

IT'S BOOSTER NIGHT AS AC OPENS NCIG SCHEDULE

Homecoming Will Feature Skit Contest

Heggeness In Charge Of Parade Committee; File Float Plans Monday

A five-minute skit contest the Friday night before the game is an innovation to be added to homecoming this year, John Fisher, president of the student commission, announced.

Each organized group on the campus is invited to enter a skit. The winning skit will receive a trophy. There will be no maximum or minimum number of persons in the skit. Acts may be musical, melodramatic or of any character. An applause meter is being constructed by campus engineers and the decision of the judges will be based mainly on applause. Pep yells and songs will be interspersed between the cast. Betty Olson is in charge.

Parade Committee

Dr. Clark Heggeness of Flatbush, chairman of the parade committee, has called a meeting for Monday at 5 p. m. in the east room of the YMCA building.

Special preliminary plans for the parade include three bands, the Central high school baton twirling corps, floats and a specialty clown act.

Members of the parade committee, which consists of one representative of each organized group on the campus, should have their float plans on file with the commission by Monday, Heggeness said. The purpose of having each organization record its plans with the commission is to avoid duplication, he explained. In case of duplication, the first group to file the plans will be given the right for their use. Plans should center about the theme, Practice with Science. About 30 groups have announced their intentions of entering floats.

Clowns Caper

Virgil DeCamp is in charge of the specialty clown act for the parade. Plans now include a truck carrying an acrobatic net, two acrobats and a clown. The acrobats are Dick Baron and Dal Skjod; DeCamp is a natural for the clown part. Scattered throughout the length of the procession will be a dozen clowns. A committee will pick the best clown who will receive a merchandise award. The management is accepting applications for positions as clowns in the event. Applicants should see DeCamp. Costumes and makeup will be furnished by the committee.

In the house decorations field there will be no set theme. All entries will be judged twice, once Friday evening to check the lighting and again Saturday afternoon to check general appearance and durability. All house adornments must be finished by 7 p. m. Friday, Oct. 25. One trophy will be awarded for the first prize fraternity decoration and another for the best sorority effort.

Military Sponsors To Be Chosen From Guidon Membership

Military sponsors, with the exception of the Honorary Cadet Colonel, will henceforth be chosen from Guidon, national auxiliary to Scabbard and Blade, Lt. Col. J. R. Mendenhall announced at a meeting of the organization Tuesday. The Honorary Cadet Colonel, who is to be a senior girl, will be elected by the advanced military men.

Guidon will sponsor an All-College dance Nov. 15 in Festival Hall with members of the military department as guests of honor. Mary McCannel and Delores McDowell are in general charge with Marguerite Olson ticket sales manager.

Newly elected members of Company B of Guidon are Jeannette Archer, Ruth Kelesvig, Lorine Ladwig, Betty Myrbo and Evangeline Schwartz.

Officers for the year are Clarice Lee, president; Marguerite Olson, vice-president; Helen Greenland, secretary; Lorraine Fitjar, treasurer; Mary McCannel, publicity.

Announce New Traffic Rules

Beginning Monday speed limit and one-way drive regulations will be enforced. The one-way drive regulation governs traffic only during rush hours (7:45 to 8 and 11:45 to 1:15), but the speed limit of 15 miles per hour will be rigidly enforced at all times.

The Thirteenth street entrance is to be used only by vehicles entering the campus. Cars leaving will use either the Twelfth avenue or the Thirteenth street and Fifteenth avenue gate. All cars should be parked facing west in order to avoid congestion. As far as possible parking should be concentrated on the north side of the road.

Deputized by the Fargo police department, three NDAC students will enforce regulations. Cars driven by offenders will be excluded from the campus. All students are requested to cooperate by observing both of the above-named regulations.

PHI U'S ENTERTAINED

Active members of Phi Upsilon Omicron, national honorary home economics sorority, were entertained at a buffet supper Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Ruth Wilhan. Mrs. Nettie Severson, Mrs. Genevieve Forthun and Vera Wooldridge, president of the active chapter, talked on the national convalescence held in Cleveland. Miss Mildred Hawkins and Dean Alba Bales were welcomed by the alumnae chapter.

NOTICE

There will be a special meeting of the Independent Students, Monday, Oct. 14, at 8 p. m. in the Y. Old members are urged to be present.

Harvest Festival, Village Fair Next On Theater Schedule

Two branches of the Little Country Theater movement—the festivals and the fairs—are scheduled to appear on the campus scene in the near future, according to A. G. Arvold.

