

Rites Are Held Monday For Dr. P. F. Trowbridge

Was Director Emeritus Of NDAC Experiment
Station

Came Here From Missouri
University In 1918;
Died At 76

Funeral services were held Monday for Dr. P. F. Trowbridge, director emeritus of the experiment station of the college since 1934. He was 76 years old.

Dr. Trowbridge was born in Michigan and received his early education there, and studied in Germany, and Illinois, where he got his Ph. D. He was professor of agricultural chemistry at the University of Missouri, and came to NDAC in 1918, where he has made valuable contributions to the fields of animal nutrition and agricultural chemistry. Six new departments have been added since he came to NDAC, including farm management, rural life studies, marketing, farm engineering, entomology, and home economics research. Each was created to meet problems needing investigation, the results of which have been published in bulletins and circulars.

The most recent honor to come to Dr. Trowbridge was when his portrait was painted and hung in the national Saddle and Siroin Hall of Fame in Chicago. Fraternally, he was a member of Sigma Xi, Phi Kappa Phi, Phi Lambda Upsilon, Alpha Chi Sigma and Gamma Delta.

New Commission Members Honored

New members of the student commission will be guests of the old members at a banquet to be held in the Graver Hotel Wednesday at six o'clock. Lennea Frisk, commissioner of social affairs, is in charge.

Talks will be given by the old members explaining the duties of the organization. Dr. and Mrs. D. S. Dedrick will attend.

Delaphine Rosa Resigns Post As YW Secretary

Announcement was made Monday noon at the YWCA cabinet meeting that Miss Delaphine G. Rosa had resigned her position as executive secretary to the group. Mrs. T. W. Johnson has been appointed by the Advisory Board of the Y to replace her.

For two years, Miss Rosa has given her services to the Y, and finally decided the position had become too detailed and took too much time. All Y members will miss her leadership.

Mrs. Johnson was president of the YWCA while attending this college. She has served on the Advisory Board as treasurer for the past five years. Previous to that period Mrs. Johnson acted as executive secretary, and so is well qualified for the position. Miss Rosa's resignation took effect at the last cabinet meeting of the year on Monday.

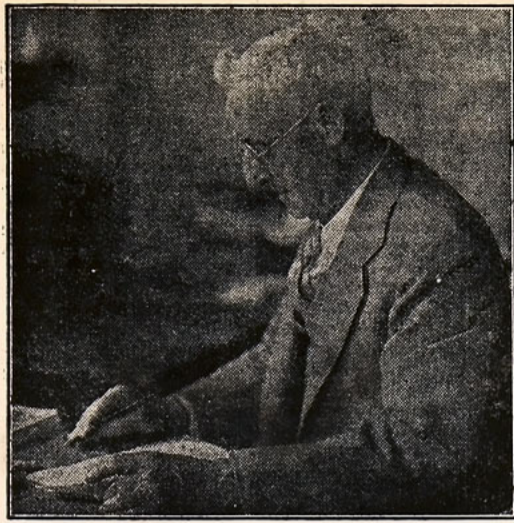

Interest Running High In Greek Group Turtle Race

To the lawn east of the Library next Tuesday all social and professional fraternities and sororities will send their turtles and jockeys to compete in the turtle race sponsored by Alpha Phi Gamma as feature of All College Day.

The turtles, which must be at least three inches in length, will be painted white, and will be given numbers before the start of the race.

The races will be run in three preliminary heats, the winners of which will compete in the final for which there is a traveling trophy awarded to the fastest turtle. A time limit of twenty minutes is set on the preliminary heats, disqualifying all turtles in that heat if none steps outside the circular finish line before that time. No time limit is set on the final race.

Cobb May Be Famous But He's Only A Phantom Sub

"Revenge is sweet"—or so say the Senior Satellites on the eve of their traditional softball battle with the Faculty Phantoms to be staged on All-College day. Having saved up all grievances developed during their four college years here, the Satellites are determined to wreak revenge on the Phantoms (who may not be quite so elusive as while in the classroom).

The event, under the managership of G. Hill, first base; D. S. Dedrick, second base; Mayor Fred Olsen will act as umpire and Pres. J. H. Shepperd will officiate as base umpire.

