Blue Key, Senior Staff Make Awards, Present New Members

Outstanding Underclassmen
Awarded Scholarships
In Open Air Convo

On the green in front of Old Main members of Senior Staff, women's service fraternity, and Blue Key, men's service organization announced their new members and presented annual awards to outstanding students last Wednesday morning.

To carry on the work for Senior Staff next year the following were elected: LaVaun Anderson, Margaretta Bjornson, Catherine Brandes, Florenz Dinwoodie, Evelyn Larson, June Lowe, Claire Putz, Marian Smith, and Doris Stinson.

Blue Key elected to membership John Fisher, Roy DeRose, Martin Wolfe, John Lynch, Neal Jensen, Jack Clason, Sig Johnson.

Senior Staff's annual award of $10 for the freshman girl who maintained the highest scholastic average for her first two terms went to Jane Blair who during the fall and winter term held the highest average for the entire school. A tuition scholarship was given to Marjorie Handy, sophomore, for use during her junior year on the basis of high scholastic standing, leadership, and a promise of success in her chosen field. Lorraine Naftalin received the PEO $20 award for the sophomore girl maintaining the highest average the first five terms in school. Cloyce Hocking received the Women's Faculty award.

James Critchfield was recipient of the Blue Key Junior scholarship award given on the basis of character, leadership, creative ability, scholarship and need. The Master Freshman shingle of $10 given to the freshman having the highest average his first two terms in school went to James R. E. Smith, chemistry major with an average of 95.1.

Mr. H. M. Fitch, assistant professor in civil engineering, in behalf of the American Association of Civil Engineers presented Robert Penman with a membership certificate to that society and also an engineers manual. Penman was selected for this honor as a result of the fine scholastic record he has made during his four years in school and his promise for success in the future.

The convocation was opened by the Gold Star Band under the direction of Dr. C. S. Putnam playing Bugle Boy followed by the North Dakota Hymn. Kent Helland acted as master of ceremonies and presented Dr. J. H. Shepherd, president emeritus, who gave a short talk on the merits of these two service organizations. Adeline Hoge, president of the Senior Staff, after giving a brief history of the organization presented the Senior Staff honors and Francis Ladwig, president of Blue Key, followed with their awards. The convocation was concluded with singing the Yellow and Green.

New members of senior staff were entertained at a lunch in the parlor of Old Main Wednesday noon by the 1937-38 Staff and will be honored at a formal banquet in the Gardner Hotel this evening, preceded by initiation.

Robert Sundt Given Scholarship

Robert Sundt was granted an $800 scholarship to work for the degree of master of architecture at Harvard university. Sundt, who recently received honorable mention in the Beaux Arts competition in architectural design, was graduated from NDSC department of architecture in 1936 and for two years has been working in the offices of Carter and Meinecke, architects, Moorhead. He intends to take up his studies at Harvard next fall.

Will Honor Founders

Alpha Gamma Delta will honor its Founder's day at a nine o'clock breakfast at the Graver hotel Sunday May 15th. Virginia Johnston and Doris Meyer are in charge of arrangements for the breakfast. Following the breakfast the chapter will attend the Plymouth Congregational church in a body.

Groups Shaping May 26 Program

Senior Staff, Blue Key, Alpha Phi Gamma, Alpha Phi Omega, the YMCA—all these organizations are cooperating to give the NDSC campus a bigger and better All-College Day on Thursday, May 26. James McGregor is general chairman and James Elwin is chairman of finance.

Turtles are being trained by the various groups on the campus for the gala Turtle Race, sponsored by Alpha Phi Gamma, honorary journalistic fraternity in general and Mike Benidt in particular. Any organization may enter this event, which was won by the Sigma Chi protege last year.

Following the turtle race, the Faculty-Senior kittenball game will be played at 4:00, with Roy DeRose in general charge. At 5:00 the Greek letter groups will hold open house.

The Kappa Kappa Psi concert will be held in the open air from 7:00-7:30. Ralph Dahl is in charge. Following the concert comes the Alpha Phi Gamma-sponsored Interfraternity Sing. This year the honorary scouting fraternity is making an innovation in the form of an Intersorority Sing. Carlisle Lundsten is supervising the selection of contest pieces and rules for entering and for judging.

Concluding the day's festivities will be the All-College dance in the Field House.

Florenz Dinwoodie of Senior Staff is chairman of publicity for the affair. Dick Sweitzer of the Y promises a surprise feature to be announced next week.

Reporter Looks In Glass House

By DOROTHY RAU

It is a common thought that if we were to live in glass houses everyone would know everything that goes on in the house. I know of one glass house and one that is right on this campus, and I wager that there are a majority of the students that do not know what is going on in it. This glass house is the greenhouse. I ventured in one day and saw some of the things that were being grown. The first thing I came to were berry plants all set individually in tiny flower pots. These were various crosses of the dry weather and wild strawberry grown from seed. The dry weather strawberry was one that Dr. Yeager developed while he was here. The purpose of this cross is to see if a hardier and better berry can be developed for North Dakota.

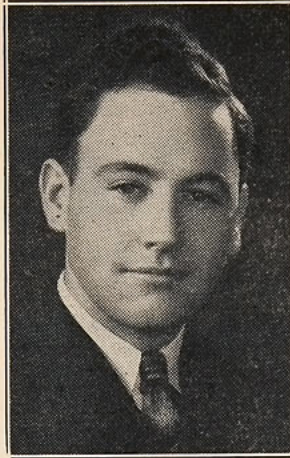

The next group of flower pots held tiny apple trees. They were so small that perhaps it is wrong to call them trees, but anyway there were a cross of the Thorns crab and the Delicious apple. These were planted last fall and buried underground until March 24. Then they were moved into the greenhouse. Since it will take so long before these trees will bear fruit, some of an old tree might be grafted on to save time. Even with this it will be 8 to 10 years before the success of this experiment is known.

Apricots are now a common fruit tree in this state. The trees blossom so early that the blossoms freeze. In an experiment underway now, a Northern Siberian variety was crossed with a culture of a Californian one. These are about in the same stage of development as the apples.

It is also desired to get a new variety of tomatoes that are earlier bearing, with a large bearing of high quality fruit. Hundreds of such plants are being raised in an endeavor to get this desired plant.

Just before I left the place I noticed some tiny plants that I did not recognize. When I was told they were potatoes I was surprised. These had grown from seed raised at Park River; and when they get large enough, they will be taken back up there and planted. Every one of the some 2 or 3 thousand plants is different.

New Engineer Staff Selected

Next year's staff of the North Dakota State Engineer was selected this week. The new staff was chosen by the retiring editor and business manager, Earl Mannes and Alpens Forsman. The North Dakota State Engineer is a bi-monthly publication put out on this campus by men from the Engineering department. The new staff members are: Sig Jones, editor-in-chief; Herb Jones and Kenneth Anderson, associate editors; Harold Larson, business manager; Donald Hanson, circulation manager; Mark Olson, advertising manager; and Clarence VanRay, Ernest Anderson, and Gordon Walwood, assistant advertising managers.

