ANNUAL SOPHOMORE FROLIC IS SCHEDULED FOR MAY 1

Frances Cooper, president of the Sophomore class, has announced that May 1 has been selected as the date for the annual Sophomore Frolic. She has appointed Kent Helland as general chairman for the event, which will probably be held in Festival Hall.

KASSON ACCEPTS JOB

Verne Kasson, who completed his course at the end of the winter term, has accepted a position as Smith-Hughes instructor at Towner. He has already assumed his duties.

Motwani Will Speak At Convo. Monday

Dr. Kewal Motwani, noted authority on Indian art, will speak at convocation Monday, March 23, on the subject of Indian Art. He will illustrate his lecture with slides.

This famous Indian scholar gained his education at the Indian National university under the great chancellor and famous Indian poet, Rabindranath Tagore. Dr. Matwani has had a colorful career in the service of India. He has held a position on the editorial staff of a large metropolitan nationalist paper; taught in his alma mater and in the University of Mahatma Gandhi as assistant professor of political science and later became private secretary to the mayor of Karachi. He interprets America to India and India to America, thus fulfilling the function of an unofficial ambassador for both. Dr. Motwani has lectured at many colleges and universities in America.

Halcrow Named Club President

Harold Halcrow was elected president of the Saddle and Sirlain club at a meeting held last night. Merlin Toussaint was named vice president, Sigurd Melstad, secretary; Kent Helland, treasurer, and John McDonald, historian.

Plans for the annual Barndance were discussed and also plans for the May festival. Noble Sanders was placed in charge of livestock judging; Dale Peterson, poultry raising, and Irwin Hagen, grain judge.

Outgoing officers are: William Keup, president; Harry Graves, vice president; Noble Sanders, secretary, and Bob Williams, treasurer.

Approve Engineers' Petition Motive

Heated controversy among numerous students and faculty members in the department of engineering and mechanical arts was quieted last Friday when President Shepperd favorably approved a petition submitted two days before and signed by sixty students. As a result, petitioners have secured for the department free access to the rooms on all week days including Friday and Saturday nights. Sunday work was not allowed because the president believed that some religious faiths would object to such a plan.

Left unsettled was the controversy over the strict formality students have been required to go through to secure access to the study rooms. This omission was thought justified in view of the fact that some few students had been destructive. Because no instructors frequent the building nights, this is the only means the administration has of checking such losses.

A great majority of the students seemed satisfied under the revised system and were content that their petition had at least brought about part of the desired action.

Debate Teams Defeated Twice By University

McLellan, Johnson Win From Panimon and Cruden In Supreme Court Decision

The University of North Dakota debating teams captured both ends of the annual debate with the NDSC squads last night and Wednesday.

Adrian McClellan and Melvin Johnson upholding the affirmative on the subject advocating the restriction of the powers of the United States Court earned the decision in the contest at the Little Country theater last night. Their opponents from NDSC were Freida Panimon and Ray Cruden.

Representing NDSC at Wednesday's contest were Cathryn Ray and Robert Hagen.

Four NDSC debaters meet Concordia arguers in a practice contest at Concordia today. They are Mildred Weiser, Herschel Hutsinpillar, Thomas Donovan and Sam McKoff.

Lutheran Students Fete Secretary

Miss Hortense Hage, Minneapolis, Minn., regional secretary of the Lutheran Students Association of America, has been visiting the local organization this year. Wednesday night she was introduced to the students at a general assembly in the college YMCA.

Saturday, the college Lutheran group will sponsor a fellowship banquet in the First Lutheran Church of Fargo at 6:00 p. m. with Lutheran students of Fargo and Moorhead and the surrounding territory as guests. Among the institutions to be represented will be Moorhead State Teachers College, Concordia College, Concordia Conservatory of Music, St. Luke's Hospital, Augsburg, Dakota and Interstate Business colleges, Mayville and Valley City State Teachers colleges.

CURRIE NAMED COP

Lyle Currie has been named campus policeman to succeed Vern Kasson who is teaching in Towner, North Dakota.

Juniors To Vote For 'Ward' Today; Politics Expected To Creep Into Affair

The "wards" have it! Not the hospital wards or the insane asylum wards, but the Junior Prom manager Wards, Don Ward and Ward Swanson, candidates for the office of prom manager. Nor is the mention of wards particularly inept, for the unlucky victor will undoubtedly be a fit candidate for occupancy in any of the wards of the aforementioned institutions.

