College Council Clarifies Rule On Student Eligibility For Extra-Curricular Activities

A ruling passed by the college council Thursday clarifies the question of student eligibility for participation in extra-curricular activities.

The new rule says, "No student who failed to secure a general average of 1.0 or above for the previous quarter shall be eligible for any office under Group A or Group B, extra-curricular activities. In order to establish this average, a student may be allowed two weeks after the opening of the new term to make up incompletes, but no student who is on probation shall be eligible for any such office."

This ruling replaces a previous rule that was capable of being interpreted in two ways.

Not retroactive, the new rule applies only to elections in the future and to averages compiled at the end of this term. That is, no one holding office at present will be affected unless his average falls below the standards at the end of this term.

Activities are divided into three groups, A, B and C. All offices in Group A are valued at four points; those in Group B, at two points, and those in Group C, at one point. No student is allowed to hold offices whose values total more than eight points at any one time.

The grouping of offices is as follows:

GROUP A

Editors and business managers of the Bison, North Dakota State Engineer, Bison Furrows, Alumni Review and Spectrum; president of Phi Upsilon Omicron; presidents of sororities and fraternities, not including honoraries; president of the YWCA and YMCA; director and business manager of the Bison Brevities; president of the student commission; presidents of Panhellenic and the Interfraternity council, and the president of the board of publications.

Applications Open For LaVerne Noyes Scholarship Grant

New applications for LaVerne Noyes scholarships are now being accepted by the scholarship committee and will be accepted until 5 p. m., March 16, 1942.

To qualify a student must have served in World War I himself, or be descended by blood from someone who served in the armed forces of the United States during that war. (Blood descent is defined as father, mother, grandfather, or grandmother).

Ordinarily at least six months' active service prior to the signing of the Armistice, Nov. 11, 1918, is necessary except where there was active overseas duty prior to the signing of the Armistice, or where a person died in service.

The scholarship is designed for needy and worthy students to aid them in paying all or part of their fees. Scholarships are open to all regular students of an undergraduate classification who maintain a scholastic average of 1.5 or better.

The committee further announces that the granting of scholarships will be extended to include those qualified students who attend the summer quarter. Incoming freshmen and returning students are both eligible under this plan.

Interested students who feel that they meet the listed qualifications may secure application forms at the employment office in the Main building.

Jim Fletcher Named Captain Of Bison Cagers, Thrice NCI Champs

JIM FLETCHER will lead the Bison basketball squad as captain in its 1942-43 season.

Stars During Two Years Of Play On State's Varsity

Leading the Bison onto the court at the beginning of the second half of the game against the University last Saturday was Jim Fletcher, captain-elect of next season's basketball squad.

The new captain will lead Coach Bob Lowe's thrice straight NCI loop champions into the campaign next year after starring the past two years at a forward post on the Herd quintet.

Last season as a sophomore, Fletcher was the star of the annual Bison-Sioux series and ended the season in second place behind Arnold Johnson in the race for individual conference scoring honors. This year the Bison junior forward tallied 35 points in the Herd's sweep of the Nodak contests.

Fletcher is a product of Sacred Heart academy where he starred in basketball for four years before entering NDAC in 1939.

Twenty-three To Graduate

Twenty-three seniors will receive degrees at graduation ceremonies next Friday at 3 p. m. Dr. Ralph E. Dunbar will deliver the commencement address. There is no baccalaureate service planned, as it has been the practice to have only one baccalaureate each year, at the end of the spring term.

Newly elected president of Alpha Phi Gamma, national honorary journalism fraternity, is Willie Boehrs. He replaces Jean Hoeft.

Other officers are Pat Bjorklund, vice president; Jean Baillie, secretary; and George Rulon, treasurer. Gerry Seaman remains the club's advisor.

Furrows Applications Due On Tuesday

Applications for the positions of editor and business manager of the Bison Furrows are due at the office of the secretary of the board of publications control Tuesday.

The persons selected to fill the positions after personal interviews with the board at its meeting Wednesday will succeed Arvid Melby, editor, and John Emo, business manager.

