

W. L. Stockwell Award Goes To Howard Hegbar

Donor Makes Presentation
At Annual Honor Day
Convocation

Recognition Given Five High
Scholars In Three
Lower Classes

Howard Hegbar, senior in engineering, at a special Phi Kappa Phi recognition convocation Wednesday morning received the coveted Stockwell award for scholarship, character, leadership, and capacity for growth. Mr. W. L. Stockwell, the donor, presented the award.

Student members were presented by Miss Matilda B. Thompson, secretary-treasurer.

Preliminary to the introduction of the members, C. E. Davies, national secretary of ASME, addressed the convocation audience. In part, Davies said that "Scholarly attainment is not an end in itself but is a means to an end which includes social and cultural attainment." According to Dean R. M. Dolve, president of Phi Kappa Phi, "scholarship, however, is the basis of honor in Phi Kappa Phi."

Public recognition for scholarship was given to 15 undergraduate classes: Juniors—Robert Penman, Rose Parkins, William Kossilar, Joseph Wright, and Maurice Ruland; sophomores—Margaretta Bjornson, Phil Yuster, Reidar Rasmusen, David Askegaard, and Clifford Svidal; freshmen—Eugene Lee, Catherine Cummins, Garmond Schurr, Clifford Cortright, and Helen Sletvold.

The graduate scholarships which have been offered to college students are as follows: Donald Buchanan, medicine at Chicago university; Harold Halcrow, agriculture economics at Montana State college; Howard Hegbar, engineering at Wisconsin university, and Ralph Smith, botany at Yale university.

A banquet was held in the Graver hotel Wednesday evening for all Phi Kappa Phi members including faculty, alumnae and new members. Between 50 and 60 attended. Dean Dolve, new president, presided. Howard Hegbar spoke on behalf of the students on his winning the fraternity award, and Mr. Stockwell gave the main address of the evening. The nature of his talk was on the status of youth in European countries. Instrumental music was furnished throughout the banquet by Lorraine Weir, violin; Ella Shalit, cello, and Ruth Piper, accompanist.

TO MADISON MEET

Bacteriology instructors in this area will convene at Madison, Wisconsin, today and tomorrow at the regional Conference of the North Central Association of Bacteriologists. Dr. C. I. Nelson, Miss Delapine Rosa, and Mr. T. O. Berge left yesterday by car to attend the convention.

Former AC Student Writes Weekly Letter Via Airways

For college students who don't like to write the weekly letter home here's a tip from Duane Anstett, former A. C. student who is now attending the University of Washington at Seattle. Anstett is a licensed amateur radio operator and before going to Washington had set up his own receiving and sending station at his home here in Fargo—a powerful 500 Watt Phone station, W9BTJ.

With a classmate at the SAE house in Seattle, Anstett has constructed a station, W9DET, and maintains regular schedules of conversation with his family here as well as with three former A. C. classmates. Martin Mickelson operating the station here, and Robert Pollock, operating station W9SNP at Bozeman, Montana where he is a student at Montana State College.

According to Hugh Anstett, brother of Duane and senior here, "There is always an exciting moment when Mickelson, promptly at 11:00 A. M. every Sunday, turns on the power, grabs the 'mike' and says: 'calling

WELCOME Festival Visitors!

The College and I, as President, bid you May Festival Students welcome to our Campus.

We look forward with a great deal of pleasure to your being with us each year at this time and hope that your stay here will be an enjoyable one.

The fact that you are here attending this festival shows that you are the type of student we want to have with us in the near future.

If there is any information that we can give you while you are here, please do not hesitate to ask for it. You are our welcome guests and we want you to feel as such.

Come back next year either as delegates or as students.

J. H. SHEPPERD,
President.

All-College Day Plans Complete

Seven Campus Groups To Be
In Joint Charge of Festivities

After a period of two years during which no All College Day was celebrated on this campus, the custom was resumed last year when members of Blue Key, YMCA, YWCA, Women's Senate, Student Commission, Senior Staff, Alpha Phi Omega and Kappa Kappa Psi cooperated to again establish the tradition. The success of the program last year guaranteed its existence for this year.

Campus organizations sponsoring the events this year on May 25 are: YMCA, finance; Student Commission, dance; Alpha Phi Omega, interfraternity sing; Kappa Kappa Psi, band concert; Gamma Tau Sigma, turtle race; and Blue Key and Senior Staff in charge of general arrangements.

Chairman of the particular committees are: Manny Ladwig, general chairman; Kent Helland, finance; James Baccus, publicity; Lennea Frisk, dance; Bob Saunders, Elizabeth Dewey and Jane Schulz, lunch; Max Thal, band concert, and Bob Williams, soft ball.

The official program follows:

- 1:00 to 3:00—Bison distributed and Open house at various buildings.
- 3:30—Turtle race sponsored by Gamma Tau Sigma and entered by campus organizations.
- 4:30—Soft Ball game between faculty and seniors.
- 6:00—Lunch.
- 6:30—Band concert.
- 7:30—Spring Sing sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega.
- 9:00—All College Dance at Field House.

During the entire afternoon the YWCA will conduct their annual "dime day" exclusively for men.

Honor Groups To Hold Annual Convo Monday

Blue Key, Senior Staff To Make Scholarship
Awards

Senior Staff Will Announce
Selection Of New Members

Climaxing their year of service, Blue Key and Senior Staff will conduct a recognition convocation next Monday at 9:40 on the green in front of Old Main.

