to 5:30 Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday each of the speakers will lead a seminar in the college "Y".

Everyone is invited to attend these events. Programs will be distributed on the campus Monday so that each person may have a copy of the weeks program.

The Religious Emphasis week is sponsored by the faculty and student members of the NDAC Religious council in co-operation with campus religious and social organizations. August Aamodt is chairman of the Religious Emphasis week committee.

McQUEEN

HOVDA

W. W. Moberg was recently elected President of the North Dakota Geographers association. This climaxed the meeting held for the purpose of discussing the shortage of geography instructors in North Dakota.

Mr. Moberg and Dick Moore, a student in geography, were representing N.D.A.C. at the convention in Valley City.

Pye Was Guest At ASCE Meeting

Dr. W. D. Pye, of the geology department, was featured as guest speaker at the American Society of Civil Engineers' bi-monthly meeting held October 18, 1949. Dr. Pye talked on oil possibilities in North Dakota.

A film on the do's and don'ts of hunting called "Careless Harry" highlighted the program.

Refreshments of coffee and doughnuts were served at the close of the meeting.

Although the attendance of the ASCE meetings has been good, C. B. Christianson, program chairman, urges any civil engineering student, sophomore year or above, to attend these meetings. He stated that a fine calendar of programs has been planned for the rest of the year.

Miss Rausch Heads Pharmacy Club

Rosamond Rausch, junior in pharmacy, was recently elected president of the North Dakota Pharmacy club.

Other officers elected are: Donald Krueger, vice-president; Patricia Lazenby, secretary; and Owen Jones, treasurer.

Jane Sand was in charge of refreshments for the meeting.

Meetings Set For Next Week

CHEMISTRY CLUB

On Thursday, November 3, at 1:15 p.m., the Chemistry club will take a trip to the plant of the American Crystal Sugar Company in Moorhead, Minn.

The group will be conducted through the new sugar beet processing facility by Mr. H. M. Bauserman, chief chemist, who will explain operations from the washing of the incoming beets to the final purification.

Dr. R. T. Wendland of the organic chemistry department will discuss briefly the processes involved before the group leaves.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

The International Relations Club will meet in the Fireside Room of the "Y" at 7:00 Tuesday. The meeting will be centered around the broadcast of Town Meeting of the Air. A discussion will be held after the broadcast.

AG ECON SEMINAR

An agricultural economics seminar will be held next Thursday at 4 p.m. in room 215, Morrill hall.

Speaker for the event will be Dr. Rainer Schickele. His topic will be, "What About The Brannon Plan?"

INDEPENDENT STUDENTS ASSOCIATION

The ISA will hold a business meeting Monday evening at 7:00 in the College Y. Plans for a membership drive will be discussed. All old and new members are urged to attend.

AIEE Hears Bauserman

The chief chemist of the American Crystal Sugar Company in Moorhead, H. M. Bauserman, was the guest speaker at the meeting of the student branch of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers on Thursday, October 27.

Mr. Bauserman explained the steps in the manufacturing from raw sugar beets to the pure crystal sugar which we use. The percentage of recovery and the numerous by-products of sugar were also explained.

This speech was the climax of a field trip that the students of the AIEE made to the Moorhead plant last year.

Mr. Bauserman is a graduate of the University of Denver, and held the position of chief chemist in the Nebraska, Colorado, and California sugar plants before coming to Moorhead.

Flax Meeting Set At Minneapolis

The Flax Institute of America will hold its annual meeting November 3 and 4, at Minneapolis, Minnesota. Dr. H. L. Walster of NDAC is president of this organization.

The meeting is sponsored by leading flax seed and soybean crushing companies. Representatives of these companies will be present and give addresses. Dr. E. J. Mitchell, chairman of the flax development committee, will act as host at the meetings.

Attending from NDAC will be: H. L. Walster, L. P. Waldron, R. B. Widdifield, I. T. Dietrich, W. Colberg, O. M. Gronaas, O. A. Heggeness, E. J. Mitchell, G. S. Smith, T. E. Stoa and H. H. Flor.

Dean Leita Davy On Radio As The 'Voice of Home Ec'

Beginning October 31 at 10:45 a.m. each day, Monday through Friday, the "Voice of Home Economics," Dean Leita Davy, Ph.D., will be heard over KVNJ.

The first in the series of programs will consist of features dealing with Thanksgiving and the second with Christmas.

