Lyceum Crowd Hears Lecture On Far North

Experiences With Eskimos Are Recounted By Adventurer

A brief history of the Northwest Mounted police, anecdotes concerning the Eskimos' code of morals, circumstances which led to his acceptance into a tribe of the northern folk, everyday events in the life of a Mounted Police, and added to all this a colorful display of Eskimo handicraft, including tools, hunting and fishing equipment and outfits of native clothing, made of lovely furs dexterously fashioned with bone needles and deer sinews.

These were the contents of a speech by Sydney R. Montague, lyceum entertainer, who delivered an interesting lecture on his firsthand experiences in the land of the Eskimos Wednesday night in Festival hall to a large crowd.

The former Canadian Mounted Police officer feels greatly indebted to his Arctic companions with whom he became so well acquainted during his northern exploration. His constant comradeship with the Eskimos has led him to believe that they possess an intelligence equal to that of the whites.

One of the highlights of the speech was Mr. Montague's revelation of his viewpoint on early exploration. "If I live long enough to return to the Arctic again, I hope to prove to the world that the Norsemen discovered this continent." Ancient folk-legends concerning the arrival of strange white men into the Arctic region substantiated his theory.

Montague is an honorary member of the local chapter of Sigma Phi Delta, national engineering fraternity.

YMCA Planning All-Varsity Stag

Sponsoring the first event of its kind to be held on the campus, the college YMCA will be hosts to the men of North Dakota State college at a smoker and gala get together to be held in the Field house, Wednesday, Feb. 7, according to Harry Hanson, president of the Y cabinet.

Known as the "First Annual Varsity Stag," the evening's entertainment will be comprised of a little German band, boxing bouts, musical numbers, and humorous skits. Plans are being made to have a portion of the program furnished by faculty members, announces Frank Nemzek, who is in general charge of arrangements for the affair.

In addition to the program, refreshments and smokes will be furnished by the YMCA.

NOTICE!

There will be a meeting of the Pep club this afternoon at 4 o'clock in room 314, Science hall. Anyone wishing to join is welcome to attend.

Six Seniors Are Initiated By Blue Key

Six seniors were formally initiated into Blue Key, men's national honorary service fraternity, at services conducted Tuesday noon at a banquet in Ceres hall Roman Meyers, president of the local chapter, was in charge.

Students honored by admittance into the organization were Herbert Bodmer, pharmacy; Paul Deal, mechanical engineering; Miles Formo, electrical engineering; Frederick Martin, science and literature; Roy Simonson, agriculture; and Maitland Wyard, science and literature. Blue Key membership is based on records of character, student activity, leadership, and general service to the college.

The initiated members were approved by the national office under the policy instituted last year of exercising strict care in selecting members. This policy requires approval by the national office rather than by only that of the local chapters. Records of the candidates are sent to this office accompanied by a letter of recommendation from a prominent faculty member.

Third And Fourth Couples In Line At Ball Announced

As the president of Scabbard and Blade, honorary military organization sponsoring the Military ball, to be held next Friday evening at the Field house, James Coleman with his escort, Miss Martha Wolf, will be third in line when the grand march forms. Boniface Horgan with his guest, Miss Beverly Jensen, will be fourth in line. The two leading couples will be announced next week.

Special emphasis in a statement issued by Hartley Eckstrom, ball manager, was placed on the fact that freshman and sophomore students enrolled in basic military courses will be able to wear their ROTC uniforms to the affair. Seniors and juniors enrolled in advanced courses will all attend in their military uniforms, while all other students will attend in full formal dress.

Jack Mills and his orchestra from Sioux City, Iowa, will furnish the music for the ball, from nine until one o'clock. Unusual features and decorations to be carried out for the affair will not be revealed until the evening of the dance.

DECLAMATORY CONTEST SCHEDULED FOR FEB. 2

Feb. 2 has been set as the date for the annual college declamatory contest, according to Alice Bender of the public speaking department. Those taking part in the contest are Wallace Larson, Wesley Gilbertson, Isadore Levine, Grace South, Richard Ellis, Arwin Hoge, Henry Jones, Dayton Jones, Vincent Jaehning, Clifford Maloney, Adeline Naftalin, Maxine Rustad, and LeRoy Kalenze.

New Size Page Adopted With Today's Issue

Spectrum Becomes Tabloid Newspaper Following Board Decision

This issue of The Spectrum marks the adoption of a new page-size and make-up style, following a decision reached by the Board of Publications control at a meeting held last Monday afternoon. The change is a radical one from the former size and make-up, according to the editor and business manager of the North Dakota State college newspaper.

