Spectrum Sponsors Yell Contest; Pep Rally Set For Friday Convocation

February 5 marks the end of the student committee, Spectrum sponsored yell contest whose aim is to provide more yells for the University-AC series.

Prizes, sponsored by Blue Key, Student Commission, and Senior Staff, will be awarded for the three best cheers. The prize is a round-trip ticket to Grand Forks where the winner will see the two games of the four-game series with the AC.

Anyone may enter the competition by submitting a yell. They are to be given to Joe Hovland, Jeanne Hendrickson, Doris Donnelly, Adelaide Dinwoodie, or placed in the editor's basket in the Spectrum office. Yells will be judged on originality and usefulness.

Five newly chosen cheerleaders will introduce a number of new yells to the student body Friday morning at a pep rally sponsored by the student committee.

The rally, a new feature of the regular Friday convocation, has been called to swing into line the spirit that is arising for the University-NDAC basketball series.

The new cheer leaders were chosen from a group of applicants at tryouts, Tuesday, in Festival hall. They are Josephine Torsion, Moorhead; Joyce Smith, Jamestown; Meta Lou Sheffield, Joan McElroy, and Roy Tryhas, all of Fargo.

New yells, result of the Spectrum Student Committee yell contest, will be presented to the student body. The Gold Star band under the direction of Mr. Schroepfer, will play.

Veterans, Wives Polled . . .

A survey to determine the interest of NDAC veterans and their wives in social, recreational and educational activities was made by means of check sheets at a meeting called by President Eversull, January 21, in the College Y.

These lists proved that over 40 people were interested in a library of records to be placed in a recreation room, and over 30 were interested in a weekly community sing. Some wanted an organized chorus. Approximately 50 expressed an interest in dancing, both social and folk, bridge and swimming. Others mentioned dramatics and public speaking.

Wives expressed enthusiasm in a weekly supper class, a home furnishing workshop and a clothing class that would provide instruction in the care and construction of clothes.

SAEs Honor Dreamline Girl

SAE fraternity will fete Joyce Gunvaldsen, newly elected SAE Dreamline Girl, at a banquet, Saturday evening, February 2, in the Graver hotel.

Joyce, a sophomore in the school of home economics, is a member of Gamma Phi Beta, of which she is the corresponding secretary. Other activities include mixed chorus, Tryota, business staff of Spectrum, representative on Panhellenic council.

Although a telegram announced her election, she did not receive it before she spied the news in Spectrum. Roses were sent to the other candidates.

Vets Meet Monday

Veterans on the campus will meet Monday, Feb. 4, at 3 p. m. in the "Y" auditorium. The purpose of the meeting will be to elect officers and discuss the constitution. All men who have served in the armed forces are urged to attend.

Maracci, Dance Troupe Climax Lyceum Series

The appearance of Carmelita Maracci and her dance group will climax the Thirty-Fifth Lyceum series in Festival hall, Tuesday evening, February 5 at 8:15 p. m. Carmelita, long praised in chorus by critics, transcends the limits popular conviction sets in dance fashion. Using Spanish and ballet patterns for original inspiration, she creates a union of techniques evoking adjectival reviews. Best to convey the pitch her kinesthetic genius reaches are these critical essences: "Unique, iconoclastic" . . . "all fire and intensity" . . . "passionate and vivacious."

The captivating electric vigor thus described emanates from a ninety pound frame just five foot one. Ancestrally southern European, it is conversationally west coast and twangy.

The chronology of the dancer's years is also an itinerary. The St. Paul Pioneer Press condensed both as follows: "Born in Uruguay of a Spanish mother and an Italian father, the young dancer was reared in San Francisco and later made her home in Los Angeles. From there she made a rhythmic trek which in 1942 achieved the heights Broadway offers."

The program will be composed of pure classical ballet, gypsy numbers, and her variation of each theme including styles satirizing conventional techniques.

That she will appeal to the Lyceum audience as to the critics who both sigh and rave in admiration is assured in these words: "One does not have to go into training to be blown over by a tornado."

Summer School Plans Announced

In a survey of those students who wish to continue their education through the summer, results reveal that 339 votes were cast in the affirmative against 393 negative ballots. Return of many servicemen to the campus prompted the registrar to conduct this survey, Monday, January 28.

Registrar Parrot announced that approximately ninety per cent of the veterans registered this quarter have asked for the summer session.