Picture Schedule

The only group picture to be taken for the 1942 Bison next week will be that of the band, Dick Crockett, the editor, announced. It will be photographed Monday at 4:30 in Festival hall.

AC Glee Club Enters Contest

Ernst Van Vlissingen, instructor of music, announces that the NDAC Mens' Glee club has been entered in the Pleasure Time National college glee club competition. Sponsored by the Fred Waring (NBC) Pleasure Time hour, the contest boasts entrants from 125 colleges and universities throughout the nation.

The purpose of the competition is to search out, recognize and reward the outstanding undergraduate male college glee clubs in the United States. It will place emphasis on radio technique.

To facilitate the program the country has been divided into geographic areas, each region to stage a preliminary contest.

Tentatively set for the latter part of March, the group will make recordings of their numbers in the studios of WDAY, Fargo. Winners in the regional division will go to New York City about June 1 for the final National Glee club week.

Contest numbers include three songs—one selected by Fred Waring, "Steal Away", a Ringwald arrangement; one selected by Van Vlissingen, "Te Deum", by Sibelius and a college song, to be sung in unison and unaccompanied. This will be Doc Putnam's "Yellow and the Green."

In addition the regional winners will learn two additional arrangements forwarded by Waring. These are not to be recorded but learned in preparation for mass singing in the finals.

Carnegie hall or the Metropolitan Opera house will be the stage for the finals. These will be public concerts, each regional winner to present a 20-minute program.

The sponsors of Fred Waring's Pleasure Time hour, the Liggett and Meyers Tobacco company, have underwritten the entire project. Included in the costs borne by the sponsors are the recordings, all expenses of the New York trip including two private Pullmans for each club, rooms and meals at first-class hotels and all entertainment.

Grand climax to the week in New York will be a Presentation ball, honoring the national winner. Regional guests and celebrated stars of radio, stage and screen will attend.

Van Vlissingen states that the Glee club's full roster is 34, but may be reduced after tryouts. Sybil Pull is the accompanist. Contest rulings allow any number to participate in the preliminaries; but reduce the total to 40 in the event of the New York trip.

G. L. Seaman has been named to head all publicity for the AC group.

● shame on you

Why are cigarette butts always dropped wherever the user happens to be standing? Why can't the smoker educate himself to place them in the receptacles provided for that purpose?

The "cigarette-butt" situation existing on the campus at present is alarming to say the least. Do you honestly enjoy wading through that tobacco field between classes? Cigarette butts give any floor a cluttered appearance; however this situation is easily rectified with a broom and a little push behind it. The real damage is done by the smoldering cigarette and the one that's stamped out; the result is permanent injury to the floor.

Last summer the floors in Science hall were sanded and sealed. They were in excellent condition when classes resumed last fall. Now they look like they've undergone the black pox plague.

Take a look at the floors—see all those elongated black marks?—and that round brownish dent near the wall?—and don't miss those burnt holes by the stairway. They sort of mar the appearance of the floor, don't they?—Well, it's all your fault!

Do you think those flashy looking sandbuckets were put in the halls to play in or for smart alecs to stand on the second floor and try to spit into those on main? But definitely, no!

You know what they're for, now use them!!!

Newman Club To Elect Officers Sunday At 7

Officers for the coming year will be elected at a meeting of the Newman club Sunday at 7 p. m. in the KC hall. Following a talk by Father Campbell, S. J., the guest speaker, there will be informal discussion.

All but two of the American states, the District of Columbia, five outlying possessions and three foreign countries are represented by correspondence students of the University of Wisconsin.

Swing... and Say —

By WILDER WYLIE

Well, the weather this week has been rather novel. It's a bit on the queer side, but it's nice to have something unusual around the campus besides Heggeness.

HERALDS OF SPRING

These balmy balmy breezes of the last few days more or less make you wonder whether maybe they didn't set the calendar ahead along with the clock. Here it is almost spring again.

Ah, spring, when a young man's fancy turns to the same thing he's been thinking about all winter only without the overcoats. Spring—when the leaves start budding, the birds start singing and the sap starts running—which reminds me: Did you see that fellow running around the hall the other day? We figured for awhile it was the final local case of war hysteria until we saw who it was. Then that started us thinking about Brooklyn and it's just across the river from there to Minsky's and here we are back on the same old subject. Sleepwalkers. Ha, ha.