A harvest feast, preceded by a program in the Little Country Theater rooms, marks the twenty-fifth annual Harvest Festival on Oct. 22 as an event not to be missed by the student. A nominal fee will be charged for the supper. The rooms will be decorated in the fall theme, and the atmosphere of harvest-time will pervade the festival throughout.

On Sunday, Dec. 8, the Christmas Festival will be celebrated, by the presentation of "The Cricket on the Hearth."

The other event to occur soon is the Village Fair, scheduled for November 5. Between five and six hundred 4-H Club members from every county in North Dakota will be the guests of the Little Country Theater. With the object in mind of recreating a typical village fair to show that communities anywhere in the state can carry out a similar project, the rooms will be transformed into the usual village fair setting.

In charge of the festival project are Kathryn Alm, (Mrs.) Julia R. Brophy, Eunice Hjelte, Jeanne Hov-den, Stanley James, Margaret I. Moeen, Ann Murphy, Virginia Nelson and Evangeline Schwartz.

The committee in charge of the fair project includes Dorismary Bader, Lynden Benschhof, Marion Bostad, William Borderud, Austin Cummings, Hazel Isaak, Ruth Kirk, Virginia McMillan, Ann Murphy, Jean Pridt, June Probstfield, Ben I. Schei, Myron Smith, Harold Twedten, Ward Wooldridge and Mary Jane Langlie.

Panhellenic To Discuss Rushing Rules, Budgets

Proposed changes in rushing rules and presentation of the rushing budgets will occupy Panhellenic Council's time when the group holds a supper meeting today from 5 to 7 in the Kappa Kappa Gamma rooms.

Plans for the regional Panhellenic conference to be held at the University of Wisconsin next spring will be considered.

SCHEDULE DANCE

First Senior Staff all-college dance is scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 18, in the Field House. Lee Stenehjelm's orchestra will provide the music. Evelyn Arntson is in charge of tickets, Irvamae Vincent, music.

King Ace High For APG Hop

With Gorman King of Roosevelt-Wallace-Vogel fame as general manager, Alpha Phi Gamma's first annual Journalistic All-College dance promises to be the best promoted affair of the fall social season.

Decorations will be in keeping with the journalistic theme and music will be provided by Lee Stenehjelm's orchestra.

Assisting King are Bill Smith, publicity; Betty Critchfield, finance; Bill Guy, decorations; Vernon Giles, invitations.

Dancing hours will be from 10 to 12 in the field house following the Iowa State Teachers—NDAC football game.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Seaman and Mr. and Mrs. Ford Daugherty are chaperones for the evening.

Plan Marketing Days Program

Arrangements for the Marketing Days program occupied the business portion of the first regular meeting of the collegiate chapter of the Future Farmers of America Tuesday. A program of work committee and a demonstration team committee were appointed for the term.

Special entertainment feature of the evening was a speech delivered by Douglas Fisk of Hunter, recent winner of the state and regional FFA public speaking contests. Fisk gave his winning oration, which was followed by two brief talks by Wally Larsen of Hunter and Earl Walter, NDAC sophomore, concerning their trip to the American Youth Foundation Camp at Shelby, Mich.

Fisk and Walter will attend the national FFA convention Nov. 9-15. The former will compete with four other regional public speaking winners; Walter is a nominee for an American Farmer degree.

Cadet Corps Makes Public Appearance

NDAC's cadet corps, the largest in the history of the school, will make its initial public appearance of the year tonight when it will go on special dress parade between the halves of the NDAC-Iowa Teachers game. The military unit will pass in review as a special feature of Bison Booster night, Lt. Col. John R. Mendenhall, professor of military science and tactics, announced.

The largest enrollment in the history of the military department was experienced this year when 628 students elected the course. A result of a steady, natural growth, the corps is larger by more than 125 cadets than last year when the peak enrollment was 500. In the school year of 1938-39 the number was 400. Eighty per cent of the freshman class this year elected military instead of physical education. There are 348 freshmen in the unit, 180 sophomores, 80 advanced students and 20 advanced students in the band.

Directory Out Early, Parrott Promises

If the few students who still have not informed the registrar's office of their whereabouts will kindly cooperate, the student directory will be out three weeks earlier than ever before, promises A. H. Parrott, registrar.

Students whose names appear on the bulletin board in front of Old Main are the offenders, and although the directory has gone to press, the necessary information can be added to the proofs.

Date for the expected appearance of the directory is Oct. 15.

NOTICE

Medical examinations for male freshmen and new students will be given Thursday, Oct. 17, from 1 to 5 p. m. in Festival Hall. No excuse for omitting this examination will be accepted. Credits are withheld when students have not had physical examinations.