Registration has been set for June 17, the term will terminate August 10.

Craven Merits Award

Climaxing his convocation address last Friday, President Eversull presented to John Craven, senior in the school of pharmacy, the Knight Templar award of $100.

John, a member of Kappa Psi fraternity and Blue Key, and past president of the pharmacy club, received an award from the American Foundation for Pharmaceutical Education in 1944. His name appears in the 1945-46 publication Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

NOTICE

On February 2 and 3, physical examinations will be given at the Student Health Center for advanced ROTC men. Captain Smith advises that these hours are kept open for this purpose.

Campus Bus Service Not Possible Now

"Since all available equipment is now in use, no extension of bus service is possible this year," replied Mr. W. R. Haggart, president of Northern Transit company, in answer to a request by college faculty and students for a bus route from the district east of Broadway to the NDAC.

Recognizing the need for service in that part of Fargo, and in other parts of the city, he assured the petitioners that such schedules will be arranged as soon as equipment is available.

Dean Pearl Dinan, who polled those who would be affected by this service, reports that 50 of the 90 students and staff members canvassed returned the cards. Thirty indicated that they would use the extra service.

Seek Dance Pupils

Beginner and advanced classes in ballroom dancing will be offered to AC students by the "Y" under the tutorage of Patricia Ganstad, a member of the Chicago National Association of Dancing Masters, if enough interest is shown.

In the six lesson course, beginners will learn the polka, waltz, fox trot, etc.; while the advanced class will master rumba, conga, jitterbug steps, etc.

The minimum number for a class is fifteen. Interested persons may contact Vern Hathaway at the College "Y".

NOTICE

Attention Danforth Scholars: Please report your name, address, telephone number and the year you attended St. Louis or Camp Miniwanco to Dean Sevrinson's office at once.

LSA Basket Social

Sunday, February 3, the LSA will meet in a fun and fellowship hour at 5 p. m. A shadow basket social is being planned as the highlight of the program. The girls will bring the basket lunches; the boys will buy them. Team captains for the program are Gloria Seidel and Roy Reud.

Council To Spur AC

At a time when it seems that everything has to be evaluated to maintain its existence, no public institution is going without its inventory.

Education, as all others, is being scrutinized for its defects and means of improvement. The AC has sighted a few of its defects, but being head and tails beyond other educational institutions in its post war planning, at least on paper, it has, in this last week put into action a foil against some of the thorns that have pricked the conscience of intelligent-thinking educators.

A student committee has been formed.

The members of this now functioning body were chosen for no other reason than that they were leaders of present campus organizations. Its roster is not permanent; it is open to all who wish to give a part of their week in thought and action toward a "better AC."

Though it has been implied, the purpose of this group is to restore in the faculty's minds the belief that the student above all can view his life's horizon and intelligently select the tools and mental habits that he wishes to aid him through life, to awaken in the student an acknowledgment of his potentialities and how these may be gained through a well-designed educational system.

Far as it may seem from these editorialized statements, the first tangible evidence of the committee's existence is the series of rallies that are being planned to restore in the student body that feeling of unity, power through vocal expression, and pride in the school which is now non-existent in some quarters.

Once we begin to act as an organized student body, we will begin to think as one. Half of the work will be accomplished at that time, if we are successful.

Blonde Invades Spectrum Office

As she languished on a desk in the Spectrum office, the sun caught the gold of her soft hair.

Cries of admiration rose from the throats of each new arrival—"Oh, did someone leave their mittens?" They soon turned to cries of endearment as he or she discovered the blonde beauty to be a furry kitten, curled up snugly, enjoying the afternoon rays slanting through the window.

After the regular inhabitants endured several performances of the above scene, they arose to the occasion and fondly named the kitten "Mitten."

Spectrum must admit that it was smitten by a kitten named 'Mitten'!

Pertinent Impertinence

It's Relished By The Best Of Men

Ten minutes before deadline we walked into the Spectrum office in the basement of Sinus hall. There sat Joyce Tindall eating a box of Wheaties and stirring her coffee with her left hand, her spoon being at home at the time. "Miss Tindall," we said, tapping her lightly on the shoulder with a football bat, "you are our guest columnist this week. Keep firmly in mind that February 8 is the birthday of the Boy Scouts, and is also the date of the Charity Ball this year." And with that in mind Miss Tindall sat down to her typewriter by Steinway in her dress by Sack's to give us her comments on the world in retrospect. Take it away, Miss Tindall. Signed: A.D.

