Organizations Arrange For Stunt Night

On Saturday night, April 14, at 8:00 p. m., a fun-packed All College Stunt Night will get under way. Under the direction of Ralph Torson, Master of Ceremonies, stunts will be presented by the faculty and by the following organizations: Alpha Gamma Delta, Gamma Phi Beta, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Kappa Delta, Phi Mu, Phi Omega Pi, Ceres Hall, The Independent Student Association, Sigma Alpha Iota, Phi Upsilon Omicron, Sigma Chi, and Tryota. Selected judges will choose prize-winning stunts from the group presented, after which lunch will be served and there will be dancing with music furnished by the nickleodian. The evening promises to be entertainment packed and well worth the twenty-five cent entrance charge.

The purpose of the stunt night, to be held in Festival Hall, is to raise money for prisoners of war, needy students, and faculty members in countries such as France, India, China, Switzerland, and Great Britain. All students are urged to support this worthwhile cause by their attendance.

Chemistry Club Meeting Tonight

According to an announcement issued by Dean Dunbar, the next meeting of the Chemistry Club will be held tonight, April 12. A business session for members only will be held at 7:30 in Room 207 followed at 8:00 by an open program presented in Room 204.

The program should prove of interest to all students enrolled in Chemistry courses. Mr. R. W. Shultz, meteorologist with the United States Weather Bureau at Hector Airfield, will speak on the thermodynamics of weather. He has promised to bring along certain instruments used in forecasting weather conditions, and in explaining the use of these instruments will give his audience some insight on the methods used in weather forecasting.

Mr. Clifford Erickson will give a brief talk and demonstration on DDT, the effective new insecticide which promises to become one of the scientific wonders which will be released for public use after the war.

A fifteen-minute movie on a subject especially interesting during wartime will be shown through the courtesy of the Goodrich Tire and Rubber Company. The picture is entitled, "An American Success Story—Synthetic Rubber."

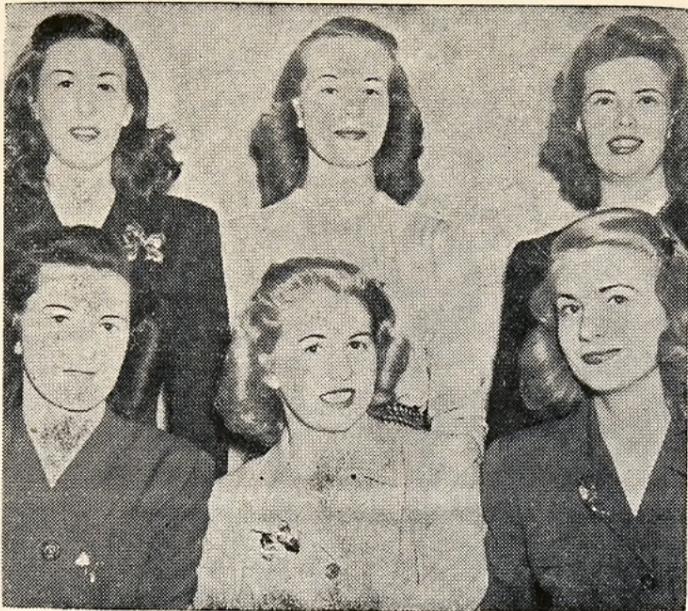

After the program, refreshments will be served at ten cents per serving.

All chemists and students enrolled in service courses in Chemistry are encouraged to attend either or both of these meetings, depending upon whether or not they are members of the Chemistry Club.

Convocation

Remember convocation at four o'clock Friday, April 13, in the Little Country Theater. Rabbi Joseph L. Barron of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, will be the speaker at this time.

Sorority Presidents

Museum Open To Students

Tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, the Nature Museum on the third floor of Science Hall in room 305 will have its grand opening. This museum is under the supervision of Dr. Whedon, head of the zoology department, and Prof. Moberg, head of the geology and geography department.

