

Panhellenic Group Awards Scholarships

Three tuition scholarships were awarded Monday when the Fargo-Moorhead Panhellenic Association held its tenth annual scholarship dinner in Ceres Hall.

The Irene Leimbacher Memorial Scholarship donated by Gamma Phi Beta was awarded by Mrs. Russel A. Sand to Mary Jean Mason, a transfer student from the University of North Dakota and a sophomore in Home Economics. Doris Solberg was the recipient of the College Panhellenic Scholarship, which was awarded by Marian Smith. Miss Christine Finlayson presented the City Panhellenic Scholarship to La Vaun Anderson. The last two girls are both juniors in Home Economics.

Toastmistress for the affair was Mrs. J. Roberts Haggart. The program included an address, "Music", by Mrs. John Alexander Jardine; musical numbers by the Gamma Phi Beta string trio with Julie Ann Reynolds, Margaret Calhoun, and Patricia Rasmussen; a vocal duet by June Lowe and Mary Mahlman of Phi Omega Pi; and a vocal trio by Helen Restvedt, Joan Hughes, and Elaine Matteson of Alpha Gamma Delta. There was group singing by the sororities with active chapters on the campus.

Following the banquet, City Panhellenic held its annual business meeting and election of officers.

Alpha Zeta Initiates Five

Alpha Zeta, honorary agricultural fraternity, initiated five new members at the Graver Hotel yesterday afternoon. They are John Campbell, Floyd Nygard, Stanley Bale, Emil Vallagher, and David Stewart.

Dr. O. O. Churchill was toastmaster. The speakers were Dr. Walster, dean of the school of agriculture; Sam Trzcinski, president of Alpha Zeta; Wm. Leary, Jim Gannaway, Ernest DeAlton, and T. E. Stoa, extension agronomist.

New member Vallagher spoke briefly on the reactions of the new members. Thirty-two attended the banquet.

Newly elected officers of the group are, besides Trzcinski: Neal Jensen, censor; Jim McGregor, secretary; Peter Nystuen, treasurer; Dave Ebeltoft, chronicler; Lyle Currie, guide.

Groups Go Ga-Ga Grooming Turtle Trotters For Handicap

The co-educational turtle race for discredited turtles jockeyed by unaccredited students, sponsored by Alpha Phi Gamma on All-College Day, will begin promptly at 3:15 in front of Old Main.

Turtles have been having daily workouts and several organizations feel their entrant is a sure winner. The latest odds direct from the Grand favor the Sigma Chi's, who will enter Haggie the third, daughter of that famous winner Haggie the second, who copped the cup a year ago. Successful trainer James Anderson will again inspire Haggie to win.

The Gamma Rho's and Theta Chi's have been having daily meets. Both

All the sorority entrants will run in one heat. Three preliminary races will precede the final heat of previous winners.

WILL LEAD JUNIOR-SENIOR BALL TONIGHT

Double Line Groomed For Junior-Senior Prom

Tonight youse guys and youse gals will follow the frivolous foursome shown above if you don't let that before-the-dance pickup last too long. The grand march starts at 10 bells and the line of 16 will march 'round and 'round until the Field House windows look like they're all connected. Then comes No. 1 on your formal program; and very nice souvenirs those programs will make, according to Miss Mercedes Morris of Wahpeton, who is smiling up at Jim Elwin of Wahpeton and wondering what makes his eyelids so droopy. But who wouldn't feel droopy after selling ads all week and wondering if the campus will be calling you Mr. Mercedes Morris next day ... for Merc is the first girl in NDSC to be named Senior ball manager. At the right is the strong and not so silent man from the ATO house, Glen Fake giving his molars an airing just because delicious Miss June Lowe of Kenmare, his guest, is putting that little added pressure on his arm which is calloused from signing checks at the fraternity house. If we had facilities the cut of the aforementioned Junior ball manager would resemble a carrot with a black square knot tied around one end. He's a Red. You'll just have to come out to the prom to see the real McFake. And by the way, if you just can't see your way to dragging a powder house fluff to the festivities there will be some spectator bleachers on the stage for about half a buck (refer to ad on page 3).

