

Blue Key Men Elect Nine Seniors To Membership

Nine seniors were elected to Blue Key, honor service fraternity, Thursday night.

They are:

Walter Alm
Glenn Gullickson
Roland Johnson
Robert Lorenzen
Everett Markwardt
Kenneth McLarty
James E. Noonan
George Rulon
Russell Schnur

Selection was based on scholarship, leadership and service.

Alm, Gullickson, Lorenzen, Noonan and Markwardt are Agriculture students while Johnson is enrolled in the School of Chemical Technology. McLarty is a Mechanical Engineer, Schnur is a Civil Engineer and Rulon is in Applied Arts and Sciences.

Alm is president of the senior class, Finance Commissioner of the Student Commission, house manager and past president of Co-op house No. 1, member of the YM cabinet, FFA, war council, past vice-president of ISA and NDAC Farmers Union, and active in intramural sports.

Gullickson was editor of the cancelled 1943 Bison. He is former business manager of the Bison Furrows, president of Lincoln club, Alpha Gamma Rho reporter, member of Saddle and Sirloin, Agricultural Economics club and Future Teachers association. He has appeared in Little Country Theatre plays.

Johnson is president of Alpha Gamma Rho and Interfraternity Council. A Sears Roebuck scholar, he is a member of Saddle and Sirloin, college war council, Chemist's club and YMCA. He was in the 1939 Bison Brevities.

Lorenzen, a member of Scabbard and Blade, is treasurer of Alpha Zeta, and was treasurer of the junior class in 1942. He is president of ASABE, a member of ISA Co-op house board of directors, Farmers Union local, LSA, YMCA and Saddle and Sirloin.

Markwardt is president and past secretary of the local chapter of the American Society of Agricultural Engineers and vice-president of the national group. He is vice-president of LSA, a member of ISA, YMCA, and secretary of Farmers Union local.

McLarty is business manager of the N. D. State Engineer, secretary of the Engineer's club and Scabbard and Blade. He is also a member of Gamma Tau Sigma, Board of Publications, and Sigma Phi Delta. He is a Second Lieutenant in the ROTC cadet corps and is active in intramural sports.

Noonan is president of the Ag Economics club, vice-president, rushing chairman and pledge trainer of Alpha Gamma Rho, secretary of Alpha Zeta and Saddle and Sirloin, a member of Newman club and ticket sale manager of 1942's Barn dance. He also was in charge of last year's agronomy section of the Little International. He was a member of the Freshman YMCA cabinet.

Rulon, editor of the Spectrum, is Cadet Lieutenant Colonel of the ROTC regiment. He is Athletic Commissioner of the Student Commission, former sports editor of the Spectrum, contributor to the Alumni Review, editor of the Bull Bison last year and winner of Scabbard and Blade military award as a sophomore. He is treasurer of Gamma Tau Sigma. A member of Sigma Chi, he is rushing chairman, tribune and associate editor of that fraternity.

Schnur is vice-president of ASCE, treasurer of Kappa Sigma Chi, member of Scabbard and Blade, YMCA and Engineer's club. He is a Second Lieutenant in the ROTC cadet corps and has been active in intramural sports.

Co-ed Prom Scheduled For Feb. 11

Marion Nelson, chairman, announces that the annual YWCA co-ed prom has been scheduled for Thursday, Feb. 11, in the Ceres gymnasium from 7:30 to 10. This year the dress-up affair will follow a theme of the girl athlete. All girls are urged to ransack attics and closets for sport clothes, old and new. Prizes will be awarded to those wearing the most clever costumes. Miss Beatrice M. Wartchow, instructor in physical education, will be the honored guest.

Harriet Quick, publicity chairman will work with the following committee: Genevieve Raisler, Esther Fugle, June Arntz, Polly Carter, Delores Akason, Dorothy Anderson, Helen Bjorlie, Patricia Hendrickson, Ferne Hintzman.

Campus sister invitations are under the direction of Maxine Schlagel, chairman, Jean Parizek, Wilma Aney, Donna Jean Gunthorpe, Connie Williams, Bernice Wichmann.

