State Officer Addresses Co-op Group

Stresses Importance Of Organized Agriculture At Meeting Tuesday

By BILL NARUM

A talk by Richard C. Joyce, state secretary of the North Dakota Farmer's Union, featured the fall organization meeting of the NDAC local, Tuesday evening, September 26, at the Little Country Theatre.

"The fact that farm families were dependent on Farm Security grants this past winter is a definite indication of a serious farm problem," Joyce told his hearers, about 100. "The Farmer's Union in its constructive program appeals to reason and can grow only as fast as farmers understand the necessity of organized agriculture."

Membership Campaign

Plans of the local union for the year include a membership campaign, opening shot of which was fired this week. Operating in conjunction with Cass county union officials, the union is anticipating 1,000 paid-up members in the county. Present membership is 450.

The Farmer's Union local was first organized at NDAC five years ago with five members. This fall, student membership is expected to reach at least 50, according to Raymond Novak, AC local chairman.

Open to All Students

Although membership is primarily restricted to active farmers, all students at colleges where a union is established are eligible. A head-quarter's union, one such located at NDAC, accommodates all men and women not actively engaged in farming.

The AC union also intends to send delegates to the state convention at Jamestown, October 11-14, 1939.

Other officers for the year besides Novak are: Hank Richardson, vice-chairman; and Agnes Brogger, secretary-treasurer.

8 Home Ec. Students In Practice House

Eight current occupants of the home management house are getting an advance taste of the feminine art of homemaking. Worshipping at the shrine of the great god Washing Machine at 4:30 of a Monday morning and tending to other housewifely duties are Helen Pederson, Beryl Burkie, Ceata Emch, Evelyn Harris, Daisy Wadson, Ruth Kirk, Marjorie Handy and Alta Reynolds.

Miss Elsie Nielson of the home economics faculty is a permanent resident of the house. Six weeks in the house is required for graduation in certain home economics curricula.

Authoress Ida M. Tarbell is conducting a special course on biography writing at Allegheny College.

Spectrum Assists In National Poll

Desiring to immediately find out what students all over the United States think about current war and peace issues, the California Daily Bruin, UCLA newspaper is sending out a questionnaire. The Spectrum is one of 500 college newspapers to which this questionnaire has been sent, and believing student opinion can influence public thought, is co-operating in putting the project across.

On the bottom of this page will be found the questionnaire. Clip it out, answer yes or no to the questions and drop into the ballot box in Science Hall. Do this today. Congress is now in session, so speed is essential.

As soon as the results from all over the country are tabulated, they will be published in The Spectrum.

New Faces Greet Students At Dugout, Cafeteria

Students who make a habit of frequenting the various drink and dine establishments on the campus have been greeted by some new scenery in their old haunts. Over at the Y Dugout besides a new stove and sandwich counter there are the bright faces of freshmen soda jerkers.

Girls who have been scared out of eating out of strange dishes by bacteriology profs won't have to worry long; for, according to Mrs. L. W. Roen, manager of the Ceres Hall cafeteria, the new steam dish washer will really get the dishes clean.

Hank Ouradnik, new man at the Dugout, claims to be the ladies' choice for the best looking purveyor of food on the campus. He owes his claim largely to his dimples, according to Barney Hutchens, who, together with "Bunky" Wintner, manages the hangout.

Other new men at the counter in the Y are Ardell Liudahl, Alex Ford, Bob Yeasley, Lewis Doyle, and Ardell Aanderud. Old men at the establishment, besides Hutchens and Wintner, are Al Geiszler, Orville Monroe, Sammy Starbuck, Andy Peterson, Arnie Seim, Bill Pepple, Bud Erickson, Dan Dobervich, and Joe Kojancik.

"Up to this time business conditions are better than last year," says Hutchens.

Forty students as well as five full time employees are maintained at the college cafeteria. Mrs. A. K. Algeo, head cook, and Mrs. Tillie Burdick, pastry cook, are old hands. New faces in the kitchen are Lillian Holm, who has charge of the dining room, Lydia Boelter, salad cook, and Julia Dexheimer, second cook.

