Liberalize Ceres Hall Rules

Would you think of forsaking the modern electric light for a kerosene lamp? Would party. you go back to Dobbin and horse-flies and turn your back on the comfort and convenience of the automobile? Of course you wouldn't! That would be retrogression. Yet on this campus there are regulations that are as outmoded as hoop skirts and bustles. Regulations which would put the Pilgrim fathers to shame for lack of freedom and liberality. These regulations are those governing the hours which residents of Ceres hall must keep.

One thing which a college education should foster is a spirit of liberalism which will not condone those rules and regulations of our ancestors which time has proved to be outmoded and narrow-minded. After all, students in college are capable of some responsibility. From the moment we enter this institution we are impressed with the fact that we are now men and women and should act as such. Yet the present rules which govern the hours of the girls in Ceres hall are contradictory to this fact and would credit the students of this college with no sense of responsibility nor would they place much confidence in the hope that the younger generation will come out all right.

For freshmen we recommend one 11 o'clock date during the week and for upperclassmen one 12 o'clock date during the week. For all women students we recommend that they be allowed to stay out till 2 a. m. on Friday and Saturday nights and in the case of special social events to be given special late leaves.

The N. Y. A. Is NDSC Benefit

Many have been the attacks on the administration of the N.Y.A., student relief my estimation. set-up for needy undergraduates, whereby they work on projects developed at the colleges and receive a check from the federal treasury for their efforts. The charges directed against it have been that it has been a dole which students work slightly to get; that it is a patronage scheme to build up vote gathering power for the administration; and that the money has been used for projects not intended for it by the letter of the law. Pres. Franklin D. Roosevelt answers the opponents of the measure thus, "There has not been the slightest evidence of government interference or desire to control the individual under the provisions of the law." While agreeing that the selection of projects under the act may have been faulty at times, we maintain the act has been instru-mental in extending the college educational opportunities to more individuals. This year 104,501 needy undergraduates in 1,602 colleges receive aid under the N.Y.A. In our school the act has provided educational opportunities for many, provided more money for local spending, and has opened up jobs for many other students.

BISON BRIEFS

By BOB TAYLOR

Motivated by a spirit of curiosity, stimulated by reading an article about the "Red Menace" published in the "Yale Daily News," I hereby announce the results of a survey conducted among the 2300 undergraduates of NDSC. . . .

The following list of thought provoking questions were asked: are you an enrolled member of the communist party of America, and, if not, are you opposed to the present capitalistic system? How do you propose to overthrow the entrenched forces of capitalism in America? Do you believe in free love, and why?

Where one would naturally expect suspicion and fears of stool pigeons, frank disarming answers were given to the interviewers.

To the question, are you an enrolled member of the Communist party of America, 97 per cent answered yes. The other three per cent stated that their views were too radical to permit entrance to the Communist

. . . . Seventy-four per cent favored revolution as a way of ousting capitalism, and 65 per cent revealed that they were born in Russia and explained that they were going to NDSC because of the superior variety of communistic literature in the A.C. library.

When questioned on free love, 92 per cent admitted that they were keeping harems, but would auction off some of the pixies to anyone who would treat them kindly. Five per cent stated they were not in favor of free love because so many of the girls ate crackers in bed.

Of the 2300 whose opinions were asked, only 75 refused to answer the questions. Three were on the Board of Publications and the other 72 couldn't speak English.

To keep up the red spirit of the column this week will write a little red poem and dedicate it to Marj Danielson and Tootie Brophy:

Marj's are red and Tootie's are, too;

I know what you're thinking and the same to you. . . .

TRAITS OF A WOMAN: Asking you to go to the Spinster Skip and letting you buy the supper. . . . driving on ice with one hand out the window and the other lighting a cigarette . . . stretching a story until it snaps back and slaps them between the ears going on the diet of three meals and two lunches a day wearing out telephone wires; also the nerves of the people who are waiting to call.

Traits of a Man: Trying to model the world to fit his dreams, instead of modeling his dreams to fit the world falling for a good figure and a pretty face and finding they add up to nothing kidding himself into believing he's having a good time . . . an ego that surpasses even that of a woman an ability with a car that helps solve the problem of overpopulation

Theater Reviews

A wide variety of tastes in movie fare will find satisfaction in the offerings of local theaters during the coming week.

