Coalitionists Win 10 Offices

Blue Key Names Senior, Six Juniors To Membership

Blue Key, national honorary service fraternity, named six juniors and one senior to membership Thursday.

Chosen on a basis of scholarship, service and character, the new members are:

Clarence Becker
Paul Berge
Carroll Eian
Jim Ford
Kenny Jones
Norbert Lange
Cliff Nygard

Becker, new president of the student commission, is Kappa Sigma Chi president, a member of Phi Kappa Phi, Alpha Zeta member, ASAE secretary, Interfraternity council, college war council, Engineers' club and YMCA.

Berge is business manager of the North Dakota State Engineer, a Scabbard and Blade member, a member of ASCE and the Engineers' club.

Eian is a Sigma Phi Delta, president and house manager; editor of the North Dakota State Engineer, Interfraternity council, ASME and the Engineers' club.

Jones' activities include Theta Chi vice president, Spectrum business staff, Bison Brevities, Interfraternity council treasurer, Interfraternity Pledge council, Little Country theater, freshman class president, mixed chorus and glee club.

Lange is college Farmers Union local vice president, YMCA president, chairman of joint YM-YW cabinet, Co-op house, Lincoln Debate club president, assistant business manager of 1941 Bison, Independent Students association, Little Country theater, Bison Brevities, college war council, sophomore class officer, mixed chorus, glee club and Newman club.

Nygard is a Kappa Sigma Chi vice president, state FFA president, senior class president, commissioner of campus, Saddle and Sirlain, Danforth scholar and an all-conference basketball player.

Bahe Elected Guidon Head

Charlotte Bahe is the new captain of NDAC's Company B of Guidon, national women's auxiliary to Scabbard and Blade. Other officers are Jean Hoefft, first lieutenant; Elaine Wigdahl, scribe, and Eleanor Erdahl, second lieutenant.

Members of Guidon serve as sponsors for the cadet corps.

They will be guests at Scabbard and Blade's pre-initiation breakfast Sunday morning.

Marionets To Appear Here Tuesday

Concluding the 1942 Lyceum series is the Martin and Olga Stevens' marionet show on the Festival hall stage Tuesday evening, April 14, at 8:15 o'clock.

The Lives and Loves of Cleopatra, a new play by Clem D. Easily, is the presentation to be given. Written in three acts and ten scenes, the complete story of Cleopatra the princess, lover, wife, mother and queen is portrayed.

The Stevens' marionets used in the production appear life size and portray none of the old woodenness of puppets. They are truly modern figures that walk as well as they look, and move as gracefully as they pose.

Developed for adult audiences, this new type of entertainment offers as fine a show as the legitimate theatre. Court extravagance, brilliant costumes, flashing armor and wierd desert music are some of the features that can be expected Tuesday evening.

'Phenagel' Frosh Prom Tonight

This is a featurish story about a splendid affair. If that doesn't make sense, there is a Frosh prom coming up tonight that should make cents. After much phenageling, Kenny Jones finally arranged it so that he could play for the dance.

Sponsored by the Interfraternity Pledge council, the dance is not for freshmen alone. Bill Fleck, council president, announces that John Cole has been elected ball manager. With his guest Mary Warner he will lead the grand march at 10 p. m.

The ball is themeless, decorationless, (this saving for national defense is getting to be a farce) and chaperones—except for Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hall. Ha! Ha! I surely fooled ya.

An added attraction at the dance will be the awarding of articles of clothing to the most collegiate-looking couple. They will be chosen by Mrs. Sgutt of Moody's and Jerry Siegel of Siegel's clothing store.

The dance will be held in the Field house and begins at 9 and ends at 12.

TRYOTA TO ELECT

Election of officers will be the principal feature of the Tryota banquet on Thursday. Mary Jane Pavlik is in charge of food.

Draft Registrants To Meet Wednesday

All students who registered under the selective service law Feb. 16 are required to attend a meeting at 11:50 a. m. Wednesday in Chemistry 107, Dr. Frank L. Eversull announced in an executive order Thursday.

Those attending the meeting should have their order numbers with them, Dr. Eversull said.

Associate Editor Of 'Greek Exchange' To Address Panhel

Mrs. George Banta, associate editor of Banta's Greek Exchange and a Kappa Alpha Theta has been engaged as guest speaker at the joint City and College Panhellenic meeting Monday, April 20, at 8 p. m. in the Little Country Theatre.

