Phi Kappa Phi Selects Five For Membership

Coveted membership in Phi Kappa Phi, national honorary scholastic organization, has been awarded to five NDAC seniors, according to Dr. J. A. Munro, secretary-treasurer of the campus chapter.

The five members include June Carlson, home economics, Moorhead; Dolores Shanks, home economics, Fargo, Russell Heine, agriculture, Ellendale; Wesley Gunkel, agriculture, Hillsboro; and Harold Kirk, applied arts and science, Devils Lake. Kirk has transferred to the University of North Dakota during the past year and has continued his high standards there.

Dr. Munro also stated that the new members of the group will be installed at a banquet at the Graver hotel on May 22. Dr. J. H. Longwell, college president, will be guest speaker at the banquet.

Discuss Plans For New Union

The much-discussed plans for an erection of a student union on the campus of NDAC came to the front again Monday as Russ Heine, prexy of the student commission, and members of the student commission met with Mr. O. A. Schollander, representative of the NDAC alumni group and Dr. J. H. Longwell, college president.

Although nothing definite came of the meeting, Heine points out that this may finally be the first step towards realization of a campus student union.

Heine revealed that the commission has been working on student union plans for the past year including contacts with South Dakota State and the Association of College Unions.

AC Students At U Meeting

Five AC students are attending the fourth statewide ISSAC meeting which began yesterday and closes today at the University of North Dakota. The delegation includes Ames Skolness, Fred Saefke, Grace Swigart, Lorraine King and Kyle Miller.

Skolness is head of the local committee; Miss Swigart and Saefke are campus and radio committee chairman, respectively, while Miss King heads Tryota, the home economics organization.

This group will present a new plan of activities for ISSAC. The purpose of the plan will be to acquaint the people with the value of North Dakota colleges to their communities which will be accomplished through personal appearances by students at various clubs and organizations.

They will also bring up the necessity for North Dakota colleges to participate in the National Student Organization which will hold a regional convention in Omaha, May 10 and 11 and a national conclave at the University of Wisconsin in September.

On their return they will make a report to the Student Commission. ISSAC will hold an open meeting on Thursday, May 1, to inform the student body of what plans for the future have been made.

Shakespeare Show Closes Tonight

Final performance of An Evening With Shakespeare will be given tonight in the Little Country Theatre at 8 p.m.

It features a streamlined version of Shakespeare's comedy, Twelfth Night, a short lecture on Shakespeare by Francis G. Schoff of the English department, selected readings and an organ prelude of Shakespearean music by Pat O'Leary.

AC Debaters Take Second

A two-man debate team from NDAC copped unexpected second place honors in the 1947 Invitational Intercollegiate Speech tournament held at Montana State university at Missoula, Mont., Friday and Saturday.

The team, composed of Dave Haibeck of Steele and Bob Barclay of Page, was beaten out by Utah university in the final Saturday. Two other NDAC debaters were eliminated in an earlier round. They are Daley King of Park River and Bernie Bermann of Pelican Rapids, Minn.

Competing against 40 teams from 22 schools, the NDAC debaters topped such schools as Montana State, Montana university, Colorado School of Mines, Idaho university, and College of Puget Sound.

Saddle and Sirloin Plans May Event

Marking the revival of a pre-war event, the NDAC Saddle and Sirloin club will sponsor a student livestock judging contest May 23 in the livestock pavilion.

Planning committee members for the contest as appointed by the Saddle and Sirloin club are Orville Stanley, in charge, and Russ Heine, Percy McLean, and Chester Reiten. Burl Winchester is acting as adviser to the committee.

Document To Govern Next Election

At an election held Tuesday in Old Main students of NDAC stamped overwhelming approval on the new student constitution with a vote of 149 to 4. Despite the importance of the issue, voting was extremely light with less than eight percent of the student body marking ballots.

The new constitution replaces one which has been in effect since April, 1941. Major revisions concern the taking over of much of the detail work of campus government by a series of boards. The new boards which will become active after the next general election include the boards of Campus Affairs, Public Programs, Music, Finance, Publications and Athletics.

