VOLUME LI.

STATE COLLEGE, NORTH DAKOTA, FRIDAY, MARCH 27, 1936.

NUMBER 25

Health Subject Is Main Article Of Publication

Hegbar and Schultz Elected Editor, Business Manager Of Bi-Monthly

The third issue of the North Dakota State Engineer, bi-monthly magazine published by students of the division of engineering, was distributed Wednesday. About 2700 copies of this issue will be mailed out soon to graduates of high schools in North Dakota, western Minnesota and northern South Dakota.

The feature story of the issue is "Public Health Engineering and Its Application in North Dakota" by M. D. Hollis, director of the division of engineering, North Dakota State Department of Health. Among other articles is a story on "The Use of Statistics in the Control of Quality of Manufactured Products", an official release from the Bell Telephone laboratories written especially for the Engineer by an NDS alumnus.

Publishing of this issue marks a change in the cover design of the magazine. The new design, which replaces one used for the past several years, was designed and prepared by Merrill Grady, senior in the Department of Architecture.

A new staff for the Engineer was chosen recently and will take over their duties with the publishing of the spring issue. Howard Hegbar will be editor, and Robert Schulz, business manager.

Prominent NDSC Senior Is Buried

A patient in a Fargo hospital for three months, Howard M. Gowin, Glenburn, and senior in the school of agriculture, passed away last Saturday night. He was formerly a student at the University of North Dakota.

Prominent in campus activities, he belonged to the Saddle and Siroloin club, Scabbard and Blade, national honorary military fraternity, pledge to Alpha Zeta, honorary agricultural fraternity, advanced officer in the ROTC, member of the college livestock judging team this year, at NDU he was elected to Pi Gamma Mu, national honorary social science fraternity.

Dr. Walter Lee Airhart, instructor of religious education, officiated at funeral services in the Moore Funeral Home Sunday, where a large number of friends and college faculty members attended.

MISS BENDER'S CLASS TO ENTERTAIN GRADES

Miss Alice Bender's story telling classes will present the play "Aladdin and His Wonderful Lamp" for the school children of Fargo, approximately May 1. The play will be sponsored by both story telling classes.

Work will begin immediately, largely in committee for a time. The cast will be announced in a few days.

TWO FRAMES SELECT ELECTION CANDIDATES

ELECTION APRIL 7

Candidates for election to the student commission and boards of athletic control, publications and public speaking have been announced by the "Sure We're Pure" and Progressive political frames. All candidates have filed their eligibility cards with the commissioner of election, the election to be held April 7 in Old Main. Polls will be set up in the registrar's office and will be open from 8 to 5.

Candidates advanced by the "Sure We're Pure" frame, in their bid for campus political supremacy, follow. For election to the student commission for one-year terms: president of the commission, Dayton Jones; commissioner of social affairs, Lennea Frisk; commissioner of finance, Mildred Peterson; commissioner of campus, Milton Frendberg; commissioner of elections, Marjorie Danielson. To serve for two-year terms:

For election to the student commission the Progressives are advancing the following: president, Robert Saunders; commissioner of social affairs, Elise Brophy; commissioner of finance, Katherine McEnroe; commissioner of campus, Walter Ekeren; commissioner of elections, Vinton Plath; commissioner of athletics, Steve Ward; commissioner of judiciary, Mary Sherwood; and commissioner of public speaking, Dale Hogoboom. To the board of athletics control: junior member, Ted Whalen; and senior member, Bob Erickson. Board of publications: sophomore member, Margaretta Bjornson; junior, Wayne Krogfoss; senior, Keith McVay. Board of public speaking: junior member, Francis LaMarre; and senior, Harold Spitzer. Theta Chi, A. T. O., Sigma Phi Delta, Kappa Psi, Alpha Gamma Rho, Gamma Phi Beta, and Phi Omega Pi make up the Progressive frame.

The Independent party which was organized last fall did not announce any candidates, thus leaving it up to the "Sure We're Pure" and Progressive frames to seek their votes.

Graves Named Alpha Zeta Head

Harry Graves, junior, was elected president of Alpha Zeta, honorary agriculture fraternity, at annual elections held last night. He succeeds Wm. Johnson, senior.

Graves is a member of Kappa Sigma Chi, secretary of the YMCA student cabinet, and Saddle and Siroloin club.

Other newly-elected officers are: Harold Halcrow, vice-president; Ralph Bullock, treasurer; and Pat Mach, secretary.

Outgoing officers include Don Scott, vice-president; Ellis Thompson, treasurer; and Wm. Keup, secretary.

Spring Enrollment Reaches 1254

NDSC enrollment figures for the spring term reached 1254 yesterday, according to A. H. Parrott, registrar. The mark exceeds by 64 that of a year ago. The registration for the winter term numbered 1329.

The enrollment by departments is agriculture, 174; applied arts and sciences, 368; education, 125; pharmacy, 79; architecture, 28; chemistry, 71; civil engineering, 68; mechanical and electrical engineering, 138; home economics, 203.

The freshman class has 452; sophomore, 360; junior, 250; senior, 178; graduate, 14; and high school, 42.