Lovers of pioneering stories will see Janet Gaynor and Henry Fonda, assisted by Slim Summerville, Andy Devine, Jane Withers, and Kitty Kelly, in "The Farmer Takes a Wife" at the Fargo theater during Saturday, Sunday, and Monday. The newest in musicals is offered by the Fargo Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday. It is Fred Astaire's and Ginger Rogers' "Top Hat" with musical score by Irving Berlin.

Music and dancing also is the appeal of two of the Grand theater billings. The Margaret Kennedy play, "Escape Me Never," with the principles of the original New York cast, Elizabeth Bergner, Hugh Sinclair, Leon Quartermaine, and Griffith Jones, is to play Tuesday and Wednesday. Pinky Tomlin and Dorothy Page sing and dance through 'King Solomon of Broadway, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday. Sunday and Monday the Grand features the comedy romance, "Two Fisted," in which Roscoe Karns, Lee Tracy, Gail Patrick, and Kent Taylor play.

The State's Tuesday and Wednesday schedule features "George White's 1935 Scandals," with Alice Faye, James Dunn, Ned Sparks, Arline Judge, and Eleanor Powell. Extremely different from the ordinary run of pictures is Martin Johnson's "Baboona," African adventure film to play today and tomorrow. Twenty months were spent in the filming of the 60,000 miles of unexplored jungle shown in the serial epic. James Cagney plays the lead in "G-Men" to be seen Sunday and Monday. Ann Dvorak, Margaret Lindsay and Robert Armstrong are also included in the cast.

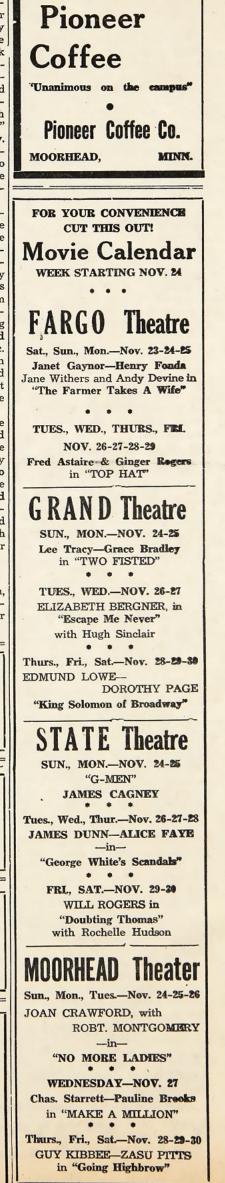

Melodrama is furnished by the Roxy which is presenting Richard Cromwell, Wallace Ford and Billie Seward in "Men of the Hour" today and tomorrow. The following two days, Sunday and Monday, will be taken up with the showing of "Red Morning" with leads by Regis Toomey and Steffi Duna. Tuesday and Wednesday, "Follies Bergere" with Ann Sothern and Maurice Chevalier is scheduled to play.

In honor of Mrs. Glenn Lawritson, Delta Psi Kappa, the Women's Athletic Association will give a dinner to-night at the Graver Hotel.

PROGRAMS CLASS WILL PRESENT ONE-ACT PLAYS

For their term project, the community programs class will present a program of four one-act plays Dec. 10 in the Little Country theater. The program will be presented for the benefit of members of the 4-H clubs of the state, who will be in Fargo at that time. The plays to be presented are an original oneact play by Vivian Luther, entitled 'Head of Wheat"; a Christmas play given by LaVerne Gilbertson named 'One Night in Bethlehem"; "Sparking", presented by Gwendolyn Stenhjem; and "The Flattering Word," by Grethe Jones.

the least. Last night I came home and found he was wearing my night shirt (which I sleep in). I mean a guy who was under he bed and said he was a friend of my roommate's though my roommate hasn't any friends because he is always bumming cigarettes and wearing my pants which have a hole in them. Then I went in the parlor and stepped on a bar of soap and fell where my stomach would have been if I turned over and swore something fiercely, and when I got up to take a shower the water was so hot it burned all the skin off and I had to stay in my room and go around in my bare skin. Then I got fifty on an english theme and the teacher said I couldn't write english as if I hadn't written english for upon twenty-two years. And that isn't the worst. The other night I was dancing and there were so many people that I had to keep shoving them out of the road and they asked me if I thought I was playing football so I went and saw the coach and he said when they started playing asylums he would let me know. I don't know what he meant but I didn't like his face and I want you to know that I will not stand for any more of these things happening to me and will get my money back and go home and you will be out of luck. Dickinson Artist's Exhibit Shown Here

An art exhibit of the works of Miss Zoe Beiler, teacher at the Dickinson State Teachers college, is on display in the Art studio.

