Anti-War Committee To Ask Student Okay On Peace Plan

A mass expression of NDAC students against America's entry into the European war will be sought at a convocation scheduled Monday at 4 by the college unit of the Yanks Are Not Coming committee, a national organization that has sponsored college demonstrations throughout the nation this spring.

Speaker at the convocation will be attorney L. J. Monson, a World War veteran and outspoken against the European conflict.

Expresses Approval

He expressed his approval of the campus movement because "youth's job is to get up on their hind legs and protest before it is too late."

Leaders of the campus movement expect a mass demonstration by the student body after the convocation to "put the college students on record as being against war in a firm and orderly manner."

Form State Organization

Other outgrowths of the movement will be organization of a statewide setup under students, who will be furnished with pamphlets and petitions for distribution and will encourage sending telegrams and letters to con-

Quiz Students On War Views

An unofficial poll of student opinion on questions relating to the European war is being conducted by the Farmers Union local. Their cross-section of the campus will be taken by personal interview from a list that includes every tenth student on the registrar's record.

Their questions, which were approved by Dr. Frank Eversull, are intended to reveal whether students believe:

The United States should enter the war under present circumstances;

The United States should extend credit to belligerents;

The United States is in danger of attack;

That wars will end if Hitlerism is stamped out by war;

That the Dies committee's activities encroach upon the American ideals of free speech;

That subversive activities constitute a threat to our security.

Each student is asked directly whether he favors a war referendum, would fight if American territories are invaded and would enlist in an American army in Europe.

Lilac Planting

Opens Two Weeks' Festival

With Muriel Schroeder acting as queen, the annual Lilac Day pageant was enacted Tuesday afternoon and evening. Cloudy skies and precarious weather conditions did not prevent the participants from advancing the program which calls for "eighty miles of lilacs between Fargo and Grand Forks."

Lilac Day each year inaugurates two weeks to be devoted to planting lilac bushes along highway 81. In cooperation with this plan, Fargo's city commission yesterday adopted the lilac as the official flower of the city; and, by the same token, Fargo became the Lilac City of North Dakota.

The planting of a plot of lilac bushes in front of the Men's Residence hall by 53 lilac maidens representing North Dakota's counties was the chief feature of Tuesday's program. The queen and her attendants, Ann Murphy, Jeanne Hovden, Jean Schulz, Lorraine Fitjar, Delin Rudd and Nelita Dyer, escorted by a group of coeds on horseback, viewed the ceremony. As each new bush was set out, soil taken from each of the previous plantings was included with the turf placed around the young roots.

The mounted escort included Betty Critchfield, Barbara Ness, Georgian-gressmen as a "mass pressure" effort to avert our entry in the war.

On the committee organizing the movement are Sid Johnson, president of the International Relations club, which inducted the campus effort; Roland Peffer and Larry Lange, Independent Students association representatives; Kent Anderson, representative of Theta Chi fraternity and Bernard Bermann. Others will be added later. They expect financial support for their activities from sympathetic local people and may ask contributions from students.

Blue Key Names Bill Guy; Votes To Retain Play Contest

Bill Guy has been elected president of Blue Key, honorary service fraternity, to succeed Robrt Brandenburg, who has been acting president replacing John Lynch. Lawrence Tanberg was named vice president; Leland Stenehjem corresponding secretary; Frank Johnson, recording secretary and Max Campbell, treasurer.

The group voted to open competition again for an original play to be used in the Bison Brevities next

Senior Class Play Concerns Antics Of One Mrs. Jones

NDAC'S Senior class presented the one-act play, "Mrs. Jones and the Bourgeoisie," by John Kirkpatrick, in the Little Country Theatre, Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

Directed by Gwendolyn Stenehjem with stage effects by Mason Arvold, the play concerned the antics of Mrs. Jones, ably portrayed by Dorothy Bentley.

The action results from Mrs. Jones' attending a club lecture during which the speaker calls her "typically bourgeoisie."

Oliver Uthus as the solid, comfortable father, was excellent. The other male roles were taken by Andrew Peterson, the male romantic lead, and Nelita Dyer, portraying a young boy.

Helen Restvedt as the young Stella Jones and Esther Jones, the maidenly aunt, portrayed by Barbara Gwyther, make up the remainder of the Jones family.

Marion Anstett as the chorus girl, Marceline LeFoy, captured the "Mae West" walk and voice to a "T".

Following the play was a reception for the lilac queen and her attendants in the Lincoln Log Cabin. Refreshments were served.