Doc Putnam's Gold Star Band will open the assembly with the Yellow and Green followed by march numbers.

Senior Staff gives annually the following awards which will be presented by Elizabeth Dewey, president of Senior Staff: the Senior Staff recognition award to the freshman girl having the highest average Jessie B. Engle P. E. O. award given to the sophomore girl having the highest average for the preceding five terms, and; a Senior Staff tuition award to the junior girl with the highest average.

New members chosen for Senior Staff because of their excellent records the previous years both in activities and scholarship, will be introduced at this time.

The Master Freshman award will be given to the freshman boy with the highest average for the preceding two terms and the Blue Key Scholarship award carrying with it tuition for the next year will be awarded to the junior boy showing outstanding scholarship, leadership, and character. These awards will be presented by Manny Ladwig, president of Blue Key, and he will also introduce Blue Key members.

Dayton Jones will act as master of ceremonies.

Earl Mannes, Al. Forsman To Head Engineers Staffs

The first issue of the State College Engineer under editor Earl Mannes, C. E. jr., Dazey, will be out sometime during the last of May, said Mannes. He succeeds Howard Hegbar and will hold office during the coming year.

Appointed by Mannes to the editorial staff are Associate, Harold Larson, C. E., soph, Jamestown; Assistant, Sig Johnson, M. E., soph, Jamestown; Assistant, Herb Jones, M. E., fr, Fargo.

Named to the business staff by Business Manager Alphens Forsman, M. E. jr, Jud, are Advertising Manager, Melvin Thuring, C. E., soph, Aneta; Assistant, Mark Olson, M. E., fr, Harvey.

Forsman will appoint a circulation manager next fall.

Gold Star Band To Radio Broadcast

Perhaps the last Gold Star Concert for many of the senior members was concluded last night when the band broadcast over WDAY in accordance with National Music week plans.

With Doc Putnam directing, the band gave an excellent performance of mixed numbers.

The performance of the overture Le 'Roi D'ys by E. Halo and scored by Doc Putnam from the orchestra showed excellent musicianship and artistry on the part of the band members. Two marches, a Japanese piece and a characteristic folk piece were also included on the program.

Newman Breakfast To Be Held Sunday

The Newman club will hold its term communion breakfast Sunday morning. Bishop A. J. Muench will celebrate mass at St. John's Orphanage, after which breakfast will be served in St. Mary's clubrooms. Catholic faculty members are to be guests. In charge are Leonette Parries, social chairman, and William Buck, president.

35 Teams Vie In May Festival, Carrington Wins Paper Award

Carrington High Sentinel
Wins Sweepstake
Honors

Michigan, Napoleon, Sheldon,
V. City Win Class
Awards

In the only May Festival competition completed Thursday night, the Carrington Sentinel won sweepstake honors in the first annual high school newspaper contest, conducted by Gamma Tau Sigma, honorary journalistic fraternity. The Sentinel has won honors in other press competitions, the most recent being that of All-American rating in the recent national scholastic press competition.

Judging was by Charles Andrus, state editor of the Fargo Forum. Managing the event was Robert Williams, assisted by Kent Helland and Florenz Dinwodie.

In competition by classes the following papers won designation as pacemaker in their classes: Class A, Valley City Hi-Liner; Class B, Carrington Sentinel; Class C, Napoleon Hi-Life; Class D, Sheldon Scribe, and Class E (section in weekly newspaper) Michigan Green and Gold Gazette.

Other ratings were: Class A—Moorhead Spud, first class; Fargo Cynosure, first class; Mandan Courier, second class; and Grafton Maroon and Gold, third class. Class B—Cooperstown Hi-Record, first class. Class C—Underwood Purple Jacket Journal, first class.

Class D—Courtenay Cougar Courier, first class; Lakota Review, first class; Osabrock Student News, second class, and Minnewaukan Hi-Times, second class.

Scouters' Group Names J. Burgum New President

At the cabin of Homer Huntoon on Lake Pelican members of Alpha Phi Omega, honorary scouting fraternity, held initiation and pledging last Sunday.

Initiated as faculty advisors were Dana Leslie and Charles Severson. Taken into active membership of the organization were Martin Wolf, Ronald Anderson, Erwin Small, and Gil Wagner. Prof. L. R. Steig was initiated as an honorary member. Pledged were: Roy Carr, Ray Carr, Jim Fahrner, Glenn Seibel, and Mark Olson. James Shigley was in charge of the services.

Joey Burgum, junior in arts and science, was elected president at the regular dinner meeting Wednesday. He succeeds James Shigley. Other officers for the coming year are: John Fisher, vice president; John Pollock, secretary; and Erwin Small, treasurer.

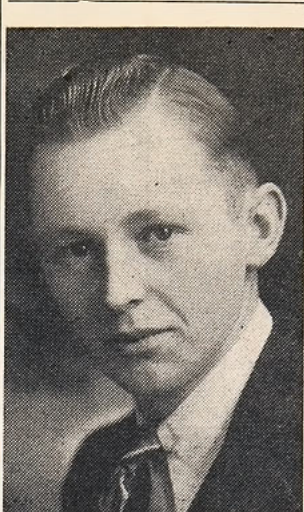

Sigma Xi Honors Dean P. J. Olson

Peter J. Olson, assistant dean of agriculture was honored on April 26 by the active chapter of Sigma Xi, honorary scientific fraternity, when he was elected to active membership in the chapter at Lincoln, Nebraska where he has been taking his graduate work.

