

THE SPECTRUM

Vol. LVII Z 545a State College Station, North Dakota, Friday, April 2, 1943 Number 24

New Spectrum Heads Named By Board

The Board of Publications has named Patricia Bjorklund and Maxine Schlagel as editor and business manager, respectively, of the Spectrum. They succeed Ellsworth Moe and Warren Heubschwerlen, who have left for induction into the armed services.

Miss Bjorklund, a senior in applied arts and sciences, has been active on the Spectrum editorial staff for the past three years and has previously served as copy, feature and managing editors. She is also treasurer of Kappa Kappa Gamma fraternity.

Other activities include Sigma Alpha Iota, Gamma Tau Sigma and participation in stage productions in the Little Country Theater and the Bison Brevities.

Miss Schlagel, junior in home economics, has served on the Spectrum business staff for three years and held the posts of solicitor and advertising manager. She is present vice president of Phi Omega Pi sorority and treasurer of the junior class. Other activities include captain in Guidon, member of the Senior-Little-Sister committee and member of the business staff of Bison Brevities productions.

Polly Carter will retain her position of managing editor. Delight Whempner has been named to the post of art editor, and Bill Critchfield will be proof-reader.

Miss Schlagel's staff remains unaltered.

Everybody's Invited To Free All-College

Everybody's invited! AC students, faculty, officer candidates! The all-college party tomorrow evening from 8:30 to 11:30 in Festival hall is for the express purpose of getting acquainted and incidentally, of having some fun.

Honored guests will be the AC boys who are leaving soon for the armed services and the officer candidates in Class 8. These candidates will arrive in Fargo tomorrow.

Variety is the keynote of the entertainment program, for there will be informal dancing, cards, ping pong and other games.

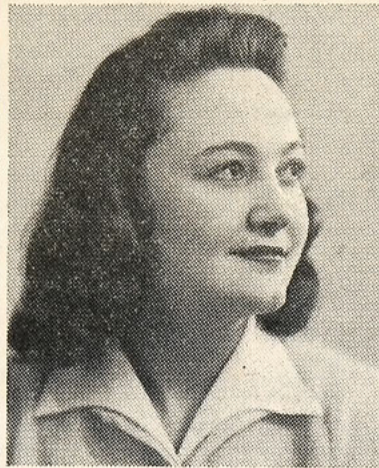

The party's free, so come one, come all! That means you, and you—and all your friends. It's a date or no-date affair.

Eversull Attends NCA Conference At Chicago

Dr. Frank L. Eversull recently returned from attending the conference of North Central Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges held March 22-26 in the Palmer House, Chicago.

"Only routine matters were discussed," Dr. Eversull said; "the relations of schools and colleges to the war effort were discussed in detail."

Qualifying Exam For Marine, Naval Reservists Scheduled For April 20

The written test of the qualifying examination for all men enlisted in Class B-1, United States Naval Reserve, who will have completed six or more quarters of their college course on July 1, 1943, and for all men enlisted in Class III (d), United States Marine Corps Reserve, who are in their freshman and sophomore years as of the date on which the test is given, is scheduled for Tuesday, April 20, 1943, in room 308 in Morrill hall.

QUALIFICATION TEST

This test is for the purpose of qualifying for participation in the College Training Program to be inaugurated about July 1, 1943. It is essential that all men falling within the above categories be present for both the morning and afternoon sessions of the examination. No blanket excuse from classes will be given, but any man encountering difficulty in a particular class may see Dean C. A.

Sevrinson to receive an individual excuse.

Bona fide pre-medical or pre-dental students enlisted in the Navy V-1 program may be excused from the test by Miss Mary Mahlman, the test supervisor. All such students, however, are strongly encouraged by the navy to take the test in order that they may qualify for other duty if not selected for medical or dental training.

The hours during which the examination will be given will be posted on the bulletin board in front of the Administration building in the near future.

NOTICE

Freshman class meeting Wednesday at 4:30 in the Little Country Theater. All class members are urged to attend.

