Streamlined Prom Scheduled

Festival Visitors Will See College In Action

Ag, Home Economics Schedule Special Displays For Guests

To enable May Festival visitors to see "the college in action," the various schools on the campus are holding open houses today and tomorrow.

The agricultural division will have exhibits covering most of the subjects taught. Persons entering the building will be guided through the exhibits by a coordinated plan. Agronomy, bacteriology, entomology, agricultural economics, poultry, rural sociology, cereal technology, soils, agricultural engineering and soil conservation are subjects scheduled for displays.

A series of talks by women in different fields of home economics will open the home economics conference. Demonstrations of wartime clothing and nutrition needs for defense will be shown by the clothing department.

In the afternoon Dean Alba Bales will speak. A food demonstration, a style show and an art exhibit are also scheduled. Movies, talks and skits will carry out the theme, My Health and My Country, scheduled for Saturday. An all-girl party will close the conference.

Extempore speech, oratorical and radio drama contests are scheduled for Friday morning. All-college day exercises, sponsored by the student commission, will follow. Students will compete in declamation, story telling, and one-act play contests at 1 p. m.

After the presentation of the one-act plays at 7 p. m., guests are invited to see the cadet review staged at the stadium at 8 p. m.

May Festival visitors will be guests of the college at the annual Barn Dance scheduled for 9 p. m. in the Physical Education building.

All departments welcome visitors to the regular classes. Instructors will be on hand to answer questions.

A campus frolic will climax the May Festival at 4 p. m. Saturday. A. G. Arvold is general chairman of the entire program.

Commission Installs Members At Convo

Charlotte Bahe was elected to the position of commissioner of publications by the board of publications control Thursday.

Miss Bahe will be installed with the other members of the new commission as a feature of the convocation at 11 a. m. today.

President Eversull will address a word of welcome on behalf of the college to the May Festival guests and musical selections will be presented by the Gold Star band and the mixed chorus.

School Papers Judged For May Festival

Winners in the annual May Festival high school newspaper contest sponsored by Gamma Tau Sigma, journalism fraternity, have been selected by a committee consisting of G. L. Seaman, assistant editor of the department of information; Willie Boehrs, Spectrum business manager; Jim Ford, Spectrum editor, and George Rulon, Spectrum sports editor.

In the division for mimeographed papers the Wa-Hi Headlines from Wahpeton high school won first. Next in order were the N. H. S. Review from Northwood high school, the Bluejay News from Jamestown high, the Dazey Cardinal from Dazey high and the Mayviews from Mayville high.

Michigan high school won first in the division for sections of town newspapers. Second was Sheldon high.

The Cooper High Record from Cooperstown was first in the printed division, followed by the Cynosure from Fargo high. Third place went to the Carrington High Sentinel.

Victory Convocation Set For Thursday

A Victory convocation is scheduled for 10 a. m. Thursday. With Ernst Van Vlissingen leading patriotic singing, the program will feature talks by Jerry Morrow and Dr. H. L. Walster. Before and after the convocation War Savings stamps will be sold at two stands outside of Festival hall.

Junior-Senior Next Friday, Informal For First Time

500 Expected Here For Summer Session, Parrott Indicates

Summer school for NDAC students will begin on June 1 with the regularly scheduled fall program. According to A. H. Parrott, registrar, about 200 freshmen and 300 upper classmen are expected to register.

Fall quarter will begin September 28 and will offer students a combined fall and winter program.

Classes for the summer session will start at 7:30. The time schedule will be 7:30, 8:40, 9:50, 11:00, 12:15, 1:15, 2:20, 3:25.

The number of faculty members will be 66, regular number is 119. All of the schools will be open for registration.

Rationing Will Hit Students

Nationwide sugar rationing hits home next week when out-of-town students at NDAC will be required by law to register in their districts for sugar rationing cards.

T. W. Blair, principal of Roosevelt junior high and assistant director of the Fargo committee, announces that students living west of Broadway and north of the Great Northern tracks will register in the Roosevelt building, 1026 N. 10 st.