Broadcast directly from Dean Leita Davy's office in Ceres hall, the programs are presented by home economics faculty members and students interested in radio work, a new opening to home economists.

Chemistry Senior Gets Scholarship

Blair Smallwood of Minot, North Dakota, a senior at NDAC majoring in paint chemistry, has been named to receive the Knight's Templar scholarship of $100 for the 1949-50 school year. The award is presented each year to a NDAC senior on the basis of need, merit, personality, and scholarship.

Last year, as a junior, Mr. Smallwood was co-winner of the Forman-Ford award which is presented on a scholarship basis. Smallwood was also an outstanding student in Minot high school.

As a senior in high school he won second place in the state Elks club "most valuable student contest." He was also co-valedictorian of his graduating class.

Smallwood is active in campus affairs at NDAC. Upon graduation from NDAC in June, 1950, he plans to do graduate work at NDAC.

Christine Pollock Speaks To Staff And Notes Club

The first bi-monthly meeting of the Staff and Note Club assembled Thursday night, October 20 in the music room of Festival hall.

Featured on the program was a discussion of the Goethe Bi-centennial Festival at Aspen, Colorado by Miss Christine Pollock, guest of the club. This festival was organized to awaken Americans to a further appreciation of the value of character and art. It centered around Goethe, one of the worlds greatest scholar-poets.

Several of the members brought guests and a representative of the Fargo Music Club, Mrs. W. S. Shaw, attended. It was proposed the Fargo Music club sponsor the Staff and Notes Club of the NDAC. The acceptance of this proposal would bring the club in closer contact with music organizations throughout the state and nation.

Also on the program was a piano solo "Reflections In The Water," by De Bussy played by Maxine Sill, and a short talk on summer music festivals by Bette Ackermann.

WSSF Plans Made For Future Drive

WSSF held their first meeting of the year on Thursday, October 20.

Plans were drawn up for the WSSF day on January 13. These include a morning convocation at which the WSSF drive will be explained and a faculty auction held, followed by the serving of coffee. In the evening, there will be a faculty basketball game with a dance and carnival afterwards. Various groups will sponsor concessions and booths at the carnival.

YW-YM Meeting Set Next Week-End

The annual fall North Dakota area conference of the YWCA and YMCA will be held in Grand Forks on November 11, 12, and 13.

Ruby Anderson and Les Stine are area representatives from NDAC. They do the planning of the conference, which includes picking speakers and making up program plans.

The theme of the conference will be "The Place of the Y on the Campus."

Dr. Schmidt, personal director at NDAC, will speak on a panel discussion.

Schmidt Reads Personalities

"Personality can be read in the painting that you smear with your finger tips," says Mr. Carl H. Schmidt, director of personnel.

To prove it he had a class in the arts department select any paint of their own choice, dip their fingers in it and begin smearing on a sheet of paper, any design that came into their mind.

The color that you choose, also gives the psychologist a valuable clue to your personality. Red denotes temperament, blue denotes morbidness or moodiness and violet denotes cheerfulness.

Unfortunately there weren't enough different colors to choose from so that the test given by Mr. Schmidt was not as good as might have been anticipated. The class was well entertained, while some of the students were pleasantly surprised to hear that their personalities were well adjusted to social organization.

Alpha Phi Omega Pledges Nine

Eight students and one advisor were pledged to Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, in ceremonies last week in the College Y. Pledging was conducted by Jack Lambie, chapter president and Burton Barr, vice-president.

New pledges are George Rott, Bill Ackenhansen, Norman Ulsaker, Max Larson, Bruce Hoel, Rodger Lambie, Clifford Lynch, and Bob Tenneson. Advisor pledged was M. T. Kempenich, local assistant scout executive.

able, consist of stitchery from various countries and show the various designs created by weaving, embroidery, and color choice.

A "tied and dyed" square of material from India is interesting because of the way it is made. The portions of the material which you do not want dyed are tied tightly by string, then the material is dyed. Later these portions may be dyed by tying the other portion, thus creating interesting designs.

A calendar from Budapest, Hungary is very interesting. Each page consists of a beautiful picture and the days of one week only. Therefore, one of these calendars have fifty-two pages instead of twelve.

