STATE COLLEGE, NORTH DAKOTA, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 1934.

NUMBER 2.

Enrollment Record Set At N.D.S.C.

College Unit Wins Honors At ROTC Camp

North Dakota State's ROTC unit again won an outstanding place at the annual encampment held at Fort Snelling, Minnesota, from June 17 to July 28, 1934. The unit from this college was the second largest in the camp, being outnumbered only by the unit from the University of Minnesota.

There were 49 representatives from North Dakota State college, who, together with eight men from Shattuck Military Academy, comprised the second platoon of Company "A". Captain H. J. McChrystal of the college military staff was in command of this platoon and was assisted by Sergeant Wyatt, also of this school, who acted as assistant instructor.

Military as well as athletic honors were won by the unit from this school. The rifle team won second place, being nosed out by Minnesota by a 2 point margin. However, highest scoring honors for the four-man rifle team were won by the Bison team consisting of Gordon Bassett, William Oftebro, Leonard Moffett, and Edgar Arnston. Unlike previous years no general efficiency cup was awarded for the year 1934, so it was retained by this school.

The detachment from North Dakota State won many honors on the athletic field by capturing first place in the track meet. Fritz Hanson and Wilbur Marquardt won most of the points in the meet. Hanson collected three firsts and was a member of the relay team. Marquardt won two seconds in the hurdles and was also a member of the relay team. Having distinguished themselves on land, the representatives took to the water and won first place honors in the swimming and diving contests. Bill Wright and Bill Murphy together with the aid of a student from Shattuck succeeded in garnering most of the points in these contests.

Fargo Grad High In Freshman Test

Vinnie Olson Fargo high school graduate, received the highest score in the freshman placement test, taken by all the freshmen in Science hall Monday. Miss Olson's score was 146, only four below the perfect score of 150.

Of the ten freshmen, who received the highest scores, five were graduates of Fargo high and two were from New Rockford high. The leading ten and their scores were: Miss Olson; Muriel Nelson, Fergus Falls, 145; Phyllis Krantz, Fargo, 144; Irene Martin, Fargo, 144; Joseph Wright, Bismarck, 143; Don Farstad, Harvey, 143; Dorothy Hawkinson, New Rockford, 142; Ruth Piper, New Rockford, 142; Adeline Hoge, Fargo, 141; and Dorothy Knutson, Fargo, 139.

The median for the class was 110. All who received below 90 are required to take sub-freshman English without credit.

Plans For Formal Rush Week Arranged By Greek Groups

Active plans are being formulated by the six sororities and nine fraternities of the campus in preparation for formal rush week which is, for the sororities, from Monday, September 24, to Saturday, September 30; and, for the fraternities, beginning today and ending next Friday.

Of the sororities, Kappa Delta will entertain first at a Hobo luncheon Monday noon from 12 to 1:30. Dagny Haugland is in charge. Betty Stone is in charge of the afternoon party, a Dog Derby, to be held Wednesday from 4 to 6; and Betty Kretschmar is making the arrangements for the traditional Hotel party from 7 to 10:30, Friday evening.

Kappa Kappa Gamma's Circus luncheon will take place Tuesday noon under the chairmanship of Betty Bristol; their annual tourist party, Thursday afternoon with Jane Nichols managing; and the traditional Pullman dinner, Saturday with Helen Simmons chairman.

Plans made by Gamma Phi Beta consist of a Wednesday noon luncheon, with Mary Elise Bibow in charge and Old Heidelberg as the theme; a Gypsy party Friday afternoon as planned by Ellen Blair; and a Progressive dinner Monday, arranged by Irene Weidemann, Lois Presler, and Gertrude Powers.

The Alpha Gamma Delta's will entertain with a School Day luncheon with Isabelle Humphreys and Thelma Liessman in charge, Thursday noon; an Earthquake bridge with Eleanor Isaacs and Grace Cole acting as hostesses, Saturday afternoon; and a traditional Chinese formal dinner managed by Mrs. Grace Varney, Tuesday evening.

The Phi Mu rushing parties consist of a Neighborhood club picnic, Monday, with Marcella Anderson making the arrangements; a Parisian cafe party, Wednesday, under the direction of Gladys Tofte; a Chinese luncheon, Friday, managed by Faith Stockton.

The following fraternity parties have been planned for next week: the Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity is giving a dinner today, which is under the direction of Lewis Rector; Alpha Sigma Tau's, a Commercial dinner, Monday, with Manny Smith in charge; the Alpha Tau Omega's, a party set for a week from today, managed by Wendell Schollander; Sigma Phi Delta's, a buffet luncheon Friday, under the direction of Walter Norby; Kappa Psi's, a dinner, Friday, Joe Howell, arranging; Kappa Sigma Chi's, a theater party Tuesday night, supervised by Earl Jennings; Delta Tau Epsilon's, a smoker Wednesday with Felix Farrar in charge.

STATE COLLEGE COEDS RUN PRACTICE HOUSE

Five girls from the school of home economics started work at the practice house Wednesday. The group consists of Frances Loomis, Mildred Peterson, Alyce Connolly, Agnes Fogarty, and Gladys Tofte. The students take over all the duties of running the house for six weeks, including laundering, cooking, and marketing.