Miss Beiler graduated from the Art Institute of Chicago in 1930 and received her B.A. degree from the Lima Lutheran college. Last summer Miss Beiler studied under Paul E. Gieshbert at the University of Chicago and worked on landscaping. "The imaginative human figure—the idealized symbol," is Miss Beiler's favorite subject.

The exhibit is composed of 50 drawings, including 17 oil paintings, 8 oil portraits, 8 charcoal drawings of life, 5 terra-cotta drawings from the sculptor galleries, 5 portraits in charcoal, and 6 black and white pen and ink reproductions.

PECTRUM PORT PECULATIONS

By WALT McGRATH

"The best Notre Dame offense I've ever seen," is the way the head linesman at the Omaha University-Bison fraças expressed his opinion of the Thundering Herd. Coming from a man who has seen Marchy Schwartz, an expenent of the Notre Dame system to the nth degree, send his proteges at Missouri through their paces this statement really ought to warm the cockles of any ceach's heart. * .

Regardless of the outcome of the final game with the University of Wichita tomorrow, the Bison have completed a season that should satisfy even the most exacting of fans. With but one loss chalked against them, and that against the national champions and then only after they had held them to a one point lead for three quarters of the contest, the Thundering Herd stepped out against the best the North Central conference had to offer and came through unscathed.

"The fightinest, scrappiest bunch of boys I've seen in years" is the way Lowe looks at the situation. Undoubtedly they are a team that is out to win their ball games and they seem to have developed that peculiar Gopher quality which demands victories. The one thing that this 1935 outfit has that has been strangely lacking in previous years is the ability to pull together and from this year's result it would seem that this is a necessity.

Sleepy Sam Westgate seems to have established some sort of re-Played football for eleven cord years and it's the first time he's ever been on a championship team! Sam played four seasons in high school, three in the army, and has just now completed his fourth year of collegiate competition. When he com-peted with the army team in the Hawaiian island, they always managed to end up in the runner up position but never seemed to be able to step into title holding class, losing out more than once by a scant one point margin.

Football season is about over and now comes that grim battle where the various so-called sports scribes let themselves in for plenty of hell by sticking out their neck and choosing an all conference team. Yes, we've worked on ours but intend to try to spend an enjoyable week-end so as a result won't annnounce the stupendous news till the next issue, which is close enough to the end of school so that we might be able to live down any enemies we incurred by this folly over the Xmas vacation.

Bison Defeat Coyotes To Annex Title

Finnegan-Lowe Club Complete Loop Campaign Undefeated

By JOHN RAYMOND

Last Saturday at Mitchell, S. D. the Thundering Herd bowled over South Dakota University by a score of 20 to 0 to win the North Central Conference title.

The victory was the fourth in five starts in conference play for the Herd which has only a 20 to 20 tie with the University of North Dakota to mar an otherwise perfect record.

Emil May, playing for the first time in his intercollegiate career on native soil, showed the fans some real football by registering the first Bison counter through an 82-yard sprint. This play clearly showed the Bison at their best. The Bison took the ball on their own 16 and Wes Phillips picked up two yards. On the next play May felt his way through the forward wall and when in the open his mates cut down the only four possible defenders with as expert a job of blocking as accorded any runner. In the second period May had a hand in another touchdown by passing to Neville Reiners who scored.

The third counter started from the Coyote 49, where an ineligible man caught a pass. Five plays later Bill Olson ran 32 yards to score.

During the final quarter the Bison were in position to score three times. Don Bettschen blocked one of "Red" Clinker's punts on the Coyote 15, but Russ Savage ended, that threat when he recovered a fumble by Olson. Erickson intercepted a pass on the Coyote 23 three plays later, but the Bison were held and May kicked over the end zone in an attempt to put the Coyotes in a hole by a kick out of bounds. The last scoring gesture was made by one of the men least expected to make it.

Frosh Basketball Tourney Finished

THE SPECTRUM

Reports on the freshmen basketball tourney show two teams tied for the lead with only one game left in which to decide the championship. Peterson and Hawkins are the two that are deadlocked while Wellems has a fine opportunity of advancing into elite bracket if he can pull a win over Snyder who at present rests in the cellar.