Dry milk-weed plants and an old scraggly branch make up two lovely displays put up by the art instructors. The milk-weed is displayed in a jar against a blanket, predominantly red in color, and the red is repeated in paper under the jar. The white, silky fuzz of the burst seed pods makes a pleasing effect against the red. Looking at the second display, you may think that the art instructors are odd, but it really is a very pleasing display. The scraggly branch of a tree is displayed in such a manner that you notice its pleasing lines and how it goes with the room, not the fact that it is "just a branch."

SAI Pledges 12

Sigma Alpha Iota, national honorary music sorority, pledged twelve girls at their meeting Wednesday night in the Fireside room of the Y.

The girls who were pledged are: Georgia Hanson, Donna Irgens, Hildegaard Kreiselmaier, Mavis Kirby, Natalie Leiseth, Barbara Paulson, Norma Schultz, Marlene Severtson, Nancy Smith, and Rosemary Warren, all students. Also pledged were Miss Peterson and Miss Nahe, both teachers at the Consordia Conservatory of Music of Fargo.

Hoyman To Leave For Chicago

Dr. W. G. Hoyman of the NDAC plant pathology department will attend the regional technical committee for stone fruit virus diseases which will be held in Chicago, November 3-7.

The committee will try to divide the work among the represented states so the research on stone fruit virus may advance more rapidly.

Dr. Hoyman will also represent NDAC at the regional meeting of the entomology technical committee to be held November 6 in Chicago.

Sully Sez by Rosemary Sullivan

A tip of the hat and sincere best wishes are on tap for Eunice Toussaint, recently elected homecoming queen, who will reign over this gala weekend of fun, frolic and a humdinger of a Saturday afternoon football game. NDAC may be rightly proud of their charming queen. Mention might also be made of the remaining candidates who combined a week of hectic running around with much fun. On behalf of all these candidates, I am using the privilege of this column to sincerely thank each and every person who participated in the school elections as it was indeed a privilege to be considered as a candidate. Don't forget the open houses after the game for if this weather continues a hot cup of java will just hit the spot about that time.

Mixed in with feverish last minute details on floats and developments of house decoration, the Sigs took time out to pledge John Jackson of Chaffee. Greeting you at the Phi Mu house on Saturday will be Joyce Finley and Joan Hague, two new recently elected pledges.

Candy made its appearance at several pot lucks Monday evening. Jean Hanson did the honors at the K. D. house displaying her charming ring from Carl Monson. Connie Aas and Mavis Bean came home from a hunting trip with several fowl plus a sparkler on Mavis' left hand. Ain't that the limit now? Mary Jo Carvell and

Virginia Peterson are both wearing Frat pins this week also, compliments of Walt Seba and Harry Gilbertsn. Bettilu Schmierer, who is pinned to Landis Jensen, passed candy at the Kappa house Monday evening to the chapter and several Theta Chi guests

Enuf said about pins. Since this column would be a total flop without an election return, Dakota hall sent the following bits of info. In addition to the previously elected officers, five new girls were elected to the Decota hall council last week. Those named were, Joan Legg, Viola Vossler, Elaine Lichtsinn, Pat Lazenby and Dorothy Sand.

Just a reminder about the bonfire tonight. This is one of those instances where all NDAC students can show an interest in their school. Don't let this be just another optional entertainment. Sure the float has to be finished, and perhaps there are some do or die parties to attend but why not work it out so that everyone is there rooting for their team. As was mentioned last week, remember this is your school and you are the spokes that turn the wheel for success or failure. The same holds true for the game on Saturday. Lets all try and sit in a body and really let 'er go on those yells. On Monday we should be able to say that the 1949 Homecoming was the most successful one in the history of our school.

Have fun, Everybody.

BY PAT O'LEARY

This convocation which you're about to take in promises to be one of the best ever shown on this campus. The laughs will be well worth taking the time.

Rumor has it that LaVern Freeh got quite a few votes for Homecoming Queen, as a result of that unwise shot of himself and the seven candidates.

Actually, if he had got it, it would have been one the best publicity stunts to ever hit the campus. Nationwide fame would have been ours. Of course, Freeh probably wouldn't have thought much of the whole idea.

Ginakus' bean barn, the news center of the campus, recently got a new cash register. This was deemed necessary after two "volunteers" to move the old one dropped it on each others' fingers. The resulting demands for free coffee were too much; the new register is much lighter.

We're having another snake dance this year. Here's hoping that nobody tries to "besiege City Hall," as the police put it, like they did two years ago—even if there is a new regime. Then, things were so hot that some city higher ups came out to old main and really raised the roof in the tower—so much that there was room to install the chimes. The moral of that story is, don't give anybody reason to raise the roof or you'll start a clash.