Membership on these boards includes two seniors, one junior and one sophomore and from this membership, one student will be selected to represent the board on the student commission. In addition the commission President and the commissioner of military affairs will be elected by the direct vote of the students.

With ratification of the new constitution, the way is now clear for the elections to membership on the boards, according to Mary Burfening, present Commissioner of Elections. The election will be held May 15 and applications for offices must be in the proper hands before May 1.

* * *

Applicants for the boards of Publications, Athletics and Public Programs should apply directly to the boards. Others should bring applications to Dean Sevrinson's office.

Miss Burfening lists the following offices as open for election on May 15: 1 junior, 1 freshman on the board of Athletics; 1 freshman, 1 sophomore, 1 junior on the board of Publications; 1 freshman, 1 junior on the board of Public Programs; 2 juniors, 1 sophomore and 1 freshman on the boards of Music, Finance, and Campus Affairs; 1 Commission President, who must now be in the last half of his junior year; and 1 Commissioner of Military Affairs, who must be enrolled in advanced ROTC.

Mobile X-Ray Unit Still Here Today

It's not too late to get that tuberculosis X-ray in the North Dakota department of health mobile unit now stationed in front of Festival hall, announces Miss Helen Johnson, NDAC college nurse.

The unit will be open all day today to anyone that for any reason has not had an X-ray in the three days the unit has been here. Miss Johnson also states that those students under 21 who have not obtained parental consent to the X-ray may waive the requirement in order that all may be serviced by the unit while it is here.

Among the other amusing sights in the Spectrum office outside of watching Jeanne (I'm down to 60 errors a minute) Wallerius trying to type, are the various periodicals that come our way. In this mornings mail were the Clipseet of the Methodist Temperance Board and the Bulletin of the Master Brewers' Association. The latter a leftover from the days of Jim Ford, no doubt.

New Sig and Alpha Gam initiates, congratulating themselves at a local saloon Saturday were greatly surprised when the lights went out. And stayed out. Some of the boys were late for the initiation banquet.

Can't see why some teachers don't put left-handed lecture seats in their classrooms. It would provide a great relief for those lefties who have to contort themselves into a position in which they can write. It would also make it much handier for straying eyes if a left-hander sat next to an orthodox scribbler.

Don Viets had a bright idea all thought out to advertise this year's Brevities. He had planned to have "There Are No Spots On The Brevities" labeled across the bottom of the chest X-ray pictures. After getting things all lined up, Don found out that the pictures wouldn't be returned until some time in June.

When Don took his troupe over to Fargo high for their annual publicity skit, he did so with reservations. He decided to spring the chorus line on the unsuspecting teen-agers, but remembering the usual FHS policy on lightly-clad girls, took along a dozen pair of sweat pants just in case. According to Don's alter ego, Bob Schreiner, Principal Tighe enjoyed the whole thing immensely and the troupe "killed 'em dead". How times have changed.

Still no definite word about the fire escapes at Dakota hall, which are reportedly kept locked during the night. Now we hear that in rooms which have ropes in them (to be thrown out the window and slid down in case of fire), the screens are locked on the outside which, of course, prevents any ropes from being thrown out to slide down. Progress!

The Spectrum's kiss of death has worked again. Here we had Bob Hastings and Kay Olson half-way to Minneapolis (in our minds) as they collected their Interfraternity prize, only to find out that Kay came down with chicken pox, to prove that every silver lining must have its cloud.

Applications Taken For Scholarships

Girls wishing to be considered for scholarship awards to apply on payment of fees for the school year 1947-1948 should file their applications at once so that references may be secured and the application completed by May 5. Six scholarships are available, application forms for which may be secured in the Dean of Women's office.

Applicants should be girls who have a good scholarship record and show promise in their chosen field, and who are earning at least part of their college expenses. Anyone wishing further information before applying may confer with Dean Dinan.

Campus Glances

I can't understand it. The act is 100% perfect and Viets still calls for rehearsals.

Poisonalities

IN THE NOOSE

By PAT O'LEARY

One of the first signs that Spring was really here was when Litherland's rolling chicken coup, that means of migration from Moorhead, popped up all refurbished from the rafters on down with a heavy spray of water and five white wheel disks. Haven't seeh it gracing the campus lawns since then, either. All these reforms and changes could only be the result of spring fever.