If Earl Father Hines and his flying fingers, Ida James and her flying tonisils and the other high-flying 14 pieces aren't worth 50 cents, or $150 per couple, we'll eat a clump of lilacs with mustard on it.

That brings us to lilacs. Just as sure as Don Hay is a rural sociologist and Ruth Piper plays in the band, there will be some very attractive lilac appointments. And you won't have to worry about being doused with lilac perfume. That only happens up at the LCT. But, like events at the LCT, this dance is also going to be colossal, splendid and titanic. Even the platform will be gigantic, reports Walter Ray Whitver, the mad stage designer.

And just to assure you that there will be a lot of nice people out, here are the honored guests we missed last week: Gov. and Mrs. William Langer, President and Mrs. John C. West, Mayor and Mrs. Fred O. Olsen, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Shepperd, Dean and Mrs. C. A. Severson, Dr. and Mrs. C. S. Putnam, Dean and Mrs. L. L. Carrick, Dean and Mrs. A. E. Minard, Dean and Mrs. W. F. Sudro, Dean and Mrs. H. L. Walster, Deans Pearl Dinan and Alice Haley, Prof. and Mrs. A. G. Arvold, Col. and Mrs. John D. Easton, Dr. and Mrs. Walter Lee Airheart, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Finnegan, Sgt. and Mrs. L. L. Detroit, Dean and Mrs. H. S. Rush, and Prof. Edward Jones and Mrs. Ethel McVeety. They're not going together. The list just happened to work out that way.

Then, just to prove that you won't have to worry about getting your formal ruined in a lobby brawl the leaders offer these chaperons: Dr. and Mrs. Paul A. Zerby, Dr. and Mrs. Dallas Dedrick, and Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Johnson. These chaperons will have their hands full, too, for John McDonald of Harwood, junior assistant and ticket sales manager, reports that he has received reservation requests from many out-of-city and state alumni. A delegation of UND students is also expected.

Misses Morris and Lowe and Messrs. Fake and Elwin will attend a super sweetheart dinner at the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity banquet basement tonight before they jump in their foreign-built cars and zip over to Casey Finnegan's laboratory. About 25 couples are expected, says House Manager Fake. That includes Mr. Hines and Miss James ... we hope, we hope, we hope.

Gold Star Band Leads Busy Life

So busy filling engagements are members of Doctor C. S. Putnam's Gold Star Band that they don their uniforms each day from force of habit.

It all started last week, when they arrived on the campus ready to play for a cancelled convocation. Tuesday saw the band lending enthusiasm to the opening baseball game of the Twin's season. Wednesday was filled with the Senior Staff-Blue Key convocation, and a parade down Broadway in the evening followed by a concert in the Crystal Ballroom for the American Legion Mardigras.

Veterans, from porches and windows, listened enraptured to the musical concert Thursday afternoon, part of the band's philanthropic work. Scheduled events which have failed to "come off" due to God's gift to the farmer's were the parade and concert last Friday morning, and the Lilac Day convocation this week.

Military inspection will find the bandmen in spotless attire and on their best behavior.

Doc, himself, has been doubly busy. Last Saturday saw him in Barnesville, attending the Red River Valley Association where six hundred young musicians met for a clinic. Ray Doverak, University of Wisconsin, was guest conductor. In summer band clinic work, Doc is Director of a Jamestown meeting July 10-21, and three unscheduled clinics at Williston, Hettinger, and Fair Hills, Minnesota.

NOTICE

A special meeting of all turtle jockeys will be held in room 125 Science, Tuesday.

Florenz Dinwoodie To Lead Senior Staff Next Year

To pilot Dean Pearl Dinan's chief assistants for next year is Florenz Dinwoodie, elected president of Senior Staff at a luncheon meeting yesterday in the Old Main parlors. Margaretta Bjornson will act as right hand man in the capacity of vice-president. Other officers to handle Senior Staff's executive work are Doris Stinson, secretary; LaVaun Anderson, treasurer; Claire Putz, Chats editor; and Catherine Brandes, historian.

