Huge Program Mapped Out For Freshman Days

Five Big Days of Orientation Include Lectures, Drives, Dinner and Dance

The class of '41, most of the members of which invaded the campus last night, will be lectured, feted, fed and entertained beginning this morn-ing, by the college administration and cooperating agencies in an elaborate five-day program of orientation designed to welcome, forewarn and adjust them to the four years of college life ahead.

Afte an explanation of the registra tion process and distribution of the student handbook at 9:00 a.m. today in Old Main, consultation with the deans and registration proper will continue throughout the day. At 8 p.m. tonight Coach C. C. "Casey" Finnegan's Bison football team will clash with Omaha City University under the floodlights in Dacotah Field.

Frosh Mixer Saturday

Registration will continue Saturday forencon. A freshman party and mixer will be from 8:30 to 11 p.m. Saturday in Festival Hall with freshman identification needed for admission.

At 8:45 Sunday separate breakfasts will be given for the freshman boys and girls, the boys at the college YMA and the girls at Ceres Hall. Announcements of services at the churches of Fargo will be distributed and representatives of the churches will be present with cars to take new students to the churches of their

The freshmen will then be taken on drives about Fargo and Moorhead in cars furnished by college faculty and interested citizens. At 5:30 both boys and girls will be guests at the college Y groups in the YMCA building.

Dr. C. S. Putnam, veteran Gold Star Band leader, will lead the first year students in college songs and yells at 9 a.m. Monday. Then a series of stags and receptions and meetings of the class are scheduled to take place on the campus, all of which will cul-minate in a huge all-college hop spon-

Tuesday night.

Wednesday the members of the class of '41 will be full-fledged students and will start their class schedule at 8

Scholarships Of $2,500 Will Be Distributed Here

Agricultural Students Receive Awards; Sponsored By Sears Roebuck Co.

Twenty scholarships of $125.00 each, amounting to a total of $2,500, will be awarded to freshmen enrolled in the division of agriculture at the North Dakota Agricultural college for the school year of 1937-38, acording to Dr. H L. Walster, dean of agriculture at the NDAC. Financed by Sears Roebuck & Co. of Chicago, the award of these 20 scholarships will be based upon a full consideration of the char-acter, financial status, seholastic record in high school, and record of interest and accomplishment in agricultural affairs of all candidates.

Copies of the detailed rules and regulations governing the selection of applicants, and copies of application blanks are being mailed to the super-intendents or principles of North Dakota high schools. Graduates of Dakota high schools should consult their superintendents for details. Applicants for the scholarships must submit their applications to the chairman of the award committee on or be-fore Sept. 30, 1937, with the necessary documents called for in the instruc-tions and application. The committee will make the awards as soon as pos-

There will be a band rehearsal this afternoon at 4:00. We play at the game tonight. Freshmen musicians and upperclassmen turn out on time in Music hall. —Dr. C. S. Putnam.

ACTING PRESIDENT WEST

West Greets Freshmen

The North Dakota Agricultural college is approaching its forty-seventh birthday. During this period, it has seen periods of trying times followed by periods of good times. Educationally, however, hard times have never come to the institution. The motto of the Agricultural college, "Practice with Science," retains its full significance.

The North Dakota Agricultural college will continue to serve the people of the state during the year of 1937-38 in the traditional manner that has endeared the school to thousands of alumni. Young people who are willing to make the sacrifice necessary these days to obtain an education will find many kindred spirits on the campus, and will enjoy relations with a splendid faculty. Such contacts will be prized in years to come will be prized in years to come.

To each freshman we extend a cordial welcome with the sincere hope that the events of the coming school year will prove to be both pleasant and profitable.

(Signed) JOHN C. WEST, Acting President.

Upper Classmen Are Hostesses To Frosh Girls

Meeting trains and escorting students to their Fargo residences are numbered among the activities of campus sisters, organization of upperclass women, assigned to assist freshman girls during their orientation to college. General chairman is Evelyn vice-president of the YWCA.

Other activities of the group will include assistance in planning courses and making social contacts. "Social af-fairs will be interspersed with school work in order that students may make adjustment to the new environment as readily as possible," said Mi.s Larson. Social affairs with which the campus sisters will assist are an informal get-together Thur day evening; breakfast, dinner and supper Sunday; recep-tion, tea, and informal party for all women student Monday. They will also assist at the Freshmen mixer.

116 girls are carrying the responsibilities this year. They are: Ruth Piper, New Rockford; Jean Chase, Wimbleton; Helen Peterson, Joan Hugher, Kathleen O'Connell, Jean Paris, Hollis Beall, Emma Mae Britton, and Valdis Knudtson Bismarck: Charagon Paris, Pa and Valdis Knudtson, Bismarck; Charlotte Olson, Virginia Brown, Ruth Lloyd, Geraldine Hullet, Valley City;

Sevrinson, In New Capacity, Cheerful In Spite Of Worries

"Good Morning, come right in and have a chair! I'm busier than a cat on a tin roof at the present moment, but I'll be with you in just a moment, if you can spare the time." Mr. Sevrinson's cheery, living voice fits his new office, and as we of the staff found, more than one can be entertained at a time there-comfortable chairs and receptive ears for everyone. As as istant to the Acting-President Mr. Sevrinson will serve as the men's Advisor and also handle his NYA work from that point.