Eleanor Bohn is the chairman of the following refreshment committee: Jean Berquist, Mary Warner, Ruth Pollock, Jean Browman, Roselyn Buttery, Farrand Clarke, Jacky Jongeward, Lois Olson.

Entertainment will be under the direction of Janet Peterson. Her committee is composed of Beverly Halbeisen, Dorothy Monson, Jean Petchell, Marion Engesather, Dolores Fankhanel, Margaret Grasser, Jacky Pushor, Inez Kastner and Margaret Thomas.

Independents Plan Pre-Game Dance

The Independent Student Association will have a supper dance at 5 o'clock in Festival Hall preceding the NDAC-Morningside game Saturday.

Heading the food committee are Arylls Hernet, Ethel Jesperson and Madeline Johnson. Jean Hoff is in charge of music.

Bison, Morningside To Meet Here In Conference Game

"Hold Held" might well be the by-word in the Bison camp this week, as the Herd prepares for Morningside's high-powered offensive tomorrow night in the Field House. Game time is set for 8.

Led by Bob Held, who has averaged nearly 18 points per game against conference competition this season, the Maroons will come to Fargo tomorrow after meeting the UND Sioux at Grand Forks tonight. At present Morningside has an NCI win-loss record of 2-1.

"Morningside is certainly as strong as either South Dakota State or South Dakota University," states Bob Lowe. "The Maroons beat the Bunnies, 62 to 41, a fortnight ago and lost the week before to the Coyotes by only two points."

Teaming with Held at a forward will be Loren Clark. Johnnie Helm at center, and Don Rhoades and Chuck Obye at guards round out the starting five. Others destined to see action are Bill Briggs and DeVere Pentony.

Call Board

Danforth award winners and any other students who have attended Camp Miniwanca, Mich., will meet Wednesday night at 8 in the home of Dean and Mrs. C. A. Sevrinson, 1125 Fourteenth street North.

A committee of students and faculty members will meet on Tuesday and Wednesday from 4 to 6 in the Old Main lounge to select outstanding seniors. Student Seniors are asked to submit their activity record immediately.

Entrance physical exams will be given at the Student Health Center Saturday at 1 p. m., for all new students who registered for the winter term and for those who registered late last fall.

Found: A pair of gold-framed glasses Monday near the YMCA building. Owner may recover same by calling Frank Saunders. Dial 2-2308.

Found: A compact and comb in Morrill Hall. Owner may identify articles in room 113 of Morrill Hall.

A business meeting of Alpha Zeta will be held Monday at 7:30 in Morrill hall, announces Harvey Coon, president. The group held its bi-monthly luncheon Tuesday in Dacotah Hall.

Phi Upsilon Omicron, honorary home economics fraternity, will have a potluck Tuesday at 6:30 in the home of Doris Bjorklund. Dean C. A. Sevrinson will speak on present day affairs. Miss Minnie Anderson is advisor for the group.

Alm, Gullickson, Lorenzen, Noonan and Markwardt are Agriculture students while Johnson is enrolled in the School of Chemical Technology. McLarty is a Mechanical Engineer, Schnur is a Civil Engineer and Rulon is in Applied Arts and Sciences.

YOUR TIME TABLE . . .

should allow for a stop this weekend at the Powers Coffee Shop. It's a regular stop on most AC timetables, because the good food, good service, good music, and good gang make stopping there a pleasure.

Barn Dance Candidates Named As Annual Event Draws Near

By POLLY CARTER

Ricky-ticky-too! Let the potatoes grow out of your ears, brother. Shake the hay off'n your boots, sister, for here comes the old barn dance now.

Next Friday night in the American Legion Memorial hall in Moorhead from 9:30 to 12:30 the AC students will get closer to corn than the Spectrum did when it started publishing Chuck Van Hoof's column. According to the latest edition of Vogue a la Hickville, anything but overalls, gingham, and red kerchiefs will be entirely out of date.

Ernie Deutsch and Don Bahl are co-chairmen of the arrangements with Orville Stanley and Bud Chase assisting. Highlighting the dance will be the election of a queen. The hay-loft hopefuls for that honor are Sally Renden, Phi Omega Pi; Ardis Swensen, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Dorine Grenier, Phi Mu; Helen Brandstedt, Alpha Gamma Delta; Kathleen Huntley, Kappa Delta; Bessie Lauder, Gamma Phi Beta; Emma Skarpsno, Independent and Kathleen Morstad, Ceres.

