Lincoln Day Program Ends Institute

A feature of the Sixteenth Annual Neighborhood Institute is the Lincoln Day program scheduled tonight at 5 in the Little Country Theater. The first part of the program will consist of three historical tableaux—America, the Beautiful; Signing the Morrill Act; and the Gettysburg Address.

Glenn Gullickson, president of the Lincoln Club, will preside as toastmaster of the dinner to be held at 5:30 in the log cabin. The meal will be the one officially announced as the one Lincoln liked best.

Toasts and talks will be given by the following: Miriam Gallo-way, Nancy Hanks Lincoln; Leo Schaan, Rail Splitter; Adolph Gross, Abe's Humor; Haile Chisholm, When I Was Fourteen; Dean H. L. Walster, Justice Morrill; President Frank L. Eversull, Abraham Lincoln. The program will be concluded with the playing of chimes.

AC Council OKs Interfraternity Plan For War Initiations

All fraternity pledges who can show sufficient proof of their being called by their draft boards or by reserve programs are eligible for initiation into a college fraternity upon approval of their fraternity and the Interfraternity Council.

Such action was approved by the College Council Thursday afternoon following presentation of such a program by Ralph Martin and Ernest Hector in behalf of the Interfraternity Council and will remain in effect for the duration and six months thereafter.

Stipulations are that such pledges must still fulfill all college and individual fraternity scholastic requirements to be eligible for initiation. Such requirements will be cleared through the Dean of Men's office and cannot be reached by the student dropping a course to better his average. Council members also indicated that no informal initiation period will be allowed in such cases.

Blue Key Initiates Nine

Nine seniors were initiated into Blue Key, honorary service fraternity, at a dinner meeting in Dakota Hall Thursday.

Elected to the group two weeks ago the nine include Walter Alm, Glenn Gullickson, Roland Johnson, Robert Lorenzen, Everett Markwardt, Kenneth McLarty, James E. Noonan, George Rulon and Russell Schnur.

Air Corps Calls 34 NDAC Reserves

Thirty-four NDAC students Thursday received orders to active duty with the Army Air Force as aviation cadets on Feb. 19, at Minneapolis under the recently announced cancelling of deferments for students enlisted in the air force. Information from Seventh Service Command Headquarters at Omaha indicates that all students deferred by the air force may expect to receive orders to report for duty by Feb. 28.

Aase Skard To Speak At Convo

Madame Aase Gruda Skard, daughter of former Norwegian Foreign Minister Koht, and distinguished child psychologist, will speak at an NDAC convocation in Festival Hall Monday at 11 on What Happened in Norway.

When Hitler struck in Norway, Madame Skard, her husband, and their two sets of twins, fled across the Soviet Union, Japan, and thence to the United States. A graduate of Oslo University, where she received a degree that corresponds to an American Ph. D.

Madame Skard will speak that evening at 8 in the Concordia College auditorium on Hitler's Quizzing's in Other Countries. NDAC faculty members are invited to hear her at Concordia and to attend the reception given by Concordia's Women's League in Fjelstad hall in honor of Madame Skard immediately following her address.

Plans Made For Religious Week

Arrangements are being made for a special convocation as part of Religious Emphasis Week which begins Monday, Feb. 22. Speaker will be Rev. Ralph Hyslop, National Student Pastor of Congregational churches, with special duties to work with college men and women.

Five seminars will be held simultaneously on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday afternoon.

The general theme of the conference is "For Such a Time As This."

Co-chairmen are Annabelle Donovan, YWCA and Vernon Hathaway, YMCA.

Schedules are being made to have members of the Fargo-Moorhead Ministerial Association speak at each of the meetings of organized groups on Monday evening.

STUDENTS CAUTIONED

College authorities urge all students to remain in school until they actually receive orders to report for duty as there is no indication as to when any man may expect to receive his call. Special college regulations are designed to favor men who are called from college into the service. However, these regulations do not apply to students until they have received official order to report for active duty.

About 30 members of the Army Enlisted Reserve Corps, Unassigned were called to duty because of special reasons which do not affect the remainder of the unassigned enlisted reserve corps. Thus, those who are members of the ERC may expect to remain in college for at least the rest of the present college quarter. No information is available as to when these men will be called to duty.