NDSC Handiwork Exhibited At Festival

Handiwork of NDSC architecture and art students was exhibited in Festival hall as a feature of the May Festival. Highlight of the architect's exhibit were three prize-winning wrought iron light fixture designs. Winners were Knute Haugsjaa of Pekin, first; Gene Trotter of Fargo, second; and William Walsh of Fargo, third. Sketches and plans for revision of the campus layout completed the exhibit.

NOTICE

The NDSC golfing team made up of Pollock, Wattam, Fisher, and Paulson, outplayed the challenging St. Cloud team yesterday afternoon, 14-4.

NDSC Field House Setting For Junior-Senior Prom

Now is the time for all good men to reach for the nearest telephone, trans-Atlantic cable or China Clipper and get a half-Nelson on some beautiful girl for a date next Friday. Or she doesn't have to be scintillating . . . for Joe Campus will be able to have fun at the Junior-Senior prom at the Field House, even if his guest has a sourpuss face like a totem pole in the midst of dog days.

Here are the reasons: There will be about 300 couples dancing from 9 to 1; the largest band ever to play for an NDSC social affair—Earl Hines and his 15-piece band featuring Ida James, vocalist, has been signed on the perforated line; there will be sixteen in line of grand march, tying last year's record; Miss Mercedes Morris of Wahpeton, senior manager, is the first coed in the school's history to hold a ball managership; and the party will mark the finale of the annual lilac festival, and feature extensive lilac appointments.

Leaders in the line of march are Miss Morris and her guest, James Elwin of Breckenridge, Minn., and Glen Fake of Fargo, junior manager, and his guest, Miss June Lowe of Kenmare.

Second in line will be Earl Mannes of Dazey, senior assistant, and his

Military Drill Victim Has Tough Time

Oh hum! Gee whiz, this getting up early is wearing me down. Where is my military cap? Well, I'll be seeing you if I get through the morning O. K. Oh! Oh! there's the bugle, so long.

Then the mad rush to get his own gun and get in line. He comes puffing up in time to hear the captain call, "Fall in". He answers roll call and gets the command BATTALION AT-TEN-SHUN. Marching around for an hour or so is the next stop on the ticket. After making mistakes for awhile, he finally gets drilled into him which way to turn when he hears the command, right turn, march, etc.

Finally he is dismissed, which is like going on a vacation. He makes his next class, perhaps a little late, but nevertheless he is ready for the days work.

All this is what happens every year in order to be in top shape for the inspecting officers who come here this year on May 19 and 20.

Orders are to report June 12, 1938. Camp will close July 23. Expenses at the rate of five cents a mile both ways will be paid to all who attend.

'End With The Amendment' Is Battle Cry Of Students

McGregor Chosen Blue Key Head

James McGregor was elected president of Blue Key for next year at a meeting of the group last night. He replaces Manny Ladwig, former president. Other officers elected at the meeting were John Fisher, vice-president; Roy DeRose, secretary, and Jim Elwin, treasurer. McGregor's major accomplishments on the campus include membership in the Committee of Eleven, Commissioner of Athletics, the presidency of Saddle and Sirlin, Alpha Zeta, and Alpha Gamma Rho.

The officers who these new men will replace are: Manny Ladwig, former president; Bob Sanders, former vice-president; R. Gordan Arneson, former secretary, and Kent Helland, former treasurer.

Initiation of the new members of Blue Key, who were announced at Wednesday's convocation, also took place at the meeting last night.

To Have 'Coffee Dunk, Dance'

Alpha Gamma Delta will honor its spring initiates: Doris Meyer, Virginia Johnston, Ruth Thomte, Jean Pridt, Marie Letnes, Elaine Matteson, Lucille Knudtson, Mary Froling, and Dorothy Luther at a "coffee dunk and dance" in the college "Y" gym Friday, May 13th from 4:00 to 6:00. Sorority and fraternity spring initiates and their pledge directors will be guests. Chaperons will be Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Sackett.

Rosemary Kniefel is in general charge of arrangements, assisted by Carol Buhman, Dorothy Johnson, Gladys Aalegaard, Vivika Thorson and Valdis Knudson.

Architect Professors Receive Licenses

Professor Thomas L. Hansen, head of the department of Architecture, and Mr. Knute Henning, instructor in Architecture, were recently notified by the State Board of Architecture that they have been granted licenses as registered architects to practice in the state of North Dakota.

Professor Hansen is also a registered architect in Washington and Mr. Henning is a licensed architect in Minnesota.

Professor Paul W. Jones is a licensed architect in Minnesota and North Dakota, receiving the North Dakota license last summer.

Easton To Be Replaced By Mendenhall

After four years of heading the R. O. T. C. unit at NDSC Lt. Colonel John D. Easton is relieved from assignment and duty at NDSC on or about Sept. 15, 1938. He is detailed as instructor in the infantry in the California national guard at Pomona, California.

Replacing him will be Lt. Colonel John R. Mendenhall, who has been serving in the 16th Infantry at Fort Jay, New York. He will arrive on Sept. 1, 1938.

Penman Awarded Engineers Scholarship

Robert Penman, senior in school of engineering is to be the first recipient of a newly created scholarship made by the Northwestern Section of the American Society of Civil Engineers this year. The award, just created this week, is to go annually hereafter to the "senior member of the student chapter of the American Society of Civil Engineers having the highest scholastic average for his entire college course". It will cover initiation expenses of a junior member of the Society and a Merriman's Civil Engineering Handbook.

Popular Carl Colby
Orchestra to Play; Movie
At State Theatre

Everything's set for the big party tonight. Arrangements for both the dance with the popular Colby orchestra and the movie at the State theatre are complete. All it takes is the student body's presence to make it the rip-snoortest party of the year.

The committee is happy to announce that the first run picture which will be shown is "Borrowing Trouble." It is a promise that your mind will be relieved for at least two hours from the case wherein trouble wasn't "borrowed" but dropped into 1500 laps.

The picture concerns the Jones family who have a little trouble keeping the course of their lives along the straight and narrow. The adoption of the neighborhood's biggest rowdy doesn't help the family's mental condition. All in all it adds up to a darn good comedy. (The last statement is made after subtracting 75 per cent of the enthusiasm from commercial reviews.)

All your friends are buying tickets! According to Bud Osborne and Jim McGregor, in charge, the Dutch Treat idea is really going over. Some of the girls are even going Dutch on everything for the evening. Sales indicate that NDSC students haven't forgotten the blow dealt them and are all raring to "mend with the amendment."

Dorm girls have been granted a 2 o'clock late leave.

Hours for the evening's events are: 8:30, dance; 11:15, first show, and 12:30, second show. The theatre will be cleared at 1:30, according to the college permit. Because of the number turned away at the last midnight show these two shows have been arranged for with Ed Kraus, Public manager. Manny Ladwig has been in charge of theatre arrangements.

Tickets may still be purchased from the salesmen announced in the Spectrum last week. There is an official salesman in each organized group or you may purchase from the Bookstore, Dugout, or Committee of Eleven.