Registration order is as follows: students with last names from A-F will sign up Monday; G-L, Tuesday; M-R, Wednesday; S-Z, Thursday.

Regulations state that any student taking more than 12 meals a week at the same house, restaurant or cafeteria will be required to turn over his card to the house manager or proprietor. The stamps will be taken out as used.

The first four stamps will be good for one pound of sugar which must last for two weeks. Beginning with stamp No. 15, new rationing orders will be determined by Washington officials. Each book contains a total of 28 stamps.

Bachelors or girls who prepare their own meals will be asked to state the exact amount of sugar they have on hand. If this amount exceeds 6 pounds, no stamp book will be issued until the sugar is used. Men living in the Co-op house will receive rations as a residential unit—one-half pound per person, per week.

Blair also states that out of town students living with relatives will register as part of the family unit. Registration for Fargo and Moorhead students will be made through the family at their regular voting district.

This year's Junior-Senior prom will be a streamlined affair, promise Bohn Lindemann and Alice Larson, managers.

Rescheduled for next Friday, the event will be known as a Victory ball and will tie in with the government's drive to sell War Savings bonds and stamps. No ticket will be honored at the door unless the holder purchases a 25-cent defense stamp with it.

Proceeds from the ball will be used to buy war bonds which, when they reach maturity 10

Ticket sales for the Junior-Senior Victory ball for underclassmen will begin Monday afternoon in front of Old Main, Willie Boehrs, ticket manager, announced Thursday.

Down 50 cents from last year, tickets now cost $1. In addition to a ticket, a 25-cent defense stamp will be required for admission. Free tickets for juniors and seniors will be distributed Friday afternoon, and each upperclassman will be required to buy a defense stamp in order to get his ducats.

years from now, will be cashed in to purchase a memorial for the college's dead in World War II.

All day Friday will be known as MacArthur day on the campus and a special effort will be made to have students and faculty members invest in war bonds.

Semi-formal for the first time, the ball will have flowers in order. Dancing is from 9:30 to 1 in the Crystal ballroom with Paul Hanson furnishing the music.

Committees planning the prom include: decorations, Mac Foss, chairman, Loran Ladwig, Steve Olson, Don Hoag and Marguerite Steiner; invitations and chaperones, Betty Myrbo, chairman, Grace Getman, Betty Olson and Georgianna Findahl; programs, Elaine Wigdahl, chairman, June Heisler, Harris Sessions and Leonard King.

Tickets, Willie Boehrs, chairman, Kenneth Crahan, Ed Lokken and Al Sandmark, and publicity, Clark Heggeness, Betty Lynne, Jim Ford and Dorothy Kinney.

Scientific Group Meets On Campus

NDAC is the scene of the 34th annual meeting of the North Dakota Academy of Science today and tomorrow.

Sessions are set for 9 a. m. and 1:30 p. m. in the physics lecture room of the Engineering building on both days.

Members of the society and guests will attend a banquet tonight at 6:15 in Ceres hall at which J. R. Schwendeman of MSTC will be principal speaker.

'Sweethearts' Great Performance

By JIM FORD

Great is the only way to justly describe the 1942 Bison Brevities production of Victor Herbert's operetta, "Sweethearts."

From the opening curtain to the grand finale, audiences, smaller than the show justified, were enthralled on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

Following the usual pattern of stories concerning the rises and falls of royalty, the plot was made vivid and different by superb acting on the part of all cast members and a magnificent musical score.

Playing the role of Sylvia, an orphan girl who later becomes queen, Shirley Putz, the female lead, was magnificent. Not once was she out of character, either while acting or while singing in a manner and with a voice which would be hard to equal on the professional stage.

A perfect characterization was turned in by Genevieve Lindemann as a coquettish milliner who had the thrill of thinking she was queen only to find she was mistaken. A highlight of the show was her singing of a classic little ditty entitled "Jeannette and Her Little Wooden Shoes."

Norbert Lange, the male lead, turned in a good performance as Franz, the heir presumptive, who gets Sylvia as his bride. His characterization, while strictly high grade, was not as powerful as some of the other portrayals.