The joint session replaces the annual Panhellenic banquet held in former years.

As previously scholarship awards for the past year will be presented. The meeting is a formal affair.

Mrs. Banta will present an informal address on the fraternity girl in the modern world.

A reception in the Lincoln Log cabin follows the meeting. Mary Mallman, president of the City Panhellenic, is in charge of arrangements.

Remaining on campus until Tuesday, Mrs. Banta will meet with the college Interfraternity and Panhellenic councils at a noon luncheon. She will discuss with members campus fraternity problems.

Lange Named Y President

Norbert Lange was named president of the college YMCA in Thursday's elections. His opponent, Bob Pile, automatically becomes vice president.

Official tabulations name Ellsworth Moe, secretary. Moe defeated Ole Berg. Bob Hunsacker was elected finance chairman, defeating Ted Brevik.

By a unanimous vote Rudolph Ottersen and R. C. Reinhart were named to the advisory board.

MRS. EVERSULL TO SPEAK AT LSA

"Marriage and Divorce" will be the topic of a talk by Mrs. Frank L. Eversull at a meeting of the Lutheran Students association Sunday at 5 p. m. in the college YMCA. Discussion follows.

Modern Frame Stages Surprise Comeback By Placing 3 Candidates

Winning three out of the 13 offices on the ballot in the student elections Thursday, the Modern party staged a minor comeback over an over-confident Coalitionist frame. For several years past the Coalitionists had scored almost complete victories in campus elections.

Clarence Becker, Coalitionist candidate, won the key student post, that of president of the student commission, over Robert Pile, Modern entry, by a 280-259 margin.

CLARENCE BECKER is the new president of the student commission.

The only Modern to win a post on the student commission, governing body, was Mildred Strong who scored a three-vote win over Eleanor Erdahl. Miss Strong balloted 273 votes to Miss Erdahl's 270.

For the office of commissioner of organizations Leonard King piled up the greatest win for the Coalitionists, a 73-vote margin above Jean Hoefft's 236 Modern votes.

DONOVAN WINS

Annabelle Donovan had little trouble downing her Modern opponent, Leland Aplin, 306 to 237, for the post of commissioner of elections.

Named assistant commissioner of finance by a 294-56 margin over William Hope, Modern, was Wayne Rowe, who will automatically become commissioner of finance in a year.

In the junior class elections Donald Ness and Kenneth Jones polled a 71-71 tie for membership on the board of publications control. The two candidates will appear before the student commission which will decide whether the tie is to be broken by a drawing or by a rebalot.

JUNIORS NAME GRANT

Juniors named Wilma Grant, Coalitionist, to the board of public speaking control by a 73-68 margin over Jean Baillie.

For the junior membership on the board of athletic control, George Rulon, Coalition, downed Jack Dolan 95 to 27.

On the sophomore ballot Charles Dills was named to the board of publications control by a 74-71 win over Richard Carley.

CARTER ELECTED

The second Modern victory was a 75-69 win by Polly Carter over Dorothy Monson for membership on the board of public speaking control.

Edward Rolle won a Coalition victory for membership on the board of athletic control over Bruce Borman, Modern sticker candidate, by getting an 85-41 margin from the sophomore voters.

Freshmen named Charles Brandt to the board of publications control in the third Modern win. Brandt polled 72 votes; (Continued on page 6)

LCT Presents International Productions

International color will be given the annual LCT Shakespearean Festival, April 22, when a Chinese play, "Yellow Jacket", by Benrimo and George C. Hazleton is presented in contrast to the English vehicle, "Queen Victoria" by Hausman.

Set for 8 p. m. in the Little Country Theatre, the program will present a tie-up between National Chinese Week, April 12 to 18 and the world situation. An added attraction will be offered by an English orchestra made up of Annabelle Donovan, Eva Rullifson, and Dorothy Jensen, and a Chinese orchestra, which will feature native Chinese music.

To further develop the continental atmosphere, refreshments—tea and chop suey—will be served.

A. G. Arvold, director of the productions, is assisted by Betty Lou Pannebaker.

AG ECONOMIC CLUB WILL MEET MONDAY

There will be a meeting of the Agricultural Economics club Monday at 4 in Room 308, Morrill hall, Wallace Chase, president, announces.

