Sletvold, Solberg, Bjornson, Reynolds Win staff Scholarships

Blue Key Awards To Arneson, Lee; New Senior Staff Announced

Recognition Day, sponsored by Blue Key and Senior Staff, honored several NDSC students Monday at a regular convocation period which was held this year on the lawn across from Old Main.

The band, under direction of Dr. C. S. Putnam, opened the program by playing the North Dakota Hymn. As the members of Senior Staff and Blue Key and President Shepperd with an escort enter the grounds, the band played the march, "Americans We". Dayton Jones, acting as spokesman announced a second number by the band, "Swinging Down the Line".

Jones presented President Shepperd who gave a short talk congratulating the people to be honored. In part he said, "These groups stimulate scholarship in that they take in academic work as well as extra-curricular activities being done". Elizabeth Dewey, senior staff president, explained the workings of this group and named the new members to Senior Staff for next year. Activities sponsored by the group during the past year included the crowning of the homecoming queen; giving an open banquet in the queen's honor; a supper for transfer students; sponsoring three spinster skips; Sunday afternoon musical tea; and assisting on all-college day.

Scholarship awards were then presented by Miss Dewey. Helen Louise Sletvold was awarded ten dollars from Senior Staff for having had the highest scholastic average in the freshman class for the first two terms. To Doris Solberg went the tuition scholarship for a sophomore girl having high scholarship and leadership standards. The PEO, Jennie B. Engel tuition scholarship award went to Margretta Bjornson for having the highest scholastic record among the girls in two years attendance at the college. Emily Reynolds received a tuition scholarship from the Woman's Club for high scholastic average in her first five terms of work. Jean Crowley, (Continued on Page 4)

Pan Hellenic To Present Awards To Three Girls

Three co-eds will be honored Monday night as the recipients of tuition scholarships when City Pan Hellenic entertain Fargo and Moorhead sorority members at the annual scholarship banquet to be given this year at 8:15 in Ceres hall.

Miss Geraldine Ewald, NDAC women's social director and a member of Phi Omega Pi, is in general charge of the banquet and will act as toastmistress. About 250 sorority women representing 19 groups, six of which exist on this campus, are expected to attend, according to Miss Ewald.

Scholarships will be presented by City Pan Hellenic, College Pan Hellenic and Gamma Phi Beta alumnae in their Irene Leimbacker Memorial award. Determination of recipients is by special committees of the respective organizations. Candidates are chosen for scholarship and participation in college activities.

Mrs. Leon Metzinger of Phi Omega Pi will be the speaker of the evening. Symbolizing Pan Hellenic and its duty toward individual chapters she has chosen as her subject, "Our Family United."

NOTICE

Women's Senate has decided to present a scholarship to an out-of-town girl who is high in scholarship, activities, and personality. ## Dean Minard Heads Phi Beta Kappas

At an organization luncheon Friday in the Graver Hotel, Dean A. E. Minard was elected president of the Fargo-Moorhead alumni chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, a national honorary fraternity. NDAC faculty members attending the meeting were Misses Helen E. Jensen and Emma Dubetz and Messrs. A. H. Parrott, H. O. Werner, Leon Metzinger, H. L. Walster and A. E. Minard.

Other officers are H. C. Young, vice-president and Mrs. James Conmy, secretary-treasurer.

Riflers Choose C. Christianson

Squad Closes Season With Banquet In Lincoln Log Cabin

Conway Christianson was elected captain of the 1937-38 rifle team at a meeting last week. Christianson will replace John Friese, this year's captain. At the same time David Askegaard was elected team manager to replace Frank Sorenson. The annual rifle team banquet was held last night in the Lincoln Log Cabin.

This year's marksmen won 34 postal matches out of the 41 fired. They also twice defeated the University in shoulder-to-shoulder matches. In the seventh corps area intercollegiate match they placed fifth with a score of 7,535 points out of a possible 8,000. In the national intercollegiate they scored 7,654 points, but no word has been received as yet, as to placement.

