

207 Seniors To Receive Diplomas Next Tuesday

Exercises To Cover Three Day Period; Many Noted Speakers

With The Spirit of The Land Grant College as the theme, commencement exercises will be held for 207 students this year. Proceedings will start with Baccalaureate Services and an Alumni Ceremonial at four o'clock Sunday afternoon in Festival Hall. The combined ceremonies for Commencement and Morrill Hall dedications will extend over a busy three day period from Sunday to noon on Tuesday.

The specific integral groups making up this total of 207 graduates from the different departments are: from the School of Agriculture, 31 seniors; from Applied Arts and Sciences, 39; Education, 37; Pharmacy, 10; Architecture, 4; Chemistry, 14; Civil Engineering, 6; Electrical Engineering, 12; Mechanical Engineering, 9; and from the Home Economics Department, 37 will be graduated. In addition there will be 8 Master of Science diplomas awarded.

The following rostrum of speakers will divide the honors in the Commencement and dedication activities; Harold Benjamin of the University of Minnesota; Dexter Kimball of Cornell University, a famed teacher of engineering; Carl Tauesch, formerly of Harvard, now with the United States Department of Agriculture; Mervin G. Neale, one time President of the University of Idaho, at present on the faculty of the University of Minnesota; John H. Worst, President Emeritus of NDAC; and Governor Langer.

At 10:00 A. M. on Tuesday morning a procession of robed graduates will form at Ceres Hall and file slowly into Old Main to hear the final Commencement Address and be presented with the diplomas that will definitely qualify them for their respective fields of specialization.

Cow In Corridor Gives AC Release From UND Gibes

NDAC students since time immemorial have had "to take it smiling" when University students talked about the Cow College at Fargo. But now the worm is turned and local students will have a come-back when this institution is termed Cow College. To make a long story short, scan this Tuesday Associated Press Dispatch.

"Putting the pig in the parlor is old stuff. Nowadays they take the cow right into college.

"Perplexed "moos" echoing thick and fast through New Merrifield hall at the University of North Dakota greeted a janitor this morning.

"Investigation revealed the basement and first and second floors were empty.

"But rambling mournfully up and down the third floor corridor was a little Jersey cow. It took two janitors and three students to practically carry bossy down three flights of stairs."

Nine To Attend Geneva Meeting

NDAC will have at least nine representatives at the forty-eighth annual convention of YMCA and YWCA members at Lake Geneva, Wisconsin. The conferences, which are attended by students from 120 midwestern colleges and universities, are designed to give attendants a "period of spiritual inspiration, fellowship, exercise and fun".

Local members who will attend the YMCA conference from June 14-21 are Dick Sweitzer, college Y secretary; John Fisher, president; Arden Burbidge, vice-president; and Bob Sanders, secretary. The basic theme of the conference will be "The Essence of Christianity," as related to the individual, the family, the community, the state and the world.

Attending the YWCA conference the following week will be Miss Delaphine Rosa, faculty advisor; Ethel Olson, retiring president; Marie Carlson, secretary; Phyllis Rowe, cabinet member, and LaVerne Furcht.

Hunter Awarded Blue Key Prize

Is Seventh Recipient Of Blue Key Doctor Of Service Award

As recognition of the outstanding work in his chosen field, Dr. W. C. Hunter, head of the history department, was awarded the doctor of service degree by Blue Key fraternity at a banquet held in Ceres Hall last evening. Francis Ladwig, president of Blue Key, presented the award.

Dr. Hunter has been very active in student and faculty activities since he has been on this campus. He attended Princeton University where he received his A. B. degree. Harvard University for his M. A., and back to Princeton for his Ph. D. On this campus, Dr. Hunter has been active in the college YMCA work, being at present financial treasurer of the state YM-YWCA Conference. He is faculty advisor and treasurer for Blue Key and Sigma Chi fraternity of which he is a member. Other fraternities with which he is affiliated besides Sigma Chi are Phi Kappa Phi and Pi Gamma Mu, being secretary of the latter for a number of years.

This is the seventh year the doctor of service degree has been awarded by Blue Key. The first year, which was 1930, the degree was conferred on Dr. C. S. Putnam; since then the degree has been given to Dean H. L. Bolley, Dr. O. O. Churchill, Dr. C. I. Nelson, Dean H. L. Walster, and Dr. L. R. Waldron. These former recipients were guests at Thursday's banquet.

Pharmacy Students Elect T. Howden

Tupper Howden was elected president of the AC pharmacy club at a meeting held Thursday. Retiring president is Wayne LeBien. Other officers named are Eugene Lee, vice president; Frank Dinyer, secretary, and Celesta Meyer, treasurer.

Complete Plans For Dedication Program

Commemorating the seventy-fifth anniversary of the founding of Land Grant Colleges and Justin S. Morrill, the sponsor of the Morrill Act which made such colleges possible, functions social, intellectual, and impressive will be conducted on this campus next Monday, June seventh. The NDAC will be one of the first institutions of Land Grant origin to recognize the great contribution they have made in building up a greater and more glorious nation when it designates the Agricultural Building as Morrill Hall in honor of Justin S. Morrill in formal ceremony at eleven o'clock Monday morning.

Social functions, receptions, teas, and conferences will be held in the Lincoln Log Cabin all day Monday as a part of the dedication ceremonies. This setting for the functions is especially appropriate as Abraham Lincoln was himself greatly instrumental in the final realization of the Morrill Act which required his signature before it was able to go into effect.

All-College Day Success; ATO's Win Sing Event

Sigma Chi Entry Wins First Annual Greek Group Turtle Race

Climaxed by an All-College Dance attended by about 150 couples, traditional All-College Day festivities were held on Tuesday afternoon. The event was sponsored by Blue Key fraternity with the cooperation of other campus service organizations.

Winning the third annual Spring Sing sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega, was the Alpha Tau Omega chorus under the direction of Bob Sanders, and accompanied by James Moore. They were awarded a travelling trophy. Runner-up was the Sigma Alpha Epsilon chorus which has years. Directing and accompanying this chorus were Gordon Brandes and Fred Martin, respectively. The Theta Chi entry was adjudged the best dressed and won a trophy donated by Matt Siegel.

Haggie the second, Sigma Chi's pride, walked off with the first annual inter-fraternity turtle race sponsored by Alpha Phi Gamma with James Anderson jockeying the turtle to victory over thirteen other entrants. Winners of the other two preliminary events to gain the finals were Gone With The Wind, ATO entry, and Wally Warfield, Phi Omega Pi favorite.