The new Spectrum is of the tabloid type that is becoming of so popular use in college journalism, and to a lesser extent in city and country weeklies. In comparison with the old six-column paper, the new Spectrum is printed with five columns. The width of the column has been cut down to twelve ems from thirteen ems. The page measure has been changed to 17x12 inches from 21½x15. Along with the decrease in page size there is an increase in number of pages, it being the intention from now on to run six and eight pages instead of the former four.

The main advantage of adopting the tabloid size is that the paper may be easily carried, and the size of the paper enables it to be easily filed. The general appearance is that the paper is greatly condensed, but in reality there will be more column inches in this type than in the old style paper.

Helen Keogh Wins In Milking Contest At Livestock Show

Breaking an all-time record in co-ed milking contests at the North Dakota State college, Helen Keogh, representing Phi Mu sorority, drew seven pounds, four ounces from her cow in four minutes, at the feature event of the Little International livestock show at the college livestock pavilion last night.

Other feature innovations were a greased pig contest in which Lester Dohn, representing Delta Kappa Sigma fraternity, was winner, and a novel polo game between representatives of the Kiwanis and Cosmopolitan service clubs.

Winners in the general livestock show were: sheep division, George Lee, grand champion, James Dice, reserve champion, and Bill Keup, third; poultry division, William Keup, grand champion, Maynard Sholtz, second, Pete Jensen, third. Beef, Shorthorn class, Arnold Skarsgard, first, Flora Elliot, second, and Philip Weiser, third; Aberdeen-Angus class, Noble Sanders, grand champion, Walt Ward, second, and Orin Dunlop, third; hog division, Chester White, M. F. Shotts, division (Continued on Page 8)

Final Parts For College Show Picked

With remaining vacancies in the Bison Brevities cast having been filled, the comedy roles divided between John Hamlet and Lucille Iverson, with romantic leads allotted to Eryls Hill and Marmion Houghlum, speech, dance, and song work for the cast will begin immediately, it was announced today by Frank Sanders, director.

The Brevities, annual all-college show sponsored by Blue Key fraternity, this year takes on musical dimensions with the comedy "Good News," a story of college life.

Managers of the show have established themselves in their offices in the Old Barracks, where they may be reached by calling 2697-W. Practice schedules for the various divisions of the show will be found on page three of this issue.

Many Manuscripts For New College Monthly Received

Manuscripts for The Collegian, Fargo-Moorhead student publication, have been coming in rapidly, according to Ruth Clausen, associate editor on the North Dakota State college campus. The March issue will be on sale at newsstands Feb. 15 and will contain, besides informal and formal essays, poetry, short stories, and novels; technical articles written in popular style will also appear.

The magazine, which will be collegiate in tone, will consist of 50 pages, each six inches in width. Those wishing to secure copies are urged to sign up in advance as there will be only a limited number printed.

Material for the publication should be handed in to Ruth Clausen or Eloise Waldron of the English department. The manuscripts should be typed, but may be written in longhand, if it is legible. The author's name, address, telephone number, college, and classification should also be included with the article.

LETTERMEN TO SPONSOR DANCE AFTER GAME

Following the Bison-South Dakota State basketball game Saturday night the Lettermen's club will sponsor a college hop. Dancing will be from 9:30 to 11:30 in Festival hall with Rudy Hehr's orchestra furnishing the music.

As chaperons, Col. and Mrs. A. E. Lathrop and Capt. and Mrs. J. B. Conny will be in attendance. The dance Saturday night will be the first of a series of all-college dances that will be sponsored by the Lettermen's club.

South Dakota State College Is Opposition

Bob Lowe's Charges To Make Initial Stand Defending Conference Crown

By WALT McGRATH

Playing their first game in defense of the crown they wear as North Central conference champions, the North Dakota State college Bison will meet the South Dakota State college Jackrabbits at the Field house tomorrow night at 8 o'clock.

Fans are expecting to see a close battle between the two teams. According to reports from the south, the Jackrabbits have improved considerably since they fell before the University of North Dakota Sioux a week ago, 42-28. As far as the Bison are concerned, things look even more optimistic.

Backers of the squad coached by Bob Lowe see a lot in the fact that on the trip to Superior Teachers' college at Superior, Wis., last weekend, the Bison tripped the Yellowjackets by a ten-point margin, while the best that the big Sioux from Grand Forks could do with the same team was to defeat them by nine points. Though comparative scores are far from conclusive proof, still this may offer some small grounds for comparative strength.

Lowe expects to use either Curt Deneny or Stan Maynard to replace Barney Bernard, regular forward, out for a time because of a sprained ankle. Marquardt will take the other forward post, with Russ Anderson at center and Acey Olson and Pretz Reiners at guards.