Carl Colby's orchestra will furnish the music for the hog-rastle, so tie a big bow in your hair, and try to squeeze your feet into a pair of them new-fangled button shoes and come to the dance.

Coffee Forum Features Gessell

Leave Thursday an open date in your little black books, and plan to attend the Coffee Forum in the Y at 4:15.

Leo L. Gessell of the Fargo YMCA will lead a discussion on post war planning. Everyone is invited.

As an added inducement, real coffee will be served with sugar and cream.

YM-YW Groups Hold Sleigh Ride Tonight

The joint cabinets of the YM-YWCA will hold a sleigh ride tonight from 7 to 9. The group will meet at 6:45 at the Y and then "hit the road."

Frank Bauman, general chairman, promises all who turn out a lot of good ole fashioned fun.

Credit Union Names Three As Directors

T. E. Stoa, Dr. J. H. Longwell and Mrs. Lena Hoeft were elected to the board of directors of the NDAC Federal Employees Credit Union at the annual meeting held recently. Hold-over members are Dr. E. W. Pettee and Prof. P. V. Hemphill. Mr. Stoa was re-elected to the board and has served as chairman during the past year.

Other committee members named at the meeting included Dean C. A. Sevrinson to the credit committee and R. C. Reinhart, Dr. Chris Jensen and Elizabeth Cleveland to the supervisory committee. Hold-over members of the credit committee are E. G. Parizek and F. W. Christensen.

Kathleen Courtney Conducts Forum

Kathleen Courtney, chairman of the General Purposes Committee of the London International Assembly, an unofficial organization of the Allied Nations which holds regular meetings of discussing questions connected with post-war reconstruction will conduct a forum on "Planning For a Better World" tonight at 8 at the Emerson-Smith school auditorium.

Marian Anderson Impresses Reporter During Interview

By DORIS BJORKLUND

"Come in, won't you?" I opened the door of room 516 to find smiling Marian Anderson, who appeared in concert Monday at Festival Hall, approaching me with outstretched hands. Within a few minutes I had been introduced to her manager and pianist, my coat had been hung in a closet, and Miss Anderson had proceeded to energetically push huge overstuffed chairs into position for the interview.

Completely befuddled by the warm reception given me, I was grateful for the luxurious depth of the chair. When I next regained my senses, Miss Anderson was seated opposite me on a straight back chair with one leg tucked beneath her. Smartly attired in a periwinkle blue dressmaker suit with antique silver buttons and a matching ring, she was the essence of perfect grooming. She spoke fluently in answer to questions, always maintaining a certain humble dignity and modest manner which is characteristic of her great personality. In her presence one is not conscious of her race or even her standing as an artist. She becomes a brilliant conversationalist and a person with all the emotions, fancies, and delights of an ordinary modern woman.

TRAIN IS LATE

Coming from Chicago, Miss Anderson arrived in Fargo late Sunday evening eight hours behind schedule. Monday's concert was her second appearance here and she thinks both audiences have been "perfectly grand". From here she left for Minot, Winnipeg, and points in Canada to be followed by a tour of the west coast.

Miss Anderson travels by train except when the need to meet an engagement makes flying a necessity. She travels without a maid, does all her own packing, and occasionally presses her own gown on the afternoon of a concert.

College home ec's have nothing on Marion Anderson whose constant companion in leisure moments is her portable Singer sewing machine. A true domestic, (Continued on Page 4)

All rumors are based upon fact. But where the facts end and the "I understand" element creeps in—that's where the rumor begins.

Guesswork about the war is the best agent that Hitler has.

We've all done it. We're all guilty. You and I, the butcher, the baker, the candlestick maker. So, let's go the axis one better. The next rumor that comes along, let's all say "Squirm your way into an official communique—then we'll believe you!"

Corn Is King . .

