

Mother To Son . . . A Negro Ballad

Well, son, I'll tell you,
Life for me ain't been no crystal stair.
It's had tacks in it,
And splinters,
And boards torn up,
And places with no carpets on the floor,
Bare.

But all the time
I've been climbing on
And reachin' landin's,

And turning corners,
And sometimes goin' on in the dark
Where there ain't been no light.
So, boy, don't you turn back.
Don't you set down on the steps
'Cause you find it's kinder hard.
Don't you fall now—
For I've still goin'. Honey,
I've still climbin',
And life for me ain't been no crystal stair.
—Langston Hughes.

Plans For All-College Near Completion

After a week of intensive campaigning the race for May Queen is more uncertain than ever as campus organizations plan last minute publicity stunts to publicize candidates.

Tomorrow night's dance gets under way at 9 sharp in Festival hall and terminates at 12 midnight. Bunky Cooper and his orchestra have been contracted for the event.

CANDIDATE KELLY TO SING

Entertainment features slated for the evening are novel and were selected with a purely "entertaining" motive in mind. Featured will be Candidate Kelly of the OCS. Kelly, a member of Paul Whiteman's band before entering the army, will sing several popular numbers; he will provide his own accompaniment at the piano.

Other numbers on the modified floor show include vocal solos by Marjorie Peterson and Candidate Monroe. Question mark of the evening is the one-act drama (?) to be presented by Candidate Pomeroy and Eddie Conlin.

Bridge and checkers will be offered in the Green room for those who care less for the terpsichorean arts.

POLL VOTES AT DOOR

Ted Brevik, YMCA president, will introduce Queen candidates and present the loving cup to the girl elected. Votes will be polled at the door; each ticket for admission will constitute one vote.

Stag and "stagess" lines will be permitted, Y members in charge announce. All coeds, fellows and candidates without dates for tomorrow's dance are requested to come anyway. Stag votes will count toward election of the queen—and the chances are good that dates can be "arranged" after stag fellows and girls arrive. A special price for stag girls is 25 cents.

In charge of preparations is Lawrence Stine.

Honors Day Wednesday

Don Bahl, Blue Key president, will be master of ceremonies at the Honor day program Thursday morning, May 13.

Weather permitting, the event will be held on the green east of the library.

Scholarships and awards for the year will be made by President Frank L. Eversull. Blue Key and Senior Staff will announce its newly elected members; Bahl will announce new Blue Key members, and Charlotte Bahe, president, members of Senior Staff.

Senior Staff will hold initiation of new members and a formal banquet at the Gardner hotel at 6:30 Thursday.

Tryota Club Plans Style Review, Tea

Tryota will present its annual spring style review and tea from 4 to 5:30 p. m. Wednesday, May 12, in Ceres hall parlors for Tryota members.

The style review is sponsored by the home economics staff and Tryota in conjunction with the May Festival. Due to marked curtailment of the Festival plans, the revue will be on a smaller scale this year. Following the modified style show, newly elected club officers will be installed.

In charge of arrangements are Tillie Ruud, Mildred Strong Bean and Donna Thompson. Mary Bristol heads the tea arrangements committee.

OCS Tea Dance For Class 8 Sunday

Class 8 will be host to Class 7 Sunday afternoon at Town hall, Gardner hotel, at the customary OCS Tea dance. Hours are 3 to 6 p. m.

According to Candidate Ray Kronmeyer, dance chairman, Lloyd Keller's orchestra has been engaged for the event. Refreshments will be served.

ATTENTION, SENIORS!

Commencement invitations will be available in the Registrar's office beginning Tuesday afternoon. Each senior is allotted 10. Call for your own.

Remember that all orders for caps and gowns must be made before May 15. Place orders at Bookstore.

Scholastic Society Honors Initiates; Pile Given Award

Phi Kappa Phi will hold its annual spring banquet in honor of spring term initiates at 6:30 p. m. Saturday at the Graver hotel. Initiation at 5:45 at the Graver will precede the event.

Dr. Helen White, English professor at the University of Wisconsin, will be honored speaker. W. L. Stockwell will present the Phi Kappa Phi award for the most outstanding member elected during the year, to Robert Pile. Because Pile is now in naval training and is unable to attend the banquet, he will receive the award in absentia.

Additional honored guests will be the six highest ranking freshmen, sophomores and juniors.

Moderns Pull Strike— Fail To Submit Slate

Frames Do Not Make Settlement; Elections To Be Held Wednesday

Moderns pulled a gigantic fade-out this week when they failed to propose candidates for campus offices for next year. However, in spite of this, elections will be held next Wednesday from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. in the Registrar's office, announces Ann Donovan, student commissioner of elections.