The other day, Jim Kanthack told somebody that he had to get a book in the library. Two hours later he was found trapped in the basement hole of the new library, unable to scale the walls. It turned out that he was looking for The Snake Pit.

General mayhem broke loose on campus last Tuesday night after the Lyceum Series program. When all the cars tried to leave campus at once, it became apparent that they were all of the old school: nobody knew the way out. On top of that it rained. So, with people stuck and parked all over, aided by drivers trying to back out of now dead end roads, an topped by the fact that nobody knew for sure where to go (several had definite ideas on where the campus as a whole could go, however), it was quite a jumble for a while.

The climax came when one frustrated motorist headed out along the green mall where the old main road once stood. According to history that's how that old thoroughfare got started—just a couple ruts in the dirt. Maybe we can get something started again.

TOP HONORS went to Vic Horne in sheep judging at Kansas City. The NDAC team, composed of Hubert Ormberg, Clem Brigl, LeRoy Johnson, Lewellyn Tewksbury, and Horne, placed fifth in general competition, sixth in sheep and tied for fifth in cattle. The team of five AC students was coached by Merle Light, An. Husb. instructor.

QUOTE OF THE WEEK—Bob Geston, Agr. senior, says — "It is indeed strange that our athletic teams do not sweep all opposition off the map when you consider all the letter sweaters which are being worn on the campus. The trouble is that nine-tenths of these sweaters do not bear the letters 'N. D.' on them. Instead you see any number of letters from A to Z—which would not be bad were it not for all the accessories that go with them. I have observed that the latest in letter sweaters includes: (1.) No less than 4 stripes, a star, and a basketball on one arm; (2) football, winged foot, and a '49' on the other, and (3) the individuals name on one pocket and an Indian head, cat head or some other figure on the other.

If these boys were such heroes in high school I certainly wish they would come out and bolster our teams at N.D.S. Maybe a plain green sweater with a yellow "N.D." isn't quite good enough for them, but if they have any respect for this college I think they should put aside their high school 'glory-rags' and prove their ability in this institution." — Bob Geston.

FOREIGN STUDENT in Ag Engineering—John Garland of Nova Scotia, is working on his master's degree in rural electrification here. He received his B. S. from Mac Donald College in Quebec, Ontario.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK — John Page, Agr. junior, asks, "Wonder who is responsible for setting the date of Homecoming on this campus? Many would like to know."

Major Ed Wall, Harvard, '40 -Flying Executive, U.S. Air Force!

Born in Newark, N. J., he moved to Boston at an early age, graduated from the public Latin high school in 1936, entered Harvard the same year, where he majored in economics and government.

"Active on the campus" — he played football, earned his letter on the boxing team. He worked part-time in a variety of jobs from bouncer to baby sitter, received his AB degree in 1940.

He enrolled in Harvard Law School, left at the beginning of the war to become an Aviation Cadet. In December, 1942, he won his pilot's wings, received a Reserve commission as Second Lieutenant.

Assigned to anti-sub patrol duty, he flew B-25's and B-17's before going overseas in 1944, where he flew 30 missions as a B-24 pilot. Shot down over Germany, he was a prisoner of war for 3 months.

Back in the States with his English wife, he earned his Regular commission. Then he returned to Harvard under the Air Force college training program, receiving his LLB degree in 1949.

Now, he is confident about his future and security. As a pilot and legal officer of Bolling Air Force Base, D. C., Major Ed Wall is a typical U. S. Air Force flying executive . . . with a challenging career.

If you are single, between the ages of 20 and 26½, with at least two years of college, consider a flying career as an officer in the U. S. Air Force. You may be able to meet the high physical and moral requirements and be selected for training as an Aviation Cadet. If you do not complete Aviation Cadet training, you may return to civilian life or have opportunity to train at Officer Candidate School for an important officer assignment in non-flying fields.

Air Force officer procurement teams are visiting many colleges and universities to explain these career opportunities. Watch for their arrival—or get full details at your nearest Air Force Base, local recruiting station, or by writing to the Chief of Staff, U. S. Air Force, Attention: Aviation Cadet Branch, Washington 25, D. C.