By CHAS. VAN HOOFF

This column ought to take the snap out of our garter. The bus problem is hotter than tobacco. I started to go to the "Garbage-men's Ball", a swill affair, and the conductor wanted twelve cents. I called him a robber, but he said he only took what was fare. Jimmy Sullivan was there. He just came from a chicken fight and lost all his money—on a fowl. Beck gave the driver a dollar but he got no change. He said when this car goes through there is no change. At this point Trowbridge's intelligent ears picked up—they were smarted by the cold. Boney "The Rock" took panes to crawl through the window. The bus seemed to stop at every house and twice at duplexes. I asked a tall guy sitting next to me why he was so tall. He said it was from having his leg pulled. He came high but they had to have him. Some Alpha Gam started to sing in a Montana voice, at least it was a beaut. The bus was beginning to get crowded and the driver said "Let's squeeze back there," and right away Bolger reached for Jane. It wasn't so bad, there were only two layers in already. Roosevelt won't have to freeze travel, the buses are cold enough already. One guy lost his luggage—I guess the cork came out. Chase was complaining about girls getting their palms read. How about those guys going to the Comstock to get their nose red. The bus ran into a butcher wagon and knocked the liver out of it. Just when they have trouble making

Transom Trivia . by Candidates Griswold and James

AFTER A WEEK . . .

. . . we're back again with TT. We avoided all knives, bullets, grenades, bombs, Army Regulations and other trifles that were thrown at us after our last offering appeared. Here's hoping we can be as fortunate in the future.

STANDING PROCEDURE

Some time ago each man in class No. 4 was required to prepare a sample SOP. Since then Candidate S—, Company B, Quick-Time squad, has been operating under the provisions of his own PERSONAL SOP in preference to the one authorized by the school.

SHIRT-TAIL PARADE

The American theater has yet to "discover" one of the more versatile of our Candidates. The Polish Polka as danced by Candidate Sowa is perfection personified. We are especially pleased by the effect created when he trips lightly about the 3rd floor corridor garbed only in his "woolies."

NOMINATIONS:

Wolf of the Week: Schmal.
Sharpshooter of the Week: Frailey.
Applepolicer of the Week: Tombach.
Bookworm of the Week: Hocking.
Kings of Gigs: Co. "A"—Williams; Co. "B"—Bach.
Loudest Pajamas—Lansdale.

CONGRATULATIONS TO . . .

. . . Candidate Schain who passed the cigars recently. It both ends meet. Have you noticed how short Mildred Bean is since she is married. Must be settling down. I gave Elmer Anderson some pointers on that game "Pins and Needles" and when he played with Mary Bristol he got stuck. Speaking of pins, why doesn't Ginny wear her Sig pin? Swede was bragging about Maxine Schlagel's great presence of mind. She was on the top of a burning building, grabbed a bar of soap and walked down the ladder. I asked the driver what end to get off. He said, "Either one. They both stop." (Ed. note: End of paragraph).

THRU THE TRANSOM—

1. Candidates Smith and Polin vieing to see who would start the next rumor.
2. "I could never fall in love with any girl. I'm too perfect myself." (Quote Candidate Klie).
3. "Five more weeks 'til graduation . . . Boy!"
4. "For gosh sakes, do you guys expect me to do all the work, just because I'm Room Orderly?" (Candidate Parker).
5. "I only got a "C" in the Map Reading exam and I used to a Map-Maker, too." (You should be jubilant Blakely, we flunked it).
6. "Double time in place." (Hurianek).
7. "The South never lost the war, we were just outnumbered." ("Rebel" Holmes).

LET'S TALK . . .

. . . About the Phi Omega Pi girls. The bridge session held at their chapter house Sunday afternoon was a credit to NDAC hospitality. Candidates arrived eagerly at 3, but leaving at 5 was a matter of reluctance. In fact, many of the boys couldn't tear themselves away, and were seen gazing fondly into the eyes of some POP beauty as late as 10:30 that night!

SO LONG . . .

. . . we'll see you at the President's Ball Saturday night. And don't forget the 4th Class dance Sunday afternoon (Plug).

LITERARY BIT

Bombs may whistle overhead—and
Sirens wail their warning,
Blackouts fill the night with gloom,
But, there's sunshine in the morning.