Arbitration between the two frames, Modern and Coalition, was attempted last Monday evening at a meeting at the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority house. A general representation of campus organizations was present at the meeting.

The Modern frame proposed that a nominating committee be formed consisting of faculty members and a representative from each of the student organizations. In this way it was hoped to pick candidates that have had experience in the field in which they would be running. If this policy had been adopted and politics would have been eliminated and the frames would have been absolved.

Coalitionists refused to arbitrate, thus the Modern party stated that they would not put up any candidates for the elections to be held Wednesday.

Writs of intention have been received from the following candidates of the Coalitionist party: President of Student Commission

Jean Baillie Chosen Queen Of Lilac Day

Jean Baillie will reign as queen over the annual Lilac day festivities to be held Tuesday, May 11. The program will begin at 4:30 in front of Old Main.

Attending the queen will be Irene and Inez Schonert, Mary Arvold, Annabelle Walker, Patricia Scheele, Betty Lynne, Marlys Braaten, Elaine Wigdahl, Jane Gilbert, and Esther and Irene Gunvaldsen. The queen and her attendants will wear pastel formals with lilac colored capes.

TO PLANT LILACS

Highlight of the festival will be the planting of Chinese lilac bushes south of Ceres hall in honor of NDAC boys in the armed services. 53 bonneted coeds representing North Dakota's 53 counties will sing Lilac Days. After the planting, a Lilac day dinner will be held in the Log cabin of the Little Country theater.

A typical Chinese wedding will be portrayed on the theater stage by Genevieve Lindemann as the bride, and James Sullivan as the groom. Jane Lashkowitz will also be in the wedding party.

TRADITIONAL EVENT

Lilac day has been a tradition since 1931, when Ethel Kraft was crowned first Queen of the Lilacs. Since then queens have been Frances Wheeler, Phyllis Trichler, Vivian Luther, Elizabeth Dewey, Margie Pfeffer, Marjory Huey, Delin Rudd, Muriel Schroeder, Frances Bettchen and Irene Murphy.

A banquet in the Log cabin will conclude festivities.

Women's Senate Elections Wed.

Thursday at 4 was set as the time for Women Senate election at a meeting held in Old Main last Wednesday. All members, old and new, will vote at the elections for which the old officers will serve as the nominating committee.

It was decided to replace the regular $50 scholarship with the dinners for the coeds of the sophomore, junior and senior classes begun this year.

A $10 scholarship will be awarded, however, to the junior girl who has maintained the highest average for the past five terms.

Your attention is hereby called to important stories on page 5 concerning Naval V-5 and V-7 and Marine corp reserve programs.

NOTICE

● straight-ticket?

Politics is always a touchy subject, it seems, and whenever anyone sticks his finger into it, he's sure to get his throat slit. However, as well aware of this fact as I am, I do not feel that the issue at play in our campus politics merits the shrug of the shoulder and "I don't care" attitude that it has received the past week or ten days.

What has happened at NDAC this past week is something that should give no person in any way engaged in the matter reason to feel proud. Rather he should hang his head. Both frames, as it happened, were at fault.

Coalitionist played well its role of the ruling power: We know we have the upper hand... We once were down and you ran us into the dirt... now we're on top and, by gorry, we're going to tramp all over you."

Modern interest, on the other hand was disgustingly passive. They were too willing to give in... They couldn't muster enough brain matter to propose a solution acceptable to both parties... And when Coalitionists said "You're washed up!", Moderns politely replied, "We know it, and we're leaving now... Bye."

Campus elections aren't of much importance to many, perhaps any, students on campus right now, but if we have to go to the polls to vote, it stands to reason that the election staged should be reasonably democratic. ND-AC has long been ruled by "mob" tactics. And when we at last did have an excellent opportunity to eliminate this practice, we let it go.

Now there's only one way out. When you go to the polls next Wednesday, forget about this "straight ticket" business. Use your own judgment and honestly vote for the better of the candidates proposed.

THE WORLD AT WAR

After seven weeks of severe conditioning, the Seventh Class ventured forth on extended maneuvers on Wednesday last. All operations were carried out and completed according to schedule. Of course, at this time, we are unable to disclose further the facts surrounding this most significant military development of the war to date. History alone will unfold its effects upon ultimate victory. For the present the only information we can release is as follows:

Contrary to propaganda heard over Radio Berlin, the rain and field mice were obstacles that were taken in stride. Total casualties were confined to minor blisters, and there may be some truth in the rumor that a few blisters were also nursed in the officers' quarters. The latter is, however, as yet unconfirmed.