On May 31 Mr. Olson will be in Lincoln to take his final oral exam in order that he may receive his Ph. D. in agronomy at commencement on June 7. It is expected that at this time he will also be initiated into Sigma Xi.

PLATH GETS AWARD

A two year graduate assistant ship in soils was awarded Vinton Plath, senior in agriculture, at the University of Vermont at Burlington. While acting in the capacity of research assistant Plath will also be taking work for his masters in soils.

Robert Williams was the manager of the Gamma Tau Sigma newspaper contest.

Lilac Program Set Wednesday

Four Sets Of Campus Twins
To Act As Attendants
For Queen

Three chariots will carry Lilac Day Queen Margie Pfeffer and her attendants to her castle (Old Main) next Wednesday evening at 7:30. There, on the steps, she will be crowned and with her attendants, she will retire to her apartments in the Seminar room.

Repeating the plan of last year, the four sets of twins on the campus will act as attendants. They are Margaret and Jean Jones, Madeline and Catherine Powers, Faye and Fern Ross, and Margery and Madeline Nims. Other attendants named are Ruth Cooley, Jen Barton, Lucille McCarthy, Annabelle Aalberg, Eleanor Bue, Clara Giles, Gwendolyn Stenehjem, and Marjorie Rooney.

On the way to her rooms, the Queen will view a May-pole dance on the open court in Old Main. Following a short retirement, President Shepperd and Donald Putnam, President of the Senior class will escort the Queen to her box in the Little Country Theater where "The Importance of Being Earnest" will be presented by the senior class. Special guests at the play will be the senior class and all faculty members as well as the Queen's attendants. There will be no ticket sales, all seats being complimentary.

Ags, Engineers Arrange Open House For Visitors

By PHYLLIS ROWE

Variety ceases to be the spice of life where engineers are concerned, and the annual Open House will be held during the May Festival. As far back as high school days, many remember the quaint portrayals of horse-power, the weird electric displays, and the array of towering machines in the "Men Only" building.

Each year, each phase of engineering makes an attempt at a bigger and better Open House. The feature of this year's exhibit will be a public address system providing a Man-On-The-Street program with the goggle-eyed multitudes of May Festival visitors. During lulls with "The Man", the soothing strains of Wayne King's orchestra will be heard over the campus.

The Mechanical Engineers have arranged a bouncing-ball display with 1/2 inch steel balls gally bouncing from steel anvils. Perfect timing is the principle of physics or something or other involved here. The Electrical Engineers will feature a Magic Motor, operated by a beam of light. The secret of frying an egg on a cold table may not be divulged, but the exhibit is open to all Home Economics students.

Souvenir cards of blue-print paper will be passed out to all attendants.

Over Thousand Students On Campus For Annual Contests

135 Students Participate In
Livestock Judging
Competition

With well over a thousand North Dakota and Minnesota high school students on the campus, the 30th annual May Festival started yesterday, with judging of livestock and home economics entries taking place.

Stock judging, under the direction of Alvin Strong, was begun yesterday morning, with 135 students from 35 schools taking part. Entered are Anamoose, Beach, Bismarck, Bottineau, Cavalier, Coopers-town, Crosby, Drake, Fingal, Grafton, Hannaford, Hunter, LaMoure, Larimore, Maddock, Mandan, Mohall, New England, New Salem, Page, Park River, Ray, Rolette, Rolla, Rugby, Sarles, Sharon, Sherwood, Starkweather, Velva, Williston and Wishek. These same schools will enter in the grain judging contest to take place today in the agriculture building. Last year's winner in the agriculture division was the Walsh County Aggies, of Park River.

Exhibits of the home economics division are being shown in Festival hall. Last year's winner in this contest was LaMoure. Clothing displays are being shown in the music room in Festival, along with the newspaper display of Gamma Tau Sigma, pictures and work done in the art department, and also the architectural exhibit.

Valley City, 1936 winner of the literary division, is also represented in that contest this year. Most of the competition is being conducted in the Little Country Theater, with members of the Edwin Booth club, as well as the faculty, acting as judges.

Housing for the entrants has been handled by Prof. Rudolf Otterson and Dayton Jones, with groups staying in fraternity houses, the field house, and downtown hotels.

The big event scheduled to start Saturday morning is the track meet, with participants from all corners of the state entering. WDAY plans to cover the meet, with a dozen announcers and nearly a mile of wire scattered over the field to pick up all winners. The contests and the festival will officially close Saturday night, with an all-college-high school dance. Walsh-Sanders band will play.

The Engineering building will form a back-ground for the data.

Maynard Walberg has managed the various departments in their exhibits. He was assisted by George Hilstad and Curt Meland, souvenirs; Bob Penman, the Civil Engineer display; Robert Larson, the Electrical Engineer exhibit; and Cyrus Sawby, the Mechanical Engineer's efforts.

Agriculturalists, not to be outdone by the Engineers have arranged two exhibits in the main hall of their building. James Gannaway is exhibiting wool, in an effort to acquaint people with the United States official grades of wool. He also shows the results of improper management schemes, such as the using of the wrong kind of paint, and the wrong kind of twine. Literature available is in connection with sheep production, marketing, and slaughter.

Mr. G. Geisler has arranged exhibits to show the correct way to prevent soil erosion from rain and wind. Miniature farm lay-outs illustrate these methods.