Chaperones for the Unaccredited Party will be Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Berge, Mr. and Mrs. Ford Daugherty, and Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Zerby.

Inter-Fraternity Sing

An innovation of All College Day this year will be the Inter-Sorority Sing which will take place in Festival Hall at 7 o'clock, the same time as the Inter-Fraternity Sing. The Sorority-Fraternity sing is being sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega, which will give three prizes, one to the sorority with the best chorus, one to the fraternity with the best chorus, and one to the best dressed fraternity group.

Each group appearing will present three numbers, a contest song which has been chosen by a committee, a fraternity or sorority song, and one other song of the groups own choice. The maximum number in the chorus will not be limited although the minimum number in the group is set at eight.

GO WITH OR WITHOUT

Today being Friday the 13th is no acceptable reason for campus gals getting cold feet and not hot-footing it at the unaccredited shindig this p.m. A nice mess things would be if all the fellas who are planning on tagging got there and found no girl stags! The idea is staggering. This is one college affair where girl stags will be considered ultra-ultra. If you're still squeamish, why not consider the school year escort—Remember, the school really knows the ups and downs and ins and outs of things. If there's still doubt in your minds, you'd be sure to like the show. Or why not go Dutch?

NATIONAL PANHELLENIC MEETS

National Panhellenic groups will banquet together Monday evening in Ceres Hall, a yearly event for city and college sororities.

Mrs. David C. Cook is general chairman. Marian Smith will present scholarship awards. The various groups will answer roll call with group singing.

Track Team Scores First Win In History

Victorious Bison To Seek New Laurels Tomorrow In Intercollegiate Meet

Prospects Dim Because Schedule of Events Has Been Altered Completely

The victorious Bison track team will seek additional laurels at the North Dakota Inter-collegiate track meet to be held tomorrow at Memorial Field in Grand Forks. Prospects for winning this meet are rather dim due to the fact that several events which were not run in the Dragon Relays will be on the program tomorrow. It so happens that the Bison will not be entered in most of these additional events; for instance, the javelin and the pole vault. On top of that, our sprint medley team, composed of Fraser, Irgens, Rorvig and Verne Johnson, will not get a chance to show their stuff because that event is not scheduled. On the other hand, Bernie Berman in the 440 and 220 yard dashes, Norman Olson in the high jump, and Verne Johnson in the

May Festival Athletic Event

Casselton high school girls track team won the May Festival track championship Saturday. Casselton had 15 points. Fargo, Moorhead high, and Valley City tied for second with 12 points. Comstock, Minn., got eight points.

Fern Wemmett of Valley City Teachers college high won the women's singles tennis title, defeating Betty Dougherty of Park River, 6-2, 6-1. Kathryn Casselman and Barbara Schmallen of Fargo won the doubles title, beating Betty Dougherty and Virginia Barnett of Park River, 6-2, 6-3.

Valley City high school won the softball championship, downing Comstock, Minn., 10 to 4.

Winners in the dancing contests were as follows:

School: first, Valley City; second, Casselton, and tied for third, Hankinson and Fargo.

Solo: first, Valley City; second, Fargo; and third, Valley City.

Group dance: first, Casselton; second, Hankinson, and third, Carrington.

Winners in the track meet were:

Basketball distance throw—Won by Dorothy Melquist, Moorhead; Opal Bugeide, Moorhead, second; Margaret Johnson, Casselton, third.

Baseball distance throw—Won by Kathryn McIsaacs, Valley City; Dorothy Melquist, Moorhead, second; Bertha Corneliuson, Comstock, Minn., third.

50-yard dash—Won by Lorraine Kohler, Valley City; Berniece Swanson, Fargo, second; Shirley Peterson, Fargo, third.

Baseball target throw—Won by Francis Wendell, Comstock, Minn.; Jean Tilden, Fargo, second; Rita Clancy, Valley City, third.

75-yard dash—Won by Janice Christenson, MSTC high; Eleanor Piper, Casselton, second; Berniece Swanson, Fargo, third.

Basketball free throw—Won by Harriet Grochow, Petersburg; Georgine Jahnke, Casselton, second; Rita Clancy, Valley City, and Mildred Hildremeyer, Petersburg, tied for third and fourth.

Relay—Won by Casselton; Fargo, second; Comstock, Minn., third; Moorhead, fourth.

'Bison Furrows' Makes Debut

"Bison Furrows," the new magazine to be published quarterly by the division of agriculture, made its debut last weekend when it was distributed to May Festival guests in particular and everyone in general. This first issue contains a variety of articles featuring stories about the agricultural activities on the campus; for instance, the May Festival; the Little International Livestock show; the work of Alpha Zeta, honorary agricultural fraternity, and home economics news. However, a great share of the publication is devoted to items of general interest to the farmers throughout the state. In fact, the purpose of Bison Furrows as stated by Dr. H. L. Walster in an open letter printed in the magazine is as follows: "... I charge Bison Furrows with the job of holding up a mirror to every new thing happening on this campus, in its fields, laboratories, barns, and paddocks, with the job of catching that image and reflecting it to the people of the state."

John Clason is editor of "Bison Furrows" and Kent Helland is the business manager. Associate editors are Sam Trzcinski, Don Kaldor, and Neal Jensen. Editorial assistants are John Paulson, Harold Olson, Roger Toussaint, Hollis Omodt, Darrel Knudson, Carlyle Lundsten, Edward Schmidt, Reuben Nelson, Kenneth Erickson, Ivan Johnson, Eugene Holkelsvik, Dave Ebeltoft and John Johnson. Assistant Professor Willard O. Brown is faculty advisor.

Assistants to the business manager are Rollo Piper, James McGregor, Stanley Bales, Sigurd Melstad, James Osborn, and Maurice Dullea.

Phyllis Rowe edits the home economics section with Marie Carlson, Helen Greenshields, Lois McMillan, and Kathryn Keogh assisting.

Crane To Meet German Champ

Walter Crane, NDSC light heavy-weight boxer and northwest golden gloves winner, is slated to fight on a golden gloves amateur boxing card in Minneapolis May 24, when the amateur winners meet the champions of Europe. Crane will meet Richard Vogt of Germany, amateur light heavy-weight champion of Europe, in a three-round bout.

Crane will go to Minneapolis on May 21 to work out under Joey Thomas, brother of Harry Thomas, Minnesota heavyweight. Joey Thomas has been Crane's second in previous fights and will be his second again this time.

Cully Eckstrom of Minneapolis, former university boxer and winner of the lightweight national intercollegiate championship, and Sidney Petrie, former NDSC student, in the middle-weight class, are also on the card.

Women Athletes 'Play The Game'

The W. A. A. "Played the Game" at the annual banquet Thursday evening at the Graver hotel. The banquet was worked out in the form of a game. With a referee, Miss Register; first round, Laverne Knudson; second round, Verna Fay Thysell; quarter-finals, Margaret Newell; semi-finals, Ruth Bockwaldt, and finals, Seeing the game from the sidelines, C. A. Severinson. The program consisted of a trio, composed of Helen Restevdt, Joan Hughes and Elaine Matteson; a reading by Lucyle Kapaun; dance, Verda Van Vorst; Helen Restevdt and Joan Hughes; an exhibition by the tumbling team, and a play by Ruth Thomte and Vivika Thoreson.