Senior Military Students Will Parade Tuesday

To Award Prizes To Outstanding ROTC Students At Annual Tournament

Competition for prizes to outstanding students in military science and a parade of graduating seniors will be on the program for the ROTC tournament Tuesday at 8 p. m. on Dacotah field.

Awards offered by groups interested in the advancement of military education will be presented to outstanding officers, and other prizes will be offered for competitions on the field in platoon drill, squad drill, the officers' saber manual and rifle manual.

To Award Sabers

Sabers will go to the cadet ranking highest in leadership qualities and to the outstanding captain. Ribbon bars will be presented to students high in scholarship and to students with perfect attendance records.

A group of Fargo citizens has donated a new United States flag to the corps and Guidon will present their regimental color to replace a stand of colors that has been in use for more than ten years.

After the competitions the program will include presentations of merits, new colors, and commissions in the reserve corps and a farewell to the senior class.

Lahlum Commands

Under the command of Cadet Col. Arthur Lahlum, the corps will be reviewed by military officers and college officials at the opening of the tournament. Supervising the tourney will be Dr. Frank Eversull, Dean C. A. Severson, Col. R. W. Briggs, Col. H. H. Slaughter, Lt. Col. J. R. Mendenhall, Lt. Col. C. S. Putnam, Major W. H. Halstead, Major E. F. Boruski, Sgt. R. D. White and Sgt. L. L. Detroit.

Commissions as second lieutenants in the United States Army reserve corps as announced by the War Department will be presented to seniors. They are Garmond Schurr, Tilford Aasen, Kenneth Archer, Gordon Bahe, Rudolph Brunsvold, Jack Dahrling, William Foy, Donald Hansen, Richard Hoag, Vernon Johnson, John Kirby, Arthur Lahlum, Emery Langseth, Bohn Lindemann, Einar Mickelson, Edwin Olson, Mark Olson, Baptiste Pronovost, Lauren Raymond, Paul Sorkness, Lee Taylor, Clarence Van Ray, Milton Vickers, Richard Weltzin, Roger Kimber and John Sundt.

Students Prepare To Let Off Steam Before They Face Final Exam Torture

Here we have SHIRLEY PUTZ clocking the pace of the turtle on which the Kappa Kappa Gammas are pinning their hopes for a win as in last year's race. P.S. The watch doesn't run either, but judges will be using an hour-glass when the turtles mosey away from the starting basket on the grid-iron this afternoon.

Spring Sing Scheduled As Only Serious Event Of A Day Of Fun

Beginning at 3 this afternoon, the annual All-College day festivities have been designed to give NDAC students and faculty members a last glimpse at enjoyable foolishness before settling down to the grim reality of final examinations. Activities include the turtle race, the tug-of-war and sack-rushing contests, the free supper dance, the sing and the dance in the field house—not to forget the faculty-senior baseball classic.

Odds are practically even on the first annual freshman-junior bag rushing contest at NDAC. Some authorities give the freshman class a 5-4 chance of winning on the basis of their fresher spirit, while others maintain that the juniors should win because of their size and experience.

Stenehjem Comments

Lee Stenehjem, junior class president and originator of the event says, "Other schools may have sack rushing contests, but I promise that none will be the equal of ours."

Kenny Jones, freshman president, declined to comment on the contest, but he explained the rules of the game which follow:

Twenty-five men will compose a team whose sole purpose in life is to rush from one end to the football field to the center of the field where several sacks of sand have been piled and to drag these sacks back to their goal line. The team which has the majority of the sacks when all have been taken by one side or the other shall be declared the winner. No method of getting sacks has been barred.

NDAC students who desire to become a part of the throng expected for the event will be released from their classes at three o'clock in time for the turtle derby in the Stadium. This event will be broadcast to the nation by station KVOX's inimitable Manny Marget. Fraternity and sorority jockeys are giving their reptilian mounts a finish rub-down as this paper goes to press.

Schedule Tug-of-War

Immediately following the derby and preceding the sack slaughter will be the tug-of-war contest. The first event of this kind in the history of NDAC will be sponsored by Alpha Phi Gamma. Twelve-man teams will vie for 12 milk shakes offered by the Foss drug company.

At four o'clock the faculty will square off against the seniors in a last and final attempt to put the understrappers in their place. The scene of the conflict will be the softball diamond north of the Field House.

Hosts for a free supper dance in Festival Hall are the members of the Student Commission. Music will be by some of the nations leading orchestras and even the most lowly will be fed. Following this feast Alpha Phi Omega will stage its annual Fraternity-Sorority sing contest with Gil Wagner in charge.