Anyway, elections for the purpose of selecting a manager of the Junior Prom are to be held this afternoon, Friday, March 20, in the Little Country theater. There, in the midst of that lovely setting of mountains and rippling streams (on

Elections Postponed Till April 7; New Regulations Cause Confusion

TRAFFIC POLICEMAN TO ENFORCE RULES

For the protection of all concerned, a traffic policeman will take up a position along the college drive to regulate the movement of automobiles by drivers.

No accident, of moment, has occurred to date, but the traffic is so heavy that it seems advisable to caution and regulate automobile travel in order to avoid accidents, particularly during the eight o'clock morning hour and at the noon hour when traffic is most congested.

I request the cooperation of all students and of college employee drivers and their friends. I know that all of you are as anxious to avoid accidents as I can be and feel sure that you will cooperate.

—President J. H. Shepperd.

Airheart Plans Building Drive

An extensive drive from March 23 to April 4 for the purpose of securing funds for the erection of a new classroom building to house the Fargo School of Religious Education has been planned, announces Dr. Walter Lee Airheart, head of the school.

The board of trustees has decided that a new building to serve the needs of this generation is imperative. An energetic group of young business men in Fargo comprised of former students and friends have offered their support and assistance. An appeal has been sent to 1600 former students soliciting their aid in the drive. "It must be understood," explains Dr. Airheart, "that the majority of the money must come from small contributions.

The plan calls for an attractive one story brick building which will provide ample room for many years to come, and make possible for the addition of another unit later on without any suggestion of incompleteness now. The proposed structure will cost about $15,000.

Candidates Must Hand In Eligibility Cards to Comm. Of Elections By March 24

Elections for the Student Commission, board of athletic control, and board of publications which were to have been held on March 31, have been postponed until April 7, due to the fact that the new constitution provides for additional student offices and previous announcements made by the commissioner of elections did not give a complete list of the officers to be voted on in the coming election. Also the constitution provides that candidates shall present their eligibility cards to the Commissioner of Elections at least two weeks before election. The spring vacation interfered with this time limit set, thus making it impossible for students to secure their eligibility cards from the registrar's office. Candidates for the various offices must present eligibility cards to the Commissioner of Elections, Ray Cruden, on or before Tuesday, March 24. A complete list of candidates will be published in the March 27 issue of The Spectrum.

The following officers are to be elected for one year terms: President of the student commission, commissioner of social affairs, commissioner of finance, commissioner of campus, commissioner of elections. Three officers will serve for two years. They are the commissioners of athletics, judiciary and public speaking. No sophomore members of the board of athletic control will be elected from now on, which is a departure from the custom of former years. Officers to be elected on this board are junior and senior members.

Three members of the board of publications control will be chosen. They are as follows: One junior to serve during the senior year, one sophomore to serve during the junior and senior years, and one freshman to serve during the sophomore and junior years.

The members are to be elected to the board of public speaking control, one sophomore to serve during the junior and senior years, and one junior to serve during the senior year.

Early Morning Drill Starts Friday, April 3

The first general military assembly will be held April 3 at 7:30 a. m. and will continue till 8:50 a. m. Four more assemblies will be held on succeeding Fridays. The early hour is to make up for the time lost during the first two weeks of school when no assemblies will be held.

May 21, 22, 23 are the dates set for the inspection of the entire ROTC corps of this school. Colonel R. M. McMasters, ROTC inspection officer in the 7th corps area and Major R. F. Arnold, national guard instructor in North Dakota will be the inspectors.

Major Holstead of the Infantry school at Fort Benning, Georgia, will replace Major Ennis next fall. Major Ennis has been transferred to Fort Leavenworth, Kansas.

On Over-emphasis of College Athletics

One criticism of the college system today is that it emphasizes athletics too much. The fact that athletics are subsidized in some schools and receive throughout the country too much publicity has aroused much unfavorable comment on this phase of collegiate endeavor. It will be readily admitted by all that a college is more apt to be famous for the calibre of its athletic teams rather than for the quality of its graduates. Yet one might well ask whether it is a question of over-emphasis of athletics or a case of under-emphasis of scholastic achievements.

Every professor has some caustic remark about the publicity and emphasis given athletics and also about the "dumbness" of some athletes. Yet in condemning the emphasis placed upon college athletics the professors are merely paying tribute to the ability possessed by the coaches to make the most of the amount of time they have to spend with their men, to capitalize to the utmost on their basketball, football or track stars. Considering the time the coaches have to spend with their men compared to the time the professors spend with the same men the coaches do a much better job. Or at least they get more credit for it.