The first graduate school of cinematography will be opened at the University of Southern California in 1940.

Judging Team Shows Well In Iowa Event

Places Fourth In Dairy Cattle; Second In Horses At National Show

Two livestock judging teams composed of advanced students in Animal Husbandry made outstanding showings at the National Belgian Show and The National Dairy Congress held in Waterloo, Iowa this week.

The dairy judging team accompanied by J. R. Dice, coach and chairman of the NDAC department of dairy husbandry and composed of Allen Fisk, Kenneth Ford, Carl Hanson, and George Strum placed fourth in the dairy judging contest. In all breeds Ford was eighth high man. He placed second in Brown Swiss while Strum was second in Ayrshires.

In view of the fact that there were thirteen teams entered in the contest representing some of the best schools in the middle west this showing is a commendable one. Top team in the contest was Wisconsin followed by Illinois and Purdue.

The livestock judging team coached by F. C. Daugherty placed second in the horse judging contest held in connection with the National Belgian show. Gordon Anderson, Stanley Bale, Lloyd Nygaard, David Robinson, and Roger Toussaint comprised the team. Bale, a senior, was second high man in the entire contest with a total of 409 points out of a possible 450. He was nosed out of the first place position by a single point. A team representing Iowa State College placed first with 1936 points followed by NDAC with 1904.

A team representing the college will compete at shows to be held at Kansas City and Chicago later this fall.

Dahl Named SAE Province Secretary

Darrell Dahl, alumnus adviser of North Dakota Beta chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, has been appointed alumnus secretary of Province Mu of the fraternity, according to a letter received from Province Archon Charles Barker of Chicago.

Dahl's duties will consist chiefly of stimulating interest in and bringing the alumni chapters in closer contact with the active chapters. He will supervise alumni relations in chapters in North Dakota, Minnesota, Illinois and Wisconsin.

Dahl was a member of the local chapter for three years before transferring to UND where he was affiliated with the North Dakota Alpha chapter, graduating in 1936.

YMCA Will Begin Annual Dancing Classes Tuesday

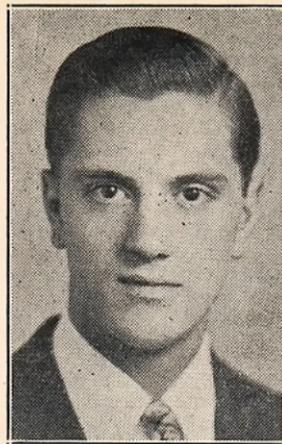

A YMCA membership card and a pair of willing feet are the only requirements for entrance to the sixth annual series of YMCA dancing classes which will begin Wednesday, Oct. 4 at 7:30 in the Y auditorium with Barney Hutchens and Paul Rowe in charge.

Miss Dixie Farrell, who has taught these lessons for the past five years will again act as instructor. At least five lessons are planned, the first three of which will be devoted entirely to rudimentary steps. All girls will be welcome as partners are always in demand.

Membership cards are available to all men who have not yet joined the Y.

YW STARTS DRIVE

Blue feathers will be given to all new members of the YWCA during their annual membership drive, which begins next Wednesday. Muriel Rockne and Nelita Dyer are in charge, assisted by sorority representatives, who will be Vernafay Thysell, Gamma Phi Beta; Nora Johnson, Kappa Delta; Kathleen Benson, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Betty Olson, Phi Mu; Clarice Lee, Phi Omega Pi; Muriel Rockne, Alpha Gamma Delta. Hazel Isaak, Margaret Fairley and the sophomore commission will canvass independent women.

RICHARD SWEITZER, who as executive secretary of the YMCA, is currently turning all his energies to the annual membership drive.

Alumni Review Ready Soon

Marking the first time an alumni magazine has been published since 1931, the NDAC Alumni Review will be off the presses and in the mail by Monday, according to John Lynch, managing editor. It will be published quarterly and will be sent to all alumni and former students of NDAC.