The line-ups follow:

'Dime Day' Gives Y Coeds Chance For Domesticity

Starting at 11:00 a. m. All-College Day, campus Y members will begin barking across the campus. "Shine, ten cents" won't be the pass word of darkies only—not with Anne Kaiser and Sally Minard in charge of a heated campaign for clean shoes for the all-college dance.

Maxine Schollander and Mary Beth Lewis will take orders for pressing anything from white ducks to cords. There may be a hitch, however, when the cost comes to ten cents a leg, with the tops thrown in free. Men just can't go around looking torn and tattered on this campus. Marie Carlson and Jeanne Paris will sew on buttons, darn socks, and patch sleeves. You bring the buttons. With Marjorie Arnold and Mary Sherwood giving manicures, dainty hands won't be neglected.

lional cooperative studies of the factors influencing meat quality.

Under his administration the Experiment Station grew, not only in size of staff, but in its research program and research facilities. He took a deep interest in all phases of its work, always conscious of the responsibility of developing a scientific program fitting the needs of North Dakota under changing and difficult economic and climatic trends.

Dr. Trowbridge was always ready to lend his assistance and influence to further every good project that the college, church and community faced. He was always loyal to his associates and sympathetic in their difficulties, and practiced restraint in criticism.

The passing of such a citizen is a distinct loss to his college, to science, and to the community.

BISON BRIEFS

By IMA FICKLERAT

It seems that a few thin skins were etched by the personals of last week. No column is good reading unless it ribs or destroys. Anything complimentary is dead. Furthermore, anyone writing a column seems to hurt himself more than anyone he ribs. But these things are all part of the game and have to be overlooked. The fact that your name appears in these lines does not mean that the whole world is against you. It doesn't even mean that the writer is against you. It simply means that a space one column long and 18 ems wide has to be filled each week. Take the philosophy of Uncle Ezra, "Don't fret if the whole world seems against you, it probably doesn't even know you're in it!"

Squibs from Manny Ladwig's notebook—"Everybody loves my baby and my baby loves them."

"Away in a manger, no crib for his exam."
"Four score and seven years ago our fathers brought forth upon this continent a new nation, conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal. Now we are engaged."

Letters are received quite frequently in the economics offices in Pharmacy building addressed to Francis Hall, Mr. Francis Hall, and Professor Francis Hall. Walster and Arnold have combined their resources and will name the agricultural building Morrill Hall which will undoubtedly cause some confusion as to whether Morrill is a sister of Francis' or just another man by the same name. Regardless of the difficulty it is a good idea since the graduation theme will commemorate the anniversary of Land Grant colleges originated by the Morrill act. And that is left of the ceremony is a pageant being prepared by the soils majors to precede the unveiling of a window in Doc Tyners office, according to unofficial reports.

Richard Dick Punchy Sweatpea Hamilton taught the lesson of the week. Ninety girls have been holding out on him, but to their own disaster. For in the early hours of Wednesday night he trekked over to Moorhead high school and hung his fraternity pin to eliminate all hold-outs. We wish them all the luck in the world and expect them to settle down in puppy love until death does part them.

Plenty of undergraduate students could be named who would dote on seeing Butch Wenger strike out with the bases loaded in the last half of the ninth inning with the score at one-all in the game between the Seniors and Faculty on all-college day. However, all eyes will be on the mighty (Ty) Cobb when he steps up to the plate with Searg. Detroit and Tracy Johnson chaperoning second and third base. Searg should probably pitch, he can throw better than anyone on the college farm with any kind of an instrument.

When this column went to press last night, latest reports were that Diz Williams would dance a straight program with the chaperon at the Kappa-Gamma Rho party. Tillie Thompson is chaperon. Orville Goplen was polishing off Tex Brown in an effort to be a guest of honor.

As We Look Around...

That lame-brain sheet, the Spectre, being issued today is an example of adolescent resentment. Students crying out against the existing social order, against the "injustices" they have suffered at the hands of prejudiced professors and berating their own lamentable situation, which, if they would only stop to analyse for a moment, they are themselves responsible for. The paper has not only bits of humor in it, but the paper as a whole is as funny as can be. The sponsors' purposes and ideas are as obvious as is the humor of the pulp stuff, and to imagine the possibilities for it accomplishing its purposes makes the whole thing a scream!

After today the only remains of the year's intense military drills will be the good but exasperating habit of getting up early in the morning. And after this morning's narrow-eyed inspection the advanced officers can now look forward to the rough and ready, hell-raising of camp. The freshmen and sophomores can now go their weary way, slump their tired shoulders, and forget that they have ever partaken of Uncle Sam's man-making service.