Bison Look For Upset Against NDU Sioux

Paulsen's Pencil - -

BY JOHN PAULSEN
Here's A Little

lesson in psychology, from me to you, that I think is true. If you use the psychological process of repetition and tell a person often enough that he can do something, he'll eventually come to believe that he really can do it. And similarly, by using the psychology of conviction, if he really believes that he can do it, the chances are pretty good that he can. The analogy that I have in mind is obvious.

I've only seen UND play one game this year, and in it they weren't at their best. Nevertheless, they do have a pretty good club. To try, if you're an AC supporter, and analyze tomorrow's contest by a man-for-man appraisal of the respective playing rosters is suicide. Not only that, but Sioux improvement has been marked since opening game. I needn't elaborate on the progress of Bison improvement.

Still, I think NDAC can win tomorrow's game, and if the Bison players themselves think they can win it, I'm sure they will.

In trying to study the probable outcome of tomorrow's tilt, NDAC players might do well to dwell for a minute upon the importance of two words: Intensity and Quality. Past history has demonstrated, not only in UND-NDAC games but in Michigan-Minnesota, Army-Navy, Notre Dame-Southern California games and others as well, that intensity of effort is often more important than quality of performance in deciding the outcome.

Now, NDAC has decided personnel deficiencies on its football team. Compared to UND in manpower strength, the Bison are decidedly at a disadvantage. Nevertheless, while they would have no doubt lost most of the games they did so far this year, I doubt if the Herd would have been consistently mauled the way it was if Bison performers had played as hard as they could conceivably perform.

With the material at hand, I doubt if NDAC can play tomorrow much better than it has all year. But, I'm certain the club can perform a good deal harder than it has in any contest so far.

NDAC Players have been lambasted from pillar to post this fall, both on the field and off. They're not, at least generally, the campus heroes that football players are supposed to be. Tomorrow they could do a lot to go even with the board, by going out and performing like the outcome of the game was the most important thing in the world. Perhaps, to some people it is.

If they'd dig in and display just some good old college try, they'd be campus heroes—win, lose, or draw.

I think we've seen about all the quality NDAC can muster up this fall. I doubt if we've seen even half the intensity of effort.

NDAC student bodies—lethargic groups which take a dim view in pride of college and an even less enthusiastic concern about the college's reputation—have, if nothing else, to their everlasting credit the fact that in close to half a century of football competition between NDAC and NDU they have never once, despite omens of impending doom, deserted their school for this one important football game.

I'm sure that as Howard Bliss prepares his club for this game, the student body stands behind him to help protect their reputations, his job, and their school's football team from a disastrous predicament.

This is a last ditch effort tomorrow. It doesn't matter particularly to you whether or not NDAC wins or loses. You'll go right on living as will, in fact, Bliss and his ball players as well.

Still, if NDAC is going to continue to compete in intercollegiate football something has got to be done, and done soon. If you go out to Dacotah Field tonight to watch the freshmen perform, you'll see the only promising aspect on the football scene.

We can't expect Howard Bliss and his players to perform a miracle tomorrow. But, we can hope for one. UND is good. On paper, they're far superior to NDAC. But, they're also far from unbeatable.

A victory wouldn't transform the season into a success. But it would give a new breath of life to a situation that is far worse than a lot of people realize, and which has got to be remedied before another season if NDAC expects to continue in competition.

After watching NDAC against the Sioux last year, I have a lot of faith in their being able to win tomorrow. If you'd dropped around the department this week, I think you'd have caught the atmosphere, too.

I think the Bison are going to win tomorrow. And confident that they will win, I wish them luck. You know that you do too.

Homecoming Tilt Set For 2 With Large Crowd To Watch

BY JOHN PAULSEN
Local oddsmakers have installed North Dakota University as a strong favorite over NDAC when the two teams clash tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock on Dacotah field in the feature attraction of 1949 NDAC Homecoming festivities.

Last minute plans were being completed today for the gala celebration which gets officially underway this morning at 11:15 with an all-college pep rally.

A freshman football game and bonfire tonight, and the annual Homecoming parade in downtown Fargo tomorrow morning will precede tomorrow's tilt, which is expected to swell Dacotah field attendance to capacity.

Weather forecasters at Fargo promised typical "Finnegan weather" and said no rain was in sight for the Fargo area.

Sioux mentor Dick Miller, making his first appearance in one of the North Dakota classics, is expected to rely on his usual starting eleven. Fergus Falls' Mark Foss, an NCC all-conference selection last year, will join Al Thogerson at end positions for the visitors. Tom Gilman and co-captain Ken Von Rueden, a pair of Sioux veterans, will start at tackle slots for Miller's crew, with Larry Devine and co-captain Don Juelke of Oakes at guard positions. Norm Christianson is Miller's likely center nominee.