Featured in the first issue will be an article by Mrs. Warren Covert, telling about her experiences at Heidelberg University last summer. Robert Connolly, '34, editor of The Spectrum in 1932-33, writes an article concerning his work as a member of the fingerprinting division of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Along with general news of alumni and former students will be additional articles by E. V. Ladd, '22, paint chemist, and Leonard Rygg, '29, who has been doing research work on tropical fruits.

Lynch has asked any alumni or former students, who do not receive a copy of the first issue, to contact the Alumni and Former Students Association.

Junior Cadets Are Promoted

Announcement was made this week by Lt. Col. J. R. Mendenhall that 47 junior students had been accepted into the advanced class of the ROTC unit. These appointments are based on scholarship in the classroom as well as military promise and bearing.

In regimental headquarters, Judd Monson and Edward Cummings were appointed master-sergeants with David Brown and Hubert Sweeney staff-sergeants.

Staff-sergeants in the first and second battalions include Donald Sherman and Dan Dobervich. All men mentioned thus far have the rank of sergeant-major.

First sergeants for the various companies include Graydon Fredrickson, A company; Helmut Froeschle, B company; William Cathcart, C company; Melvin Wisehart, D company; Norbert Biewer, E company; William Ames, F company.

Sergeants in the second battalion are Howard Olson, Ira McDonald, Richard Knapp, Gordon Milbrath, Fred Thompson, Orville Monroe, James Kjelland, Norman Nelson, Clarence Johnson, Harvey Stangler, Paul Rice, Charles Wattam, Charles Fish, Ronald Hocking, William Tiltonson, Glen Waller, Kemble Davis, and Curtis Moland.

In addition to these promotions, 62 sophomores were given the rank of corporal.

In order to receive a commission in the reserves, these juniors will have to attend six weeks of summer camp at Fort Snelling between their junior and senior years.

Lutheran Students Lead All Other Denominations

Lutheran students at NDAC far outnumber those of any other denomination, according to figures compiled from cards filed during registration and released by A. H. Parrott, registrar. As of noon on Thursday, when the registration total was at 1688, there were 612 Lutherans, 242 Methodists, 223 Catholics, and 206 Presbyterians. Congregational, Episcopal, Baptist, Evangelical, Christian Science and Hebrew trailed with from 109 to 15 listed for those. Nine are Christian, Seventh Day Adventist or Latter Day Saints. About 90 indicated no church.

Registration moved up slowly through the week, to reach a total of 1693 late yesterday. The classification according to divisions and classes follows:

Agriculture	406
Chemical Technology	110
Education	64
Home Economics	321
Engineering	312
Pharmacy	90
Arts, Sciences	390
Seniors	311
Juniors	355
Sophomores	370

Booster Head Says 30 Positions Found

The campaign conducted by the Bison Boosters and the retail section of the Chamber of Commerce to find jobs for NDAC students has unearthed 30 part-time positions so far, according to Paul Person, Boosters president.

More than half have been turned over to the college placement bureau, which is managed by Mrs. Matthew Murphy, Person said. Other jobs will be turned over to the college employment office soon, he said. Before the end of the drive, which began last Monday, about 50 jobs are expected to be found, representatives of the organizations declared.

Groundwork for NDAC's homecoming October 14 has already been laid, according to Art Lahlum, student commission president, who expects heavy work to begin after formal pledging ceremonies Sunday put a finish to fraternity and sorority rushing. He said many members of the student commission and others whose help will be needed for the homecoming preparations are pre-occupied with rushing, but that there has been no serious delay.

Members of the commission who will assist Lahlum are Lee Taylor, campus decorations; John Lynch, publicity; Lorraine Fitjar, pep rallies; Kenneth Erickson, football program; Helen Restvedt, dance; Margaret Calhoun, house decorations; Larry Tanberg, floats; Muriel Schroeder, finance. Helen Stokke, alumni secretary, Sgt. R. D. White and Gilmore Schjeldahl are also on the committee in charge.