34 LEAVING

Those entering duty with the Army Air Force on Feb. 19 are Alan M. Anderson, Corman H. Bean, Warren R. Bruskrud, Wilber Christensen, Thomas W. Evans, Ernest P. Deutsch, James B. Feyereisen, William A. Fowler, Robert S. Fischer, Arnjlot J. Granheim, Glenn Gullickson, Russell Heine, Stirling B. Hubbard, Lloyd Joos, Edward Kibler, Wallace Lamb, Norbert H. Lange, R. Soulis, Donald J. Swenson, Leland H. Stoxen, Charles J. Vancura, James L. Wilkinson and Harold A. Young.

Several other students reported for active duty with the Army Air Force as trainees in Meteorology on Feb. 10, 1942. They are Fred F. Bossert, Clarence Becker, Robert M. Dwyer, Harvey D. Stubsjoen and Charles R. Swanson. They

These ten students have been selected as representative seniors for the 1942-43 school year by a special committee made up of six students and six faculty members.

Ordinarily their pictures would be presented in a special section of the Bison yearbook, but with the cancellation of the 1943 publication and the uncertainty of student's status, announcement of the representative group has been made at this time.

All have been outstanding in campus activities both in and out of the classroom.

Members of the joint student-faculty committee included Dean Pearl Dinan, Dean C. A. Sevrinson, Dr. W. C. Hunt, Prof. Leon Hartwell, Jerry Seaman, Murray Schaezel, Esther Gunvaldson, Polly Carter, Richard Carley, Ellsworth Moe, Russell Heine and Vernon Hathaway.

Hall Of Fame Banquet Plans Completed

Tentatively selected as toastmaster for the Hall of Fame banquet to be held Wednesday, at 6:30 is Mac Miller, a senior in animal husbandry. The banquet, an annual occasion for the Saddle and Sirloin Club will see the hanging of the picture of George M. Robinson, prominent McLean county farmer in the club's Hall of Fame.

Mr. Robinson runs a modern farm near Coleharbor, on which the main livestock enterprise is Hereford cattle. Robinson is also interested in the production of good seed, having won several awards for his outstanding wheat.

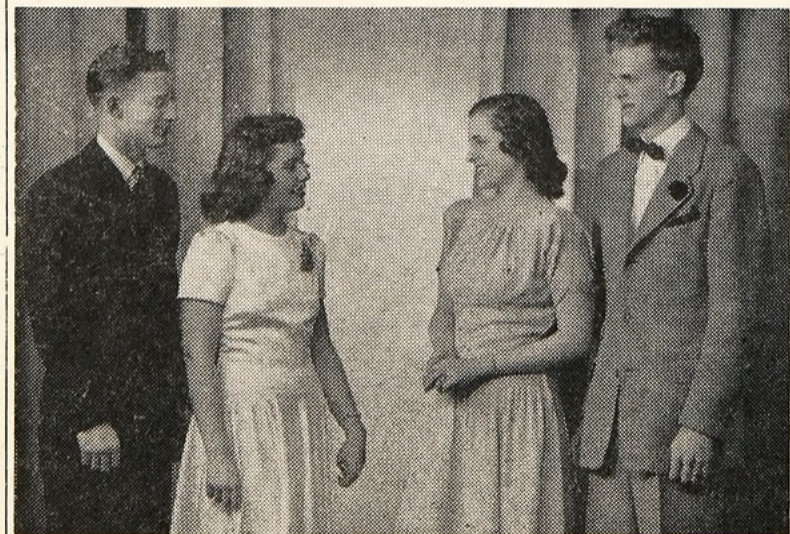

The Hall of Fame's latest to be honored member has also been active in civic affairs, serving in his locality and also as a state legislator. In addition, he is an influential member of several important farm organizations.

Coed Prom Awards 'Best Dressed' Prize To Miss Wartchow

Highlighting the Coed Prom held in Ceres gymnasium last night was the awarding of prizes to those most cleverly attired in costumes following a theme of the girl athlete.

Judged by Dean Pearl Dinan and Mrs. J. E. Bennison as the one wearing the cleverest costume was the guest of honor, Miss Beatrice Wartchow, instructor in physical education. Donna Steiner was awarded second prize, and Gladys Welken, third prize for the most humorously dressed. Honorable mention was given to Marion Engesather, Ann Donovan and Jean Monson.