Activities besides scholarship which made girls eligible for Senior Staff are: Florenz Dinwoodie: Sigma Alpha Iota; sophomore commission, YWCA; Alpha Phi Gamma, secretary; Gold Star Band; Spectrum, associate editor; Kappa Kappa Gamma; Committee of Eleven.

Margaretta Bjornson: Pi Gamma Mu, vice-president; Senior Staff, Jannie B. Angel, P.E.O.; and Stella Olson, Phi Omega Pi, scholarships; YWCA commissions; and Phi Omega Pi.

Only Part of Bison Will Be Issued, It Is Believed

As an added attraction for All-College Day, Thursday, May 26, campus sororities will compete in a song contest similar to the one conducted for Fraternities. Alpha Phi Omega is sponsoring this activity and will award a cup to the winning group. Three pieces will be sung by each, Dedication by Franc, a sorority song, and any other selection desired. The fraternity sing will also be held with the same judges serving for both. Following the custom started last year, the Matt Siegel cup for the best dressed fraternity participating, will be awarded.

All-College Day will officially begin at 2:10 with the distribution of the Bison. According to present plans the entire Bison issue will be ready, but there exists the possibility that only half can be completed. These will be distributed, however.

Rumor has it that a doctor may have to be on hand to see that all entrants for the Turtle race are in good physical condition and untampered with stimulants. Authority Mike Benidt, president of the sponsoring organization, Alpha Phi Gamma, will be on hand to start the event at 2:45 in front of Old Main.

Behind the Field House on the kitenball lots at 4:00, members of the senior class and the faculty will clash in the annual, fight-to-the-finish softball game. Following the game Greek groups will hold open house for any College Day visitors and campus students.

Bleachers have been set up to accommodate the audience for the Gold Star Band concert at 7:00 in front of Old Main. Dr. C. S. Putnam will be directing and Ralph Dahl is in charge. At 7:30 the interfraternity sing begins in Festival Hall.

To climax the day Walsh Sanders orchestra will play for an All-College dance in the Field House.

In all competitive activities, except the ball game, cups will be given to the winners.

All College Day Ends With Dance

The traditional dance in the field house will round out the activities of All-College Day next Thursday. Dancing will be from 8:00 to 11:00 and a special feature number will be offered by Helen Barrie, Bison Brevities dance director. Chaperons for the evening are: Dr. and Mrs. F. J. Brindley, Professor and Mrs. Thomas Hansen, and Dr. and Mrs. D. S. Dedrick.

Quotable Quotes

(By Associated Collegiate Press)

"There is a style in educational jargon to which certain non-original souls adhere as slavishly as some women follow the changing style of hats. The style is to effect an institutional superiority inveighing against the education of the masses. It is a passing vogue. It cannot live long because it is fundamentally wrong." Boston University's Pres. Daniel L. Marsh votes against restricting college and university enrollments.

"A party in a democracy, as I see it, is something you take or leave as it agrees or disagrees with what you believe. The problems of today are not to be settled with slogans and the methods of ten years ago. Political parties will have to develop new plans and new programs." Dr. H. W. Dodds, Princeton University president, urges collegeians to "guard against blind loyalty" to any party.

"We have made hardly any changes in our conception of university organization, education, graduation for a century—for several centuries . . . Nowadays no one should end his learning while he lives and these university degrees are preposterous." Author H. G. Wells urges new thought on rewards for thinking.

Insuring grades is an old-time insurance business with go-getting collegians with a flare for finance, but insurance against being called on in class is something worth telling you about.

Joseph Higgins, a Northwestern University law school student, is selling policies to classmates that pay them seven to one if they are called on in class—but they must know the right answer to the instructor's question before they win. Insuranceman Higgins has placed a 50-cent limit on his policies, making the pay-off limit $3.50.

When is a strike not a strike, and when is it a demonstration? That is the question that bothered University of Minnesota peace rallyers recently, and they found the answer to be something like this: "A strike is a demonstration when the university administration calls the names." So, with great hurry and bustle, rally planners scurried about the campus to change all signs advertising the affair from "strike" to "demonstration."