Open Houses in both of these buildings are for the purpose of acquainting off-the-campus persons with their work. All May Festival visitors are urged to gain what enjoyment they can from them.

BISON BRIEFS

By IMA FICKLERAT

YOUR MOTHER KNOWS THAT—

It is very easy to change a grade of 70 on your term grades slip to 90 without showing the signs of an eraser.

The last ten dollars you wrote home for was not to pay "initiation fees to Phi Kappa Phi."

The boy that took you to the Junior-Senior Ball was not "just another nice boy" in which you have no personal interest.

Girls in Ceres Hall do not get permission to stay out all night "with friends living in town" for that reason alone.

The grains of tobacco found in your laundry kit were not "accidentally dropped there by your roommate."

You did not lose your fraternity pin "while playing a game of kittenball on the vacant lot across the street."

You did not hear "the most interesting sermon" at church Sunday.

You did not come home last week-end because you were "invited to the President's house for Sunday dinner."

Your cold was not caused by the "lack of sleep suffered working nights to get the home-coming decorations up in time."

Board and room bills at the house have not gone up "over 40 per cent" since your freshman year thus requiring 20 dollars per month extra.

You fail to write home because you "haven't even got money to buy a stamp."

You did not go down to meet the 12:30 train so you could visit your Aunt-by-Marrriage from Seattle for a few minutes, as requested.

You did not go to the lakes "on a field trip to collect rare specimens of aquatic life for zoology laboratory."

You did not go to Grand Forks for the basketball series with the Dean of your department, and he paid all the expenses.

You have had more than "only one date this term."

You were not exempt "from all your final exams this term."

You did not have to buy white shoes and flannels for "Blue Key recognition day."

Your fingers were not tinted yellow by "that staining fluid Miss Rosa makes use in bacteriology."

The greased pig contest did not go "over with a bang."

Dirty politics did not keep you out of Senior Staff.

All of the industrious students on the campus do not flock to the Dugout "because it takes so much time to run way up town for a cup of coffee."

It doesn't cost 15 dollars a term for books and supplies.

You didn't hitch-hike home because you "like the thrill of hitch-hiking" and not because you were broke again.

You did not tear the seat out of your new suit on "a consarned nail on the corner of Dean Smith's desk."

Miss Dinan did not call you over to her office to "congratulate you on your scholarship record."

You did not flunk Chemistry because the instructor caught you "passing your paper to a kid that had an awful time passing the course."

You are the most promising person in the world. She prays for you and believes in you. Nowhere is advice and condolence so reasonable; nowhere is love so great. She knows all these things and loves you for it. Remember her on Mothers Day.

Like the grasshopper said when he hit the windshield, "That's me all over."

A visitor from Chicago who has travelled in every state in the Union and seven foreign countries says, "North Dakota has more beautiful specimens of womanhood than any other place on the globe. But the trouble is, they wear so many clothes the year around you don't appreciate this fact." Tear that psychology to pieces.

Usually write-ups of student plays are studded with praise, but this one from the Daily O'Collegian, Oklahoma A and M, Stillwater, Oklahoma, jumps out of the groove: "Other than a few hard falls, a few costume tears, some loud backstage curses, a few mixups in lighting effects, and a few minor changes in the program, dress rehearsal went off last night about as smooth as a washboard."

A hobo with a "good line of talk" can make between $3 and $10 a day, declares Dr. William Bailey, economist and former Yale University professor, who conducted a boarding house for knights of the road in order to study them.

The Social Climber

Everyone who was in the library Wednesday night agreed that the odor of onions was positively tear-rific . . . but who would have thought that it was all on accounta Dwight Hunkins, Harry Curtis, Fifi Probst and Marian Smith's smugglin' in hot dogs? tsk! tsk! . . . What? A harem at NDAC? An ugly rumor was oozing about concerning a certain resident of the men's dorm having his room adorned with beoutiful ladies . . . but as long as they turned out to be just their pictures (about a total of fifty) nothing's been said . . . Oh, and have you heard about the SAE corpse? There's no violence directly involved—a bunch of SAE's just got together and bought a—shall we say—car? They call it "corpse" because it's owned by a corporation, and anyone seeing it asks, "Who left the tomb open?" Seriously speaking, though, it's not such stiff going when they all get in in a body . . . Who's the gal that's been keeping Woman-Hater Walsh up 'til three every night this week? . . . Heard Brauer complaining about having so many ex-girl friends, Says it's getting so he can't double date with anyone who doesn't turn out to be an 'ex' . . . We hear that 'W. H. T.' wasn't the only one who lost an ATO pin. Eh, Manny? Kenny Archer out in the cold, we guess, Murray is beating his staff. Caroline and he holding hands from eight in the morning until star studying time . . . Math. dept. turned into a matrimonial bureau.

If Ellen Endersbee should seem a bit puffed up these days, you'll have to overlook it—one doesn't get one's portrait painted and get invited to come to Chicago to model, everyday, does one? . . . The Barton-Saunders hookup didn't appear Friday p.m.—disinclination, exasperation, or contrition? . . . Quote: "Doesn't Marion Shigley get cuter everytime you see her?"