They Lead Tonight's Ball

LEADING THE GRAND MARCH at the semi-formal Engineer's Ball tonight at 10 will be Leland Aplin, manager, with his guest Lois Johnson, and Bob Olson and his guest Betty Engelstad. Chaperones for the dance from 9 to 1 will be Prof. and Mrs. Anderson and Prof. and Mrs. Fallee. The Deans and engineering faculty are to be honored guests. Don Strickland's band will furnish the music.

about the yearbook

Much comment, some of it warranted, some otherwise, has resulted from the cancellation of the 1943 Bison Annual.

Some of the student body feels that since no Bison will be forthcoming this year a part of the activity fee that would ordinarily be used for the yearbook should be returned to the students.

However, this would present many difficulties and distribution of it to the many students who are in the armed forces both here and abroad who paid this fee during the fall or winter term or both would create an expense account that would probably equal the amount of money to be returned.

Realizing this, the Board of Publications on the campus has recommended to the administration that the money that has accumulated from this fee be placed in the reserve fund to be used for an annual when the printing of it is resumed after the war.

Although this may be the expedient thing to do we would like to propose that since the money was paid by the students with the idea that they would get something in return the Board of Publications or some other organization with the sanction of the board would use a part of this money to publish an abbreviated Bison of about 32 pages or thereabouts as a review of the year's events on the campus.

This review to consist principally of pictures and to be dedicated to the former students and graduates of ND-AC who are now in the armed services.

This book also to be sent to those students in the armed forces who have paid anything towards the Bison this year.

There is still time for the sale of advertising and the preparation of the book before the end of the spring quarter if action is taken immediately.

Any further indication of student opinion pro or con would be appreciated by this department.

Corn Is King..

By CHAS. VAN HOOF

I would like to request that whistles be passed out to AC students before basketball games. Seems that our best coaches and referees are up in the bleachers, and I don't mean blondes. Let's give our visitors a break at the next game, and try to control our emotions.

I sat behind Jimmy Sullivan at the Concordia game. He started to tell me the story about the cliff, but it was all a bluff.

Shaw had eaten so much chicken he was afraid to go to bed for fear he'd lay there. Pitsenbarger wanted to light a cigarette but had no matches, so he threw a cigarette away to make his pack a cigarette lighter. Killer shouted "Open the window, I want to throw out my chest."

Paulson shot a bullet through the referee and killed another man. They arrested the referee because it was through him that the other man was killed. One fellow was arrested for stealing a pig. I guess the pig squealed on him. They arrested Kenny Jones for biting off the ref's ear. The judge bound him over to keep the piece.

A tailor was brought up for stealing a peck measure. They discharged him because a tailor has a right to take any man's measure. Berg was brought in for stealing nine bottles of beer, but you can't make a case out of nine bottles. Regan called a cop a lobster and got pinched. They put him in a cell. There he was surrounded by bars and couldn't get a drink.

Chase wanted to bet everybody on the outcome of the game. Finally the elevator boy took him up. Fercho said "No more chorus girls, the government is buying up all the calves."

We stopped in at a hotel after the game. The only way we could attract a waiter was to bring a towel. To prevent guests from carrying fruit from the table, they served no fruit. The waiter said if we wanted fine board to order saw-dust. It wasn't bad, they gave us a sharp chisel to open the biscuits. They said we didn't have to pay our bill as the building was supported by a good foundation.

Before I go I want to thank that group of jokers who sent me an ear of corn.

NLD . . (Not Line Of Duty) With Candidates Neilson and Dinger

IT'S ABOUT TIME the fifth (and best) class had a little publicity in the Spectrum, so we, the above signed, having nothing else to keep us busy, are coming your way each week with the latest. Any and all criticisms or contributions will be welcomed. You can find us in the 3rd Platoon, Co. C. All libel and damage suits will be handled by attorneys Abrams and King, BA, BS, LLD, NLD, Co., Inc.

CONGRATULATIONS to the new class officers: Connally Congleton, president; George Powell and James Yerkes, vice-president;

Glenn Johnson, secretary, and Bill Edwards treasurer. The officer and class committees are already on the ball getting things set up for bigger and better class dances, play, and classbook. The first outstanding event will be the tea dance given for the 4th Class on February 21. Better get your dates early, boys, only one week till the music starts.