The regular team was composed of the following: John Friese, captain; Frank Sorenson, manager; David Askegaard, Conway Christianson, Howard Isaak, Merlen Huson, Lyle Benson, David Ebeltoft, Dale Hellickson and John Schoessow, who were recommended for team insignia awards. Other members were William Vogel, Harold Bruschwein, Donald Hanson, John Dimunation, Gaylord Hild, James Taylor, Laurence Douglass, Carroll Ness, Raymond Wee, and Warren Bennett. Captain A. J. Tagliabue acted as coach.

Lincoln Debate Club Initiates Four

The Lincoln Debate Club initiated four debaters into membership at a club luncheon held in the Lincoln Log Cabin Tuesday noon. The four are Lorraine Naftalin, Charles Birke-land, Sam Mackoff and Marvin Nurnberger. Membership in the club is given only to those students who show evidence of superior debating ability, maintain an 85 average for one term, and have participated in at least three inter-scholastic debates.

Following the luncheon a round-table discussion was held on the subject, "Problems Confronting NDAC Debaters". Arwin Hoge was toastmaster.

A meeting of the club is scheduled for next Monday at 4 p. m. in the Log Cabin. The meeting was called to discuss plans for the annual high school debate tournament which the club sponsors and to elect officers for the next year. This year's high school tournament is to be held a week from tomorrow. About six high schools participate each year.

Make Plans For Orientation Week

Preparation for orientation week next fall has already begun. The Campus Sister movement of the YWCA is under way. Only girls who will faithfully fulfill their duties are asked to sign up. Blank's are available in Dean Dinan's office for this purpose. Evelyn Larson is in charge of Campus Sister's, and will take applications as well as Catherine Brandes and Miss Delphine Rosa.

Feature of the May Festival of 1922 was the laying of the cornerstone for the Agriculture building, which houses all agriculture classrooms as well as the extension offices.

Lilac Pageant Held Despite Rainy Weather

Margie Pfeffer Proclaimed Lilac Queen Before LCT Audience

Senior Cast Presents "The Importance of Being Earnest"

The first Lap on 60 miles of lilacs was rained out Wednesday night. Mr. A. G. Arvold, however, kept the program from being wet blanketed by moving the pageant up the broad stairs to the L. C. T. stage. There surrounded by her attendants, the lovely Margie Pfeffer was crowned queen of the lilacs.

Following the coronation, Miss Pfeffer was escorted to the seat of honor by her twin attendants and Albert S. Hinkle. From her point of vantage, the queen viewed the staging of "The Importance of Being Earnest".

Oscar Wilde, dressed in silk knee breeches, convulsing Denver audiences by his sallies on modern morals, could not have evoked more hearty laughs than he produces in his social farce on the foibles of society, "The Importance of Being Earnest."

From the stark realism of Maxwell Anderson to a Wilde farce is quite a leap for any actor, but Dayton Jones, as an onnicious English rop, made the change with eclat. Virginia Smith proved that a white Wilde heroine is every bit as irristible as a black Juliet; and demonstrating that his humour is not all mental heat-waves ex-columnist Bacuus went to great pains to show that pious hilarity is not the exclusive property of ordained clergymen.

Your reviewer, not wishing to damn with faint praise the Thespian efforts of Marj Rooney, Ivan Brevik, Laverne Gilbertson and Bob Knauer, wishes only to commend their performances as comparable with the best and to present them with verbal Oscars without further ado.

Ed. Note—The inherent modesty of our correspondent prevented him from mentioning his own performance which was superior for a comedy role but not as powerful as Essex in "Queen Elizabeth" or Trock in "Winter set".

Cosmopolitan club outdoor social meeting will be held Monday at 7:15 p.m. at Oak Grove. Those planning to attend should meet at the Y at 7:00. Bring 10c for refreshments. Everyone is invited.

Hanson On Committee To Perpetuate Conservation

By George Putz

To plan cooperative activities in conservation programs for the many experiment stations, forestry departments, museums, and national societies Doctor H. C. Hanson, of the NDAC botany department and experiment station, is convening today in New York City with the National Research Council for the Preservation of Natural Conditions and National Research. The council serves as the clearing committee for all conservation work in the United States and has such important men on it as Dr. H. F. Anthony of the American Museum of Natural History, Dr. G. E. Nichols of Yale, and Dr. A. H. Wright of Cornell.