Dr. Whedon has spent long hours arranging a magnificent display of both rare and common birds and animals. Prof. Moberg, assisted by Dick Moore, has arranged an unusually fine display of rocks and minerals totaling more than 400 varieties, with a group of Florescent minerals to be seen under the rays of argon light. Fossil plants and animals ranging from 25,000 years to 150 million years of age can also be examined.

It is hoped that the student body and faculty will take advantage of the opportunity they have of making use of this worthwhile addition to our campus.

Hotchkiss To Join NDAC Staff Soon

Donald G. Hotchkiss has resigned as county agricultural agent for Williams County, effective May 1, and will join the staff of NDAC as animal husbandry specialist. In his position at NDAC he will work with the various livestock breeders' associations throughout the state.

The past achievements of Mr. Hotchkiss were not confined to his regular work of county agent. In addition to many AAA activities, he has been active in the formation of 4-H clubs, several of which have been organized within the past few weeks.

Geography Class Visits Fargo Forum

Geography class accompanied by Prof. Moberg and Dr. Pettee made a field trip to the Fargo Forum building in order that they might study one of the local industries. One of the most interesting processes seen by the group was the machine which produces 25,000 papers an hour.

The geology and geography department under the direction of Prof. Moberg is planning a few more field trips for the various classes to be held sometime in May.

Phi Omega Pi And Kappa Delta Sororities Hold Initiation Services

Pre-initiation for Phi Omega Pi pledges began on Monday of this week and will end with the initiation ceremony to be held Sunday morning in the lounge of the College Y. A Fireside cocoa party will be held Friday evening at the chapter house. In charge of initiation services is Jean Warner, assisted by Ellen Stemme, Peggy O'Brien, and Eileen Heinz. A breakfast in honor of the new initiates, will be given Sunday after the initiation.

Activities of pre-initiation week will continue until after the Court of Honor which will end the activities on Sunday morning. The breakfast, held at the Graver Hotel at 9:15, will be followed by all members attending their own church services. Eileen Heinz is in charge of the Court of Honor.

The twelve girls who will go active are Jean Rinde, Hoopie, Dolores Martinson, Mary Lou Meyers, Lois Hooper, Helen Beauchamp, Phyllis Cummings, Fargo; Gerry Clough, Emerick; Eileen

Inter-Class One-Act Play Contest April 24

At 8 o'clock Tuesday evening, April 24th, in the Little Country Theatre the Annual One-Act Play Contest will be held. Freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors will vie for honors with their presentations. Each class is entirely responsible for its play. A class director and committees choose the play, cast it, direct and produce it. Production problems handled by the committees include those of lighting, costuming, and setting.

The Senior class's presentation, Still Stands the House by Gwendolyn Pharis, is an American Folk Play, written under the auspices of the Carolina Playmakers. Beverly Halbeisen will direct the production. Kay Ranney, Nathan Crosby, and Pat Wirtenberger are in charge.

Betty Lou Payne will direct the Junior production of Just Another Saturday by John Wiley. Gwen Host is assistant director. Arden Aanestad, Lois Olson, Arlyne Pfeiffle, Gil Spooner, and Arlys Jensen have charge of the setting. Costumes will be planned by Lorraine Kibler, Inez Carlson, Norma Jean Gackle, and Lois Wangen. Rose Anne Vogel and Peggy Freeburg are in charge of properties. Bill Stockman will handle the lighting.

The Sophomores will give Gander Sauce by Betty Smith. Sally Cook, Eleanor Juhlke, and Marian Schollander are on the committee in charge. The director is Edith Gelder.

The Freshman class has chosen the play Three's a Crowd by Sara Sloane McCarty and E. C. McCarty. The play committee for the class consists of Marilyn Collette, Bob Shirley, Jackie Brady, and Paul Kornberg. Audrey Remme is the director.

Tryouts have been held by the various classes. Rehearsals are being commenced as soon as the casting is complete.

Blue Key Semi-Formal Friday Night

Final arrangements have been completed for the Blue Key semi-formal dance which is to be held in Festival Hall tomorrow night starting at 9 o'clock and all indications point toward the making of this evening a success.

Tickets have been on sale at the book store and will remain so through tomorrow. There will also be sale of tickets at the door the night of the dance. Price of these tickets is 75 cents a couple.