There are 869 men and 385 women.

With the co-operation of 100 of the largest firms in New York, CCYN has set up a new employment service for graduates.

There will be a Senior Class meeting this afternoon, March 27, at 4:00 P. M. in The Little Country Theater, for the purpose of electing a Senior Prom Manager and making plans for commencement.

Clifford M. Altermatt, President.

NDSC Instructor Devises New Fence

Operating on a 6-volt auto battery, an "electric fence" which furnishes a small electric current to several miles of livestock fencing, has been developed by Foster Buck, electrical engineer of the North Dakota State college.

This new "electric fence" is inexpensive, only one or two ordinary barbed wires with small posts at intervals of two to three rods, being necessary. As a temporary fence for hogging-off pasture or corn, ranging sheep, horses and cattle, the "electric fence" appears practical. Contact with the wires gives the animal a small electric shock. The fence has a special current controller and is harmless to man or animals. It will last many years with ordinary care.

"Wire-tapping" on personal calls in girls' schools and junior colleges is a wide-spread practice.

Change Setting Of Sing Contest

Contrary to custom, the inter-fraternity sing this year will not be presented on the lawn east of the library, but will take place on the steps of Old Main. Because of the many traditions connected with the building, the committee in charge believes it will be the appropriate place for the sing.

After consultation with students of other schools, members of Alpha Phi Omega, the fraternity sponsoring the sing, found that the steps of one of the old or traditional buildings were used for similar purposes in other schools, if the campus provided no natural amphitheater. It is also believed that better sound effects will be obtained at Old Main than in an entirely unprotected open-air stage.

The time limit has been extended this year from five to ten minutes in order to give each chorus a better chance for variety and a more complete program.

Senior Class Will Hold Annual Prom Circus Today; Altermatt, Ringmaster

Emboldened by the peaceful attitude shown and lack of bloodshed at the Junior prom manager elections held last Friday under the leadership of Paul T. Boleyn, senior in good standing and president of the Junior class, the Senior class has decided that it, too, will stage a two-ring circus this afternoon with Clifford Altermatt as the ringmaster. In one ring will be an elaborate spectacle enacted by the Progressive performers with William Johnson, son of old Johnson and jolly good fellow, too, as the hero (heroine not yet chosen, but expected to be either a gorgeous Gamma Phi or a popular POP). In the other ring of this circus will be "The Sure We're Pure" performers with Vardi Thorwardson, son of old Thorwardson and jolly good fellow, too, as hero (heroine not yet chosen, but expected to be either a cute Kappa, a fine Phi Mu, an alluring Alpha Gamma or a cunning KD).

The winner of this contest will be awarded the recognition of being the most "prom"-ising member of the class of '36.

In former years the winner has been decided by awarding the recognition to the ring which cast the most number of small white slips of paper called ballots the farthest distance. In order to do this, however, it has often been the notorious practice of one or both the rings to resort to a system of force-feeding their ballots, called "stuffing the ballot box," but as this practice has threatened to soon exhaust the supply of white paper in the country it is rumored that the class of '36, always willing to try out some new-fangled idea, will attempt a new method of ascertaining the victor—999 pennies will be tossed into the

Arneson Leads Winter Quarter Honor List

Phi Omega Pi, Sigma Chi Lead Campus Social Groups With 85.4 and 84.7 Respectively

R. Gordon Arneson, junior in the school of applied arts and sciences, leads the honor roll for the winter quarter with an average of 96.7. Ranking next are Howard Hegbar, senior in mechanical engineering, and Donald Scott, senior in agriculture, both with 96.

Others among the high ten were Frieda Panimon, senior, applied arts and sciences, 96.4; David Askegaard, freshman, administrative engineering, 95.3; Harlin Winn, senior civil engineering, 94.9; Arwin Hoge, junior, applied arts and sciences, 94.7; Walter Isley, sophomore, mechanical engineering, 94.5; Edward Ballard, senior, chemistry, 94.1; and Margaretta Bjornson, freshman, applied arts and sciences, 94.1.

Leading the campus social groups are Phi Omega Pi sorority and Sigma Chi fraternity with 85.4 and 84.7, respectively. Other groups are Alpha Gamma Delta, 85; Alpha Gamma Rho, 84.3; Delta Tau Epsilon, 84.2; Kappa Kappa Gamma, 84.1; Gamma Phi Beta, 83.9; Kappa Delta, 83.7; Sigma Phi Delta, 83.7; Kappa Sigma Chi, 83.6; Phi Mu, 83.6; Sigma Alpha Epsilon, 83.5; Cosmopolitan club, 82.8; Kappa Psi, 82.4; Theta Chi, 82.2; and Alpha Tau Omega, 81.8.