All-College Dance

To round out the day Alpha Phi Gamma is sponsoring an All-College dance in the Field House. Bob McDougall and his orchestra will furnish the music and the ante will be 50 cents per couple. Myrle Anderson will manage the affair.

Entered in the sing are the following groups with their directors: Alpha Gamma Delta, Marion Lyman; Gamma Phi Beta, Margaret Calhoun; Kappa Delta, Helen Louise Sletvold; Kappa Kappa Gamma, Carol Benson; Phi Omega Pi, Jeanne Boyle; Alpha Tau Omega, Leland Stenehjem; Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Oliver Uthus; Sigma Chi, Herbert Harris; and Theta Chi, Lloyd Jones.

A cup will be awarded to each winning fraternity and sorority. The sing is sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity. Last year's winners were Phi Omega Pi and ATO. Judges for the contest are Mrs. Joseph Kise, Paul B. Christenson, and N. B. Barlinhaug.

Begin Inspection Of ROTC Unit Parade Of 475

Officers of the Seventh Corps area this morning began inspection of the ROTC battalion and administration with a general assembly and parade of about 475 students under the command of Cadet Col. Arthur Lahlum.

During the morning they went through battalion exercises and will resume field and classroom inspection tomorrow morning after an examination of administrative officers this afternoon.

Practical demonstrations in handling arms and heavy guns will be held east of the fieldhouse Friday afternoon from 1 until 2.

To Elect Board, Pass On Activity Fee Shift

Election of members of the newly created board of music is scheduled for Wednesday, May 29, from 11 a. m. to 5 p. m. in the registrar's office, announces Margaret Calhoun, commissioner of elections.

Candidates who had filed before the deadline Tuesday midnight were Betty Critchfield for commissioner of music; Paul Middaugh and Harold Lund for two-year member of the board of music; Lorine Ladwig for one-year member of the board of music. In addition to naming members to the board of music, voters will approve or disapprove the proposed redistribution of the 30 cent health fee. (Students now pay $1 per term for health service.) The proposed reappointment will allot 23 cents to YMCA and YWCA; four cents for chorus work and three cents to the band.

Espy Guest Speaker At Youth Rally Tues.

Edwin Espy, secretary of the Amsterdam, Holland, youth conference, who was a member of the speakers' team during the Religion and Life conference last February, will reappear in Fargo at a "giant" youth rally Tuesday in the tourist park. Each of the young peoples groups of Fargo and Moorhead will meet at the individual churches at 5:30 p. m. From there they will be transported to the park, where a 15 cent picnic lunch will be served. Recreation will also be provided.

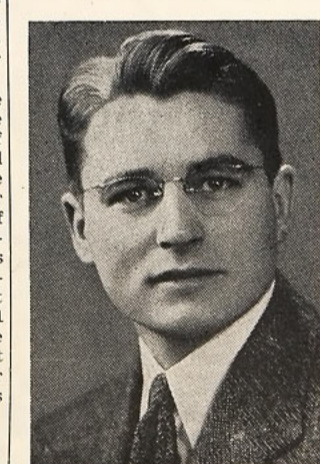

Set Distribution Days For 1940 Bison

Dr. H. L. Bolley and Dr. C. P. Waldron, who have completed 50 years of service to NDAC, will be honored by the Bison staff who have dedicated the 1940 edition of the yearbook to them.

Featuring colored pages and congratulatory messages from President Franklin Roosevelt, Secretary of Agriculture Henry Wallace, and Governor John Moses, the book will be distributed on the afternoons of May 29 and 31. Every 50th student will receive a gold-edged copy.

A circulation drive among the faculty will be launched soon. Students who have not been in residence for three full terms may have their books by paying the balance not covered by their activity fees.

Elected By ISA

LAWRENCE LANGE, sophomore in agriculture was named president of the Independents Students association at a recent meeting.

NOTICE

The student commission will pay $5 for a theme and slogan for the fall homecoming celebration. Entries must be in by 4 o'clock Wednesday and the commission reserves the right to reject any or all entries submitted.

let God save the king!

The first week of war in the low countries has also been a week of blitzkrieg in America. Roosevelt has thrust all caution aside in a series of lightning moves to mobilize the forces of two continents for war.

The famous Rooseveltian oratory proclaimed again that, "I HATE WAR!" But it must be noted that the equipment he asked for was attack equipment, attack bombing planes, not anti-aircraft guns or coastal defense weapons.