Chaperons for the dance will be Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Vassel and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Moberg of the college faculty.

This is the first major undertaking of the Blue Key on the campus after its reorganization and every effort is being made by them in giving the college students an enjoyable evening of dancing to a fine orchestra. It is hoped that the students will back such undertakings and thereby make possible more things in the future.

Postponement

The YWCA Spring Dinner which was scheduled for Tuesday, April 17, has been postponed indefinitely. Installation of officers will be arranged for by next Monday.

WANTED: Relief operator for the college switchboard, to begin work now. Preferably a girl who lives near the college. See Mrs. Bergh in Main Building.

Gamma Phi Beta Honors Officer

National traveling secretary, Miss Evelyn Gooding, Champaign, Illinois, left yesterday for Minneapolis where she will inspect the University chapter. Miss Gooding was entertained Sunday evening by Dorothy Allen and Irene Gunvaldsen, and at dinner Monday noon by Darlene Jones and Marian Schollander.

Monday afternoon Miss Gooding conducted individual conferences with the officers of the active chapter. She was guest at the pot-luck and active meeting Monday evening.

Officers of the alumnae chapter honored Miss Gooding at a luncheon Tuesday noon at Genes; followed at 4:00 p. m. by a tea at the sorority apartment with the active chapter as hostesses. Edith Gelder, social chairman, was in charge of arrangements. Serving on the refreshment committee were June Isaack, chairman; Gloria Ludemann and Jeanne Brunskill, all of Fargo. House committee for the tea included Audrey Remme, Fargo, and Joyce Smith, Jamestown.

Tuesday evening the entire alumnae chapter honored Miss Gooding at a dinner at the Graver Hotel. Kathy Colman, Edith Gelder, Dorothy Allen and Irene Gunvaldsen entertained her Wednesday at lunch.

Open Forum

Last Friday at the Student Commission meeting there were on hand around 35 students who presented various views on the subject of the cut system, which was the main business before the commission at that time.

There seem to have been reports of individuals who have been somewhat unsatisfied with portions of the material appearing in this paper (especially on this page). You can please some of the people all of the time and all of the people some of the time but not all of the people all of the time.

We really don't mind people coming into the Spectrum office and "browsing" around, but please leave things where you find them. Any materials which we have on hand are not meant for the common use and consumption by the students.

And now getting back to the lighter side of the world and in closing we are going to pass on to you a little ditty which was placed on The Spectrum desk and which might just accidentally happen to strike a few.

A law against obtaining husbands under false pretenses which was passed by the English Parliament in 170 enacts:

"That all women of whatever age, rank, profession or degree, who shall, after this act, impose upon, or seduce and betray into matrimony any of His Majesty's male subjects, by virtue of scents, paints, cosmetic washes, artificial teeth, false hair, Spanish wool, iron stays, bolstered hips or high-heeled shoes; shall incur the penalty of the law now in force against witchcraft and like misdemeanors; and the marriage under such circumstances shall be null and void."

Let's all look forward to the army show which will be on our campus either the 19th or 20th.

Series FROM Ceres

NOTHING HAPPENS . . . Around Ceres Hall anymore; Valentine's Day is past—no candy; Easter is past—no flowers; Christmas isn't here yet—no presents; the ASTR is past—no dates . . . times are tough for a gossip columnist.

THE GUEST . . . Was in Ceres one night last week . . . clad in a little pink-striped job and a green coat . . . sitting up till the wee hours in a cold sweat over her first Zoo test . . . Flash; Nash! Flash!

AT LAST . . . Art Holmgren has arrived in Fargo . . . one week he was to be home in a month . . . you were kept up-to-date on his program, until last week he was to be home in three days . . . have fun, Av. . .

DRAMA . . . Has reared its head, ugly or beautiful, as the case may be, as the dramatically inclined Sallies from Ceres went over to Old Main for play try-outs this week . . . good luck on the play, Audrey . . .