With The Greeks

Phi Omega Pi—

Initiation was held at 6 Sunday morning in the YWCA for Sally Burger, Margareta Bjornson, Marion Anstett, Betty Lou Johnson of Fargo; Jean Chase of Wimbledon; Lucile Hostbjor of Rugby, and Mary Mahlman of Bismarck. Breakfast was at the Graver Hotel . . . Active and pledge chapters were guests at a buffet supper Monday night at the home of Major and Mrs. Olson . . . Local SAE Unit To Fete Mothers

Members of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity will entertain their mothers at a Mothers' Day tea Sunday afternoon at 3:00 in the chapter house. Phi Upsilon Omicron, honorary home economics sorority, as has been the custom for a number of years, will assist in arrangements and serving. Walt Ulmer, social chairman, is in charge of general arrangements and he will be assisted by Reuben Smith and William Arnold. The fraternity quartet and chorus will sing.

Also, previous to the tea, on Saturday night, the fraternity will act as hosts at a Dad's Smoker. In charge of the smoker are Leslie Voss, Albert Brauer, Robert Elsberry, and Bernard Toman.

Trophy To Best Dressed Chorus

An innovation in connection with the annual Inter-fraternity Spring Sing sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega on May 25 will be the awarding of a loving cup to the best dressed chorus. The trophy will be a traveling cup and it will be necessary for a group to win it three times for permanent possession.

The award will be made on the basis of neatness and general all-around appearance; correctness of ensemble, and style. The trophy was donated by the Matt Siegel Clothing Company.

At The Movies

Only on hate and heart-break could life fashion a love like theirs! Lloyd C. Douglas' celebrated best-seller, "Green Light", the story of a love that was more than a magnificent obsession now becomes a great motion picture, charged with the power, inspired by the glory of the novel that made the world believe in love again, starring Errol Flynn and Anita Louise, with Margaret Lindsay and Sir Cedric Hardwicke. The movie shows Today, Saturday, Sunday and Monday at the Fargo Theater. Because of the hold-over of "Waikiki Wedding", "Seventh Heaven", starring Simone Simon and James Stewart, will be shown at the Fargo theater Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday. Simone Simon as the street waif, Diane, who was afraid to believe in happiness meets James Stewart as the valiant Chico, whose love lifted her to the stars.

"One in a Million", with Sonja Henie, Queen of the Silvery Skates, Don Ameche, Adolphe Menjou, Jean Hersholt, and Ned Sparks. Completing the all-star cast are Arline Judge, the Ritz Brothers, and Borrah Minevitch and his gang, who come to the Grand theater, Wednesday and Thursday. Sonja Henie executes dazzling dances on crystal ice while romancing with Don Ameche in quieter moments.

A dramatic story of a mother placed in the position of turning her wayward son over to the police for murder, or letting an innocent youth be charged with the crime, will be unfolded at the State theater tomorrow when Mary Boland appears in "A Son Comes Home", with Donald Woods and Julie Haydon. Shirley Temple stirs your heart with laughter, song, and tears, in her new hit of the diminutive star's meteoric career. Alice Faye, Gloria Stuart, Jack Haley, and Michael Whalen are featured in the supporting cast. This show plays Sunday and Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at the State theater comes the marvels of tomorrow as depicted in H. G. Wells' startling forecast of the future — "Things to Come". This extraordinary feature shows fashions, customs and travel in 2036 over 100 years from today. Thundering out of the most vivid pages of America's history, "Robin Hood of El Dorado" comes to the screen of the State theater starting Thursday and Friday, heralding the rebirth of the spectacular out-door feature, starring Warner Baxter, and Ann Loring.

Intra-Mural Athletic Program Is Deficient Here

IT SEEMS rather strange that in a school of 1500 students there is such little emphasis placed on intramural and minor athletics. In comparison with well organized and executed intra-mural athletic programs on campuses of other schools of about this size, our minor athletic program pales into insignificance.

Football and basketball are emphasized greatly here, as on most other campuses. But there ends the well planned athletic program. If students want a golf tournament, a tennis tournament, a hockey tournament or a meet along these lines the stimulus for such an event has to come from the students themselves. The Athletic Department is willing to lend its backing to any such venture, but does not seem prone to take the initiative. An inter-fraternity hockey tournament was conducted successfully this winter as was the annual intra-mural basketball tournament. But attempts to schedule golf and tennis meets during the last few years have not met with much success.

This deficiency is not necessarily the fault of the Athletic Department. Perhaps it has tried to sponsor a more extensive intra-mural athletic program and was unsuccessful in so doing. This is not intended to be panning this department, but it seems that there must be some way in which a well-rounded minor athletic program could be put into effect.

Make Good Impression On Prep Students

THE May Festival each year brings to this campus a large group of high school students representing every section of the state. As hosts to this group it is our collective duty to put forth every effort to make their time here as enjoyable as possible.

Many of these boys and girls are potential students at NDAC and the kind of reception which they are given at this May Festival can easily be the determining factor in their selection of a school. All of these young people will go back to their respective communities with a definite opinion of this school impressed upon their minds. We are desirous that they should carry back to their home communities the feeling that this is a good school and a friendly one.

The first day of this year's May Festival was very satisfactory. It is our duty to make the two remaining days memorable ones to the boys and girls participating.