A quartet of NDU old hands are expected to open in Miller's backfield. Nancy Halpin will open as North Dakota university's T formation quarterback. Herb Claffy, who missed last year's Sioux-Bison fracas because of injuries, will pair with Vern Huber, who ran wild against the Herd in the 1947 affair, at halfback. Herb LaMoine will open at fullback for NDU.

Meantime, Bliss' lineup was indefinite. The Herd tutor was expected to rely on Dick Sander and Dom Gentile for end chores, with Al Keating and Dick Johnston likely tackle starters. Co-captain La-Verne Freeh will open at one guard position with Milton Resvick and Dave Olwin, Chicago place-kicker, sharing the other. Clarence McGearry will be at center for Bliss' men.

Dick Keeley is the likely Herd quarterback, with co-captain Neil Gustafson slated to open at left halfback. Ray Curtis, John Richards, Ken Hanson, and Eino Martino are on tap for the other two Bison backfield running posts.

C. C. Finnegan, NDAC athletic director, announced that special seating arrangements would be in force for tomorrow's game. Finnegan said NDAC Student Activity tickets would be honored only at South entrance ramps, and that only single game reserved seat ticket holders would be admitted to the North bleachers. Finnegan emphasized that NDAC students who wished to sit with parents or friends in reserved seats would have to purchase single game admissions for themselves and their friends.

Governor Fred G. Aandahl, assisted by Dr. Fred Hultz, NDAC President, will crown the homecoming queen at halftime ceremonies. Both the NDAC Gold Star band and the UND ROTC band will perform. North Dakota legislators. Mayor Charles A. Dawson, and members of the State Board of Higher Education will be guests at the game. House and float decoration awards will also be made at halftime.

NDAC leads, two games to one, in post-war grid competition between the two schools. Charley Basch and Jerry Mulready led the Bison to a smashing 31-0 victory in the 1946 game, played at Grand Forks. In a battle of mediocrity, NDU won 1947's game at Fargo, 25-20. Last year, Bliss' men upset Red Jarrett's men at Grand Forks, 19-6.

Three top Minneapolis officials—Omy Hahn, Les Barnard, and Bill Farrell—will rule over tomorrow's contest.

Bison Drop Sixth Tilt

Lose To Montana State 28-7 In Bozeman Game

With halfback Jack McDonald leading the way, Montana State drove to two first half touchdowns and were never headed as they trimmed NDAC 28-7 in a Saturday night game at Glendive, Montana, on October 22.

The contest, played before a small crowd, gave Montana State its second straight victory, and second win of the season. The Bobcats had lost four consecutive games previously. For the mediocre Bison—having one of their poorest seasons in years—it was the sixth straight licking.

McDonald, scampering for 20 and 25 yards, shot the winners into a 14-0 first quarter lead, and a scoreless second period left the halftime count at that figure.

Early in the third quarter an Ed Gorrilla to Ray Gallock pass sent Montana State out in front 21-0, after Bill Wilson had completed his third straight conversion from placement.

Later in the period, NDAC recovered a Montana State fumble on the Bison 38. The march to paydirt was culminated when quarterback Dick Keeley passed to end Dom Gentile for the first Bison touchdown. Dave Olwin converted.

The Bobcats were near Bison paydirt as the period ended, and on the second play of the final stanza, Loren Casey scored from the two yard line. Wilson's fourth straight conversion left the final score at 28-7.

Statistics-wise, Montana State had a heavy advantage. The Bobcats made 21 first downs to five for the losers.

It was the second straight victory for Montana State over Howard Bliss' Herd. The Bobcats won last year's game, 33-0.

Sport Spotlight

BY JOHN HESSE

Well, it's about that time of the year that you can throw all your record books into the corner for the weekend, and chuck your comparative scores out the window, because anything can happen Saturday when the Bison meet the fighting Sioux from North Dakota U. When these two teams meet past records and comparative scores don't mean much.

It seems that back in 1946 the Sioux and the Bison both had better than average teams. They met out at Memorial stadium at Grand Forks and the Bison came roaring through to a 31-0 win. Of course that year the Bison powerhouse boasted such stellar performers as Jerry Mulready, Dennis Drews, Bill Dietz, Sid Cichy, both Steve and Nick Vujovich, and two boys who won't be forgotten for their gridiron feats at NDAC. Charlie Basch, and little All American center Cliff (Bony) Rothrock.