Dame Paula played by Jeanne Paul and her six daughters characterized by Delores Huether, Virginia Koloen, Rosalie Larson, Mary Bristol, Marjorie Peterson and Wilma Aney were extremely good, with Miss Bristol probably overshadowing the others a trifle.

Perfect was George Truesdell's portrayal of Mikel Mikeloviz, a would-be politician who injected many laughs into the show. Truesdell who is over six feet tall was a scream dressed as a laundry maid.

John Sanders turned in a wonderful performance as Lieutenant Karl, the fortune hunting soldier who finally marries the milliner despite the fact she has no dowry. One song, "The Game of Love," was particularly well done by Sanders.

As the Honorable Percy Algeron Slingsby, Bill Anderson nearly garnered as many laughs as Truesdell. In the part of an empty-headed English fop Anderson acted perfectly natural. His tone poem, "I Don't Know How I Do It," nearly brought down the rafters.

Also comic was the scene in which Anderson and Charles Dills and Paul Weiser, all scheming to obtain some of the wealth of the crown, portrayed monks. Dills and Weiser were excellent as schemers.

Special mention should go to Ernst Van Vlissingen, the director, and Don Landeck, the manager, for putting on such a near professional show.

Let's hope Blue Key sees fit to give us more of the same next year.

"WELCOME" we say to all the high school students attending the May Festival. While in Fargo, drop in at the famous Powers Coffee Shop, which has long been the rendezvous for the AC smart set.

The Powers will be open until 2 A. M. after the Saddle and Sirloin Barn Dance Friday night.

● welcome

Today NDAC students adjourn from classrooms to entertain high school men and women from all parts of the state.

We who are hosts wholeheartedly welcome you, our guests. We shall endeavor to make your visit a pleasant one.

We hope our arrangements will meet with your approval and if at times we seem to have slipped, please do not take our failings too seriously.

Our campus is opened for your inspection. Although special guides have been designated to show you our institution we urge you to feel free to ask any student questions that may arise concerning the college or its activities in this time of crisis.

● anthem antics

Twice during the past week ROTC drills have been held on the campus west of the library.

On both occasions the "Star Spangled Banner" has been played.

Also on both occasions only about five percent of the spectators, students and others, watching the drill had common sense and patriotism enough to show their respect for our national anthem.

For this reason we feel it pertinent to inform the apparently ignorant majority of some of the facts concerning our country's rules of military courtesy.

When the national anthem is played:

- Women stand at attention.
- Men stand at attention and those wearing hats place them over their hearts.
- Persons in stationary cars step out.

Let us sing of the life at the Forks.
Where picnics are few
And the heavens are blue.
Let us sing of a life full of gorks.

Let's Make Hay At The Big Barn Dance Tonight

"It's going to be sorta hard, Hiram, to make hay while the sun shines on accounta all this hyar rain, but I reckon we'll do our doggondest at the barn dance tonight."

So here is a call for all Hanks, Hiram, Daisy Maes and little Isobels and Elmers to make their debut at the hop tonight with plenty of corn-fed jive from Doc Lawson's band there to help them out.

Feature of the hoe-down is the selecting of the queen, and rumor has it that there isn't a "hick in a hayload". Whether or not the candidates will have to give a hog call to prove their ability has not yet been decided. Signs have been placed on the dairy barns to direct the freshmen to the Fieldhouse, the scene of the jamboree.

Bales and bales of fun are promised if you haven't been given a bad steer and spend all your time looking for the traditional needle in the haystack (there's really no point in it). Just get your best gal, dig up a pair of overalls and a corn cob pipe, and come over to jive.

Keeping things in order if they can will be the chaperones, Mr.

and Mrs. M. H. MacDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. McLachlin and Mr. and Mrs. Morris H. Taylor.

Cadet Review Set For Library Green

NDAC's 25th annual ROTC cadet review will be held on the campus west of the library at 8 p. m. tonight rather than in the stadium as previously scheduled, it was announced Thursday by Lt.-Col. Charles H. Hart Jr., commandant.

The parade is a feature of the May Festival entertainment for out of town guests but the public is invited to witness the review.