Professors might do well to observe the methods used by the athletic mentors is gaining publicity, and they might do well to emulate the coaches by making the most of the time which they spend with their students. They might even learn to co-operate with one another. Whose fault is it that alumni look back at their college days and remember with pride the football team of '24 rather than the amount of knowledge garnered from a certain course? Again, have college athletics been over-emphasized or have academic achievements been under-emphasized?

QUOTABLE QUOTES BY ASSOCIATED COLLEGIATE PRESS

"Today it almost takes a cipher expert to read the handwriting of the average school-boy." The editor of the Harvard Alumni Bulletin announces, sorrowfully, that the typewriter has come to stay.

"America is a well watered country and the inhabitants know all of the fishing holes. The Americans also produce millions of automobiles." So says former President Herbert Hoover, contributor to "Chapparral," Stanford humor magazine.

"Washington's boyhood has been distorted, his public career has been misrepresented to further the selfish political interests of his successors, and his historians have deliberately falsified the things he said and did in order to present a picture of the 'Father of Our Country' as a man without a fault." Prof. James B. Hedges of Brown indulges in a little debunking.

BISON BRIEFS

By BOB WILLIAMS

Can you imagine Len Frisk and Dayton Jones strutting arm in arm across the football field next fall between halves of the University homecoming game . . . that would be about as amusing as Physic Goodone stepping on a hound's back . . . have your laugh if you want to but the NYA head carries more weight on this campus than you can realize . . . she occupies two chairs . . . the NYA and advisor of the Cosmopolitan club . . . Vern-detta J. is reported to have backed into one of these things trains have besides cushioned seats only to be locked in by the conductor when the train stopped . . . no one has been able to kid her about it because she has that diamond to gag her friends with . . . at least 400 good Irishmen must have rolled over in their graves when Pat Weiser (brother of the oft mentioned Virgil Weiser) spent the vacation days in Rugby visiting someone of the fair sex . . . that is what college does to the boys . . . Pat could never uphold the family name without marrying a Weiser and he should realize that . . . even the senior class president skipped the traces last Tuesday and got his hair mussed up in a terrible place . . . the Spectre will begin its circulation next week and may cause some circulation for a few weeks after that . . . Harry Arneson says that as soon as a girl finds out she isn't the only pebble on the beach she becomes a little boulder and the only way to get around a girl is to hug her . . . Aunt Fanny should have this in her britannica . . . you might think wireless is fast but tell a story in Ceres Hall at 7:30 and walk from there to the dugout and at 7:31 the same gossip would make a volume of Websters with all the color of a novel and all the horror of a nightmare . . . explain if you will why so many girls flunk English composition when they have an imagination like that . . . the ideal college girl would be one that had no eyes, no mouth . . . just a perfect one-celled animal with a few brains under the outer shell . . . she could still be attractive . . . as Harry says—Beauty is only skin dope . . .

Blue Key has at last published a list of their new pledges—self made men, leaders of the common people, men who have pushed themselves to the top through unselfish effort, men who little children stare at, men who have worked diligently for the welfare of NDSC receiving no remuneration, God's gift to the welfare of the human race, clean politicians, smooth and accurate in their work, sympathetic contributors to the great cause of better understanding and better citizenship—you all know them—such prominent figures as Anstett, such men as this could not be left off such a representative list—after all he was appointed assistant manager of the Brevities, why shouldn't he be in Blue Key—he's a gifted boy—one gift after another—and then we have Dayton Jones, the pride of the SAE's and understudy of Alfred Arnold—I don't know what he accomplished in way of service unless he served ham and crackers in the Lincoln Log Cabin on the day that Alfred's cousin visited here—well that's service—sure he'll make a good Blue Key man—he never hangs around the dugout—he goes with a decent sort of a gal—keeps his nose clean and his shoes polished and after all who else did the frat have to nominate—sure Ballard is a good soldier.

When bigger and better cops are made, the faculty committee will make them out of Kappa Sigma Chis . . . I'll wager that half of the pledges have police insignia tattooed on their chest and the rest of them play boogiemans to train them in the manly art of self defense . . . the pledge manual is alleged to contain such things as community civics, state and federal laws, jui jitsu, and self control . . . we will have to admit they are excellent cops . . .

