

Eversull Exposes All Rumors Of NDAC Closing

Stating at Thursday's special convocation that "there is nothing to the story that NDAC will close. There is nothing to the story that this college will be turned into a purely technical school or an officer candidate school," Dr. Frank L. Eversull, president of NDAC, spiked wild rumors of speculation which had created quite a fervor on the campus during the early part of the week.

Commenting on the wild rumors, Dr. Eversull expressed the need for a "rumor clinic" which would have as its primary objective the tracing down of rumors brought to its attention by conscientious members of the student body and faculty.

The only way to keep these rumors from getting started is to "keep your own mouth shut" and don't listen to those people who don't, Dr. Eversull continued.

THANKSGIVING DAY OFF

Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 26, will be a school holiday as prescribed by the college calendar, but classes will be held Friday, Nov. 27. In this respect, so many undergraduate and freshmen students have enlisted in service reserve programs that military officials have indicated that the extra day of vacation afforded by a free Friday would mean a million class days lost throughout the nation.

"This is not the time to take vacations", Dr. Eversull remarked as he indicated that school would continue as scheduled until the Christmas recess set for Dec. 19, unless the Board of Higher Education requests other arrangements. Already officials of the University of North Dakota have announced that classes at that institution will be held on New Years Day.

Figures available to Dr. Eversull at the recent meeting of the Land Grant Colleges association in Chicago revealed that there are 2,500,000 youths in the 18- and 19-year-old group, but that so many of this number are already in the services or deferred for some reason, there are only 800,000 available for immediate induction into the service.

STAY IN SCHOOL

Military officials expect to double the personnel of the present armed forces during the next year. To accomplish this huge undertaking, officers will be needed to train, control and lead these vast forces to victory. Dr. Eversull stated that the ratio of officers to enlisted men in the armed forces is one to ten and it is "your duty as potential officer personnel to remain in school."

NDAC is not a "draft dodger's paradise" and as a land grant college is a government institution and would be one of the last schools "to fold up" if such a situation developed.

Dr. Eversull blamed the rumors and unfounded talk of the past week on misinterpreted statements emanating at the

True or Not Too True?

Wartime Marriages Discussed At YMCA Coffee Forum

Would a wife be able to love a husband that came back from war minus a leg or arm? Would their love be able to survive the long separation? Could they afford marriage?

These are some of the questions involved in war marriages that were discussed at the Y coffee forum yesterday.

This, the first coffee forum of this year's series sponsored annually by the college YMCA, was led by Dr. John C. Irwin and Mrs. V. E. Bennison.

The group felt the chance acquaintance type of marriage was definitely inadvisable because most of these marriages are not placed on a firm basis; therefore they grow apart under the pressure of war.

This series on War Marriages will continue but the date and place of the next meeting has not been set.

Educators Plea For Students

In appreciation of the efforts put forth by the student bodies and faculties of North Dakota colleges during the recent harvest crisis, the State Board of Higher Education adopted the following resolution.

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, The students of our North Dakota colleges, through their voluntary efforts in going into the harvest fields to relieve a serious shortage of farm labor, have helped to prevent the loss of a large portion of our crop, and have made a valuable contribution to the winning of the war, and

WHEREAS, This action on the part of the students was made at a cost to themselves of loss of time from their pursuit of education,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That we strongly urge the instructors of these students, in the same spirit of unity, to give freely of their time and efforts over and above the demands of their regular duties to the end that these students shall regain the time lost from their studies and that their education shall not suffer from the fact of their having helped in the harvest fields.

Appointed to the constitutional committee are Louis Skadeland of Minnewaukan, Dorothy Huset of Crosby, and Fern Lien of Pekin.

The purpose of the organization is to bring the advantages of cooperative living to NDAC co-eds, providing them with an opportunity of gaining the experience of home management and self-reliability as well as giving them every advantage of group living at a minimum cost.

Plans for the enterprise have been formulated in the minds of a number of the girls for some time and were thoroughly discussed and supplemented by true cooperative experiences related at a Sunday dinner provided by the boys of the NDAC Farmers Union Cooperative association.