The Washington bureaucracy tells us that England and France are fighting America's war for us, that we must plan to take our part in the Democracy-vs-Dictatorship war. But this is not a war to save Democracy!

Let Europe work out its own salvation to the end! Let's starve the war and feed America! If England must be saved; the Tommies will have to do it!

—SID. A. JOHNSON, CHARLES L. CADIEUX.

Sunrise Serenade OR, Get Out of My Boudoir! OR, A Social Experiment

Don (Brawn and Brains) Johnston is without a friend. Not that he isn't one of the Don nicest guys hanging out at the OX frat shack, BUT, how would you like to be wakened at 5:30 in the a. m. with Johnston's grinning puss suspended over your almost inanimate form?

Then, across the prairies came the faithful Gamma Phis—bags under their eyes from lack of sleep—knapsacks. Not that they feared to be deprived of breakfast by house-mother Johnston, but who's taking chances at 5:30 in the morning!

AND THAT GRUB!! Mine woigest enemy shouldn't hev it! To start with, two-thirds of those present were Catholics, which eliminated ham from the menu with the efficiency of a 1933 AAA official.

In fact, when Ma Johnston asked Jane Blair if he should open the other egg, she replied yolkingly, "Naw, open the window!"

From data gathered at this affair, we draw the following conclusions:

- 1. Fraternity men are not at their best at 5:30 in the morning, either. 2. Sorority women are not at their best at 5:30 in the morning, too. 3. The early worm gets the bird at 5:30 in the morning, also. Gee, it was fun.

is this civilization?

Who is "civilized" today? Are the warring nations to be called "civilized" or were the cannibals the "civilized" people?

The cannibals of the jungles had very simple solutions for most of their problems. They ate each other when the population became too large. They cast off the weak and infirm, and roamed from place to place hunting and fishing where they could satisfy their needs.

The remark has often been made that it is the old men who make wars for the young men to fight for them. Therefore, we have a society of people where the young and ambitious must be sacrificed to the weak and infirm. Youth today will not be served, but must serve those whose period of usefulness has come to an end.

At the present time when the population of a country increases so much that the productivity of the land falls below the needs of the people, then the population sees fit to rob and plunder the lands adjacent to it.

Who are those that go to war? Are they the aged and undesirables of the nations? Not at all. They are the coming generation of scientists, explorers, teachers, and historians.

Nations of the world today are in the throes of nationalism. People are led to believe by the tongues of orators that their nationality is the best, that their race should dominate the world.

Can it be that our so-called "civilization" fails to understand the problems of harmonious living? Is this the basic reason, or are we uncivilized? —A. S. H.

Peek At The Greeks

I feel just about as funny right at the moment as an open grave. Oh yes, and what with Lilac day being today, I suppose we should all be tripping around spreading a little sunshine. Well, here goes—this is your little C. C. and I don't mean caustic companion, cheerful cherub to you, dopes.

Shall we start with those lovely institutions commonly called Fraternities? All right! The Kappa Psi's held their spring formal Friday night in Memorial hall in Moorhead. The chaperones were the Goodwins and the Detroitis. The Sigma Phi Deltas are having an informal picnic on Wednesday, May 22.

Quiet, girls. I haven't forgotten you. We'll begin right now. The KKG's really cleaned up this week on the candy deal. They even drug in Shirley Janke from MSTC, Sony Olson's newly betrothed.

The Alpha Gamma Deltas held a breakfast Sunday in the Graver hotel in honor of all the graduating seniors. Afterwards the whole group attended the Presbyterian church. The seniors were also entertained by the alumnae at a picnic supper Monday evening. Actives and pledges were guests when the patronesses entertained in the recreation room of the Fargo Forum. Goodness, dearies, when do you get time to sleep? Isn't this social life just too, too exhausting! And guess what! They're being entertained by the Gamma Rhos' this coming Friday. Oh goody.

The KD's pledged Maxine Cripe and Grace Gettman Monday night. They were entertained by the Kappa Sigma Chis' last Wednesday. The Spring Formal will be held at the Fargo Country club, Friday night. The Detroitis and Goodwins are chaperoning—again. Mavis Jensen, Margaret Hellander and Andrey Haugen are entertaining the chapter at a house party at their cottages this week-end.

This social whirl has exhausted me. Note: We sat for eight hours without twitching a muscle to get a Peek at the Greeks. What happened? They pulled the shade.

Seriously, though, original plans for this column included portraits of two bona fide immigrants from Socrates' old home town; namely, Fat Burns and Alice Grease, lately of Lard Lake. However, the advertising policy of the Spectrum (and I'm glaring at you, Bill Borderud), prevented this aesthetic treat.

