

Heavy Demand For 1941 Graduates, Deans Say

Education

With the placing of the following persons in teaching positions, all students who majored in education at North Dakota Agricultural college now are at work, reports Dr. Elmer C. Darling, director of the Division of Education at NDAC.

David Brown, 1941 graduate, is the new band instructor at Wildrose; Lucyle Kapaun, 1941 graduate, is teaching English, history and physical education at Knox; Lorraine Naftalin, 1940 graduate, is the new English teacher at Leonard; Margaret Winhofer, 1941 graduate in home economics, is teaching at Anoka, Minn.; Arthur Field, 1930 graduate and formerly superintendent at Cleveland, is the new superintendent at Dickey; and Martha Stensholt, 1936 graduate, will teach commerce at East Grand Forks, Minn. She formerly taught at Morton, Minn. Robert Newcomb, 1940 graduate, goes to Chaffee as superintendent. He taught science at Stanton last year.

Ferdinand Johnson, 1941 graduate, has to forego a teaching career for the present and has been called into the U. S. Navy Intelligence service, Dr. Darling announces.

Placement of the last available NDAC education majors is as follows: Charles "Acey" Olson, 1937 graduate who has been a member of the Bismarck Phantoms basketball team, will coach at Cavalier; Oliver Wornner, 1941 graduate, will serve as assistant coach and teach science at the Valley City junior high school; Zita Keitgen, 1941 graduate, will teach English and serve as librarian at Frazee, Minn.; Eugene Corcoran, 1940 graduate, who taught at Sanborn last year, will teach band and science at Bowman.

Three 1941 graduates from Fargo have been placed recently. Kathleen McCarten will teach English, history, typing and serve as librarian at Courtenay; Virginia McMillan will teach English at the Fargo Business college; and Hazel Isaak will teach English, history and women's physical education at Hill City, Minn.

Virginia Fredericks will teach English at Colgate; Luella Midgley, home economics at St. Thomas; and Jane Blair, junior high school general science and English at East Grand Forks, Minn. All are 1941 graduates.

Among recent graduates, Peter Pollock will teach science and mathematics at Elgin; Bryce Cascaden, who taught last year at Fairdale, becomes superintendent at Loma; John Thompson, who taught last year at Oakes, becomes superintendent at Leonard; and Peter McArton, superintendent at Berwick last year will have a similar position at Rolla.

Gordon Johnston, science and band at Forman; Jean Pridd, English, physical education, dramatics and glee club at Stanton; Oliver Wornner of Great Bend, coach and social science at Finley; June Pfau, English at Newberry, Mich.; June Probstfeld, English and home economics at Ellendale; Ben Schei, Belcourt Indian school, Belcourt; James Maxwell, coach at Cando; and Evelyn Olson, assistant instructor and office clerk at Interstate Business college, Fargo.

Six other 1941 graduates have accepted non-teaching positions. Elinor Johnson has a scholarship to Ohio State university, and Genevieve Maxson is employed by Sears, Roebuck and company. Four men graduates have joined the armed forces of the nation. Kenney Crawford and Robert Thompson are in the United States army, and Royce Satre and Donald Rohrbacher are in the air corps.

Five 1940 graduates of the division have recently been placed. Lorraine Naftalin is working in Minneapolis; Eunice Hjelle will teach English at Cando, Joe Kojancik will coach at Fromberg, Mont., Marion Anstett will teach English, history, physical education and library at Fisher, Minn., and Alfred Thompson will teach at Egeland.

Three other recent graduates have obtained new positions. Catherine Brandes, 1939, graduate, will teach English at Caldwell, Ore., next year; Emery Westerland, 1937 graduate, is a chemist with the Atlas Powder company at Tamaqua, Penna.; and Donald Bettschen, 1936 graduate, will coach at Detroit Lakes, Minn.

Johansen Has Defense Job

Dr. John P. Johansen, chairman of the department of economics and sociology at North Dakota Agricultural college, has been granted a temporary leave of absence for the fall quarter to continue his work as a housing, health and welfare specialist in national defense activities, announces Dean A. E. Minard of the NDAC School of Applied Arts and Sciences.

Dr. Johansen accepted a summer position as assistant to the regional defense coordinator of the Federal Security agency in Minneapolis last June and reports that the work is so heavy that his services will be needed a few months longer. He plans to return to NDAC Jan. 1.