The general policy of the assimilated group is to organize and correlate the efforts of all conservation workers so that increased efficiency and economy may be realized. To quote from the council's circular letter: "This committee desires to become an active agency in all matters within its field, initiating such undertakings as are within its power, cooperating and inviting cooperation with other agencies, and attempting to coordinate and turn into the most efficient channels the multitude of independent forces which are striving for the same ideals. Through its carefully selected personnel, the committee is in contact with a majority of the various scientific societies and other organizations of this country, and it is hoped that it may come to be regarded as a general coordinating committee for all those organizations, thereby effecting a degree of consolidation and unity in action which heretofore has been impossible."

To Doctor Hanson the whole country is his workshop. After using every minute of today and tomorrow in New York City, he will take a plane to Chicago on Sunday, fly from there to Kansas City, take a train into Garden City, Kan., and arrive in Garden City at 10 a.m. Monday, just in time to read his paper on "The Relationship of Research to Range Survey and Range Management" to the Prairie States Regional Range Survey conference which meets at that hour. His expenses to New York are paid by the National Research Council, and those to Garden City are taken care of by the budget of the U. S. Forest Service.

In the past many complaints from farmers living on the land that is being surveyed have been received because of the overlapping of activities of various organizations. A department may send out five men to map the plowed and unused fields in a certain county and at the same time an experiment station will be mapping the fields given over to weeds in that same county. The Range conference is trying to do away with this inefficiency.

Bison Will Be Distributed On All-College Day

Informality Is Keynote Of Kilbourne-Edited Yearbook

College Annual Is Dedicated To Students; Portrays Campus Life

This year's edition of the Bison, college yearbook, makes "an attempt to portray student life on the campus", according to Katherine Kilbourne, editor, who adds that informality is the keynote of the book. The entire book is now in the hands of the printer and will be distributed to students as a feature of All-College Day, May 25.

Dedicated to the students of North Dakota Agricultural College, the book is a 272 page edition. It will be divided into six divisions—administration, classes, activities, athletics, organization and Bison Life.

An innovation in the senior section of the classes division will be the arrangement of seniors by schools. The underclassmen section will be featured by informal pictures. The Bison Life division this year will be a section complete by itself, exclusive of advertising. A winter scenes section will be one of the features of this division.

Other events on All-College Day will be a turtle race, band concert, softball game between faculty and senior class members, all college lunch, interfraternity sing, all-college dance and "Dime-Day", sponsored by the YWCA. General chairman of the event is Manny Ladwig, president of Blue Key.

Chemists Club Names Farstad Chief For '37-'38

The NDAC Chemists club held its final meeting and election of officers Thursday evening. The following men were named as officers for the coming year: Dan Farstad, president; Charles Lunsford, vice-president; Paul Christensen, secretary, and Edward Switzer, treasurer. Bart Keating was named editor of the Retort, the chemist's annual publication.

Discussions were conducted by Dr. D. S. Dedrick and Vern Iversen.

Robert Gwyther, retiring president, was in charge of the meeting.

Other officers elected were vice-president, Dr. E. D. Coon of the university; secretary-treasurer, Dr. G. A. Abbott, re-elected. Members of the executive committee are G. N. Knight of Jamestown college, and H. G. Murphy of the Dickinson State Teachers college.

Dr. G. A. Abbott arranged a program including meetings, with lectures by prominent scientists. Among the speakers were E. H. Tyner, Cap E. Miller, Perry Hemphill, Willard O. Brown, H. C. Hanson, Charles Challey, O. P. Breland, L. R. Waldron, A. F. Yeager, C. I. Nelson, and Dorothy Herrigan all from the NDAC campus. Guest speaker at the Friday evening dinner was Dr. William A. Shimer, secretary of the United Chapters of Phi Beta Kappa. The talk he presented was entitled "The Synthesis of the Sciences."

ROTC Students Assemble Friday For Inspection

All R.O.T.C. students will assemble Friday morning, May 21, for the annual spring inspection. In charge of the proceedings are Colonel R. H. McMaster, of the 7th corps area headquarters, and Major Rhodes F. Arnold, commander of the Fargo National Guard units.