Two senior girls, Verda Van Vorst and Hjordis Lovick, were awarded blankets for their most outstanding work and contribution to athletics during their four years of college.

Fifteen girls were awarded sweaters for earning 1,000 points. The only freshman is Laverne Knudson. Laverne is the first girl for many years to receive her sweater during her first year of college. The sophomores are Verna Fay Thysell, Jo Erickson, Anna Marie McMerty, Helen Restevdt, Tessie Thue, Lauretta Brandt, Ruth Thomte, Jessamine Haas, Lucyle Kapaun and Annabel Lee. The junior, Margaret Newell. Seniors, Dorothy Rau, Mollie Cushman and Luella Grutle.

Women In The News

Delta Psi Kappa, national honorary physical education fraternity for women, pledged six new members at services in the Graver hotel, with Mrs. Glen Lawritson officiating. The new pledges are Verna Fay Thydell, Betty Jane Wiley, Gladys Provan, Jo Erickson, Ruth Thomte and Cloyce Hocking.

Baseball practice will begin this week. Class teams will organize and a tournament will begin next week.

The tennis tournament has been started and 60 players are scheduled to play. This is the first tennis tournament for two years, Ethel Olson being the last winner. Miss Barbara Register will referee.

The girls tumbling team performed for the first time Friday night at the May Festival dance. The girls also did a military tap dance, under the direction of Miss Doris Richardson.

An announcement concerning W. A. A. dues: Girls who have not paid their dues cannot have their points carried over until next fall or transferred to another institution.

The physical education methods class officiated at the May Festival in all of the events, under the direction of Miss Barbara Register.

NDSC GRADUATE PLACED

Roy Simonson of Agate, graduate in soils at the NDSC in 1934 who will receive his Ph. D. at the University of Wisconsin, has obtained a position with the agronomy department at Iowa State College, Ames, Ia., according to word just received by Dr. E. H. Tyner, head of soils at the NDSC.

Dragon Relay Victory Last Week Takes NDSC Out Of One-Sport College Class

Spring Football Shows Surprises

Many a surprising performance on the part of the Bison yearling gridders and unusual enthusiasm on the part of the varsity squad has marked spring football practice which closes this weekend.

Although five lettermen will be lost through graduation this spring, the loss will not be irreparable, what with many promising freshmen coming up and hard-working varsity men working for their positions. Finnegan and Lowe are working on a new style of defense, a six man line. Elmer Holt, Fargo Forum North Central Conference guard, has been out of the line. Joel Nelson, weighing 168 pounds, has been used as a blocking back and at guard position. Don Johnson of Fargo, another yearling, has distinguished himself in early scrimmages. Earl Marquardt and Frank Primeau, both 180 pound freshmen, are candidates for end positions, where they have showed considerable ability. Primeau made the all-state high school football team.

Bill Pepple, who was out of practice last fall because of injuries, has been used with Elmer Schrank and Cecil Sturgeon, another freshman, in the backfield, where he has shown promise. Bill Kelly, 195 pounds, has been switched from tackle to center, where he shows improvement.

Gil Friederichs has found his place at halfback, after having played at end and guard. George Hammel, who was forced out of practice this spring because of an ankle injury, has played both halfback and fullback and will strengthen considerably the ball-carrying department. Ernie Wheeler, who received praise from Minneapolis sports writers for his passing ability, will complete the well-rounded backfield. The yearlings will go over to Concordia to scrimmage with the football squad there in a practice game.

Stangeland Placed With J. I. Case

Norton Stangeland of Fillmore, a graduate this June in agricultural engineering at the North Dakota Agricultural College, has just started an appointment with the J. I. Case Machine Company of Racine, Wis. Starting his new work July 1, Stangeland will first receive two months' factory training before being assigned to regular duties with the Case company, manufacturers and distributors of a well known full line of farm machinery. Frank Kranick, Case company representative, was on the NDSC campus early in April to interview seniors in agricultural engineering, according to Prof. H. F. McColly, head of this department at the college.

Berman, Rorvig Star In Chalking Up 58 Points; MSTC Submit 40 Points

The Bison track team took away top honors in the Dragon Relays last Saturday in a meet that established six new records. This is the first time the Bison have won a track meet, and takes the AC out of the ranks of a one-sport school.

A total of 58 points was run up by the Bison squad. Berman and Rorvig were sprint stars in the meet. The UND squad, entered in only two relay events, was second in the meet with a total of 40 points and MSTC, defending team champion finished with 39 points. Other places in the meet were

Wheeler

Rorvig

Bemidji with 16 points; Wahpeton Science, 11; Valley City Teachers, 9; Mayville Teachers, 7; Concordia, 2.

Star performers of the Bison squad were Berman in the 100 yard dash, the sprint medley and the mile relay; Wheeler, who established a new record in the shot put; Olson, winner of the high jump, and Rorvig who starred in two relays.

THE RESULTS:

100-yard dash—Won by Johnson, MSTC; Berman, AC, second.

High hurdles—Won by Johnson, MSTC; Anderson, MSTC, second.

Javelin—Won by Jensen, Mayville; Brown, Wahpeton, second.

Shot put—Won by Wheeler, NDSC; Shatz, Valley City Teachers, second.

Discus—Won by Schatz, Valley City Teachers; Maxwell, NDSC, second.

440-yard relay—Won by UND. Time, 43.6 seconds, new record.

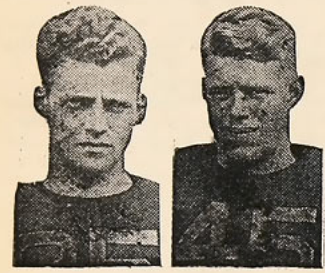

880-yard relay—Won by UND. Time, 32.6 seconds, new record.

High jump—Won by Olson, NDSC; Fiskum, Concordia, and Hawkins, NDSC, tied for second.

Sprint medley—Won by NDSC; Bemidji, second. Time, 3 minutes, 47.5 seconds; new record.

Burbidge Returns

Arden Burbidge, Park River, North Dakota, a junior in agriculture, who is Regional Vice President for the Future Farmers of America, has just returned from attending the annual state conferences of the Future Farmers of America for the State of Missouri at Columbia, Missouri, and for the State of Kansas at Manhattan, Kansas.

Frazier

half-mile all have excellent chances of coming out on top.