Phi Omega Pi's Lead All Groups With 86 Average

Phi Omega Pi sorority lead the social organizations in scholarship last spring with an average of 86, while Kappa Delta sorority came second with an average of 85.6. The Alpha Gamma Rho's ranked high among the fraternities with an average of 84.9 with the Kappa Psi's a close second with 84.8 points.

Other social sorority averages were as follows: Alpha Gamma Delta, 85.1; Kappa Kappa Gamma, 84.9; Gamma Phi Beta, 84.8; and Phi Mu, 83.1 percent.

Kappa Sigma Chi ranked third among the social fraternities with an 82.9 point average; Theta Chi, 82.9; Sigma Chi, 82.1; Alpha Sigma Tau, 81.8; Sigma Phi Delta, 81.3; Delta Tau Epsilon, 80.6; and Alpha Tau Omega, 80 percent.

Alpha Zeta, honorary agricultural fraternity, leads all non-social groups with an average of 92.3 percent. Senior Staff ranks second with 90.3, and other organizations follow: Kappa Tau Delta, 88.7; Lincoln Forensic club, 88.7; Sigma Delta, 88.7; Tau Delta Pi, 88.4; Kappa Delta Pi, 88.2; Pi Gamma Mu, 88.1; Women's Senate, 88.0; Phi Upsilon Omicron, 87.5; Alpha Phi Omega, 87.4; ASME, 87.4; YWCA cabinet, 87.1; Phytois, 87.0.

Edwin Booth dramatic club, 86.9; Panhellenic council, 86.5; Student Commission, 86.3; Art club, 86.2; Blue Key, 86.1; Scabbard and Blade, 85.9; AMCE, 85.4; Guidon, 85.3; Kappa Epsilon, 84.9; Saddle and Sirloin, 84.8; Women's Athletic club, 84.8.

Gamma Tau Sigma, 84.4; Chemists' club, 84.3; Engineers' club, 82.7; N. D. Pharmacy club, 82.7; Cosmopolitan club, 82.5; Spectrum staff, 82.5; Ceres hall club, 81.7; AIEE, 81.6; Atelier Chat Noir, 81.5; Newman club, 81.5; and the YMCA, 80.3.

The total average for fraternity men was 82.3 percent and for non-fraternity men was 280.8; sorority women averaged 85.1 while non-sorority women made a ranking of 81.8.

YMCA BOOK EXCHANGE MEETS LARGE DEMAND

The YMCA book exchange located in the main lobby of the YMCA building, has been operating since last Monday, dispersing used books which have been listed by students. Due to a large demand for second-hand books, the exchange is having difficulty supplying all the inquiries.

For every book sold, the organization makes a service charge of 10 cents in every dollar or a fraction of a dollar. Should the books not be sold, they will be returned to their owners when they call for them.

Students having second-hand text books that are still in use should bring them in immediately, for there is still an excellent opportunity to dispose of them.

YOUR MONEY'S WORTH

Here's the answer to the "Why?" and "Wherefore?" for the five dollar activity fee about which Freshies gripe is now explained. We can now wipe away the tears shed over the loss of those five precious dollars with the facts about its use. The fee is budgeted as follows:

Athletics	$2.00
Bison	1.22
Class dues	.14
Lecture course	.43%
Board of Public Speaking control	.25
Sick benefit fund	.30
Spectrum	.48
Women's Senate	.04
Student Commission	.13%

The band allowance of 6 cents from each fee comes out of the Student Commission's portion of the budget.

That's where the money goes!

Men's Dormitory To Be Enlarged

With both dormitories filled to capacity because of increased enrollment, construction of additional dormitory accommodations will get under way immediately, according to A. H. Parrott, registrar. Plans have been drawn up and bids secured to build rooms in the east wing of the dormitory at the south end. The alumni association will finance the project and be repaid in rentals.

The new section will take care of twenty boys, the rooms to be rented at the rate of $12.00 a term. All other rooms in the dormitory rent for $22.50 a term. The new rooms which are being plastered and painted are equipped with steel lockers for each occupant. Part of the space in the new quarters will be reserved for study rooms which will be equipped with floor lamps and study tables.

Because of the overcrowded conditions in the dormitory, freshman students may room at outside places on certain conditions. A student may live with relatives of the first degree or may be excused from living at the dormitory if outside employment makes it necessary that he room outside of the dormitory. Physical disability also excuses a student. Five students are staying at each fraternity house on the campus.

NOTICE

Students with actual experience in retailing should see Mrs. Psyche Gooden, who has a number of positions open for dependable and trained men and women.

NOTICE

New girls interested in becoming a member of a sorority on this campus will meet in the Little Country theater at 11 o'clock Saturday morning, September 22, to receive copies of rushing rules and for an explanation of the rules.

BETTY BICKERT.

Frosh Onrush Increases Roll By 132 Points

An all-time enrollment record for NDSC for its first week of registration has already been set this fall term, according to figures released from the registrar's office late yesterday afternoon. With two days remaining of the first week of this term, 1,278 had already registered with many expected to enter school later. This exceeds last year's figures by 132 and the institution's previous high enrollment year ('29-'30) by 63 for their corresponding period of the school year.