"I would prefer to watch the leers and scowls of a wrestler than witness the attempts of some movie actresses or actors." Prof. A. Phillips Beeson, head of the journalism department at the University of Alabama, thumbs his nose at Hollywood half-actors.

The Social Climber

The mouset unusual things happen around here! Just ask the KD's who were recently non-plussed over finding two dead mice in their piano. A new sort of hell-week is going on these days. All the fraternities and sororities are trainin' their turtles for the big derby coming up next week. The main object seems to impress rushing on 'em—but the nicest part about it is that all paddling is done exclusively by the turtles. Speaking of turtles, rumor has it that the Sigma Chi's are planning on giving their entry a shot of caffeine to perk him up a bit for the race. Wouldn't it be too bad if he started staggering instead? Paris is out to create another fashion. It seems that she flits about in a new type of headgear during wettish weather—a sort of triangular kerchief affair. Well, we can see the point(s) . . . They laughed when they heard that Kent Helland was a southerner at heart, they didn't know he was always thinking of Virginia . . . But that still doesn't explain why he was seen sipping green punch at the high school tea in the Log Cabin—or does it? . . . "Too many chaperones spoil the brawl"—just a statement let slip by a guest at the POP lake party. Couldn't he stood it? . . . Dick Sweitzer has been mentioned loud and often by many as the staunchest Gamma Phi addict on the campus. If questioned on the subject, Mr. Sweitzer will probably make a statement like this: "Enough is enough, but Morris too much."

At The Movies

Man the lifeboats!

Run up the storm signals! "Ginger" Jane is in the Navy now, as the rollicking star of "The Holy Terror," the Twentieth Century-Fox riot of fun opening at the Grand theater Sunday afternoon.

Laughable, prankish, riotous—a whirlwind of mischief, excitement and joy—that's Jane Withers, in the starring role which makes her the joy of the midshipmen, and the despair of the admirals. On Tuesday "Quality Street" starring Katherine Hepburn and Franchot Tone will open. On Thursday and Friday Guy Kibbee and Alice Brady merrily lampoon a familiar American type in "Mama Steps Out." And scheduled for Saturday only is "The Crime Nobody Saw," an unusual mystery story with a comic twist.

Its revival week at the State theater this next week, and beginning tomorrow the following pictures will have a one-day-only run: "Mind Your Own Business" with Charlie Ruggles and Alice Brady; "Mutiny on the Bounty," starring Charles Laughton, Clark Gable and Franchot Tone; "Smilin' Through," with Norma Shearer and Fredric March; "Escapade," with William Powell and Louise Rainer as competent leads; "Captain Blood," with Errol Flynn and Olivia de Havilland; "The Story of Louis Pasteur," starring Paul Muni, and "Ah, Wilderness," with Wallace Beery and a five-star cast.

High pressured courtship by a happy-go-lucky spendthrift ex-monarch provides the swift humor in which Director Melvyn Le Roy introduces his new continental star, Fernand Cravet, to American audiences. "The King and the Chorus Girl" will co-star Joan Blondel with Cravet, and show at the Fargo theater Saturday, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

For the remainder of the week, Barbara Stanwyck and Joel McCrea are teamed in "Internes Can't Take Money." The story deals with an unhappy pair who need money, but cannot take it from the young interne's patient—a gangster (Lloyd Nolan). Their destinies are worked out by the gangleader, who applies underworld tactics with efficiency to solve the social problems.

Congratulations To Campus Journalists

GAMMA TAU SIGMA is to be congratulated on being accepted into membership by Alpha Phi Gamma, National Journalistic fraternity.

I have watched our local Gamma Tau Sigma and have found them very active, and I am sure that with the encouragement that will come from the national fraternity thru its magazine and personal contacts an added impetus will be given the membership on our campus.

Activity is necessary for the journalistically inclined person. It develops ability and self-confidence. Guidance and new ideas are essential. Alpha Phi Gamma will furnish a lot of suggestions which will lead to broadening outlook and activity for the local members.

—W. C. PALMER, Director of Publications.

Students Can Make Success Of All-College Day

NEXT TUESDAY our campus will again celebrate the annual "All College Day." This is a gala event with sports and a variety of entertainment which makes it an event to be anticipated with pleasure. Fortunately our college is not too large for this type of gathering and in the past it has been a very successful enterprise.