SLINGING THE INK . . . To Paratrooper Joe Jackson of Jamestown is Joyce Smith, these rainy spring nights . . . happy landings, boy . . . by the way, Smitty . . . how does it seem to go out with a man whose last name is the same as yours?

HERE COMES THE NAVY . . . To see Carol Pritchard Saturday night . . . also a friend for Mary Hilleboe . . . a fun time of dancing . . .

IT'S ALL OVER NOW . . . For a lot of girls, the end of Hell Week, and the goal of a shiny active pin has been reached at last . . . congratulations, every one of you . . . how does it feel to sit on a chair again?

BRIGHT FORECAST . . . Gene Krupa is coming to town . . . if you want to know what can really be done with a drum . . . (Pd. Adv.)

SILLY GIRL . . . Lydia Smith . . . she wandered up and down the halls saying "Hi" in an expectant voice, then asking, "Have you any butter?" Those red points are scarcer than hen's teeth around here . . . well, watch those molars sprout . . .

she just walked by with half a pound of butter !!!

CHEMISTRY . . . Those of us who are taking Qual this term have nearly been driven to changing our address to care of Chemistry Building . . . we don't mind three 3-hour labs per week, but when it gets so bad that you spend fifteen hours in excess in that atmosphere, things are really bad . . . by the way, where can we join Chemistry Club?

Miss Thompson To Lead SAI Musicale

On Wednesday, April 18, SAI will present a musicale at the Fine Arts Club. Led by Miss Mathilda Thompson, the program of English and American music will be as follows: Grossens—"The Hurdy Gurdy Man." Alethe Weger. Treharne—"Corals." Vaughn Williams—"Silent Moon." Lucille Vangerud. Scott—"Lento," "Dance Negre." Mrs. Cooper. Stoessel—"Suite for Two Violins." Virginia Young, Louise Stern. Griffes—"By a Lonely Forest Pathway." Deems Taylor—"May Day Carol." Virginia Kolsen. MacDowell—"Praeludium." Hazel Ostfield. Grofe—"Mississippi Suite." Iva Fillebrown, Alethe Weger. Busch—"Concertante." Lorraine Nelson, Kay Huntley, Florenz Bjornson.

NOTICE

If there is anyone on the campus who has a yen for acting, building, painting, designing, sewing, climbing ladders, pounding nails, etc., will he or she please report to the Little Country Theatre immediately. A special call is being sent out to the 96 on the campus (the men). A crew of about 15 is needed for the production staff of the next all-college play which will be given in the Little Country Theatre early in May. Tryouts for a cast are also being held this week.

Odds And Ends

ODD: That there is no coke machine in the Science Hall (where the majority of the students have class and congregate). But still they have them in other buildings. Must be that a certain "pull" is needed, or something?? Also it would be nice if those that we did have would work off and on.

&: Tomorrow night is the Blue Key dance. Many students are always crying for some college functions. Now we have it, so why not turn out for the occasion and make it a big success. See you there, we hope.

END: Seemingly we have come to the Kicked around subject of cuts. After all that has been done along this line, let's hope that something comes of it and that it will not just be another passing fancy.

ODD: How bracelets pass in and out of the picture these days in such a hurry. Especially when they belong to your grandmother. There should be more of the same kind of grandmothers around we should say. How about it Butch and Jim?

&: Math really had a working over in the recent case of a certain sorority pledge in an attempt to obtain a 1. average but no matter which method of calculating was used it was to no avail and it still remained that big .01 short of that precious goal. Doesn't seem hardly possible.

END: In case any of the coeds were wondering about the group of boys who were on the campus during the last week, they were Future Farmers of America (looking for a future). Reports have it that Prexy made a good impression on them.

ODD: Getting used to B. T.'s new short haircut. The weather sort of pulled an about face on him though. Also along the same hair line—did you ever notice upon looking down upon George's head the view thereof? Would seem that Indians had been at work in the neighborhood.

&: A word from the janitors on the matter of the cigarette signs in Science Hall as to the orange color used. Because they didn't believe it to be AC students who were misplacing the cigarettes but Moorhead individuals, they did not use our own school colors. They might have something there.