FINNEGAN'S BIG HOPES IN FORMAL ATTIRE

Jim On Journeys Great Distance To Be Bison Center

From the Isle of Maui in the Ha-waiian Islands to the Agricultural col-lege at Fargo, N. D., is a long way to come to attend college and to play football, but distance evidently means little to the popular Bison center Tin Yan Jim On.

The story of how Jim On came to North Dakota is one that C. C. "Casey" Finnegan, Bison coach, likes to tell. During the summer vacation two years ago, "Casey" received a letter from the Hawaiian Islands. It stated that the writer intended to come to North. Dakcta State to take agriculture and also to play football. Accompanying the letter was a snapshot of the husky, well built native, Tin Yan Jim On. He was attired in his swimming trunks, and in his hand he held a fishing spear upon which dangled a large fi.h. A month later "Casey" and his boys were shaking hands with smiling Jim On.

Jim has everything it takes to be a great football star, and this year as a regular lineman he no doubt will be a station. The Bison coaches expect him to become one of the most outstanding performers to grace a Bison grid team. Other Bison gridmen think the world of Jim. He has a winning personality and is an excellent student. He plans to return to the Isle of Maui in two years and either go into agricultural work or coaching.

Alice Haley Takes Control In Home Ec. Department

Likes New Office, Local Folk, Northern Air; Was in School in Boston

Where are you from, Miss Haley? "Why, I am a resident of Fargo. North Dakota, and a most enthusiastic one, too. I've only been here three hours and I've met ten or twelve of most interesting people I've ever seen, breathed tons of this exhilarating northern air, and have been made very comfortable in my new office."
Such were the exciting first statements made by Miss Alice Haley, recently from the Garland School of Boston, who assumes the duties this week of Dean of the Home Economics department

Miss Haley has had experience in the administration and teaching work of all forms and branches of Home Economics education. She has taught at the Garland School, Boston University, and Pennsylvania State college, and was formerly state superintendent of Home Economics work in Minne-sota. She knows and is interested in campus activities, and is "itching to et to work" here. When questioned about any changes in the department this year Mis Ha-ley assured us that the policies would be the same as usual until "we have become acquainted and the girls and myself know each other well enough so that we can formulate a policy of our own."

The properties of Miss Borderud,

Not much is known about the Omaha team but it is thought to be considerable weaker than it was lat year, mainly through the loss of their two all conference men, Johnck at center and Tyler, halfback. However they have six lettermen returning in the line and since their line was their strong point last year when they were defeated by the herd 18 to 13 the Bison can expect a lot of trouble from that quarter. Two lettermen are back in the backfield to give them something to build around. give them something to build around.
Although Omaha's team was riddled by graduation, Casey Finnegan, Bison head coach warned his gridders this year than ever before. Over 500 son head coach warned his gridders freshmen have registered to date and not to be too optimistic because Omafreshmen have registered to date and there seems to be no let-up on the incoming stream. Both Ceres hall and the men's dormitory were filled to capacity two weeks ago. Housing problems are handled at the YMCA and immediately and therefore Omaha is the presental attention of libely to have a stronger team than expense.

All-Conference Men

The Bison team will be led by the two returning all-conference men, Capt. Forrest Stevens at end and Ernie Wheeler at halfback. At the other end will be Ray Hawkins who teamed up with Stevens also last year. Stevens has been bothered during practice with a bad cut in the palm of his hand but if he is troubled at all during the game the Bison will not suifer for lack of capable substitutes. Ed Wellems is another letterman returning at end and although he is much smaller than the 6 foot 6 inches Stevens he playes just as rough and tough. And right behind Wellems is Joe LaFournaise who comes up from the strongest Frosh team in the history of the AC. At the other end of the line in addition to Hawkins there is Sam Torchinsky who also comes up from the Freshmen

Pollock as Center

The Bison trouble, according to sports writers and fans will be in filling in the gap left by the graduation of three varsity lettermen tackles last year. But line coach Bob Lowe just put Cecil Schrank, one of the 17 sophomores of the squad this year, at one tackle and he had Lloyd Olson, a returning letter-man for the other post. However Olson may not start in tonight's fracas as the nod might go to Chuck Polock (Continued on Page Two)

Has Gorman King Got Your Number With His Date List?

Mr. Gorman King, stubby socialite and personality-man-about-town, last week blushed out with an idea, a charter, a phone number, and a perfectly good okay. ### A Friendly Letter To The Newcomers

DEAR FRESHMEN:

We, like all the rest of the student body, stand ready to greet you with one hand, sock you on the back with the other, and then trip you with both feet. From the time you register today until you come back as sophomores next year, you will probably read little literature, enjoy few conversations, or attend few lectures that haven't todo with just what a freshman should do do with just what a freshman should do when he enters college. Yes, in your Eng-lish texts, in your fraternity contacts, from your instructors, on campus billboards, and in this paper you will see and hear nothing but what you should do—because you are freshmen.