'Y' Corner

- There will be a dance for veterans and their wives, February 7, from 9:00 to 12:00 p.m. in the "Y" building.
- Please do not use the YWCA telephone for long distance calls unless you have permission.
- "Y" Dime Dances" are still held every Tuesday and Thursday from 6 to 8 p. m.
- Veteran's wives are welcome to attend the Blue Monday Teas Monday from 4 to 5 p. m. and the worship services Friday morning at 7:30 a. m.
- The Sophomore Class party, sponsored by the Sophomore Commission, will be held Friday February 1, from 4 to 6 p. m. in the College "Y".
- Girls!! Keep February 28, 1946, open so you can attend the Coed Prom, sponsored by the YWCA.
- All those who would like to participate in a table tennis tournament are asked to sign their names in the "Y" office.
- The drive on NDAC campus for World Service Student Fund will be held from February 8 to 15.
- A dance will climax this affair, February 15, from 10 to 12 p. m. after the NDAC vs. UND game. Details will appear in next week's Spectrum.

SPECTRUM OFFICE BY TINDALL:

A reporter covering the Chicago Fire rushed in crying, "Scoop! It's cold . . . we have a blizzard . . . snow trains are late . . . dog-sled collisions are rampant!" To all of which the writing staff replies, "That you should live so long." This from between clenched teeth while protected against the rigors of a non-existent heating system by longies, snuggies, ear muffs, hot coals (provided by thoughtful readers and a rather annoyed-looking Bunsen burner.) "Ye Gods," bellowed the editor softly, "have you all gone mad? Now get out and cover that Lincoln-Douglas debate before I put all of you on K rations."

YELL CONTEST

Robeson Leaves Hit Parade Tunes To Men Like Crosby

By Grace Swigart, Jeanne Wallerius.

In a soft, deep tones, Paul Robeson, gray-templed, towering great American Negro baritone, voiced his opinion on true democracy and tolerance in America, besides revealing particulars about his tastes and habits.

MANY TONGUES

Mr. Robeson minimized the magnitude of his linguistic accomplishments. Looking as if his being credited with the ability to read 30 tongues amused him, he retorted, "Who said 30? I thought it was 20."

"It is one thing to be able to read a language and quite another to be able to speak it," he continued. "It depends also on what subjects one talks about. I can talk about political subjects—I am very much interested in them—perhaps better than I could ask my way from here to there in a foreign tongue.

"When I was singing to the troops in France and Germany last summer, it was not long before I could discuss politics with the people." The "Great American" cited the fact that the Japanese, Finnish, and Dakota Indian dialects are much the same.

THIS AND THAT

"I'll leave that to Bing," he beamed warmly once. He meant the Hit Parade tunes and juke box concertos that he doesn't sing—"except one or two to myself, maybe."

Queried on the inevitables of life, he had these remarks to make in his calm, deliberate manner as he chewed gum and threw a quick glance upward occasionally: "Oh, I get lots of sleep. That is one of necessities for singers." On clothes: "They make me wear tails most of the time, but this year I've substituted a tux quite often. I'd certainly like to just wear sports clothes." On food: "I like almost any kind of food. I guess I'll have to like it even plainer from now on, since I'm supposed to take off a few pounds!"

FASCISM

Crossing the long, powerful legs that carried him down the football field to All-American laurels, he admitted with a shrug and a smile, "I feel very strongly on the subject of Fascism and I am not as mild and sweet as I am supposed to be when I get started on this topic.

"While in Spain, I became interested in the anti-Fascist movement, and I aided several underground operations against this party. There are many spots here in America where Fascist leanings must be righted if we are to have a democracy in which everyone, including the negro, has a fair chance.

"An Independent Citizens committee of arts, sciences, and professions has organized to wage war on undemocratic thinking and racial prejudice in America. The membership includes such notables as conductors Toscanini and Metropolis, sculpturer Joe Davidson, artists Orson Welles, Gene Kelly, Vladimar Horowitz and many professors."

ROBESON'S VIEW

Mr. Robeson clearly feels that artists, scientists and scholars should exercise their power of public appeal in behalf of their country for just causes as well as for their own gain.

Paul Robeson has let his gentle manner, quiet humor and strong heart and mind champion the causes he so firmly believes in.

couragement on the part of the student body would be appreciated for this added interest to the AC basketball series. This is a pep rally, son!