"THE BIRTH OF A NATION" Greatest Picture Ever Made

Student Opinion

Dear Editor: Laboring under the misapprehension that everything good should at one time or another come to light, the Dormitory belatedly unveils its dark-horse Model Man, Roland J. Peffer.

This uncut diamond, this priceless by-product of the Enderlin sand dunes, is in daily—yes, hourly—danger of being dragged off by the hair, Amazon fashion, by his countless feminine admirers! A million industrious young woodpeckers on as many tin roofs would not drown the sound of the famine hearts that beat for this unsung Beau Brummel.

The trill of his voice is a musical bouquet, distilled and kept on tap, to be offered to those varied personifications of tender (?) femininity that are attracted to him as flies to a cracked syrup pitcher.

Girls—don't allow our corrupt political system to rule your hearts as well as your heads. Godman's OK, but rather elementary in technique. Pitted against Cupid's best friend (Roland J. Peffer) "Orv" is just so much dishwater. Rise! Demand a recount, a revote, a rehabilitation, a revamp or something!

Yehudi Selects Suckless Senior Slobs

About this time of the year the boys who think they should be representative seniors, and are afraid they won't be, usually write a sour grape preview of the representative senior possibilities. This year we intend to beat them to it and forecast them ourselves.

Most likely to suckless is Art Lahum. Art is a boy with lots of personal charm—he could shoot President Neverskull on the Old Main steps and the populace would merely chuckle, "Exuberance of youth!" Lahum also smiles prettily and is a killer-diller at the Crystal Ballroom.

Kenny Archer will also probably be ONE. He works in the bookstore, missed being cadet Kernel by a mere slurp, and knows the cutest high school girls.

Myrle Anderson is "one" too. He's an S. A. E. He also has a knack for making money. He should be in either the carnival or poultry racket, he makes money by fair means or foul.

Roger Toussaint came up the hard way. He started in with a modest beginning by showing a sow in the Little International, and this year he brought one. From the first year he graduated to ticket salesman of the Barn Dance and from then on he just jumped from pile to pile, higher and higher until now he is on top of the HEAP.

Kenny Erickson is the other Grabba Ho candidate, only he's nice. Kenny is one of the guiding lights of the YMCA, he starts the fraternity songs after dinner, is a member of Phew Key, goes to Sunday school, leads a clean wholesome life, and is nice to his mother.

Sport Speculations

By SAM TOLCHINSKY

If anyone had any doubts about the power of that vaunted track team from Iowa State Teachers they need not worry any more. The conference track meet has come and gone and the Tutors exhibited the most powerful outfit ever to enter a conference meet.

A team of that sort is just what this conference has needed for a long time. The North Central Intercollegiate conference has never rated really high in track as far as the nation is concerned. There have been a few stars, such as the University's Fritz Pollard, who won worldwide fame but on the whole the conference track meet is unnoticed by the sports world.

But with a powerful team like that in one of the schools the other members of the conference are going to build up to that standard. In baseball they didn't tear the Yanks apart but simply built better teams with which to beat them. It took several years but this year it might be done.

And so it will be in track. The Tutors will unquestionably be on top of the heap for the next few years but after that they are liable to be spilled.

Just take the AC for example. Four years ago we had nothing at all. But last year we won second in the conference and this year fourth. We lose by graduation but we have freshmen to fill the gaps. Track will not die at the AC because several of the men are gone.

The same way in other schools. The University almost always has a good team. This year was their worst in a decade. Of course they have never been as good as Iowa is now but they are sports minded enough up there to try to build to Iowa's standard. It just wouldn't surprise me a bit to find in less than five years that the NCI conference meet is one of the nation's top track meets.

Before we leave the subject of track we would like to say that the Tutors do not have a single senior on their varsity track team. They are all back next year. In addition they have eight freshmen who showed their ability to compete on the varsity team, during an intraschool meet at the Iowa school.

BOWLING TROPHIES

The first year's competition in intramural bowling is now completed and the Theta Chis are champs. Members of the team were Gordon Gray, Larry Tanberg, John Sundt, Chuck Follett, and John Glover.

Next year the competition may be handled by the athletic department as are all other intramural sports. Some of the members of the winning team wish that it had been this year. It seems that there will be no individual trophies for each bowler as they expected. Rather there are cups for first and second place and the rumor is that identical cups are to be given.

The impression as to prizes was that the winning team got a cup and the bowlers medals but that has gone with the wind.