Sophomore class meeting at 4:30 on Tuesday in the Little Country Theater. It won't last long, and every sophomore is expected to turn out.

Chinese Student Feels

Japanese Militarists Are At Fault

By OLE BERG

That cheery Chinese lad you meet every morning on your way to class is Kenneth Wong, NDAC's only Chinese student.

Enrolled in civil engineering since last fall, Kenneth said, "I have much interest in civil engineering because some day I intend to go back to China and help my people when the work of reconstruction begins."

BORN NEAR CANTON

Kenneth was born in a small village near Canton in the crowded coastal area of southern China. He came to America with his uncle on a small steam boat in 1934 and joined his father who was already in the U. S. A.

"Life in China is very much different from that in the United States," he remarked. "There is no 'rushing around', but everyone works hard. We are receiving a Chinese newspaper which tells us many things about the war, and unfortunately many of our friends and relatives are starving and have very little clothing or shelter. Naturally they don't have to worry about electricity and automobiles; only the rich natives and foreigners have these."

ATTENDED CHINESE SCHOOL

Kenneth went to elementary school in his native country where he was taught arithmetic, languages, general science and the teachings of Confucius and Buddha.

"Most of the large universities have moved their portable equipment and books to safer areas for study. They are limited in text book study, of course, and learn engineering by building railroads and bridges.

Red Cross Donations Reach $623.25 Mark

Society Contributions Run High; Campaign Continues Next Week

The SPECTRUM'S drive for contributions to the American Red Cross gained momentum at yesterday's convocation and hit $623.25 late Thursday evening. Donations from organizations were unexpectedly heavy, totalling $510.00. Students contributed $113.25.

Donors and their respective gifts are listed as follows:

Total	$510.00

Student Contributions .....$113.25

Total to date, April 1.....$623.25

The drive was previously announced to close at noon today. However, because the national drive does not terminate until April 15, the AC campaign will continue through next week. Any students or organizations who failed to contribute and still desire to do so are requested to bring donations or pledges to the Dean of Women's office at the earliest date possible.

REGISTRATION CARDS

Registration cards for membership in the national Red Cross organization are available to student donors of one dollar or more in the Dean of Women's office. Organizations which did not receive stickers in recognition of their contributions may pick them up in the Dean's office. Button tags were given all individual donors and will continue to be given additional contributors.

CONVO GAVE IMPETUS

The drive proper was initiated at convocation yesterday at which George Truesdell officiated as Master of Ceremonies. Maxine Schlagel, SPECTRUM business manager, made the introductory announcements and introductions.

The new manner of pledging allegiance to the flag in accordance with government regulations was explained and led by Capt. Max R. Hughes from the military department. The singing of the Star Spangled Banner followed, led by OCS Candidate Blood.

"The Red Cross at Work" was the subject of the address given by Mrs. Leigh J. Monson, chair-

Elect 4 Men To Blue Key

One junior and three seniors were elected into Blue Key, honorary service fraternity, at a meeting last night, announces Robert Pile, president.

They are:

- Don Bahl
- Duane Fossum
- Leland Aplin
- Ole Berg

Donald Bahl, senior in agriculture, is state president of Future Farmers Association, Alpha Gamma Rho president, Sears Roebuck scholar, assistant manager of the Little International and is a member of Alpha Zeta and Saddle and Sirloin.

Duane Fossum, also a junior in agriculture, is vice president of the American Society of Agricultural Engineers, president of Kappa Sigma Chi and is a member of Saddle and Sirloin and Interfraternity Council.

Leland Aplin, mechanical engineering senior, is president of Sigma Phi Delta, associate editor of the State Engineer, and a member of Interfraternity Council and Engineer's Club.

Ole Berg, a senior in the school of agriculture, is president of the college Farmers Union Local, vice president of the Coop House, Spectrum news editor, YMCA cabinet, and a member of the NDAC War Council.

NOTICES

YMCA elections are being held today. All YM members are urged to vote. Polls are in the Y and will remain open until 5 p. m.