In another feature of the day the Senior Satellites eked out a 16-15 decision over the Faculty Phantoms softball team, despite the Chemistry department's monopoly on the latter team. Other events were a band concert by the Gold Star Band under the direction of Dr. Putnam and free all-college lunch in the evening.

Sororities To Accept Quota

Feeling the benefits derived from the sorority quota system, used on the campus last year for the first time, warranted a continuance of the plan, Pan Hellenic this week made public the quota to be allotted sororities on this campus, for next year.

As agreed, the sororities will be allowed: Phi Omega Pi, 12; Kappa Kappa Gamma, 12; Alpha Gamma Delta, 14; Gamma Phi Beta, 14; Kappa Delta, 15; and Phi Mu, 15.

Mathematically the quota for the groups figured to be somewhat larger than that which they arbitrarily agreed to accept. As submitted by Kappa Delta senior members of a sorority are not considered in the quota. Freshmen, junior, sophomores, repledges, and inactive are counted; to that number enough is added to total 35. (Thirty-five was chosen because it is considered by National Pan Hellenic the ideal size for any sorority on this campus.) The amount added is the quota.

Last year 83 women students pledged sororities. As the quota now stands 82 women will be pledged next year.

Distribution Of Bison To Begin This Morning

College Yearbook Names 10 Outstanding Graduating Seniors

Distribution of the 1937 Bison was begun this morning at 8 o'clock, according to Katherine Kilbourne editor. The distribution is being made in the Registrar's office under the direction of Maurice Benidt, business manager of the annual.

Always one of the highlights of the yearbook, this year's edition has selected ten seniors as most representative of their class. Selection is made by a committee of faculty members. Named this year are Hugh Anstett, Elizabeth Dewey, Walter Ekeren, Lennea Frisk, Harry Graves, Howard Hegbar, Katherine Kilbourne, Wilfred Rommel, Robert Saunders and Jane Schulz.

Several new ideas have been tried out with effectiveness in this year's Bison. One of the most striking features is a student directory listing names of students and pages on which their pictures appear. The book is divided into six divisions with striking offset pictures such as the type used frequently in Life magazine heading division pages.

In the classes division, seniors are arranged according to schools in which they are enrolled. Underclassmen pictures are informal. The administration division has been considerably enlarged and The Bison Life Section features a winter scenic section in addition to candid camera shots.

The cover of the book is padded and is in tones of green, as are the division pages. The end sheets feature an airplane view of the campus. The book is about a 300 page edition.

Burgum Given Alpha Phi Omega Award

For distinguished service to Alpha Phi Omega, Joey Burgum Wednesday noon was presented a special award by the national office. Presentation was made by senior faculty advisor J. R. Dice at a meeting of the group in Ceres Hall. Burgum was vice-president of the group this year, was in charge of the Spring Sing and is the newly elected president to serve next year.

Sigma Xi Elects Whedon President

Sigma Xi, honorary scientific fraternity, recently elected Dr. A. D. Whedon to succeed Dr. Roderick as president; Dr. E. H. Tyner to succeed Dr. Flor as vice-president; and Dr. E. A. Helgeson to succeed Dr. Wirth as secretary-treasurer.

All members of this club have been elected to chapters on various campuses of the country, and are organized to carry out the objectives of the fraternity, there being no installed Sigma Xi chapter on this campus.

Pres. J. H. Shepperd Announces Resignation

Desired To Be College President Emeritus And Associate Animal Husbandman; Has Been President Since 1929

President J. H. Shepperd announced Tuesday that he was ready to retire his office whenever a suitable successor could be obtained. The announcement, which did not come as a complete surprise to students and faculty, was made to the Alumni association board. His statement follows:

"There have been continued and persistent rumors throughout the state since early in the year that a change is contemplated in the office of president. If there is to be a change, it would not be personally unwelcome to me. My service as president has been during some of the most difficult years the institution and the state have had to face.

PRES. J. H. SHEPPERD

It has been a constant struggle. During this time, it has become necessary for me to lay aside almost entirely my work in animal husbandry, always my principal interest. I would be far from reluctant to resume that work where I left off."

Dr. Shepperd has been president since September 1, 1929, succeeding Dr. J. L. Coulter, who resigned at that time to accept an important governmental position in Washington, D. C. Shepperd has been connected with the college since 1893, serving in the animal husbandry department.

While in this department Dr. Shepperd gained national recognition from his research activities. His desire now is to be transferred back to this department expressing "his wish to continue in the service of the college as president emeritus and associate animal husbandman, a field to which he has devoted his life."

According to the Fargo Forum, the resignation cannot be considered by the state board of administration any earlier than June 10, as a full board meeting is not likely until that time. Prominently mentioned for several weeks as Dr. Shepperd's successor is E. M. Gillig, connected with the college as state seed commissioner. Other men who have been mentioned as possibilities are Dr. J. T. E. Dinwoodie, head of the AAA conservation setup in the state and Dr. E. J. Taintor of the Park River Agricultural school.

AC High School To Graduate 15

Olive Arves, Verdine Rice Are Valedictorian, Salutatorian

Graduation exercises will be held next week for 15 graduates of the NDAC high school, with Class Night scheduled for Tuesday, June 1 and Commencement the following night. Exercises will be in the LCT and have been arranged by LaVerne Gilbertson, advisor.

Class Night exercises will include an address by Olive Arves, class president; reading of the class history, class will, class grumbler, class poem, class prophecy and the presentation of a one-act play by the public discussion class under the direction of Virginia Smith.

Commencement exercises will feature an address by Snori M. Thorsinnson; valedictory address, Olive Arves; salutatory, Verdine Rice; presentation of graduates by Principal P. J. Iverson; and presentation of diplomas by Pres. J. H. Shepperd.

Graduates are Frank Adams, Olive Arves, William Callaghan, Hyman Casdin, Alba Connor, Beata Harris, Harold Holmquist, Kenneth Hultstrand, Mildred Krogh, Doreen Owens, Verdine Rice, Burwood Thompson, Henry Vogel, Bruce Weske and Duane Strand.

A post-mortem of the spring's college debates revealed that most of the losers made the mistake of leading with the chin.

NOTICE TO ALL NYA STUDENTS

All NYA employees (men and women) must sign a payroll for the last month before leaving school. Women will do so in Dean Dinan's office. Men will sign the payroll in Mrs. Goodin's office.

Each NYA employee must leave a stamped envelope with summer address with Miss Dinan or Mrs. Goodin at the time they sign the payroll. If this is not done checks will not be sent out. All undistributed checks must be returned to Bismarck after 10 days, so the above regulation must be followed very closely to assure receiving the last month's NYA checks.

Envelopes may be filed and the payroll signed at any time after the publication of this notice.
C. A. SEVRINSON,
NYA Director.