WELCOME to the newest class of embryo officers. Stay on the beam boys and don't let Saturday nights get the best of you. In case you haven't heard, the cold in North Dakota is of the dry nature. You don't even feel it. (Attention Fargo Chamber of Commerce).

CANDIDATE Schwichtenberg is nominee for this week's (and any week's) honors as No. 1 sharpshooter. Candidate Goebel has been running a close second. Frankly that's one race we wouldn't care to win.

CANDIDATE ABRAMS, says he, is seriously considering changing his name to Zwick. After his memorable recitation in "Insurance", he should, however, be content to remain at the head of the class. Candidate Giraud, Sir, is still a bit confused.

BEAUTIFUL BODY Burford, the Romeo of Rec Hall, actually spent Saturday night shooting pool, while Margie kept happy at the Crystal. What's the matter, Burf, are you slipping?

COMPANY C. is proud of Candidate Jan Harazthy, a former concert pianist who studied in Budapest, and toured this country prior to his enlistment. He's from the land of sunshine, and where could that be but California. (Chamber of Commerce, NOTE).

THE FIFTH CLASS was well represented at the Alpha Gam pie social Sunday night. The AGD house overflowed with hospitality, and a good time was had by all. Glad to see the newcomers (sixth class) stepping off with the left foot.

RUMOR OF THE WEEK: Someone in the 5th class has the measles.

FAMOUS LAST WORDS: I got a B, at least.

Deanie's Diggin's

By ALDEANE HOGAN

On a morning dark and eerie Out I wander weak and weary Trying hard to catch a bus And when missing—not to cuss—

Finally, standing in the crowd I hear a fellow scream aloud, "Holy Smokes, you're on my toe"

Very little does he know

How nice t'would be if he would rise And look at me with happy eyes, And offer me a place to sit To rest my weary bones a bit.

But, no, he sits with glaring face

Guarding well his hard-won place. He got there first, so why be sad?

Standing in buses is not so bad!

THERE'S A WAY

We've all had English themes to write at one time or another, but here's a system not everyone would think of. Jack Lavelle had "Can Human Nature Be Changed" as his subject, for a theme in which he was to use a special means of effect. Jack wrote a whole page of "No, human nature cannot be changed", and at the bottom said, "I used repetition for effect."

It didn't work out so well though. The teacher gave him F for spelling repetition wrong.

IT'S ONLY RUMOR

That classes will not be held on "meet-less Tuesday."

Pat Shirley was so impressed with this startling ad in Western Stories mag, that he immediately filled out a blank with his name, address, and qualifications for the course.

ARE YOU A SHORT-WINDED,

PEPLESS PERSON? ARE YOU FAT AND FLABBY? DO YOU LET OTHERS WALK OFF WITH THE PRETTIEST GIRLS? IF SO, SEND IN IMMEDIATELY FOR MY NEW BLANKETY BLANK COURSE AND I WILL BUILD YOU UP IN LESS THAN SIX WEEKS.

Has anybody noticed any improvement yet?

Dorothy Myhra and Gayle McDowell are in charge of Kappa Kappa Gamma's open house Friday. No doubt Kenny Jones will have the sidewalks shoveled off.

The invitation the POPs received from the SAEs nearly "flu" out the window when the whole frat took to "sick bay." However, after doses of vitamins they recuperated in time to entertain them Tuesday. Hear tell SAE's Don Ness feels pretty low. "Yup," he's in "4-F" since midterm.

Of course Bud Chase isn't too gay either, all because of missing the Barn Dance. (And he was the one who suggested having it during the winter term.) It seems Uncle Sam called and Bud "Chased" down to Fort Snelling for his physical . . . Well, that's another story. Anyhow, buck up, Bud, 'cuz the Charity isn't so far away.

With Ethel Buehl in general charge the Town Hall of the Gardner Hotel will be the scene of the Phi Mu Heart's Delight party Saturday night. Music will be furnished by such toponotch jivers as Harry James, the Dorsey brothers, and Glenn Miller. Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Cobb and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Atkinson will chaperon the informal party.

'Tis said that the ATOs have a bunch of softies over at the house. Just how big did that snow drift get before "Fearless Fosdick" mustered courage to close the window? Don Swenson is out on a limb because his fraternity brothers are wondering what branch of the service he really favors. Seems his military "pinks" were pressed a la gob. "Willow" kid, how's "fir" the life of a sailor?