A Letter Home

Dear Folks:

Now that I've got this far, I don't know whether to finish or not. I have a good excuse for not writing sooner, I'm pretty busy lately. Anyway, I think I'm pretty busy and as long as I think I'm too busy to write, why then, I am too busy to write and that's all there is to it. But evidently I'm not too busy to write or I wouldn't be writing. Right? No—wrong, because I should be too busy to write. But then just because I should be too busy to write I shouldn't be too busy busying myself being too busy to write. Now I'm asking you am I too busy to be to busy to be writing? Oh, skip it. But you can't skip it because if you do skip it you don't know where to skip it, so how could you skip what you don't know you're skipping. Anyway, you wouldn't know until after you'd read it that you ought to skip it, so that in order to skip it, you'd have to read it, but you wouldn't read it if you were going to skip it, or would you? No, you couldn't read it and skip it too. But you've already read it so you could skip it, but you couldn't either because if you'd read it you couldn't possibly skip it. Oh, skip the letter! But you couldn't skip it because you've already read it.

Love,
 Skippy.

SPECTRUM
SPORT
SPECULATIONS

After early round meetings it is becoming apparent that Alpha Gamma Rho will experience little difficulty in winning their bracket in intramural kittenball. However, they will face very tough competition in the playoff with the other bracket, where three classy teams—Sigma Phi Delta, Theta Chi and Kappa Sigma Chi—are waging a strenuous battle.

Favorites for the baseball title at this writing are Alpha Gamma Rho and Kappa Sigma Chi, defending champions. Both will be as strongly fortified as last year when they fought a bitter contest before Kappa Sigma Chi emerged victors. Alpha Gamma Rho probably has a strengthened lineup over last year and are doped stronger in pitching, catching and hitting than they were a year ago. They rank as favorites.

Both nines will have strong pitching staffs. The defending champions have Norton Stangeland and Lawrence Restemeyer, who shared their pitching chores a year ago, and have added Pat Mach, who is said to possess more ability than either. Alpha Gamma Rho too have their veteran pitchers, Al Strong and Bob Saunders, and have Lloyd Troseth, freshman, who was all-state American Legion pitcher, and Harry Johnson to round out their staff. Alpha Gamma Rho has the best catching staff on the campus with the veteran Cap Toussaint forced to fight hard to keep his berth over Troseth, who is a snappy, hard-throwing receiver in addition to his pitching skill.

Reports from the cinder front seem to indicate that the AC has at least one star sprinter in the making. Lloyd Troseth, freshman, has been clocked running the 100 in 10.1 and seems to be doing better every time he runs. Troseth, incidentally, is the Hannaford flash, who last year with one teammate caused such a sensation at the May Festival. These two entrants gave their home-town third place in the meet.

Fargo high's cinder squad plays the role of heavy favorite to cop this year's Festival track classic. Last year the Midgets emerged victors by a scant three point margin over Valley City. Fargo will probably have an easier time of it this year as they have been dominating nearly every event in track meets they have entered in this spring. Small town entries often give the crowd its biggest thrills, however, as was shown in last year's meet when the Hannaford duo and Sanborn's pride and joy, Clifton Knable, stole the spotlight.

With the definite scheduling of a college golf tournament the campus will have both a tennis and golf champion for the first time in the last several years. That is, if the tennis tournament is completed. The golf meet was scheduled to be run off in a single day to prevent its dragging out for several weeks.

Campus prognosticators seem to favor Bill Stewart and Thad Fuller to fight it out in the finals of the tennis tourney with Bill Gallagher and Chuck Pollock playing the role of favorites in the divot-diggers contest. But there's always a select group of dark horses in any competition.

TRACK MEET SET

Students will have the opportunity to prove or disprove their boasts of the "way back when," at the intramural track meet May 17 and 18. It will be the first meet of its kind held here for several years. All entries to the tourney will have to be in by Wednesday, May 12.

10 TEAMS ENTER FESTIVAL TRACK MEET

Fargo Favored To Repeat Last Year's Victory

Intra-Squad Grid Contest Will Be An Additional Feature

By SAM TRZCINSKI
The annual May Festival track and field meet will get under way Saturday, May 7, at 10 o'clock with 10 teams entered. Because of the numerous conflicting district high school meets scheduled over the state the number of men entered is disappointingly small and Friday's preliminaries have been dispensed with.

Fargo high school is heavily favored to repeat its victory of last year with Valley City probably running a poor second. These two schools are the only ones that have entered teams of any size. Other schools entering teams are Cavalier, Wishek, Wimbledon, Hunter, Page, Oberon, Hannaford and Montpelier.

An additional entertainment feature of the May Festival will be a football game to be played by two teams picked from the squad that has been working out this spring. The game is scheduled for Friday afternoon at 3:30 on the field north of the Physical Education building.

Casey Finnegan, NDAC athletic director, is of the opinion that the records hung up in the meets of previous years will in all probability remain intact this year as there are no individual performers who are particularly outstanding. The records now stand as follows:

100 yard dash, 10:1-5, held by Robertson, Ellendale, 1927; 220 yard dash, 23, held by Robertson, Ellendale, 1927, and Finch, LaMoure, 1926; 440 yard dash, 52:2 held by Green, Bismarck, 1932; 880 yard run, 2:7 by Aldrich, Hankinson, 1927; Mile run, 4:48 by Knable, Sanborn, 1936; 120 yard hurdles, 15:8 by Sexton, Fargo, 1936; 200 yard hurdles, 23:2 by Sexton, Fargo, 1936; half mile relay, 1:36 by Ellendale, 1927. Field records are: Pole vault, 12 ft. 1-2 in., by Murphy, Bismarck, 1932; shot put, 48 ft. 1 in., by Shannon, Valley City, 1930; Discus, 128 ft. 9 in. by Meinhover, Bismarck, 1930; high jump, 5 ft. 9-1-8 in. by Schwartz, Bismarck, 1929; broad jump, 21 ft. 1-3-4 in. by Fait, Valley City, 1932; Javelin, 169 ft. 11 in. by Orville Fisher, Fargo, 1934. Eliminations will begin at 10 o'clock Saturday morning with the finals scheduled for 1:30 in the afternoon.