Also in from Moorhead: something special deluxe, delivered on the campus just this term. Name—Madrean (See Cy before you buy) Rufer. But don't be too hasty about trading in your old model, gentlemen. Those new ones are pretty hard to get.

With a circulation of only 500, most of you have probably never seen that fearless little Pharmacy quarterly, Papyrus Ebers. Well, you don't know what you're missing — it has some pretty shrewd little jokes. Samples:

Santa Claus is the only one who can run around with a bag all night and not get talked about.

I call my girl chocolate because she nestles.

Editor Mary Jane Shurr has been really successful in putting some zip into a publication who's name itself dates way back to musty Egyptian mummy times.

Saints-be-to-God! The most uneclesiastical building on the campus is the one housing the school of religious education. Almost every other structure has a certain ancient-chapel air about it. For instance, if the Basilica of St. Bunsen-burner, alias the chem. building, had a cross atop instead of that weather vane, and smelled of incense instead of ether, (or whatever that stuff is that they apparently wash the floors with) it could almost be taken for the medieval McCoy. Those twin towers on Ceres hall look like they were taken right off any old Romanesque Cathedral, and the same for Old Main with its spire, and old engineering with its stained glass windows. Even a couple of the barns look like country churches. But only the school of religion, in its modern building has cast aside those traditions. Question of the week: Is religion more progressive than science?

We read in last week's issue that several KD pledges received the second degree. They'd better watch out for what comes next. I'd hate to be given the third degree by all those KDs, anyhow.

Then there's the sad saga of the Phi Mu Sweetheart. The way the story goes, one Arnie Granheim was installed with more ceremony than the Zulus gave George VI. One month later he packed up and left school. You girls had better take it easy next time.

And have you heard the old saying among the KAT pledge class that "everyone stops at the Kappa Alpha Theta House". Maybe the stop sign out in front has something to do with it. Speaking of signs, maybe they'd better take down the POP neen deal sitting on top of their porch.

According to the latest census, Lt. Colonel Hugo (just call him "Sir") Littig is the only man to rate big headlines during the year. He's now an avid Spectrum fan.

Among the sights never to be seen again: fourteen Gamma Phi potentials sans make up, and all their other attributes of poise and Hasty domination, drenched, squelched, and squatting on the hard Gamma Phi floor. With egg and oatmeal in their stringing tresses they ranked, like the Taj Mahal, among the seven sights of the world.

Socially Yours

By JEANNE WALLERIUS

Wladyzlawa Kazimierczak is her name. . . . If it sounds Polish, the reason could be that she is a war orphan from that country, where her parents and sisters are buried and her farm home lies a charred mass.

The Fargo Forum reports that the sorority girls at UND, through the Panhellenic council, have adopted Wladyzlawa via the Foster Parents Plan for War Children program. They contribute $180 plus food and clothing each month for this seven-year old Miss. . . . A truly noble program. Socially Yours tips its hat in tribute!

HAY! HAY!

May 9 spells a good old fashion barn dance. . . . An annual affair in prewar days that was really fun. . . . I snuck in once! Maybe it will rejuvenate some of us. Things certainly have been dead lately!

BUT THEY SAID SO

When I called for the Theta Chi news one week, some bright soul said Don Schaezel had gone to Oxford, England. Not wanting to call anyone a liar, I published same. It seems that he got no farther than Litchfield. Anyway, he received some good publicity and my blush matches my sweater!

HOSPITALITY

Thetas entertained Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Christenson and Dr. E. V. Estensen at Monday potluck and will extend a welcome to all Sunday at an open house.

Gamma Phis welcomed alum Jocie Birch, who has been vacationing in Los Angeles, at Monday night potluck. Also partaking of their culinary efforts were Miss Jean Stange, Miss Mildred Hawkins, Miss Pat Scheel, Rose Ann and Jane Vogel, Donna Christenson Speer and Gloria Thysell.

The Mothers club served potluck at the Alpha Gam rooms and Ruth Watson was on hand as a guest.