At last the fair ones who proudly display the fraternity pins of their male friends have gained the protection of the courts! At least they have the protection of a University of Oklahoma student lawyer's practice court whose jury ruled that "hanging a pin" is promise of marriage and the basis for a breach of promise suit. In its first case on the subject, the jury awarded damages of three cents to the suing female, with the side suggestion that the money be used to write to Dorothy Dix for advice about men in general.

Kappa Kappa Gamma—

The spring formal will be held tomorrow night in Festival hall . . . Anna Jane Black is greatly improved after her operation. A father's entertainment is planned for next week.

Delta Tau Epsilon—

Three seniors will be introduced into the Alumni organization this evening . . . Scotty McLeod visited at the house . . . Verdine Rice, Howard Breiland, and Kirk Crawford visited points of interest in Minneapolis over the week-end . . . Byron Glad was a guest at the George Ferris home over the week-end . . . The spring formal was held last Saturday evening at Festival . . . Sylvester Wolseth visited with his folks.

Phi Mu—

Three seniors will be inducted into the Alumnae organization this evening in the home of Mrs. Rilling . . . The services will be preceded by a formal banquet. LaVerne Furcht, Blanche Rinke, and Phyllis Rowe will be the honored guests. Also in their honor, the active and pledge chapters will give a spring breakfast in the Graver hotel Sunday morning. Virginia Crust is in general charge. Following the breakfast, the entire group will worship at the Plymouth Congregational Church.

Phi Omega Pi—

Shirley Olson, Louise Crosby and Jean Renwick gave musical numbers . . . the Mothers Club met Monday evening at the house . . . the Nimlets went home to Lisbon over the week-end . . . the annual POP card party will be held on All College Day . . . the time is from 3:00 to 6:00, and the public is invited.

Projector Aid Library Research

South Hadley, Mass. (ACP)— Students of Mount Holyoke, Smith and Amherst Colleges will soon be doing their library research work with the aid of a projector reading machine.

The libraries of these three colleges are cooperating in the purchase of micro-films of ancient volume and important historical records from all parts of the world. At the end of the project's first year, 100,000 filmed pages will be available.

The machine for reading these pages is much like a movie projector, but is of course much more compact and easier to operate.

At the Movies

FARGO THEATRE

The last compositions of the late George Gershwin received the most effective staging that talent and money could combine to produce in Samuel Goldwyn's technicolor musical extravaganza, "The Goldwyn Follies," which brings Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy, Adolphe Menjou, The Ritz Brothers, Zorina, Kenny Baker, Helen Jepson, Andrea Leeds, Phil Baker, Ella Logan, Bobby Clark, Jerome Cowan, The American Ballet and the Gorgeous Goldwyn Girls to the Fargo theatre on Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday.

Via the genius of David O. Selznick and the magic of technicolor, Mark Twain's famous characters step from the pages of his immortal story and on to the screen of the Fargo theatre next Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, when Mr. Selznick's inspired technicolor production, "The Adventures of Tom Sawyer," has its first showing.

GRAND THEATRE

Warner Bros. again demonstrate its talent for combining real entertainment with social problems of significance in the picture, "Beloved Brat," which comes Sunday, Monday and Tuesday to the Grand theatre.

Woven around the life of a young girl, Roberta Morgan (Bonita Granville), the picture tells a dramatic story of parental misunderstanding and disinterest which drive the girl into the path of life which few ever retrace—the path which usually ends in stark tragedy.

STATE THEATRE

"Mountain Music," with Bob Burns, Martha Raye, and John Howard comes Sunday and Monday. It's a riotous feud between the Burnside and the Shephardsons.

Tuesday and Wednesday, the State will show Errol Flynn as the loving, fighting, thrilling masquerading pauper in the film version of Mark Twain's immortal "The Prince and The Pauper."

"King of Gamblers," the story of a ruthless underworld czar, played by Akin Tamiroff, and a dramatic plot of fighting, risking, and loving, comes to the State next Thursday and Friday.

Columbia Initiates Five-Year Program

New York City (ACP)— To remove the barriers to a liberal education which, as a result of the rigid requirements of the states, have hampered the training of secondary school teachers, a new five-year program has been organized by Columbia University and its Teachers College.