A record-smashing freshman enrollment was the factor permitting this achievement as 527 became students at the Bison school for the first time this year. The figure excels last year's mark by 141 and the '29-'30 totals by fourteen. Upperclassmen registration is also keeping pace with that established during the '29-'30 peak year.

The next few weeks will also bring back several former students that are now engaged in federal and highway work, according to A. H. Parrott, registrar. The completion of their various duties is causing these undergraduates to delay registration.

For the first time since its erection, accommodations are lacking at the Men's Residence hall for freshman boys. This condition necessitated the modification of the ruling compelling first year male students that are not residents of Fargo to stay at this dormitory. The housing committee has assigned five of the boys subject to this ruling to each fraternity house.

Ceres hall, dormitory for women students, could accommodate only a portion of the co-eds. Shortage of ROTC uniforms and text books also developed from this unprecedented large enrollment.

Outstanding Girl Students Chosen

The forty girls, ten from each class, having the highest average for last spring's term, have been honored by the Senior Staff for scholarship.

They are: Senior class—Abbie Porter, 93.7; Olive Ringen, 93.4; Genevieve Skinner, 93.2; Leona Siegel, 93.1; Ruth Clausen, 93.0; Helen Lee, 91.0; Margaret Olson, 90.8; Virginia Garberg, 90.6; Erllys Hills, 90.0; Sally Hunkins, 95; Juniors—Denise Burke, 92.0; Vernetta Hidde, 91.7; Lois Millar, 91.6; Marion Anderson, 90.9; Esther Tonnesen, 90.9; LaVerne Hidde, 90.6; Sister St. James, 90.2; Margaret Hanson, 90.2; Doris Nelson, 89.8; Isabele Humphreys, 89.7; Sophomores—Frieda Panimop, 96.9; Constance Heilmann, 93.9; Ellen Blair, 93.8; Flora Elliott, 93.5; Cathryn Ray, 90.9; Mary Clemens, 90.8; Marian Bristol, 90.1; Alice Larson, 90.1; Orpheus High, 90.00; Ruth Baker, 89.6; Freshmen—Adeline Nafatalin, 94.9; Verda Van Vorst, 91.3; Norma Renden, 90.9; Frances Baxter, 89.9; Katherine Gronan, 89.6; Phyllis Coyne, 89.1; Emma Jordre, 89.1; Dorothy Molland, 89.0; Esther Vig, 88.5; Barbara Bibow, 88.4.

THE ROAD TO SUCCESS

"A college graduate should have something definite to offer his employer"; "young men and women must be taught how to use their minds in a practical way and to overcome some of the ideas obtained in colleges and get away from some of the ideas obtained in colleges"; "due to the radical and dangerous theories emanating from certain universities, employers are hesitant to hire graduates" are some of the opinions expressed by industrial leaders at the "Choose a Career" conference held in New York city this summer.

In order to assist young men and women get started in a career, young peoples' leaders called together one of the country's largest assemblages of successful men and women in order that they might tell college people how to get into the industrial world. Opinions expressed were many and varied. Some were in direct contradiction to others. A few were so narrow-minded that the student feels as if success were to be adhorred rather than sought. Many were mere generalizations.

The faith of each leader in his own technique is interesting and a little appalling. A famous watchmaker believes that in order to succeed, every man and woman should have some manual training. The president of the Hoover company has infinite faith in the power of door to door canvassing to make big business men. A New York philanthropist states that every man should spend one year at hard labor on a farm after receiving his degree.

When scrutinizing the results of a week's lectures, only the generalizations made by the more conservative participants seem to have any value in actually meeting the needs of college people hunting for jobs. First, the individual should study the fields which interest him or her and decide which have the most possibilities and which he or she is best suited to work. Specific training besides a general education should be acquired; and confidence and tenacity enough to make a position for oneself in spite of obstacles must be developed.

RULES OF THE COURT

Through the activities of interested students our campus tennis courts have been reconditioned and given an excellent surface. This was made possible by the use of federal funds.

These courts are for tennis, and for tennis only. As they have lain in neglect for a period of two years, students have grown into habits concerning them which are anything but favorable for the preservation of the smooth surface necessary for the full enjoyment of the game. Habits such as walking across the courts on the way to classes and batting around on them wearing street shoes, will have to be stopped if the majority of the students are going to share the greater good from the courts. As these courts are of a semi-public nature, being open to all students of the college, there have to be certain rules governing their use to make them available to the entire student body.

The following list of rules is suggested to fill the above mentioned need:

1. All players must wear tennis shoes.
2. Walking across courts except when playing is forbidden.
3. Singles may not hold the court longer than thirty-five minutes if others are waiting to play.
4. Singles may not play more than one set if more than two are waiting to play.
5. Players must double up if more than two are waiting to play.
6. In no case may a set go beyond seven-six if more than two are waiting to play.

WHY?

The largest freshman class in North Dakota State college's history enrolled this week. When officials pause in their frantic efforts to find sleeping quarters, class rooms enough, and even sitting accommodations, one stops to wonder at the answer to the question they have breathed through their nostrils all through the meleé, "What brought so many this year?"