● Quit Crabbing

"For God's sakes quit crabbing", was the exhortation made by Dr. Eversull to students at convocation yesterday.

Dr. Eversull was speaking of the one-day holiday that is being substituted for the usual three-day Thanksgiving recess.

However, he should have gone farther than that. Whenever some small hardship is placed before us, it is our duty as intelligent men and women to accept it cheerfully and with pride.

Yes, we should feel proud to do just a little bit towards hastening our preparation for more effective entrance into this history changing conflict.

After all, it is we of this generation who will live to realize the benefits from the defeat of the criminally-minded horde that is attempting to impose its authority upon us.

We are burdening our minds with narrow cynicism that keeps us from doing our best.

This cynicism, together with a certain amount of selfishness, has hindered the entire war effort of our nation so far.

Let it not be said of us that we are guilty of such a crime against our ideals.

Rather than be fatalistic, let us be futuristic.

● Marriage?

Yesterday the college YM-CA held its first in a series of coffee forums. The discussion was centered around the question of war marriages—to wed or not to wed and if so why.

In these hectic days of quick decisions it would be advisable if more pin-hanging fraternity men and war-bound draftees would seriously consider and discuss problems of marriage with men and women who have the background and experience to intelligently answer their questions.

In the post-war crises that are certain to come, it will be of great advantage to be free from problems of a broken marriage.

Kappa Sigs Highest For Term's Marks

Long a leader in scholarship competition among the social fraternities on the NDAC campus, Kappa Sigma Chi fraternity has triumphed again for the past term's work according to the registrar.

With the outstanding average of 2.06 for last Spring term the Kappa Sigs are back in the scholarship limelight. This is the highest recorded average any social fraternity has ever chalked up.

The Kappa Sigs have maintained the best 14-year scholastic record of any Greek group on the campus. In the last 43 terms they have had the highest average 27 times, came in second 12 times and placed third 4 times. They have never received lower than third.

The average of the group for the first 34 terms Kappa Sigma Chi was organized is 84.6 and since the innovation of the letter system the chapter has maintained a 1.78 scholastic record.

Highest individual average earned during this period was 96.5, won by Harry Woll. Other individual high averages computed on the 93 or above method were attained by Joseph Kufner, Andrew Vanvig and Willard Griffin. They each gained the coveted 3.00 average.

Paradoxically enough, along with this amazing scholastic record, the Kappa Sigs have been formidable leaders in intra-mural sports. Basketball has always held the interest of the Kappa Sigs as their trophy shelf can attest. They were champions in 1935, 1936, 1938, 1939, 1940 and 1941, losing to the Sigma Chis in the finals last winter. In softball they have captured the 1935, 1939 and 1942 championship trophies.

Kovash Vice-President For NDAC Cooperatives

A. J. (Andy) Kovash, Agriculture, sophomore, has been elected vice-president of the NDAC Co-op association, replacing Wayne Rowe, who has been called into the service. As vice-president Kovash will also serve as educational chairman for the House.

Ames Skolness of Valley City was selected to replace Kovash as member at large of the board of directors.

Norbert Lange is the newly elected social chairman for the House.

Wild Rumors Upset Scribe

By VIRGINIA MASON

Well, I guess I'll have to start at St. Catherine's next term or else go to the "U" of North Dakota. I suppose we could get a job working in town or perhaps go to business college.

Honestly, I don't know what to do. Why does everything happen to me? Just when we get started they have to turn the college into a military school the second term. And no Christmas vacation—why that's the dumbest thing I've ever heard of, let alone having no Thanksgiving vacation. And imagine only having courses for girls enrolled in Home Economics! What do they expect the rest of us to do?

Yes, this has been the general trend of conversation the past week regarding our good old NDAC. Someone probably gave way to his thoughts and as a result we had a full fledged rumor traveling around the campus.

No, announced President Eversull, the school will not close down. Instead, the doors of the NDAC are opened wider than ever and an invitation which should and must be accepted is issued to every boy and girl of college age. Now, above all, each and everyone of us should do our very best to attend college and put all we have into the preparation of our work. We should not only consider the present time when we make our choice, but we must also look into the future and realize that we can best prepare for that future by obtaining a good solid foundation now—in our college years.