NOTICE

The third YMCA dancing class will be held Tuesday at 7 p. m.

Organize Bison 'Boosterettes'

In order to stimulate interest in the Bison Boosters' work, a group of girls known as "Bison Boosterettes" were called on to help boosters interest businessmen in NDAC's sports program. These girls have canvassed the downtown district in an effort to sell tickets to the Iowa State Teachers' game tomorrow night.

The group was organized to cooperate throughout the year with the Bison Boosters to promote enthusiasm in Bison activities. Personnel includes Alice Driver, Elaine Wigdahl, Marguerite Steiner, Maurine Steiner, Ruth Black, Mildred Duckstad, Hazel Isaak, Cathryn Casselman, Mary Ann Tronnes, Ruth Gunvaldsen, Betty Stern, Eleanor Erdahl, Eileen Dolve, Mary Howe, Fay Ann Nelson, Ethel Gores, Charlotte Bahe, Muriel Kotschevar, Alice I. Larson, Dorothy Flaa, Kathryn Alm, June Heisler, June Persinger, Marion Lyman, Fannie Helen Dyve, Adeline Luther, Doris Bjorklund and Anabelle Donovan.

A luncheon was given for them last Thursday to explain the purpose of Bison Boosters. Yesterday the Boosterettes were honored at another luncheon at the Ceres Hall dining room. Miss Pearl Dinan and Miss Alba Bales were also guests. Results of the sale of tickets will be reported on this noon. The Bison Boosters are also holding a luncheon for men of the faculty.

Band Boasts Large Freshman Enrollment

With over 50 freshmen enrolled, NDAC's band under the direction of Dr. C. S. Putnam, is this year larger than ever before. According to "Doc", the freshmen have more ability and experience and are equipped with a better grade of instruments than in previous years.

Y Recognition Services Set

Closing the membership drive of the past week, the YWCA will stage a Recognition Service Oct. 17 at 7:30 p. m. in Ceres Hall parlors. All girls who pledged the YW will be formally accepted at this time. Jean Halbeisen heads the service, with Dorothy Landquist assisting.

It seems some controversy has arisen concerning who may or may not join the YW. All campus women, even though they are not students, are invited to join. At a recent Advisory Board tea, it was decided that staff member's secretaries, correspondence students, and other women affiliated with the college are eligible to join. They are urged to contact Dorothy Landquist for further plans.

Mrs. J. E. Bennison, local advisor of the YW, will entertain the eight YW girls who attended the Lake Geneva Conference this summer. At this meeting scheduled for Sunday, Oct. 13, the girls will prepare their Lake Geneva reports for presentation at the Y meeting Oct. 24.

Girls who attended the conference are Hazel Isaak, Dorothy Landquist, Betty Landquist, Irene Lee, Eleanor Erdahl, Mildred Cone, Doris Margaret Larson, Kathleen Benson.

Interfraternity Pledge Banquet Scheduled

Jointly sponsored by the Interfraternity Pledge Council and the Junior YMCA Cabinet, the annual Interfraternity Pledge banquet is scheduled for Thursday, Oct. 17, in Ceres Hall cafeteria. Reo Carr, Earl Walter and Bob Pile comprise the committee from the Y, while Virgil DeCamp and Verne Hook represent the Interfraternity Pledge Council.

Plans for the program include Walter as toastmaster, impersonations by Francis Daniel, and Lynn U. Stambaugh as probable speaker.

Bison Encounter Panthers In First Conference Game

Coach Clyde 'Buck' Starbeck's Crew Will Furnish Initial League Test For NDAC Herd Weakened By Injuries

By GEORGE RULON

Defensive Ace

Don Johnston, Bison Quarterback

NDAC's Thundering Herd, seriously handicapped by injuries, will have its work cut out for it tonight on Dacotah Field when the Bison play host to the Iowa State Teachers College Panthers. The game is scheduled for 8 p. m. and will be the first North Central Intercollegiate Conference engagement for the Herd.

Coach Clyde "Buck" Starbeck will field a light but fast, aggressive team which is favored to win its second conference victory in as many starts. Last Friday found the Panthers scoring a 15-0 upset over the highly publicized Sioux from North Dakota University. Early season predictions gave the ISTC team second place in the NCI standings. Starbeck's crew proved their worth with the victory over the Nodaks and are now rated as the strongest aggregation in the conference.

Lt. Col. J. R. Mendenhall, professor of military science and tactics at NDAC, has announced that the largest ROTC cadet corps in the history of the school will make its first appearance of the year at tonight's game. As a special feature of Bison Booster night, the corps will pass in review before the stands at half-time.