TRUE OR FALSE?

Capt. Smith originated the oft used phrase, "Post, Camp and Station."

RUMOR DEPARTMENT

Is there any truth in the rumor that Herman, "The Character," is being transferred to Shenango following his recent commission?... We were so successful last week, in keeping the identity of our informant a secret, that we again were able to gain, heretofore, undisclosed information from the same source. Unofficially, of course, 32 graduates of the Seventh Class will be assigned (only 32) as mess officers with the WAACs. Previous experience with the WAACs along these lines, is not a prerequisite but is highly desirable.

Speaking Of

Corn

Well, here's Corny back again. As long as the Spectrum prints it, I'll write it.

These seniors that walk around the campus with their noses in the air. Ye Gads!!! One would think they were the only ones that ever did or ever will make the grade. Okay, so what? What if it will take a few miserable souls like me another ten years? I love the college. . . . I love my teachers. . . . I love the barns. . . . I love the grass. . . . I could go on like this forever . . .

Did you hear about the moron who was afraid to put a clock on the stairs because he was afraid it would run down?

Speaking of clocks: This time deal has me a little baffled. One consolation is that now we at least have a legal excuse for cutting 8 o'clocks.

Shore is a snappy little blue convertible that "fighting" Dan drives around. . . . Saw three girls gazing at it this morning, and so help me, each one was drooling. . . . That's all right, girls. Wait until you see my Rolls Royce. . . . that's what I said—"wait."

While we are on the subject of cars—confidentially, just what do you think of that little camouflaged number that usually sits in front of Engineering? Personally, I think that it's okay to show your loyalty and alma mater patriotism by using the college colors, but after all there is a limit to everything!

Don't you girls just love those squishy little worms that adorn campus sidewalks during the rainy weather? . . . Saw one gal look at one and remark, "That reminds me, I owe George a letter!"

Have you fellows noticed the girls' phy-ed classes that meet west of the library? . . . You haven't? Well, I have, and they wear shorts!

Please, schoolmates, buy lots of war bonds and stamps so that the war will hurry up and be over before they draft 4-Fs like me.

Well, I see Herman rounding the corner, so . . . SO LONG.

Million Free Chesterfields Every Week

A regular package of 20 Chesterfields free to 50,000 men each week—a million free cigarettes a week for Victory—that's Chesterfield's message of good cheer to our fighting men at the front.

With the slogan "It's Victory Cigarettes for the boys over here and Victory Smokes for the boys over there," Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company makes this announcement five nights a week over the regular Fred Waring "Pleasure Time" radio broadcast.

The sending of a million Chesterfields, week after week to 50,000 fighting men, in foreign theatres where smokes are hard to get and supplies not too frequently delivered, is largely the result of the radio public's interest in Chesterfield's outstanding radio shows.

To date, eight new service songs have been written and presented by Fred Waring and so far this year 110 different camps have voted on what they wanted Waring to play and then tuned in to hear the result. The songs written include "Sky Anchors" for naval aviation; "Roll Tanks Roll" for the armored forces; "Look Out Below" for the parachute troops; "The Fight Quartermaster Corps"; "The Men of the Merchant Marines"; "Man to Man" for the marching soldiers of the infantry; "In Navy Blue" for the WAVES and "Hail to the Corps" for marine aviation.

Equally popular is Harry James' tribute to the men in the armed forces with his nightly feature called the "Chesterfield Special." Since Harry James' records are hard to get, he plays a "Chesterfield Special" every night over the air, so that the boys in the far-off spots can hear their favorites in the sensational James arrangements, played through the mike exactly as the boys would hear them on their phonographs at camp.

• An Editor's Fulmination

The following editorial, as nearly as we can ascertain, appeared in the Purple and White, weekly newspaper of Millsaps college, Jackson, Mississippi, and was brought to the SPECTRUM's attention by the current Collegiate Press Review service. The matter treated applies to just about every college in the USA—including NDAC—as well as to Millsaps. Because it's cleverly written and has many potentialities applicable to NDAC we felt justified in reprinting it below.

Profs can sit crosslegged on the top of a desk; dean's first list students can let down their guard; student body presidents can fraternize with the masses.

Only an editor is required to be pontifical always.