LIBRARY REACTION

This spring weather does do things to a fellow's thoughts though. For example, the other day I was in the library reading one of those books on dating (after all a fellow has to keep in shape) when I came across a comment from one fellow, quote, "I like girls who don't think a fellow's fresh when it's just a mistake."

That's the sort of thing that upsets a fellow. I'll admit frankly it's still got me puzzled.

George Koch was griping the other day about having a flat tire up at the Forks. So was Swede, but I don't think they were referring to exactly the same thing. That one's got me puzzled too.

WHAT ECONOMY?

The approach of finals makes a fellow wonder whether it was worth it after all, saving all that money by not buying books.

Just saw that picture of the Sigs in their night shirts with the caption, "Down with slacks, up with skirts." Spring is a wonderful season.

We were wondering where Mr. Heggeness dreams up that sort of thing. "I didn't dream it," he told us, "I was wide awake when I thought of that." That's as far as we pried into the matter.

We do sympathize with the case of Charlie Page, however. It seems Charlie's due for a paddling because he failed to dress accordingly. It wasn't really the kid's fault, though; it seems nobody even told him about pajamas.

Tuesday New Date For Faculty Party

Postponed because of conflict with the Chekov players production of "Twelfth Night", the Theatrical Jamboree for the faculty and staff will be held Tuesday at eight in Festival hall.

According to Jack Knapp, Hedy Lamarr and Charles Boyer will have nothing on the profs after the master production of "Hearts and Flowers." Vieing for honors will be a cast made up of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Long, Miss Ruby Grimes, Mrs. R. E. Sweitzer, F. G. Schoff and J. R. Dice.

Sirens To Shriek At All-College Blackout Party

Oooooeeteee --- that's the wail of the air-raid siren that will usher in the first Blackout party ever witnessed at the AC.

Come as you were (well, almost anyway) is the command of those who know. And, as you were means the condition you were in when the air-raid siren first shrieked. Only restriction placed on get-ups is that of moderation. The Sigs can even wear their pajamas (in moderation).

In fact, you can do most anything, but members of the Chemists' club reserve as their sole right the privilege of dressing in the garb of the air-raid warden. The club considered using dynamite to add to the fun—but revised their plans in the fear that innocents might fear disaster.

Final warning! If you own a gas mask, do not hesitate to bring it along. It just might come in handy.

Council Okays Constitutions

NDAC's student commission has finally received the stamp of approval from the college council. In meeting Thursday, the group passed on constitutions of four organizations.

Passed by the student body over a year ago, the constitution proved faulty and since has been in the hands of the commission for revision.

Also approved by the council was the appointment of Dr. Ralph E. Dunbar as faculty advisor of the commission.

Constitutions for Gamma Delta, Lutheran students' fraternity; the Interfraternity council and the Agricultural Economics club were also ratified.

Feature Shostakovich At Next Record Concert

The concert on records series every Thursday has been termed successful by the sponsors, the war council. Thursday's program was attended by 50.

Music of Shostakovich, a contemporary composer in Russia, will be the feature of the fourth of the series. Other selections will be from the music of J. S. Bach and Paul Dukas.

Second In Series Of

I'm Working My Way Thru College

Charles Vancura, junior in chemistry, was selected for the second interview in the current series of students and their jobs. He has one of the most unique occupations for a student—that of a bartender.

PRIVATE BAR

Van is working in the private bar of the Elks club. "It's simply a means towards getting an education and not as a life's work. Of course, if any serious differences on a passing mark in chemistry should arise between Dr. Sunde and me, well, it would be a good windfall," Van remarked.

When asked how he became a bartender, he said that he was apprenticed to one of the regular men who showed him how to

Watch The Things Go By Spring Is Here

By Jim Ford

With the advent of the earliest spring breezes NDAC has taken on the appearance of a metropolitan campus in mid-May. Couples, and singles, are seen strolling leisurely about without the ponderous garments with which most North Dakotans are burdened in the winter months.