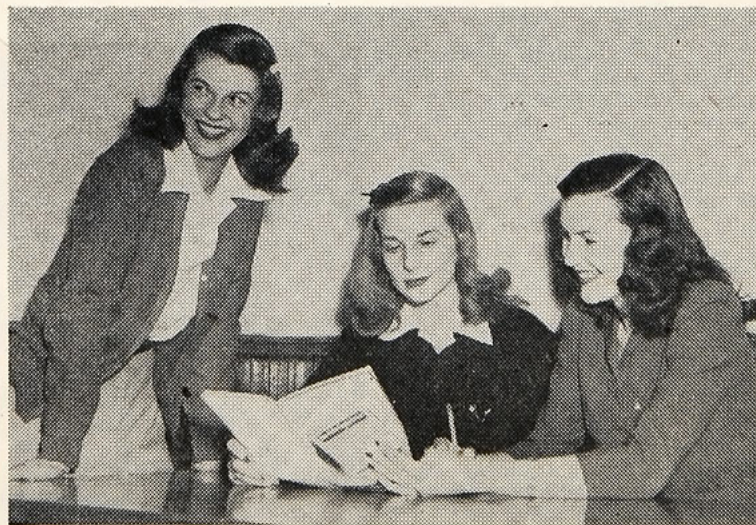

LCT* PLAYS TONIGHT

Does your mouth taste like the bottom of a parrot's cage? Then be sure to see the latest campus production tonight, entitled, "That Film on Your Teeth." Dinosaurs flit through Mrs. Antrobus' parlor as Audrey Remme discovers that all of the nice men in the world are married. We wonder just where that leaves the ones on our fair swards who aren't!

*Not to be confused with landing craft, tank.

As we go to press there is slight confusion in the office due to the fact that Miss Dinwoodie is attempting to come in the door with her skis on as George Rulon is trying to get out carrying a small grand piano and a beer mug.

These Three Make Charity Ball Plans

Making plans for the Panhellenic sponsored Charity Ball to be held February 8 at the Crystal ballroom are, left to right, Elizabeth Haggart, Joyce Gunvaldsen and Jeanne Hendrickson. Miss Haggart is entertainment chairman, Miss Gunvaldsen, ticket chairman and Miss Hendrickson, general chairman in the absence of Dorothy Allen, Panhellenic president who is practice teaching this term.

Definite Cut Rules Seen As Practical

The feature page of last week's Spectrum carried the outline of the new absentee system as proposed by the Student Commission and a committee of students. We have since discovered a wide variety of campus opinion concerning this new proposal.

The most widespread feeling seems to be that, in view of the past system, any kind of organized and just ruling would be worthwhile. The greatest discussion centered around the requirement of an extra credit hour for graduation following three unexcused absences.

One opinion: "A more mature attitude should be adopted by the students so that an elaborate cut system is not necessary. A small college functions most effectively on the fewest regulations possible."

The nearly unanimous approval registered however, indicates the student body's desire for a definite ruling on class cuts.

Heard About The Herd

By George Rulon

BASKETBALL FANS

who didn't see NDAC's second victory of the season over the Comets of Mayville State Teachers college Monday night really missed some, torrid point-making by the Bison. Keeping the score close, as was the case during the first half, was not to Coach Bob Lowe's boys liking and with the opening of the third frame the Herd's attack functioned like it never has functioned before this year. In just four minutes of playing time, the blistering offensive netted the Bison 18 points and before the period had run out, 28 counters had been added to NDAC's total during the quarter.

This display of strength can be largely contributed to one factor very noticeable in Monday's night's contest. The Bison were passing the ball around among themselves until one member of the team was open and in a position to get a fairly good shot at the hoop. Previously, the team has been prone to get a hold of the ball and let fly toward the nets regardless of where the shot was taken.

IN THE WORDS

of some of the Bison cagers themselves, the game was the best they have played all season with possible an exception in the case of the Montana State series played at Bozeman during the holidays. Should such performances continue through the remaining tilts on the Herd's schedule before we meet the University of North Dakota, the Sioux will have every reason to carry plenty of "arrows" with them when they go Bison hunting here next month.