"What," asks Columnist Bill Kennedy of the University of Minnesota Daily, "is so wonderful about Walter Johnson throwing a dollar across the Rappahannock—with the dollar inflated the way it is!"—(ACP)

The newest organization among college men is the VFW, a military organization. It means: Veterans of Future Wars, and the organizers maintain they ought to have their bonus through congress by July at least. It all started with students at the Virginia Military Institute and already has a chapter n Alaska, so they say.—(ACP)

Hanson Sets Dates For Golf Classes

Definite time schedules for instructions have been set by Art Hanson, golf professional, according to word received here from the Athletic Department. All bona fide students and faculty members are eligible for this tutelage, all equipment being furnished, the only cost being an incidental fee of one dollar.

All the classes will be held in the boxing room in the basement of the Physical Education building. Women aspirants will meet on Monday from 10:00 to 11:00, Tuesday from 9:00 to 10:00 and from 5:00 to 6:00, and on Thursday from 9:00 to 10:00. Girls wishing to enroll may sign their names on the bulletin board in the women's gymnasium or at the place of instruction.

As yet there is only one period set for male students, the time being Tuesday afternoon from 4:00 to 5:00, but there will be more classes organized if necessary. Men enrolling in this class will be given credit for work in Physical Education without any additional classes.

George Washington university hospital researchers have developed a new anesthetic for use during child-birth.

Fanny's Love Lore By Aunty Fanny

Dear Aunt Fanny:

I have been going with a girl for some time and have found it rather expensive. The first time I took her out I spent three dollars and she let me hold her hand; the next time I spent five dollars and she let me put my arm around her; next time I spent ten dollars and was able to kiss her. Here's the trouble—after paying ten dollars for late registration, and buying my books at the Bookstore, my billfold is as empty as Fuzzy Gruber's head. Now what would you say was the best thing for me to do?

Signed—"Huffy".

Dear Huffy:

You say the first time you took her out you spent three dollars and held her hand, next time five dollars and put your arms around her, then ten dollars and kissed her . . . If I were you I would wire home for twenty-five dollars and take her out again (maybe you could combine the three for a special price).

Signed—Aunty Fanny.

Dear Fanny:

I have been keeping company with a Frenchman who can neither speak nor understand a word of English. I am in the same condition where French is concerned. As a rule we get along pretty well without talking, but every now and then misunderstandings arise that cannot be settled without words. I haven't time to learn French, nor he English. What would you advise?

Signed,
Vera Torrid.

Dear Vera:

As I see it, the only thing necessary to stop these misunderstandings would be for you to learn these words in French: "Yes," "no" and "stop." This should eliminate all difficulty. If not, remember a sock in the eye is worth two in the basket.

Signed—Aunty Fanny.

That just about concludes our advice for this week, and in parting let me give this bit of warning to all the gurlies; many an old maid who believed "The Postman Always Rings Twice" has now come to the conclusion that a male in the hand is worth two in the postoffice. Your little Fanny will be back again in the near future (barring accident to her physical health) with more good sound advice and philosophy. The girl sending in the best letter next week will be rewarded with a slightly used copy of "What Every Girl Should Know."

Tryota initiation will be held Wednesday evening at 7:30 in the art studio.

Ec. Sc. 426, a course in office management, will be offered at 11:00 o'clock, M. W. F., by Dr. Pettee.

EXTENSION SERVICE CLUBS PROVE POPULAR

Assuming an increasingly important position in the rural community life of North Dakota, 18,897 women actually participated in the home development educational activities involved in 1935 by the NDAC extension service.

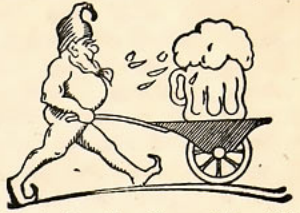

Of these women, 10,530 were active members of the 648 Homemakers clubs in the state, according to Grace DeLong, state home demonstration leader. Each club has an average membership of slightly more than 16 women. Home Economics education is handled by the extension service on the basis of a leader training system, each club sending its leader to a central point to receive the information from a representative of the college. During the past year 1,310 leaders were given training which they in turn relayed to their clubs.

Forty-two counties have Homemakers councils to guide their local programs. Membership in these councils is 593.

SPECTRUM

By WALT McGRATH

Spectators who saw the University of North Dakota basketball team compete in the Olympic tryouts will testify that the Nodaks had as good an aggregation as was entered in their division but that an 'off' night for the Sioux cost them their chance to advance into the next round of the elimination. Shots that just rolled off the rim when they might just as well have dropped in, passes that barely rolled off the fingertips . . . things don't quite click and as a result a classy outfit from Drake who played heads-up ball managed to eke out a three point win over the University.