Markwardt New President Of ASAE

New president of the American Society of Agricultural Engineers is Everett Markwardt. Other officers are Robert Pile, vice president and Donald Bates, secretary-treasurer. Bob Lorenzen, retiring president, was the installing officer.

Watch The Things Go By

It's Siouxicide

By Jim Ford

Mr. John Hulteng was down to visit us last week.

Mr. John Hulteng, for the benefit of the uninformed hundreds, is editor of a rag known as the Dakota Student, which is published semi-regularly, when Mr. John Hulteng feels like it, at an institution of higher (?) learning up the river.

After visiting us for a period of at least 10 minutes this same very learned John Hulteng went home and wrote a column in which he set forth very firm convictions regarding how education is carried on in this "cowlege". Now this is indeed a wonderful accomplishment considering the fact that scholars who have been here for as long as five years have not yet reached any very definite conclusion as to how students learn anything here.

QUOTING JOHN

We quote from Mr. John Hulteng's literary masterpiece, and hereafter Hulteng's words will be in bold face and our reflections on his thoughts, which of course are relatively unimportant, will be in lighter type.

"Tuesday we went south to visit our colleague, Jim Ford, editor of The Spectrum, alleged newspaper at the AC . . . Mr. Ford received us generously, between brisk little informal picnics he—and the rest of the AC—attend every morning and every evening."

It rained most of this week, so no picnics. However, if Mr. John Hulteng is envious of the abundance of picnics here, we will be glad to arrange a very special one for him on his next visit. If this is inconvenient, we might get up a special picnic all-star team to go to the Forks and coach the uneducated Sioux on how to carry on a picnic in a private and very lively manner.

PICNIC SQUAD

Already announcing their candidacy for positions on the squad are Evangeline Schwartz, who is trying for the coach's post; Edsel Boe, Rachel Elznic, John Berg, Bohn Lindemann, Marj Nees, Maxine Schlagel, Alden Foss, Polly Carter, Bud Chase and others too numerous for mention.

Hulteng goes on to say: "While at the southern center of learning and stuff we found an issue of The Fargo Forum dealing with the election of the Sigma Chi Sweetheart . . . said the headline, 'AC Fraternity to Elect SHEETHEART.' Must have held the nominating convention at a blanket party."

Mr. Hulteng must have been three SHEETS to the wind when he read that headline.

DREAM MAN?

Another gem from Hulteng's sizzling typewriter says, "Posters boosting candidates for their Model Man (equivalent to our Dream Man) contest for a Spinter Skip there tonight advertised as a great virtue the fact that 'anyway, he isn't a Beta.'"

Note to Hulteng: "This same candidate 'who ain't no Beta' got elected. Maybe you could get to be a Dream Man if you'd use similar tactics."

Hulteng's parting shot at the AC said, "We drove all over the campus looking for the Spectrum office and finally asked a passing cow the way to find it. She mooed in a horrified manner and minced hurriedly off . . . very discriminating and discerning animal."

We knew that everyone in Fargo is friendly, courteous and polite, but we failed to realize that this civic pride extended to our animals. We also congratulate the cow on being able to smell a striped cat and walking away in such great haste.

Applications For Spectrum Position Due

Applications for the conditional appointment as business manager of next year's Spectrum are due in the Bison office by noon Tuesday. Personal interviews will be conducted by the board of publications control Wednesday.

The person selected will become business manager of the Spectrum providing Willie Boehrs passes his naval air corps training course and does not return to school in the fall.

Sixteen Iowa State college women are now qualified to drive ambulances in the services of the United States.

SUMMER TERM . . .

The summer term at the Interstate Business College opens Monday, June 1. Many young people will start their courses in training on this date in order to finish three months ahead of the crowd that starts in September. The demand for trained office workers is the greatest in our nation's history. If interested, write for our catalog.

Navy Announces Changes In V-1 Training Program

New and important changes concerning class V-1, the navy's new training program for younger college men, have been announced by naval authorities. The new system is designed to replace enlistments for class V-7 which was closed to civilians on May 1. Class V-7 trains midshipmen for ensign commissions.

Under the new program, midshipman training given under V-7 will be available only to men enlisting in V-1 or other enlisted men in the navy.