In The Evening By The Moonlight

● get ready now?

It was yesterday that we heard the news from the Philippines: The Japanese achieved another "victory", a victory against inferior American forces. Why, however, were those troops inferior? Didn't they have courage, endurance, and physical strength? Needless to say, they had all of those qualities.

The Japanese soldier is most decidedly not superior to any other soldier in this world, least to the American. When fighting against such terrible odds as the Bataan forces did, what other outcome could be expected? We must know that it was a superiority in arms that has beaten the United Nations forces.

In this same column last week we were told that the American people are not physically prepared. It must be admitted that it seems very hard to believe this statement. Could a nation which has excelled in international sports and shown such great achievements in that field be considered physically unfit?

It is by far not intended to say that additional physical training would not be of benefit. This training will make a better soldier out of an already good one.

We need not go to extremes as the Japanese did. A simple program will be quite sufficient—a program, even compulsory in nature, for all those who want to aid their country. We should not, however, force people into such a training by false propaganda, which does neither the facts nor the nation justice.

We have to realize all this through clear thinking, without being spurned by such dangerous stimulants as propaganda.

Advisory Board Meeting

New advisory board members and YW officers will be introduced when the board holds its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Elmer C. Darling Wednesday at 8.

I'm Nobody's Sweetheart

—but who can tell I have four good tires?

I think that I shall never see
The perfect man to interest me—
A man with clothes like Jackson wears
Who doesn't sit beneath the stairs
Like Swede to watch the legs go by
And whistle when a skirt's too high.
A guy who has a car like Koch—
Without that dissipated look,
Who talks as much as Roy Humphreys
But doesn't leave you with that breeze.
I don't think I'm so hard to please,
But, Lord, look what a mess are these!

A man I'm sure I'll never find,
Who isn't years and years behind
Like Kenny Jones who is so rank
And robs his sister's piggy bank.
Like Nennig with the same old line
That back in Caesar's time was fine.
Like Hilleboe who's got a pin
That's here and there and back again.
I want a man who's good and fine,
But Getman is so assinine,
If he's a guy you think is swell
Then take the whole darn bunch to—the Hasty or the Tavern or the fish box or north on highway you know what—

Future Teachers Present Discussion

"Federal Aid to Education," a panel discussion, will be presented Wednesday, April 22, at 7:30 in the Fireside room of the Y by the Future Teachers' Committee of NDAC.

Led by Francis Daniel, the panel will explain details of the bill now before Congress—the Educational Finance Act of 1941. The act, if passed, will vitally affect North Dakota educational circles. It provides for education for persons who have been taken from local communities into defense work.

Ralph Steinhaus, Wilma Grant, Carol Fortney, John Logan and Earl Walters make up the panel. Dr. E. C. Darling, faculty advisor for the group, encourages all-out faculty and student attendance.

Open House At Home Management House

Present residents of the home management house will hold open house today from 3 to 5:30 for all girls who have stayed at the house.

Marilyn Braaten and Kay Bristol are in charge of refreshments; Margaret Hellander and Clarice Smithstad, invitations, and Frances Lalum, entertainment.

Guests at the house this week were Mary Bristol on Tuesday and Mrs. Pat Shamp on Thursday.

PIANO FEATURED THURSDAY

Piano enthusiasts have a treat in store! An all-piano program is planned for next Thursday's Concert-on-Records. Included on the program will be numbers from Chopin, Krenek, Bach, Schoenberger and other classical and contemporary musicians.

Feature attractions will be numbers by Rubenstein and Vladimir Horowitz.

To Announce Sigma Chi Sweetheart On Founder's Day

A new Sweetheart of Sigma Chi will be named by NDAC's Gamma Tau chapter of the national fraternity at its founders' day banquet April 27.

The new sweetheart will replace Ann Murphy who has been hostess at all chapter functions for the past four years.

Each sorority on the campus and Ceres hall have entered nominees for the position. Alpha Gamma Delta's nominee is Georgianna Findahl; Gamma Phi Beta, Esther Gunvaldsen; Kappa Delta, Delight Whempner; Kappa Kappa Gamma, Genevieve Lindemann; Phi Mu, Merry Buchanan; Phi Omega Pi, Maxine Schlagel, and Ceres hall, Irene Murphy.

The candidates will dine at the Sig house Monday night.