END: Of the SAE hell week came last week and with reportedly very few sore spots but some dreary eyes. Anyone wishing some fine scrubbers (guaranteed to remove all dirt as well as paint) should contact a few of the boys.

Seasonable Stuff . .

BY UNCLE LOUIE'S NIECE

What's the latest patter around the campus? What new activities (and inactivities) has spring 'drug in'? Acute cases of spring fever seem widespread and rapidly increasing, but a few guys and gals still have a sufficient portion of the three V's to exert themselves either physically, mentally, or both. And we can prove it!

Some of our "keep-that-weight-coeds" are having a little trouble with their forehand and backhand strokes. That Physical Training tennis is really some stuff, or so we hear. But there's one girl who doesn't seem to have much trouble with the game. As she puts it, "It's just like Uncle Louie said to me once; 'Me an' a racket just go fine toggeder. I must have somethin' on the ball!' The game is strenuous, but it's worth it. Who knows—someday I may develop a waistline."

Most of us feel an aversion to the cold-carrying bacteria that seem so prevalent around the campus nowadays. A certain student has even gone so far as to write a composition on germs, which we feel it is our duty to present to you at this time (the composition, we mean).

"Germs are dirty little creatures. They creep up behind us and catch us with our resistance down. There are several distinct types of germs, but one is just as bad as the other, so why elaborate. Germs attack all well-meaning citizens and me. In this respect they are very Democratic—I mean democratic. My personal experience with germs has been varied and multi-colored; and I might add that germs are too. The only difference between a germ and Uncle Louie is that I've never seen a germ stagger. I've never even seen a germ. Come to think of it, I've never seen Uncle Louie. I knew a germ once; and I believe I speak with authority, the authority being the traffic cop whom I once found breathing down my neck. I insisted there was a germ in my speedometer, but he hunted down the gremlin, and proved it. And I might add a word of warning; in the event that ever you should to some extent, DON'T!"

Another current topic is, as usual, the weather. Prof. H. Z. Fuzzlegurp has aptly expressed our views on this subject in a charming informal essay entitled, "Weather". As Prof. Fuzzlegurp says: "Weather is what, when you haven't got anything to say, you talk about. Whether it's cold or whether it's hot, we will have weather whether or not. Weather is also what everybody says nobody can make up their minds about. The year should be divided into four seasons—spring, summer, fall, and winter, like the Montgomery Ward catalog, only separate. Weather is what everybody is never satisfied with. In the summer, people wish it were cold, and in the winter they wish it were hot. I don't see why it makes any difference whether we rave 40 below zero and snow in August instead of January. It would be just as cold only then people would go to California for the summer (who can afford it) instead of the winter. People who talk about the weather have had plenty to talk about lately. One day it snows and the next day the snow melts so there will be room enough for the snow which will come the next day—if nobody thinks it will. People's opinions differ where matters of weather are concerned. There are two main classes—the optimists, who think the weather will be all right; and the pessimists, who are right."

Well it could be. At any rate, we've proved that even spring fever cannot daunt the deep thinking philosophers of NDAC. Maybe what we need it a hurricane.

Thursday Teas to be Resumed The All-College Student and Faculty teas will be resumed this Thursday.

❖ CAMPUS CLADS ❖

By Pat and Marian

Some eccentric garbs could be elaborated on this week, such as those worn by the victims of "Hell Week!" This would be strictly off the record, however, so we proceed in our usual manner.

Rain, rain, rain! The result is slacks. Some are comfortably "sloppy-joeish," others nicely tailored.

Mary Hilleboe—looks casually comfortable in her bright scotch plaid clam-diggers.

Avis Salisbury—added a bright note to the gloomy weather this week. Her well-tailored brown twill slacks suit is worn with a colorful flannel shirt.

June Carlson—sets her pose in wooden shoes! Yes, we mean it literally. They have wooden soles, and leather uppers. These shoes are accessory items to her caramel colored slacks suit of rayon gabardine. The long jacket has a set-in belt and huge pockets. No ration stamps for the shoes; no cuffs for the slacks.