Fans at tonight's Bison Booster game will see several Panther backs who will be making strong bids for all-conference honors before the season is over. Charles

PASTORINO

Pastorino, a half-back, was the big gun in the victorious attack against NDU. Pastorino will demand constant watching by the Bison forward wall if the Herd expects to stop the Panther running attack.

Ben McCabe, who scored against the Sioux, will no doubt be at the signal-calling post when the Panthers face the Bison. Wendlen Burckhard, star fullback injured two weeks ago in the Panther's game with Creighton, is Starbeck's probable choice for the full-back position. Should Burckhard be unable to play, Russell Bradford, who did well against the Sioux, will get the starting berth. The tentative starting backfield will be completed by Edward Lyons at right halfback.

Tickets For Flagstad Concert Available

Students and faculty members who wish to secure general admission tickets for the KIRSTEN FLAGSTAD concert on Tuesday evening, Oct. 15, 1940, should purchase them at the Little Country Theater immediately. The doors will be open at 6:45 p. m. The tickets are $1.10, tax included.

"There is reason to ponder anew the rare good fortune of a generation privileged to hear singing of such splendor."

These are the words of Oscar Thompson of the New York Sun. The singing is that of Kirsten Flagstad, who comes to the campus next Tuesday evening. The press of America, more often than not at odds on matters of opinion, is completely united in the decision that the great Norwegian star is the artiste superbe in her musical world.

Tickets have already been sold to people from 30 towns in the surrounding territory.

GOP Secretive As Democrats Organize

Roosevelt - Wallace - Vogel Club members have made extensive plans for political maneuvers on the NDAC campus and are now in the process throughout North Dakota enlisted in of getting all Democratic students enrolled in the various colleges their ranks.

Next week all loyal Democrats on the AC campus will be contacted by special contact men and urged to take an active part in campaign activities. Gorm King, Paul Gallagher, Dick Knapp, Gordon Gray, Beverly Fields and John Lynch are making trips to all of the colleges in the state where they are helping to organize clubs that will be under the AC club's jurisdiction.

In GOP headquarters somewhat of an air of secrecy prevailed with Rollo Garberg quite reluctant to make any comments. However, Garberg hinted that his club plans to unleash some campaign tactics that are hoped to knock the Democrats off their donkeys. Garberg asks that all Republicans on the campus contact him immediately.

Ames, Keefe Command Second Cadet Battalion

Due to technical difficulties the names of the seniors commanding the second battalion of the cadet corps were unintentionally omitted last week. Major William Ames is in charge, assisted by First Lieut. Charles Keefe.

Fashion Minded? Enter Vogue Contest

Senior women with a flair for fashion and ability to write may start a successful career by entering Vogue's annual career contest. The Sixth Prix de Paris was announced recently by the editor of Vogue magazine, Edna Woolman Chase.

"The purpose of the contest," said Mrs. Chase, "is not only a means of adding new talent to Vogue's editorial staff, but it also gives the contestants training in feature writing and fashion reporting which proves very valuable, whether it leads to a prize or not."

This year besides seven major awards, "Honorable Mentions" will be given contestants whose papers show unusual merit. In the major awards, the first prize will be a year's position on Vogue's editorial staff. Previously this included six months in Paris, but due to world conditions the full period will now be spent in New York. A special Vanity Fair award is offered as second prize and consists of six months as feature writer on Vogue's staff. Five cash prizes will be awarded for best contest theses in addition to these.

The honorable mention awards carry possibilities of jobs in a wide variety of fields. These winners will be interviewed by stores, advertising agencies and publications for jobs.

Forty of sixty leading entrants in five previous contests are following careers in a great many fields.

● grand old man

For 37 years we have been honored and proud to have on this campus our beloved Doctor Putnam. Underclassmen and many upperclassmen are unaware of the prestige this fine old man has received.

"Doc" has been a member of the American Bandmasters Association for six years, last year holding a position on the executive board. He is an honorary member of Kappa Kappa Psi, Future Farmers of America, and a Lieutenant Colonel on Gov. Moses' staff. He has had many musical numbers published, his latest being a tuba solo, "The Elephants' Dance," which was published last spring. Originally Bachman's Million Dollar Band, which is internationally famous, was organized by the conductor of our Gold Star Band.

Respect is the very least the students can have for such a deserving person. When the band plays "The Yellow and the Green" let's all stand at attention and sing the praises of our bandmaster, our team, and our school.

We sincerely hope that all the work and time and effort "Doc" has given our school will be remembered when our budget board meets again. It's a hard struggle when money, equipment and assistance are meager.