No alibis were offered, it was just the type of contest that occurred up at Grand Forks when the Bison stormed the Sioux stronghold and whipped them in the opening game. Finegan and Birk weren't hitting the net and as these two forwards go, so go the Nodaks.

It won't be long before Captain Harry Arneson and his band of tracksters will blossom forth with the spring weather and start the training grind to get into condition for the tourneys scheduled as spring entertainment along athletic lines. Arneson is the Bison hope in the pole vault event and if he can get a pole strong enough to carry him a conference record would not be too much to expect.

Another spring sport that is sure to come into its own within a few weeks now is the ancient and much revered game of tennis. Gamma Tau Sigma, honorary journalistic society, sponsored a tourney last spring with a great deal of success and have already laid plans for a similar one this year. And now when tennis is mentioned, the name of Dana Leslie is brought up in the same breath. Leslie is an addition to the engineering department's staff and since his advent here last fall the word has gone around that in the summer time he occupies himself with being a tennis professional in a resort in the New England States. Reports from local spies have it for a fact that he is not only a tennis player but a first rate one and that home town players had better look to their laurels if he stays around these parts during the summer months.

If the flood waters will recede long enough for a few of the teams to get into the field and practice, there is every indication that the Athletic Department will again sponsor both a baseball and a softball tournament. Last year it was the Gamma Rhos who dominated the league along with the Sigma Phi Deltas and the Theta Chis but this season there is every indication that it will be a free for all scramble.

NDSC MARKSMEN WIN CORPS AREA MATCH

Down Minnesota University By a One Point Edge

Five Men Will Go To Minneapolis to Compete With U Shoulder-Shoulder

By DON BUCHANAN

Out of 16 teams in the seventh corps area, the North Dakota State College rifle team edged out their closest competitor by the very close margin of one point. The total tally for the entire team was 7,662 out of a possible 8,000, while the University of Minnesota had an aggregate of 7,661.

Strangely enough this is the third consecutive year that the two team totals have been separated by one point. Two years ago the Bison marksmen punched out this narrow victory over the Gopher shooters, but the U boys came back last year to accomplish the same feat.

The team to place third in the corps area was Kansas State which had a tally which stood exactly one hundred points below the A. C. outfit.

The team which fired in the match consisted of fifteen men. Four stages were fired each of two targets. The team aggregate was chosen from the ten high scores in each stage.

The ten high men in the team for the entire match are to receive awards. They are Bill Oftebro, Ellis Thompson, Frank Sorenson, Edward Ballard, Carl Kaess, Hubert Smith, Dayon Pollock, Roy Peterson, Lloyd Erickstad and Tony Welker. The team will also get a traveling trophy which is now in the possession of Minnesota.

The remainder of the shooting to be done this season will be fired in the National Intercollegiate match and a shoulder to shoulder match with the Gopher gunmen. The six high teams in the corps area qualified to fire the National Intercolle-

ART SCHULTZ

The classy manner in which Schultz handled himself Friday made his bout the best on the card.

Shooting on the first two stages will begin on March 28, and the third stage will be completed on April 1st. The five high men in these three stages will make the trip to Minneapolis. The final wind-up will be April 11, when the last stage of the match will be finished.

State Boxers Whip Wahpeton Science

Scoring their second successive victory in the past two weeks, the first one being at the expense of the University of North Dakota, Al Zech's proteges displayed too much class for the Wahpeton Science boxers and scored a decisive victory, winning five of the seven bouts, last Friday night in the A. C. fieldhouse.

In the feature event of the evening, Lawrence Bapp, 147, whipped Lyle Glass, 154, of Wahpeton. Bapp was never in any serious difficulty, leading most of the way and seemingly had solved the style which had enabled Glass to win a decision over him in a previous meeting. Three of the other bouts went to the Bison team on decisions, McCormick winning over McDermott, Hamilton defeating Butcher and Schultz trimming Aldrich.

In the welterweight division Delmar Skow of the Bison force scored a second round technical knockout over Bill Whipple. Norman Olson of Fargo, and Roland Smith, both tipping the scales at 154 pounds, battled three rounds to a draw, while the only State defeat of the match occurred when Eastman scored a technical KO over Tom Leonord.

The final matches of the season will be held at Grand Forks tonight when the Bison and the Sioux clash for the second time of the season in an intercollegiate match.