So now as we sit in the Hasty with our hands in our pockets (desperately trying to find a dime) we can feel assured that we are not only doing what's right by going to college but we can also plan on having Thanksgiving Day free and a swell Christmas vacation from Dec. 19 'till Jan. 4.

So the next time someone comes up and says school is going to close get that old gleam in your eyes and say, "Are you kiddin'?"

Wanted: Ambitious new talented writers to help on Spectrum staff. Wonderful opportunity to meet intelligent, cooperative and cheerful group of co-workers. Chances of advancement are many, if applicant has car and can furnish lunch at Ulsaker's every Thursday night.

We kind of like the presentation of "Marriage of Figaro", but evidently freshman Bob Lambert didn't. As he plunged out of Festival hall Tuesday evening, tears rolling down his cherub cheeks, he wailed, "And I always had so much faith in women!" Well, we said he was a freshman, didn't we?

Doc Candor, the "Long Distance Operator", will have quite an enormous telephone bill this month. It seems that several ensuing communications with 'Syl' of Arizona have led to lengthy unpremeditated discussion. That's one way to make cole-slaw out of your cabbage.

Comeback of the week in our opinion is that of Kenny Getman, pride of the SAE's. In any or all of his classes when probed by the instructor, "Mr. Brains" replies, "Don't ask me, I'm a married man!" No point, just funny.

Candidate Rafferty Performs As Piano Virtuoso

By DON NORMAN

This reporter listened with open-mouthed wonder as Officer Candidate Patrick J. Rafferty displayed his talents as an artist of the key board.

A native of Boston, Mass., Candidate Rafferty attended Boston college, where he was captain of the golf team and played on the frosh football squad.

After college days he played in Jack Renard's band. Later he toured the New England states with his own band.

In 1941 he went to Europe as the pianist in the band on the Normandie, super luxury liner of the French Line, during its Christmas cruise.

Candidate Rafferty, pianist of 10 years standing, wrote a song in 1938 called "Stamp on the Devil" which was introduced by Earl "Father" Heines in Fieldston, Mass.

Last week Rafferty, with the assistance of Fred "Just call me Smooth Talk" Haupt, another officer candidate, drummed up $13 in 15 minutes to add to their class fund which was contributed to the Fargo Community War Chest.

As soon as possible, Rafferty plans to write a song for the Officer Candidate School in collaboration with Haupt, his lyrics man, manager, nursemaid and watchdog all rolled into one.

At the end of the interview this reporter had the audacity to ask

Rafferty to display his ability as a pianist. Rafferty gladly acquiesced and put me in my place by nonchalantly playing everything requested, from Beethoven's "Moonlight Sonata" to "boogie woogie" specials.

P. S. to all campus girls: Rafferty stated that he likes Fargo girls much better than Boston babes.

Heard About The Herd

By OWEN LANGEN

Don't be surprised if the varsity and intramural basketball plans fall through. Although the army may permanently take over the gym to house the last contingent of Officer Candidates which arrived this week (335 strong), the athletic department is going ahead with a "business as usual" program.

In the event that no adequate housing facilities are found, the OSC will make permanent use of the field house floor for Candidate sleeping quarters. Beds have been temporarily placed in the gym now.

But, as long as a chance of continuing intercollegiate and intramural basketball exists, the athletic department is going ahead with plans for these sports as usual.

The fate of the athletic set-up at NDAC should be decided sometime next week, according to officials.

The NCI Coaches' All-Conference team will be released next week following the annual meeting to be held at the Nicollet hotel in Minneapolis on Monday. Each coach nominates players from his own team, and from the list compiled, the selections are made.

Coach Bob Lowe nominated Cliff Rothrock, Harry Treglawney, Ted Barnick, Johnny Zaic, Daily King and Nick Soulis; they represent a formidable array of talent.