Recent changes in the V-1 system allow applicants to choose between training as aviation cadets or deck or engineering officers. Those choosing aviation will become eligible for civilian flight training during their freshman or sophomore year, and then take the V-5 course for naval air force commissions.

Another revision in the plan makes it possible for a V-5 candidate who does not remain in college for two years or who fails to pass the V-1 classification examination with a sufficiently high grade to go to one of the navy's flight training centers providing he can pass both the physical and mental examinations for prospective aviation officers.

Candidates for the V-7 classification who fail to pass the navy competitive examination will be allowed to finish their second calendar year, now equivalent to approximately three school years under the new speedup program of most colleges, before they are assigned to active duty as apprentice seamen. The former ruling permitted them to finish their sophomore year.

Secretary of the Navy Frank Knox recently wired the heads of 1,000 colleges and universities urging their support of the new program.

"America is counting upon the nation's college freshmen and sophomore classes to provide future officers for the United States navy," the message read in part.

"This special college program which is known as the V-1 plan is democracy's intelligent and practicable way of meeting America's urgent need for thousands of young college-trained officers without breaking down our educational system or forgetting future needs for training them for civilian life after the war is won."

Through nation-wide co-operation with the V-1 program the navy hopes to commission a minimum of 35,000 officers a year for duty with the naval air force and the fighting units at sea.

Student applicants for V-1 are enlisted as apprentice seamen in the Naval Reserve. They are placed on inactive duty, however, until their college period of training is completed. High school seniors who have been accepted for admission at accredited colleges, or freshmen and sophomores at such colleges who are not less than 17 and under 20 years of age are eligible.

The standards for the V-1 physical examination will continue to be the same as those applying to apprentice seamen. Application forms can be obtained from deans at most colleges or at any navy recruiting station.

Education Division Has New Policy For Underclassmen

Dr. E. C. Darling and Dean A. E. Minard announce that a new policy in arts and science will be to encourage individuals who are definitely planning on teaching to transfer to the department of education for guidance and advice relative to registration and selection of courses.

The plan is as follows: Sophomores wishing to make this change will be assigned to Mr. Glenn Lawritson. Freshmen will be transferred to Mr. Leon Hartwell and Miss Ruby Grimes. Dean Minard will continue to approve of final registrations, but preliminary planning will be done by and with the advice of the members of the education staff.

Formal application will still be made by those who wish to transfer to education at the completion of the sophomore year. However, a major change has been authorized. Sophomores who are completing their third term may now petition to enter education. This will enable them to plan for the junior year during the remainder of the spring term and avoid the rush which always comes at registration time as the fall term opens.

Sophomores contemplating preparing for teaching are urged to take this action immediately.

University of Wisconsin students who attended the 1942 junior prom went without corsages to buy more than $500 worth of defense stamps.

Three I-M Teams Take Second Straight Wins In Contests Tuesday

Kappa Sigma Chi, Sigma Chi and Theta Chi won their second straight triumphs of the intramural softball season Tuesday night. The Sigs whipped the ATOs, 11-3, while the Kappa Sig ten was dumping the SAEs, 11-5. Theta Chi pushed across five runs in the last inning of its clash with the Sigma Phi Deltas to win, 12-7.

Sigma Chi's victory over the ATOs in a postponed contest from Monday dropped the losers from the undefeated ranks in Bracket A. The KSC triumph was the second loss for the SAEs against one win.

CICHY HOMERS

Sid Cichy was the big feature of the Sigma Chi attack that smashed the ATO pitching for four tallies in the first inning, five in the fifth and single runs in the fourth and seventh frames. The big Sig first baseman pounded out a homerun with two mates on base in the first stanza.

Bud Finsand doubled in the third inning for the ATO team to drive in two of the loser's three counters. Finsand's blow followed two other ATO hits and a base on balls. The losers added their third run in the sixth frame.

Herb Glaser and Cliff Nygard again shared the pitching duties for the Kappa Sigma Chi outfit as they held the SAEs to five hits. Glaser worked the first four stanzas, allowing the 10th Street boys one run on a single hit while Nygard labored the last three innings, giving up four counters and three hits.