Other teams entered in the meet are: UND, Dickinson Teachers, Minot Teachers, Mayville Teachers, Valley City Teachers, Ellendale Industrial, Wahpeton Science and Jamestown. The latter school won a pentangular tournament at Aberdeen, S. D., on April 29 and took top honors in this meet in 1935 and 1937. They will be led by the veteran sprinter Leroy Holen who together with Horace Johnson and Bernie Berman should provide some interesting and exciting moments when they line up for the sprints. Hollis Dietz of Minot, a former NDSC student, is favored to win a medal or two in the weight events, while UND is depending on Morrell Sexton and Johnson to take the hurdles and short dashes respectively. Sexton will be remembered as the Fargo high boy who was a sensation in the hurdles at the May Festival two years ago.

The Sioux and Jamestown are favored to carry off team honors but the other seven schools maintain that they are not going up to Grand Forks for the bus ride.

Preliminaries are scheduled to begin at 10 in the morning; the finals will be run off at 2:30 p.m.

FOOTBALL SCHEDULE

Sept. 23—Moorhead State Teachers at Fargo.

Oct. 1—Winnipeg Rugby club at Winnipeg.

Oct. 8—Idaho university at Moscow, Idaho.

Oct. 14—Iowa university at Fargo.

Oct. 21—Greeley State college at Greeley, Colo.

Oct. 29—NDU (Homecoming) at Fargo.

Nov. 5—S. D. university at Vermilion.

Nov. 12—S. D. State at Brookings.

Nov. 19—Creighton university at Omaha, Neb.

On Oct. 14 the new stadium will be officially dedicated with Iowa Teachers as the visiting team. This team is coached by Buck Starbuck, formerly of the University of N. D. and Oct. 14 will mark the first time these two teams have met on the gridiron. Also included in the schedule is another trip to Moscow, Idaho, where the boys will try to avenge a 13-12 defeat administered by that team in 1936. Other high spots in the schedule include the Homecoming game with the Sioux on Oct. 29; a return game in Fargo with Greeley State college from Colorado; and a game with Creighton university, a former member of this conference, at Omaha, Neb. Out of the nine games on a tough schedule, only four are with conference foes.

Social Climber... Supreme Court Tests Football

Well, last weekend proved a fairly lively one with all the youngsters putting zip into the usual boring routine. . . . Dick Cook must have been in the dog house with the campus coeds, cuz he poured his affection on one of the good looking high school gals. . . . The Brevities dance sort of fizzled out as the evening wore on. . . . too many dead pans spoil the cook's batter. . . . The cities must have held a hidden attraction cuz June Keefe and Ruthie Johnson came back all pepped up and fit as a fiddle. . . . Vic Sasse mustered up enuf courage to ask Spauld for a date. . . . I betch every date of hers behaves himself. . . . Ray Whitver seems to stick to his architectural interests cuz out of class he goes in for small, curved lines. . . . As changes the weather so change Sarah and Bill. . . . But the spring of the year always makes one see things in a different light. . . . Best amble out into the fresh air now and see if the rain can't be induced to come help us spend another dampish weekend.

Supreme Court Tests Football

Washington, D. C. (ACP)—The nation's highest tribunal, the U. S. Supreme Court, will soon tell the nation whether or not football is an educational activity that comes under the heading of an essential governmental function.

The state of Georgia and its two state institutions, the University of Georgia and Georgia School of Technology, together with 14 other state universities, are asking the court to rule against the federal admissions tax for athletic contests sponsored by state institutions.

The U. S. attorney general's offices holds that, "We hazard the statement that the members of the Constitutional Convention would doubt that twenty-two men playing a game with a ball constitute an essential government function."

The defendants hold that public education is a government function and that holding athletic contests is an integral part of the public education program.

Evenin' Folks—How y'all?

It's certainly a privilege and a pleasure to be able to address all you students through the medium of your college paper. Now, first, will all of you listen to our "College of Musical Knowledge" each Wednesday kindly raise your right hand. Hm, not bad at all. Now raise your left hand. Now pick up the paper. Oh, you didn't drop it?

The subject of our first musical sermon is "Swing" itself. They say that college students are the leading followers of swing, which in technical terms means you're the hottest jitterbugs. During our recent appearance at a New York theater, however, we had the chance to talk to undergraduates of Columbia, N. Y. U., Fordham, Barnard, Manhattan and other colleges in the metropolitan area. The consensus of opinion seemed to be that while swing was swell to listen to, softer and smoother music was preferred for dancing—but it was all right if a dash of swing was thrown in every now and then. After all, variety was always the spice of life on the dance floor.

One student was particularly set in his notions. He said, "We had a famous swing band for our prom. No sooner did the band start playing than practically everyone was gathered around the bandstand. Very few danced. After a while the students got tired of standing before the band and tried their hand (figure of speech, folks) at dancing. But they found that the mad, rapid, staccato rhythms of swing almost impossible to dance to. We've learned our lesson. No more swing bands for our proms. They're okay for listening purposes, but when we have a dance, we want to dance!"

How do you feel about swing? We're unbiased. We try to play the type of music you want to dance to, and feel our program along, mostly influenced by the numbers that are requested. But, we'd like you to send us your opinions, and I'll gladly discuss the most interesting in open forum via these "Kampus Komments."

Talking about swing, Raymond Gram Swing is the name of a political and news commentator on the Mutual radio network. We learn that Mr. Swing gets many letters from irate swing fans, asking him why he uses such a "misleading" name on his broadcasts. Mr. Swing happens to be using his own name. Imagine, a "Swing" arrangement of a political speech!

Music, as someone must have once said, is a fascinating subject. I've been at it professionally for a dozen years and I dabbled in music long before that at the University of North Carolina and during my boyhood in Rocky Mount, N. C. We get thousands of letters each week, all containing questions for use on the "College of Musical Knowledge" program. You'd be amazed at the wealth of information in these letters. I learn a lot every week. How's your musical knowledge? Start cramming for my next 'examming.'

Did you know that "Star Dust," Hoagy Carmichael's immortal tune, was originally written as a "hot" number and that it gathered dust on the shelf of a music publishing firm before it was finally revised by Hoagy and given to a grateful world? Did you know that "Till We Meet Again," a tune written during the World War, still holds the all-time high for sheet music sales with a total of 5,000,000 copies? Did you know that many of the recording firms send complete recording units into the southern states and into what we know as the "hill-billy" regions, where they record native tunes played and sung in their original way? Did you know that tunes like "The Prisoner's Song," "Wreck of the Old 97," "No-body's Darling But Mine" and a host of blue yodels and shouts attained popularity in this way? You didn't know it? Just for that you'll have to stay in after the dance tonight.

Are you aware of the fact that Mozart wrote the first swing tune? No? Well, he wasn't either, but he did. Did you know that Eve was the first one to "do" the Big Apple? Pep, if it weren't for that apple, we'd have a better behaved world—certainly on the dance floor anyway.

How many musical instruments can you name? The average person knows 10. There are actually over 300, not including the popular hair comb and tissue paper combination. Of course, may of these are obsolete today, and I'll bet you're all saying there aren't enough that are obsolete. Now, is that nice? Oh, it is?

We'd like our "Kampus Komments" to be a "clearing house" for all your musical problems and queries. If you have none, think of some. It's really fun. We will answer questions of a technical musical nature through the mail individually, but others that we believe might be of interest to you students will be discussed here.