According to reports around the circuit, Iowa State Teachers and the University of North Dakota are pre-season choices to replace the Bison as conference cage champs (they couldn't be the Clowns, could they?). Jack Stevenson is the only starting member of the 1941-42 Sioux not returning, while the Panthers boast a wealth of returning lettermen.

The Sioux look for their best year in a decade.

* * * *

Comes time now to introduce the assistants in this department of the paper: Doug Fisk, Dick Hogoboom and Jerry Weingarten, all freshmen. Fisk's contribution this week is the varsity basketball story; Hogoboom wrote the summary of the grid season; and Weingarten, the intramural and obstacle race stories.

HATS OFF DEPARTMENT: To Boney Rothrock, Harry Treglawney, Ted Barnick, and Vern Johnson for their brilliant defensive play at Sioux City last week. All were terrific!

The flood of All-American teams has started. Of the seven this corner has seen thus far, no two selectors have agreed.

Outstanding backfield candidates for All-American include: Hillenbrand, of Indiana;; Harder and Hirsch, of Wisconsin; Daley, of Minnesota; Steuber, of Missouri; Bertelli, of Notre Dame; Sinkwich, of Georgia; Governalli, of Columbia; and Filipowicz, of Fordham.

Minnesota's Dick Wildung and Wisconsin's Dave Schreiner, All-American tackle and end, respectively, in 1941, again lead the pack in the line. No two men have selected the same center, and Bob Dove of Notre Dame has been chosen at both end and guard, a position he played last year.

* * * *

Evidence of what the Bison gridders could do this year when they began to roll may be seen in the "opponent's points" column of the Iowa State Teachers championship team record. Of the 25 points scored against the Panthers in their first four NCI games this season, 19 of them were tallied by the Herd.

Four Cage Vets Return

Basketball practice got underway last night with four lettermen returning from last year's squad. Heading the list is Gene Marquart, regular forward on the 1942 North Central Conference champs. Other lettermen still in school are Russ Burfening, Bob Yeasley and Lloyd Fercho. Nick Soulis, a reserve who barely missed his letter last season, has also reported.

Members of the Baby Bison quintet of last season still in school are Paul Brostrom, Jack Burchill, Tom Wellems and Jim Noonan.

Several freshmen with outstanding high school records have also reported. Among them are Dan Polis, Don Coleman and Howie Rohs of Fargo; Jim Werre and Gordon Monson of Moorhead; Don Anderson of Bismarck; and Joe Frezon of Rugby.

The basketball set-up is still in doubt as it is not certain what will be done with the contingent of army men which arrived this week.

Bison Down Morningside Maroons In North Central Conference Finale

An injury-riddled Bison foot-down plunge by Anderson from the five. King drop-kicked the extra point to put the Bison ahead, 13-0.

The Herd tallied in the first six minutes of the game, when Rothrock intercepted a Maroon pass near the mid-field stripe and returned it to the Morningside 29. On third down, King passed to Soulis for the counter.

Midway in the third period the Bison again scored when Rothrock intercepted another Maroon pass on his own 35. Passes by King and Trowbridge set up the touch-

Morningside scored its lone touchdown in the final period when Goodrich intercepted an AC aerial and ran to the Bison 9. Logue passed to Asprey for the counter. Asprey converted.

Rothrock, Barnick, Treglawney and Johnson stood out for the Herd on defense; while King, Anderson, Trowbridge and Gorman carried the brunt of the offensive play.

Homecoming Win Highlights Bison Grid Season

The Bison finished the 1942 football campaign Saturday by scoring a 13-7 triumph over Morningside, and thus completed a season in which the Herd experienced many ups and downs.

Coach Bob Lowe started the season with but six lettermen and few outstanding prospects. To further complicate matters, school started later than usual and a vacation, followed by inclement weather, made practices a rarity.

The Herd opened its season against Concordia, and although they gained over 300 yards from scrimmage to but 60 for the Cobbers, the Bison dropped a 7-6 decision.

TIE WITH MATES

The following week Bob Lowe's charges played the Wahpeton Navy Machinists Mates to a 6-6 deadlock at Wahpeton, after which the Bison seemed to begin to roll by running up 19 points in the first half against the Iowa State Teachers before losing, 27-19. The highly-favored Panthers rallied late in the contest to nip the locals.