RATIONING FRUITLESS

Too, many new cars are making their appearance despite the war rationing. Perhaps the most popular model to make an appearance this week is the 1930 Chevrolet, but there is a difference of opinion as to what body type is most suitable. Clark Heggeness' new 1930 Chevy is a four-door sedan while Willie Boehrs appeared sedately behind the wheel of a bucking convertible.

It is rumored Willie took off when the top blew up during a gust of high velocity wind—he is now being sued by the Northern States Power company because of damage he did to a high-line on the way up. All of the occupants escaped to safety in the parachutes furnished with the car.

DREARY WEEKEND

Warning: It is about time to start studying for exams which are scheduled in most classes to begin next week. Nor does it matter, we suppose, that many of the profs pulled a sleeper by giving "quizzes" this week. One quiz, which was a 15-minute affair, lasted so long that we actually saw the sun set despite the daylight saving time.

That wasn't half bad, but at 8 o'clock the next morning we started on a 10-minute drop quiz. So far we've had three meals sent up from the Dugout and we're still writing. Brother, we prefer the old-time four and five hour exams.

WHAT'S THIS?

Ho-hum: Spring is the time for sleep, robins and, last but not least, picnics. In previous years we've spent many an hour before a glowing fire underneath the half-moon, half-mooned, on a blanket sticky with marshmallows and yellow with mustard. From this experience we have three precepts we would lay down for th would-be freshman picnicker, male:

Number one: In case of poor cooperation, carry a snake in your pocket. If your number one sweetie goes back on you, let it crawl slowly across the ground in her direction. This is a sure-fire method of getting her to throw her arms around you.

Number two: If you like crowds, choose a nice quiet place for your picnic. In about half an hour everybody and his uncle will descend on you. This is a sure-fire method of attracting friends, sorority sisters and fraternity brothers.

Number three: If you are too poor to afford a wrist watch, and you don't dare go on a picnic because you wouldn't know when to come home, watch for dew to form on the grass and leaves. When it does, it's time to go home.

PROTEST DAY DECLARED

First of the publicity stunts which annually fill the minds of collegians during the spring term is that of Sigma Chi, which more or less backfired. The boys from the frat shack on Tenth avenue donned pajama shirts Wednesday, protesting the wearing of slacks by women students. They even had their picture taken with a sign reading, "Sigma Chi Protest day—Down with Slacks, Up with Skirts."

The Forum even carried a story quoting Prexy Buck Gallagher as backing the movement by his boys 100 percent. That's where the backfire comes in. Buck sells slacks at Matt Siegel's for a living. His boss got wind of the movement and nearly canned him. The prexy got out of the predicament by explaining the added sales of pajamas would more than counterbalance the loss of slack sales.

We might add that slacks would look better if they were worn with discretion—that is, if girls with shapely pins would stick to skirts, we wouldn't mind what the rest of them wore.

Seven University of New Hampshire seniors are working as deputy police officers. Upperclassmen interested in police work get actual experience in law enforcement.

Tryota To Continue Backing Aid Plan For British Hospital

"The Tryota club will continue to sponsor the stamp collections to aid Queens' hospital in London. They want the continued support of the campus," replied Lillian McDowell, chairman of the stamp collection drive when questioned as to what the club's plans were, since the article in last week's Spectrum telling of the possibilities of the stamp collection as a racket.

"Since the DAR is backing the movement and has not notified us that it is a fraud we do not feel it is useless," explained Miss McDowell. The committee has written the assistant postmaster general to find if the person in charge is trustworthy. If not, the committee will sell the stamps and donate the cash. The club feels that the project has been so successful that they are reluctant to discontinue it until they are sure it isn't worthwhile.

Johnson Tops Scoring As Herd Beats Nodaks Twice In Final Games

Two victories last weekend in the final set of games of the annual four-game series between the Bison of NDAC and the Sioux from the University of North Dakota gave Coach Bob Lowe and his North Central conference cage titlists a clean sweep of the Nodak encounters.