BAGGED

We aren't saying who bagged who, but Audrey Hoyum is flashing a Sigma Chi pin with Don McDowell's name on the back.

HONORS ARE FLYING

Jeanette Johnson, Ellen Johnson, Dolores Ulmer, Lois Anderson, Madeline Forsyth, Donna Knutson and Norma Jean Steinmeyer were honored when Alpha Gam actives and alums observed international reunion day at a banquet in the Graver hotel Saturday.

FOOD AND FUN

Kappa Sigs will observe Founders day with a party in Town hall Friday night and a banquet at the Graver Saturday night, when Dean Sevrinson will be featured speaker.

There will be a newcomer at the festivities. . . . Richard Moum joined the pledge ranks Monday.

IT'LL BE EASY SITTING

New white sectional davenport has been added to the scenery at the Phi Mu house and they have three new pledges who probably will be kept too busy to sit on them—namely Virginia Peterson, Betty Froemke and Maxine Augustad.

THEY CONCLAVED!

Eleven Theta Chis attended the Theta Chi conclave at Hamlin university April 12.

SO LONG

Marge Sebans and I took off early this a.m. for Ames, Iowa, for the province convention of Gamma Phi Beta. . . . Saturday night, Hal McIntyre will be on deck for their first post-war military ball; these conventions are fine things!

Grass Jay-Walking

The passing parade annually must be reminded where it's best for it to pass and this year is no exception. The footprints in the sands of time are no nuisance to us, but one thing that can add to the beauty of the college would be less of aforementioned footprints across our school lawns.

It's hard to take 20 steps when 10 will do the trick, but then we're always yielding to the whims and wishes of convention and so it won't be too hard to comply just once more.

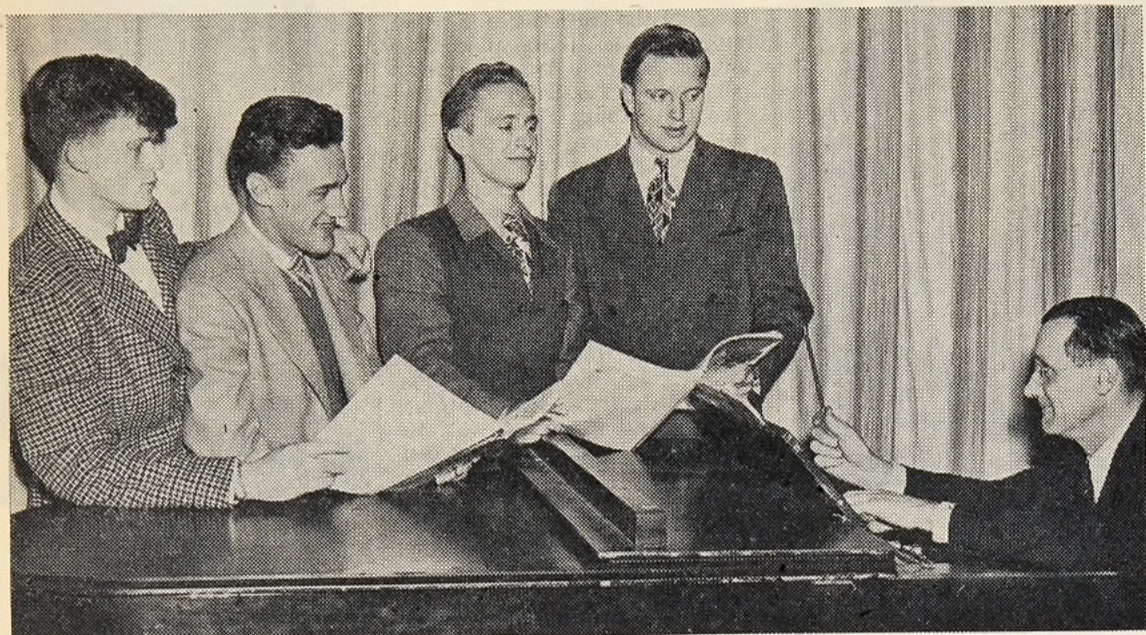

Of course if you're incorrigible our advice is to get all your lawn-stepping in early because rumor has it that the student commission is planning some foul trick to see that rights of a blade of grass on this campus are protected.