Dr. Frank Eversull, NDAC president, is teaching Dr. Johansen's course in contemporary social problems this fall quarter; other courses will be postponed until later in the school year.

Pharmacy

"All busy and working," is the report Dean W. F. Sudro gives on the current employment status of June graduates from the NDAC division of pharmacy. Of 13 graduates, all but 2 have entered the field as active registered pharmacists, he said. Lawrence Tanberg entered the

BILL JOHNSON

United States army air corps and Basil Maloney has indefinite plans and is not immediately available for a position in pharmaceutical work.

Already working as registered pharmacists are Harry M. Ferguson at Lakota, William Johnson at LaCrosse, Wis.; Gordon K. Gray at Wilton, Thomas M. Countryman at Fergus Falls, Bernard Neumann at Portal, Andrew Mullen at Maxbass, Arthur G. Pederson at Fertile, Minn., Emerson Neumann at Gackle, Kathryn Odney at Jamestown, John Quistgard at Warren, Minn., and Erling Arnstad at Seattle, Wash.

Ernest DeAlton Studies Marketing In Chicago

Ernest L. DeAlton, state supervisor and professor of agricultural education at North Dakota Agricultural college, left Saturday for Chicago where he will join a group of livestock producers, agricultural college staff members and others on a tour to study the marketing of livestock and meats from the producer to the consumer.

Chemistry

There's no immediate job problem for the 27 college graduates who received degrees from the NDAC division of chemical technology at Commencement last June. Of the total, three hold reserve commissions as second lieutenants in the army and expect to be called to active service and the others all have positions or plan to do graduate work.

Four of the five who received master of science degrees will join the staff of Sherwin-Williams Paint company. Robert Albrecht will be in the company's lacquer division in Chicago; Norman A. Klemp and Roy L. Milde, the allied research division in Chicago; and Donald F. Koencke, the company plant at Cleveland, Ohio. The other master of science recipient, Frank Mitchell, will be with Spencer-Kellogg corporation in Buffalo, N. Y.

SIX B.S. GRADS PLACED

From the bachelor degree ranks, Eugene Blanco goes to Spencer-Kellogg corporation in Minneapolis; James B. Fahrer, the Aluminum Company of America at Pittsburgh, Pa.; George G. Maher, Atlas Powder company, East St. Louis, Ill.; Gordon L. Thorburn, the Minnesota Linseed company in Minneapolis; and Arthur Groethe and Robert Miller, the state laboratories department in Bismarck.

Several will study toward master's degrees next fall at NDAC. Robert Bogan, Robert Burman and Lynn Hurst have been named graduate assistants in the chemistry department and will receive their master's degree in two years. Leslie Brecke and Kemble Lewis and William Herm plan to secure their master's from the college in one year.

SUMMER COURSE TAKEN

A special intensive NDAC summer course in the chemistry of powder and explosives occupied Bernard Bekkerus, Howard R. Bethke, Adolph Geiszler, John Kirby, Henry Rae, John Rode and Donald Sherman.

Charles Keefe, Charles Fish and Ira MacDonald hold reserve army commissions and expect to be called into active service.

Engineering

All graduates of the NDAC School of Engineering who received their degrees during the 1940-41 school year, a total of 30, has been placed, reports Dean R. M. Dolve. The demand for engineers is so great, he says, that more than double the number of this year's graduates could have been placed.

Placement of June, 1941, graduates is as follows: William D. Ames, second lieutenant, Ordnance School, United States Army, Aberdeen, Md.; Earl H. Arnold, State Department of Sanitation, Bismarck; Lloyd Brudvig, Phillips Petroleum Company, Smackover, Ark.; Claire R. Ernst, State Sanitary Commission, Atlanta, Ga.; Norman W. Gehlhar, United States Weather Bureau, Hector Airport, Fargo; William C. Hendrickson, junior engineer with the War Department, Norfolk, Va.; Donald H. Jackson, Soil Conservation Service, Watford City; Duane W. Johnson, Babcock and Wilcox Company, Barberton, Ohio; James P. Moe, United States Army, Fort Warren, Cheyenne, Wyo.

ENGINEERS PLACED

Myron Olson, DuPont de Nemours Company, Louisville, Ky.; Paul F. Rice, American Bridge Company, Gary, Ind.; Robert Sheard, United States Steel Company, Gary, Ind.; Leonard J. Stein, AAA, Fargo; Fred M. Thompson, Gillette Rubber Company, Eau Claire, Wis.; Gordon A. Walhood, Illinois Highway Department, Effingham, Ill.; and Richard F. Weltzin, State Highway Department, Steele.