Then came the harvest vacation, but football continued. With key men in the fields, the Bison experienced a definite "down" complex in bowing to South Dakota U, 37-12. (Ed. note—We didn't feel too badly; Minnesota lost to Illinois the same weekend.)

SEASON'S HIGHLIGHT

Highlighting the season was a 26-14 rout of North Dakota University as the Bison celebrated homecoming gloriously. The overconfident Sioux were completely out-played.

With Johnny Zaic, Fritz Trowbridge and E. J. Anderson on the injury list and with the removal of Harry Treglawney and Jim Gorman from the game, the AC was humbled by the Jackrabbits of South Dakota State, 14-0.

The Morningside conquest gave the Bison a win-loss record of two and four, with one tie, far from impressive but the best Bison record in four years. The Bison, with a conference record of two wins and three defeats, will finish in a fifth place deadlock with the Sioux should the University drop its final game to the favored Coyotes of South Dakota University. Should the Sioux win the Bison will end up in sixth place.

Augustana, Iowa Teachers In Hot Championship Race

Augustana clinched at least an NCI title tie by downing Morningside, 27-13, Wednesday, to climax an undefeated season which included four conference wins. Iowa State Teachers, with the same loop record, has one game left on its schedule, against Omaha this weekend. Should the Panthers emerge victorious, Augustana and Iowa Teachers will share the title tinware.

In the event that these two teams tie for top honors, a USO benefit post-season game may be played with the NCI crown awarded to the winner.

South Dakota U and North Dakota U meet on the gridiron this week in a battle for third place. Should the Coyotes win, the Sioux will drop to a fifth place tie with the Bison. If the Nodaks triumph, however, they will hold undisputed claim to the "show" position, while the two South Dakota schools would deadlock for fourth, with the Herd in sixth place ahead of Morningside and Omaha.

Fifteen I-M Teams Enter

With 15 teams definitely entered in the intramural basketball program and with the probability of four Sigma Chi fraternity teams, the clubs are ready to begin action according to E. E. Kaiser, intramural athletic director.

At present plans for days of games and actual game times have not been set due to the uncertain conditions regarding the availability of the field house. In the words of Kaiser, "Nothing is definite."

New Obstacle Run Added To NDAC Build-up Program

Under the direction of Maj. N. W. Lovsness, ROTC instructor, and E. E. Kaiser, intramural physical education instructor, an obstacle course is nearing completion on the south side of the stadium. Helping build the course are advanced ROTC cadets and OCS candidates.

The obstacle run has been introduced in many schools recently in connection with the physical build-up program. NDAC's course, 150 yards long, will be dotted with ten different barriers. The first obstacle, a hurdle, placed 15 yards from the starting line, will be followed by a fence vault, dodge run, wall scale, under crawl, broad jump, hedgehop, hand over hand travel, balance run and trench run. These obstacles are not in order as they are subject to change while the course is under construction.

While the OCS is financing the project, the course will see service from the ROTC and all boys taking physical education as well as the officer candidates.

Eversull Spikes All AC Closing Rumors

national meeting of another college association which has nothing to do with the problems facing the nation's land grant colleges and therefore would take no action which would have bearing on NDAC.

MERELY "TRIAL BALLOONS"

Expressing the fact that as yet all plans for the new draft group were only "trial balloons" sent out as hints to educators by the army, Dr. Eversull explained the possible plan for the 18- and 19-year-olds.

Youths would be called up for 13 weeks of strenuous physical and military training and then given an opportunity to take tests, successful completion of which would send them back to college to study in one of some 19 different fields. They would then return to the armed forces and serve in positions best suited to their training.

NEW FIELDS FOR WOMEN

Industrial fields never before entered by women are now open to them, stated Dr. Eversull, and he urged NDAC's women students to remain in school to prepare for these new fields and continue their studies in fields which already have taken them in by the thousands.