I'm Working My Way Thru College

"Photo by Olson" identifies a student who is practicing his chosen profession while he is attending NDAC. Richard (Dick) Olson, sophomore in arts and sciences, has been employed by the Fargo Forum as reporter, proof-reader and photographer for the past 2 years.

BEGAN CAREER EARLY

Dick started writing at Fargo high school where he conducted a column for the Cynosure bi-weekly. He broke into newspaper work with a picture of his brother which he took for a school Thanksgiving campaign. Because of the seemingly authentic scene of Fargo's unfortunates, the picture evoked much comment among the people who saw it.

Watch The Things Go By Indifference Taboo!

By Jim Ford

IT DOESN'T PAY

Thursday's election proves one thing—indifference to student elections will not win offices. An apparent I-don't-care attitude all week culminated in the Coalitionists losing three out of the 13 offices up for election.

Content that their party would score a clean sweep as it has in recent elections, Coalition campaign managers rested on their laurels and failed to attempt to stir up a party attitude among their cohorts. The result was that many members of the unwieldy organization made up of both independents and Greeks apparently voted a split ticket; the tightly woven Modern ticket, consisting solely of Greeks, had 100 per cent support from its membership which in some cases was enough to win offices with the aid of a few Coalition votes.

Thursday's election indicates another thing—the Coalition party formed two years ago may be on the way out. Those groups whose candidates were whipped by Moderns will undoubtedly be dissatisfied with the present set-up and either demand a reform or pull out of the organization.

In any event you can look for a change by the time class elections roll around next fall.

BRIDGE TOURNNEY?

We've been hearing all through the fall and winter terms of the great need for a bridge tourney on the campus. Now that the Spectrum has made arrangements for such an event, including cash prizes, the student body has apparently come through with its usual indifference. To date there are four teams entered in the event. If the entry list does not total at least eight pairs by Wednesday, the new closing date for entry, all fees will be returned and the whole thing called off.

This is our last attempt at sponsoring anything. Last year our cribbage tourney which got off to a good start fizzled out after the first round. As promoters, we, evidently, are not so hot.

NEW SPRING ANGLE

We'll start talking about spring again, only from a different angle this time. Spring generally brings a host of fraternity and sorority initiations.

Highlight of this year's series, we believe, is Clark Heggeness' sending Sig skunk Ed Kibler into the college library to bum a weed (beg a cigarette, to you) from Mrs. McVeety.

Needless to say, Kibler did not meet with success. He found only the usual happy look which appears on Mrs. McVeety's face when she is evacuating someone from her premises.

PLUG DEPARTMENT

A bit of high-class glamour is missing from the campus these days. Esther Gunvaldsen, star of the Bison Brevities, Gamma Phi rushing chairman, and holder of many other campus positions, is confined in bed at her home and probably will be for a couple of months. All we can say is good luck to you, Hesse, and we'll be glad to see you back.

To Guidon, you are to be congratulated on your choice of pledges this year. Next year's cadet officers will be marching beside many of the leading campus beauties, and they owe it all to you. Gee!

Civic Orchestra Concludes Concert Season Sunday

Given without admission charge, the concerts have been sponsored by the Orchestral association of Fargo and Moorhead as a public service feature. Silver offerings are taken to aid in defraying the organization's cost of operation.

The public is cordially invited to attend Sunday's concert.

Featuring the Concordia college choir, the Fargo-Moorhead Civic Orchestra brings to a close its current concert season Sunday at 4:15 at the Central high school auditorium.

Under the direction of Paul J. Christiansen, the choir will sing the Crucifixus, Agnus Dei and Dona Novis Pacem from Bach's Mass in B minor. Lois McKenzie, Concordia junior, is soloist in the Agnus Dei number. These numbers will be performed with string accompaniment.

Sigvald Thompson will conduct the orchestra in Prokofieff's Classical Symphony, Mozart's Overture to Don Giovanni and Strauss' piano Quartette in C. Piano soloist is Eleanor Parsoss.

The final date for filing entries in the Spectrum's all-college bridge tourney has been advanced to Wednesday, April 15.

Three Bison Courtmen Named To Official NCI All-Conference Team

Arnold (Swede) Johnson, Cliff Nygard and Jim Fletcher were named to the North Central Intercollegiate conference's official all-conference basketball squad April 4. The Bison trio were honored by NCI officials at their Minneapolis meeting.