After winning the opening games at Fargo on Feb. 20 and 21 to take their third straight NCI crown, the Bison made sure there was no mistake about it as they triumphed 48-42 and 50-48 in the closing contests played in the University city on Feb. 27 and 28.

JOHNSON BIG SCORER

Arnold Johnson, going into the third game with the pressure on in his attempt to win the individual scoring title for the third straight season, led his championship matés to a six-point win as he dropped in 25 counters. At the half the Bison co-captain had scored only nine tallies but after the intermission, the big center went to work and scored his two dozen and one points for the total that captured the scoring title with two counters to spare.

Both contests at Grand Forks were not the best displays of good basketball. 74 personal fouls were called on the two squads in the two concluding games and 10 players were banished from the two fracasés with the maximum number of fouls. The Bison lost four during the two games while the Sioux were forced to substitute for six players ejected from the tilts.

In the first game Lowe's veteran squad was never headed as they held 13-8, 22-16, and 35-28 advantages at the end of the first three periods.

should be reported to Genevieve Hamilton before Tuesday.

NEW SCHEDULE

Major supervised sports to be sponsored during the spring term are softball, bowling, soccer and roller skating; it was decided at a meeting of WAA officers Wednesday. Minor sports offered will be archery and badminton.

On the list of unsupervised activities are hiking, roller skating, swimming, bicycling and bowling.

MARQUART STARS

Gene Marquart, sophomore forward who has established himself as a Herd star in his own right, played one of the finest games this little front line player has turned in all season. His floor play and pass interceptions along with his passing and shooting ability were standouts along with Johnson's scoring effort in the first game at Grand Forks.

Bruce Stevenson put the Sioux ahead in the final game on two free throws but the Nodak lead was short-lived as Jim Fletcher, Bison captain-elect, dropped in a field goal and Johnson made it 3-2 for the Herd on a gift shot. The Bison led throughout the contest from this point although the Sioux always were close. At the finish the UND five was closing the gap rapidly, but the Herd staved off the rally until the final gun.

FLETCHER NETS 13

Fletcher played his best game of the series in the final contest as he turned in a fine floor performance and found the nets for a 13 point total on six goals from the field and a single free throw.

Outstanding performer for the Sioux in both of the concluding games was Gil Olson, junior forward selected as the Nodak captain for next season, playing well under the basket to lead his team's scoring the first night with 18 counters and was second to Art Granum the last night with 14. Granum, who played well as a reserve at Fargo, tallied 15 counters in the closing contest.

ALL-CONFERENCE TEAMS

are being picked, now that the North Central intercollegiate conference's schedule for this season has just been completed. Hoping to get the jump on most of the selections, the Spectrum presents its idea of the squad which should be representative of all that could be wanted in the line of a perfect cage aggregation.

Rather than name a first and second team this writer prefers to select a squad of ten men that we feel have been tops this season in NCI competition. Many readers will no doubt find fault with the selections, many will agree with the selections, but it is hoped that those deserving of the honor have been named.

THE SPECTRUM'S NCI ALL-CONFERENCE SQUAD

FORWARDS:

James Fletcher, NDAC
Dick Seidler, Iowa Teachers
Bob Held, Morningside

CENTERS:

Arnold (Swede) Johnson, NDAC
Bruce Stevenson, North Dakota

GUARDS:

Cliff Nygard, NDAC
Johnny Abbott, NDAC
Bob Matthews, Omaha
Johnny Billington, South Dakota State

Four players from one team may seem too many to some readers, but it must be remembered that those four Bison performers were tops all season as they worked together with a fifth player, sophomore Gene Marquart, as the starting five that gave NDAC its third straight conference cage crown. Johnson is the finest pivotman to compete in NCI games for many years and it will be a long time before any other basketballer rises to challenge the marvelous record he has established in his three years of varsity competition. Fletcher, the Herd's captain-elect, played the strongest floor game of any forward all through the Bison eleven game conference schedule and contributed greatly to the success of the champions. Senior guards Nygard and Abbott have teamed together as the best defensive back-court pair for the past two years and their value is proven by the defensive record established by the Bison this season.