The new plan, as announced by Dean Herbert E. Hawkes, will provide students with greater opportunity for the study of liberal arts, and will enable them to work on a broader front when they enter the field of secondary school teaching.

"Teachers no longer occupy watertight compartments, in which they are restricted to a narrow field of scholarship," the dean explained. "Rather, they must be prepared to function in fields other than those of their greatest interest, and to cooperate in the administration of the school curriculum as a whole.

The new program will bring into a new relationship the problem of training future teachers what to teach and how to teach.

Michigan State To Prepare Frosh

East Lansing Mich. (ACP) — Next fall's Michigan State College freshmen will arrive on the campus all ready to enter the early part of college life—at least they will be if they listen to a new series of radio programs the college is sponsoring.

The program, broadcast over WKAR this month will tell them all about registration, payment of fees and other formalities necessary for enrollment in the class of '42. This is believed to be the first time radio has been used to instruct freshmen before they arrive on the campus.

The order of Military Merit, an ROTC award, was given for the first time at a Massachusetts Institute of Technology review this month.

The University of Kentucky band is one of the leading musical organizations to appear in the annual Kentucky Derby parade.

Sioux Win Track Meet On Wet Field

NDSC Scores Three Firsts

High Score Among 8 Competitors, 42; AC's Relay Team Wins

A powerful Sioux track team swept through the University track meet last weekend at Grand Forks to win over eight competitors by a total of 42 points. The events were run on a sloppy field with intermittent rains all day.

Bermann of the Bison squad flashed out in front in the quarter mile run to win in 53 seconds. Norman Olson jumped 5 ft. 9 inches to win in that event. The strong relay team composed of Rorvig, Fraser, Bermann and Irgens completed first in the mile relay. The time was 3 minutes, 38 seconds.

Minot Teachers college ran a not very close second to the University with a total of 23 points. Locken of Minot set a new record in the two-mile race, the time 16 minutes, 3.9 seconds. Locken and Dietz were outstanding on the Minot squad.

A close third in the meet was Dickinson Teachers, whose Tuma broke the old mark for the pole vault, raising it to 12 feet, 2 3-8 inches, to help that school garner a total of 22 points. Robinson also starred for Dickinson.

Sexton of UND tied the low hurdles mark at 26 seconds. Only three firsts were won by the University but the Sioux squad scored in every event except the two-mile run and the mile relay.

Johnson of the University was beaten out in the broadjump, an event in which he starred last year. Gainor was expected to repeat his win of last year in the discus but was defeated by Schatz of Valley City. Another Valley City man, Berstron, won the javelin throw over Devic of the University, who won that event last year.

Runner-up teams were NDAC with 18 points, Mayville Teachers with 15; Ellendale Normal, 14; Jamestown College, 12; Valley City Teachers, 11; and Wahpeton Science, 7.

Johnson of UND and Robinson of Dickinson tied for individual top honors with 13 points each.

Season Closes At Iowa Meet Tomorrow

The North Central Conference track meet will be held at Cedar Falls, Iowa, this week-end. All the schools of the conference will be represented at this meet which heralds the close of the track season. The Bison squad will leave for Iowa today.

The only possible change in the entries in the meet will be Bermann who will run the half mile, a race he has not run in previous meets this spring. He is entered in the 220 yard dash and the quarter mile, and will probably run the mile relay.

Rorvig, Fraser, Bermann, and Irgens compose the mile relay team which won that event in the University relays and is expected to repeat that performance this week-end.

Norman Olson has shown strength in the high jump, winning at 5 feet, 9 inches at Grand Forks. This height is only an indicator of his ability, as he stopped jumping without having missed after all other competitors had been eliminated.

The Sioux will be a strong competitor again in this meet, with Johnson and Sexton in the dashes and running events, and Gainor and Devich in the weights.

FARMER'S UNION LOCAL ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

The 1938 officers for the NDSC local of the Farmer's Union who were recently elected are: Donald Erickson, president; Oscar Zetter, vice-president, and Lawrence Gilbertson, secretary-treasurer. The two members of the executive council are Gerhard Heutenroeder and Don MacIntyre. Ray Novak was elected corresponding secretary.