Bison Brevities Directors To Be Given Salaries

Decision to pay general manager and general director of next year's Bison Brevities was made at a recent meeting of Blue Key, sponsor of the show. Applications for these two positions must be made to Francis Ladwig, president, or Dr. W. C. Hunter, advisor, before Wednesday noon. Students applying for positions are asked to submit a plan outlining in detail the duties of those involved in the production of the show. Elections will be made Wednesday afternoon.

Under the new plan the general director will receive a minimum of $50 and ten percent of the net profit realized after all expenses have been deducted. The general manager will receive a minimum salary of $50 and five percent of the advertising he sells plus five percent of the profit.

The plan was drawn up by a committee composed of Hugh Anstett, Reuben Arneson, Francis Ladwig and J. R. Dice.

Bill Buck Heads Kappa Delta Pi

William Buck, junior AAS, was elected president of Kappa Delta Pi, honorary international education fraternity, at a banquet held Thursday evening in the Graver Hotel. He succeeds LaVerne Gilbertson.

Other officers are Lorna Bach, vice-president; Oscar Flateau, secretary; Gwen Stenehjem, treasurer; Mildred Boettcher, historian, and Mr. Lawritson, counselor.

Initiation was held before the banquet for the following new members, Buck, Stenehjem, Boettcher, Flateau, Edna Neal, Kenneth Arntson and James Boulger.

Toastmaster at the banquet was Miss Gilbertson. Talks were given by P. J. Iverson, Glenn Lawritson and Robert Russ.

From A School Boy's Diary

To see the girls come tripping past
Like Snowbirds, willing to be mated.
The Sorority meeting was through at last,
The boys in the lobby waited

No braver he that leaps the wall
By level musket-flashes litten,
Than Jack, who stepped before them all
And was first to grasp her mitten.

He can't remember what they said,
'Twas nothing worth song or story;
Yet that rude path on which they sped,
Seemed all transformed in glory.

To have her there alone with him
It was love and fear and triumph blended,
At last they reached the foot-worn stone,
Where their marvellous journey ended.

She shook her hair from 'neath her hat
And with a "thank you" dissembled;
And yet he knew she understood,
And with a daring wish he trembled.

A cloud passed kindly overhead,
The moon was slyly peeping through it;
Yet hid its face as if it said,
"Come, now or never, kiss her, you wit."

Jack's lips till then had never known
The kiss of mother or of sister,
But somehow, full upon her own
Bright rosy lips, he kissed her.

Perhaps 'twas only boyish love, yet still,
O listless lover,
To feel once more that fresh, wild thrill,
Jack would give—but who can live youth over.

— Frank Buck.

BISON BRIEFS

By IMA FICKLERAT

Somewhere in this, the last issue of the Spectrum this year, the editor will undoubtedly "hand over his shears and editorial bias to his successor." The files of every year find the editor doing this thing. Back in 1927, when Richard Hackenberg was editor, the following statement was made: "The lack of suitable staff material, I feel has been the failure to assure a student journalist of a possible accession to the Spectrum editorship. Let the board recognize a managing editor and 2 associates, with the stipulation that one associate, advancing in due course, will become the editor-in-chiefs 'whip', and in turn editor. Thus would be offset any whim of an 'eternally green' board." Even this editor had faith in the future of the Spectrum, and he was on the inside. If this school should accomplish nothing else in the next few years it would satisfy a host of graduating seniors to see a reconstruction of the board and a constitution of some value. There is not a legitimate reason why the Spectrum should not have a better rating than the "Concordian," St. Thomas College "Aquin," and others having neither the equipment nor the student enrollment. It is not the fault of the students.

The shortcoming of the Spectrum is this. The board is constantly reorganizing the publications staff with the result that no staff member, regardless of his efficiency or term of service, has the least assurance that his services will be rewarded by a promotion or the ultimate editorship. Reporters on the staff this year are acquainted with this system, and unless they are actually in love with journalism and are willing to take the inevitable beating, soon tire of the affair and drop out. This year Kent Helland and Florenz Dinwoodie took the count on the Spectrum, Walt Ulmer and Vinnie Olson took a like rap on the Bison staff, and the same thing has been true for the last four years. The present staff members and "exiles" are interested in the future of publications on the campus of NDAC. They see nothing for the future but a constant deterioration unless the present system is corrected.

This is perhaps an inopportune time for this discussion to appear in print since it is too late for the board to take any serious action this year. But they can rest assured that the same feeling will prevail after the present class becomes the alumni of 1937. It is perhaps a point-blank statement to name the faculty members of the board as the cause of most of the difficulty, but on the other hand it might be wise to let them know publicly since it is impossible to deal with them privately. No grudge is held against them except that they are members of the board.

Perhaps the previous is rather a dull way to end the year. It is, however, needless to say that the graduating class has spent the best four years of its life. The use of the college facilities, the acquaintances made with students and faculty members will be dear and long lived. There is always a richer side of things. But it takes a little of this controversial darkness to bring out these stars. Fond memories will far outweigh the small disappointments and gripes of college days. We are all optimistic when we look into the future of NDAC, it has a wealth of material and machinery and with a few shots of that oil of enthusiasm should roll smoothly as our alma mater.

The Social Climber

Two gin bottles in the bathtub to keep him company, a little water to keep him soaked, and presto! Sigma Chi's Haggie the Second struck right out in Tuesday's turtle race and won 'em a nice shiny cup. 'Amazin' what a little soaking will do! ... Overheard: "They call it the Spectre because it's just a ghost of its former self." Haunting idea, isn't it? ... And then there was the gal who wished she had eyebrows like Jack Kurke's so's she could transplant part of 'em for eyelashes. ... Dot Bentley was caught trying to organize a chain gang out in front of Science the other day—that is, she wanted a gang to help her chain up dandelions. Jerry Monley was doing pretty well overcoming union opposition ... (Extremely) Simple

Synonyms: As naive as the girls who wanted to know the price of a ticket for going on a binge. ... As piquing as any punster punning on pre-admitted personages—Don't shoot Walt, Ulmer-y the gall! ... As unprepared as Sarg. Detroit when he found out that his combination miss-and-slip of last year's senior-futility ball game had not been forgotten. ... As stiff as anybody would be after riding with four others in Verna Thyself's Austin (A new kind of rider's cramp) ... Discussion is going on around the Spectrum office as to the advisability of putting a "Please knock before entering" sign on the door. It seems that Mr. Cobb sort of barged in on a little event involving Marge Arnold and Wilf Rommel.

Mrs. Frank, Miss Ruby Grimes, and Miss Geraldine Ewald will be special guests. Helen Edmonds and Frances Tourlotte are in charge.