The averages of other campus organizations are Alpha Zeta, 96.2; Tau Delta Pi, 89.2; Rho Chi, 89; Zoology club, 88.4; Pi Gamma Mu, 88.2; Scabbard and Blade, 88.1; Phi Upsilon Omicron, 87.6; Kappa Delta Pi, 87.4; Phytois, 86.8; Blue Key, 86.6; Women's Senate, 86.6; Alpha Psi Omega, 86.1; Gamma Tau Sigma, 85.9; Delta Psi Kappa, 85.6; American Society of Electrical Engineers, 85.4; Guidon, 85.5; Lincoln forensic club, 84.7; Kappa Kappa Psi, 84.2; Panhellenic council, 84.2; Saddle and Siroloin club, 84.2; Tryota club, 84.1; Engineer's club, 83.5; American Society Civil Engineers, 83.3; North Dakota Pharmacy club, 82.6; Women's Athletic Association, 82.2; Atelier Chat Noir, 81.7; Ceres hall club, 81.7; Kappa Epsilon, 79.8.

Scientific Program To Be Presented

"The Wonders of Science," a program with special emphasis on the marvels of electricity, will be the convocation program on Thursday, April 9.

Mr. Harry C. White, originator and lecturer on the program, brings equipment valued at many thousands of dollars. Some of his more remarkable exhibitions will be the photo-electric cell, the radio pen, the broncoscope, and the artificial larynx, and the black ray. This black ray is the newest discovery of science and demonstrates the wonders of the science of color.

Other definite convocation periods which are scheduled are: for April 24, a state-wide "Y" conference; and the annual Blue Key-Senior Staff program on May 4.

This here is not the literary section . . . the Spectre has told all . . . wish somebody would start a libel suit . . . would like to see the headlines . . . no school all next week, goody, goody, goody . . . collegiate stuff . . . how to be collegiate . . . change your mind often . . . never call a spade a spade . . . say "whip down" when you're going down town . . . hands are "lunch hooks" . . . butter is "smear" . . . when you're drunk you're "shellacked", "bunned", "corned", "roary-eyed" or "plastered" . . . though you may study every bloomin' night always say, with a devilish chuckle, "Ah nuts, I haven't cracked a book this term" . . . never eat food at picnics . . . just bring an honest face and a blanket . . . shoot craps, play poker, knit, know your chess and ping pong . . . listen to Jack Benny, Art Kassel, Major Bowes, and Kenny Hanson . . . go to the Crystal every Saturday night . . . dress neatly in careless fashion . . . know how to say, "Come on over to the house and meet the fellas," in a confidential way . . . when you're leaving say, "Best I should go now" like Fif Probst . . . don't say Darmouth—say Dart-muth . . . go down to the dugout and see who can belch at the lowest pitch . . . pun and call it fun . . . read Esquire, College Humor, and by all means the Spectre . . . when the band plays "Cling to Me" at your fraternity party, get a strangle hold and hang on like an avid gorilla . . . if you can't croon or play the uke, learn a few catchy Mae West expressions . . . be independent and conceited like Tutty Heller . . . never recognize your father in dirty clothes, if you have company . . . have a distinctive body on a distinguished chassis if possible . . . apple polish the professors . . . cut your hair like Paul Boleyn . . . if you are third in line at a ball, run for first in line anyway . . . brag about your love life . . . say the Bison Briefs are putrid.

A FRESHMAN'S REMINISCENCE

The Dean of Girls looked in her eye,
The girl flinched not, she didn't cry;
She just stared back with poise to burn,
Without evasion—not a turn.
Miss Dinah was worried for this girl,
Who rated in the social whirl.
"I'd like to have a word with you,"
The Dean spoke up, as deans will do,
"You chase around 'most every night,
Why goodness sakes, it is a fright;
And I'm inclined to think that you're
Not what I'd call exactly pure—
These boys don't spend their dough for naught.
A thing or two you should be taught."
"Now wait a minute," said the Miss,

"I've had about enough of this;
You're talking through your hat again.
You sit at home and talk of sin.
Puh-shaw, you've never been around!
You'll find that I'm quite safe and sound
I have less sexy thoughts than you,
Who always worry what we do.
In fact, I think a good affair
Would add some lustre to your hair,
And give your mind a needed rest.
You need a little youthful zest.
Now I don't practice what I preach,
'Twas just a hint—that little speech:
You're getting right along in years,
Get out and have a couple beers!

"I park in cars way out of town,
But always wisely start to clown.
For preservation of myself,
I flit about just like an elf.
I keep their interest always up
By being playful as a pup.
I make 'em hot and leave 'em cold,
And let 'em spend their old man's gold;
And still they keep on coming back:
My Wally, Johnny, Bill and Mac.
Oh yes, Miss Dinah, you spoke in haste;
I'm always pretty darned straight-laced.
My mother's talks were not a waste,
I know the ropes. Here's just a taste:
'Be chased and chased—yet always chaste!"

"Things stand like that just now, dear Dean,
You didn't analyze so keen.
Next year I'll go away to school,
And then I'll probably break my rule,
But after all, what's that to you?
At present I'm a True Blue Lou,
So please don't further call me in
Unless you're very sure of sin.
I hope your worries I've erased
With: "Chased and chased—yet always chaste."

PWA Assist In New Flax Breeding Project

Because of the disastrous effects of blight on most varieties of flax botanist H. L. Bolley of NDSC and his assistants are working to create blight resisting varieties which have a high production, and produce a large amount of quick drying oil.