NEWS FLASHES FROM THE O. P. I. —

Thursday's convo marked the successful opening of the Spectrum-sponsored Red Cross drive on the campus. More than six hundred dollars was collected in the opening day of the drive, and it is hoped that the remainder of the drive, which will continue throughout next week, will be attended by equal success.

Students and organizations who were not able to attend convocation and make donations at that time should feel it their responsibility to do so before the drive closes.

The Spectrum staff wishes to extend their appreciation to the following for their help in promoting the drive: Dean Pearl Dinan, Bob Thorson, Bob Pile, Don Hoag, George Truesdell, Candidate Blood and the officer candidate quartette who participated in the program, and to the campus organizations which aided in canvassing and soliciting for the drive.—M.P.B.

Alpha Gams Hold Initiation Services

Beatrice Brandes, president, conducted initiation services into Alpha Gamma Delta sorority for five girls. Donna Johnson, Helen Brandsted, Carol Milsten, Carol Helgeson and Peggy Freeburg were initiated at the midnight services held last Friday.

Mrs. Paul F. Smith was the main speaker at the Annual Feast of Roses banquet held Saturday at the Graver hotel in honor of the new initiates. Miss Marjorie Fjeld, alumna, was the toastmistress for the affair. The program consisted of songs by Marjorie Peterson, a trio composed of Miss Peterson, Miss Brandes, and Patricia Torgerson. Miss Brandes spoke in behalf of the active chapter, while Miss Helgeson, president of the pledge group, spoke for the pledges.

The Coed Protests!

Goodbye to ERC and Hi to the OCS—all in the same day!

Ain't It The Truth . . .

By EUNICE WALSTER and KAY HOUSEHOLDER

Walking along the campus one sunny day, we overheard the following conversation between Mary Tilden and Pat Wirtenberger:

Pat—Queer, isn't it?
Til—What's queer?
Pat—Why the night falls—
Til—Yes.
Pat—But it doesn't break.
Til—No.
Pat—And the day breaks—
Til—Yes.
Pat—But it never falls.
Queer, isn't it?

Kappa Delta pledges took their second degree last Sunday. Next week they will go through pre-initiation and will go active the following Sunday.

MILITARY PATOIS

After his bunk fatigue, a land pilot feeling on the beam, went to get his drag. He discovered that she was a brick, 'cause she had gone out with a sea-going bellhop.

POPS POTLUCK

Miss Dinan, her secretary Miss Margaret Thompson, and Bob Pile were POP guests Monday night. And speaking of Bob Pile, it seems that he was trying out patriotic music on the Little Country Theater amplifier Wednesday evening in preparation for Thursday's convo. Pretty soon the Ceres hall kids just about fell out of their windows—looking for the OCS to march by!

A lion met a tiger
As they drank beside a pool.
Said the tiger, "Tell me why
You're roaring like a fool."
"That's not foolish," said the lion
With a twinkle in his eyes;
"They call me king of all the beasts
Because I advertise."
A rabbit heard them talking
And ran home like a streak.
He thought he'd try the lion's plan.
But his roar was a squeak.
A fox came to investigate—
Had luncheon in the wood
So when you advertise, my friends,
Be sure you've got the goods.

Gamma Phi Beta and Kappa pledges are going through pre-initiation week. Gamma Phi will initiate Sunday and Kappas will activate their pledges Saturday morning.

ROYAL SEND-OFF

KKG Sweetheart George Rulon really got one! Fourteen Kappas kissed him good-bye at the N. P. station Wednesday night. Was his face red or was his face red!

We have decided that it requires science, common sense, faith, hope and charity—especially charity, to understand a man—that mass of obstinacy, surrounded by suspicions.

If you wear bright lipstick, gay colors and a startling hat, he hesitates to take you out; and if you wear a little brown toque and a tailor-made dress he takes you out and stares all evening at women in gay colors, bright lipstick and a startling hat.

If you're wise, he longs for a silly plaything. If you're popular with other men, he's jealous, and if you aren't, he hesitates to date a wall-flower.

Darn men, anyhow!