Four June graduates are employed by the Remington Arms Company at Bridgeport, Conn. They are Joseph A. Barstad, Lester G. Knight, Harry Sheldon and Gustav Strobel.

THREE TO WESTINGHOUSE

Three are now working for the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company at Wilkesburg, Pa.

They are Burton H. Piper, Charles Schaffner and J. Bernell Seby who is located at Pittsburg. Two June graduates are with the General Electric Company at Schenectady, N. Y. They are Alden Larson and Ray Michel.

Four NDAC engineering graduates who received their degrees in March, 1941, are employed as follows: Kenneth W. Archer, junior engineer with the War Department, Alaska; Clifford J. Cortright, United States Army, Fort Leonard, Mo.; William D. Hosmer, State Highway Department, Bismarck; and J. Scott Wiseman, radio inspector, Civil Service Commission, Dayton, Ohio; Howard R. Kornberg, a December, 1940, graduate, is employed by the United States Steel Export company in New York City.

Study Hall Invaded By Strange Silence

Make way for a change! Science "gossip" hall is no more! Due to the generosity and foresight of the fellows who hold the purse strings, Science hall underwent a transformation during the summer. From now on the notorious "study" hall is strictly a reading room, provided to relieve crowded conditions in the main library building.

In an effort to improve the comfort of the room, the leather-covered, overstuffed chairs have been removed—it's no longer a sleeper's paradise. Other innovations on the practical side include a set of the latest type fluorescent lights and rubber tiling for a floor covering.

Headed by a former NDAC librarian, Angelin Tesdell, the room has been converted into a reading room, where customs officers will inspect the luggage of each student before he crosses the doors of the sanctum—in other words, temporary or permanent borrowing is out.

Faculty Has Many Newcomers

Calls into national defense positions, leaves of absence, and professional duties has brought to the NDAC campus a number of new instructors and research workers.

Shirley Ann Briggs comes to the art department, replacing Winifred Washburn. Miss Briggs, a graduate of Iowa university at Iowa City, received her master of science degree in art in 1940.

A member of Phi Beta Kappa, national honorary scholastic fraternity, she is highly recommended by Grant Woods, noted painter and sculptor.

Dr. O. F. Krumboltz will act as professor of physical and quantitative chemistry, having held a like position at Huron, South Dakota college for the past two years. From 1927 to 1930 Dr. Krumboltz was junior chemist with the USDA and an analyst with the Chicago laboratory of the United States food and drug administration. He has taught at Illinois college, in Jacksonville, Wisconsin, and at Michigan state college in Lansing. Dr. Krumboltz holds a doctor of philosophy degree from Chicago university, earned his master's degree at George Washington university, Washington, D. C. in 1929 and his bachelor's degree from Iowa state college at Ames in 1927.

Norman W. Johnson, new on the faculty of Applied Arts and Sciences, graduated from Duluth Central high school and received a scholarship to Harvard university, Cambridge, Massachusetts.

An English major at Harvard, Mr. Johnson has been an instructor at Kenyon college, Gambier, Ohio since 1938. During the past summer he received his master's degree at the University of Iowa, Iowa City.

Clifford Wester, new instructor in entomology, holds a bachelor of arts degree from Bucknell university, in Pennsylvania, and a master of science degree from the university of Wisconsin. For the past 11 years he has been an instructor in biology at Princeton.

Robert Hutton received his master's degree from the University of Wisconsin, where he did research work under Dr. I. E. Baldwin. Mr. Hutton has done advanced work with years, studying the industrial aspects of the product.

Dr. James Foss, new instructor in the veterinary department, holds a doctor of veterinary medicine from Iowa State college at Ames and has practiced in Miami, Florida. Before obtaining his degree from Iowa State, he attended Concordia college, Wahpeton Science school, and NDAC.

James W. Hall, second of two new English instructors at NDAC this year, is a native of Missouri and received his bachelor of arts degree from the University of Kansas City in 1937. He attended the University of Minnesota where he received his master of arts degree in 1938. He has taught courses in English at the University of Wisconsin, University of Kansas and at the University of Minnesota where he was associated in teaching and advanced study last year.