What impetus could have brought so many young people to one institution that new dormitory rooms had to be finished in a residence hall which had never been near full, that sitting space on the floor of English class rooms was at a premium for a few days, that text books could not be shipped in quick enough?

There are several answers which might satisfy. Maybe fathers, mothers, sons, and daughters are coming to realize the value of a college education. Maybe the additional opportunities for employment provided by the FERA made such large attendance possible. Maybe the recognition the school has achieved during the past years in finding positions has caused the onrush. Maybe—but there must be some other answer. Is it that students, faculty and administration are finally publishing the institution?

Fatherly Advice

By BILL STEWART

As we imagined it might sound:

Well son, seems as though you're a leavin' fer tawon today to start collige; seems as though I hain't had time to give you no talkin' to yet, what with harvestin' and all takin' up time. And now, by cracky, you're rtaypsin off already. Now, I've lived a ight o' years, and I'm a perty good jedge of what is right and what ain't. Course I'm just a mite wurried about them pitfalls that a boy sich as you runs acrost. I reckon that no'eres is there sich scalawags and skedaddlers as in collige. Jest now—yoh're nigh unto 18 year old—you're likely to git into a peck of trouble, I calc'late. So son, if them city fellers go into one of them there jerns where they give you suthin' strong, don't you foller them, no sirree. Allus remember that. And about them perty women folks. You'll have to be careful with some of them brazen little hussies when you get on a sofy with them and some old time fiddle toon on the radio is makin' things all sorta romantic-like. Jest kinda be careful son. I had suthin' what I was gwan to tell you, son, but I calc'late I plum forgot. Now, watch out for them seneyours with slicked hair, and don't forget to rite onct in a while. Now you'll have to ge a new suit, but don't get one of them thar fussy ones that make a body look humpbacked, with them slits in back. Me and your ma know that nolledge comes high, and we don't want to deny you nothin'. But be careful and we'll try to scratch around and keep you in collige.

As it really must be, after listening to several smooth freshmen:

Got everything, fella? O. K. Be sure to see the prexy as soon as you get in. Hit him up for that job, but don't let him know you've got the Packard down to school. Don't hit the bottle too hard at first kid. Crack the books once in a while. Mother and I will be down for homecoming. Then we'll have a few together. Now get in there and chisel all you can. And about fraternities—you've got the dope on the outfits haven't you? Use your head. Have a good time, and we'll be seeing you soon.

Emergency Relief Course Is Offered

One hundred and forty-four hours of field work spent in investigation, diagnosis, and treatment of individual and family problems is required in a new course open to State college students. Cass assignments will be made through the Cass County relief office.

For eighteen weeks beginning September 29, the class will meet for two-hour periods on Fridays and Saturdays every other week. Hours are 10 to 12 o'clock Friday morning, and 3 to 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Miss Pearl Salsberry, field director of the federal emergency relief administration, will conduct the course here, and a similar one at the University of North Dakota. Her headquarters are in Bismarck. She will reach Fargo Friday morning, teach until noon, and leave for Grand Forks. At the university, she will direct the same course Friday afternoon and Saturday morning. Then she returns here for the Saturday afternoon period.

The course which will include a study of relief, parallels a course taught by Miss Salsberry at the University of Minnesota and is recognized at that institution for transfer of credits. Although the case does not necessarily prepare students for positions, other things being equal, students having this course would have a distinct advantage in securing positions in relief work, according to the instructor.

Frieda Panimon Has 96.9 Average

For the third consecutive term, Frieda Panimon leads State college students in scholarship. Receiving an average grade of 96.9 for the spring term of last year, she ranks four-tenths of a point ahead of Marlin Cline, who held first place for the spring term of 1933.

Following Miss Panimon, who tied with Bill Kneeland for first place during the winter term last year, ranking scholars are: Marlin Cline, 96.3; Patrick Grimes, 95.8; Wendell Sanders, 95.1; Howard Kilbourne, 95; Robert Bergseth, 94.9; Bjorne Dahl, 94.9; Adeline Naftalin, 94.9; Edwin Weispfenning, 94.9; and William Clark, 94.5.

Universities in Japan have only 35 women students.

121 scholarships have been granted by the New Jersey College for Women (New Brunswick) to students for this school year.

A Master of Nursing degree has been created at Yale University (New Haven, Conn.) for graduates of that institution's school of nursing.

Canning most of their food during the summer time enabled a group of co-eds at Alabama Polytechnic Institute (Auburn) to save approximately $167 each on their school expenses.

STATE THEATER

Beginning this afternoon at the State theater for a two-day run is "Their Big Moment," featuring ZaSu Pitts and Slim Summerville. The plot of this comedy-melodrama concerns a vaudeville magician and his two assistants who solve a murder mystery by contacting the spirit world. Included in the cast are Ralph Morgan, William Garton, Bruce Cabot, and Kay Johnson. Topping tonight's bill is Amateur Vaudeville at 9 o'clock.

The ever popular comedian, Charlie Ruggles, appears in "Murder in the Private Car," showing Monday and Tuesday. Mary Carlisle, Una Merkel and others aid in furthering the action which takes place in a transcontinental limited.