PICKING THE WINNERS

was not a good occupation last week as the weather, schedule changes and "upsets" tended to throw this writer's selections into a cocked hat. Weather forced postponement of Valley City's game at Mayville Friday and South Dakota State played host to Morningside instead of Iowa Preflight so that out of nine games played, I only was on the right bench in five instances. Undismayed I give you my choices for this week with the winners listed in black faced type.

Seek Second Win Over NDAC Cagers Monday

I-M Cage Final Between Vets, ATOs Postponed Until Wednesday Night

Championship of the Intramural basketball league will be at stake Wednesday when the ATO quintet takes the floor against the Veterans.

The game is slated for 7:30 p.m. on the Fieldhouse court and had originally been scheduled as a preliminary to the Augustana-NDAC game Friday night. The change in dates was made by the athletic department to allow more students and basketball fans at large to attend. Open to the public, no admission will be charged. Alpha Tau Omega earned its right into the finals with a 40-22 triumph over the SAEs last week while the Veterans scored victories over the Dorm and Alpha Gamma Rho earlier to gain the championship title.

Herd Whips Comets In 68-42 Tussle

Marvel Deike, tossing in 19 points for a new individual Bison scoring mark this season, paced NDAC to a 68-42 triumph over Mayville State Teachers college's Comets on the Fieldhouse floor Monday.

It was the second win this season over the Mayville five for the Herd which had defeated the Comets 53-33 on the Mayville court in the opener for both teams last November.

All the NDAC starters figured strongly in the attack which found the Bison racking up 28 counters in the third period. Deike, Dick Hilden and Jerry Mulready poured the points through the net at a rate of 18 in the first four minutes of the stanza before Mayville took time out.

Byron Bakkum, Mayville center, paced the Comets with 12 points on five field goals and two free throws.

Bison Fail To Avenge Loss As Peds Win Again

Falling short of victory in a fourth period drive, the Bison failed to avenge an earlier defeat by Bemidji State Teachers college as the Beavers scored a 48-45 win over the Herd at Bemidji Saturday. It was the 10th victory of the year for Bemidji against no defeats.

NDAC led 23-22 at halftime after the Peds held a slight 11-10 margin going into the second stanza but Bemidji paced the scoring as the final quarter opened at 38-32.

Marvel Deike tallied 18 points for NDAC while Bruce Warner scored 12 for the Bison. Bemidji's offense was led by George Thorbrogger and Frick Haugo with 13 and 12 counters respectively.

Bison Face Cobbers, Valley City Again

NDAC meets Concordia college's Cobbers Monday at 8 p.m. on the Fieldhouse court in a third game between the two teams after each has won a single contest.

Students of both schools will be required to pay 25 cents admission at the door in addition to presentation of their activity tickets.

Tuesday, the Herd journeys to Valley City to meet the State Teachers college Vikings.

ATO's Lead Bowlers As Sigs Drop Two

Alpha Tau Omega swept through three straight games Thursday to take the lead in the NDAC bowling league as Sigma Chi dropped two lines to the Alpha Gamma Rho. Previously, the Sigs and ATOs had been tied for the top position in the six team loop.

Theta Chi keglers also took three straight games to move into fourth place behind the Gamma Rho.

Lowemen Face Viking Five Friday At 8

Coach Bob Lowe's cagers face Augustana college here Friday night at 8 on the Fieldhouse court in the first game of a two-game jaunt by the South Dakota school into North Dakota. Saturday, the Vikings will meet the University of North Dakota Sioux at Grand Forks.

Little comparison is possible between Friday's opponents in that they have not faced a common foe this season. However, Augustana, a member of the North Central Intercollegiate loop, has already played the Sioux from UND at Sioux Falls. On January 10, Coach Glenn Jarrett's five spoiled the Vikings' unbeaten record after four straight wins with a 45-41 conquest in the South Dakota city.

Using previous scores as a standard to indicate Augustana's possible showing against the Herd gives the Bison an advantage. The Sioux, winners over the Vikings earlier this month, lost a 45-44 contest to Concordia's Cobbers at Grand Forks during the holidays and NDAC has already split with the Moorhead school in two games.

Lowe is expected to send Marvel Deike and Dick Hilden into the tilt as forwards with Jerry Mulready at center while Bruce Warner and Dennis Drews will be at their customary guard posts.

Augustana is expected to arrive in Fargo today and will work out in the Fieldhouse this afternoon.