The greatest difficulty is to get a sufficiently blight resistant variety to produce a quick drying oil for the paint manufacturers. The unfavorable growing conditions in the past few years have made it very difficult for flax growers to meet the paint manufacturers specifications.

Argentine varieties have been brought up and crossed with the native plants in an effort to overcome these difficulties. The department has nearly a thousand varieties which it has tested and crossed.

This work was made possible by means of PWA funds. Appropriation was made for six workers.

It must be true. Prof. Thomas A. Langlie of the Wesleyan university psychology department adds his voice to the chorus of professors who say that cramming is futile. It "inhibits the memory."

Why Not Have Another All-College Day?

With the exception of last spring, it has been the custom to stage what has come to be known as an "all-college day" on this campus. On this occasion a half holiday was declared and students had lunch in Festival hall while witnessing various types of entertainment. This day was also usually the date for issuing the yearbook. Following this a tea dance was usually held, thus giving students a means of mixing and of enjoying themselves. Funds for this occasion were supplied by the various campus organizations.

Why not revise the custom and make the day a real one by having the lunch, distributing the Bison, holding a tea dance in the afternoon and the Inter-fraternity Sing in the evening? Such a program, if feasible, would certainly make the day an outstanding success.

This year both Blue Key and the YMCA have expressed willingness to assist in the sponsoring of another "all-college day." However, if such an event is to be held it will have to be sponsored by more than two campus organizations. Here is an opportunity for the various campus honorary, service and social groups to cooperate in a worthy cause. The initial step has been taken by Blue Key and the YMCA and with cooperation and support from other groups the revival of this tradition will be assured.

Fifteen Most Beautiful Coeds

We know we're taking our lives in our hands and there doubtless will be lots of yelling, but as yet no one has had the temerity to name the most beautiful women on the campus. As near as we can find out no beauty contest has ever been held for women on this campus. So after much consultation the Spectrum staff takes a deep breath and launches forth with a list of the fifteen most beautiful women on this campus—position in the list has no significance.

Esther Frenberg
Gertrude Powers
Marjorie Simmons
Jane Chaney
Dorothy Walz
Josephine Swenson
Jean Verne
Jane Wilson
Frances Scott
Marjorie Criser
Martha Wolfe

Arlene Riggs

Well, there it is. No two people will agree on the entire list, yet Senior Staff selected the handsomest men last year and got away with it and inasmuch as no one has ever attempted to list the female beauties the staff thought it would have a try.

UNIORS ELECT WARD, SAUNDERS PROM LEADERS

Students Asked to Pick Dances and Orchestra

Don Ward was elected manager of the 1936 Junior Prom at a meeting held in the Little Country theater Friday, March 20. Paul Boleyn, class president, presided.

Opposing Ward was Ward Swanson. Robert Saunders was elected class athlete. Election was held on usual frame lines.

A junior in the school of mechanical engineering, Ward is president of Delta Tau Epsilon, social fraternity, member of the board of publications, and newly-elected member of Blue Key, national service fraternity.

Organization work of selecting assistants and committees for the prom is already being started by Ward, and will be announced later. To aid the committees, Ward wishes to ask the students' cooperation on certain phases of the prom. The management is selecting the most popular dances to be played at the prom, and the students are asked to write out six numbers of their choice and drop them in a box placed in Science hall for that purpose. A good orchestra is wanted for the evening, and to give the students just what they want, the manager asks that students check one of the following and drop the name in the box along with the selections of pieces: Ted Adams, Cab Calloway, Jan Garber, and Bernie, Clyde McCoy, Herbie, or any other. The date has been set for April 24 in the field house.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon—Jack Talnor and Frank Ray of the "U" of Minnesota chapter stayed at the house Saturday night while enroute to their homes for spring vacation. George Toman, '35, now employed in Grand Forks was a house visitor Saturday. Vernon Nestos and Mike Kneeland spent the week end at their homes in Vally City and Falls respectively. Larry Pyle returned Friday from Kansas City, where he spent the spring vacation Sunday, to take a position with the highway department. At a special election, Edward Toman and Roy Burgum were elected house manager and treasurer respectively.

YMCA DANCING LESSONS WILL BEGIN TUESDAY

Beginners' steps in dancing will be taught NDSC men and women in the first lesson in a series to be taught by Miss Frances Wright under the sponsorship of the YMCA cabinet Tuesday night at 8 p. m.

All men holding YMCA memberships will be admitted free of charge, and a small admission will be charged all others attending.

positions held by Bill Kneeland who finished school last term. Mike Benidt was elected rookie master, filling a vacancy created by the resignation of Dayton Jones.

Alpha Gamma Rho—Howard Lewis and Donald Grant were out-of-town alumni at the senior farewell banquet last Sunday. . . . Clark Van Horn, Minnewaukan, has been a guest at the house. . . . Donald Clauss moved into the house this term. . . . Ralph Dedrich, graduate of last term, has a position with the northern great plains fields station at Mandan. . . . H. C. Werner was a guest at dinner last week.