A changeable sign over the campus gate, a feature new last year, will be improved this year by the use of theater letters. Captions will be changed nightly.

In general, the program will be much the same as in previous years, Lahlum said, with only a few tentative changes in scheduling. The homecoming queen's dinner will be served on Friday evening, followed by the dance and bonfire. On Saturday, the parade will occupy the morning, with possibly a freshman football game in the afternoon and the South Dakota State-Bison game in the evening. Trophies will be awarded during the half-period.

Loving cups will be given for first and second prizes in fraternity and sorority floats, with one prize each for float sweepstakes, departmental floats, and independent floats, and plaques for fraternity and sorority first prize winners in house decorations.

Students Have Pleasant Memories Of Vacation

Summer, the time when college students have the chance to see and do the things which they have long wished to do, has come and gone. All that remains to remind one of those glorious months are the memories that he can mull over in his mind—especially during classes. Girls have always been accused of being affected, but it's really the boys who have nonchalantly acquired the accents this time. One frequently meets up with one who tries casually to pull the "last summah" this and "last summah" that. Ronnie Hocking, that old swingeroo, just back from Virginia seems to be behaving quite naturally though. Ronnie not only saw but also heard Ray Noble and his dance band while avisting.

As far as Paul Whiteman goes, Barbara Black says she'll string along with Herbie Kaye. During her summer travels she saw both of them but declares up and down that Herbie can outswing Paul any day.

Sees Breakfast Club

Indiana, habitat of the American Indian, was as far east as Jane Blair got. Indian baskets and blankets, according to Jane, hold a place of their own in this country—especially those made right in Indiana. After telling the people there all about our cold weather and shootin' cowboys, she stopped in at Chicago to see John Barrymore's stage show, "Yes My Dear Children," as well as a broadcast of the Breakfast Club.

Here's one on Mason Arvold and his father. A certain NDAC student, who happened to be in Schenectady, N. Y., picked up a program booklet for the stage show "Romance" starring Cornelia Otis Skinner, which was playing in that city. On the very first page of the booklet, distinguished visitors to the theater were listed, and not among the least of them was A. G. Arvold. Incidentally, his cognomen was placed right smack next to that of Alexander Woolcott, noted critic and journalist. Mason Arvold, Little Country Theater Junior, had his name listed with the student apprentices of the stage.

Long, Hard Summer

While scouting around in the basement of a well known department store in downtown Fargo, your reporter came upon Ralph Martin and Theo Hanson hovering over the ribbon counter. It evidently had been a long, hard summer for these two boys, for after being questioned about their vacations they decided that the only person worth even mentioning that they had seen was the under-secretary of agriculture. When and where this event took place just wasn't found out.

Spending much time in San Francisco eating karmy-korn and watching Sally Rand was Bill Guy of Amenia. He also comes forth with the statement that Artie Shaw satisfied him just plenty.

Taken all in all, it seems that the ace bandmasters of the day were the chief attractions to but a few of the many students who went away on trips this past summer. Doubtlessly if others had been questioned there would have been reports on big league baseball games, more stage productions, and of course of course of course more dance bands.

A WARNING

Under the new regulation passed last spring, all advertising solicitors must have credentials from the Board of Publications in order to sell ads.

This ruling is in effect to prevent individuals from going out on their own hook and selling ads for "give-away" folders. Anyone reported doing so, will be punished by the Board of Publications.

Art Staff Adds New Instructor

Miss Winifred Washburn of Milwaukee, Wis., has joined the staff of the NDAC art department as an instructor in costume designing, freshman fundamentals in art, interior decorating and lettering, according to an announcement received from Miss Ann Brown, head of the department.

Miss Washburn was formerly on the faculty of Michigan State Teachers college, the Layton Art School, Milwaukee, and the Rhode Island School of Design at Providence, Rhode Island.

INDEPENDENTS MEET

Meeting 100 strong, the independent Students Association, under the gavel of President Roland Pfeffer, outlined a program for the year at a gathering in the YMCA gym Monday night.