Friday morning will be turned over to the military department, the corps assembling at 8:00 in the field house. The program will consist of review and inspection; close order drill, by squads, platoons, and companies; extended order drill and calisthenics.

Class room inspection will take place Thursday with sophomore sections two and three, and freshmen sections three and four being reviewed.

Advanced students will receive classroom inspection Thursday afternoon, juniors 1:00 till 3:00, and seniors 3:00 till 5:00.

HUNKINS ELECTED

Dwight Hunkins, junior A.A.S., was elected president of Scabbard and Blade, honorary national military fraternity at a meeting Wednesday evening. He succeeds Eldred Lee. Other new officers are John Pollock, vice-president; Merlin Huson, secretary, and Maurice Ruland, treasurer.

Installation Ceremonies To Be Conducted Saturday Evening

Concordia and Hastings, Neb., Chapters Will Also Be Installed

Campus journalists will get national recognition this weekend when members of Gamma Tau Sigma, local journalistic society, are installed as a chapter of Alpha Phi Gamma, national honorary journalistic fraternity. Installation will be at a combination initiation, banquet and organization meeting at Ceres hall Saturday evening.

Making arrangements for the event is Maurice Benidt, president of Gamma Tau Sigma, assisted by William Murphy, past president. Marjorie Arnold is in charge of arrangements for the banquet. Benidt will preside at the banquet and Murphy at the organization meeting.

Conducting the inductory services will be five members of the Alpha Phi Gamma chapter at Gustavus Adolphus college of St. Peter, Minn. Chapters from Concordia college and Hastings college, Hastings, Neb., will also be installed at the same time. These chapters will comprise the North Central section of Alpha Phi Gamma. Heading the Hastings delegation is Kenneth A. Browne, instructor of journalism, there.

Alpha Phi Gamma is the only co-educational honorary journalistic fraternity national in scope. It also is the only college journalistic fraternity which has a direct affiliation with junior colleges. It was founded at Ohio Northern university in 1919 and at present there are chapters in almost every state in the union.

At the organization meeting of the local chapter Saturday evening a Sectional Vice-presidential and Sectional Secretary will be chosen to serve on the National Council which is the governing body of the fraternity. Previous to this, there have been only Eastern and Western Sections in the society. National conventions are held once a year, the last being during the winter at Los Angeles. National headquarters are at the University of California, Redland, Calif.

Blue Key Makes Changes In Bison Brevities Setup

Next year's Bison Brevities will be under the management of a general manager and a general director according to the present plans of Blue Key, service organization that sponsors the annual presentation. The announcement was made last night at a regular Blue Key meeting held in Ceres hall.

The plan under discussion is expected to bring greater efficiency

Applications for position of either the general manager or general director are to be made in writing and presented to either Dr. Hunter, faculty advisor of Blue Key, or Manny Ladwig, president, on or before May 27.

into the Bison Brevities organization. A committee was also appointed to investigate salaries for the positions.

It was voted to continue to present as the Bison Brevities, plays from the legitimate stage similar to "No, No, Nanette."

ATTENTION SENIORS! Report to the bookstore before May 22, to be measured for graduation gowns. Everyone will wear a cap and gown this year as they have already been paid for in the tuition fee, and so measurements must be had for all who intend to graduate.

REMINISCENCES OF SENIORS AND MAYBE A JUNIOR OR TWO

Howard Hegbar remembers his high school days back in Kensal (wherever that is) and especially likes to tell about writing his Valedictory speech for the class of 1933.

Hugh Anstett graduated at Fargo high in 1933 but few were aware of his potential greatness. Everybody called him Huey after he won the marble tournament in the eighth grade.

Wilfred Rommel, Fargo, was lost until he started combing his hair downward and backward on either side of a drawn diameter like a stallion's mane.

Walter Ekeren, Thief River Falls, Minn., way back in the eighth grade conceived the idea that some day some one would attend the Pharmacy school at NDAC, mix his studies with vocal talent, wear a palm beach suit, and pitch kitenball.