Troops of soldiers rushing onward,
Hoping victory will be won
Whether comes defeat or conquest
The Sun Shines on!

Dimmed perhaps by smoke and war clouds
It spies a little child who whines
For her home and for her mother,
Still the Sun Shines!

Shine on, oh thou courageous sunlight,
Let your light pour from above
Teach the weary world your secret.

How to shine with radiant love.

SASSASSITY NOTES
Gamma Phis entertained two prominent "male animals" at potluck Monday. They were Don Crothers and Freddie Trowbridge. Crothers was attired in his very best polo shirt and slacks, while Trowbridge caused a sensation by wearing matching coat and trousers.

OC entertainments by sororities may be very successful in some respects, but they certainly don't get customers for the date bureau. The parties are with gestures, though, and really help the boys meet some datable dishes.

Saturday, wedding bells will ring for Kappa Jean Mason and Ensign Bill Guy, SAE graduate of last year.

SOB-SISTERS
If at any time, you should answer the phone and hear, "Got any gossip", "Know any news?", have no doubt as to who it may be. The AC and OC gals, Connie Williams and Jean McQuade. Each week is a series of calling and questioning for material about the latest parties, pin-hangings and social events. They see all, hear all and sadly, tell all. You can't miss 'em 'cause they are always together, so be on the lookout if you know something you don't want printed.

And then there's the college girl who can't stand rayon stockings because they just give her a "run for her money."

You'd be surprised at the number of girls taking track since they began reading about Errol Flynn.

I-M Cagers Plan Tourney For Trophies

Because of lack of time, the Managers of the intramural teams have decided to substitute an elimination tournament in place of second round play, announces E. E. Kaiser, intramural director. The tourney is set to start on Tuesday.

Trophies will be determined by the tournament; first round play will have no bearing, except to name Fraternity and Non-Fraternity League winners.

Sixteen teams have entered the meet in two brackets. Trophies will be awarded to the winner of the championship finals and to the winner of the consolation in which teams beaten in their first game will compete. Under this system a team must play two games before being eliminated.

The pairings:

FIRST BRACKET

7:00—Co-op I vs. Dugout YMCA, Tues., Feb. 2.
Bulldogs vs. Sigma Chi II, Tues., Feb. 2.

8:00—Sigma Phi Delta vs. Kappa Tappa Keg, Tues., Feb. 2.
Rammy Chi vs. Co-op II, Tues., Feb. 2.

SECOND BRACKET

4:50—SAE I vs. Kappa Psi, Wed., Feb. 3.

Kappa Sigma Chi vs. Alpha Gamma Rho, Thurs., Feb. 4.
ATO vs. College Y or Yanks (team not yet determined), Fri., Feb. 5.

Sigma Chi I vs. Theta Chi, Mon., Feb., 8.

Bison, Jackrabbits Play Wild Overtime Game Here Saturday

In an overtime game sparked by conflicting scorebooks, arguments, and threatened fistfights, South Dakota State's Jackrabbits downed the Bison, 47 to 43, at the Field House Saturday night.

For nearly three quarters the game was close, but without discord. The Bunnies led, 16 to 14, at the quarter and 27 to 24 at the half.

In the third period Russ Burfening left the game on fouls; then the fireworks began. Some scorebooks had him charged with three, others with four. The Herd led at the end of this quarter, 34 to 32.

Big Bob Schryver, Jackrabbit center, committed, according to some books, his fourth foul in the final period. He started off the floor but was waved back and continued to play. The regulation game ended, 43 to 43.

Two baskets in the overtime gave the Bunnies their 47 to 43 win.

Bison Bob Yeasley topped both teams with 19 points. Red Brostrom had 12, Burfening 8. Schryver led his mates with 12.

INTRAMURAL SCORES

'Swimming Classes Postponed'---Kaiser

E. E. Kaiser, NDAC physical education director, announces that no swimming classes will be held until further notice as a leak has developed in the Masonic pool.

Students are asked not to contact Kaiser before Wednesday, at which time he will know when instructions in swimming will be resumed.

HELP WANTED

The business world wants you; the government wants you; we are ready to prepare you for a worthwhile position. Why not do your bit in our national emergency by taking a course in business training and in a few months be ready to help some business man carry on his business or help the government in handling the vast amount of office work required by its war effort. Our last winter term opens Monday, February 1. Come to the office and talk your school needs over with us.