Only an editor is supposed to know everything that happens, so it is taken for granted that he already knows it, and nobody ever tells him anything; only an editor is supposed to keep an open mind always, and at the same time to make snap decisions for each political impasse; only an editor is required to keep his nose out of politics, meanwhile keeping tabs on the strength of each separate lineup.

Only an editor has to grope blindly along, trying to put out a paper for a student body who will talk only behind his back, who will never tell him what they like or don't like, who will squawk audibly only when they are mortally and irreparably wounded, who never thank him when he says anything nice about them or censor anything nasty, who have to be tracked down, cornered, and beaten insensible before they will so much as give him a news lead. Profs have the satisfaction of seeing their teachings put into practice; dean's list students are an inspiration to their successors; student body presidents can point with pride at year's end to long rows of achievements.

Only an editor never accomplishes anything.

Only an editor has to endure the spectacle of 599 of his 600 loyal readers, each and every week, turning immediately on receipt of the paper to the Finger of Scorn, ignoring everything else in the issue; to find the layouts on which he and his staff have spent hours of work, completely unappreciated; to feel his editorial campaigns which he has planned for months, which are his only method of criticism of his school and of society, coldly ignored.

Profs get to sit on the stage; dean's list students don't have to attend class; student body presidents get to introduce visitors.

Only an editor is damnfool enough not to want to trade places with any of them.

And, when all's said and done, only an editor has the satisfaction of knowing that his thousand words a week are written down in letters that can never be erased; of feeling something in a way which must have immediate and lasting effect; of knowing that, if he knew how to use it, he has the whole state for his audience; of sensing that he is doing a job for the students which no one else could do in quite the same way; and last but not least, of being sure of a staff that, no matter how much he is forced to abuse them, overwork them, deny them any reward for their work, will be driven back for more by pure love of literary effort.

Only an editor would gripe about it.

Information Calling—

Nursing To The Fore

(Ed. Note: Although in popular usage nursing is not put in the Women-in-Armed Services bracket, nursing presents itself as a vital unit for girls and women interested in serving their country to best advantage. Nursing today demands a tremendous number of women volunteers if needs on all fronts are to be satisfied.

Because of the importance of this issue, this week's Information Calling is devoted to the explanation of and information on nursing in America today.)

Q. Where may I obtain lists and information about nursing schools in my state?

A. From Miss Clara G. Lewis, State Capitol, Bismarck.

Q. What are the requirements for admission to schools of nursing?

A. The minimum requirement for most schools is a high school diploma; however, girls with college work are preferred.

Q. What subjects are recommended for college students interested in nursing?

A. Biology, chemistry, economics, education, history, physics, psychology, sociology, speech and zoology are suggested.

Q. What is the acceptable age-range?

A. The acceptable age is 18 to 35 but the preferred age is 20 to 25.

Q. What type of work may I do to help during the emergency?

A. Auxiliary workers in the nursing service have been organized. College students are urged to attend classes for volunteer nurse's aides, home nursing and first aid.

Q. What services may volunteer nurse's aides perform?

A. The aides are assigned to hospitals and health agencies by your local Red Cross chapter and must agree to give 150 hours of service yearly for the duration.

Q. Of what does the training consist?

A. The curriculum consists of 80 hours of instruction in a seven week period divided into two units: first, the care of the sick in the hospital, and secondly, supervised practice in the hospital.

Q. Of what does the home nursing course consist?

A. Instruction in personal hygiene, home and community hygiene, and problems arising from sickness. This course is approximately six weeks long.

Q. What is the aim of the first-aid course?

A. This course teaches students what immediate emergency care to give the victim of an accident in the absence of a physician. The basic course consists of standard and junior courses.

Q. What opportunities will there be after the war in this field?

A. For nurses trained in this country there will be reconstruction work in other parts of the world. In the South American countries, there is much pioneering work in nursing to be done.

DeAlton Declares Need For Teachers In Vocational Ag

"There is a definite need for teachers of vocational agriculture in North Dakota," says Ernest L. DeAlton, state supervisor for agricultural education. "Persons with agricultural background and training who are interested in this type of work may find it profitable to qualify to enter this field."

"If a sufficient number are interested, the department of agricultural education at NDAC will make special arrangements to offer training needed during the summer months. Those interested should contact the department at an early date," DeAlton says.

Halbeisen Presides At Sophs' Coed Dinner

Soph coeds were guests of honor at an evening dinner Tuesday sponsored by members of Women's Senate in the Log cabin of the Little Country theater.

Beverly Halbeisen was toast-mistress for the occasion. The program under the direction of Laurel Hadler consisted of a vocal solo by Annyvonne Hess; piano selections by Jean Browman, and informal group singing led by President Eversull.