Blue Key Presents ... Of Thee I Sing!

Van Vlissingen is the name and its the one you want to remember when the curtain goes up on the musical satire "Of Thee I Sing." Van is the musical director of this year's production.

You see him here seated at the piano assisting the leads in the 1947 extravaganza.

Kenny Sorvig, second from the right, has the major lead in the part of John P. Wintergreen. Mr. Wintergreen is running for the presidency of the United States.

Mr. Bob Schreiner, third from the right is that most unfortunate character Throttlebottom who will vainly try and convince you that a vice-president is important in any political campaign.

Senator Lyons played by Bob Owens, the next in line, will be outfitted by the make-up department with matching mustache and goatee to play the part of a very southern gentleman.

Bob Smoot, lower left hand corner, is Senator Carver Crocket Jones, as corny as the major crop in his home state, Nebraska.

Miss Blakely Designs Sets And Costumes

Arising every year to meet the expediency of production datelines is some individual whose talent comes forth at the call of Blue Key for workers on the annual Bison Brevities; the person whose contribution is inimitable Miss Jane Blakely of Lisbon, North Dakota.

Miss Blakely alone this year designed every costume and set to appear in "Of Thee I Sing".

Her present position in relation to the rest of the staff is that of production manager. Her duties are to act as over-all chairman of costumes, make-up and scenery.

From the experience that Miss Blakely has gained in this capacity, she plans to make her life work that of theatrical costume and stage designing.

NDAC Students Volunteer For Backstage Positions

Thirty seven is the number of the behind the scenes workers that can be found at any hour pushing toward the completion of costumes, scenery, publicity, properties, and make-up for the 1947 Blue Key production of "Of Thee I Sing".

Although they will never appear before the audience that will be seated in Festival hall, April 29, 30 and May 1, without their efforts it would be impossible to present the production.

John Hesse is the man heading the "muscle boys" that are in charge of scenery changes, curtain pulling and the other backstage work. On his committee are Ross Mathews, Moorhead; John Vogel, Don Mohr, Fargo; Frank Linsay, Mandan; Howard Graver Olsen; Frank Sherman, Moorhead; Ken Lawson, Albert Lea, Minnesota.

On the publicity crew are Jackie Brady, Jean Cosgriff, Marilyn Hammerud, Joan Murphy; Margaret Rulon, Bettelu Schmierer, Jean Wallerius, all of whom are from Fargo; and Adelaide Dinwoodie of Fort Collins, Colorado.

Taking over the Home Ec sewing labs for the remaining days are Pat Heller and her crew which are turning out the costumes. Working with Miss Heller are Bea Jones, Mary Tharalson, Shirley Ann Wilson, Ardyce Toohey, all from Fargo, and Martha Dahl, Chaffee.

Marjorie Aamodt, Donna Borman, Shirley Wood, Margaret Clarke and Jacky Anderson, Aneta, are the properties girls. Their chairman is Pat Cook.

Pat Lee is chairman of the make-up committee. She is being assisted by Gloria Aas, Lorraine Almqvist, Margo Brunskill, Dorothy Davis, Polly Edlund, Carolyn Fossay, Moorhead; and Lota Junge, West Fargo.

Ethel Mathews and JoAnn Zimmerman are acting as script girls for the production and Jeanette Haroldson is in charge of scenery.

Pulitzer Winner Highlights Activities Of Fraternity

Highlights of the Blue Key fraternity year comes this following week with the presentation of the 1947 Bison Brevities production, "Of Thee I Sing". One of the most outstanding musical hits ever to leave the Broadway lights, is this musical extravaganza written by Kaufman and Ryskind. Lyrics are provided by Ira Gershwin, music by George Gershwin.

According to Don Viets, director of this year's show, "It was one of the most fortunate events that has happened to the NDAC for a long time. It isn't often that a school has the opportunity to buy the rights to such a Broadway smash hit." "Of Thee I Sing" is a Pulitzer prize winner.