Waldron To Umpire For Faculty-Senior Ball Game

One of the biggest events of All-College Day next Thursday will be a softball game between the two campus major-league kittenball teams, the Faculty and the Seniors. An annual event, this game has always been a source of hilarious comedy and many a thrill.

C. B. Waldron will take his place behind the pitcher's mound as umpire of this game, which is to determine the winner of the burlap pennant. Waldron is especially fitted for his position as umpire, having gained a thorough knowledge of all players during fifty years of service on the campus. During these fifty years he has judged everything from "babies to colts," he says. He has been a major league umpire before, which should allay any fears about his being able to dodge pop bottles.

Gassman will probably be in the box for the Faculty. An old and thoroughly tried hurler, Gassman has shown considerable strength on the mound in the past and is expected to be one of the Seniors' strongest competitors. Supporting him will be Cobb in center field, Sgt. Detroit in left field, Booth on second base, Helgeson at right shortstop, Tracy Johnson in right field, Brown on third sack, Hanson on first, Frank left shortstop, and Glenn Hill catching. Making strong bids for these positions will be Kaslow, McColly, Wenger, Wirth, Zerby, Hartwell, Fitch, Chrysler, Keene, Henning, Breland, Maloney, Schmidt, another Hanson, and Pfromsberger. Glenn Lawritson is coaching the team, Booth is his assistant and Glenn Hill is captain.

So far the lineup of the Senior squad is not completed because of a shortage of new recruits. The transient nature of players on this team requires that new members be found every year for nearly every position. Anyone who is interested in participating in this game needs only to report to Jack Clason or Dan Farstad.

Forrest Stephens will be base umpire.

The game starts at 4 o'clock. Anyone who is interested in witnessing one of the most spectacular competitions of the year will do well not to miss it.

To Study Business Not Statistics

Buffalo, N. Y. (ACP)—Subordinating the study of statistics to the study of business in action, the University of Buffalo school of business administration has developed a new observation plan for the training of the future business leaders of the nation.

Outlining the purposes of the new plan, its originator, Dean Ralph C. Epstein asserts that "business research must be realistic as well as intellectual, qualitative as well as quantitative, specific as well as statistical. The business man's decision at any one time may be wise or unwise, wholly beyond his control or partly within his control, deliberate or unconscious. But they need to be studied at close range by impartial observers."

So, under the new plan, two students are assigned to each business cooperating with the school. These "observers" spend considerable of their time in the establishment they are studying, consult often with the firm's executives, learn by asking questions of workers and bosses.

Outstanding radio artists and technicians are on the faculty of the New York University summer Radio Workshop faculty.

Five Men To Train At Camp Bullis

Five men, David Askegaard, Robert Whempner, Robert Lynne, Obed Jacobson, and Wallace Swanson, all from the NDSC ROTC unit, will leave for Camp Bullis, Texas, on or about June 3. Camp Bullis, an ordnance ROTC training camp, is located ten miles out from San Antonio. The local men, the first from here ever to train at that distant point, will end their training there July 16.

Educators Blamed For Dictator Trend

New York City (ACP) A new source of responsibility—the educators — has been found for the trend toward dictatorship and the "disastrous retreat from reason" in the world today.

At a special forum at Columbia University here, Mr. Starr, educational director for a labor union, maintained that "miseducation, misdirected education and education without any conscious aim" is the cause of it all.

Advocate of a "directed" educational system, Mr. Starr accused of having built up "a mystic priesthood for knowledge for its own sake. They have refused to recognize education as a means to the end of a good life for the individual in the good society."

More than 45,000 students have entered the "cultural Olympics" sponsored by the University of Pennsylvania.

Soil Students Enjoy Five Day Field Trip

Dr. E. H. Tyner and ten soil students returned Monday from a five day 1400 mile field trip into western North Dakota and eastern Montana studying the influence of topography, vegetation, geologic substratum, and climate, particularly the decreasing average annual rainfall, on the properties of the soils of these areas.

Students making the trip were: Francis LaMarre, Sigurd Melstad, Arvad Cline, Arthur Newman, James Anderson, Reuben Nelson, Morlan Nelson, Theodore Bjerke and Tony Walker.