Others named with the three Lowmen include Bob Held, Morningside; Dick Seidler, ISTC; Ole Solberg, South Dakota; Bruce Stevenson, North Dakota; Bob Matthews, Omaha; Johnny Billington, South Dakota State and Francis Jones, Morningside.

THREE ON FORUM TEAM

Six North Central cage stars were named in the Fargo Forum's annual poll of conference coaches. Heading the list was NDAC's Arnold Johnson, only unanimous selection on the squad. Fletcher, Nygard, Seidler, Billington and Matthews completed the group of six made necessary by a tie vote between Nygard and Billington for one of the guard positions.

This same trio of Bison performers also came out on top in selections made by the Des Moines (Iowa) Register. The Register did not name a five-man team but picked a man for each position—forward, center and guard—in four departments of play—scoring, defensive ability, dribbling and ball-handling.

NYGARD TOP GUARD

Johnson was picked as the best scoring and finest defensive center in the loop while Fletcher was named best ball-handling forward and Nygard was selected as the best defensive guard to perform for an NCI team during the season.

Fletcher took second place on

Frosh Eligible For All NCI Athletics

Freshman athletes will be allowed to play in all North Central Intercollegiate conference athletic contests for the duration of the present war, NCI officials decided at their meeting in Minneapolis April 4.

Augustana college of Sioux Falls, S. D., was granted admission to the seven-school loop. The former South Dakota conference member was admitted to membership after seeking a berth for several years.

Freshman competition, previously granted for this spring's track season, was extended to include all other forms of intercollegiate sport. The new ruling makes first-year men eligible for positions on the football and basketball varsity squads of the NCI schools.

Omaha university's request to withdraw from the conference was rescinded.

Dr. O. O. Churchill of NDAC was elected president of the North Central Athletic association.

two counts—defensive forward and dribbling forward.

Bruce Stevenson, North Dakota's only player to be named, received second choice as a scoring forward and as a defensive center.

New Tennis Courts May Become Reality On AC Campus

By GEORGE RULON

Tennis—stepchild of the NDAC athletic family for several years—may be taken into the fold this spring if plans now under consideration are pursued to a completed realization.

Participation of Bison tennis players in the North Central conference tennis meet held each spring in conjunction with the annual track and field meet has been impossible for several years due to lack of proper playing surfaces.

Since the old clay courts were removed from the space east of Old Main, all NDAC racquet swingers have been forced to play on city park clay courts, quite some distance from the campus and not always kept in the best of condition.

Plans now being considered call for the installation of four cement tennis courts somewhere on the campus. Funds for the project would be taken from the student reserve fund.

Such action by college authorities would certainly be of benefit both to the school and to the students.

Joe College and Betty Co-ed would find many hours of healthful relaxation and friendly competition on the proposed courts. No longer would students have to go to Oak Grove or Island Park if they wanted to play tennis out of doors or struggle in the odd light of the Field house if they didn't want to leave the campus.

Co-ed physical education classes in tennis would have a fine proving ground for their newly acquired tennis skill. No longer would the class have to consist of players batting the ball against the wall in the Field house.

A new stimulation to tennis participation would certainly be fostered on the campus with the installation of courts near at hand. Facilities for practice ses-

WOMEN'S SPORTS

By FLORENCE POTTER

Of the potential Robin Hoods turned loose in the Field house this week, Donna Steiner shot the highest score, making 31 out of a possible 54 points. Second high with a score of 27 was Frank Smylie, the Sigma Phi Delt's gift to women's athletics. Also bringing in good targets were Ella May Reynolds, 26, and Ethel Heuer, 25.

Best scores this term were turned in by Jane Cumming and Donna Jean Gunthorpe who shot targets of 40 last week.

THOMPSON LEADS

Aileen Thompson holds the present record for bowling with an average score of 130. 100 points will be awarded for highest average score in tournament games, 75 for greatest improvement, and 50 for entering.

Yankton college officials have announced resignation of Dr. Hachiro Yuasa, a Japanese who was to have lectured on oriental culture.

sions would develop a squad of racquetees capable of competing with other loop schools and other colleges in this area.

WAA Names Outstanding Girl Athletes

Genevieve Hamilton, Genevieve Olson and Evelyn Wilhelm were presented with representative senior awards in athletics at the annual awards banquet of the Women's Athletic association Wednesday night.