The events will be run in the following order: 1:30, shot put and pole vault; 2:00, discus and high hurdles; 2:15, 10 yard dash; 2:30, high jump and mile run; 2:45, 440 yard dash; 3:05, low hurdles; 3:15, javelin and broad jump; 3:25, 220 yard dash; 3:40, one-half mile run; 4:00, one-half mile relay.

All events will be held on Dacotah Field and will be broadcast by WDAY.

Girls' Baseball practice will begin Monday morning at 7:00.

Track Men Will Enter Two Meets

Two meets face the NDAC trackers, as the 1937 season draws towards its close. Next week, May 14-15, is the N. D. collegiate conference meet at Grand Forks, and the week following, will come the north central conference meet, also at Grand Forks.

An innovation, is the frosh telegraphic meet. Freshman teams of the various schools in the conference will work out in a local meet, and the scores will be compared at the conference meet.

Softball Teams Enter Tourney

In the opening games of the softball tournament, Kappa Sigma Chi won over Sigma Phi Delta, and Sigma Alpha Epsilon lost to the Dormitory. The tournament is following a close schedule with at least three games being played each day in an effort to finish the playoffs as soon as possible, according to Bob Saunders, tournament manager.

Kappa Psi won over Alpha Tau Omega, 11-9; Alpha Gamma Rho defeated Delta Tau Epsilon, 17-2; Sigma Phi Delta won over Theta Chi, 1-0. In the opening rounds, Theta Chi had defeated Sigma Alpha Epsilon, and Sigma Phi Delta had defeated the Dormitory.

A trophy will be presented to the winners by the athletic department.

Margaret Jones New WAA Head

Tuesday evening, the Women's Athletic Association elected Margaret Jones as their president, replacing retiring Ethel Olson. Other officers for next year are corresponding secretary, Luella Gruttie; recording secretary, Margaret Newell; treasurer, Dorothy Rau; soccer team manager, Ruth Thomte; basketball manager, Ruth Bockwoldt; baseball manager, Hjordis Lovik; riflery team manager, Gladys Provan; tennis manager, Beverly Barnes; and Women's Senate representative, Willa Jean Wells.

Expect 40 In Golf Tourney

Bill Gallagher, Chuck Pollock Are Favorites To Win College Title

More than twenty entries have been received in the college golf tournament to be conducted Saturday, May 15 over the Edgewood Municipal course. Between thirty and forty are expected to enter the meet, according to James Critchfield, manager. Deadline for entries is Thursday night.

Bill Gallagher and Chuck Pollock are generally conceded to be favorites to cop the championship but several top notch players are expected to give them a close battle.

Qualifying rounds (18 holes) may be played any time previous to Saturday noon, May 15. Entrants will be arranged in flights and 18 more holes will be played in the afternoon. The medal score in each flight will be the flight winner.

Cups will be awarded the champion and winning team of two. Other suitable prizes will be presented the medalist and winner of each flight.

Students Attend Endeavor Meeting

Christian Endeavor members from both high school and college attended a state-wide convention at Jamestown last weekend.

Guest speaker was Mr. W. O. Thomson of Iowa. NDAC delegates Ruth Swisher and DeLaurence Nelson presented speeches. The local organization presented a play, "Prize Money," Saturday evening. Fay Ann Nelson, Ross McLarty, Charles Lunsford, Ralph Bullock, Clark Packard, Jim Moore, and Bill Benjamin represented the college. The convention was sponsored by the Jamestown Presbyterian church.

LaMoure Banquet Attracts Fifteen

Fifteen LaMoure natives, now attending colleges in Fargo attended the first annual LaMoure Day Banquet, held Sunday at the Graver hotel. Eleven of those present are students at NDAC.

Toastmaster was Gordon Brandes and talks were given by Phyllis Coyne, Ralph Smith and Grace Stewart. The committee in charge was composed of Miss Coyne, Eleanor Isaacs, Catherine Brandes and John Lynch.

The Collegiate World

(By Associated Collegiate Press)

Love-making by mail is often a hard job for collegians. Some find it difficult to fill a few white sheets of paper with sentimental symbols.

"How can I put fire in my letters to Lulu when I have other interests here on the campus?" asks Fraternity Freddie. And Sorority Susie wonders about the same thing in regard to her correspondences with the grocery clerk back home.

Such worries are no longer necessary because a University of Chicago student, Roslyn Schenker, has organized a bureau to write tailor-made letters for students.

For just 50 cents, Miss Schenker will spare you the necessity of smoking a couple packages of cigarettes, wearing the nap off your rug and finally resorting to alcoholic lubrication to grind out a belabored mess of words.

No matter what kind of letter you want—long, short, boring or witty—she can produce it. Sonnets, odes, blank verse and free verse are also a part of her service.

If it's a tactful letter you want, one that acts as a shock absorber for your two F grades, she can fashion it so skillfully that Dad will think you're a great guy after all and tuck some extra bucks onto the allowance.