TWO HIT TWICE

Glaser and Allan Olson were the only KSC players getting more than one safe blow in the winner's 10-hit attack. Both hit safely twice.

The Kappa Sigs made their runs early in the game, getting three in the first, four in the second, one in the third and a trio of counters in the fourth frame. The losing SAEs tallied once in the fourth inning, got three runs in the sixth and then added a single counter in the final inning.

SPD LEADS

In the Theta Chi-Sigma Phi Delta engagement, the OX team had to come from behind to take the contest. After the Sigma Phi Deltas had moved ahead with two counters in the second inning and four runs in the third frame, the Theta Chis scored twice in the third and three times in the fourth inning.

Sigma Phi Delta tallied again in the fifth frame but the Theta Chis came back in their half of the inning with two runs and the game was tied at 7-all. Five hits in the seventh stanza gave the Theta Chis an equal number of runs and the 12-7 win.

Morrow Wins Third Place At Aberdeen

Jerry Morrow, NDAC's freshman hurdler, was the only Bison point winner in the 10th annual Aberdeen relays held in the South Dakota city April 24.

The former Fargo high school star placed third behind two other NCI athletes in the college high hurdles event of the relays. The winner was Griffith of Augustana while Niklason of South Dakota was second.

Augustana, new member of the North Central Intercollegiate conference made a fine showing at the meet. Cowley of Augustana won the 100-yard dash and relay teams from the South Dakota school placed in three relay events.

Gordon (Curls) Nelson of MSTC placed second in the javelin event.

Classes in military science and tactics will be conducted during summer sessions at the University of Minnesota this year for the first time.

Lindemann Named AC's Sweetheart Of Sigma Chi

Genevieve Lindemann of Kappa Kappa Gamma was named Gamma Tau chapter's Sweetheart of Sigma Chi at the annual Founder's day banquet Monday.

Members of the group presented her with a sweetheart pin and a cross of white flowers. She will act as their hostess at all functions during the coming year.

Speakers on the program at the banquet included Jim Sullivan, toastmaster; Dr. W. C. Hunter and Dr. C. S. Putnam, who burned the chapter house mortgage; E. T. Conmy, Sigma Chi province chief; Dr. John Percy, representing the alumni chapter; Ann Murphy, present sweetheart, and Leonard King, new president of the group.

Lloyd Stein won the pledge oratory contest following the banquet and will have his name engraved on the pledge orator's cup at the chapter house.

Kovash Named To Co-op Board At Texas Convention

Andrew Kovash, representative of the NDAC co-operative association, was named to membership on the executive board of the Central League for Campus Co-ops at the group's annual convention in Austin, Texas, April 17, 18 and 19.

He is the representative from district No. 3 which includes Minnesota, Nebraska and North and South Dakota.

Kovash also was named delegate to represent the Central league at the Pacific Coast league conference this summer.

The Central League for Campus Co-ops is a federation of over 200 individual campus co-operatives in the 12 central states. It embraces a total membership of over 100,000 students of whom about 30 per cent are women.

These new sport jackets and slacks certainly are being seen in the finest places. And, why not? They are as handsome in quality as they are in looks.

The jackets are in plaids, stripes and solid colors. The slacks are in contrasting shades in a variety of materials—gabardines, flannels and tropical worsteds.

A smart jacket and a couple pairs of slacks are a real "MUST" to the young fellow who goes places. Come in and let us help you put some smart combinations together.

Bison Enter Eight Men In Annual Dragon Relays Against Top Competition

Trackmen of NDAC will compete against top college competition from North Dakota, South Dakota and Minnesota when they enter the sixth annual Dragon relays, held on the MSTC field tomorrow night.

Coach Charlie Solberg will enter 14 speedsters in 5 events as the Bison seek to uphold the laurels they have won in past years.

Featured in the relays are the relay races and the Bison will run in 2 of them. In the sprint medley race, Sturlaugson running 440 yards, Nygard and Noonan each sprinting 220 yards, and Lussenden traversing the lengthier 880 yards are Solberg's choice. For the 880 yard relay, the runners will be Nygard, Wheeling, Noonan and Sturlaugson, each running 220 yards.