Merle Knott—our campus photographer, wears a beige, wool sport coat. It is single breasted with patch pockets. Tops for campus wear.

Mille Humphreys—striding along in her gray-beige ultra-smart wool gabardine suit. An old-fashioned heavy gold watch chain drapes from button to pocket of suit jacket. Black accessories—and a pink wool Chinese style topper. Attractive! Smooth!

Emmy Stahlem appeared the other night in a lovely date dress. It has a low bodice with a pleated skirt, offset by three-quarter length sleeves. It was particularly noticed because of the lavender shade which blends so well with Emmy's blonde hair.

HAVE YOU SEEN?

Peg O'Brien's red jacket. It is the exact duplicate of a sailor's short jacket with huge white buttons down the front. Hey Peg, isn't your man an army man?
Jean Hendrickson's sage green gabardine casually smooth coat with a two season lining.

Lola Card's light blue wool flannel belted shorty with pleats in the back. Don't miss seeing it.

Wally Erickson's nice looking beige wool tie with red wheel designs. It is sharp!

Special Tryota Meeting Tonight

A special Tryota meeting will be held tonight, April 12. Following a business meeting in Ceres Hall at 7:30, there will be Red Cross sewing for all. The club has been assigned the job of making seventy "housewives," which are mending kits for men in the armed forces. These are to be used as working models.

Items of importance to be considered at the business meeting are as follows: final voting on revision of the constitution, and reports by members who attended the Province Convention in Minneapolis in February. Members are requested to bring ten cents to cover refreshment charges.

LSA Meetings

Lutheran Student Action will be discussed at the Lutheran Student Association meeting on April 15 and continued on April 22.

This topic consists of the three mission projects of L. S. A. They are Lutheran World Action, the India-China Scholarships, and the World's Student Christian Federation.

The meetings will be at the "Y" at 5:15 p. m. and all students are invited to attend.

YW Cabinet Appointed

The following Y. W. C. A. cabinet members for the next year were chosen by the newly elected officers meeting in executive session. The girls and their positions are: Campus sister chairman Mary Burfening, Conference chairman Patricia Farr, Courtesy Chairman Beverly Anderson, Finance chairman Jean Warner, Membership chairman Darleen Thompson, Music chairman Deloris Fischbein, Public affairs chairman Lois Krebsbach, Publicity chairman Janet Lyngstad, Poster chairman Gloria Asker, Radio chairman Edith Gelder, Social Activities chairman Lillian Larson, Social service chairman Gladys Peterson, World student service fund Betty Lou Meidinger, Worship chairman Glenna Kjelland, Freshman commission advisor Mary Lou Kramer, and Sophomore commission advisor Lida Lawrence. The new cabinet will hold its first meeting at 6:45 P. M., April 25, 1945.

FFA Entertains On AC Campus

The college sponsored on Wednesday, April 4, an afternoon coffee for the Future Farmers of America who were in attendance at an Achievement Institute at the college April 4, 5 and 6. Hostesses were girls from the college 4-H Club: Mildred Nording, Marian Pierson, Sue Naaden, Coleen Keck, Carol Stover, Eileen Stewart, Florence Obrigewitch, Doris Dean, Evelyn Wyum. The girls took the boys through the Theater and the Cabin and later President Eversull met with the boys in the Green Room.

Tryota Plans For Dinner Meeting

The annual Tryota Home Project dinner meeting will be held Tuesday, April 17, at 5:30 p.m. in the Lincoln Log Cabin of Little Country Theater. In charge of the dinner arrangements are Farrand Clarke of Moorhead and Enid Whittenberg of Detroit Lakes. Tickets for the dinner are being sold for thirty-five cents by a large and representative committee headed by Jean Rinde of Hoople. These must be purchased by noon on Monday, when reservations for the dinner will be closed.

The program, as is customary, will consist of reports of students whose projects have special merit. Recognition will also be given to students whose home projects have been awarded honorable mention.

Election of officers for the ensuing year will also take place at this meeting.

NOTICE

Articles for The Spectrum should be handed in by Tuesday afternoon if at all possible in order to leave time for last minute material on Wednesday which cannot be handed in earlier. This is important because we have a deadline to meet with the printers and it is only with everyone's cooperation that we can do so. Thank you.