Respect and honor "Doc", because, of all the traditions of the school, "Doc" is the one to be treasured the most.

—Jeanne Boyle.

● will Britain be supreme?

The question of whether or not Britain will be able to display supremacy over Germany in the present war seems, according to reports from the dominions, to be settled. It is true that difficulty is met in determining just what part of these reports is propaganda to support the morale of the British population and what part is factual.

Historians have agreed for some time that only a short war could be terminated by a German victory and yet much doubt has arisen over that point in recent weeks. However, even the present length of the war has apparently given England a chance to muster her forces; Canada has announced that in the next three months training for 3,000 men in the aeronautical service will be completed, and in the subsequent six months an additional 5,000 men will be trained with an equal number to follow every half year. There also exists a possibility of doubling that figure by 1942.

Australia, too, seems to be doing her part by a like acceleration of her training; in other words, the dominions of the British Empire are training for the future. One can hardly prophesy, as yet, the outcome of the war due to this

By CROCKETT

Gone is the opportunity for the plutocratic student to flaunt his good fortune before the eyes of his more unfortunate brethren. From this time hence we are notified that cars will no longer be driven with a flourish but in the more leisurely manner that earmarks the careful motorist. No longer can the lads zoom around the old dust bowl while the poor pedestrians gape in wonderment. In the future all of the gapping will be done by individuals known as campus cops. While these chaps have not as yet been selected, they will be burdened with the responsibility of holding the speed limit down to a maximum of 15 miles per. Realizing that the new traffic set-up will demand the services of only experts we suggest the following campus police force: Alexander MacGibbon (it won't be necessary to furnish a whistle), Roy Pederson (it would be fun to see Pete in a conservative sort of hat), and Cecil Sturgeon (a good sort of man to hold down the jumpy corners).

From the inside channels comes more chatter that leads us to believe that something revolutionary is going to be done by Panhellenic about their inadequate rushing rules. Come on, girls, why not just put on the working clothes and go out after 'em?

Speaking of girls, have you noticed that Gamma Phi Beta's pledges have forsaken the ribbon and now wear pins like the rest of the local girls? The Gamma Phi's are good, simple girls, but that isn't why they chose to wear ribbons. Blair didn't get her salary until last week and Balfour is a tough outfit to get credit from.

Newest organization on our campus is the Bison Boosterettes, whose chief aim in life is to make students more aware of our benefactors, the Bison Boosters. The idea is not a bad one and the task is herculean. Some of us are not too sure that we even have a football team. It comes from good authority that Finnegan is having trouble substituting because the boys hate to go out on the field where they can no longer hear the sound of a human voice. It only takes some guys a little over 10 seconds to run the length of a football field, so it is not just the best idea to leave a minute or so before the whistle blows. You might miss something. Anyway, it's not cricket to walk out on the boys even if you are all played out and can't wait until you can get over to talk to Les.

Down the creek there is much howling and whooping. Just properly nettled by the lads the Herd meets tonight, the Sioux are out to make things at least look good to the alumni. It goes without saying that no AC students will even think of going up there for a fling at the bright lights. There are really only two things to go up there for. One is to actually see a sorority house and the other is to observe the accent the Up-State Normalites put on the words Cow Collich. Wanted: One ride back to Fargo on Sunday. Can not possibly leave before sometime in the afternoon. Will meet you in the Belmont. (Look under as well as in all of the booths.)

advance, but it must be admitted that supremacy of the air in a war in which such superiority means a great deal, has not yet been won by either adversary. England has bravely withstood the attacks of German planes in addition well remembered when our budget board meets regions; apparently it is not only a matter of numbers, but also a matter of training.

In a war that may vitally affect America, the English pilot training will be well worth watching, for a sister democracy cannot help but be sympathetic.

Greeks Have Bleak Week

Well, that hash was a long time in coming, folksies, but now that it is here, it is apt to be just the least bit of stale, so let's be casting no reflectors, pliz!!!! Your weaker-Greek-for-the-week is in fine fettle, having fully recovered from a severe "stiffness". "Quiet, youse mugs, I godit bowling.

It's been a long week—yes, a long, hard week since we had our last get together, guys and gals, so without further ado let's goo!! ATO's wonder team (or was that wander?) were really at a disadvantage Saturday when Theta Chi's Roaring Nine, Ten, or Eleven (they didn't know quite how many to use) skipped upon the scene of battle. The big boys from the ATO house had gone hunting, thereby leaving the enemy to win —37 to 00000.