PLEDGING

Pledging was held in Kappa Kappa Gamma house Sunday evening, January 27, for Joyce Gackle, Annette Martin, Mary Tharalson, and Ruth Wilhan.

Brothers pledge ATO together! They are Bernard and Curtis Kengh from Detroit Lakes.

Miles Brakke, Bob Hove, Frank McKim, Dunn-Barr Sands, Jack Von Bakern, and Irving Wangness answer when SAE's call "pledge"!

With the pledging of John Barbeau and John Deutsch, the Theta Chi pledges now number 35.

PARTIES

Past: Wednesday evening, January 30, Kappa Delta's entertained the Theta Chi's. The SAE's played host to the Kappa Kappa Gamma's; ATO's and the Alpha Gams partied at the "Y"; Phi Mu's entertained Kappa Sigs at the sorority house.

Future: Phi Mu treats Kappa Delta's at a Cocoa party, today from 4:30 to 6.

Open House: Theta Chi house, Sunday, February 3.

POTLUCK GUESTS

Seen at the various Greek bread boards Monday night: Alpha Gamma Delta; Marilyn Mathy, Meta Lou Sheffield, Hatie Thorlietson, Betty Ann Foster, Bonnie Martin, Royce Knapp.

Kappa Delta—Lola Card, Margaret Anderson, Frances Hillier, Ray Wiig.

Kappa Kappa Gamma—Marvel Bowlevard, Gloria Thysell, Enid McDowell, and George Rulon.

Phi Mu—Molly McGuire, Shirley Prince, Barbara Christenson, Delores Hall, Jo Ann Herigstad.

Phi Omega—Pat Gessel, former AC student, now attending Concordia.

Gamma Phi Beta—Lota Junge, Betty Cosgriff Baldwin, Marion Schollander, who has recently returned from Florida.

TIDBITS

Wedding bells rang out for Kappa Delta Marilyn Yoerg, former AC student, and Del Evans, Hollywood, California. Margaret Morris, KD, and Bill Brady were also married recently.

Mrs. Sherwood R. Phillips of Muscantini, Iowa, director of province four of Gamma Phi Beta sorority, has been a visitor this week, conferring with active and alumnae groups of the Alpha Omicron chapter.

Wednesday noon Dean Dinan and Matilda Thompson honored Mrs. Phillips at a luncheon in the Pine room of Ceres hall. Those present were panhellenic officers of various organizations. They are: Mrs. C. Gletzbath, president of province of Alpha Gamma Delta; Miss Matilda Thompson, province vice-president of Kappa Kappa Gamma; Dean Pearl Dinan, president of fellowship of Kappa Kappa Gamma; Pauline Reynolds, national treasurer of Kappa Delta; Mrs. Russell Sand, national president of province of Gamma Phi Beta; and Mrs. Jake Shotwell, alumnae advisor of the active chapter.

Thursday noon the alumnae board will entertain Mrs. Phillips at the home of Mrs. Sand, and in the Colonial room of the Gardner hotel, that evening.

Quantity Cookery Serve Noon Meals

Under the supervision of Miss Smith, the sixteen girls enrolled in quantity cookery have taken over the dining room and kitchen of Dakota hall, and are serving lunches Tuesday and Thursday noon, to gain practice in quantity food work.

Formerly Dakota hall was used as a part of the College Cafeteria center, so some of the large equipment used then, is available for the use of this class; it furnishes excellent problems in institutional management, skill and in operating large equipment.

Teachers Return From Service

Not all the returning GI's on the campus are students. A number of the faculty members have returned from military service.

Mr. Schoff of the English department, for example, had shed his uniform as a lieutenant in the Army Air Corps only a few scant weeks before he turned his attention to Shakespeare's comedies and problems in English grammar.

Mr. White, instructor in economic science, was not freed from the clutches of the Office of Military Government until three days after his classes had convened. Mr. Miller of the chemistry department was still a captain in the army last term.

Mr. Bolin, associate professor of veterinary science, and Mr. Kostka, who was a Lt. Comm. in the USNR, both returned to their posts on campus January 1.

Pharmacy Club Annual Banquet To Be At Graver

Pharmacy club will hold its annual banquet, February 5, in the Graver hotel.

Jeanne Browman heads the affair, assisted by John Craven, program, Allison Hartz, decorations. Mr. Craven will act as toastmaster.

Papyrus Ebers, Pharmacy Club publication, will be edited under the direction of John Craven.