The next season the Bison were sans many of their regulars from the rout the previous year. The Sioux were favored to run all over the down-staters, but they had a good fight on their hands as Drews led the lads, then coached by Stan Kostka, through a tough battle before bowing out in the last quarter by one touch-down.

Last year the Sioux were again top heavy favorites to cop the Big Nickel. But in typical underdog fashion the Bison took an early lead, had it tied and then exploded in the second half to snare the win, 19-6.

Those are just the games that have been played here in the life span of a senior. The upsets, freak plays, and all the tough battles have been going on for many years. It is a big game, in fact the big game of the year for both clubs.

No matter whether the Bison lose every other game all season, the fans always consider it a success if they can just knock off NDU. That is the peak of success for all concerned. Of course up north a little way, they feel the same way about it. They are out to take the game with everything that they have.

If the Bison do take the game this year, it will be an upset. The Sioux have a good team up there. They have been hot and cold so far this season, but they are just liable to be hot for this contest. They had a good game last weekend when they battled the South Dakota State split T attack to a standstill on a muddy field to take their own homecoming tilt, 19-0.

The Nodaks have quite a scoring threat in Cy Ducharme, a boy that hasn't been starting. However, Ducharme has been coming through in the pinch and scoring plenty for the Millermen. Right now there are some injuries in the Nodak line which are as yet not sure of their readiness for Saturday's Homecoming tilt. But even with these boys out of the line-up, the Sioux came through to massacre the Bunnies, and they could do it to the Bison.

If any inspiration were needed to get the Bison to dig in and scalp the Redmen, the fact that the freshmen topped the U yearlings in a 25-0 race at Grand Forks a couple of weeks back should do it. And while we are on the subject, here is a plug for the frosh game to be played tonight at Dacotah field.

It is going to be a whale of a game, and you won't be disappointed if you head out for Dacotah field tonight with the idea of seeing some good football. Those kids have a lot of fight, and they are the lads that are going to have to fill the positions on the varsity in the next few years. Let's all give them as much support as you are going to give the Bison regulars tomorrow afternoon.

You know, a few weeks ago I remarked about the great amount of upsets that were being featured in the North Central conference. Then last week I made mention of how it had spread. But look at things after last weekend. Minnesota downed by Michigan, the Mustangs of Southern Methodist gave it to Kentucky right where it hurts, in the end-zone, and Louisiana State dropping Choo-Choo Justice and his North Carolina crew. apt to knock them off.

Well maybe the germs will get frozen out in transit, but I'm still hoping that a few of them will find their way into Fargo and manifest themselves on the Bison team. Then look out Sioux! Of course, this may be the exception that makes the rule. The game may go off smoothly and as scheduled. But that just isn't the way the Bison and Sioux do things. I'm all for betting my money that if the Bison don't take the contest they'll make a mighty good game of catch-the-greased-pig out of it.

Bison Yearlings To Meet Sioux Frosh Tonight

"Get the Bison." Not only will this be the motto for Dick Miller's varsity Sioux tomorrow afternoon, but also the cry of Coach Dewey King's freshman squad. The Sioux are still licking the wounds of the 25-0 pasting they took at the hands of the Bison two weeks ago, and will be out for revenge tonight. The contest is slated for 7 at Dacotah Field, as a preliminary feature of North Dakota State's homecoming activities.

In their first contest at Grand Forks, the University defense leaked like a sieve along the forward wall to the swift T attack of the Bison yearlings. However, in the second half, the Green and White dug in and looked more impressive in every department. The slowness of the Sioux backfield played a major part in the lack of offensive punch, but King promises a different show in today's encounter. Passing proved to be the Sioux's most effective weapon, and they might look to the aerial route for a win.

Coach Chuck Bentson has been bothered with minor injuries to key players. Bennie Noland, the scooting fullback, has a slight case of flu which has been slowing him up. Harry Timm, the fine guard prospect, sprained a thumb in a scrimmage with the varsity but will see action.