The group decided to enter a float in the homecoming parade and to support membership in the YMCA and the YWCA. Dr. John P. Johansen and Francis G. Schoff were elected faculty advisers.

The Arkansas legislature has passed a law requiring all of the state's higher educational institutions to teach nature study and conservation.

The College Favorite by 2 to 1 GUARANTEED for LIFE

Not a clumsy metal object, but a fine precision instrument—a streamlined Featherweight, whose 14 K Gold Point glides nimbly across your paper, making your thoughts glow on the page like a living trail—that's the new Parker Vacumatic! Yet five devastating demonstrations prove that it lasts a lifetime, and also easily withstands acid that eats away a railroad spike—the same acid found in ordinary inks. Esquire Magazine rates it in their top-flight gift selections. And Jean

Parker VACUMATIC Pens $5 to $12.50 Pencils to Match $3.50 to $5.00 Pens marked with the Blue Diamond are guaranteed for the life of the owner against everything except loss or intentional damage, subject only to a charge of 35c for postage, insurance, and handling, provided complete pen is returned for service.

Abbey of Woman's Home Companion says: "Its sparkling, shimmering, laminated style of circles of Pearl and Jet is the loveliest I've ever laid my eyes on." It holds far more ink than ordinary rubber ink sac pens. For its sacless Diaphragm filler abolishes rubber sac, lever filler, and piston pump. Its Television barrel shows the level of ink—prevents running dry in classes or exams. Go and try it today—and be sure to look for the Blue Diamond mark on the smart ARROW clip—that means it's guaranteed for life! You'll never have to buy another pen. # Finnegan Not Cheerful Over Bison Chances With Maroons Tonight

Herd No Longer Ranks As Top Team In Conference After St. Thomas Defeat; Morningside Stronger Than In Former Years

Coach Casey Finnegan has indicated he is not at all pleased with the progress made by his gridiron charges during practice this week. He will predict neither a win nor a loss for the Bison as they open their 1939 conference schedule against an invading Morningside Maroon eleven tonight.

Pre-season crystal gazing ranked the Herd as the team to beat in the conference this year but after last week's foray the AC team no longer ranks on top but rather is given a 50-50 chance in all its games.

Morningside Stronger

Not much is known of Morningside except they are stronger this year than any year since they joined the North Central conference. Coach Sanderson admits it has been a long time since he has had a reliable reserve power. But this year he can start either a veteran team or a sophomore outfit with little difference in comparative strength.

After a week of drizzly weather the Herd will not be much improved over last week. But if they do not repeat the mistakes of the St. Thomas game the Herd should win by two touchdowns. Five o'clock classes have kept some of the boys from practices but extra work when they did report balances the score.

Kimblin Injured

Butch Kimblin's probable presence in a suit tonight is Casey's only bright spot after the headache that was St. Thomas. Kimblin will not see much action because of the injured flipper, but, injured though he is, he is still as good as any of them.

Kimblin

Starting for the Herd will be Co-captains Schrank and Johnson at the tackle slots with Reul Hovland and 'Rasputin' Bostow inside of them at the guard posts. Joe Kojancik, probably the best center in the conference, will be at the middle of the line. Jim Maxwell and Earl Marquardt are still the best ends for the Bison.

Same Backs

Sig Erickson, at left half, and Pom Hill as his running mate will alternate with Kimblin and Ed Peterick during the sixty minutes of play. Sturgeon, 220 lb. fullback, and Don Johnston, calling signals, will complete the backfield.

The game will be played at 8 p. m. tonight under the lights of Dacotah Field. Students are admitted by presenting their activity cards. Admission prices are 75 and 35 cents.

35 Freshmen Point For Sioux Game

With 35 promising young candidates out for the freshman football team, Coach Johnny Smith and able assistants, Ed Welles and Elmer Schrank, have been working on the future varsity team for almost two weeks in an effort to keep Smith's record of not losing a game to the Sioux frosh in three years intact.