Seidler, second to Johnson in the scoring race, was a sensation this year as a sophomore and may be strongly considered as a successor to the Herd's center next season. Solberg has been the only bright spot in an otherwise dark situation at South Dakota university. Coach Rube Hoy's star, playing on an in-and-out club, stood out as one of the best forwards in the loop.

North Dakota's Bruce Stevenson started being picked on all-star teams two years ago when as a sophomore he finished second to NDAC's Johnson in the individual scoring race. This season the big Nodak captain was the only veteran back for Clem Letich's quintet and his fine play kept the Sioux at the top of the circuit until they met the Bison.

Bob Matthews, Omaha all-around star athlete, finished near the top of the scoring competition and was the Indian's mainstay all year. Johnny (Doc) Billington starred as a fine guard and strong scorer on a Jackrabbit team that was picked to knock the Bison from their lofty perch but which failed dismally to reach the top of the conference.

Sigs Win From OXs To Move Into Finals

A 27-24 victory scored last night by the Sigma Chis over the Theta Chi quintet placed the team from tenth avenue in the finals of the intramural basketball league against the winner of Bracket B. The Sigs have one more game to play before the playoffs but no other five in Division A can pass or tie them even though they may lose that last contest.

Close all the way, last night's game found the winners leading 7-6 and 16-14 at the end of the first and second periods respectively. The third quarter finished with the score tied at 21-all but from this point the Sigs moved ahead to triumph.

With three minutes to go in the game, Roy Olson hooped in a field goal to break a 23-23 deadlock and shortly after this, Al Foss connected from close in to give the Sigs their 27-23 margin.

Paulie Paulson led the Sig scoring with seven counters while Foss was right behind him with six tallies. Duane Rice was high for the losers as he netted 10 points.

U Frosh Drop Second Game To Baby Bison

Coach Charlie Solberg's Baby Bison basketball team ended its season in Grand Forks last Saturday afternoon with a 40-28 victory over the University of North Dakota freshman team.

SECOND WIN

Saturday's triumph was the second win scored by the Baby Bison this year over what was believed to be one of the best freshman squads to represent the Sioux in several seasons. On Feb. 21 the NDAC frosh defeated the Papooses 26-21 on the fieldhouse floor.

Bob Kaercher, Bison forward, was high point man for both squads as he netted 13 points on four field goals and five free throws. Kaercher, lanky Paul Brostrom, and Wally Parkman led the triumphant Bison attack.

DRAXTON STARS

Dudley Draxton was the outstanding performer for the weak Nodak frosh squad although his scoring efforts were restricted to six points. His floor play was the one bright spot in the Sioux showing.

Solberg's charges started late but by the end of the first period they had taken a 12-8 lead and built up this advantage to 26-10 at the half-time intermission. The third quarter ended with the Baby Bison holding a 31-18 margin.

Bison Scoring Machine Tops Thousand Mark As Herd Ends Schedule

NDAC's championship Bison basketball squad went over the thousand mark this season in its scoring as it lost only five contests on a schedule that saw the Herd dressing for twenty-five contests.

FOUR OVER 100

Four Bison went over the century mark as Arnold (Swede) Johnson tallied 349 points; Jim Fletcher, 212; Cliff Nygard, 139; and Gene Marquart, 114.

Coach Bob Lowe's squad scored 1097 counters on 437 field goals and 223 free throws. A total of 335 personal fouls were called against the Herd during the season and Bison players were ejected from contests 25 times because of the four foul limit.

OPPOSITION GETS 908

908 points were scored against the Herd this year as the opposition tallied 335 times from the floor and 238 times from the gift shot line. Only 21 players on opposing clubs were removed from games as 324 personal fouls were charged against the fifteen teams played by the Bison.

Only four players on the Bison squad saw service in the complete schedule of 25 contests. Johnny Abbott, Cliff Nygard, Arnold Johnson, and Fletcher all went the route without missing a game.

Fletcher had the most free throws, 56, while the big Bison center got 148 two-pointers to lead in that department of the scoring. Fletcher collected the most fouls, 64, although Marquart was ejected eight times to lead in that respect.