The bad news is that Jim Hitter may not figure in the starting line-up. He suffered a sprained ankle in the first U encounter, and the ankle has been responding slowly to exercise and treatment. Speedy Dick Fleck, who has spelled Hitter at left half, will take over at that spot. Another shift has placed John Mashek at offensive center to make way for Howard Well of Cavalier at the left guard post. Duane Erickson and Well will back up the line on defense with Mashek resuming his guard position in the defensive line-up. Phil Ohnstad will see action at fullback if Noland has any trouble licking the cold.

Coach Dewey King will probably start off with Myron Bothun and Wes Engel at the ends, Jim Norton and Haldor Thompson at the tackles, John McCullough and Gordy Young in the guard slots, and Niles Fletcher at center. The starting backs will be Ron Earhardt in the driver's seat at quarter, Leo Olson and Art Halpin at the halves, and big Bill Johnson at the bucking back. Dick Koppenhaver and Jim Loeser will be in for defensive backfield work.

Bentson will open with the following: Dale Poppel and Roger Huizenga at ends, Bob Kubas and Bob Zurich at tackles, Harry Timm and Well at guards and Mashek at center, with the change of Erickson on defense. Barney Brandon will lead off in the quarter-back spot, Fleck and Dave Vogelbacher or Russ Keck at the halves, and Noland or Ohnstad at fullback.

NDAC Basketball Drills On; Call For Experienced Men

BY JOHN PAULSEN

With fourteen candidates already working out during early drills, NDAC basketball coach Chuck Bentson, making his debut as cage mentor here, issued a call for experienced men this week. The new Herd skipper reported a belief that more qualified candidates were in school who had not reported, and urged any men interested to begin working out with varsity squad members immediately.

Preliminary drills, begun three weeks ago, were encouraging, Bentson said. He expressed pleasure over squad attitude and morale, and displayed enthusiasm over early progress. The Herd tutor reported that candidates had shown early abilities to adapt to the new Bison system which will be unveiled December 3 when NDAC opens its 1949-50 campaign against Moorhead State Teachers college at Moorhead.

1948-49 lettermen Marv Evans, Jack Garrett, Dave Torson, Art Bredahl, Bob Geston, and Bob Grant have been on hand for early sessions, along with Marv Shafer, a 1947-48 monogram winner, and Clayton Sondag, a letterman on Chalky Reed's 1946-47 club.

Also working out during early varsity drills have been Jack Kavanaugh, Don Meyers, Al Deutsch, Harold Wilcox, Ernie Freeh, and Harlan Gilbertson.

Bentson reported that lettermen Bill Toussaint and Al Keating, and newcomer Ken Hanson would report following the completion of the football season.

The new NDAC tutor, making his debut as an intercollegiate coach, had high praise for his charges.

Sioux Nip SD State 19-0 In The Mud

BY DON LOVELAND

An inspired North Dakota university threw a bombshell into the conference standings by upsetting the leaders, South Dakota State, 19-0, before a surprised but joyous homecoming crowd last Saturday afternoon.

After a scoreless first frame North Dakota university started clicking as Mark Foss carried Halpin's pass to the Jackrabbit four. An illegal substitution a play later set the Sioux back to the ten but on the last down Cy Ducharme swung around end to give the Sioux a six point edge at the half way mark.

In the third quarter the Sioux, with Lloyd Hallada and Herb Clafy taking turns on the carrying duties, started a drive from the South Dakota State forty-two down to the three. The Sioux were short a foot but a penalty gave them a first down. Ducharme then went through tackle for another tally. A successful placement by Foss made it 13 to 0 at the close of the third period. In the fourth stanza the North Dakota university eleven made a seventy-five yard push with Herb LeMoine carrying the last twenty-seven yards to pay dirt.

ISTC continued on their rampage by whipping Augustana, 49-0, to tie for first place in the North Central Conference football race last Saturday night.

At Vermillion. Morningside and South Dakota university ended their struggle in a 6-6 tie.

Rain Halts I-M

The Intra-Mural business meeting was rather short this week with not much business on hand.

Due to the inclement weather, only one game was played last week which saw Theta Chi down the SPD's, thus preserving their perfect record. The season's standings are somewhat messed up since three teams, the Sigs, AGR's and the Dorm, are tied for fourth place thus necessitating three more games in order to eliminate the extra two from the post-season play-offs.

The Theta Chi's, Kappa Sigs and ATO's are the other first division teams respectively with the Cop's, SAE's and SPD's bringing up the rear in that order. Theta Chi and the Kappa Sigs both have perfect records, while the SAE's and SPD's have won nary a game.