FARGO

So unusual in its success that it has been booked for a whole week at the Fargo theater is "Chained" in which Joan Crawford and Clark Gable co-star. The story was written especially for the artists in order to bring out to best advantage the qualities which have made the two actors famous. Joan Crawford is the vivid young lady from Manhattan and the axis of the triangle, while Otto Kruger as a wealthy New Yorker and Clark Gable as the healthy American rancher from Buenos Aires, play the other corners.

ROXY

The much praised film, "The Private Life of Henry VIII," starring Charles Laughton, is the feature this Friday and Saturday. Laughton has gained considerable recognition because of his excellent portrayal of Henry VIII who was always willing to bury the hatchet in his wives' necks.

Next Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, "Man's Castle" will be shown with Spencer Tracy and Loretta Young in the leading roles.

SOCIETY

Martha Parker, a Kappa Kappa Gamma from DePauw university in Illinois, is attending this college this year.

Albert Anderson, a graduate of 1930, former president of the Sigma Phi Delta fraternity, visited the house Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Luther, former NDSC students, became the parents of a boy recently. Mrs. Luther, formerly Myrna Ottinger, is a member of Kappa Delta alumna and Mr. Luther is a former president of the Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity.

Betty Kritschmar, who has been attending the University of North Dakota, has returned to resume her work on this campus. She is a member of the Kappa Delta sorority.

Margaret Dady was a guest at the Alpha Gamma Delta rooms Saturday. Miss Dady has been studying at Columbia university, where she received her masters of art degree.

Doris Brimer and Aldyth Pinknam were guests at the Phi Mu apartment Saturday. Miss Brimer is an instructor in the Wheatland high school.

Mary Elizabeth Ricker has returned to resume her studies after an extensive trip in the East.

Zeta Iota chapter of Phi Mu received Mary Elizabeth Runice, Mildred Peterson, and Lois Miller into active membership at formal initiation services held in the Plymouth Congregational church at nine p. m. yesterday. The active members entertained the new members at Le Chateau following the services.

Bob Neville and Ed Dehne, former Delta Sig pledges, were visitors at the Sigma Chi fraternity house.

The first of the all-college parties was held Tuesday, September 10, in the physical education building. The freshman class contributed to the entertainment through a girls' trio from New Rockford, N. D. Genevieve and Dorothy Hawkinson and Ruth Piper made up the trio. Music was furnished by Don Fredrikson and his band with Marjorie Arnold as soloist.

Betty Benton returned to Fargo from Washington, D. C., where she has spent the summer visiting with her parents. A sophomore, Miss Benton is studying in the school of home economics.

Marjorie Archer, former editor, has accepted a position as information specialist for North Dakota. She will gather news concerning federal emergency relief administration activities and distribute it to state papers.

DELEGATES ATTEND SUMMER CONVENTIONS

Three campus social sororities and an honorary society held their national conventions this summer.

Constance Heilman was official delegate at the Gamma Phi Beta convention held at Colorado Springs in June. Other delegates were Lois Presler, Ellen Blair, Helen Frederickson, Lorraine Braake, Paula Verne, and Elise Brophy.

The Phi Mu convention was held in the Edgewater Beach Hotel in Chicago. Alyce Connolly and Luelia Furcht were the delegates from the Fargo chapter.

Betty Bristol and Mrs. Iva Fillibrown represented the active and alumnae chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority at their convention which was held in Yellowstone National Park in July.

Hermoine Hanson as alternate for Maxine Rustad represented Phi Upsilon Omicron, honorary home economics sorority, at their convention held at Ohio State university in Columbus, Ohio.

Last June the University of Kansas (Emporia) graduated five women who had finished courses in Medicine.

134 State College Graduates Placed Thruout Country

NDSC graduates of 1934 have received positions all over the country, including Seattle, Wash.; St. Louis, Mo.; Philadelphia, Pa.; Rochester, N. Y.; and other distant points.

The following report is not complete, but these students have notified the dean of their respective schools of their placements. In the school of home economics 21 students have taken positions. The group includes: Jane Adams, St. Louis, Mo.; Isabelle Barrett, NDSC; Vernis Frazer, Sheldon; Muriel Fisk, Lakota; Irene Gast, Minnewaukan; Mona Haas, Fargo; Sally Hunkins, Hunter; Erlys Hill, graduate course at New York University; Ruth Johnson, Fargo; Helen Lee, Moorhead, Minn.; Jeanette McComb, Mohall; Eula Miller, Buffalo; Jeanette Naftalin, Chicago; Sarah O'Connor, Rochester, N. Y.; Florence Palmerlee, Mandan; Dorothy Pray, Philadelphia, Pa.; Frances Plaggmeier, New Salem; Olive Ringen, Kenmare; Adaline Rosendahl, at a canning center in North Dakota; Celeste Sowka, Anamoose; Phyllis Tritchler, Sherwood.