So, until next week—here's hopin' you're listenin'! So long ever'body.

Fine To Work At Wisconsin

Lawrence Fine of Sheyenne, N. D., senior in soils in the school of agriculture at the NDSC, has been awarded an assistantship for graduate study in soils at the University of Wisconsin. Graduating with a bachelor of science degree in agriculture with a major in soils this June from the NDSC, Fine will assume his duties at Madison next September. He will work under Dr. Emil Truog, international authority on soil chemistry.

At the present time two other NDSC soils majors are with the department of soils at the University of Wisconsin. Roy Simonson, Agate, a graduate of the NDSC in 1934, receives his Ph. D. there this June and William Johnson of Watford City, a 1936 soils major, will receive his master of science degree. Dr. Edward H. Tyner, head of the NDSC soil department, is also a former student from the University of Wisconsin soils department.

Union College Streamlines System

Schenectady, N. Y. (ACP)—Union College students have streamlined their undergraduate governing system.

By a vote of the student body, undergraduates have adopted a new constitution that provides for functional and proportional representation, petition, referendum and recall.

The new constitution provides for a Student Council form of government, in which eleven councilmen are to be elected by extra-curricular organizations supported by student tax, twenty-five elected on the basis of one for each forty students, four class presidents and a student tax committee chairman. Faculty coordinator of student activities will advise but not in the Council.

DEGREE EXAMINATIONS TAKEN

George Knudson, Albert Gassman, Wendell Slabaugh, James Porter, Charles Kade, Charles Evers, and Harold Thompson have successfully completed their written exams in Chemistry for their Master of Science degree. These gentlemen have been acting as instructors at the NDSC while writing their masters thesis.

Graduate Paint Chemists Club Offers Assistance in Restoring NDAC Rating With NCA

Dr. L. L. Carrick, Head Department of Chemistry, North Dakota State College, Fargo, North Dakota.

My primary purpose in writing you at this time is to advise you that a group of graduate chemists from North Dakota State met one evening last week and formally organized themselves into an association, club of what have you, which as yet is unnamed. . . . Officers were elected, James McGlynn being elected President, John Rooney, Vice president, and myself (Frank Seehart) Secretary-Treasurer. It is our hope that groups in other industrial centers will follow our example, the ultimate result being a national organization.

The impetus behind the formation of this association was, as you no doubt know, the constant stream of inquiries directed at various boys who travel about the country, as to what this fellow and that fellow was doing, how he was getting along, the status of his family etc. We hope through such an organization as may eventually develop, to be able to keep more closely in touch with each other. It is also our hope to be of service to the school and to the state. We are very much disturbed about the school losing its accredited rating, and hope that every effort will be made to have it restored, to which end we will be happy to contribute whatever support we may, in whatever manner may seem best. And, being actively engaged in an industry where one of the prime crops of the state, namely flax, finds its widest utilization, in the form of linseed oil, such an organization should be in a position to further the widest possible applications of this product with a direct reflection of benefit to the farmers of the state, sorely needed in these times.

It is our sincere hope that the effort you are making (to restore the school of chemistry to its former status and to generally improve the prestige of the school) will bear fruit which will enable us to continue for years to come to boast with justified pride that the North Dakota State College School of Chemistry trains for the Paint and Varnish Industry the bulk of its chemists.

Sincerely yours,
—Frank C. Seehart.

Mr. Frank Seehart, author of the above letter, is associated with a newly formed company for the manufacture of synthetic resins. The company is La-Bree Chemical Product Corporation which is located in Detroit, Michigan. The meeting of which Mr. Seehart writes took place in Detroit, Michigan.

LaGuardia Starts New City Plan

New York City (ACP)—A new experiment in municipal government research has been instituted here by Mayor Fiorello E. LaGuardia and this city's municipal educational institutions.

Under a new plan announced last week, students in the city's colleges will be trained for civil service careers by doing undergraduate research in the various policyforming departments of the city government.

"These studies and surveys will be of a research, rather than an investigative nature," the sponsors of the plan announced. "Students of marked ability and interest will be appointed as research associates on the staff of the department of investigation to serve during the duration of their projects as volunteer assistant without compensation, but with full credit for their work by college authorities."

"The purpose of such studies will be the framing of constructive recommendations to the various municipal department heads."

The University of New Hampshire next fall will inaugurate a new four-year school of hotel administration.

Discuss Ways To Make Democracy Work

Ithaca, N. Y. (ACP)—A collegian's program for righting many of the ills of the nation was formulated by Cornell, Dartmouth and University of Pennsylvania students in a conference here to discuss ways and means of "Making Democracy Work."

After considerable discussion, the delegates favored: Governmental endorsement of labor's right to organize and bargain collectively and endorsed the National Labor Relations Act principles; Economic sanctions against aggressors of democratic nations; for local governments, the elimination of unnecessary offices, consolidation of duties and consolidation of unnecessarily small governmental units; control of competition for some industries, and removal of monopolies for others, and governmental regulation of utilities.

The delegates voted down extension of governmental control of the press.

The Carnegie Corporation has given more than $1,500,000 to the University of Chicago graduate library school for research.

Time To Think

By ALFRED THOMPSON

Part Two

Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of their country.

This is the line which is used as a practice for typists who are working with the government. I think it is fitting that someone really interpret it for the meaning that lies behind it.

One perhaps first notices the word "GOOD" in the sentence before any other, and truly enough it is the basis for the value of the whole line. It is the very best of the youth of the country who will be required to face the firing line, not the physically and mentally useless. It will be those who are the innocent poor and the economically unimportant who will be the first to be called to fight for the men who sit at home behind the desk and collect the profits which war and its promoters bring to these few. It is to be the young man whose brains have been trained for the betterment of the world who will be using those brains to train sights on some other innocent person on the opposite side of no-man's land. It will be those brains that should be helping the country to recover from economic and political difficulties that will be releasing the deadly formulas and inventions for the killing of fellow men rather than saving them.

One often wonders when he scans the daily papers of the purpose of the government is rightly interpreted. He often wonders if this is the justice that is provided us under the constitution or if the whole meaning of government is interpreted in favor of those who would see the best men of the nation killed that they may be placed in the lap of permanent luxury. He often wonders if it is the purpose of the officials who have been chosen to represent the mass of people to be the instruments of the few. Is this still democracy that has been heralded as the place for a new start in life for those who have failed, or is it a misconception of a capitalist's paradise?

We are all acquainted with the slaughter that is occurring in two major wars here on our own earth where only twenty years ago we concluded a war to end war. Since 1918, when this country so gallantly saved the world for democracy, there have been seventeen such conflicts to mock our heroic proverb. Since the day when a report was tendered that two hundred thousand United States soldiers had been maimed for life and fifty thousand had been honored with white crosses for special service, the great cause for democracy has been spat on seventeen times while the United States has watched with its mouth open. We should be proud of the great blunder we were led into by interested persons in 1917.