Earning sweaters as symbols of athletic proficiency were Genevieve Hamilton, Phyllis Lane, Florence Potter, Aileen Thompson, Doris Marie Larson, Lois Skadeland, Rachael Elznic, and Allagene Jefferis.

Miniature basketballs were presented to members of the Independent team, who won the inter-sorority tournament during the winter term. Receiving awards were Lois Skadeland, Janet Peterson, Phyllis Lane, Mary Jane Pavlik, and Audrey Bopp, captain.

Entertainment at the banquet consisted of a song presented by the new initiates.

Phyllis Lane, president of the organization, presided at the dinner. Dean Pearl Dinan and the Misses Beatrice Wartchow and Doris Schaub of the physical education department were guests.

NOTICE

The Lettermen's club will meet at 7 p. m. Tuesday in the Field house.

Spring Grid Practice Starts

Bison Coaching Staff Begins Workouts With 33 On Squad

Spring football training began at NDAC this week with about 30 reporting for first practices under the new head coach, Johnny Smith. Smith replaces Stan Kostka, last year's coach, who now is in a unit at the naval academy, training to condition navy fliers. Charlie Solberg, freshman coach, will be assistant.

The draft and enlistments will probably reduce the size of the squad more before next fall but the outlook for next year is not altogether too depressing.

SIX SENIORS GONE

Six seniors from last fall's team are missing—Pat Twomey and John Snowberg, ends; Joel Nelson, quarterback; Bruce Fulks, all-conference guard; and Curt Johnson and Lester Markusen, tackles, must be replaced.

The draft and enlistments have taken Jim Davis, a guard who was appointed co-captain for next fall; Adam Bender and Bob Kaercher, halfbacks; Lawrence McCabe and Finn Becker, ends; and Warren Levasseur, a quarterback. Levasseur, Bender and McCabe were sophomores on last year's varsity, while Becker and Kaercher were members of last year's strong freshman team.

VETS LEAVE SCHOOL

Ted Barnick, a center; Ralph Johnson and Daly King, halfbacks; and Charlie Scott, a tackle, are not in school this term and it is possible some of these will be missing next fall.

Veterans taking part in the practices which started Wednesday have been Harry Treglawney, all-conference tackle and co-captain; Nick Soulis, Paul Moores and Herb Glaser, tackles; Jewel Roningen, Don Laraway and Royal Bertler, guards; Cliff Rothrock, center; and Jim Gorman, Bob Johansen, Edsel Boe and John Zaic, backs.

NEW FROSH CANDIDATES

Candidates from last year's freshman ranks include Bob Heer of Jamestown, Ed Rolle of Chisholm, Minn., Jim Morrisette of New Richmond, Wis., Bob Bergan of Fergus Falls, Minn., Fred Trowbridge of South Saint Paul, Minn., Sid Cichy of Kent, Minn., and Lee Christianson of Kenmare, backs. End candidates are Jim Horan of Enderlin, Bob Jenkins of Fargo, Cliff Weise of Oakes, and Tom Welles of Miles City, Boasting an undefeated and untied record, the Dorm volleyball team won the intramural title with a 45-35 win over the YMCA Wednesday night.

Alpha Gamma Rho beat the ATOs and the Co-ops triumphed over the Theta Chis in last night's final games on the schedule. Both wins were on forfeits.

JOHNNY SMITH

TAKING OVER the reins as head football coach recently, Athletic Director Johnny Smith held the initial workout of the spring grid program assisted by Freshman Coach Charlie Solberg.

Smith's assuming of the football mentor's duties was made necessary by the loss of Stan Kostka who entered the navy as a physical education instructor for the air force.

Mont. Tackle candidates are Clayton Lodoen of Warren, Minn., Bill Centerwall of Detroit Lakes, Minn., and Jack Burchill of Pillsbury. Guard prospects include Bill Sturlaugson of Cavalier, Jerry Theobald of Minot, Sam Wysocki of Minot, Stan Koich of South Saint Paul, Minn., and Vern Johnson of Fargo. Centers who may help out are Don Crothers of Fargo and George Slakonich of Chisholm, Minn.

These boys, together with those eligible under the new freshman eligibility ruling, will represent the Bison in the conference next season.