Alpha Tau Omega—Pledged Frank Welsh. . . . George Anderson, UND alum and student at Northwestern last year has been a guest at the house. . . . Alpha Gamma Delta—Pledged: Opal Fiske, and Elaine Schurr, Fargo, and Maie Nayden, Braddock. . . . Doris Oman, Napoleon, spent the vacation at her home and Emma May Britton visited in Minneapolis.

Kappa Delta—Initiation was held Sunday for Pauline Huntley, Gwendolyn Stenehjem, and Ruth Piper, at 8 a. m. in the sorority rooms. Following the service a breakfast was given at the Golden Maid cafe in honor of the new initiates. Lennea Frisk, sorority president, officiated at the ceremony, and Corrine Ballard was in charge of the breakfast. . . . Marjorie Ogilvie '35, who is teaching in Grafton, spent the week-end with the sorority. . . . Carmen Ostby, graduate of last term, has accepted a teaching position in the Bismarck high school.

Kappa Kappa Gamma—Jane Nichols, Maren Simmons, and Helen Simmons Breitenbach, former NDSC students and Dorothy Baker, now all attending the University of Minnesota, were guests at Monday night supper and meeting.

Sigma Chi—Delmar Boulger, NDSC student of last year who is attending the "U" of Minnesota, was a guest at the house over the week-end. Roy Zimmerman, also a fraternity member at the "U", accompanied Boulger. . . . Harold Reardon, Jamestown, was a house guest during the week. . . . Alumni were entertained by the active chapter at a stag party in the house last night.

Spinsters Reveal Nature of Prize

We hope your heart's desire is a good dancer, Spinsters, for Senior Staff has revealed its prizes. A three-pound box of candy goes to the couple who can strut the best specialty number, an angel food cake for the best waltz, and flowers, donated by local florists, for those fortunate enough to hold the lucky numbers.

If you have forgotten to buy your ticket, you may purchase one in Dean Dinan's office this afternoon.

Don't miss dancing to the music of Jim Baccus at the Spinster Skip tomorrow evening from 9:00—12:00 in the Field house.

Dr. Motwani Convo. Speaker

Well-known as an excellent piece of Western art, "The Thinker", in Dr. Kewal Motwani's opinion, is merely the personification of a man "trying to think". Doctor Motwani, convocation lecturer on the art of India, Monday, March 23, presented a brief interpretation of Hindu, Mohammedan, and Buddhist art as evidenced in India.

After a brief background of the complexity of racial conditions and a brief analysis of the Hindu point of view (that of working first with fundamentals and then with the filling details), Doctor Motwani showed a number of slides depicting ornamental sculpture, building formation, and statues of Hindu and Buddhist gods. Brief explanations accompanied the slides.

The true Hindu art, Vedic art, has largely disappeared; it had been made of wood in contrast to the stone of the Buddhists. The style of temple architecture has been derived from the dominance of the Mimayas in the northern background. The lotus, a symbol of purity growing in a bed of grossness, is the flower found everywhere, both real and sculptured.

A sincere, enthusiastic exponent of his country's art at times Doctor Motwani reached heights of rhapsodical prose, particularly in his brief delineation of the artist as a votary of beauty.

Following the lecture proper, a further talk was held in the exhibit room regarding the number of drawings and etchings displayed there.

THE TWO BABES

From muling babe to college boy
There isn't such a space;
Despite the firm denial of
The boy to save his face.

The little babe says "foeey" —
Or sounds to that effect . . .
When something doesn't please him;
Well, what can you expect?

Our college lad belabors
What he can't understand;
He talks and groans; he weeps and moans
Throughout our college land.

He disagrees with Systems . . .
'The world ain't run just right' . . .
But all he does to do his share
Is step out Sat'day night.

The little babe emits a squall
If it should crave to eat;
The bigger babe makes whinnying
sound,
And gets it on the seat.

Now what, you ask, and rightly so,
Is all this silly prattle?
Well—knowing when you're not too
smart
Is really half the battle.

The first babe knew—just nothing;
The second, not so much;
And every time he raised his trap,
He found himself in 'dutch'.

The verse you see is simple;
It leaves no room for doubt.
But what is written into it
I wish you'd all get out.

—J. W.

Rev. Olson To Be Lutheran Speaker

The Lutheran Student association will meet Sunday, March 29, at 4:00 p. m. in the College YMCA. Rev. Roy E. Olson, of Minneapolis, former home missionary in Alaska and former chaplain at St. Cloud State Reformatory, will be the speaker.

Students from the Wahpeton State School of Science will be guests. Refreshments will be served. Phil Garberg and Maxine Myhra are in charge of the program.

The Lutheran organization is sponsoring Bible classes every Sunday at 9:45 in the First Lutheran church, with Harold Schulz as leader, and at 9:30 in the Elim Lutheran church, with Wilbur Benson as leader. All students are invited to attend.

Army Will Transfer Captain McChrystal

Captain J. H. McChrystal has been transferred to Fort Benning, Ga., where he will serve with the twenty-ninth infantry of the U. S. Army. He will leave during the middle part of June.