At The Movies

A thrilling murder mystery, in which there are two bodies but only one murder, and which is solved by three authors in search of a plot for a play, will bring Lew Ayres, Ruth Coleman, Benny Baker, and Eugene Pallette to the screen of the Grand theater tomorrow only, in "The Crime Nobody Saw," an excellent motion picture treatment of the popular play by Ellery Queen.

The streamline, modern comedy of a private love affair whose kisses splash all over the front pages and whose adventures sell extra editions, with Tyrone Power, Loretta Young, and Don Ameche as the thrilling threesome stepping out in a fast-moving, high-stepping springtime romance, will be shown at the Fargo theater tomorrow, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. In addition to this feature, a special added 20 minute attraction "A Day With the Dionne Quintuplets," will play. "Top of the Town," which has been nearly six months in the making and has cost well over a million dollars to produce, has at last been completed by Universal. This madcap musical will be shown at the Fargo theater for three days starting Wednesday.

Italy, an ocean liner, and a New York opera house provide setting for the madcap antics of Groucho, Chico and Harpo Marx who attempt to guide a pretty girl through a musical career and almost ruin her! "A Night at the Opera" is revived at the State theater tomorrow only. The man who made millions of readers roar with laughter in the famous Saturday Evening Post stories is now on the screen played by film-dom's king of clowns, Joe E. Brown. It's the mirthful comedy, "Earthworm Tractors" coming to the State theater Sunday and Monday with a huge comedy cast featuring June Travis as Joe E's leading lady. Posing as a "front" for two crooks, Betty Furness makes Robert Young fall in love with her, then turns around and falls in love with him, in "The Three Wise Guys," with Bruce Cabot coming to the State theater Tuesday and Wednesday. As the beautiful ex-wife of a gangster, seeking romance and forgetfulness in Florida's high society, Margaret Lindsey comes to the State theater Thursday and Friday in "Public Enemy's Wife."

NDAC Will Miss Dr. J. H. Shepperd

ALTHOUGH it has been openly talked on the campus for several weeks that President Shepperd's term of office was drawing to a close, his resignation Tuesday came as a shock to many students. Although it has not been the good fortune of many students to know the President intimately, he has stood for several years as a figurehead, someone to love, honor and respect.

It would be unfair in such short space to attempt an appreciation of Dr. Shepperd's activities while president of this institution. He did not confine himself to local problems; his influence was and is state and nation wide. A distinguished agricultural authority he won additional recognition for North Dakota Agricultural College. His long service to the institution is known and appreciated by all. He has served as its head through what has been an exceedingly difficult and trying few years and he has served it well.

Truly, NDAC will miss Dr. Shepperd as president. We can only hope that he will continue his distinguished research activities at this school as an associate animal husbandmen—a post which he has expressed a desire for—and who deserves it more?

On Graduation And Parting

AS THE END of the school year approaches, we begin to think of vacation, summer jobs, and a three months release from the daily grind of the classroom. We are busy during these last weeks, but not too engrossed in our own problems and plans to pause and think regretfully of the friends we will lose by graduation. Friendships formed at college have qualities which those formed under other circumstances cannot equal. We know that these seniors, in spite of their eagerness to get out and really begin life, regret the loss of that rare comradeship.

Those who graduate this June will be going out into a world that more than ever needs young men and women of courage and integrity. The groundwork for a much improved social order is now being laid and to them fall the task of building up from this foundation. The attainment of a larger measure of the good life for all is the object of this improved order of things. The making of our democracy a more just and efficient institution is worthy of their best efforts and their highest idealism.

To the seniors we extend our congratulations and good wishes.

Swan Song

AND SO I TURN over my keys to Jimmie Elwin and close up the books for the year. Working as business manager this year has been pleasant at times and not so pleasant at other times. I have appreciated the cooperation that both the editors have given me while we have been together. Those who have worked for me on the business staff deserve a lot of credit for their fine work in making the paper a financial success. They have spent many hours at the expense of their leisure time.

I have found that the people here on the campus and also down town have been ready to cooperate at all times. My troubles with the board were limited to a single issue which was not serious. In closing I think I will miss the many sessions in the office and down at Ulsakers. Many a word has been thrown carelessly around in both places. It will be hard to keep my fingers out. On the whole it was a good deal all the way around and I hope Jimmie will find it so next year.

Motion-Picture Taking Most Attractive To Rosa

Bacteriology Teacher Likes Acting as Advisor To Women Students

By Phyllis Rowe

"I like working with college students very much" laughed Delaphine G. Rosa, professor of bacteriology. That's why she has worked as faculty advisor to the YWCA cabinet for the last two years, one of the heaviest advisory jobs on the campus; that's why she's activity and scholarship advisor of Alpha Gamma Delta; that's why her classes in germology are always so interesting. And her philosophy of life shows she believes in making the world a better place for the other people to live in.

This very "Spanish" looking person has been interested in Escherichia coli, Staphylococcus aureus, and Bacillus subtilis ever since a street-car ride back in the days when she also was a college student, at the University of Wisconsin. In the two mile ride to the campus, Miss Rosa and a fellow student became fast friends. This girl's ambition was to be a laboratory technician, and her enthusiasm was contagious, although a different field was followed. During her college career, Miss Rosa received sophomore and senior honors, became a member of Pi Gamma Mu, and received her Bachelor of Philosophy degree in 1927. In August of 1928, a Master's degree was awarded her. In October of that year, Miss Rosa began her teaching career at North Dakota A.C.

The local chapter of the American Association of University Professors elected her secretary-treasurer in 1932. She served as president of the junior groups of the Fargo branch of the AAUW in 1933. Phi Delta Gamma, national graduate women's sorority claims her as a member.

Miss Rosa's main interest outside of school is in her two nieces, Janice and Patty, of Madison, Wis. The taking of motion pictures has become a pleasant hobby to her, and this summer she will be official camp photographer at Lake Geneva, at the YWCA conference. She excels in archery and swimming, but as yet, has not attempted bike riding. Her trips to Europe and Mexico with her aunt have proved to make her more broad-minded than she already was.

Biography, autobiography, and reading material with a scientific tinge interests her most. During the past year, she has accomplished "Rats, Lice, and History," and "An American Doctor's Odyssey."

Miss Rosa is typically a modern teacher. She meets the students on their own ground, is interested in their own problems. It is her genial laughter that couples with a vivacious personality, a quiet reserve, and a commanding spirit, to make her an ideal faculty advisor, an efficient superintendent over a corps of NYA students, and above all, a lasting friend to those who desire that friendship.