"On the whole, the boys are green and need a lot of work to make them suitable contenders for varsity positions next year. There is plenty of natural ability in the group, but it is our job to iron out the rough spots and to polish the boys up for conference competition," said Smith in an interview yesterday.

Backfield men who have shown up well in the two weeks of practice are Gene Fuller and Jim Davis of Fargo, and Edsel Boe, fullback from Cooperstown.

The line candidates are headed by Harry Treglawney, 195-pound tackle from Valley City. Treglawney was an all-state man for three years in high school.

That the line will have plenty of beef is indicated by the presence of Lester Markusen, 225-pounder from Granville, and Sidney Sanderson of Sherwood, who packs 215 pounds on a 5-foot 11-inch frame. Two other linemen who have been doing fine work are Charles Scott and Quentin Tabbot, both of Pelican Rapids, Minn.

At present, Smith is lining up several practice scrimmages with Fargo High, Concordia, and MSTC reserves in order to find out just what the boys can do before tackling the Paipooses from the University. The first game with them is scheduled for the afternoon of the homecoming game October 14, with another to be played at Grand Forks on a later date.

TO VALLEY CITY SUNDAY

Representatives of the YWCA of NDAC will read a history of the college group at the North Dakota Religious Golden Jubilee observation on Sunday, October 1, at Valley City. Jean Halbeisen, author of the history, will attend, accompanied by Margaret Fairley and Hazel Isaak.

St. Thomas Turns Tables In Opener

Refusing to read the newspapers, a rugged little St. Thomas team out-charged the Bison to come out on top 15 to 0 in the opening struggle of the season here Friday.

Although the Tommies' forward wall was outweighed it continually beat the Bison line to the draw. Neither team made serious scoring threats during the first three quarters, but costly mistakes in the fourth period made the Bison realize they had the plow in the ground too deep.

Blocking was good for so early in the season and the Bison backfield showed up well. Peterick had little trouble in getting into the St. Thomas backfield to nail his men for losses. Sig Erickson and Pom Hill reeled off some nice runs. As for passing, the only aerial attack the Herd had was pre-game publicity. Covering passes is another point the Bison will have to iron out.

Butch Kimblin was placed on the injured list with a twisted elbow. The only other serious casualty of the game was a Tommie who submitted himself to Dr. Erickson's neck treatment.

Sport Speculations

By NORMAN OLSON

The Tommies proved they were no easy picking for anyone in their Minnesota conference. For a team which was outweighed 15 pounds to the man, they certainly put on an exhibition of not giving-up until the last minute of play was over and gone.

That was the greatest display of ball-hawking ever seen on Dacotah Field. They were playing a type of game which called for capitalizing on breaks. You will have to admit they took advantage of every opportunity offered them.

Ed Peterick certainly proved he hasn't lost anything from his year's absence. He is still the swivel-hipped will-of-the-wisp he always was.

While mentioning the all-conference greats of last year, last week, Tin Yan Jim On was left out. Don't you believe for a minute that he doesn't rank up there with the best of them.

Sturgeon never knew he was being labeled the 'baby-faced assassin' of the Herd until after the game. At the moment of his christening he had been deflated by a sudden meeting with the turf.

That call for an attempted field goal on the second down when the Tommies were on the Bison six yard line in the first half was a case of misunderstanding between the coach and the quarterback. The coach sent in a place-kicker. The quarterback thought he wanted him to try a kick right away. So he followed instructions and it went for naught. There was sufficient time for a couple of more plays disproving the theory that time was almost gone for the half.

We would like to take this opportunity to nominate Swede Johnson as the biggest equipment man or student manager in collegiate football today. Six feet, five inches of manhood (?) and every inch is filled with love, girls. Just ask Swede.

Ernie Wheeler, NDAC triple-threat halfback from last year, is doing a bit of all right with the Pittsburgh Pirates of the National Professional League. He is being groomed to take the place of Whizzer White, a $15,000 man from last year. They like our stuff here so well they have made an offer to Elmer Schrank. The Regina Roughriders of the Canadian Rugby League are after him too.