Fort Benning is the site of the Infantry Training School, Tank School, and Department of Experiment of the United States Army. It is the second largest army post in the nation. Captain McChrystal, who came here from the Presidio at San Francisco, Calif., five years ago, graduated from the infantry school at Benning in 1927.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon's Sweetheart dinner will be given Friday evening in the YWCA dining-room and lobby at 7:00 p. m. The dinner, to be followed by informal dancing, will be served by the Minerva club, Mother's club of SAE. About fifty persons will attend including alumni, active, and pledge members with their guests, and Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Johnson and Judge and Mrs. Monson as chaperons.

Gordon Brandes, social chairman of Beta chapter, is in charge of general arrangements, assisted by Mrs. R. C. Akeley, president of the Mother's club. Table decorations will be in keeping with fraternity colors, purple and gold, and the fraternity quartet and chorus will render musical selections.

Band To Entertain Masons Wednesday

The concert section of the Gold Star band, under the direction of Dr. C. S. Putnam, will give a concert for the Masons in the Masonic temple Wednesday evening, April 1, at 8 p. m.

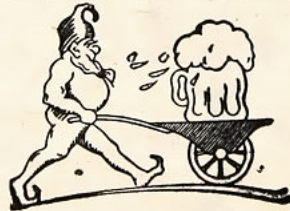

The program is made up of numbers from the Wednesday broadcasts which have been the most favorably received. Opening the concert will be the theme song, "The North Dakota Hymn," Foley-Putnam, followed by Overture, Rienzi, Wagner; novelty number, "Comin' Round the Mountain," Fillmore; trumpet solo, "Stars in a Velvety Sky," Clarke, played by Florenz Dinwoodie; Slavonic Rhapsody, No. 2, Friedmann; Headline, Colby; a radio movie, "Uncle Tom's Cabin, Alford, with James Baccus as narrator and Don Putnam as sound effects man; two excerpts from the "Pathetic Symphony," Tchaikowsky; Andante from first movement and march from third movement; baritone solo, Vision Fugitive from "Herodiade," Massinet, played by Franklyn Schoeffler; and a—Southern Rhapsody, "Virginia," Wood.

Last Wednesday the band played their last broadcast of the year. During the concerts, they played eleven programs of 55 selections without duplication. Many favorable comments have been received on these broadcasts, all of which were played on the stage in Festival hall.

FRATERNAL ORGANIZATIONS ELECT NEW OFFICIALS

Sigma Phi Delta and Delta Tau Epsilon fraternities held election of officers last Monday night at their regular meetings. John Seeba was elected president of Sigma Phi Delta fraternity, with Howard Hegbar, vice-president; John Pahl, secretary; and Harold Spitzer, house manager. Elected president of Delta Tau Epsilon fraternity was Felix Farrar. Other officers include Milton Frendberg, vice-president and sergeant-at-arms; Sidney Johnson, recording secretary; Arthur Becker, house manager; and Mearl Gifford, historian.

The University of North Dakota and North Dakota State college each send two teams on a combined "barnstorming" trip throughout the state. The teams engage in exhibition debates at small towns en route.

SPORT
SPECULATIONS

By WALT McGRATH

Casey and his athletic department are branching out into the minor sports every year much to the delight of the students who are interested in sports yet aren't good enough to make the varsity. The latest is the tennis craze that seems to have taken hold of the aspiring collegians—maybe the cause is the opportunity offered when Dana Leslie posted notice that he was available for instructions—maybe it was the recent exhibition by Ellsworth Vines and Co.—but nevertheless there is a decided trend to get into the tennis racket.

"A racket for every collegian," or "every student should have a spare racket," seems to be the general idea. And of course Gamma Tau Sigma will come through with their annual tourney where the dubs have their fun and the champions finally have a chance to show their hidden talents.

And now comes the news that Champ Nordlund, he of the steely grey eyes and the crooked grin, has gotten his rusty putter and niblick out of hock and threatens to set the world afire with his miraculous shots on the rolling golf courses. Two seasons ago our Victor gained for himself an enviable reputation when he was the only member of the State team that won a match from our upstate opponents. At the time our Champ extracted from the sports staff a promise that if ever again he performed such a feat a replica of his physiognomy would be printed in this sheet. So dear readers do not be alarmed if such a situation should come to pass—some things just have to go on, you know.

We see by the grapevine that Bob Weir, 6 feet 7 inches of basketball player who dominated the North Central loop a few years ago, couldn't repeat his feat of last year when he played a leading role in helping his team to the national AAU basketball title. This season the Santa Fe Stage-Liners were eliminated in the semi-finals, losing the contest to the team which copped the championship.

If Russ Anderson continues to practice every afternoon even when the season is over, here's one gullible person who believes that sooner or later he's going to step into some big time basketball competition and make a name for himself. He's got what it takes!

Nodak Boxers
Avenge Defeat
In 7 To 1 Win

Gaining revenge for the defeat administered them the week previous, the North Dakota University boxing team pounded out a clear-cut victory over the Bison mitt slingers last Monday night at Grand Forks. The Herd was able to win but one of their eight matches, Red Crane coming through with a knockout in the second round of his bout.