Section VIII . . . . . By Candidates Geisecke and Banks

GREETINGS

To the pink-cheeked lads of Class Eight, the majority of whom already have exchanged coveted chevrons for the OCS patch. May your SOP be as smooth and untroubled as ours was rough and disturbed!

SPRING

Is here. The "Authority"?—A lute-voiced meadow lark, heard on the road march this week. This happy prairie songster has long been recognized by North Dakota residents as one of the "sure" signs of better days ahead. Also present on the march were a flock of blackbirds, and it won't be long 'til the modest crocus will make its debut.

And another, but more subtle sign—droves of candidates policing the classroom and barracks area. Proper disposition of those stogie remnants and candy wrappers of several weeks ago would have eliminated the sad sight that met our eyes as the snow disappeared.

ORCHIDS

To Candidate—now Lieutenant—Elverson of Class Five, who so ably conducted the hour of instruction on the Red Cross for the Sixth Class.

ADIOS

To the sparkplug of the sub-zero football team, first squad, first platoon, Company F, "Pop" Pierson, who leaves to make P-38's for Uncle's pilots. So long, Ferocious. The First Platoon won't be the same without you.

ORDER OF THE WEEK

Is "Head up, eyes to the front"! 'Tis hard indeed to refrain from glancing now and then toward terra firma (which is no longer firm-a), to see where lie the mud holes. But it's really the same difference—if you miss one, you step in another!

AT LONG LAST

The truth is out! Are we men or mice? That question was answered on the day of the hike when an unknown and elderly member of the local citizenry inquired of a road-guard posted at a crossing—"Is this the Boy Scouts?—and gentlemen, we assure you that he was serious.

PHONE BOOTH COMMANDOS

The men who rush so madly from Study hall each eye to mass for a raid on the lone phone in Co. F. Candidates Zimring, Morgan, Bolger, A. Falk and LaRose currently spearhead the attack. Following the normal channels of communication proves to be a bottleneck in this case.

A CLUE

To Herman's ancestry has been evidenced by his late excursions into water holes of varying size and depth. Some theorists claim him to be a direct descendent of an extinct inland seal family. Anyway, the methods he employs in diving for pebbles on the bottom of water holes leads up to believe he could use a periscope to good advantage.

YOU OUGHT TO TRY IT

Beads of perspiration stood out on furrowed brows. Hands, held smartly along the seams of trousers, clenched convulsively as hundreds of faces reflected an agonizing internal struggle—Class Six was standing at attention as a bevy of NDAC coeds paraded by. Consensus of opinion—it can't be done!

EXAMS

If you are so ignorant you missed five questions—Brother, you flunked!

Sez Murph . . . . . This Isn't Dirt!

By ANN MURPHY

(Ed. Note: Ann Murphy, NDAC grad of '42, was asked to write a guest column for this issue. The following is her exposition.)

No, this isn't the dirt column. Look a few columns over. This is just a few inches of chit-chat to fill up some empty space. Ask the editor!

You know, it's a funny thing, this being away from college. You see things in an entirely new light. After all, when you're holding down a job, you have to do something during the day. Yes, college is quite the stuff. When you want to go on a beer picnic, you start out for Harwood. When it has been a rugged night, you cut economics. But, brethren and sistren, when you have exams, give me the eight to five working day, anytime.

Did you know that last year's editor (that must be five or six editors ago) was quarantined with a bunch of cronies—Yup, scarlet fever. That's why cadet James Alexander Ford, United States Coast Guard academy, New London, Connecticut, wasn't planning picnics in Fargo last Monday according to schedule. Ford never did reach that goal of seven picnics in one week.

Imagine the chagrin of several coeds who went to the NP station Wednesday night to kiss Wolf Rulon goodbye (God bless him!) and shake hands with Barnsmell and Three-point. As I said before, imagine their chagrin to discover the Wolf was escorting another lady home. And the train didn't leave until after 1 a. m. (Central War Time). And then, to top it all off, they didn't see Pat Sherley after all! He got excited and left the day before.