Hey, Fellas and Gals! Don't Forget Free Thursday Hops

Hey! Don't tell me that you didn't know that there is a dance every Thursday afternoon from 4 to 6 in Festival hall! Why there are signs all over the campus about it. Yes, the YMCA sponsors it, and very few students attend.

There are so many of you students on the campus, and I am one too, that are always griping about how school just "ain't" the same this year, and so forth and so on. But when we do have a chance to get out and have some fun, no one takes advantage of it.

May 4 is the birthday of Horace Mann, the father of public education. He was born in 1796. That's a good occasion to look again to the post-war role of education, perhaps with help of the NRPB report.

Last Thursday there were a of seven couples dancing at on time, and there is room enough on the floor for many time more. If about 100 of the 20 fellows who are left on the car pas and as many or more girl would come around Thursday afternoons we would have a bi time.

Every girl tries to excuse herself by saying that she has thought of coming, but you know how it is for a girl to be going "stag" to a dance. Well that is true, but Thursday Hop just aren't the same as an a college or a dance at the Crysta

So, all you lonesome girls, an those who are lucky enough no to be, drop in on us at Festival every Thursday afternoon from 4 to 6. There will be me around if you girls will onl give us something to come ove for.

Navy V-5s, V-7s Called To Active Duty

All qualified V-1 and V-7 enlistees will be ordered to active duty on or about July 1, 1943, as apprentice seamen under the Navy College Training program with pay, subsistence and uniforms. They will be assigned to colleges with which the Navy will have contracts for further training.

It is contemplated that men will be ordered to the schools of present attendance if such schools are on the Navy list of contract schools. If the schools are not on the Navy list of contract schools, the men will be ordered to the schools closest to their homes which teach the enlistees' major course of study.

V-1 students who were not eligible to take the examination on April 20, 1943, will be ordered to a Naval training school and will be given an achievement test at the end of the second term.

Those students who passed the April 20 qualifying examination will be called to active duty under the Navy College Training program. Those who failed will be subject to immediate transfer to some other class of the Naval reserve.

Students who are able to carry elective courses in addition to their Navy curriculum may do so provided the extra work does not interfere with their proper performance of assigned duties. If the college is satisfied that the student has adequately covered any of the subjects included in the curriculum, it may authorize the student to substitute courses for those already covered.

Navy students may, at their own personal expense, join all previously established college organizations and fraternities which are available to all students on the same terms. Discipline standards of the Navy will be maintained.

It is unnecessary for V-1 or V-7 enlistees to start another term of college when such term cannot be finished by July 1, 1943, and academic credits cannot be earned.

Marine Reservists Get College Training Soon

On or about July 1, 1943, the Marine corps will put into operation a plan of college training for reservists enrolled both in secondary schools and in colleges. The purpose of this program is to produce officer candidates for the Marine corps who, from data now obtainable, appear to have the necessary or potential educational background and qualities of personal leadership.

Although the scope of the program is based upon the estimated future requirements of the service, there is the possibility that there will be insufficient vacancies in the Marine corps for commissioning all of the students who successfully complete their college training. In the event that such situation occurs, students who are in excess of requirements will upon completion of college training be given the option of honorable discharge from the Marine corps reserve or assignment to general duty in the Marine corps.

The policy of the Marine corps will be: first, to assign students to the institution they previously attended, provided there is a Marine corps unit established at this institution; and second, to assign students, insofar as practicable, to the institution having a Marine corps unit where the least amount of travel is involved.

Reservists who took the general intelligence qualifying examination on April 20 and failed will be ordered to general enlisted service on active duty as privates, U. S. Marine corps. All junior and senior reservists, together with those who qualified under the April 20 examination, will be called to active duty as privates, U. S. Marine corps, with pay, subsistence and uniform and assigned to colleges for further college training.

Rain Slows Up Intramural Softball; Wed. Games Played

Rain has again cut the intramural softball schedule with Wednesday's games being the only ones played during the week.

The Kappa Sig ten scored their second win of the year as they turned back the SAE-ATO team 27-6. Herb Glaser and Eugene Jacobs combined their pitching support as the Kappa Sigs scored in all but one inning.

In the most interesting game played so far this year, the smooth-fielding AGR-Theta Chi team turned back Sigma Chi 13-9. The winners took a five run lead in the first inning and were never behind, although the Sigs got to Merlyn Anderson, pitching for the Gamma Rhos, for several runs in the late innings.

Games rained out will be played later.