Harry Graves, Cavalier, when only 10 years old planned his entire future. "I will stay out of the grades for 12 years," said Harry, "then I will go to high school and college and show a few of the young punks of that generation a thing or two."

Jane Shulz was once a quiet little girl who listened to her mother. Then a big he-man football player from the iron range came into her life.

Robert Saunders, Mandan, stayed so close to his mother for 20 years that when he was allowed to register for his senior year at NDAC he was not aware of the ways of life and got hooked.

Noble Sanders, Ray (notice there is no exclamation point after Ray) treked down from the western part of the state. But he is not a red—just Pinky. Webster lost a good source of words when he wrote his last dictionary but the potentialities of Noble were not lost by his matriculation here.

Winston Dolve, Hatton, rode on the reputation of his Uncle Dean Dolve and polished Tommy Thompson in his senior year to climax a steady process of building begun in the first grade.

State Youth Marches On

A CANDID glance at the thirtieth annual inter-highschool May Festival at NDAC should convince the despairing one that "this rising generation" is not a group of super-sophisticated, blase, self-satisfied terrorists as it is sometimes painted by the more cynical reformers.

Weekend delegates, just as enthusiastic and naive as the previous twenty-nine contingents to the college, attempted to crowd a maximum amount of activities into the three-day period. They were willing to sacrifice sleep and money in their search for new, informative experiences.

Although the work of A. G. Arvold, festival chairman, and the many faculty members and NDAC students, who drop other activities to specialize on the event's perfection, should not be shunted into the shadows, the May fete is an outstanding North Dakota educational event because of the enthusiasm of the young native.

The festival provides an opportunity for release of talent, ingenuity and sportsmanship. Students swing into the outlet channels with exuberance, then go home fortified with new experiences.

America, Too, Says "Long Live The King"

THE coronation of George VI of England was followed with great interest by people all over the world during this week. This ceremony with its medieval pomp and ritual must have been a magnificent scene to witness.

It seems strange that one of the greatest of constitutional democracies should love this show of regal splendor as do the British. On the face of it the combination of aristocracy and democracy appear to make a very ineffective team.

Even though our country was founded for the express purpose of gaining freedom from governments of kings, we have much in common with England. Today, America and Great Britain stand as the bulwarks of democracy in a world which threatens its very existence.

SPECTRUM
SPORT
SPECULATIONS

By Sam Tolchinsky

The final curtain has been drawn on spring football for the spring and everyone with the athletic department is expectantly waiting for next fall to see whether or not the Bison are going to live up to expectations. If the AC has as good a team as expected next year they will have a good opportunity to show just how good they are. Once again they open up against the University of Minnesota, three times National Champions. I happened to have a chance to watch the Gophers work out last week and although their squad outnumbers ours by 4 to 1 they will have to be on their best to defeat the AC. I personally do not believe that they will outscore the Bison by more than one touchdown and I am sure that the Bison are going to score on the vaunted Golden Gophers.

I read that Stewart and Westerlund finally won the doubles title in the tennis tournament. Any one of these weeks now we will hear the results of the singles contest. I also noticed that Orville Goplen got another story printed in the FARGO FORUM. Although I haven't read the story I am sure that Gop told his readers all about the May Festival track meet.

The rifle team has closed its season after shooting their usual good matches. Their record shows that they lost only about five matches out of more than fifty. Out of 32 college entrants in the Hearst National Meet the AC won fifth place. Although the riflers won several matches by more decisive scores the greatest victory of theirs was over the University. During the week-object of an invasion from the Sioux end when the Bison camp was the stronghold our sharpshooters were the only AC team to turn in a victory over their ancient rivals. At that time every single one of the AC sharpshooters counted higher than the highest member of the Sioux team.

Sam Westgate is the only athlete in this school who is totally ineligible for the coming intramural track meet. Sam, the NCIC record holder in the javelin event, is the only track letterman in the school. Several other trackmen who stay at the physical education building also will not be able to participate unless they pledge some fraternity.