Grow me a beard and call me granny, but this is a reminiscing mood. Remember not so long ago when a girl with beads didn't necessarily wear a necklace. And the favorite team, next to the Bison, was the Dodgers? Remember the Theta Chis before they really moved into a hotel—when they only ran a motel? And, (excuse me if this is a touchy subject, and it probably is) remember the green paint on Science and Old Main, all the fraternity houses and even George Koch's car? And, you decrepit old confederates of mine, remember the Hillsboro picnic?

No one knows who she is, but one young coed is reported as saying, "Yes, I go to a girls' school. And I'm going to stay at the AC until I graduate, it says in the sheet of directions."

What with meatless meals and coffee-less openhouses, and all, there's nothing less surprising than a car that runs out of gas unless it's a car with a man at the wheel in the first place! But, after all, kiddies, that's where he belongs.

KKG Holds Formal Initiation For 12 Pledges Saturday

Kappa Kappa Gamma will hold formal initiation for twelve at services Saturday at the chapter house.

Candidates are Mary Arvold, Betty Jean Chapman, Betty Flatt, Peggy Hargrave, Kathryn Householder, Lorraine Kibler, Betty Lou Payne, Jacqueline Pushor, Betty Reed, Millicent Sorkness, Eunice Walster and Patricia Wirtenberger.

Pre-initiation activities commence Thursday evening at 7:30 with the traditional Cocoa party at the house. Mary Bristol heads the arrangements committee. Fireside will be held at the home of Ann Donovan at 7:30 p. m. Friday. Beth Ann Piers, standards chairman, is in charge.

Doris Bjorklund, chapter president, will conduct initiation services at 9 a. m. Saturday, with Genevieve Lindemann, marshal, assisting.

Initiates will be honored at a formal banquet at 6:30 Saturday evening in the Graver hotel. Committees are: decorations, Joan Klinsmann and Dorothy Myhra; program, Fannie Helen Dygve and Patricia Bjorklund; general arrangements, Virginia Elznic and Gayle McDowell.

Hunter college has started a program under which every freshman, sophomore and junior is required to complete a program or course in one of 30-odd war service training areas which the college offers.

Gamma Phi Beta Observes National Week, Holds Initiation

Gamma Phi Beta week is being observed by that sorority's members Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. Yesterday the pledges presented a program following a potluck supper.

Today the pledges will take a written examination. Pre-initiation services will be held at midnight tomorrow.

Esther Gunvaldsen will officiate at the initiation service to be held Sunday at 9 in the chapter rooms. Assisting her with the set-up will be Mary Warner and Patricia Scheel. Those being initiated are Dorothy Allen, Bessie Lauder, Irene Gunvaldsen, Phyllis Mauritsen, Margie Brastrup, Ann Livingstone and Martha Blair.

The new initiates will be honored at a dinner following the service.

Potluck guests of the sorority last Monday were June Johnston, Annabelle Walker, Donald Crothers, Clifford Rothrock, Fred Trowbridge, George Rulon, Clinton Spear and Donald Novaria.

Panhel Entertains For New Members

An innovation in procedure was introduced by Panhellenic council this past week with the get-acquainted supper in Old Main.

Wednesday evening the junior and senior members met with the newly elected representatives. The proceedings and duties of the council were explained by the officers.

Honored guests were Miss Matilda Thompson, Deans Lucille Horton and Pearl Dinan.

The next regular meeting of the group will be Monday at 5 p. m.

The war department has released a list of 119 colleges which have been approved as pre-aviation cadet training centers.

Lillian McDowall Named YW Prexy

Lillian McDowall, a junior in home economics, was elected president of the YWCA for the 1943-44 season at elections held Monday. Other officers chosen were Jean Parizek, vice president, Sybil Pull, secretary, and Donna Jean Gunthorpe treasurer.

Mrs. Leo Gessel, Miss Ruby Grimes and Mrs. Elmer Darling were elected to the advisory board.

Mrs. Leo Gessel, Miss Ruby meeting will be held next Tuesday at 5 in the college Y. A short YWCA cabinet meeting will follow.