GOLFERS COME THROUGH

An unexpected honor was dumped into the lap of NDAC by golfers Paulson and Gray. The two as a team won the conference championship. Paulson won the individual honors also.

A lot of credit for that interest in golf on this campus should go to Mel Hagen's tailoring shop. Hagen sponsored the team on a trip to Minnesota and C. C. Finnegan took it up from there.

Hagen also showed his interest in the school last fall when he was offering merchandise prizes for each touchdown scored by the Bison. It didn't cost him much last fall but he was willing to dish out a lot more if the Herd had earned them.

MORE TRACK

Jim Maxwell has been trying for three years to win a place in the discus. This year he won fourth in the javelin.

Incidentally Maxwell, Sheard and Tanberg all tossed the discus from five to six feet farther than the winning mark last year and still failed to qualify. That is just one indication how competition in the meet has improved.

TAPLETT VS. TANBERG

Bob Taplett, SDU athlete, entered the meet to win his ninth athletic monogram. He is South Dakota's best bet to beat Larry Tanberg for the award as outstanding conference athlete. By the way, Larry says Bob is a good friend of his and is a good fellow to have as a pal.

WHEELER STILL NEWS

Ernie Wheeler, the AC's ace terminator, is going back to Chicago this fall to take another crack at pro football. Cecil Schrank, co-captain of the Herd last fall, will be going up with him.

Wheeler has one of those unusual hobbies one reads about. When he is not working at his studies, or exterminating rats and cockroaches in some restaurant, he shines shoes. His fraternity brothers may be interested to know how well he enjoys that method of spending his spare time. You seldom have to ask him twice to give you a shine.

Softball Play To End With KSC vs. AGR

Doing a repeat performance this year, Kappa Sigma Chi and Alpha Gamma Rho meet on the Softball diamond early next week for a two out of three game series to determine who will be NDAC's intramural champs.

Last year the same teams met in the playoff with the Kappa Sigs nosing out the Gamma Rhos.

Again at the tops of their respective brackets in the 1940 season, the two squads have gone undefeated.

Both teams have veterans on their teams, the majority having played in the 1939 championship games.

Larson to Pitch

Pitching for the Gamma Rhos are Herman Larson and Morris Jorgenson. Larson pitched a no hitter against the Mechanical Engineers earlier this season.

The Kappa Sigs boast Cliff Nygard as their star chukker, with Kermit Hummel as backstop.

Harry Johnson, manager of the AGRs, will catch for the Gamma Rhos.

Two veterans will play first base for the two teams in the playoff. Herb Glaser is on first for the Kappa Sigs and Pete Pollock will do the honors for the Gamma Rhos.

Warren Golberg and Emerson Neumann and Sig Larson complete the infield playing 2nd base, short stop and third base, respectively, for the Kappa Sigs.

Kittler At Rover

Roger Toussaint covers the key-stone sack for the AGRs and Hollis Omodt at the hot corner with Harold Gordon at shortstop.

Playing the tough job of roving center for the two teams are Herb Kittler for the Gamma Rhos and Gordon Jacobson for the Kappa Sigs.

Deep in the outfield for the KSCs are Roger Kimber at left field, Kenneth Neumann in right field and Russell Hanson in center field.

Bison Golfers Take Conference Honors At Brookings Meet

Bud Paulson and Gordy Gray, NDAC's golf representatives, captured the NCI conference links championship at Brookings Saturday.

Paulson, shooting sensational golf, carded 149, one over par for 36 holes, to win individual honors.

Iowa State Teachers college was second in team play with a score of 331 against the 325 chalked up by the Bison. The Iowa Peds took the title last year on their own course with a 314.

Paulson shot a 77 and a 72, which is two under par 74.

Runnerup in the individual scoring was Hughes of Morningside with Orville Bergren of NDU third.

Gordy Gray, the other member of the Bison team, substituted for Walt Maddock who was unable to attend. Gray made the trip at the last moment to accompany the AC track and golf squads.

This is the second year that Paulson has won the conference scoring honors. An added coincidence is that he shot the same score on the Brookings course this year as he carded on the ISTC links in the '39 conference match.

District High School Meet To Be At NDAC

NDAC will be host to district high school track teams next Saturday as young track stars attempt to qualify for the state high school meet to be held in Bismarck next week.

C. C. Finnegan, AC athletic director, will be director of the district meet.

Winners of first and second in every event will be eligible to compete in the championship meet.