MRS. JARDINE HONORED AT RECEPTION TUESDAY

A reception was held Tuesday night in Festival hall to honor Mrs. John Alexander Jardine of Fargo, who has just retired after four years of service as president of the National Federation of Music Clubs.

Many Seniors Already Placed

(Editor's note — Attempts to get information as to placings of seniors in the Chemistry department were met with refusal so no seniors from that department are included in this article.)

Graduating seniors in the schools of Agriculture, Engineering, Pharmacy, Home Economics and Applied Arts and Sciences who have definitely accepted jobs are: Agriculture: Woodrow Anderson, Washington State Experiment Station, Pullman, Washington; Irven Hagen, Smith Hughes Instructor, Grafton; Sterling Byerly, ass't horticulturist, at the Northern great plains station, Mandan; Harry Graves, extension horticulturist, N. D. extension division; Richard Hamilton, graduate student ass't. hort. dept. NDAC; Harold Halcrow, fellowship at Montana state; Leon Heuer and Peter Jensen, Cargill, inc., grain firm at Minneapolis; Vinton Plath, fellowship, Vermont experiment station, Burlington, Vermont; Arnold Ness, Washington state, experiment station; Leo Holman, extension assistant in ag engineering, NDAC; Donald Klaus, fellowship, Washington state; and Alfred Ballweg, assistant extension county agent at Bismarck.

So far twenty-two electrical and mechanical engineering seniors have been placed as follows: Robert Dolve jr., General Electric Co.; Milton Freundberg, Babcock and Wilcox, New York; Mearl Gifford, Ellicott, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Howard Hegbar, graduate scholarship, "U" of Wisconsin; Magnus Issacson, Elliott company; Robert Larson, Wethinghouse Electric, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Oswald Peltola, Emerson Electric company, St. Louis, Mo.; Donald Putnam, General Electric co., Schenectady, N. Y.; Nicholas Timpie, also with the General Electric at Schenectady; John Cook, Otis Elevator comptny, South Bend, Ind.; Daniel Krebsbach, Commonwealth Edison company, Chicago; Cyrus Sawby, general electric co., Schenectady; Eldred Lee, Milton Martin, Earl Martinson, Roy Peterson, Earl Wollrath, Maynard Walberg and Donald Ward, all received positions with Babcock and Wilcox co. at Barberton, Ohio; and Harold Sundfor, White Mortor Truck Co., Cleveland.

Two civil engineers have accepted positions, both with the state highway department. It is expected that all will be placed later. The two are Harlan Winn and Richard Foster.

Six pharmacists have accepted jobs: Abe Bennett, Bennett Drug, Bowman; Earl Bohnsack, City Drug, Valley City; Walter Ekeren, Thief River Pharmacy, Thief River Falls, Minn.; Norman Glarum, Bitner & Odney drug, Jamestown; Kenneth Kroll, Tiegen Drug, Lakota, and Herbert Lundin, Lundin Bros. Pharmacy, Watford City.

In the school of liberal arts, Don Buchanan, received a fellowship at Chicago "U"; Lennea Frisk, scholarship to "U" of Indiana, Bloomington; Elizabeth Dewey will teach at Grandin; Fred Hagen has taken a job as county supervisor of NYA for Burke county, with headquarters in Bowers; Walter Hughes will be with the Northern States Power Co.; Mrs. Hazel Falley, supervisor of state WPA recreation; Andy Aandahl is connected with the soil survey at Tama Iowa; and Phillip Challog will return to the Philippines.

(Data on Home Economics seniors was not available at time of printing of this page and will appear on another page of this issue.)

Mrs. McVeety Passes 40th Year As College Librarian

By Florenz Dinwoodie

It should have been a celebration but some people do their part and never ask that we acclaim them. On March 20, Mrs. Ethel McVeety, head librarian on the campus, passed her 40th year of service for this institution.

It has been a liberal education according to her to meet the many students and to assist them in the use of the library.

Although her job is to be able to turn to all subject matter in the library books, time will not permit her to read any of them from cover to cover. Up-to-date book reviews as well as departmental recommendations assist in the selection of the new books which are purchased each year. An average of 1,500 books, including bound periodicals and public documents are added to the library annually.

Many years ago Mrs. McVeety was interested in music, but now due to the great amount of her time consumed by the library and other duties, her musical activities must be limited to an appreciation of the performances of others.

College dramatics are to her one of the most attractive student activities. Her interest here is due to the fact that she knows the students who participate. Being interested in outdoor activities she was a regular attendant at football and basketball games.

The center of interest in the library, according to her observations, is the newspaper and magazine section. As to the comparative number of men and women who use the library she could not conjecture. In former years when records were kept, from 600 to 700 have entered the library in a day. And the library has increased from 1,300 to 80,000 books since Mrs. McVeety has been here.

One thing is certain, new facilities are necessary. At present the library has a capacity of about 100 students, and if all those who should, would use the library, crowded conditions would be intolerable. It takes financial stability if people are to invest.

When the college was smaller and more centrally organized, a greater family atmosphere held the students together, according to Mrs. McVeety. Now with local and national groups—not to mention the divisions and departments of college continually increasing, this family feeling has been lost and we are taking on the aspects of a large institution.

Mrs. McVeety was the first full time stenographer for the experiment station. Later she served one year as postmistress and secretary to the president, before taking the course in library science.

Mrs. McVeety attended high school at Redwood Falls, Minn., took a business course in Minneapolis, and attended the University of Wisconsin Library school. Not being a club woman, her interests are divided between library work, church, home, and recreational activities at her summer homes.

Local Mail School Doubles Enrollment In Two Years

By Bud Thorwaldson

More than doubling its enrollment in its second year of existence, the AC correspondence school and extension courses department has grown from a staff of 15 and an enrollment of 2,000 to the present staff of 25, taking care of an enrollment of 5,000. T. W. Thordarson, director of the correspondence school, said. Mr. Thordarson indicated he expects an increase in the size of the school again next fall.

Called "the outstanding project that has been developed by the agricultural college in years," the correspondence school is a supervised correspondence study provided for by special legislation, designed to provide high school education for boys and girls in rural districts who are unable to attend regular classes. The courses are divided into three divisions. Taking the courses in the first division are pupils who continue to attend rural grade schools where they study their correspondence under the supervision of the local teacher. In a second division are regularly enrolled high school students who wish to pursue a course not offered by his school. In this case the correspondence school requires that the superintendent of that high school arrange a special study period, in order to make the extra courses a part of the student's regular schedule. In a third division, disabled people are allowed to study at home and at healing institutions.