Wednesday from 9 to 5 interviews will be held in the college Y for all freshmen, sophomore or junior girls interested in doing YWCA work next year.

Thursday the YWCA cabinet will meet to select the new cabinet at 7:15 in the college Y.

President Edmund E. Day of Cornell university recently was elected president of the Association of Land Grant Colleges.

POPs Select Two Members For Awards

Maxine Schlagel and Mildred Strong Bean were nominated by Zeta chapter at a meeting Monday as candidates for the Stella Andrews Cox and Molly Buckner Hardy awards to be given at conclave.

The Stella Cox award is presented biennially to the girl considered the ideal Phi Omega Pi. The Molly Hardy award is presented annually to one who has shown outstanding qualities of leadership in her chapter and on the campus. This honor was won by Zeta's Elaine Wigdahl last year.

Eleanor Bohn, pledge trainer, heads the arrangements committee for making plans for pre-initiation week. This week will be climaxed by initiation services in Festival hall Sunday, April 11, at 4:30 p. m.

Books Of Today

By DON NORMAN

The Unrelenting Struggle, by Winston Churchill. Little, Brown, and Company, Boston.

In this compiled series of war speeches by the British Prime Minister can be seen the eloquent and dramatic qualities of great oratory. One can understand from this Briton's speeches why the British never surrendered in those dark days of 1940 and why they continued their "unrelenting struggle" against the Nazis.

The frankness that is typically Churchillian is ever present in his speeches. Laying his cards on the table so to speak, he explains the "how, when and why" of his government's actions—both military and political; admits errors and miscalculations; and praises and blames friend and foe alike.

Here is history in the making. On every occasion of major importance Mr. Churchill has delivered to the House of Commons an address in regard to the war situation and the existing policies of the British government.

The sixty-eight speeches, broadcasts and messages contained herein are a chronological account of the war from President Roosevelt's election to a third term through Pearl Harbor and the Prime Minister's visit to the United States during the Christmas season, 1941.

The Red Army, by Michel Berchin and Elisha Ben Horin. W. W. Norton and Co. Inc., New York.

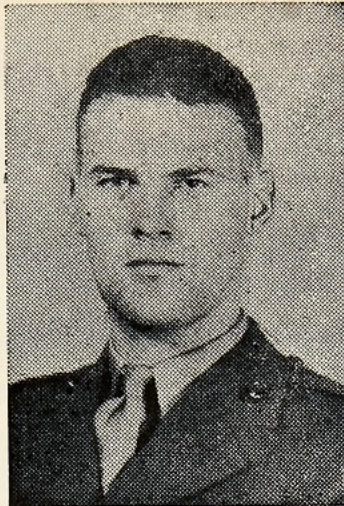

Almost immediately after the Russo-German conflict began, the Red Army was marked down by the great majority of military experts as a negative element doomed to certain defeat at the hands of the mighty Nazi juggernaut. Only a few short weeks later this wide-spread belief was radically reversed. The Red army, after a long, well planned retreat, had suddenly turned about and had counter-attacked fiercely along the entire front, making an impressive and resolute stand against the invaders.

How were the Russians able to go on the offensive? Where did they get the weapons of modern warfare to beat the Nazis to a sudden halt and subsequent retreat? How long can Russia hold out? Will she defeat the Nazis? All these questions the authors explain in this elucidating narrative. The book offers a clear, unbiased picture of the only army as yet able to cope with the German military machine.

Because of its magnificent struggle and growing power, Russia cannot be overlooked in any post-war planning for a new and better world. Without Russia's active participation, post-war planning of every sort will doubtlessly fail, as did the League of Nations without our support.

This book is a timely effort to tell "the story of the growth of Russia's military might, her army, her air force, the psychological and military preparedness of the nation, the fluctuations of the Soviet foreign policy, the spirit of the Red army, the actual march of events in the Russo-German war, the military position and the prospects today—an effort to tell these things as objectively as possible, without glorification—but also without prejudice."