In the special events, Jim Noonan and Cliff Wheeling will run in the 100 yard dash and Gail Holmes will negotiate the long 2 mile race. Vancura, Noonan and Theobald are also entered in the javelin throw.

The next scheduled track meet for the Bison is the N. D. intercollegiate meet at Jamestown on May 2.

LEAGUE CHAMPION

In the final game of the WAA bowling tournament at the Kosick Lanes Saturday, Genevieve Olson rolled her way into the championship with an average league score of 125. Pat Torgerson and Doris Marie Larson gave her close competition with scores of 118.6 and 118.5. Noreen Wiig rolled 112 for fourth place.

SWINGING THROUGH

Margaret Johnson is the winner of the singles tournament in badminton. Swinging her way through with a hard drive that baffled all opponents, she won from Evelyn Egge in the finals for the championship.

The doubles tournament will be finished Tuesday.

NOT OLD FASHIONED

We can't afford a carriage either but you will all look "sweet upon the seat of a bicycle built for two" (or even for one) when you join the WAA bicyclers in front of Ceres hall at 7 p. m. Thursday. Bikes may be rented down town for 25 cents an hour.

Softball Hits Bad Weather During Week

Intramural softball teams competing in the two brackets of NDAC's softball league were able to play only three games of this week's schedule.

All other contests were postponed until next week. League co-manager Cliff Nygard states that postponed games will be made up as soon as it is convenient for both teams.

Nygard also announces that the south diamond behind the fieldhouse is now usable and that all games scheduled for this field should be played there rather than on the diamond at Twelfth av. and Ninth st.

Golf Candidate Scores Due On Wednesday

All candidates for the NDAC golf team must turn in qualifying scores of 54 holes of match play to Athletic Director Johnny Smith by Wednesday of next week.

Matches must be played on the Edgewood golf course and score cards must carry the signatures of players competing.

Intra-Squad Contest Climaxes Spring Drills

NDAC gridiron hopefuls wind up spring football practice next Wednesday with an intra-squad game as a climax.

Displaying marked improvement, the squad has exceeded early expectations. An influx of talent from last fall's frosh team plus the expectations of incoming freshman, who will be eligible, give the team's prospects for this fall a decidedly brighter outlook.

Coach Johnny Smith's choice for a starting string in the intra-squad game lines up with many of last fall's veterans sidelined in favor of freshman.

Paul Moores and Nick Soulis or Herb Glaser are slated for duty at the end positions; George Slakonich, a freshman, and Harry Treglawney, all-conference tackle and co-captain, carry tackle responsibilities; Stan Koich and Vern Johnson, both freshmen, will be at guards; and Cliff Rothrock is at center.

In the backfield, Ed Rolle, a freshman, or Johnny Zaic, will start at quarterback; Bob Heer and Fred Trowbridge, freshmen, will run from halfback positions; and Sid Cichy, another freshman, will be at fullback.

The Bison already have lost 6 prospective players. Jim Davis, a guard who was named co-captain for this fall, Adam Bender and Bob Kaercher, halfbacks, Lawrence McCabe and Finn Becker, ends, and Warren Levasseur, quarterback have been drafted or have enlisted.

The power and success of the AC eleven this fall depends greatly upon the freshman candidates. There is still uncertainty as to available players due to the draft and enlistments, but freshman next fall will be generally exempt because of age.

Activities Of College War Council

NDAC's War Adjustment conference received commendation this week from Governor John Moses. Below is reproduced the letter to President Frank Eversull:

April 27, 1942

Dr. Frank L. Eversull
President
North Dakota Agricultural College
Fargo, North Dakota
Dear Dr. Eversull:

I was very pleased today when I received a letter from Joseph D. Scholtz, Regional Director, Office of Civilian Defense, Omaha, Nebraska, commending North Dakota upon the war adjustment conference recently held at the Agricultural College, discussing the question of "What the Schools can do to meet the War Needs of our Government."