Laboratory technicians, dieticians, pharmacists and nursing personnel of all kinds were among the several classifications of workers which are in demand at this time and which Dr. Eversull said the women of the college must prepare.

He urged all students, men and women, to change over to courses which emphasize chemistry, mathematics and earth sciences as soon as possible as their immediate contribution to the war effort.

"Intelligent leadership" is needed to bring this country victory in its great undertaking and it is up to the students and faculty of NDAC to keep level heads and to constantly strive ahead in their efforts toward that ultimate victory.

War Fashions Stress Slacks - Formals Nil

By EVA RULIFFSON

Formals or not this year? is a question everyone is asking. It is difficult to tell whether materials will be cut down to such an extent that formals will not be allowed. That is something that will prove interesting to watch. No doubt the trend will be towards narrow skirts with as little use of material as possible.

A great deal of Indian jewelry is being shown this year, coin silver, turquoise and others. Chunk jewelry is still in full sway although more bracelets are being shown than necklaces. Pearls are still good.

The military influence is seen in many of the new things that are coming out. A jacket has come out which the wearer uses for the names of all the men in service that she knows.

To wear or not to wear slacks this year is another question facing the girls. They are practical in the sense that they are warm and they do save on much needed stockings. I hope that too much protest will not be heard if the girls wear slacks this year. After all fellows, this is war!

Owens Named Head Of Sigma Chi Pledges

Robert Owens was elected president of the Sigma Chi pledge class this week. George Ulrich was named vice-president and Duane Aune was elected secretary-treasurer. Jack Christenson and Prentiss Cole were elected members of the pledge executive committee.

Senator William Langer visited the chapter house Tuesday night to meet the new pledges and to renew acquaintances with Sigma Chi actives.

Actives and pledges will attend a record party at the fraternity house Saturday night.

Louis K. Manley, formerly dean of the University of Pittsburgh school of business administration, has been named dean of the graduate school at the University of Miami.

Opera New Experience For Most NDAC Students

For many Lyceum-goers, last Tuesday night's performance had something special in store. An opera was to be given, and all those who never had had the opportunity of enjoying such a musical treat were full of expectancy.

They were not disappointed. This must be attributed to the choice of the evening's opera, Mozart's popular "The Marriage of Figaro", and last, but not least, the cast.

INTERPRETER GOOD

The interpreter, something new for those who have seen operas before, did a splendid job. Outstanding among the singers were Vera Weickel, who played the part of Cherubino, and Helen Van Loon, a charming Susanna. Figaro, John Tyers, did his part justice, and his arias were something worth mentioning. As pointed out before, the whole cast cooperated beautifully and harmoniously, which could be noticed in the duets and quartets.

Many a student who attended the performance commented, "Now I've seen my first opera, and really knew what was going on."

CHORUS MISSED

Of course, in an opera the main object is the music, and one certainly missed the chorus and orchestra, which, especially in "The Marriage of Figaro" brings out many beautiful parts and passages. There is no substitute for those. The full vigor and perfect structure of this masterpiece of Mozart can be realized only then.

Chemistry Students Need Hands, Brains

"Work equals force times distance. The force may be there, but if it does not move through a distance, no work is done."

Dean L. L. Carrick gives this bit of philosophy for future chemists to meditate on. "Chemists who do not want to get their hands dirty are left by the wayside. Chemistry requires that you work with both your hands and brains."

"The Agricultural college's curriculum in chemistry has the same requirements as do leading universities and colleges. Possibly you may have to work harder, but a good foundation in chemistry is a prerequisite to modern economic structure."

general arrangements will be James Kyser, Eugene Bolger and Don Stockman.

The scenery is not so important, and the plot, as in most of the operas, is hardly worth while talking about.

There is one thing this performance did. It made people understand opera, so that the next time they see it will be much easier for them to enjoy. Next time we listen to the Metropolitan on the air we'll have a better understanding of it.

SAE Party Saturday

Pledges of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity will be honored at an informal party Saturday at 9 in Festival hall, with active members as hosts.

Chaperons will be Dr. and Mrs. Frank Eversull and Capt. and Mrs. Max Hughes. In charge of