All students should join with the service organizations sponsoring this fete in an earnest effort to make it as successful as possible. The "All College Day" tradition is one truly worthy of perpetuation. It will be one of our pleasantest memories of college life in the years after graduation.

Tributes Paid To Dr. Trowbridge

By A STUDENT—

WITH the death last week of Dr. P. F. Trowbridge NDAC lost a truly great scientist. At the time of his death he was director emeritus of the NDAC Experiment Station and had gained international recognition for his classical work in the fields of animal nutrition and meat products. Dr. Trowbridge was a pioneer researcher into these subjects, having started his work at the University of Illinois forty years ago. His association with this institution dates from 1918.

From such men as Dr. Trowbridge humanity receives very great, but often unappreciated, services. The researcher is undoubtedly one of our highest types—he must be one who has sublimated his innate selfishness and dedicated himself to the pursuit of an ideal. For forty years Dr. Trowbridge gave himself unstintingly to the service of agriculture. We who reap the benefits of his unselfish labour should cherish and honor his memory.

—J. C.

By A FACULTY MEMBER—

IN THE PASSING of Dr. P. F. Trowbridge, Director Emeritus of the North Dakota Agricultural College Experiment Station, an affactive, energetic, capable teacher, investigator, and administrator has been lost. Dr. Trowbridge has been on the staff of the college since 1918 and has been one of the most conscientious and hard-working individuals, taking institutional duties and public responsibilities with the same intense seriousness and care as private ones.

Dr. Trowbridge received his scientific training at Michigan and Illinois Universities and in Germany. He has been recognized as a pioneer in the study of meats and certain phases of animal nutrition. His work along these lines at the Missouri Station has gained international recognition. On coming to North Dakota his interest in meats and the animal industry continued. For the first time in the history of the AC there are prospects of having a winning track team. Although the AC will not be winning many track meets next year, some of the marks set in the intramural meet indicate that the Bison will be counting points in the coming track meets. Almost as a whole the competitors in last Tuesday's meet ran and jumped with practically no training in preparation for the meet.

Timer Ed Welles was getting a little worried as most of the other officials thought he had made a mistake in clocking Lloyd Troseth in 10 seconds flat in the first heat for the 100 yard dash. But Welles had the last laugh as Troseth breezed in at the finish of the final of the 100 in 10 seconds flat again. That time there were three watchers who all said that Troseth was a 10 second man.

The crowd of several hundred who watched the track meet was cheated out of what promised to be an outstanding race in the low hurdles. After the qualifying heats had been run it was found that the three in the final were all members of Theta Chi. They got together and decided to award the event to Emil May without a struggle inasmuch as Emil Mattson, one of the three, had turned his ankle. May was given first place because he had the fastest time in the preliminaries.

Byron Glad won third place in the high jump although he had never jumped before. There wasn't any track team in Lancaster where Glad hails from.

Although the Theta Chis are far in front at the halfway mark in the meet they are worried over how long they are going to stay in front. They are afraid that they have won all of their points already. The SAEs and the Gamma Rhos should come up strong in the continuation of the meet Monday.

Alfred Murfin proved that he has the real fraternity spirit. When he heard that there were only three entrants in the mile run he took off his necktie, emptied out his pockets and announced himself as an entrant in the mile run. He walked half of the mile and so had enough left to put on a finishing spurt for the crowd which had assembled to cheer him on as he finished 5 minutes after the others. The 1 point that Murfin won for fourth place may mean the difference between defeat and victory for the Theta Chis.

Just a few of the freshmen who are going to win points for the Bison next year are Troseth, Maxwell, Bermann, Mattson, Johnson and Paul Dahl. If present plans are followed next year and the track aspirants do not report for spring football but work out on the track instead, there are going to be several others capable of counting points.

Jamestown college won the North Dakota intercollegiate track championship by nosing out NDU last weekend. Pollard was on the sideline for the Sioux and his absence was the difference between victory and defeat. The Bison two man track team did not score, which was not surprising inasmuch as they were unable to win their event even in the intramural track meet held last week.