Latest Greek conquests are the two new ATO pledges, John Barry and Mark Grosinger.

TROUBLE

You can't imagine the difficulty that Candidates Urion, Duell, and Landau had at mess the other day deciding which of their exclusive group would be Battalion Commander during our last week at OCS. The quandy was finally settled by deciding that Urion was the best qualified man for the position.

PIE PARTY

The Alpha Gam party, held at their chapter house Sunday afternoon, was such a success that we could hardly find a seat to rest our double-time worn bodies.

POWER OF THE PRESS . . .

Romberg Appears Here As Special Attraction

Sigmund Romberg, the noted composer, will appear in person next Tuesday in a special concert at 8:15 in Festival Hall. An evening with Sigmund Romberg will feature the perennially beloved melodies from all his operettas, films and plays. Tuesday's concert is a special attraction not included as a regular Lyceum number.

Along with Jerome Kern, George Gershwin and Victor Herbert, Romberg ranks among America's foremost composers of popular music and the public will be served a full measure of the tunes from Student Prince, Blossom Time, Desert Song, New Moon, and other works.

45-PIECE ORCHESTRA

Romberg will conduct a forty-five piece orchestra. Soloists will be Marie Nash, soprano who has appeared in I'd Rather Be Right, Gene Marvey, tenor of American Jubilee, and Grace Panvini.

Other outstanding composers whose most popular works will be presented are Johann Strauss, Franz Schubert, Chopin, Delibes, Victor Herbert Fritz Kreisler, Albeniz and Lecouana.

One of the most famous of all Romberg compositions is the robust thrilling Stout Hearted Men from the operetta New Moon. Recently Romberg rewrote the original lyrics and turned the song over to the U. S. Navy. At present all royalties from the sale automatically become the property of the U. S. Navy Relief Fund.

ROMBERG HAS CE DEGREE
An interesting sidelight in Romberg's career is the fact that he holds a civil engineering degree. But having the degree did not help him much, and eventually he found a job with a New York restaurant orchestra.

Student tickets for the concert are on sale in the Little Country Theater for fifty-five cents.

Delta Psi Kappa Carnival Set Saturday With Varied Program Planned By Group

With Clara Cluck V reigning over festivities and then being given away as a door prize, the annual all-college dime carnival sponsored by Delta Psi Kappa, women's physical education fraternity, will be held in Festival Hall Saturday at 8:30. It will be a no-date affair.

For those in the dancing mood, music will be furnished from 8:30 to 11:30. Bowling, fish ponds, dart-throwing and bingo will again be featured at the carnival.

Committees in charge are Lois Skadeland, manager; Betty Mae Iliff, assistant manager; Genevieve Hamilton and Patricia Torgerson, dancing; Janet Peterson, tickets; Aileen Thompson, lunch; Mina Askegaard, bingo; Phyllis Lane, bowling; and Lillian McDowell, publicity.

Chaperons will be Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Helgeson, Miss Doris Schaub and Miss Beatrice Wartchow.

Herd Halted By Concordia In Closing Minutes, 46-44

After an uphill climb for nearly three quarters which finally put them in the lead, Bob Lowe's Bison cagers threw away the game to lose 46 to 44 to Concordia at the Field House Monday.

Behind 17 to 9 at the quarter, the Herd, with Red Brostrom setting the pace, pulled up to within 4 points of the Cobbers at half-time, 30-26.

Brostrom scored his twentieth point of the game midway in the third period to knot the score at 34-34. Two quick counters by Bob Yeasley aided in giving the Herd a 41 to 34 third quarter lead.

In the finale the Bison shot wildly without recovering rebounds. The Cobbers whittled the score to 42-40 and tied the count a 44 to 44 with two minutes to go when Hartvick Strand intercepted an erratic out-of-bounds pass and scored.

Ray Grande slipped in for the winning basket with 90 seconds remaining. The Bison, badly disorganized, tried desperately to salvage a win, but in vain.

Brostrom, with 20 points, paced the Bison. Howie Rohs, playing a fine floor game, contributed 8.