Apart from these high school courses are college courses for people who are gainfully occupied but desire to improve themselves educationally or vocationally. They study wherever, and whenever they want to. Under this department, also, regular college students may earn additional credit during the summer months. During the past school year, 20 such classes were organized with an enrollment of nearly 400.

An outstanding product of this school is a girl, 13 years old, who has written over 100 original poems, and who, according to her teachers, shows promise of developing into a great poet. Another girl, who is able to move only her left hand because of paralysis, is one of the school's best typists. A boy who had never had a chance to study art in grade school, is now taking the correspondence art course. His teachers say he is a near-genius.

The course is making it possible for a large number of young people to get started in high school and also for large and small high schools to enrich their curriculums. Pupils, teachers, superintendents of city schools, and all people who have made use of this educational method are highly pleased with it, Thordarson said.

A.W. Anderson To Be Awarded MS Degree

Albert W. Anderson '30, instructor in mechanical engineering at NDAC, who is on year's leave of absence, is getting his Master of Science degree in June from the State college, Corvallis, Ore. Mr. Anderson has been elected to Sigma Xi, national honorary scientific society, and Tau Beta Pi, national honorary engineering fraternity.

SPORT
SPECULATIONS

By Sam Tolchinsky

It seems as if there was a bad error last week when I announced that the Theta Chis were worried over the result of the intramural track meet. But there actually were a few Theta Chis who had thought that they had scored all of their points in the first half of the track meet. How absolutely wrong that view was is shown by the fact that the Theta Chis scored more points in 6 events last Monday than they did in 7 events last week.

Yes, the intramural track meet was finally completed. Believe it or not but the rain actually let up for two days in the past two weeks and on those days the athletic board grabbed their chance to run off the track meet. But at that it was only one week late. The annual spring football game had to wait twice as long for a favorable day.

There were two bits of comedy that really stood out among all of the events last Monday. The first of those came in the high hurdles contest. Emil May was leading the pack by 10 yards. In fact his closest pursuer was more than a hurdle back of him. Just as Emil cleared his last hurdle he let out a loud yip. Whether it was a cry of joy that he had finished hurdling the sticks or whether it was a yell of dismay only Emil knows. At any rate May chose that moment to fold up. When his feet hit the ground his knees buckled and he crumpled into a heap at the base of the last hurdle. After he had picked himself up and finished he found himself fourth instead of the first he seemed headed for.

Wes Phillips claims that he can run the 100 yard dash in 16.4. That may be so but Wes certainly proved that he can not run the 220 in less than 35 seconds. In the relay race Phillips was running as number 2 man; he was handed a nice lead to which he promptly added. But much to his dismay he started slowing down and after running 150 yards he found 'Cap' Toussaint, an AGR, at his shoulder. What's more Toussaint fast pulled away from the tiring Phillips to give the AGRs a 10 yard lead which they never relinquished. Wes laughingly wished that the speedy Emil Mattson had never turned his ankle which fact created the situation where Wes was required to run.

Emil May had already entered the allotted four events so he was ineligible for the javelin throw but he took a couple of tosses just to see how he stacked up against the rest of them. One of his two tosses would have won him second place had he been entered. And by the way, the winning toss of 144 feet, 4 inches was very poor for a college mark. However, it is claimed that Peterich has done much better and it is expected that next year Pete will work out and try to get his mark up to 175 feet.

The only other poor mark of last Monday's meet was set in the pole vault. Fraser won with a jump of 10 feet, 2 inches. However Howard quit jumping after the others had been eliminated or he probably would have gotten at least 4 inches higher. Howard is also still bothered by the shoulder injury he received in basketball. Paul Dahl is the one expected to win points for the AC in the pole vault next year, however. Dahl was unable to enter the meet because he was surveying but it is generally conceded that he would have won. Paul did 11 feet, 7 inches in practice one day without a track suit on.

After James Irgens, Dorm, had trailed 'Chink' Johnson of the Dorm in the half mile he came up and asked the time. When he heard that it was 2 minutes and 6.8 seconds she said that he could afford to be behind in a race that fast. Although that was fast time Coach John Smith expects to have Johnson trim several seconds off of that mark before he enters any track meets next year.

Leaving track for a minute we wonder why it was that Bob Saunders, a Gamma Rho pitched for the ATOs in the game against the University ATOs. We thought that the ATOs were pretty proud of Doc Gallagher as a pitcher until we heard that rumor.

THETA-CHI'S, BERMANN, WIN TRACK HONORS

SAE's Score 25 Points To Gain Second Place

Troseth, May Are Runners-Up In Individual Scoring

By virtue of doubling their point total in the last half of the intramural track meet to an even 50 points the Theta Chis had little difficulty becoming the winner of the 1937 inter-fraternity track championship. Far in the rear was the second place SAE fraternity with 25 points, an even 50 per cent of the Theta Chi's total. In a tie for third and fourth place were the AGR's and the Kappa Sigma Chis with 19 points. The total of the fifth place Dormitory team was 18. The ATOs had 10 points and the Delta Tau Epsilons were seventh with 2.

The Theta Chis scored 4 firsts, 2 thirds and 2 fourths to add 26 points to their total. Rorvig came in first in the high hurdles, closely followed by Elsberry, an SAE. Fink and May, both Theta Chis, were third and fourth. Their other first places were gathered in the javelin with Ed Peterick; the pole vault, Howard Fraser; and in the broad jump with Fraser again.

The outstanding race of the day was the 220 yd. dash where Bermann, an SAE, beat out Lloyd Troseth, an AGR by about a yard. The race was run in the extraordinary fast time of 22.8 seconds. In the 880 yd. run the Dorm entrants captured first and second. Johnson led his teammate, Irgen, to the tape in the almost record time of 2 minutes, 6.8 seconds. In the only other competitive event of the day the AGR relay team of Troseth, Hamilton, F. Johnson, and Toussaint ran the half mile in 1 minute and 40 seconds. The Theta Chis, the only other team entered, was far behind. That race did not count in the point tabulations.

Bermann Scores

Bernie Bermann, with a first in the 220 yd. dash and a second in the broadjump to add to his previous total of 8 points, won the individual trophy. In second place was Lloyd Troseth with 13 points garnered by means of a third in the pole vault, a second in the 220 yd. dash, a first in the 100 yd. dash and second in the high jump. The best that Emil May could do last Monday was fourth in the high hurdles which, when added to his previous 10 points, gave him a total of 11 for third place.

The summary:
220-yd. dash—Won by Bermann, SAE; Troseth, AGR, second; Rorvig, Theta Chi, third; Hamilton, AGR, fourth. Time—22.8 seconds.

Broad jump—Won by Fraser, Theta Chi; Berman, SAE, second; Hamilton, AGR, third; Hanson, Kappa Sigs, fourth. Distance—20 feet, 8 inches.