Smith To Lose Three Men At Term's End

Only three men will be lost to the AC track team by graduation this spring. Bernie Bermann, captain, Vern Johnson and Jim Maxwell are those who concluded their competition last weekend.

Bermann has been the outstanding track man in school for the past few years. He holds the conference record for the 440 yard run. His mark of 49.5 was set two years ago. In addition he has run on the mile relay team, broad jumped, and run the dashes. His home town is Pelican Rapids, Minn.

Vern Johnson has run the 440, 880 and mile for the Bison. He also has been a member of the mile relay team. He comes from Pembina.

Jim Maxwell, Grafton, has thrown the discus and javelin for the Herd for three years.

Members of the team who are returning next year are Larry Tanberg, Bob Sheard, Terry Carey, Bill Herm and Cliff Nygard.

ISTC Captures NCI Track Championship

Johnny Smith's Bison track team garnered 16 points Saturday to come in fourth in the conference cinder meet held in Brookings.

Iowa State Teacher's college again dominated the field piling up 72 1-2 points to defend successfully their title won in 1939.

Omaha was a poor second with South Dakota State 4 1-2 points behind.

NDAC placed in the 880 yard run, the pole vault and high jump, the 440, the mile relay and the javelin throw.

Larry Tanberg tied for second and third with Taplett of SDU in the pole vault and in the high jump again with Taplett and Billington of SDS for second.

Chink Johnson captured a third in the 880, which was won by Jones of ISTC. Bernie Bermann, captain of the Herd, was second in the 440.

NDAC's ace mile relay team of Terry Carey, Bill Herm, Johnson and Bermann garnered more points with a second in that event.

Bob Sheard and Jim Maxwell captured points for the Bison taking second and fourth respectively in the javelin.

Phi Kappa Phi Holds Annual Honor Day Convo Wednesday

Phi Kappa Phi annual Honor Day convocation was held Wednesday, May 22 in Festival Hall with Miss Ruby Grimes, the secretary of the fraternity, in general charge.

Preceding the presentation of 1940 seniors elected to Phi Kappa Phi, President Frank Eversull spoke briefly as to the purpose of the organization. Fall elections named Harry Woll, Lorraine Naftalin, Elmo Larson, Herman Braasch, Henry V. Johnson, Lloyd Nygard, Josephine Biever, Garmond Schurr, Montel Vander Horck, Arthur H. Hewitt, Reidar Rasmussen, Roger Toussaint, Beryl Burkee and Milton Ericson.

Winter Term Elections

Winter term elections were as follows: Mrs. F. L. Eversull, Loren Potter, Helen Restvedt, Helen Louise Sletvold, Tupper Howden and Sam Tolchinsky.

In the spring elections Norman Akessen, Barnard Volkerding, Marjorie Handy, Stanley Hale, Jean Chase and Mary Beth Lewis were chosen. A faculty membership was awarded Dr. Eversull.

Following the senior presentation Miss Grimes then named the five freshmen, five sophomore and five juniors who have achieved the highest scholastic averages in their respective classes. Freshman presented were William Narum, Hiram Fuller, Mavis Nymon, Hilma Anderson, and tied for fifth place were Carl Sebens and Raleigh Willens.

Name Sophomores

Top-ranking sophomores were Robert Coon, Thomas Anderson, Reuben Gerlitz, Clark Heggeness and

YMCA Cabinets Plan Next Year's Program

Eighteen members of the YMCA junior and senior cabinets held a program planning retreat at the Otterson cottage on West Cormorant Saturday and Sunday. The YMCA purposes and program for 1940-41 were discussed and outlined at sessions; the remainder of the time was spent in recreation.

Those attending were Neal McClure, Kenneth Erickson, Mel Evanson, Everett Tool, Ivan Johnson, Morris Broschat, Albert Geiszler, Morris Jorgenson, Clark Heggeness, Adolph Winther, Ray Michel, Paul Weiser, Jim Ford, Bud Chase, Pat Henry, Dick Sweitzer, Prof. R. Otterson, and Dr. W. C. Hunter.

John Snowberg. Juniors named were Jane Blair, Elinor Johnson, Raymond Novak, James Smith and Raymond Boone.

Presentation of the Phi Kappa Phi award to the most outstanding senior was made to Marjorie Handy, senior in home economics, by Mr. W. L. Stockwell.

The local chapter has also recommended Harry Woll, senior in electrical engineering, for the national Phi Kappa Phi scholarship award.

Initiation of new members took place Wednesday evening at 6:30 P. M. in the Graver Hotel with a dinner following. Professor Abbott of the chemistry department of the University of North Dakota was the dinner speaker.