The plot of the story revolves around John P. Wintergreen who is campaigning for the presidency of the United States. To give a new twist to the time honored political planks is Wintergreen's campaign slogan, "Put Love in The White House". As the chairman of this rather novel appeal explained, "What you need for an issue is something that everybody can get excited about and yet something that does not really make any difference."

To carry out this idea a beauty contest is run in order that the winner of the contest can receive the proposal of Mr. Wintergreen in every state in the union. But something goes amiss and Wintergreen falls in love with the pretty and demure Mary Turner. International complications are the result. A unifying factor in the production is Throttlebottom, vice presidential candidate, who is seeking recognition. Of course Wintergreen is successful in his presidential campaign.

Found Blue Key At U Of Florida

Blue Key Fraternity as a national organization had its beginning at the University of Florida in 1924 when Major B. C. Riley organized the first group. At that time he had no idea of forming a national fraternity, but the need was so great and the idea so acceptable that the organization quickly grew into a well-knit national group.

Blue Key at North Dakota State College has sponsored many projects; of which the most outstanding is the annual all-college talent show, Bison Brevities. In past years Blue Key has presented a few student-written shows, but since none was offered this year, "Of Thee I Sing" was chosen by the group.

For the show and as a donation to the school Blue Key is providing an entire new set of stage lights for Festival Hall and a new set of drapes as stage backdrops. By these additions to the school facilities the fraternity hopes to leave some tangible evidence of its efforts at NDAC.

During the annual Honor Day program, Blue Key awards a one hundred dollar scholarship to the outstanding freshman of the year. A junior also receives a scholarship for his service and achievement while attending NDAC.

Chorus Line Rates With First National Stocks

Put on ice, wrapped in cellophane and locked in the First National vaults every evening are these ten lovelies that make up the Bison Brevities chorus line for "Of Thee I Sing." Mr. Viets, director of the show, considers them so important that the reserved sections were roped off according to how many legs could be seen from the respective seats. A committee has been set up to make sure that all men in the first five rows are either escorted or over sixty-five. Applications are being received todate.

Besides decorating the stage, these girls play the part of the contestants in the beauty contest being run to find John P. Wintergreen a wife to which he can propose marriage in the 48 states. It's all part of the party slogan "Put Love In The White House."

Despite the complaints to the publicity department by the business men downtown, these girls were not taken on the "teasers" presented at all of the up-town business men's clubs. So far the Brevities cast has appeared at Kiwanis club, Lions club, Rotary club, MSTC, and Fargo High School.

Tom Challoner is the man that heads the ticket sales. It is rumored that he also acted on the committee that judged the price of seats. Feeling that it wasn't fair that one organization have all the rights to the good seats, he distributed the tickets among the various organizations. Tickets can be purchased from any sorority woman or fraternity man. Also tickets are on sale at Daveau music store and the Bookstore.

It is important that all ticket purchasers know that ALL tickets for the Brevities are reserved. Your ticket guarantees you a seat in the section for which you bought. Therefore come early and your ticket will insure you one of the best seats in your section.

Listen Thursday night at 8:45 on KVOX for a fifteen minute program of music from "Of Thee I Sing" presented by the Brevities cast.

Don't forget the 10:30 "Meet Your Neighbor" program coming from WDAY Friday night. The show will be a half hour musical featuring the Brevities cast.

Kappa Sigs Cop Permanent Hold On Frat Award

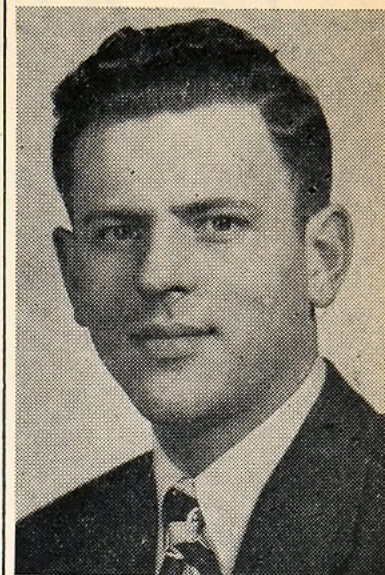

Leading the fraternities in scholarship for the sixth time since inauguration of a traveling scholarship trophy by the interfraternity council, Kappa Sigma Chi this week gained permanent possession of the award. The trophy was first presented in the fall term of 1941 and was to be a permanent award to the first fraternity to win top place in scholarship six terms.