Brostrom Boosts Scoring Average

Upping his average to 11 3-4 points per game, Paul (Red) Brostrom continues to pace his mates in individual scoring. He now has 200 points in 17 games. Russ Burfening is second with 165. Bob Yeasley, third member of the Bison tallying trio, is next with 161.

Idle Bison Lose Ground In NCI Scoring Race

Jim Schmidt, South Dakota State forward, continues to pace the NCI scorers with 114 points in 9 games. Augustana's Art Killness moved into second place ahead of Bob Held of Morningside. Killness has 94 points in 9 games; Held has 91 in 6 games.

Tied for eighth place are NDAC's Bob Yeasley and Russ Burfening with 58 points in 5 games.

Bison Cagers Play Poorly, Lose To Carls Here, 38-32

The Bison reverted to pre-Christmas form as they dropped a 38 to 32 decision to Carleton College on the local floor Saturday.

Displaying a balanced attack, the Carls went ahead after 75 seconds of play in the second quarter. The Bison never caught up.

Carleton had period leads of 8-4, 18-13, and 30-22.

Rallying quickly in the opening moments of the second period, the Herd knotted the count at 8-8. Carleton ran the score to 15-8 before Cliff Rothrock tallied for the Bison midway in the quarter.

The Bison threatened again late in the third period when they came within two points of the Carls, 21-19. Carleton then unloosed a high-powered offensive to move ahead 30-22 at the three-quarter mark.

Wally Ulrich and Kenny Johnson, Carl guards, paced the winners with 13 and 9 points, respectively.

The Bison, playing poorly throughout, were paced by Bob Yeasley with 9 and Russ Burfening and Red Brostrom with 8 each.

NDAC Rifle Squad Named

Members of NDAC's rifle squad have completed record targets in the prone position of the Seventh Service Command matches and this week are firing for record from the sitting position. Two teams of 15 men each are competing.

James Hohncke, Embert Larson and Ray Miller scored 99 targets to lead the first team while Robert D. Flynn fired a like score for the second team.

Team averages taken from the scores of the ten best targets were 97.9 and 95.6 respectively. This compares with a prone score of 97.8 recorded by the first team in last year's Seventh Service Command match.

Members of the 1943 squad named by Lieut. Howard Olson, squad coach, include Jack Askew, Frank Bauman, Captain John Berg, Royal Berstler, Lee Briggs, Paul Bibelheimer, Stewart Calderwood, William Conway, George Daniels, Kermit Davison, Jack Evert, Robert D. Bison Face Tough Foe On Montana Road Trip

Bison Coach Bob Lowe and 8 players left yesterday afternoon for a two-game series with Montana State College at Bozeman, Mont., Friday and Saturday. The team will return to Fargo Sunday.

Men making the trip include: Bob Yeasley, Russ Burfening, Red Brostrom, Howie Rohs, Dan Polis, Jim Noonan, Cliff Rothrock and Jim Werre.

The Bobcats, led by freshman Tom Stachwick who counted 21 points in one quarter against Utah State, are rated tenth high on the Coast according to the Dunkel System.

WAA Cage Tourney Enters Final Round

In the first game of the Girls Intramural Basketball Tournament, which started Tuesday, the Independents edged out Kappa Kappa Gamma, 21 to 19. Ceres Hall won by forfeit over Alpha Gamma Delta in Tuesday's second scheduled game.

Last night the Phi Mus and Kappa Deltas met in the final game of first round play.

The tourney will be completed next week with Ceres Hall meeting the Independents in a semi-final game Monday at 5. The championship game will be played at 5 Wednesday.

Preceding the intramural tournament WAA has sponsored several weeks of practice and inter-class play. Winners of the inter-class games were the juniors. They defeated the sophomores in the final game. The seniors forfeited the consolation to the freshmen.

All basketball practices and tournaments have been managed by Lois Skadeland and Margaret Johnson.

Two IM Teams In Semi-Finals

By DOUG FISK

All first round games in the Intramural Basketball Championship Tournament were completed the past week and 2 teams have now entered the semi-finals. Last Thursday Kappa Sigma Chi took a close contest from Alpha Gamma Rho, 22-16. The game was tied with a little over a minute left, but three quick buckets by the Kappa Sigs turned the tide.

Alpha Tau Omega eked out a 19-17 victory over the Yanks Friday, while the last game in the first round, played Monday, was won by Sigma Chi I, who defeated Theta Chi, 43-23.