Sandwiches and the Brooklyn bridge don't seem to have any connection, but to Panayiotis Hychristodoulou, a native of the Island of Cyprus and a student at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, no two things have a more definite relationship.

In 1930 he landed in New York with $17 in his pocket and no language to help him become a part of the rush.

Sight of the Brooklyn bridge made him gasp. What a miracle that man could have built it! When he learned that Washington A. Roebing, chief engineer of the project, had graduated from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, he wanted to attend at any cost.

Hired by a restaurant proprietor in Westbury, L. I., Hychristodoulou was able to keep his stomach filled and his back covered and, at the same time, complete a heavy high school course in two years.

During his first two years at RPI, he worked in a Troy restaurant from 5 p.m. to 2 a.m. daily for $12 a week and meals. Finding too little time to study in his last two years, he quit this work and took odd jobs.

Since then it has been a dull parade of sandwiches and coffee, coffee and sandwiches—with a picture of the Brooklyn bridge to remind him that maybe a hamburger clapped between two pieces of bread wasn't so bad at that.

Impressed with his perseverance, RPI authorities loaned him money to pay half of his tuition. All other expenses he met himself. When asked, in a lunch stand, whether the long struggle had paid, he said:

"The Brooklyn bridge has cost me a lot of sandwiches, but it was worth it."

A dime jingled on the counter. "... and a cup of coffee."

Steig Resigns Position Here

To Be City Superintendent Of Schools in Colfax, Washington

L. R. Steig, assistant professor of education, has accepted a position as city superintendent of schools in Colfax, Washington.

Previous to coming to the campus, Steig was superintendent of schools in Harvey, North Dakota for two years. After the death of Dean A. D. Weeks and on the recommendation of Dean E. H. Jones, Steig was appointed to the college faculty as an assistant professor of education by President Shepperd in January.

Steig is chairman of the committee to study insurance; a member of Phi Delta Kappa, national honorary education fraternity; Kappa Delta Pi, national honorary education; Pi Gamma Mu, national honorary social science; Alpha Phi Omega, national honorary scouting fraternity; Gamma Sigma, graduate honorary. He is in charge of the teachers' placement bureau, is the co-author of North Dakota Pensions and has written nine magazine articles.

YW To Sponsor 'Dime Day' For Male Students

"Everything and anything for one dime!" Now is your chance, Mister, to get a real shoe-shine, a real manicure, a real facial (if you put the order in ahead of time). And all for the price of one dime, only ten cents.

These prices are offered exclusively to the men of this campus, either students, faculty, or employees. YWCA campus co-eds will do the work willingly at any time All-College day, May 25. Booths will be set up at various spots around the campus, and the first attempt of last year will be enlarged to a great extent. Other dime bargains are sock-darning, pants-pressing, eyebrow-plucking, and any other task you men may suggest.

Dimes collected will go to a very worthy cause—sending representatives to the annual regional conference at Lake Geneva, Wis., in June. The retiring cabinet is in charge of all arrangements, while both new and old cabinets and commissions will join in the work. Men, get shined up for the All-college dance!

115 Couples At Junior-Senior Ball

With approximately 115 couples attending the Junior-Senior Prom last Friday night, the innovation of a joint party was considered very successful by managers Al Brauer and Bernard Majors.

Lighting designs worked out by Ray Whitver, lent their modernistic effect to make for an atmosphere felt by everyone present. Yellow and green novelty programs were very appropriate. Before the unveiling of the much-talked-up mural, "Tyke" Louras played two violin solos accompanied by Rhoda Clausen.

The Jack and Russell orchestra proved themselves to be a popular band for college dancers. A sweetheart dance featuring fraternity songs was much enjoyed. Chaperons were Prof. and Mrs. R. Otterson and Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Johnson. Many invited guests were in attendance.

Packing Company To Conduct Contest

Swift and Company has announced that they will sponsor an annual prize beginning next year of a week's tour of Chicago including the packing plants and stockyards to the agriculture student who writes the best essay on meat packing. The company will pay all expenses and act as host to the student. The announcement was made Wednesday night at Saddle and Siroin meeting.

The club also discussed plans for a spring picnic which will probably be held with members of Tryota. Lunch was served and the meeting closed with a moving picture on livestock.

Student Opinion

Most open-minded modern economists readily admit that our economic system as it exists is inadequate to modern needs. Many of them have made quite exhaustive researches into finding the flaws in the system in an effort to discover possible remedies. Their findings have revealed among other things the fact that during our peak business year of 1929, 62 per cent of the American people could only afford a subsistence diet. In that year also if every man, woman and child in the United States had been adequately clothed there would not have been enough clothing to go around. Our methods of production in some of the major manufacturing fields are so wasteful that in order to produce a given quantity of an article almost the same amount of raw material is completely wasted. In a nation as efficient and civilized as ours not one of these conditions should exist, not to mention countless other unnecessary and glaring evils which we seem to have always with us.

In Europe we find various new departures in government and economics being undertaken. They all seem to result in the loss of personal liberties and the complete subjugation of the individual to the state. Fascism and Nazism are the two shining examples while the Russian Soviet experiment seems also to be developing into a complete dictatorship. These movements were placed on a political basis at their inception. To progress economically and still maintain a democracy we must find a movement which is primarily based upon economics.

The cooperative movement is a purely economic movement basically. It puts forth no system of government but makes its one goal the achievement of a fairer economic system. This movement has been rapidly gaining in popularity and has been very successful in many types

Changes Made In Senior Play Cast