Heard About The Herd

By OWEN LANGEN

Allow us to quote, in part, from C. D. Lochlin's column, "Looking Through the Knothole", which appeared in Monday's Grand Forks Herald. He refers to the UND-Jackrabbit game played at Grand Forks Friday.

"From my position at the press table, which is also occupied by the official scorers and timer, it was impossible to enjoy any of the game because of the exhibition put on there by one John Morrow, who is line coach for the Jackrabbit football team. He took care of the scoring for South Dakota State and checked on the official timer. Morrow did not like the officiating on the floor and took pains to let every one know it . . . He not only complained . . . but he flung challenges to combat at George McCain during the course of the contest and even invited Coach Clem Letich to come over from his bench and brawl.

"I don't know how much of a fighter this fellow is, but if he is really anxious to fight as he appears to be I am amazed he is following a college basketball team around the country. They can use fellows his age in the army.

"The account of the game between South Dakota State and the Bison Saturday night told of arguments between scorers at the table and of a fight between one of the scorers and a spectator. That would be friend Morrow again. Coach McCrady must be proud to have a fellow like that along with him."

* * * *

Crowds at local basketball games are better than last year, according to Dr. O. O. Churchill, NDAC athletic director. The price of tickets is lower than last season, but the athletic department is taking in more money. Incidentally, 75 cents will admit an adult to the University series.

Physical Education Discussed By FTA

Shirley Soliah was chairman of the panel discussion on the program of "Physical Education in Wartime" presented by the NDAC Future Teacher's Association last night in Old Main. Others participating were Eileen Dolve, George Murray, Donald Bahl and E. E. Kaiser, instructor in the physical education department.

Those assisting Miss Soliah in the arrangements were Mary Jane Pavlik, entertainment; Harriet Quick, Betty Lynne, posters; Dr. Elmer C. Darling, adviser.

Following the meeting these officers were elected: Carol Helgeson, president; Don Bahl, vice-president; Helen Eastvold, secretary-treasurer.

YWCA Membership Open To NDAC Coeds

Here's good news for all NDAC women students. It's not too late to join the YWCA. Solveig Ness, membership chairman, will sign up those girls who want memberships Tuesday afternoon in the YWCA room of the college Y.

If it is impossible to obtain a membership at that time call Miss Ness at 7194 and arrangements will be made.

Under the chairmanship of Beth Ann Piers, the girls are making dress models at a nominal cost. Their work is supervised by girls who have taken advanced drapery courses.

ARTIST'S AWARD

Born in Philadelphia, Marian Anderson got her start on contributed nickels and dimes. Both hardship and glory have found a place in her colorful career. Recently she received the $10,000 Bok award in Philadelphia which she has generously designated as a Marian Anderson Award to be used in the form of cash scholarships for aspiring young artists in need of financial assistance.

The celebrated Negro contralto has sung in thirteen European countries. This fall she sang at the first in a series of war relief concerts in Constitution Hall in Washington. Since then she has appeared on similar programs sponsored by the Treasury Department in Chicago, Detroit and New York.

In describing her performance before the King and Queen of England at the White House two years ago she said, "After the performance I was the first woman to pass down the receiving line and I didn't know whether to curtsy, bow, or shake hands. I had practiced the curtsy beforehand until I was tremendously pleased with myself. When I came to the Queen, I curtsied deeply, but when I arose I wasn't facing the Queen at all. I don't know what happened, but I was mortified!"

DOG NAMED FARGO

Marian Anderson's agricultural interests are directed toward her 160 acre picturesque farm in Connecticut. "After listening to all your farm broadcasts this morning, I am undecided as to what I should raise—peanuts or soybeans", she remarked. Fargo is represented on her farm in the form of an Airdale dog by that name—"the sweetest thing you can think about." As we were browsing through some photographs of the farm, Mr. Jofe came to announce that Miss Anderson must soon leave for her train. Thus was my interview with "the World's Greatest Contralto" abruptly terminated.

Had it really lasted an hour and a quarter?