New Pledges

New pledges, ATO: Arvid Melby, Claris Olson, Clifford Schaible, Martin Stenehem. Gamma Phi's really had Old-Home-Week—Ruth Johnson, Charlotte Carpenter, Lorraine Swanson here over week-end. At potluck: Jo Wheeler, Lois Kirk, LaVaun Anderson. The Baby Gamma Phi's got off to a noble start. (As They Have Done Before) they entertained Theta Chi pledges Sunday night at a waffle supper—Traditional!!! Open house Friday 4:30 to 6:00. Alpha Gam's Elvira Heuer passed candy Monday evening at potluck. (Note: J. Archer when are you going to come across?)

Audrey Berry was added to the list of AGD pledges at Sunday morning pledging. First open house will be Friday—ditto hours. Solveig Strand spent the weekend at her home in Portland. (No, Junior, in North Dakota!!!) New pledge officers: Beatrice Brandes, pres.; Audrey Berry, president; Joan Barickman, chaplain.

New SAE pledges (what a haul from Mandan!!!) Del Skjod (pronounced Ska) Fergus Homme, Bill Mushik, Dick Barron, Pat McCarrick. KD Bonnie Lewis spent the weekend in Minneapolis. What's the attraction, Bonnie, the dental fraternity pin? Potluck guests: Mrs. Richard Sweitzer, Harriet Gillette, Charlotte Olson, Billy Plath, Janice Nelson, Jean Parizek, Annette Katz. New KD pledges will be presented to the campus Sunday, Oct. 13. Pledge officers include: Norma Severson, pres.; Delight Whempner, vice-pres.; Dorothy Cull, sec.; Evelyn Edgar, treas. Alums Mavis Jensen, Allis Larson, and Helen Louise Sletvold spent the weeks in Fargo. KD Doris M. Larson is sporting an SAE pin and there are complaints to the effect that no tootsie-rolls have been passed as yet!

Phi Mu's Get Candy

Phi Mu's Lois Miller and Jessie Gibb passed candy Monday night. Evelyn Losen, Joann Cumber, Doris Mary Bader, and Jean Ebeltoft were home over the weekend. New pledge officers are: Marian Ingraham, pres.; Bettye Parries, vice-pres.; Phyllis Carlson, sec.-treas. Pledging was held Wednesday for Lois Grant, Enderlin. Open house today.

Kappa's Mido Cone passed candy some time ago. Seems to have glommed onto a Sigma Phi Delt pin. Paging Roy Rutledge!!! Ditto for Harriet Aylmer, who can't get Kansas off her mind. POP's once again are starving the Veuesans, "free-for-all". POP Jean Halbeisen has a brand new frat pin, and he just got a big raise in salary. Wonder what it could mean??? But what really gets me is how one column can be so unfunny. Better mush next time—you hope. Perhaps we won't even rate a few inches this week either—who knows? But I can dream, can't I? Alors!!! Kamerads!!!

In charge of arrangements are Mmes. J. D. Woledge, Sam Chesley, Robert Barnard, R. E. Weible and George Black.

Dear Dairy:

The first installment of this column has aroused a great deal of interest. It has been responsible for much comment, contemplation, and consternation. However, we also received the usual number of interesting inquiries, such as:
Dear Dairy:
If I'm allowed five cuts in a 3 hour course, how soon do I have to start going to classes?
—Bewildered Freshman.

Dear B. F.:
Don't let it worry you, fellow. The draft would have gotten you, anyhow.

Dear Dairy:
I don't approve of your knocking the Sigs. Sigma Chi is an honored and revered fraternity with a national reputation.
—A Stalwart Sig.

Dear A. S. S.:
Very true, but its local reputation makes far better reading.

Dear Dairy:
What sorority is known for its beautiful girls?

—Lover of Beauty.

Dear L. O. B.
This column deals only with questions regarding the N. D. A. C.

Dear Dairy:
They can't possibly be as good as they think they are, can they?
—Puzzled.

Dear Puzzled:
Please do not refer to this subject anymore. We were asked not to mention the Kappas in this column again.

Dear Distillery:
Don't you think so?
—Your Pal.

Dear Sir:
Yes, in moderation.

Wealth and honor are yours for the asking. Applications for the business staff are being received in the Bison office in the afternoons.

FILTH COLUMN ACTIVITIES

By BUD PARMALEE

We've decided to hang 'em up. Guess who of last week has been seen dogging our footsteps the last two days with a club under one arm and a bottle of rat poison under the other—guess he just wants to make sure we keep our traps shut. Overheard at the last All-College: Ex-suitor insurance man Selvig to Number One man Garry: How about a dance with "our" girl? You know what they always say—the land looks Green-er on the other side of the road. And in the meantime A. O. is consoling himself with McDowell and Driver—Odds at this stage are seven to five and eight to ten with every man for himself—All applications made to Yehoudi.