Kappa Psi lead fraternity averages in the fall of 1941 and thus gained first possession. Kappa Sigma Chi won three times in 1942 and in the winter term of 1943 after which it was discontinued for the duration of the war. Reverted in the spring term of 1946, Alpha Gamma Rho captured top spot among fraternities in scholarship that term. In the fall of 1946 Kappa Sigma Chi once more lead, and again in the winter term just completed.

In the fifty terms that Kappa Sigma Chi has been active since its organization in the spring of 1928, it has been in top place in fraternity scholarship a total of 33 terms, twelve of which were in succession from 1935 to 1939. Prior to the fall term of 1939 when all grades were on a percentage basis, highest Kappa Sig average then was 86.2. In the terms since the present point system was put in operation, the highest average achieved by the fraternity was 2.34 in the winter term of 1946 when Kappa Sigma Chi lead not only all other fraternities but all other student organizations as well.

From 1928 to the present time Alpha Gamma Rho was in first place 16 times and was most frequent runnerup to Kappa Sigma Chi.

Intramural

sports followers, of whom there are many on the campus, were rather astonished last week by the somewhat severe action taken by members of the Intramural Board.

The Board

dealt harshly with potential ATO softballers by ruling the fraternity out of the intramural softball league.

Previously

having announced a deadline for entries into the league, the group refused ATO admittance when the fraternity failed to attend the deadline meeting, attempting rather to submit an entry the following day.

some opinion to the contrary, I doubt if the board was exceeding its authority in barring the fraternity. To turn the matter over to officials of the physical education department would be to defeat the purpose towards which the majority of student work this year has been directed: more student governmental control.

However,

that the board may have acted overly severe is another matter.

That ATO

was negligent, fraternity members are the last to deny. Nor is it denied that a deadline had been publicly set.

However,

it might be well to look a little further. Had the fraternity been "usually" attendant at the meetings, the board might have been less inclined to take the drastic step they did. However, the fact of the matter is, ATO had not been represented at the last three meetings of the board.

On The

other hand, the fraternity, while admitting its negligence offers a very convincing explanation for it. Al Goldberg, the fraternity IM board representative prior to the end of the winter term, did not enroll for school during the spring term. No one personally informed the fraternity of their tardiness as is the usual procedure in organizations of that type.

There

remains no doubt that the fraternity was in error. Nor is there much doubt but that some penalty should be forthcoming.

However,

board members should understand the severity of the penalty. Since the error was at least partly attributable to Goldberg it seems rather illogical that the entire fraternity be held responsible.

Couldn't

some handicap be placed on the group? Perhaps penalize them at the start of the season in some way as to add difficulty to their possibility of winning the championship. While the group would undoubtedly like to capture the title, I entertain little doubt, but that in this instance they would be grateful merely for the opportunity to participate.

Speaking of softball, Bill Gallagher's entry, bulwarked by South St. Paul participants, appears top heavy with talent as the loop prepares to open competition.

already given the nod in the NCI track and field race, put on an impressive showing in the Kansas Relays Saturday. The Jackrabbit's won the college 2-mile medley relay and the college distance medley.

Dorm Holds IM Bowling Lead

Theta Chi	23	19	.548

ISA	18	24	.429
Kappa Psi	16	23	.410
AGR	14	25	.359
Sigma Chi	13	29	.310

Winning two games from ISA during last week's play, the Men's Dorm maintained a firm grip on the intramural bowling league lead as play moves on towards a climax.

The Dorm also held onto the best team average with 752, while ATO was in second place with 720.

Testimony to Dorm superiority comes from an analysis of individual averages. Orville Laidlaw, with 171, gives a Dorm performer the number one slot, while Earl Bolinske's 160 gave him third place and the Dorm another representative in the big three. R. S. Rekedal of Kappa Psi was in second place with 163.