Girls' Rifle Team Downs Conn. State

The NDSC girls rifle team defeated the Connecticut State college team by one point in a postal match which closed Saturday, March 14. The score was 493 to 492, the five highest scores of each team counting. The highest score of the match was 100, the possible score, made by Rocelia Rud.

The NDSC scores were as follows:
Rocelia Rud ..... 100
Emma May Brittin ..... 99
Sally Minard ..... 98
Mary Clark ..... 98
Mary Yeager ..... 98

The Girls' rifle team is to be matched against the male sharpshooters at the range in the field house at 9:00 A. M. tomorrow. As usual the five highest scores out of the seven will count in the total score. Each contestant will shoot ten rounds. The girls will shoot in the prone position and the men shoot in the sitting and kneeling positions, two kneeling and five sitting. Colonel Easton is in charge of the girls' team and Captain Tagliabue in charge of the men.

The 'Wards' Have It For Prom Leadership

the Progressive frame (Theta Chi, A. T. O., Sigma Phi Delta, Kappa Psi, Alpha Gamma Rho, Gamma Phi Beta, and Phi Omega Pi). No rumblings have as yet been heard from the direction of the Y, rendezvous of the much touted, highly feared and everlastingly courted Independent frame, and thus it is foretold that both "Sure We're Pure" and Progressive frames will have to rouse from their accustomed lethargy and go out and court the favor of the Independent voters.

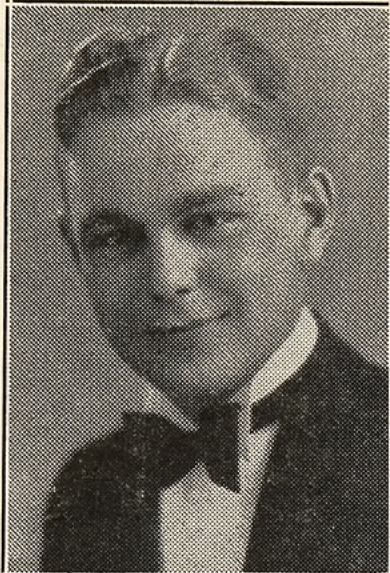

As usual this will be one of the hottest elections in years. Of course each candidate is the "only" man for the office. Don Ward is president of the Delta Tau Epsilon fraternity, but then Mr. Swanson is president of Theta Chi fraternity—so what. Mr. Ward is a publicity man of no mean ability, having served one year on the board of publications for one entire year without kicking the well-known bucket. He is also to become, very shortly, a member of Blue Key, which proves little or much, according to what frame you happen to be or not to be in. His platform is: "Free spiked punch, couches for more than just the chaperons and honor guests, a burlesque show and none less than a 'big name band.'" Mr. Ward Swanson is a business man of great worth, something of a Beau Brummel and an Adonis, and promises in his platform such things as million-dollar gate receipts, a bathing beauty contest, a revolving bar, and none less than a "big name band," which he will personally direct in one of his more abandoned moments.

All members of the junior class are urged to make sure before hand that they are members of the said class and in fairly good standing. Also, to do away with the embarrassment caused in last year's election when the supply of ballots gave out, each junior is requested to bring his own ballots with which to stuff the ballot box.

JUNIORS VOTE

— FOR —

Ward Swanson — FOR — Prom Manager

As its candidate for manager of the 1936 Junior Prom, the "Progressive" party is supporting Ward Swanson.

Ward Swanson is well qualified to hold this position. He is an astute business man and expert accountant, having had several years experience with the A. O. U. W. office in Fargo. He is also president of Theta Chi fraternity. With these qualifications he is especially able to handle in capable fashion the managerial duties of the Junior Prom.

College Men Urged To Join Jr. Chorus

College men who feel the need of some form of musical expression and who desire to gain admission to the Junior Amphion Chorus, sponsored by the Amphion Chorus of Fargo and Moorhead and directed by Lawrence L. Peterson, are urged to apply with a recommendation from their music instructor at the Fargo YMCA auditorium on Monday evenings at 7 p. m. when rehearsals for the group are held.

This chorus is the product of the mind of Mr. Preston, director of the Amphion Chorus, and the Amphion board of directors and will act to a certain extent under its guidance. The Amphion Chorus is making a serious endeavor to increase as much as possible the musical development of the two cities of Fargo and Moorhead and their surrounding localities, and this new movement towards a Junior Amphion is one of the major parts of its program.

In one month this chorus has grown from 28 members to 56 and new members will be added until the number has reached 100.