Even though the varsity track team was unrecognizable this year there is a lot of good freshman track material in this school and there is going to be a lot of good marks set in the meet next week. The greatest competition will come out in the dashes with four good, fast men in those events. The Sigma Chi's have certain points in the pole vault as Paul Dahl has often done more than 12 feet. Maxwell, an ATO, seems to be the best bet in the field events and the Dorm has two distance men in Dittbenner and Johnson.

Five Elected To Engineers' Group

Tau Delta Pi, honorary engineering fraternity initiated into membership William Kossila, Wallace Swanson, Earl Mannes, Clarence Putnam, and Robert Follett at their meeting last Tuesday night. The club will hold election of officers next Tuesday night, announced Howard Hegbar, president.

Westerlund-Stewart Team Wins Double Championship

Stewart, Brandenburg, Morrill Reach Semi-Finals In Singles

The doubles team of Emory Westerlund and Bill Stewart won the AC tennis doubles championships, defeating Wendell Wichmann and Thad Fuller, 6-1, 6-8, 6-3 in the final match.

The Westerlund-Stewart team advanced to the final round by defeating Hamlet-Whitver and Monley-Brandenburg. Wichmann and Fuller defeated Brainerd-Erdell and Peterson-Erickson.

In the singles matches Stewart, Bob Brandenburg and James Morrill have advanced to the semi-finals. Brandenburg will meet Morrill for the right to play in the finals and in the other bracket Stewart will play the winner of the lone remaining quarterfinal match between Fuller and Carl White.

Three Tie For First In Bracket

At the end of the regular schedule of games Kappa Sigma Chi, Sigma Phi Delta and Theta Chi softball teams were tied for first place in Bracket A. In the playoff to determine the bracket champion Kappa Sigma Chi won over the Sigma Phi Deltas 2-1. They will play Theta Chi for the right to represent this bracket in the championship games.

Regulation games have not been completed in Bracket B. The Alpha Gamma Rho team is playing the Kappa Psi's today and should the former team win there will be a three way tie also in this bracket between these two teams and the ATOS. In that case playoff games would be held to determine the champion in this bracket.

The intra-mural baseball program will get under way next week following the conclusion of the softball championship game.

Soils Department Places Four Men

Dr. E. H. Tyner, head of the soils department, announced the placement of four seniors of the six graduating from his department this spring and the possible placement of the remaining two to keep the record intact.

Vinton Plath has received a research fellowship at the University of Vermont. Woodrow Anderson and Arnold Ness have been appointed to the experiment station staff of the Washington State college at Pullman, Wash., as soil surveyors and soil analysts.

Donald Klaus received an industrial research fellowship in soils at Washington State college. Art Hanson and Ross Leamer have not received definite appointment but "will find something," according to Tyner.

HUNTOON FETES SCOUTS

As a feature of his entertainment for the Sea Scouts and members of Alpha Phi Omega, honorary scouting fraternity, Homer B. Huntoon, professor of architecture, exhibited his collection of Indian and Mexican relics at his apartment last night.

Fraternities, Dorm To Enter Teams In Intramural Meet

Coach and Manager John Smith has set the date for the annual intramural track meet for Monday and Tuesday, May 17 and 18. Every fraternity and the Dormitory is expected to enter a team in this event.

Smith announced that every man in college except the track lettermen is eligible for the meet. Every organization which wishes to enter a team must have its list of entrants in with Smith by Monday noon.

The schedule of events which start promptly at 4:20 is as follows: Monday; low hurdles, high jump, discus, 100 yd. dash, shot put, 440 yd. dash, and the mile run. Tuesday: high hurdles, pole vault, 220 yd. dash, 880 yd. run and the broad jump. Each man will be allowed to enter only three events.

Sioux Eligible For Grid Title

North Central athletic conference officials, meeting in executive session Monday in Minneapolis, decided that the University of North Dakota football team would be eligible for the conference grid title next fall despite the fact that only three league games are on its schedule. The Sioux will be eligible on a percentage basis.

At the meeting the application of Augustana college of Sioux Falls, S. D. for membership was discussed but no definite action on it was taken. Presiding over the session was Dr. O. O. Churchill of this school, president of the conference. Athletic Director C. C. Finnegan also attended the meet.