Dr. Longwell comes from Illinois university to head the department of animal husbandry. A graduate of the University of Missouri, he received his bachelor of science and master of arts degrees from that institution, and his Ph.D. in animal husbandry from Illinois university.

Geneva Johnson is the new instructor in home management and child development in the School of Home Economics, replacing Constance Payne who resigned to be married. Miss Johnson received the bachelor of science degree from Kansas State college, Manhattan, in 1935. She was awarded the master of science degree from Kansas State during the past summer. She has had five years of teaching experience in Kansas high schools.

Elmer Billman, instructor of mathematics, comes to the college on the recommendation of E. R. Smith, head of the mathematics department at Iowa State and the brother of I. W. Smith, professor emeritus of mathematics at NDAC. Since his graduation, he has been graduate assistant at Iowa State for two years, and received his master of science degree in June and his bachelor of arts at De Pauw university, Greencastle, Indiana, in 1939. Mr. Billman replaces Clifford Maloney, who resigned to accept a fellowship at Iowa State.

Dr. Floyd C. MacIntire, the new assistant chemist in the NDAC Experiment Station, replaces A. J. Pinckney who resigned to accept a position with the Federal Government in Washington, D. C. Dr. MacIntire received his bachelor and master degrees from Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah, in 1936 and 1937 with majors in chemistry. For the past three years he has been at the University of Wisconsin where he was awarded the doctor of philosophy degree in August, 1940, majoring in biochemistry and plant pathology.

Editor's Note. Information on many of the faculty changes as well as placement of graduates is not as yet available but complete details concerning them will appear in forthcoming issues.

Eight Staff Members Receive Approval For Higher Positions

Eight staff members at North Dakota Agricultural college were recently given promotions in rank, announces Dr. Frank L. Eversull, NDAC president. Recommended by Dr. Eversull and approved by the state board of higher education, the promotions are as follows:

Dr. Chris Jensen from assistant professor of dairy husbandry in the school of agriculture and assistant dairy husbandman in charge of dairy manufactures in the experiment station, to associate professor of dairy husbandry in the school of agriculture and associate dairy husbandman in the experiment station.

Shubel D. Owen from assistant professor of agricultural education and assistant supervisor in vocational agriculture to associate professor of agricultural education and assistant supervisor in vocational agriculture.

William J. Promersberger from assistant professor of agricultural engineering to chairman of the department of agricultural engineering.

Dr. Clifton E. Miller from assistant professor of pharmaceutical chemistry to professor of pharmaceutical chemistry.

A. W. Anderson from assistant professor of mechanical engineering to associate professor of mechanical engineering.

Dr. R. E. Dunbar from instructor in chemistry to assistant professor in chemistry.

Dr. M. E. Griffith from assistant professor of zoology to associate professor of zoology.

Mattson Heads Society

Harold Mattson, horticulturist in the NDAC experiment station and chairman of the department of horticulture at the college, was elected president of the Great Plains section of the American Society for Horticultural Science at the conclusion of the group's 1941 meeting in North Dakota recently.

Dr. O. M. Ray from instructor of zoology to assistant professor of zoology.

You're Pretty!

Sure you are. Come down to the Powers Coffee Shop and see yourself. Every day a picture of some AC student will be posted in the Powers window. The first picture goes up Sept. 26. If that person identifies his or her picture before the next Friday, he or she receives the picture AND a free dinner. These pictures were taken by the Powers photographer on the campus after school started. The faster pictures are claimed, the better it will be for AC students. . . . A new picture will be put up every time one is claimed. This is not a contest, just the way of the famous Powers Coffee Shop, long the really smart downtown rendezvous for the AC in saying "Glad you're here." Watch the Powers outside menu-case and tell your friends about it.

NO SLIDE RULES FOR SALE!

The slide rule you would ordinarily buy this term has been drafted for National Defense. Sorry, it can't be helped. Although we have increased our production tremendously the Defense Program still absorbs more rules than we can make right now. But we are still increasing production. Within four months, your slide rule will be ready for you...

but we'll lend you one!

Meanwhile, we have found a way out. To meet this temporary emergency we have made a quantity of mass production slide rules that will tide you over until your standard rules are ready. These rules are not for sale. We will lend you one upon the deposit of One Dollar... and give you a full trade-in allowance when your standard rule is ready. No charge for wear and tear. Use this special rule with our compliments as long as the emergency lasts! Your campus bookstore has K&E "loaned-on-deposit" slide rules in stock for immediate delivery.