The following 15 students from the school of pharmacy have been employed permanently: Clifford Albin, Litchfield, Minn.; Harlan Black, Grand Forks; Orville Buss, Fergus Falls, Minn.; Norman Coulston, Bainsville, Mont.; William Kemper, Staples, Minn.; Russell Osman, Moorhead, Minn.; Kenneth Reardon, Carrington; John Rice, Beach; Kenneth Richard, Fargo; Milton Samuelson, Langdon; Arthur Vanderby, Valley City; John Arnold, Thief River Falls, Minn.; Herbert Bodmer, Glasgow, Mont.; Lucille McGrath and Einar Fossum, Fargo, are employed part time.

The graduates of the 1933 class, who are now permanently employed, are: Herman Backhaus, Linton; Elmer Bjornerud, Fosston, Minn.; Herk Des Forges and Marvel Morgan, Seattle, Wash.; Helene Fetsch and Charles Holiday, Bismarck; Alferd Forbord, Richard Rupp and Patrick Sullivan, Fargo; Otto Gunsch, Steele; James Smilie, Rolla; Hubert Smith, Oakes; Eric Tonn, Bozeman, Mont.; Clinton Zimmerman, Casselton; Cyril Zwerber, New Leipzig; Percy Evander, Mandan; Earl Grove, Morris, Minn.; Donald Keyes, Williston; Arthur Raeshke, Goodrich; and Robert Taylor, Minot.

The location of only seven graduates of the school of science and literature is known. They are: Rhoda Clausen, Fargo; Ruth Clausen, NDSC; Elva Eklund, Fargo; Don Fredrikson, traveling dance band; Hans Guloien, traveling band; Philip Kiefer, Moorhead, Minn.; Howard Trangsrud, fellowship to Rush Medical School at Chicago; Gale Monson and Algot Swanson, Sells, Ariz.

The following 1934 graduates of the school of education have reported their positions: George Burt, Eckelson; Arnold Chamberlin, Stanley; George Collings, Minnewaukan; Eunice Conlon, federal scholarship at the University of Minnesota; Ruth Dyson, NDSC; Lawrence Forman, scholarship at the University of Kansas; Helen Gelnett, Wheatland; Pete Gergen, NDSC; Kenneth Hamry, Moorhead, Minn.; Vivian Holland, Fargo; Sophia Johnson, Moorhead, Minn.; Jerome Lamount, Fargo; Fredrick Martin, Nielsville, Minn.; Roman Meyers, Fargo; Vera McCullough, Elliott; Thora Nelson, Fleischer; Abbie Porter, NDSC; Edna Rost, Fargo; Ellen Rost, Fargo; Marion Van Vorst, Chicago; Marian Weeks, A m b o y, Minn.; Frances Lynch, Wheaton.

Twenty-nine former graduates of the school of education are now teaching in Fargo schools, according to A. D. Weeks, head of the department of education.

123,395 persons attended the Institute of Arts and Sciences at Columbia University during the past year, the largest attendance noted since the establishment of the institute.

Rotogravure News Is Issued Again

Distributed with this issue of the Spectrum is the first edition of the Collegiate Digest for the school year. Besides picturing the life on the college campuses, this year's publication will carry several new features as well as sponsor contests for campus students.

Photographs of interest to students from Maine to California will be used. Student life, big campus events, leaders in all branches of athletics, scenic views, and undergraduates who have achieved something worthwhile and outstanding on the campus are pictured from week to week.

Undergraduates are urged to send pictures to the publishers. "We are interested in any type of picture taken with any kind or size of camera. Subject matter, composition and, above all, action are the things that count," says the editor.

Feature news which will be accepted may include university catalogues, bulletins, maps, and publicity releases; human interest stories; sport news with a national slant; and features on faculty, individuals, and traditions.

During the coming year, the Digest will also pay students or faculty members for each crossword puzzle with a collegiate slant which is accepted.

MALE COLLEGE SINGERS MEET FOR FIRST TIME

The first meeting of the Men's Glee club under the direction of Ernest van Vlissingen was held yesterday at noon at Music hall. Van Vlissingen, who is a recent addition to the North Dakota State college music instructional force, held the session primarily to find out how many were interested in glee club work.

With the early spring training grind completed, the North Dakota State Bison and the Concordia Cobbers will open their respective football schedules tonight at 8 p.m. under the blazing floodlights at Dacotah field.

Coaches Finnegan and Lowe of the Bison camp refuse to become enthused over this year's prospects even though seventeen lettermen are at their disposal. Already they have had a touch of the hard luck that dogged them last season. Leo Gerteis, expected to be the mastermind at the signal calling post, suffered an ankle injury that will force him to watch the contest from a spectator's seat with a cane in one hand. Let Dohn, shifty runner from Bismarck, also will have a chance to take a seat in the bleachers, as will Beverly Hill, husky tackle.

But then there is always a silver lining as the Herd mentors found when they watched the improved play of Bob Millar, guard candidate, and Frank Welch, battling center. Both men showed up well on the defensive and with a little more practice may step into the role of starting performers. Lyle Sturgeon, man mountain from Moorhead, also showed that he will be a factor in aiding the Aggies in this year's grid warfare, as he booted punts high and far, and then stepped into the line to display the way to make the best use of his 280 some odd pounds.