The NCIC track meet is being held today and tomorrow at Grand Forks. The Bison are not entering anyone in this meet. But the freshmen have entered the conference freshmen meet. Coach Smith has sent in their best marks and they will be compared with marks which have been sent in by the freshmen coaches of the other conference schools. Smith does not

THETA CHIS LEAD COLLEGE TRACK MEET

Lead SAE's By 11 Points At Half Way Mark

Rain Causes Postponement Of Final Track, Field Events

The Theta Chi fraternity swept into the lead in the intramural track meet by scoring 24 points to lead their closest competitor by 11 points. The SAE fraternity have second place with 13 points. Only half of the events have so far been run off, the last half having been postponed because of rain.

The Theta Chis started out in a big way last Tuesday by scoring a slam of the first three places in the low hurdles. Emil May was first with the slow time of 28.6. May also gave the Theta Chis their only other first place of the day as he tossed the shot put over 38 feet. Bowers of the ATO fraternity was second with a toss exactly one foot less than May's distance. The Theta Chis collected 6 points in the mile run also as Hulstrand, Carr and Murfin, all Theta Chis, followed Elsberry, an SAE, to the tape.

Bermann gave the SAEs another first place as he nosed out Johnson of the Dormitory in the 440 yard run. Maxwell threw the discus 110 ft. 1 inch to win five points for the ATO fraternity. Strum, a Kappa Sigma Chi, outjumped Troseth to win the high jump. Lloyd Troseth, a Gamma Rho, turned in the outstanding time of the day as he ran the 100 yard dash in 10 flat.

If the weather permits the remaining six events will be run off Monday afternoon, Coach John Smith announced. The events left are the high hurdles, 220 yard dash, pole vault, half mile, javelin and the broad jump.

The scores of the other fraternities following the two leaders are AGR 11; KSC 11; ATO 8, Dorm 8; Delta Tau 2. Emil May is the leading individual scorer with 10 points but he is closely pressed by Bermann and Troseth, each with 8 points.

The summary:
100-yard dash—Won by Troseth, AGR; Bermann, SAE, second; Rorvig, Theta Chi, third; Hamilton, AGR, fourth. Time—10 seconds.

Discus—Won by Maxwell, ATO; Rudd, KSC, second; Restemayer, KSC, third; Jim On, Dorm, fourth. Distance—110 feet, 1 inch.

440-yard run—Won by Bermann, SAE; Johnson, Dorm, second; Hamilton, AGR, third; Irgens, Dorm, fourth. Time—53.6.

Shot put—Won by May, Theta Chi; Bowers, ATO, second; Jim On, Dorm, third; Restemayer, KSC, fourth. Distance—38 feet, 1 inch.

Low Hurdles—Won by May, Theta Chi; Mattson, Theta Chi, second; Fink, Theta Chi, third; Dimunation, Dorm, fourth. Time—28.6 seconds.

expect to win this telegraphic meet because the frosh have not been training, but he figures that several of the marks are good enough to win their respective events.

Cards 81 To Win Over Bill Gallagher By Single Stroke

Shooting an 81, nine over par for the eighteen hole Edgewood Municipal route, Harlan Winn won the college golf tournament conducted Saturday afternoon. Runner-up was Bill Gallagher who carded an 82. They will play the winner of the playoff between the Emil Mattson-Palmer Kreutz and the Bill-Gallagher-John Carlisle teams. Both of these teams turned in a score of 178.

Wichmann, Stewart To Play In NCI Meet At Grand Forks

Bill Stewart won the college tennis championship last week when he defeated James Morrill in straight sets, 8-0, 6-4. Stewart had been seeded the number 1 position at the beginning of the tournament. He will represent NDAC at the North Central Conference tennis meet Saturday in Grand Forks.

Also representing this school at the conference meet will be Wendell Wichmann who defeated Emory Westerlund in a playoff yesterday to determine Stewart's partner in the singles and doubles. Morrill, as runner-up, would have been chosen to complete in the singles but he is a freshman, therefore ineligible.

Stewart advanced to the finals by defeating Thad Fuller, seeded No. 2 in the tourney, 7-5, 6-3. In the other semifinals match Morrill won over Bob Brandenburg 7-5, 6-2. In the last quarter final match unreported last week, Fuller won over Carl White 6-1, 6-4.

The tournament was begun last month with 38 racquetees entered. Matches were played on the court in the Field House until outside courts were fixed. The tournament was revived this year, after a lapse of one year. The last college tournament was won by Al Nordlund in the spring of 1935.