Pole vault—Won by Fraser, Theta Chi; Strum, Kappa Sigs, second; Troseth, AGR, third; Kimber, Kappa Sigs, fourth. Height—10 feet, 2 inches.

Javelin—Won by Peterick, Theta Chi; Kimber, Kappa Sigs, second; Welles, Dorm, third; Carr, Theta Chi, fourth. Distance—144 feet, 4 inches.

880-yard run—Won by Johnson, Dorm; Irgens, Dorm, second; Whittlesey, ATO, third; Elsberry, SAE, fourth. Time—2 minutes 6.8 seconds.

High hurdles—Won by Rorvig, Theta Chi; Elsberry, SAE, second; Fink, Theta Chi, third; May, Theta Chi, fourth. Time—17.3 seconds.

Relay—Won by AGR (Hamilton, Toussaint, F. Johnson and Troseth); Theta Chi, second. Time—1 minute, 40 seconds.

Letters Awarded To Twelve Riflers

Twelve members of the NDAC rifle team were named to receive NDAs for their fine shooting during the past season, Casey Finnegan, athletic director announced. The award will be in the form of a green shield with a yellow ND over a pair of crossed rifles. During the past few years the riflers have been awarded medals instead of letters. This recognition of the rifle team is given by the athletic department although the team is not connected with their department, being entirely a part of the ROTC work of the school.

Those marksmen who are to be the recipients of the awards are: Conway Christianson; David Askegaard; John Friese; Frank Sorenson; Howard Isaak; Merlen Husen; Lyle Benson; David Ebeltoft; Dale Helliison; John Schoessow; William Vogel; and Raymond Wee. Of this group of 12 there are 6 sophomores, 3 juniors, 2 seniors and 1 freshman.

Awards Banquet Held Wednesday

Members of the Women's Athletic association joined together last Thursday in Ceres hall for the annual spring banquet. All awards of the year were made at this time.

Beverly Barnes acted as toastmistress, and introduced Ethel Olson, retiring president, who presented letters and sweaters to girls who had acquired 1000 WAA points. Margaret Jones, president-elect, presented Ethel and Emma Jordre with NDAC blankets, for earning 3000 points. Ruth Bockwoldt, Ruth Snyder, Mildred Tarplee, and Emma Jordre announced letter winners on varsity teams.

Willa Jean Wells made Senior awards to Emma Jordre and Ethel Olson, for exceptional participation in all sports and WAA activities during their years in college.

Florence Kapau, Annabel Lee, Lorraine Naftalin, Jean Humphreys and Wanda Peterson are newly elected members of the group.

Dean Pearl Dinan and Mrs. Lawritson were the guests of honor at the banquet. Corrine Ballard, Jean Paris, and Lottie Behrens were in charge of arrangements.

Sioux Make Clean Sweep Of NCI Meet

NDAC entrants in the North Central Conference Golf and Tennis meets at Grand Forks last weekend failed to place among the leaders. The University of North Dakota made a clean sweep of these two tournaments as well as the track meet. Bob Mautz and Al Rindy won the tennis and golf titles of the Grand Forks school. Rindy is North Dakota amateur champion.

Although competing without their stellar trackster, Fritz Pollard, the Sioux scored 40 points to lead the University of South Dakota and Morningside by eight points. NDAC had no entrants in the cinder meet.

Three Outstanding Athletes To Be Lost By Graduation

NDAC will lose three great athletic idols by graduation this June. The unusual thing about this is that none of these athletic greats are three-sport men. Bob Erickson has long been known for his prowess on the gridiron and Russ Anderson and Bob Sanders will have a place in the AC basketball hall of fame but none of them were prominent in other major collegiate sports.

Erickson, popularly known as "Bombing Bob" has been a fullback on the varsity football squad for three years. This year he captained the Bison to a successful season. He was named all-conference fullback for the last two years. Exclusive of his gridiron prowess, he is a member of Blue Key, president of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity, and was recently named to Who's Who among American collegiate circles. He is a senior in Agriculture and plans to become a Smith-Hughes high school instructor, if he can get a job. His home is in Larimore.

Anderson, probably the best center NDAC basketball fans have ever seen also was on the varsity squad three years. This year he was co-captain.

Saunders is a scholar as well as a basketball great. He co-captained the squad this season with Anderson and was named guard on the mythical all-conference quint. He has played with the varsity for three years. Besides being a stellar athlete he has found time to be active otherwise on the campus. He is a member of Phi Kappa Phi, Blue Key, president of the Student Commission and a former president of Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity. He was just named in Who's Who. His desire also is either to coach or to play professional basketball. His home is in Mandan.

AGR Wins Trophy In Softball Meet

By defeating Kappa Sigma Chi 4 to 3, Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity won the intramural softball championship Monday.

Herman Larson, the winning moundsman, limited his opponents to three hits and struck out nine. The Gamma Rho's succeeded in getting seven hits from Kenneth Kroll.

Frank Johnson and Lloyd Troseth led the victors in hitting. Johnson hit a single in the fifth inning which accounted for two runs, while Troseth collected two hits out of three times up. In the second inning Les Neumann hit a home run for the Kappa Sigs.

The athletic department will present the winners with a trophy.

AC Tennis Stars Blank Concordia

A squad of NDAC tennis players defeated Concordia stars, 4 to 0 in singles and 2 to 0 in doubles on the Island park courts Wednesday afternoon.

In singles Bill Stewart beat Alf Stavig, 6-1, 3-6, 6-1; Thad Fuller downed Donald Teisberg, 6-0, 6-0; Wendell Wichmann won from Freeman Holmer, 6-3, 6-4, and Emery Westerlund defeated Allwin Monson, 6-3, 6-2.

In doubles Stewart and Wichmann downed Stavig and Teisberg, 6-3, 7-5, and Westerlund-Fuller won from Monson-Holmer, 6-0, 6-3.

Phog Allen, basketball coach at Kansas University, has made public the new regulations governing residence of basketballs.

Formerly a specified air pressure was maintained. Now a ball must have a specified resilience, or bounce.

ROTC Officers To Attend Camp

Sixty-two junior officers will attend the ROTC camp at Fort Snelling, beginning June 6 and continuing for six weeks. Five senior officers have been recommended for two weeks active service, as second lieutenants, at Fort Snelling. The seniors are Chester Olson, Maynard Nesvig, Wayne Springer, Don Buchanan and Walter Crane.