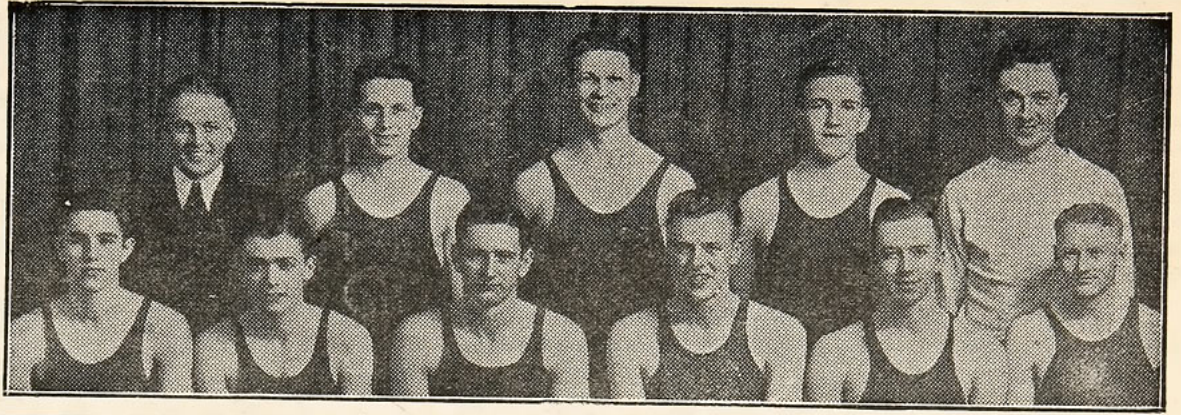

In the lightweight division, Cully Eckstrom cleverly outpointed Art Schultz of the Bison in a decisive fashion, winning all three rounds. A snappy left jab was his most effective weapon and Schultz seemed unable to throw up a successful defense against it. Dick Hamilton dropped a close decision to Roy Baker of the Grand Forks school, Baker having a slight edge in two of the rounds with the other two being even.

Owen Trickey added another victory to the Nodak string when he punched his way to a win over Delmar Skow. Trickey won the first two and Skow's rally in the last setto was not enough to earn him a decision. Alex Anderson had little difficulty trouncing Roy Carr of State as he won two of the three rounds with the first being even. Anderson had Carr on the floor in the final setto while Carr was able to land but few effective punches.

A last round rally by Lawrence Bapp was not sufficient to overcome the lead Joe Miltenberger had piled up in the two opening rounds and Miltenberger was awarded the decision. In the opening setto of the match Bapp was unable to land a single blow. In the most decisive match of the evening, Don Smart whipped Norman Olson of Fargo. Smart had Olson on the floor in every round and was never in any serious trouble himself.

Ben Blanchette avenged a loss to Sam Dobervich the previous week when he pounded out a decision, having a slight edge in all three rounds. Crane put Roy Christianson away in the second round with a straight right after a minute of the second round, giving the Bison their only decision of the matches.

Leslie To Offer
Tennis Lessons

An innovation so far as this campus is concerned will be inaugurated next week when tennis instructions will be offered to students and faculty members of the college.

Dana Leslie, instructor in the Civil Engineering department, has arranged to give a series of 15 individual half hour lessons to a limited number of applicants. The athletic department has made arrangements for a tennis court which will be on the main floor of the Physical Education building. Three half-hour periods will be held every day and six will be available Saturday afternoons, with each person enrolled in the course receiving two lessons a week, according to Mr. Leslie.

Mr. Leslie has an enviable record so far as a professional tennis player is concerned, having taught at some of the more exclusive clubs in the east. The past two summers he has been working as tennis instructor at the Kingswood Country Club, Wolfeboro, New Hampshire, and will return to that position again this summer. He is a graduate of Harvard and holds a master's degree in engineering.

Persons interested in enrolling for the course may reach Mr. Leslie by calling at the Civil Engineering Department.

Foreign films have been made a regular part of Amherst language courses.

Excessive bathing may mean a guilty conscience, according to University of Chicago psychologists.

Coach Smith Calls For Track Aspirants

First call for trackmen was announced last Tuesday by Coach Johnny Smith with the answering aspirants working out on the track in the basement of the fieldhouse. So far about twenty men have reported for duty and indications are that about ten more will be available.

Coach Smith plans on having the men work on the middle and long distance runs on the track indoors while the dashmen and hurdlers can practice starting and form for their specialties. As soon as the weather permits the athletes will be outside to get in trim for the conference meet and Dakota relays, both of which ought to be wideopen affairs this season.

Headed by Harry Arneson, ace pole vaulter, the Bison prospects appear just fair for the coming season. Beryl Newman in the 440 yd. run, Pretz Reiners in the weight events, and Emil May in the hurdles and dashes are a few of the boys the Bison are pinning their hopes on to come through with points in some of the meets.

Harvard's Pie Eta club was forced to appeal to women's colleges for a supply of chorines to dance in the annual show when members refused to shave their legs.