WAA Officers Elected For Coming Year

The following officers were elected to serve for the coming year at the last WAA meeting held Tuesday evening, March 14, in the Ceres Hall Gym: President Susie Naaden, Vice President Janice Bergeson, Secretary-treasurer, Wilma Taylor.

New associate members are: Allison Hartz, Gail Nelson, Grace Olson, Jean Gowenlock, Laura Pollman, Barbara Loomis, Judith Gessner, Marlys Davis, Dorine Smith, Coleen Keck, Eileen Stewart, and Mary Burfening.

Alpha Gamma Delta

During the Feast of Roses banquet held Saturday evening at the Graver Hotel, the following awards were presented: Sue Ste- nerson, most representative seni- or; Lois Olson, highest active average; Betty Lou Meidinger, ac- tive raising her average the most number of points; Rhoda John- son, initiate with the highest average; Ellen Johnson, activity and also the most representative pledge.

Installation of new officers was held following the Monday eve- ning meeting.

Luetta Pfeifle passed candy this week.

Gamma Phi Beta

At the active meeting Monday evening, Virginia Paulsrud, schol- arship chairman, presented the Metzinger memorial scholarship awards to Lillian Larson and Jean Finnigin. Virginia Paulsrud and Marilyn Collette were presented these awards for the preceding term. The awards are in the form of inscribed gold bracelets, which according to the sorority tradi- tion, are passed to the girls each term who succeed in raising their average the most.

New pledge officers elected Monday evening were: Joyce Smith, president; Audrey Remme, vice president; Alice Reimers, secretary; and Mary Hilleboe, treasurer.

Potluck guest Monday evening was Marjorie Sebens.

Kappa Delta

Scholarship awards were made recently by Lois Krebsbach, schol- arship chairman, to Inez Carlson, who received the Pauline Reyn- olds award for the highest aver- age; Jean Monson and Yvonne Christiansen, who received the active and pledge bracelets re- spectively for raising their aver- ages the most.

Donna Cates was potluck guest Monday evening.

The Theta Chi fraternity was entertained by the sorority from 8 to 11 on Friday evening with dancing and bridge forming the evenings entertainment. Mr. and Mrs. J. Earl Cook and Dr. and Mrs. Edgar Painter were chape- rones.

The pledges entertained at a re- cord party on Saturday evening from 8:30 to 12. Chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Glen Smith and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Moberg. In charge of general arrangements were: Elizabeth Grosz, Lois Dick- son, Joanne McElroy, Caryl Freedland, and Ruth Gordon.

Phi Mu

Potluck guests Monday evening were Dr. and Mrs. Metzinger, Miss J. Phillips, Miss Minnie An- derson, Mrs. Hazel Pierce, and Margaret Gruski. After the active meeting the chapter surprised Ruth Twete at a party in honor of her birthday anniversary.

Tuesday evening at five o'clock, the active and pledge groups will meet at the house for an informal coffee hour. Helen Crews and Deloris Fischbein are in charge of arrangements.

Deloris Fischbein and Helen Crews were appointed to arrange the stunts for the All College Stunt Night.

Phi Omega Pi

Potluck guests Monday evening were Joyce Hudson and Mrs. Clough. All Alumnae members were guests after which a joint meeting was held.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon

Louis Larson, Floyd Grothe, Sherman Rorvig, and Royce Knapp were formally initiated in- to the Active Chapter on Monday evening.

The Active Chapter paid silent tribute in memory of Brother Gordon Strom, who was recently killed in action.

Ensign Chuck Martin left by plane Saturday morning for active duty after spending several weeks at his home in Fargo.

Gordon Brandes, former S. A. E. president, is spending a few days here in Fargo.

Sigma Chi

Home on furlough and a visitor at the chapter house this week has been Cpl. Fred Hagen.

Bill Taylor and Paul Kornberg head a committee appointed to take charge of making arrange- ments for the chapter's partici- pation in the All College Stunt Night.