LATE NEWS FLASH

The following men were chosen by Coach Johnny Smith to comprise the frosh basketball squad: Loomis, Thomas, Boulger, Jim On, Smedburn, Bise, McKay, Napravnik, Olson, Voss, Halibut, Arndt, Sly, Peterson, Frankosky, Wellems, Snyder, Hawkins, Bowers, and Wheeler.

In the past ten days since the tournament has started the six teams have shown marked improvement and Coach Smith feels that the entire idea has been a huge success. Teams that at first appeared to be headed for the tail-end positions have improved to such an extent that one of them, namely Peterson's, is at the top.

Peterson's aggregation started out poorly, being swamped by Wellems 31-16, but came back strong to whip Napravnik 25-15 and Frankosky 27-20. Hawkins opened his campaign strong, fell into a slump losing to Napravnik 23-16, then dropped a heart-breaker to Wellems, 23-24, but finally earned a deadlock for the top position by trouncing Snyder 21-18. Frankosky dropped one to Snyder 13-18 but came back to eke out a one point win over Wellems 22-21.

Wichita GameEnds Herd Basketeers Bison Schedule

Completing the 1935 football campaign, a strong aggregation of Bison gridders left Wednesday for Wichita, Kansas, where they will engage the powerful eleven of the University of Wichita this afternoon. The outcome will have no effect on the North Central conference title which the Fargoans now hold as Wichita is not in this loop.

Because of interference with their work, three of the regular men on the squad will not be able to make the trip. Greg Sloan, regular end, Bob Millar, regular guard, and Hollis Dietz, substitute utility man, are the three who will not be able to compete in this final contest. Replacements for these men should not weaken the forward line perceptibly as in Newman and Springer the Bison mentors have two men who are certainly first string calibre but have never had the opportunity to display their wares in actual combat.

So far this season the Bison have dropped but a single game, losing a close game to Minnesota's national champions. The only other mar on an otherwise perfect record is the 20-20 deadlock with the Nodaks from the upstate university. Among their victims are included South Dakota State, South Dakota University, Morningside, Concordia, Moorhead State Teachers college, and Omaha University.

Practice Monday

Basketball at North Dakota State college will begin officially Monday, November 23. The Bison quint which finished for the past two years in second place in the North Central Conference under the tutelage of Coach R. A. Lowe are doped to be the leading contenders again this season.

Coach Lowe lost three regulars from last years team, Marquardt, Olson, and Denenny. These veterans will be hard to replace, but with the return of Russ Anderson, star center of two years ago, the outlook for a successful season became much brighter.

Lettermen from last year who are expected to take the places of men lost thru graduation are Reiners and Bernard, forwards, and Bettschen and Saunders, guards. From the freshman ranks will come several potential stars but no one who looks good enough to displace any of the above letter men. Wendell Keilty from Thief River Falls, Minn., Wes Phillips from Moorhead, Minn., and Carl Rorvig from Nome, North Dakota are three prominent members of last year's freshman group.

'Play Jazz, Never' Says Symphony Head

A plan to give the Minneapolis theater goers a treat by requesting Martini to sing the theme song of, "Here's to Romance" as an encore number when he appeared with the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra was foiled when Eugene Ormandy figuratively stamped his foot and said, "My orchestra play jazz-common, ordinary jazz? Never!" Students here will remember Ormandy as the colorful director of the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra that appeared here on lyceum program three weeks ago. Ormandy firmly refused to subject his men to any such indignity as playing straight jazz, even for the celebrated Martini. Martini is known in the music world as the 'cavalier of romantic songs" and is to appear in Minneapolis at the same time that his picture, "Here's to Romance", appears.

Through arbitration the famous director agreed to arrange the music with true jazz effects but with symphonic arrangement after Herman Boessenroth, his librarian, had refused to make the change.

BISON DEFEAT COYOTES TO ANNEX GONFALON

(Continued from Page Five) Chuck Pollock, playing center, intercepted a pass and lumbered 20 yards before he was brought down. A 15yard penalty halted the Bison temporarily, but they were on the Coyote 20 when the game ended

The Coyote attack was made feeble by the strong defense of the Bison. The first downs of the Bison numbered 14 to 4 that the Coyotes garnered. Only twice during the afternoon were the Coyotes able to penetrate Bison territory and then only because of "Red" Clinker's punting. The farthest the Coyotes advanced into Bison territory was the 35-yard line.

The Bison came through the game in fine physical shape. It was thought that Schranz had broken his nose, but it turned out later that it was only badly bruised. This was the only injury on the squad. The Bison take on the strong University of Wichita at Wichita, Kans., today.