Frank Cleve, head man at the Cobber camp, continues to make disparaging noises when great things are predicted for him and his team this fall, but nevertheless the word of Casey Finnegan is that "it don't mean a thing." And Casey ought to know. The Cobbers will have some new material that promises to shape up into a real ball club. Chupich, Butorac and Held are three of the gridders that have a rosy future predicted for them.

The parting shot from the Bison stronghold is to remember that last year Cleve sang the same song and dance as at present and then trotted out a group of boys that held the highly touted herd to a 0-0 deadlock.

A system whereby students are able to read more rapidly and improve their grades has been developed by Stanford University (Stanford, Calif.) psychologists.

The Rockefeller Foundation has recently granted McGill University (Toronto) a gift of $1,000,000 for the foundation of a department of neurology.

Fifty Baby Bison Out For Practice

Approximately fifty candidates have reported for duties, according to Peter Gergen, freshman football coach. In order to develop a smoothly running team before the first game, Gergen, assisted by Raymond Anderson, has scheduled a heavy workout. While many of the players lack experience the squad as a whole appears fairly well fortified, according to the coaches.

A good number of high school stars have donned their suits with stiff competition expected in order to obtain a berth on the first string.

The Bison yearlings will face the Wahpeton Science Indians on October 12 for their opening game. On October 19 and October 26 they will have their annual two-game series the latter game being played Friday previous to the Bison Homecoming.

Those who have reported for workout include the following: Elmer Leschefske, Walhalla; Sidney Johnson, Hillsboro; Ivan Bablen, Sharon; Reslmayer, Cavalier; Lyle Jamsey, Cavalier; Elmer Nelson, Edgeley; Herbert Nelson, Jamestown; Kenneth Nelson, Jamestown; Kenneth Johnston, Oakes; Quentin Bangston, Warren; Barney Kelley, Hillsboro; Ray Ludwig, Page; Bennett Erickson, Page; Al Brauer, Bismarck; Tom Dohn, Bismarck; Darold Benson, Verona; Duane Combs, Chaffee; Dale Peterson, LaMoure; Kenneth Dahl, Dilworth; Al Parmelee, Chicago; George Thacker, Hamilton; Hollis Dietz, Mohall; Carl Rorvig, Nome; Emil May, Aberdeen; Klein, Milbank; Hazelrigg, Detroit, Mich.; Kenneth Jaunke, Fargo; Raymond, Fargo; James Moore, Fargo; Chuck Pollock, Fargo; John Callinan, Fargo; Bill Olson, Leeds; Sherman, Fargo; Howard Fraser, Walhalla; Elmer Odegard, Hope; Milton Ault, Cavalier; Charles Parizek, Lidgerwood; Charles Beyer, Fargo; Merlen Husame, Dilworth; John Boettcher, Fargo; Arthur John Elliott, Arthur; Bud Westby, Jamestown; Bob Ingstad, Jamestown.

Finnegan and Lowe--Bison Mentors

Bison Coaches Compile Impressive Record In Five Years At NDSC

Since 1929, when Casey Finnegan and Bob Lowe, present football coaches, took charge of football activities at North Dakota State, they have set up an impressive record. In this period of time they have chalked up 25 victories, 14 losses, and five deadlocks.

By looking at the score sheets for the forty-five games played in these five years, some idea of the high caliber of the teams produced may be gained. Here are some enlightening facts secured from these annuals.

In that time the Bison have never lost a game to either South Dakota University or Morningside. They have dropped only five conference games, three of these to North Dakota University and two to South Dakota State. The rest of the losses were suffered at the hands of such teams as Army, George Washington University, Oklahoma University, Kansas City, Minnesota University, Wisconsin State, and Michigan State. For a school the size of NDSC it's no disgrace to be beaten by such teams as these schools boast. On the other side, they have wins over Davis and Elkins, Oklahoma University, Superior Teachers, and an unbroken string of victories over St. Thomas, Moorhead State Teachers, and Concordia.

While this year's team gives promise of being one of the best in history, that pessimistic coach's attitude can't be overcome in a day, and the best Finnegan and Lowe could volunteer was, "We should be as strong as we were last year!"

CO-ED PHYSICAL ED. RESUMED THIS FALL

Physical education will again be a regular part of the curriculum of freshman girls, it was announced this week. Miss Helen Ballard, who headed this department two years ago, will be in charge of this work.

Last year the only organization that sponsored women's athletics on the campus was the WAA. But now with the return of the compulsory gym, much more extensive activities are sure to result.

At present Miss Ballard has not announced her plans but indications are that she will carry on where she left off two years ago.

CONVOCATION PROGRAM OPENED BY PEP RALLY

A pep rally started off the first of the convocations this morning at 9:40 in Festival hall. The full band was out playing pep songs under the direction of Dr. C. S. Putnam. Charles "Tubby" Brown and Bob Yirchott were back as cheer leaders, and Coaches Finnegan and Lowe gave the students the usual team predictions.

The morning's program included, besides the pep rally, selected numbers by Miss Audrey Kenevan, violinist, and Ernest Van Vlissingen, baritone. These two people are new instructors in the music department under Dr. C. S. Putnam. President Shepperd spoke a few words of welcome to the student body, and Earl Jennings, president of the student commission, also gave a short speech.

The U. S. Naval Academy will begin its 90th year on September 28.