You must allot your time so that you will have your studying done every morning at eight o'clock. You must attend all convecations. You must pass all your subjects. And besides that you will have to squeeze out time to go to shows, dances, parties, meetings of a hundred and one organizations, and then to top it off you will have to get in your daily two hours of exercise, if we are to believe the hygiene books. And all the foregoing is the truth, too, as you will soon find out. We have some advice for you, too. Ours won't fill a book or sound impressive, yet we think it is important. It consists in this: before you meet any situation or choice of actions stop long enough to remember why you came to college and to consider your action and status with a cool, level head. This business of going to college isn't as serious as most of us would like you to feel for you as most of us would like you to feel for you can always retrench, but going back and starting over again usually means wasting one or two years. You can't afford to waste time going through school. Depression days are over, the business world is on its feet again, and there is room in industry now for men and women that are trained in special work—the special work that you came here to learn, and for which this school came here to learn, and for which this school is highly qualified to give you.

The first thing to do if you are to succeed in any home, institution, place of business (or party or dance or club, too, for that matter) is to become acquainted with func-tion of the organization and every person in tion of the organization and every person in it. Make friends with your fellow greenhorns, your teachers, and everyone else out here. Drop in at any office, all offices, and introduce yourself. Ask any question and immediately you will find that you have one or more new friends and a much more thorough knowledge about what is going on about you on the campus. And if you have any spare time come in to the Spectrum office and add to the witty banter that is confice and add to the witty banter that is continuously blowing around here.

Having impressed upon you our importance in this matter, ahem, we wish all freshmen the best of luck this year and remain, as always,
Sincerely yours,

The Spectrum Staff.

Words To You In Editorial Confidence

A great many changes have been made on this campus since the culmination of school last spring. In the last two weeks I have been visiting about in all the departments familiarizing myself with those changes. There seems to be no loss of efficiency. ciency in any department, but there has been a re-awakening—and I don't believe it is so much because of pins and needles as it is new minds and new ideas. A new unity of attitude to be shared by all department heads has pervaded the scene here. The policy is to leave nothing unsaid on the campus, to hash and rehash all problems and then solve them ourselves before we let the rest of the world hear about them—a cooperative venture between students and faculty.

If the students who attend this school don't praise it, who else is going to? It is now up to us as students to help the faculty and administration in making it something to praise. The new Spectrum editor and his staff are in perfect agreement with the situation as it stands, and are going to lead the crusade for betterment. As a strictly student publication, The Spectrum will serve in the following capacities this year: (1) as reporter of all campus activities and personalities, (2) as megaphone for the student voice and voices, and (3) as an active North Dakota Agricultural College booster.

Ted Whalen, President of the Student Commission, has issued the following statement of welcome to all incoming freshmen:

"Last spring you were at the conclusion of a certain cycle in your individual formal education. Today you stand at the threshold of the last and most important one. It is the beginning of a course of preparation which will determine largely the life you shall live when you have finished at this college. College life is by no means always pleasant, it is sometimes very tedious and tiresome. But, as a whole, the years you will spend here will be pleasant. Dig into your studies, keep your chins up and you will feel repaid the time spent at college.

"As a representative of the student body of North Dakota Agricultural college, I extend to you a welcome to our campus. May your deeds and lives further the renown of our college as did those of stu-dents who have gone before us."

Plans are being made to enlarge the scope of the pharmacy department on this campus for the coming year, according to statements made by Dean W. F. Sudro Wednesday. At the pres-ent there are accommodations for 40 freshmen. A number of transfer students are expected this year, but after Jan. 1, 1938, only one year of college credit will be granted any transfer student in the school of pharmacy, due to new demands of the North Central Conference, of which this school is a

In the women's dormitory, the office has been changed to make it more convenient to contact the girls in their rooms. New rugs and furniture have been installed in the parlors of the dormitory.

Every room in the men's dormitory has been decorated. Over $2,000 was spent in this building, according to Mr.

It's Got What It Takes

The Revolutionary Pen That Won't Run Dry In a New and Superlative Model-the Speedline

It's not how much a person has in his pocket that determines whether or not he selects the new 1938 Parker Speedline Vacumatic—it's how much he has above his shoulders!

Some other pens cost as much as this revolutionary invention, yet no one having the "low down" on pens wants to pay these prices without getting these newday advantages. For example:

A new all-time high in ink capacity, hence a Pen that never starts anything it cannot finish. A Pen that shows the ENTIRE ink supply—shows when to refill

—hence one that never runs dry in classes or exams.

An utterly exclusive Style—laminated Pearl and Jet—now with slender Speedline shape—the most restful ever conceived.

And not merely modern in Style, but wholly modern in mechanism, too. Its SACLESS and patented Diaphragm Filler radically departs from all earlier types, regardless of whether they have a rubber ink sac or not.

Be sure to see and try this pedigreed Beauty today at any good pen counter. The Parker Pen Co., Janesville, Wisconsin.