Ceres Hall Girls Have Annual Formal Banquet

Residents of Ceres hall had their annual formal spring banquet yesterday. Special guests were Mrs. F. L. Eversull, Dean Pearl Dinan, Maida Hewitt, and Mrs. Mildred Kirst, advisor of the group.

Recognition was given to senior girls who have lived in the dormitory from three to four years. In charge of the meal for which the first course was served in the parlors and subsequent dishes in the cafeteria, was LaVerne Knudtson, president of the Ceres Hall club.

GODMAN NEW MODEL MAN

Orvil Godman, Churches Ferry senior, and member of Alpha Gamma Rho, is now holder of the coveted title of Model Man of NDAC. Elected at the Spinster Skip held last Friday, Godman received a cash gift donated by deLendrecie's department store.

Bob MacDougall and his orchestra furnished the music for the affair.

INDEPENDENTS ELECT

Officers elected by the Independent Students association for next year include Lawrence Lange, president; Bill Freeman, vice president; June Forsgren, secretary; Gordon D. Anderson, treasurer, and Dorothy Freeman, historian.

Lange will succeed Roland Pepper as president.

Danforth Scholarship In Home Ec Given To Jean Halbeisen

Jean Halbeisen, junior in home economics, has been awarded a Danforth Foundation fellowship similar to that given to Joseph Kufner in agriculture.

Miss Halbeisen will be given the opportunity to spend two weeks in St. Louis observing various industrial activities ther. Included in the fellowship given by William H. Danforth is a two-week sojourn at the American Youth Foundation camp near Shelby, Mich. At this camp and in St. Louis, Miss Halbeisen hopes to further her interest in personnel work.

She is president of Phi Omega Pi, a member of the YWCA cabinet, and a member of Phi Upsilon Omicron. M1h

Council Gives Dance To Pledges, Initiates

The inter-fraternity pledge council dance in Festival hall Saturday night at nine o'clock is being arranged by Harold Crosby.

This party is given by the pledge council for all pledges and spring initiates, and there will be no admission charged.

The only requirements for admission will be a date and informal dress (no formality wanted). Refreshments will be furnished by the council, and no upper-classmen are wanted or needed.

Hiram Fuller and Verne Hook are assisting Crosby in the preparation for this function.

JOINS ILLINOIS STAFF

Lyle Phillips, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Phillips of Fargo and a 1932 NDAC graduate, will join the staff of the University of Illinois, Urbana, Ill., in September where he will be in charge of the physics section of the university's new curriculum in science survey.

Phillips was awarded the doctor of philosophy degree by the University of Illinois a year ago and has been an instructor at the University of Chicago this year, according to Dr. C. L. Swisher, chairman of the NDAC physics department.

Health Center Finished; Plan Fall Dedication

Equipment of the college health center was moved into the new clinic building Saturday upon completion of all the interior except the basement. About a month's work remains on the building, which will be dedicated when school opens in the fall.

Miss Maida Hewitt, college nurse, Saturday began selecting furniture for her apartment in the building, where also are accommodations for an additional nurse and a doctor's office. In other rooms are beds for 20 patients, a kitchen and a dispensary.

An arrangement is being made with local hospitals to have student nurses on duty as assistants to Miss Hewitt. Doctors will be from the Hanna, Clay and Lancaster clinic.

The clinic was built at a cost of about $25,000, taken partly from WPA funds and the 15-year accumulation of health fees. Since the last fall term, students have been contributing $1 each term to the health fund.

The clinic's interior is finished in natural wood with upper walls and ceiling in soft colors. Glass brick is used in some walls and most rooms are air-conditioned.

F. W. Christensen is chairman of the health committee, which includes Ford Daugherty, Marguerite Lehmann, Dr. C. I. Nelson, Dr. M. E. Griffith, E. T. Smith, John Smith and W. F. Sudro.

Work On Lab Advances

Work is progressing on the addition to the engineering laboratory facilities, the building being erected just north of the mechanics arts building.

The annex is to have concrete roof, walls, and floors, and will be completely fireproof. It is to be used as an internal combustion laboratory. After its completion, the building will be veneered with brick to blend with other campus buildings.

During the summer, the work will be carried on by engineering students employed by the NYA. This work will constitute a special engineering summer school for these students.

OPPORTUNITIES

Opportunities are of value only to those who are prepared to make use of them. The business world offers more opportunities to trained workers than all other lines of work put together.

If interested in a course in business training, call at the office or write for catalog.