The AC 1937-38 basketball league schedule as drawn up at the meeting follows: Jan 7, Morningside there; Jan. 8, South Dakota university there; Jan. 15, Iowa Teachers here; Jan. 29, South Dakota State here; Feb. 7, South Dakota State there; Feb. 11, Omaha here; Feb. 18-19, North Dakota university here; Feb. 25-26, North Dakota university there.

Eckstrom Receives Position At Brown

Dr. Hartley C. Eckstrom, '34, will go to Providence, R. I., in June to take a position as research instructor of chemistry at Brown university.

Upon graduation from NDAC, Eckstrom won a research assistantship at the University of Iowa in 1934. He got his M. S. in 1935, and his Ph. D. in January, 1937. He is a member of Phi Lambda Upsilon, honorary scholastic chemistry fraternity, and Sigma Xi, graduate equivalent of Phi Beta Kappa.

At NDAC, Eckstrom had a major in chemistry and engineering and a minor in mathematics and physics and maintained a 95 average. He was a member of Scabbard and Blade, Blue Key, Phi Kappa Phi, representative senior, cadet colonel of the ROTC, manager and leader of the military ball, campus Rhodes scholar candidate, winner of the Phi Kappa Phi Sparks award of $500 (given to three in the U. S. annually), and president of Kappa Sigma Chi for two years.

Art Hanson, senior in soils, has received a position as golf professional at the Moorhead Country club. He will assume his position after commencement.

AN EXPLANATION

It seems additional explanation regarding the editorial entitled "Intramural Athletic Program Is Deficient Here" which appeared in last week's Spectrum is necessary in order to correct any erroneous impressions which may have been created by this article.

The editorial was not, in any sense, intended to be construed as casting any reflection of the Athletic Department. Its intent, rather, was to present a problem (which we feel is present), to the students in an effort to bring about measures to increase the value of the intra-mural athletic program, as it is carried out now. We feel that a well-planned intramural program is of great benefit to the student body and should be as much a problem of theirs as it is of the department. Any other interpretation of the editorial is unintentional.

This above statement, furthermore, is not to be taken as a retraction of what was said in last week's editorial. We still feel the problem is present and at the same time acknowledge the efforts which the Athletic Department has made toward a well balanced intra-mural sports program this spring. We hope cooperation between the students and the department may help to bring about a permanent well-balanced program.

—THE EDITOR.

Wind Up Spring Grid Practice

Intra-Squad Tussle Held Friday, Whites Down Greens, 6-0

After three weeks of grueling practice on the gridiron Coach Casey Finnegan called a halt to spring football practice last Friday with the long postponed annual spring football game. The intersquad score of the game which ended in favor of the whites was 6 to 0.

Finnegan was very pleased with the spirit his players showed this spring and he confidently expects a powerful team to wear the Green and Yellow next fall. Cecil Scrank, Lloyd Olson, and Jim Maxwell are all showing up well at the tackle posts and have dispelled the coaches greatest worry. The Bison will doubtless miss the line plunging of retiring captain Bob Erickson but Phillips and Wheeler leave little doubt about the efficiency of the fullback department of next year.

The team that played in the intersquad game last week were: Green: Kojanic, c; McClure and Laavig, g; C. Schrank and L. Olson, t; Hawkins and Bermann, ends; F. Johnson, b; Wheeler fb; Whalen and W. Olson, hb. The Whites had Jackson at center; Green and Bastow, g; Maxwell and H. Johnson, t; Welles and LaFourmisse, ends; E. Schrank, qb; Phillips, fb; Sapa and Moore, hb. The Green's subs were: Peterick, Mattson, Calkins, Hoag, Elvick, and Carr. Subs for the Whites were: Ness, Osley, Fraser, Midgarden, Larson, and Southam.

In addition to those who played in Friday's game, prospects for next year include many more who were not in the spring game because of injuries or other engagements at that time. Among those are the co-captains, Stevens and May and several other lettermen including: Holt, guard; Bowers, tackle; Jim On, center and Friederichs, end.

The required minimum is 5 feet 6 inches. Horowitz and Goff of Fargo, Boe of Hannaford, Falt of Fingal and Evans of Wimbledon qualified in the broad jump.