Juniors who will attend are:

Ethel Olson Is Double Winner

Ethel Olson became a double champion yesterday afternoon, when she defeated June Keefe in the Delta Psi Kappa tennis tournament. Earlier in the month, Miss Olson was declared ping-pong winner, defeating Margaret Jones. This success repeated her performance of last fall, when she won the ping-pong tournament from Betty Jané Wylie.

The scores for the final game yesterday were 6-4, 2-6, and 6-4. About 20 girls participated in the tournament.

In the ping-pong doubles tournament, the Jones duo bested Wanda Peterson and Marjorie Lincoln. Beverly Barnes was manager of the tournament.

Miss Olson, retiring president of WAA, was awarded a blanket for obtaining 3000 points, as was Emma Jordre. These two girls also received senior awards for outstanding participation of all campus sports. Miss Nelson has been a member of varsity baseball, basketball, and soccer teams.

Wahpeton Science's golf team defeated the St. Cloud Teachers at St. Cloud, 121-2 to 51-2.

Fargo, MSTC Win In Debate Tourney

In the fourth annual Red River Valley debate tournament held in Little Country Theatre Saturday, Fargo Central high and the MSTC high school teams won. Detroit Lakes was the third school.

Rolf Tainter and Evelyn Stern of Fargo, and Helen McClurg of MSTC were high point individuals. The question was "Public Ownership of Utilities."

Chairmen of the tournament were Thomas Donovan and Thomas Ray. Judges were George Sorlie, Arwin Hoge, president of the Lincoln Forensic club, and Lorraine Naftalin, Charles Birkland and Marvin Nurnberger.

A banquet and demonstration debate between the winning teams completed the evening.

These tournaments are sponsored by the Lincoln Forensic club.

His Spreading Chestnut Trees

I met a spry, old fellow the other day. Thought maybe you'd like to meet him too. He has been awarded the degree of "master of artisans" by Lorado Taft. He made the 1,051 piece Roosevelt Memorial Gate at Bismarck. He has read a great deal in his eighty-five years of unusually active life. Walking to and from his home on thirteenth street and his class here at school, or working in his garden, or pounding crude iron into an artistic candle holder, he keeps in perfect health.

But it is not by these achievements or the many others like them that he should be best known. He has gained that goal for which every man strives, which few ever gain, that goal which no Harvard or Cambridge professor can teach his students to attain. Yet as Mr. Chisholm teaches his class at NDAC how to make a chain out of crude iron, he is at the same time teaching by the example his life presents to his pupils that lesson in success of living which one might travel to the ends of the world to find. Hammering away on the anvil he has forged a chain, but more, he has forged his character.

Mr. Chisholm has turned what is considered a lowly trade into the greatest accomplishment man can achieve. Life has been a pleasure and though he approaches 86 years life still is a pleasure. So here's our village blacksmith, Haile Chisholm, who has found the mystifying key to the only real success—a full and happy life.

"Thanks to thee, my worthy friend, For the lesson thou hast taught! Thus at the flaming forge of life Our fortunes must be wrought."
—Thad Fuller.

Mattson Added To Potato Work Staff

Harold Mattson, an assistant in horticulture at the University of Minnesota for several years is now working on an expanded potato breeding program as assistant horticulturist under Dr. A. F. Yeager, head of the department of horticulture. Mattson's duties involve primarily research. He is stationed at Park River, North Dakota, during the growing season, and will be at Fargo during the remainder of the year.

Campus Sororities To Use Altered Rule In Rushing

A system of "educated" participants is anticipated by Pan Hellenic for the coming rushing season next spring.

In the revised rushing rules to be published soon, many former practices have been simplified and two dates set for meetings at which rushees, sorority women, and alumnae will be informed of the rules to be enforced during the period of pre-rush week, Sept. 18-25, and formal rush week, Sept. 27 to Oct. 3.

Rushees will be called together Monday, Sept. 20, and spoken to about their obligations during rushing. A definite date has not been set for the meeting of alumnae and actives, but it is expected to come during orientation week.

This year patronesses, honorary members, alumnae, pledges, as well as actives, will be bound by rushing rules and the respective chapters penalized for violations. In the case of girls who have been pledged for one fiscal year and intend to be repledged, they will be penalized individually by deferred pledging.

Bids will be taken out by the rushee following the formal teas on Oct. 3. This year all bidding will be conducted in a lawyers office. Leland J. Smith has been chosen in this capacity.

Also instigated by Pan Hellenic for next spring is a new system of extending invitations. All rushees are to call at Dean Dinan's office between 11 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. to receive invitations for rushing parties the following day. A place will be provided where acceptances or regrets may be dropped before 5 the same afternoon. Western Union will deliver invitations Sunday morning for the formal teas. Rushees are to give neither acceptance nor regrets for this invitation.

A Court of Honor composed of regular Pan Hellenic delegates will try all cases of violated rushing rules. Complaints must be filed within 14 hours of the nonobservance. Court of Honor composed of regular Pan Hellenic delegates will meet each noon to consider complaints.

Penalties which Court of Honor can inflict are: (1) For the first violation the next rushing party shall be taken away; (2) If the first violation occurs at the formal tea the group shall lose their social privileges for the fall term; (3) For the second violation pledging shall be deferred for that group until the next term, however, bids may be extended; (4) If the summer rushing rules are broken or the policies are violated the Court of Honor shall determine the penalty.

Lutheran Students Elect K. Arntson

At an early morning breakfast last Sunday in Oak Grove the Lutheran Student Association elected Kenneth Arntson, president; June Mjovig, vice president; Ethel Anderson, secretary; and Reidar Rasmussen, treasurer. Adeline Hoge was in charge of the breakfast.

An exchange program with members of the MSTC Lutheran Student Association was attended last Tuesday.

Gene Trotter Wins Menu Cover Contest

Gene Trotter, sophomore in architecture, won the LeChateau menu cover design contest, conducted among upper classmen enrolled in architecture. He was awarded five dollars first prize. Awarded second place and two dollars was Darrel Hamlet. The designs of these two students will be combined and redrawn by Trotter for the design to be used on the menu cover.

In charge of the contest was Prof. P. W. Jones of the architecture department, who designed the LeChateau cocktail lounge where the menu will be used. The twenty students who entered the contest will be given a steak sandwich dinner at the Chateau soon.

A Vacation Issue Planned By Staff

Students, alumni, and prospective freshmen may look forward to a summer issue of the Spectrum in the morning's mail on or about August 1st. Any help you can offer as to high school seniors and their addresses in your home towns will be appreciated. Also any change of addresses on the student files. Please mail all information and correspondence during the summer months directly to the Spectrum office, is the request made by the editor to all those who are willing to contribute to the venture. Such an issue as proposed will stimulate interest for the next school year and also contribute toward a greater number of matriculating students next fall.—Ed.