And speaking of the Sigs (I hate to do this but Miss Harriet insists) here comes the question of the week—"Who is that lady seen being carried out of the house every Monday night when Bony Rothrock eats there?" Answer—"Emily Post." Here's a little thing we found out the other day, even though Betty was trying to Keeffe it all to herself. The Myrbo and Keeffe combination is for keeps—Guess she believes in the Homecoming slogan—"Practice with Silence." My boy, this week we haven't a kernel missing.

It seems the Bison Staff has decided to get themselves a new secretary this fall. Yesterday the interviews started and at the quarter mile from this view it looks like Betty Brattland of Dr. Whedonville is leading the pack. Gorm King did the interviewing and there wasn't a word of conversation passed between them.

And how about Hedy McBeety of Kansas City, attending the dancing lessons at the Y? But, then, you know Hedy's slogan or old proverb—If you rhumba you've a little behind and if you don't rhumba you're still a little behind—the times. And did we mention that she was escorted by Phil Weintraub who came, saw, and congaed.

We wish you all to know that Ann Livingstone and Jack Quistgard are going steady—OK, Jane Blair, we won't say another word. Just wanted you kids to know.

Our vote for the most torrid amalgamation of the week—Elaine Nygaard and Terrible Terrence. It's gotten to the every night stage with three or four trysts in between—which for no reason at all reminds us of a remark by the remarking Mr. Ben Boldt, who said as he came out of Business Finance class the other day: "Say, that stock changed hands more times than Rae Elznic."

To all you freshman girls sighing over the blond giant in the bookstore, alias Snowshoes—It's absolutely useless because come about eight o'clock every night he hangs his hat at MS, and until closing time, too. As a matter of fact, they tell me that at the end of this year he is going to receive a hand-stitched ribbon of virtue of having his name appear most frequently in the guest book. Following close on his heels comes one Lee Hicks whose heart beats for Marcia Schroeder, another MS queen, and pretty, too.

Speaking of romance—in the Romeo race we notice, head and shoulders above the rest, and glowing with victory, Verne (uglier than thou) Peterson, who has taken a different girl out every night this week and is still going strong. What we want to know, Romeo, is—are you looking for perfection—or are you just looking?

And what gets me about you, my dear readers, is this: If you're not mentioned, you kick. If you're mentioned, you kick. Now, once and for all—do you like dirt?

(All answers mailed to the old address—right back of the 8 ball in the snooker lab—And hurry! Rudy is kicking, too, because we're three weeks behind on the rent!)

Touch Gridders Open AC Intramural Program

Larry Tanberg Manages Ten-Team Ball League In Round Robin Schedule; Theta Chis To Defend '39 Crown

NDAC's intramural touchball competition got under way October 3, with Larry Tanberg as manager and referee. With ten teams entered, the league schedule is well under way. This year each team will play every squad entered in the tourney.

Already several of the teams have forged ahead and are threats to the defending champion Theta Chi team. The Sigma Chi outfit featuring Lloyd Fercho's passing and Swede Johnson's and Sonny Olson's receiving, looks good enough to make it hard for the OX eight. The '39 champs have a good receiver in Manager Tanberg.

Also right up in the running is a strong Kappa Sigma Chi team. They always are tough in intramural competition. Two other fast teams who had up to Tuesday stuck strictly in the win column, represent the YMCA and the Co-op House.

Competition gets keener as the schedule gets under way and if the Theta Chi-Alpha Tau Omega game last Saturday is any forecast, the contests coming up are worth watching.

Touchball managers for the different organizations represented are: Lloyd Fercho, Sigma Chi; By Jackson, Theta Chi; John Saunders, YMCA; Co-op, Stanley Moore; SAE, Dalton Mounts; Kenny Neumann, Kappa Sigma Chi; Bill Nelson, Sigma Phi Delta; Herman Larson, AGR; Jack Taylor, ATO; and Harold Twedten, Men's Dorm.

The schedule up to Oct. 19, beginning Saturday is: Oct. 12—Kappa Sigs vs. SAE, AGR vs. Sigma Chi; Oct. 14—Theta Chi vs. YMCA, Kappa Sigs vs. Sigs; Oct. 15—ATO vs. Sigs; Oct. 16—Dorm vs. Theta Chi, Gamma Rho vs. Sigma Phi Deltis; Oct. 18—AGR vs. Theta Chi, Kappa Sigs vs. Co-op.

Bobcats Upset Bison Gridders

Montana State upset pre-game predictions last Saturday when they defeated NDAC Bison 7-0 at Bozeman, Mont., in the Bobcats homecoming contest.