Marine Officer

LORAN R. LADWIG, NDAC grad of 1942, was recently commissioned a second lieutenant in the United States Marine Corps. He completed his training at Reserve Officers' School, Quantico, Virginia.

Lt. Ladwig earned his commission last December after completing the course at candidates' class. He is now waiting assignment to either a combat organization or to a specialist school for additional training.

He was graduated from NDAC with a BS degree in Animal Husbandry and served as president of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity. He was also a member of Blue Key and participated in campus publications.

ASCE Hears Speer, District Engineer

Mr. Paul R. Speer, district engineer for the United States Geological Survey, will address members of American Society of Civil Engineers on Friday, April 2, at 4 p. m. Mr. Speer will give an illustrated lecture entitled "Measuring the Flow in Streams".

The meeting will be held in room 22, Engineering Building.

NDAC 4H Club Elects Grace Vogel

Grace Vogel was elected president of the NDAC 4H Club recently. Other officers selected were Inez Kastner, vice president, Donald Pile, secretary, and Esther Fugl treasurer. The social committee is composed of Rose Ann Vogel and Marilyn Johnson. Members at large will be Grace Jensen and Lucille Vangerud.

Navy Opens 18-38 Bracket To Seabees

"Sharp moderations in the restrictions on navy enlistments have been made assuring men desiring that service that they can become bluejackets," Lieut. Commander C. S. Olson, Minneapolis, officer in charge of navy recruiting in Minnesota and North Dakota, announces.

"Men between 18 and 38 can now be assured of service in the Seabees, construction battalions of the navy," he said, "while the way is wide open for 17-year-olds and men between 38 and 50 to enlist for the Seabees or for general service."

Previously only enlistments accepted were men 17 and in the 38 to 50 age bracket. Men between 18 and 38 took their chances on getting the service they desired, the commander said, coming through the induction center at Fort Snelling.

Eligibles between 18 and 38, he said, if found qualified by the navy recruiting station, and who can secure their release from their local draft board, can be certain now they will enlist their skill where they desire it to be enlisted.

The same opportunity is offered by the army engineers.

Feature of the new plan, Commander Olson points out, is that the man, once he receives his authorization letter from the Seabees, has his full assurance of that service.

The 17-year-olds are invited by Commander Olson to drop into their nearest navy recruiting station and find out what the navy offers. Enlistment must be completed, he warned, before the 18th birthday if the man is to receive assurance that he will be a bluejacket.

Eight ROTC Seniors Get Orders

All seniors who have completed their ROTC training have been called to active duty, announces Lieut.-Col. Charles H. Hart, jr. The last eight men have received their orders, completing the list of 38 seniors who completed training in early March.

Almer Rasmussen, Carl Sebens and Bob Yeasley have been assigned to signal corps officer candidate school at Fort Monmouth, New Jersey. They will report for processing at Fort Snelling on April 8.

Ordered to engineer officer candidate school at Fort Belvoir, Virginia, are Russell Schnur, Paul Berge and Don Gabe. Schnur is to report April 15; Berge and Gabe have orders effective April 3.

Clynton Taylor and James Whipple have orders to report to Edgewood Arsenal, Maryland, April 21, for chemical warfare service officer candidate school. They will be processed at Fort Snelling April 15.

man of the Cass County Red Cross chapter. She defined the three-fold purpose of the Red Cross and gave students an insight into the working mechanism of the organization.

A patriotic song fest under the direction of Candidate Blood followed.

Outlining the campaign and explaining its purpose and aims, Master of Ceremonies George Truesdell spoke on "Our Thanks to the 164th". Contributions of organizations were then made from the floor and were tabulated on black-boards on the stage. Tellers were Blue Key men.

Preceding the canvassing of the student audience, an OCS quartette composed of Candidates Morgan, Skaer, Glessner and Leezy sang "Deep River" with Candidate Ely at the piano.

Convo closed with the singing of "The Yellow and the Green."

Organizations assisting in the drive were Senior Staff, Guidon, Scabbard and Blade and Kappa Kappa Psi.