Spring practice will run well into May and this preparation will give some indication of what can be expected of the Bison next fall.

Bad Weather Hinders Track Preparations

Bison trackmen and their coach, Charlie Solberg, hope for better weather than they have encountered so far this spring as they continue preparations for the first meet of the season two weeks hence.

April 24, the Herd will enter the 10th annual Aberdeen Relays in the South Dakota city. The Bison will compete against several other North Central conference schools as well as other Northwest colleges.

Bad weather has curtailed the Herd's conditioning program to quite some extent. With the drying of the track, Solberg will get down to serious work with the available material in an attempt to develop a contending relay team.

No new men have reported for workouts this week but with better weather conditions expected, Solberg believes that more candidates will come out for the cinder squad.

Ruud's 98.1 Average Wins Shooting Honors On Women's Rifle Team

JIM DAVIS

ONE OF NDAC's co-captains of next fall's football team was lost to the Bison squad Wednesday when Jim Davis, guard on the Herd grid team, left for duty with the army. Davis was named co-captain with Harry Treglawney last year after completing his second season as a member of the Bison. During the last campaign, Davis served as a guard while his talents during his first season were divided among the guard, center and blocking back positions.

More than $700,000,000 has been appropriated or allocated by the federal government for expenditures related to education during the year ending June 30, 1942.

Tillie Ruud tops members of the girls' rifle team in averages released this week by the military department. Miss Ruud, Home Economics Junior, made 98.1 percent of her possible scores during the rifle season just completed.

Evangeline Schwartz took runner-up honors with an average of 97.5 out of a possible 100.

HOEFT LEADS EXPERTS

These two marksmen and Jean Hoelt, winner of the expert divisional title, posted higher averages than the 96.2 average which won top honors for Vera Wooldridge last season. Miss Hoelt's average was 97.

Both Miss Ruud and Miss Schwartz were in the Distinguished Expert class.

Lois Skadeland scored 94.9 out of 100 to lead the Sharpshooter class while Pat Reimers topped the Marksman group with a 90.3 average and Ruth Nye led the Novice group with an average of 86.3.

FIVE SCORE 100

Five girls scored possible targets during the season with a perfect 100 score.

Prizes will be awarded for these targets to Misses Ruud, Hoelt and Schwartz, Elise Norcross and Wilma Grant.

All awards will be made at a joint picnic to be held with the men's rifle team some time this quarter.

Activities Of College War Council

By DR. FRANK L. EVERSULL

The Key Information Center of Information and Training was opened at NDAC on March 23 in conjunction with the two-day War Adjustment conference. A report upon this conference and on the eight others which were held at the institutions of higher learning in North Dakota will be available at the Center room.

CONVENIENTLY LOCATED

The NDAC Center is conveniently located in Festival hall and will be open to students, faculty and the public from 9 to 12 a. m. Mondays through Fridays and from 1 to 4 p. m. Tuesdays and Thursdays. On April 1 there were 445 pieces of material on file and more coming in rapidly. These are being cataloged and filed by volunteer workers from the honor societies Phi Kappa Phi and Pi Gamma Mu, who are on duty at the Center when they have free hours.

The U. S. office of education which has established 140 of these key centers throughout the United States, issues a bi-weekly magazine "Education for Victory", which superseded "School Life", beginning March 3. This will be one of the chief sources of material on what the schools are doing in the mobilization of education.

FOREIGN PUBLICATIONS

Many foreign publications as well as those of the United States are on file. "News of Norway", issued weekly since 1941, "Bulletins from Britain", issued weekly since 1940 and "London Calling", are examples. "Recreation", "Journal of Education", and "News Bulletin" of the Institute of International Education, are some of those from the United States.

There are a great many single pamphlets on various subjects. Comprehensive reports are National Recreation Congress, Higher Education and the War, Federal Security Agency, W. K. Kellogg foundation. Special reports include The German White Paper, Europe under the Nazi Scourge, Forum Planning Handbook, What the War Means to Us.

Coalitionists

Mary Bristol, a Coalitionist, 65 votes, and Terrence Webster, running independently, 16.

Freshman named to the board of athletic control was William Sturlaugson, Coalitionist, who downed Walter Johnson, 86 to 53.

On the vote to approve the new constitution for the student body, 323 ballots approved the constitution as a whole, while 120 disapproved of portions of the doctrine.