What has passed cannot be repaired; men cannot be brought back to life and health nor can the economic losses be repaired. The "piper" has been well paid. It is our obligation to see that such a blunder never re-occur. Billions are being spent yearly not for the sake of the cause of peace, but for the cause of satisfaction of financial gluttony on the part of a few of our good fellow citizens whose stepping stones are the bodies of young men killed in action. Thousands plead for food and a decent standard of living while the government plans to manure the battlefields with more of these youth. Floods and drouth drive thousands to destitution while the government parades its fleet in billion dollar displays before the doorstep of another nation. A small government tub, protesting the rights and interests of mammoth industry is sunk in belligerent waters with a resulting loss of a single life and to repair the loss the government sizes a flail and seeks to flog the other nation making possible another conflict with a subsequent loss of hundreds of thousands of men.

We must begin to think and think clearly of which is to be our place in the sun, a hillside on some foreign battlefield or in the chapters of lives devoted to peace. It is for us who are to fill the trenches and who will ultimately foot the bill to dictate what be the tune that the "piper" play. It is our duty and our right to dictate what shall be the destiny of our lives and the life of our country.

We must unite with the organizations against war throughout the nation and KEEP AMERICA OUT OF WAR. Let us never again make the mistakes of trying to cure the ill abroad before we destroy the rot at home.

THEY SHOULD HAVE THEIR SWEATERS

The Student Commission long ago voted to give the two yell leader captains sweaters for each year of service. This year the sweaters are slow coming. Hunkins and Curtis have been putting pressure on the individual members of the Commission, asking for the rewards they deserve, but it appears that the Commission is silently waiting for school to let out and its hecklers to graduate.

Quotable Quotes

(By Associated Collegiate Press)

"There seems to be a new tendency to hold fairs with increasing frequency as a means of celebrating national or local historical events. It is safe to assume that the need for experts in this field possessed of specialized training, knowledge and experience will be increasingly great." So, announces Hunter College's Prof. Broderick Cohen, his institution will inaugurate a course in international expositions.

"It's a good thing graduates get a sheep skin when they leave school for they will need an extra skin when they get out in the struggle of real life." An Alabama Polytechnic Institute student newspaper editorial columnist makes an old saw into a cutting remark.

"This world was created several years back, and really will continue several years more, I hope. Changing hats, changing dresses, changing world." Natalie Simpson, Texas State College for junior women, wins a speaking contest with her version of "This Changing World."

This Collegiate World

Jottings from your correspondent's collegiana cuff: Little Billy Hollenbeck tried to buy the old buildings of the University of Omaha for five dollars the other day. The deal was left hanging because Billy is a minor—six years old... He wanted the building to have fun in before it was torn down—sort of giving it a party after its long pedagogical years... University of Minnesota student politicians are fighting over who should be where in the junior prom line of march. What's needed is a good blue book to catalogue the blue-bloods on the campus... University of Louisville's main buildings formerly housed a juvenile reform school... Which will prompt many side-of-the-mouth wisecracks... It costs the government $1,000 to train, at Annapolis, an officer of the U. S. navy... The Harvard University library contains 3,800,000 books and pamphlets... The largest R.O.T.C. unit in the U. S. is at Ohio State University. It forms a company front over a half mile long... Now that its getting near graduation time, you may be interested in knowing that U. S. college and university commencements cost about twenty million dollars a year... College students are taller and heavier than they were twenty years ago... The average college student spends five hours a week in bull sessions... American colleges give away approximately $30,000,000 a year in scholarships... And the U. S. universities have more than $2,250,000,000 invested in buildings and grounds and other physical facilities... Only one-half of one per cent of the college students are 15 years of age or under... Which concludes our factual collegiana for this week.

Fruit trees are blossoming two weeks ahead of schedule this spring, according to reports from the New York fruit belt. This has caused farmers to worry over possible losses by frost.

The Federal Crop Insurance Corporation will carry its reserve in actual wheat. This program is not wheat price insurance. It is wheat yield insurance. It insures that the farmer will have the equivalent of a half or three-quarters crop to sell. The wheat grower himself pays in enough to cover average crop losses over a period of years.

In South Dakota, between a million and a million and a half pheasants are reported bagged each year—far more than the total combined take of prairie chicken and sharp-tailed grouse which once abounded there.

A scrub bull makes the best quality beef when slaughtered under 6 months of age. Breeding is the foundation and feeding the framework upon which the successful livestock program is built. A good bull is half the herd. A sire loan may be obtained thru the North Dakota Mutual Aid Corporation. Applications are made at the county agent's office.

At the Movies

FARGO THEATRE

You'd never know the old farm now—it's a streamlined Radio Center, with Shirley Temple on a happiness hook-up in the title role of "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm," her best-of-all musical. The first star of the screen is supported by her starriest cast, sunniest songs, swingiest dances and a hey-hey load of laughter in this new 20th Century-Fox musicomedie hit opening Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

"A Slight Case of Murder," with Edward G. Robinson and Allen Jenkins, opens Thursday and continues through Saturday. The story: comes repeal, and the beer baron Remy Marco (Ed. G. Robinson) tells his mob that he's going "legitimate"—no more police blotter stuff for it's the social register, now!

GRAND THEATRE

Reunited in the same type of film that vaulted them to screen fame, Dorothy Lamour and Ray Milland are seen together again in "Her Jungle Love," the new technicolor film that comes to the Grand Theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

STATE THEATRE

"I Met Him in Paris," that mad, crazy story of an eternal triangle getting twisted in a program of thrilling winter sports at Interlachen with Claudette Colbert, Melvyn Douglas, and Robert Young, starts Sunday.

"May You for Tomorrow," with Victore Moore, Beulah Bondi, and Fay Bainter opens on Tuesday.

"Call It A Day," starring Olivia de Havilland, Anita Louise, and Roland Young, opens on Thursday at the State. It is the story of the first day of spring, as hectically lived by a large family, several artists, and many "eligible" young people.

Birch and Mrs. Hogoboom pouring... Perry Brekke spent the week-end in Grand Forks and McVillage. Vic Hulstrand, Park River; Kent Helland Crookston; and Herman Muller, Crookston, spent the week-end at their respective homes.

Cynosure Wins Newspaper Contest

Fargo high school's entry, The Cynosure, carried off sweepstakes honors in the annual May Festival high school newspaper contest conducted by Alpha Phi Gamma, journalistic fraternity. Charles R. Andrus, state editor of the Fargo Forum, judged the entries.

The Valley City Hi-Liner Herald was a close runner-up for sweepstakes award. Last year's winner, the Carrington High Sentinel, again won class honors but finished third in the sweepstakes competition.

The Cynosure also won Class A honors, with the Valley City paper receiving honorable mention. The Aggie Chronicle of the Walsh County Agricultural school was tops in Class B and Carrington in Class C. The Dickinson High Chronicle was adjudged best mimeographed paper with honorable mention going to the Northwood High School Review and the Cavalier Orange and Black.

Repeating its last year's victory, the Michigan High School Green and Gold Gazette won Class E honors, a division for sections of weekly newspapers edited by high school students.