Other games last week saw ATO downing SPD twice, SAE winning two from Kappa Psi, and Sigma Chi whipping Theta Chi twice.

Pairings for this week pit AGR against Kappa Psi, Theta Chi against ISA, ATO opposite Kappa Psi, Sigma Chi, and SPD against SAE.

R. S. Rekedal of Kappa Psi, secretary-treasurer of the loop, announces that play tonight will begin promptly at 7 at the Grand Recreation Parlors alleys. He requests all bowlers to be on time so play can get underway on time.

Spring IM Program Starts This Week

At a meeting last week, the Intramural board laid plans for spring programs in golf, tennis, and softball.

The group acknowledged thirteen entries into the intramural softball league. E. E. Kaiser, physical education director announced that play will get underway as soon as weather conditions permit.

Relevant to softball, the group discussed, at considerable length, rule technicalities, and outlawed the so-called "windmill" delivery in league games.

The board set plans for intramural competition in golf and tennis, also. Individual pairings have been made and play in both sports is underway.

Jim Noonan, president of the organization, announced that play in golf and tennis must be completed by May 12, in order that AC coaches may have time to assemble the outstanding participants in each sport for the NCI meet at Brookings, May 17.

Kaiser plans to choose AC performers in the loop meet from among the outstanding players in the intramural program.

The school plans to enter about four golfers in the conference meet, and an equal number of tennis players.

Reaffirming an earlier decision, the board voted to bar from competition in the intramural softball league, any team not complying with the previously set entrance deadline date.

The board set another meeting for Monday, April 28, at 4 in the fieldhouse.

Snow Forces Postponement Of Aberdeen Relays

A severe Wednesday morning snowstorm forced a postponement of the annual Aberdeen Relays, scheduled for Friday and Saturday in Aberdeen, South Dakota.

As a result Coach E. E. Kaiser's NDAC track and field team, scheduled to entrain early Friday for the meet, find their 1947 debut delayed to May 3.

KAISER DISAPPOINTED

Having not yet had an opportunity to observe his charges under meet conditions, Kaiser was disappointed. Weather conditions have severely hampered early practices and the Herd tutor was looking towards the Aberdeen event to offer some evidence as to individual potentialities of team members.

The Bison coach plans to work his squad outdoors over the weekend in an effort to find some indication of individual ability on the squad.

MEET SCHEDULED

Kaiser plans to send the Herd into their initial competition May 3, when AC is scheduled to play host to MSTC and Concordia in a triangular meet.

However, adverse weather has delayed the preparation of the Dakotah field track and there is a possibility the meet may have to be cancelled. If so, the Bison mentor plans to take his squad to Jamestown for the Jamestown College meet.

Meantime, the Aberdeen event has been rescheduled for May 30 and 31, but Athletic Director C. C. Finnegan said it is doubtful if the Bison will be able to attend.

Bison Often In Big Time

By SID CICHY

NDAC's splendid showing at Iowa last fall, and their scheduled game there this September bring to mind the two game series between the Bison and University of Minnesota in 1934 and 1935.

The two tilts added much prestige to Bison football and reaffirmed the belief that the Bison need not fear a venture in big time football circles.

In 1934, despite a 55-12 shellacking handed the Herd by the national champion Gophers, Finnegan's crew put in a creditable showing.

Entering the game at the start of the second quarter with the count tied at 0-0, Stan Kostka, present Bison football mentor, romped fifty-six yards on the first play to score the initial Gopher points. Kostka went on to a brilliant performance that afternoon in leading Bernie Bierman's champs to a win.

It must be remembered the 1934 Minnesota team is considered by many to be the greatest of all time.

While the 1935 team was adjudged mythical national champions, Finnegan rates it below the '34 array. The Bison athletic director also recalls that his team of that year, captained by Sam Dobervich, was the best he coached in his long reign as head man at NDAC.

Despite the potency of the Gophers, Bierman's team could muster no better than a 13-7 win over the Bison, and but for a blocked kick in the final stanza, the score might have ended 7-6. The Gophers could effect but two consecutive first downs all afternoon.

The Herd went on, that year, to the conference championship.