A half day was spent studying geology and soils near Medora, and a half day at the Fort Peck dam, which completed will be the largest earth fill dam in the world. The Sidney-Fairview Project in the lower Yellowstone, and Roosevelt National Park at Little Missouri Crossing, south of Watford City were also visited.

Fargo, according to Dr. Tyner, is rather fortunately located for those interested in the geographic distribution of the soil regions, in that with the exception of the red and yellow soils of the south, one has the opportunity of observing all of the imported zonal soil types of North America, within a radius of a few hundred miles of Fargo.

In central and northern Minnesota the soils, due to greater average annual rainfall, have developed under forests and conditions favorable to teaching, resulting in soils of a very acid nature. As one goes west, the average annual rainfall decreases and one encounters grassland vegetation, passing from the tall grass region of eastern North Dakota to the short grass region of western North Dakota. As a result, there is a gradation in the color of the surface soil from black in eastern North Dakota to brown in western North Dakota and eastern Montana.

The lesser amounts of rainfall in western North Dakota have retarded leaching and one finds various types of alkali soils. One in particular is interesting in that a dense clay pan develops within six inches of the surface. One observes when one removes the loose top soil that the top of the clay pan has the appearance of a pan of biscuits, for which reason it is known as biscuit alkali.

This trip was the first of two field trips to be made this spring by Junior and Senior soil majors studying the geographic distribution of soils in the north-central states. The second trip which will be taken within the next few weeks, will be into northeastern Minnesota.

The Lilac Queen is about to enter. . . The advanced guard will put the audience in the proper atmosphere (Toddy Nelson and Lucyle Kapaun spray the unsuspecting crowd with dime store Lilac perfume and retire amid guffaws) . . . The Lilac Fairies and Maidens from across the prairies enter (and the 75 bonneted lasses trip to their places) . . . The Queen enters. The audience arises (audience arises) . . . Marjorie Huey Paulson of Concrete, North Dakota, is crowned Lilac Queen by the Prince (whoever he was). The audience applauds (the audience applauds).

The Queen will take the seat of honor, and will watch the Senior Class play. (The whole audience enjoys the best farce ever staged in the L.C.T. Mike Benidt drops his accent now and again. Gwen turns into a charming sob sister. Virginia Smith really does look fourteen years old — sometimes. And one would think Fran and Bob had really been married for years! We thought Bud Brainerd was faster than that, and where was De's girl friend? —he was left unmarried, unless Beer was going to capture him. Janet Spaulding steals the show in her one-minute appearance before the final curtain.) The audience applauds. (We beat him to it that time, we applauded long ago.) How many think that's a good idea? Practical Study Condoned In East

Washington, D. C. (ACP)—A vigorous defense of "practical" as against "principals" training in U. S. colleges and universities was presented here by the Dr. Alan Valentine, president of the University of Rochester, at the national meeting of the American Council on Education.

"It is suggested that real university work should be concerned with principles, and not with current problems, that practical purposes motivating the student in his study have a disintegrating effect on scholarship," Dr. Valentine said.

"It is not difficult to agree that a short-sighted view of what constitutes the most useful training has been a defect of American education, but this does not mean that practical purposes should not dominate the university. Unless it recognizes its very practical task of developing leaders, it must fail."

"Higher learning in its most effective form is derived from dealing with real situations from the effort to solve difficult intellectual problems that impinge upon life's needs," he asserted.

Flying Club To Be Linked With NIFC

The Carl Ben Eielson Flying Club, local student aviation organization, unanimously voted to affiliate with the National Intercollegiate Flying Club at a meeting Wednesday night.

The N. I. F. C. was organized under the sponsorship of the National Aeronautic Association to promote college flying. Each year there is held an intercollegiate flying conference and air meet. By such intercollegiate conferences and contests, by the exchange of club ideas and news, and by other group activities the N. I. F. C. acts to publicize and promote college flying. A few college clubs affiliated with the N. I. F. C. are those of Harvard, U. of Michigan, U. of Minnesota, Norwich University, and Stanford University.

A picnic is planned for Sunday night in honor of new applicants and as a get-together for newly elected members. Any men interested in flying should make application immediately.