Bison Shooters To Fire With Gophers

After taking first place in the Corps Area Intercollegiate match, the rifle team is now firing the first two stages of the National Intercollegiate match. Next week-end the six high men in the targets fired thus far in this match will travel to Minneapolis to compete with the Gopher team in a shoulder to shoulder competition.

This match will be the outcome of a challenge to Captain Tagliabue's team by the Minnesota coach after the NDSC marksmen had downed the University riflemen by the narrow margin of one point in the Corps Area shoot.

The remarkable equality of the two teams seems to carry over from year to year, this being the third consecutive time that the tallies in this event have been separated by one point. Minnesota was on the top last year and the Bison won in 1934.

The scores in the National thus far seem to indicate an excellent (Continued on Page Six)

Seniors Will Elect Prom Leader Today

air by a 10-year-old young Miss and those which come down heads will count for the Progressive ring and those which come down tails will count for the "Sure We're Pure" ring, while those standing on edge will go to build a fund for worn-out ball leaders who have contracted flat feet in the service of their school. Any of those which roll into A. G. Marvel's office will be tossed to the mob from atop the cupola on Old Main at noon on the 33rd of this month.

Perhaps a word about the two heroes would be appropriate. Mr. Johnson is a member of Alpha Gamma Rho as opposed to Mr. Thorwardson, who numbers among his fraternal organizations Kappa Sigma Chi. Mr. Johnson is president of Alpha Zeta. However, he has nothing on V. Thorwardson, who is manager of the Y dugout (he's the fellow who's never around when you want to order)—still perhaps this is rather more of an indictment than anything else.

Yet let us pause a moment before either group begins to count its ballots before they are cast. There has been a very, very nasty rumor afloat that the Senior class is practically broke. What has become of the funds is a perplexing problem. Can there be a Senior prom? Several of the master minds have, however, promulgated some fine ideas on the subject, one of which is to hold our Senior prom in conjunction with the University. Hillsboro would be the logical setting for this affair (this idea was advanced by four Theta Chi's who are well acquainted with that town and means of getting there cheaply). Another idea is to hold the Senior prom in conjunction with the Sophomore Frolic inasmuch as most of the seniors plan on being at the latter affair anyway.

Oh, well, come and find out about it yourself tomorrow afternoon at the Little Country theater at 4 p. m. It promises to be a very entertaining circus. Tickets may be obtained by all spectators at the door for the price of 50 cents (only seniors will be admitted free). Come early and be assured of a good seat!

Pressure from above caused C. C. N. Y. students to abandon a poll on the fitness for office of Dr. Frederick B. Robinson, president of the college, who has been under fire.

Lincoln Debaters To Hold Tourney

The Lincoln Debate club of North Dakota State college will sponsor the third annual high school debate tournament to be held here, the week-end of April 17-18.

Each high school may enter two teams, representatives of contesting groups meeting Friday, April 17, at 1 p. m., to make drawings for the first round of debate.

The state high school question is — "Resolved, that the several states should enact legislation providing for a system of complete medical care available to all persons at public expense."

All state high schools are invited to enter.

NDSC LIBRARY GETS SIX NEWLY-PRINTED BOOKS

Six new books have been received by the library. They are as follows: "Outposts of Science", Bernard Jaffe; "Seven Pillars of Wisdom", T. E. ### Rules For Song Contest Formed

Following are the rules governing the inter-fraternity sing:

1. Any social fraternity or similar group will be eligible for competition.
2. All members must meet general college eligibility requirements.
3. The chorus shall consist of at least eight members from the group, there being no maximum limit.
4. The contest shall take place Sunday, May 10, at 7:00 p. m., on the steps of Old Main.
5. The traveling trophy to be awarded for first place will be given for the quality and the manner of presentation.
6. All entries with the names of the songs, should be in two weeks in advance of the contest.
7. There shall be no limit to the number of songs which any chorus may sing, but no chorus shall sing for more than ten minutes.
8. The assistance of one alumni member as a director or pianist may be used.
9. All choruses must learn a four-part arrangement of the "Yellow and the Green," which will be sung en-masse as the closing number of the program.

Further information can be obtained from Gordon Brandes, president of Alpha Phi Omega.

Children who will be unsuccessful in later life can be spotted at the age of six, says Dr. J. W. M. Rothery of Harvard.

The third stage is to be completed on April 1st and the fourth upon the return from Minneapolis

WINNIPEG RUGBY CLUB ON FOOTBALL SCHEDULE

Combination football and rugby will be played when the State College Bison meet the Winnipeg Rugby Club at Winnipeg this September 26. Athletic Director Finnegan has scheduled this contest under the ruling that one half of the game be played under collegiate football rulings with the other two quarters governed by rugby regulations. The booking of this game completes the schedule of nine games for the Bison next fall.

State Senator Melvin Johnson was guest of honor at a dinner given by the college local of the Farmers' Educational and Cooperative Union preceding the UND-NDSC debate March 20. Other guests were Adrian McClelland of Grand Forks, Frieda Panimon, Rey Cruden, Vivian Luther and Robert Hagen.