Co-op I became the first team to enter the semi-finals as they handed the highly rated Bulldogs a 27-20 licking. The winners took the lead early in the game and held it throughout.

In the first contest in the consolation bracket Wednesday the Y Dugout eliminated Sig II by scoring a 33-14 victory.

In games played last night, Co-op II lost to the Sigma Phi Deltas, 23 to 17, in consolation play. Kappa Sigma Chi advanced to the championship semi-finals by defeating Kappa Psi, 29 to 13.

Still in the running for the intramural title are Co-op I, already in the semi-finals, and Kappa Tappa Keg and Rammy Chi in the upper bracket.

Survivors of first round play in the lower bracket are Kappa Sigma Chi, in the semi-finals by virtue of last night's win, and ATO and Sigma Chi, paired against each other for next week.

Pairings for next week:
 Today—4:50
 Kappa Tappa Keg vs. Rammy Chi
 Monday—4:50
 SAE vs. Alpha Gamma Rho
 Wednesday—4:50
 Yanks vs. Theta Chi
 Thursday—4:50
 ATO vs. Sigma Chi

Holding wins over Montana University, Utah State, and Idaho University, annually one of the leading teams in the west, the boys from Bozeman will present the most formidable opposition of the year for the Herd.

Lettermen include Eddie Collins, fiery forward, Bob Stachwick, Tom's brother, Jinx Ander-

Soulis Out

Nick Soulis, regular guard on the Bison basketball team and all-conference end in football, did not make the trip to Montana with the team as he received his orders to report for active service with the U. S. Air Corps at Jefferson Barrack, Mo. He is to report next Friday.

son, Cory Dogterum and Toby Nelson all seasoned performers.

The Bison were scheduled to leave Wednesday for a game with Billings Poly Tech of Billings, Mont., last night, but the game was called off when the Montana team cancelled the remaining games on its schedule.

Lowe, who plans to use all 8 men during the series, has selected veteran forwards Yeasley and Burfening to start at forwards, Red Brostrom at center, and freshmen Dan Polis and Howie Rohs at guards.

Heard About The Herd

By OWEN LANGEN

Although they lost, Bob Lowe was indeed pleased with the performance of his boys in the second and third quarters of the Concordia game Monday.

A slow start and a ragged finish cost the Bison the game, but their brilliant play during half of the contest gave the Bison mentor more satisfaction than an unimpressive victory would have given.

Both Concordia and the Bison were playing good ball, especially the Cobbers who turned in their best performance since before Christmas.

ALL OF WHICH LEADS UP TO THE UNIVERSITY SERIES WHICH STARTS AT GRAND FORKS ONE WEEK FROM TONIGHT.

The Sioux defeated Concordia, 37 to 29, on Saturday in Moorhead. The Cobbers looked poor. Concordia turned around and dumped NDAC, 46 to 44, Monday. BUT THEY LOOKED LIKE AN ENTIRELY DIFFERENT TEAM. They hit the basket consistently; whereas against the University they missed miserably.

PREDICTION PART: As this corner sees the forthcoming NDAC-University series, the team that is "hot" will win. Should the Bison play the ball they are capable of, they should be victorious; but if they're off, or even let down for a short time only, they are doomed. THE SIOUX PLAY FOR THE BREAKS!

The Bison will be playing without the services of Nick Soulis, who has done a magnificent job on defense all year. The loss of Soulis will be more keenly felt than most NDAC supporters realize. Although he is no threat offensively, his defensive play has been superb all year.

A grand competitor, Nick should fare quite well in the Army Air Corps. We join with the many who wish him the best of success.

Soulis is the third NDAC athlete to be called into the Air Corps in the last fortnight... Jim Gorman and Vern (Little Swede) Johnson reported two weeks ago.

A PARTING SHOT: Let's watch our conduct at home games with regard to the officiating. It's not the best, but there's none better around. We have yet to see the Bison get the short end of the deal purposely. This corner has witnessed a number of games in Fargo and Moorhead this year, and the officiating is the same in all parts. THEY MAY CALL THEM WRONG AT TIMES, BUT THEY'RE NOT PARTIAL.

Officiating throughout the conference hasn't been any too good all year. So give the boys a break.