Many Schools
Claim Former NDSC Grads

NDSC June graduates and former students will matriculate this fall at twenty-three different schools in seventeen states.

The University of Minnesota claims more of them than any other single institution. Gordon Duering, Goodrich, and Elaine Gorder, Martha Ricker, and Ruth Baker, all of Fargo, will attend the Minneapolis school. Ralph Weible, '34, Fargo, will enter the University of Minnesota medical school. Clifford Maloney, '34, Fargo, has a fellowship in mathematics and philosophy.

Enrolled at the University of North Dakota are Donald McNaughton, '34, Devils Lake, and Dale Iverson, Fargo. Leonard Holmstrom, Max, is now registered at Minot State Teachers college, Minot, N. Dak.

Virginia Schonberg and William Sheffield, both of Fargo, will attend the University of Washington.

John Cray and Henry Bonde, both of Fargo, will resume their studies at the University of Pennsylvania.

Registered at Stevens College, Columbia, Missouri, are Bettie Baillie and Barbara Schonberg, both of Fargo. Ralph Anderson, also of Fargo, has entered the department of journalism at the University of Missouri.

Carol Ladwig, Fargo, will continue her college work at the University of Nebraska.

William and Mary, at Williamsburg, Virginia, has been chosen by Donald Howland, Fargo. Courtney Cannon, Fargo, has arrived in Lexington, Kentucky, where she will attend the University of Kentucky.

L. T. Saalwaechter, former NDSC basketball coach, occupies the same post at Colorado State college, where Russell Anderson, Litchville, will go to school.

At Ripon, Franklin Anders, Fargo, has resumed his college work. Roy Simonson, '34, Agate, goes to the University of Wisconsin, where he has been awarded a scholarship.

Forsythe Engebretson, Fargo, plans to matriculate at the University of Michigan. Walter Ward, Bismarck, will attend the state university at Moscow, Idaho.

Recipient of a Phi Kappa Phi scholarship, Hartley Eckstrom, '34, Fargo, has selected the University of Iowa. Kenneth McKinnon, Mableton, will go to Iowa State college.

Elizageth Baker and Harriet Colburn, both of Fargo, have entered Miss Gibbs' Secretarial School, Boston, Mass. Boston is also the location of the School of Occupational Therapy, where Virginia Baker, Fargo, has registered.

Russell Hagen, '34, Fargo, has accepted an assistantship at Texas A. and M. Frank Sanders, '34, Enderlin, and John Gabe, '34, Taylor, have won scholarships at the National Recreation School in New York City. Erllys Hill, '34, Fargo, will attend New York University. Howard Trangrud, '34, Fargo, has been accepted by the medical school at the University of Chicago. Hans Guloién, Fargo, will attend the same institution.

THETA CHI CHALLENGE
ATA COLLEGE BOWLERS

Within the ranks of Phi chapter of Theta Chi are to be found several bowlers of no mean ability and these men are willing to take on any three, four, or five man team from any other fraternity on this campus.

University authorities require that all speeches delivered by students at the University of the Philippines be censored by them before they are given in public.

Faculty Members Take Summer Work

Many faculty members of North Dakota State college busied themselves this last summer by taking advanced studies at other schools, teaching, or doing research work on various problems.

Drs. A. D. Whedon and F. J. Brinley, professor and assistant professor in zoology, spent the summer at the Marine Biological laboratory, Woods Hole, Mass. Dr. Hunsaker, head of the department of social and economic science, attended the International Law institute at the University of Michigan. Don Hay, of the public discussion department, studied for a doctor's degree at the University of Wisconsin. Also at the University of Wisconsin was Hjalmar Storlie, instructor in the English department.

Harvard University claimed Paul Jones, professor in the architecture department. While there he studied advanced architectural designing. C. E. Kaslow, chemistry instructor, attended the University of Iowa, where he worked toward a doctor's degree in organic chemistry. Two chemistry professors had charge of departments at other schools. They are W. R. Wenger, who was head of the inorganic department at the University of Florida, and C. J. Sunde, who acted as head of the organic department at the University of Minnesota. Kenneth Kuhn, associate professor of the English department, taught American literature at the University of North Dakota.

Instructors Get Leave Of Absence

Leaves of absence have been granted five North Dakota State college instructors, J. J. Tregoning of the chemistry department, Archie Higdon of the mathematics department, J. A. Munro, head of the department of entomology, Dr. Casper Nelson, head of the bacteriology department, and E. H. Jones, head of the department of agricultural education.

Mr. Tregoning will attend the University of Colorado, where he will complete work for a doctor's degree in chemistry. He has been replaced by H. E. Wirth, a graduate of the University of Washington. During the past summer Mr. Higdon has been studying at Iowa State college and will continue to do so for this school year. Charles Wells, a student from Iowa State college, has taken Mr. Higdon's place and is working toward a doctor's degree in philosophy.

A three months leave has been granted Dr. Nelson, who will supervise the canning of meat throughout the state for the FERA. Mr. Jones will also be connected with the FERA, and will be located at Bismarck for six months. In order to obtain a degree in philosophy, Mr. Munro will attend the University of Minnesota.