General Scholtz has communicated with the Heads of the Defense Council in the other States of the Seventh Corps Area, commending North Dakota upon this conference, and suggesting that "they go and do likewise."

I am very happy about the fine results you obtained through this conference, and congratulate you very sincerely upon it.

Very truly yours,
JOHN MOSES
Governor

College War council activities are concerned this week with the work being done by the bonds and stamps committee in charge of R. C. Reinhart, secretary-treasurer. The reports of Reinhart deal, in the main, with a pay-roll allotment plan, a voluntary plan whereby a portion of monthly earnings may be set aside for the purchase of United States War Savings bonds. The bonds to be purchased are Series E United States War Savings bonds which are direct obligations of the United States government. They yield about 2.9 per cent interest when held for 10 years. Upon accumulation of the required amount a bond will be issued at the Secretary's office. It is hoped that a 10 per cent payroll deduction will be realized.

Reinhart stressed the fact that this deduction is not a compulsory deduction, and should rather be thought of as a responsibility toward the Government of the United States. It is not a gift; it is an investment in our government and serves a two-fold purpose: that of financing the war, and holding inflation in check.

While the pay-roll allotment is a local plan, the federal government is asking that a confidential pledge be made and sent to authorities in Washington for the purpose of giving information from which may be determined the amount of money which can be raised on a strictly voluntary basis.

The pay-roll allotment plan has been prepared by the United States treasury in answer to numerous requests for guidance from the institutions of higher education. These requests reveal that the temper of the campus is on the alert. If this patriotism can be disciplined through organization, the nation can look with confidence to a greatly accelerated United States Savings program.

INFORMATION CENTER

Over one hundred pieces of material were added to the shelves of the Key Center of Information during the past week. Notable among the new material is Clarence K. Streit's famous book, "Union Now", in which a plan for world union is introduced and discussed. This

Lutheran Students Plan 3-College Picnic

The NDAC chapter of the Lutheran Students association is sponsoring a tri-college breakfast Sunday at 7 a. m. in Oak Grove park. Members of the local unit will give a program. Invitations have been issued to all members of the associations here, at Moorhead State Teachers college and at Concordia.

book has caused favorable comment the world over and has resulted in the forming of hundreds of Union Now organizations made up of thousands of people who believe that world problems could be solved by a plan such as the author outlines.

A reference list of additional defense publications compiled by the U. S. information service, office of government reports, is now among the many other book lists and reading guides at the center. This list is a selection of pertinent bulletins and articles prepared by federal agencies actively engaged in the national defense program. Another publication of the office of government reports is the weekly pamphlet entitled "A Week of the War" which summarizes information of the important developments of the week made available by official sources through noon of each Saturday. A typical issue contains information of United States production, civilian defense, foreign relations, the war front, army, the selective service, navy, air training, shipping, Red Cross, imports, censorship and communication, war bonds and stamps, rationing, prices, materials, priorities and allocations, transportation, labor, and housing and construction.

A lecture series from the University of Minnesota entitled "War Comes to America" has been added to the subscription list. Back copies that have been received include Occident and Orient, the Rise of Japan as a Great Power, Japan's Raw Material, Manufacturing in Japan, Japan and China, Great Britain and the Far East, Russia and the Far East, the American Stake in the Pacific, the Washington Conference and Naval Power in the Pacific, Dictatorship and Totalitarianism, the Rise of Nazi Germany, Versailles and the Second World War, Volk ohne Raum, Was Germany Economically Strangled?, the Role of Latin America, and the United States and the Axis.

Many new releases from the office of Facts and Figures and from the National Resources Planning Board have been received during the past week.

Two Convos Set For 11 Monday

Two convocations, one for men and one for women, are scheduled for Monday morning at 11.

President Eversull has asked men students to gather in Festival hall where revisions of the navy reserve program and the new army air corps reserve program will be explained.

Requirements for the latter program are that applicants must be enrolled in college and be between the ages of 18 and 26. They enlist in the army air corps reserve and may stay in college until they graduate when they will be given a chance to obtain one of eight different commissions. All enlistments must be completed by May 10.

During the same period women will meet in the Little Country theater.