Traveling trophies are awarded all class winners and winner of the sweepstakes title. Manager of this year's contest was John Lynch.

A hundred couples attired in sweaters (and other clothes, of course) attended the annual Rennselaer Polytechnic Institute sweater dance.

Visitors Wind Up Successful Season

"Back to the farm" was the order of the day as several hundred youthful competitors in NDSC's annual May Festival Saturday wound up their three-day session on the campus. Highlights of the week-end visit were contests in agriculture, literary and home economics divisions; open houses by college botany, engineering and pharmacy departments; a joint all-college and inter-high school dance, and renewing of acquaintanceships started at former May Festivals.

Devils Lake, Mohall, Park River and Rolla high schools won major honors in agriculture judging team contests. Mayville high school girls captured top ranking in home economics competition, followed by LaMoure. Fargo high school carried off the literary sweepstakes award.

500 Attend Banquet

Awards were announced Friday at a banquet in Ceres hall attended by more than 500 contestants and coaches. Presiding was Dean H. L. Walster who also presented agriculture awards. Miss Christine Finlayson, presented home economics trophies.

Winner of the Phi Upsilon Omicron award for high scoring individual in home economics was New Rockford. Wallace Thimpson of Park River won the Alpha Zeta award; Melvin Loge of Cooperstown, the Alpha Gamma Rho trophy, and Alfred Albrecht of Rolla, Saddle and Sirlin's award.

A Williston high school boy, Orrin Anderson, won the annual FFA public speaking contest and will compete in regional contests at Ames, Iowa, in August. Robert Forbes of LaMoure, runner-up who was adjudged to have the best radio voice, will represent North Dakota in the national FFA program over a national Farm and Home hour.

Eight boys were elected state farmers by the FFA group. They are Clifford Nygard of Park River, Earl Walters of Starkweather, Clarence Welandor of LaMoure, Marvin Albertson of Maddock, Lester Drege of Rugby, Francis Daniels of Ray, Donald Bahl of Mohall and Howard Jacobson of Maddock.

Niagara Man Gets Iowa Fellowship

Kirk Crawford of Niagara, who will graduate this June from the agricultural engineering course in the School of Agriculture at NDSC, has just received a research fellowship in agricultural engineering at Iowa State College, Ames, Ia. He assumes his research fellowship work at Ames this September.

While at the Iowa institution, Crawford will work in the field of farm structures under the direction of Dr. J. B. Davidson, agricultural engineer of international renown. Crawford expects to complete work for his master of science degree by 1939 at Iowa State.

This fellowship is one of eleven awarded this year in the field of Agricultural engineering by Iowa State College, according to Prof. H. F. McColly, head of agricultural engineering at the NDSC. Other states and countries to be represented besides North Dakota are Texas, Kansas, Georgia, Iowa and Bombay (Poona Agricultural college, University of Bombay, India.)

Among the several honors granted Crawford while at the NDSC are membership in Phi Kappa Phi, national scholastic fraternity for juniors and seniors, and presidency of the NDSC branch of the American Society of Agricultural Engineers.

To See Industries

Charles Lunsford, Ross McCarthy, Lewis Thompson, John Cromb, Harold Rice, Orville Rehmann, Robert Beck, Alfred Murfin, Stanley Heggen, and Hans Nielson visited Minneapolis last week in connection with their work in Chemistry. They visited several industrial plants among them, Minnesota Linseed Oil Co., Archer-Daniels Midland Co., Speed-O-Lac Co., St. Paul White Lead Company.

Sixteen thousand mirrors lighted up the Green Key prom at Dartmouth College.

Tastad Elected FFA President

New FFA officers are Harold Tastad of Rolette, president; Howard Jacobson of Maddock, vice president; Clifford Nygard of Park River, secretary; Clarence Welander of LaMoure, treasurer, and Earl Walters of Starkweather, reporter. Kenneth Erickson of Page was renamed historian and Edward Erickson and W. L. Kube were elected honorary members.

Erickson Heads Instructors

When the North Dakota Vocational Agricultural Instructors association met in annual business session it named James Erickson of Park River, president; George Lee of Williston, vice president, and Carl Roberts of Rugby, secretary.

Dorothy MacLachlan of Lakota is newly-elected president of the Home Economics club association. Serving with her will be Doris Larson of Mayville, vice president; Frances Osborne of Hunter, secretary, and Shirley Cross, Walsh county school at Park River, treasurer.

Women Athletes Picnic In Park

After many postponements the W. A. A. picnic was finally realized last Saturday afternoon from two to seven.

After spending an afternoon at kittenball, tennis, or biking, a lunch that was more than a picnic lunch was served. This picnic also served as the initiation for 18 new members. The new members are: Betty Carnine, Betty Greenshields, Betty Hodgson, Carrie Berg, Lillian Chow, Irva May Vinient, Fay Ann Nelson, Mary Jones, Regina Garrity, D. Hoally, Ruth Askegaard, Marjorie Cooper, Helen Peterson, Genevieve Maxon, Barbara Sjodal, Betty Langdon, Inger Ruland, Agnes Gunvaldsen.

KASLOW GETS LEAVE OF ABSENCE

On April the 28th the Board of Administration approved the request of leave of absence for the 1938-39 of Christian E. Kaslow, M. S., an instructor in organic chemistry in the Department of Chemistry of the NDSC. Mr. Kaslow will complete the work necessary to receive his degree of Doctor of Philosophy of the University of Iowa.

Vocational Ag Men To Meet

North Dakota vocational agriculture instructors will attend a three-weeks summer conference, July 5 to 23, at the North Dakota State college. M. A. Sharp, formerly of Iowa State college, now head of agricultural engineering at the University of Tennessee, will be at the conference for the first two weeks. He will direct the work on both methods and skills in shop work. Dr. R. W. Gregory, specialist in adult education, U. S. office of education, will work with the men on evening school and part-time work as it applies to North Dakota. He will be at the conference one week. James H. Pearson, regional agent for vocational agricultural education, headquarters at Washington, will also work with the group one week.

The faculty of the North Dakota Agricultural college will also take part in the conference.

The conference is being planned to fit the needs of the vocational agriculture instructors on the job and will take the place of the one-week summer conference held in the past at the North Dakota State college. College credit will be given to the instructors for the work taken.

The conference has been passed upon by the board of administration, according to Dr. John C. West, acting president of the North Dakota State college.

Vocational agriculture instructors at their meeting held during the May Festival outlined other activities on which they expect to get help.

Arthur Newman Awarded Scholarship

Arthur S. Newman of Fargo, major in soils in the school of agriculture at the NDSC, has been awarded a fellowship in soil microbiology at Iowa State College, Ames, Ia. According to Dr. E. H. Tyner, head of the NDSC soils department, Newman will be working under Dr. A. G. Newman at Iowa State College. Dr. Norman was one of England's foremost soil microbiologists, and was recently brought over from the Rothenstad Experiment Station in England to head up the soil microbiology division at Ames.

Newman is a member of Alpha Zeta, honorary agricultural fraternity at the NDSC.