The Montana squad, tougher than it was imagined, avenged the Herd's win of last year.

Sporting a snappy offense, the Bobcats clawed their way to a touchdown in the third quarter capitalizing on a break which gave them the ball on Bison territory after a Bobcat punt had taken a "wicked hop" and hit Ralph Johnson, AC half, as he was about to block a Montana end. A penalty on the Herd for defensive holding netted the Bozeman eleven five yards. Then the Bobcats crashed seven yards on a tricky reverse for a first down.

Montana Scores

After bringing the ball to the Bison two-yard line, Ad Farrell, Montana State triple-threat fullback, went through the center of the line, fumbling the oval as he plunged. Jim Higgs, playing heads-up ball for the AC, snatched it up and raced to the Bobcat's 20 before he was stopped. However, the referees ruled that Farrell was over the goal and that the whistle had blown before he fumbled, giving Montana the touchdown. The fullback converted giving the westerners a seven point lead.

Don Johnston, NDAC star defensive man, intercepted a Bobcat pass on his own 28 yard-line to stop a Montana touchdown threat only to have a Bison fumble give the Bozeman eleven possession of the ball on the Herd's 16. Three plays through the line netted the Bobcats only six yards and on the fourth down, Farrell attempted a placekick which went wide.

Injuries hit Bison

Injuries hit the Bison squad repeatedly, two linemen and a back being hurt in the last half. Curt Johnson, replacing Sid Sanderson at tackle, suffered a split muscle in the hip region while Pomeroy Hill, recovering from an injured ankle, was hurt the second play he was in. Sanderson, coming back in at tackle, suffered a knee injury which will keep him out of practice this week.

Bison penalties were frequent as in the Carleton game. 45 yards were lost as a result of five off-sides and other infractions.

The Bobcats were an underrated team and much stronger than expected.

Offensively the Herd just couldn't seem to get going but on defense some of the men played a bang-up game. Don Johnston at the quarterback was easily the best defensive man on the field. His backing up the line kept the Bobcats from making more first downs. As it was NDAC and Montana State tied in that column, each scoring six. The Bison were outrushed by about 45 yards, but outpassed the Bozeman team, making 29 yards on five completed passes to the Bobcat's loss of three yards on two completed heaves.

Heard About The Herd

By PETE LEWIS

We've a big night ahead of us tonight. First of all it's Bison Booster night. Next we face our first North Central Conference foe of the season. Thirdly the team we play is the Iowa Teachers eleven which scored a surprising 15-0 win over the dopesters' pennant-bound team, the Sioux. Last of all we have our Bison who have seven good men benched because of injuries. If we take a bad beating I hope that the fans and spectators take the last point into consideration. At the time what we lack mostly is speed in the backfield. Beanie Marquardt, Ed Boe and Pom Hill all fast men are unable to play although the first may see some action. Butch Kimblin and Ralph Johnson will have to carry most of the Bison's running attack, with Jim Higgs liable to see some action.

I wonder if the boys from upstate normal are going to put up a circus tent over the gridiron tomorrow to make the St. Mary's of Texas showmen more at home? From what I've heard of the outfit, the coach is a cross between Billy Rose, P. T. Barnum and Tex Rickard. In the U's advance publicity on the game I found that after defeating McKendree College of Lebanon, Ill. 44-0 on a Thursday night at San Antonio, the St. Mary's team traveled 573 miles to El Paso, Texas, defeating Texas Mines by a score of 14-7. This was in 1939. Last week the Sioux were victims of the Miners down at El Paso.

Flashing bits of fine play at times, the Bison lost a tough one to Montana State. In turn the Bozeman team was sadly underrated. They were beaten by Drake by a big score but it happened to be the Bobcat's third game in seven days. It also was touted that the Bozeman team had suffered considerable losses of men to the National Guard which has already been mobilized in Montana. This was a bit untrue as only two men were affected and only one was first string caliber.

Not trying to alibi for the Bison but I still think that the altitude had something to do with the Herd's defeat. Anyway climbing a flight of stairs winded me much more up there 6000 feet than it does here.

Don Johnston played an outstanding game for the Bison last Saturday. His tackling was fierce and the tougher the going the tougher and madder Don got. From what he shouted at one misunderstanding Bobcat, I assumed that he resented their friendly attitude, and although bleeding about the face and mouth was able to get about under his own power. His pals, sophomores Stink Davis and Harry Treglawney also did a fine piece of defensive work.

If we win the game tonight don't expect to see my name on the column next week as I'll still be celebrating.