The Bunnies will have three veterans available in Bankert and Denhart, forwards, and Arndt, guard. Pihlal, all-conference football tackle, will probably get the center assignment for the Jackrabbits, while the fifth man on the floor will be either Diehl or Grippentog, the latter being the player who penetrated the Nodak defense for six field goals.

Nine Men Pledged To Military Group

Four seniors and five juniors were pledged to Scabbard and Blade, national honorary military fraternity, at pledging services held recently.

The seniors pledged were: Robert Deering, Idan Flaa, Arthur Habener, and Thomas King, while the juniors pledged were: Robert Benton, Don Robbins, George Friese, Horace Spaulding, and Lawrence Anderson.

Members of Scabbard and Blade are chosen from the advanced corps of the R. O. T. C. on a basis of military achievement and scholastic standing.

Formal initiation of the new men will be held in the near future, according to James Coleman, captain of the group.

Now you can secure your favorite magazine at the Book Store. This arrangement has been provided for your personal convenience.

WHY THE CHANGE?

With this week's Spectrum a new page size and make-up is being inaugurated. Students may wonder why this change has been effected, so we'll attempt to put them wise to it.

Printing a newspaper with a smaller page naturally means that more pages can be used. The advantage of this lies in the fact that news carried on the front page will be more valuable than it would be on a front page of more area, that news of certain types, as society, sports, drama, and so forth, can be carried on special pages devoted to them; that using an odd number of columns permits a more effective make-up; that the number of pages per issue can be decreased or increased with much more facility than with a larger page; and that at the same time, advertisements will be more effective in proportion to their sizes.

We feel that by adopting this new five-column, six-or-eight page size we can give the students more news than we have hitherto. There will be no necessity of omitting articles or student opinions that should be made use of.

There is a decided trend in college journalism at the present time away from the large six, seven, or eight-column papers. By taking this step now, we are sure that The Spectrum is keeping pace with all that is new and advanced in collegiate journalism.

The editor and business manager of The Spectrum and the Board of Publications Control would appreciate receiving student opinions on this change in style of make-up and page arrangement.

BOOS AND APPLAUSE

Right in line with what we have said in the preceding editorial, we have still more to say. It's on the attitude which a college student takes towards his school's newspaper, and more especially towards its editor and business manager.

To "do right" by a college news sheet, a student should at least occasionally let those in charge know what he seriously thinks of it. There is always ample room for discussion about it. The editor and business manager cannot help but make mistakes, and frequent ones at that. It is hard for them to see their mistakes, just as it is easy to make them. If students (or faculty members, too) would only drop a bit of comment pro or con now and then, we are sure a much better paper would be the result.

One of the biggest and best stimulants in the world is appreciation. For every little word of thanks or praise an editor or business manager will do his level best to give repayment in more than full measure.

This is addressed to all of you students—if you have any criticism to make of The Spectrum, don't keep it to yourself or to your friends, but come on down to the office and talk to us about it, or send us a letter—just so you let us know. And on the other hand, if you think that anything we do is deserving of praise, we'll more than welcome it. And on top of everything else, we'll give you a better paper for all of it.

Discussing the topic "Older Boys' Programs for the Red River valley," Rev. R. V. Conard Wednesday evening addressed the Scouters' club at its bi-weekly meeting. Organized in 1932, the club, composed of 23 members, was recently recognized as an official college organization by the college activities board. Faculty advisers for the group are: Dean I. W. Smith, Dr. A. D. Stoesz, and Capt. J. B. Conny.

THURSDAY NIGHT'S STAR PERFORMANCE

"When Greek Meets Grease," or "Oil's Well That Ends Well."

Although it was just a lot of "hokey" to the contestants, there's nothing like a greased pig contest to make things slide.

The whole thing was merely an attempt to hog the pig, and see who could do the worst.

Catching pigs is something you have to use your head in—sort of a pork-and-bean idea.

But the udder contest for 'em as had pull was the drawing card, I herd. The fellows over there cleaning off their shoes wouldn't be cowed into a bet, but us wise guys with the straw behind our ears say to always bet on a Jersey for the final stretch!

It's about time you took that filthy cloth off. What do you thing I am, a blooming owl? No, I won't sing for you—as if a man's got nothing more to do all day than sing—I'm no Ben Boyden! And that dress! Don't you know you can't get away with yellow with a complexion like yours? My Gawd, for a carouser—you look like you've been out on an all nights' bender—and you can stop poking your finger at me any time now. I know I've got circles under my eyes—that's an old gag of the ATO Half Pint—think up something new. No, I won't eat your filthy birdseed nor your gravel. If you think it's any fun to sit in an air-cooled tin can all day and act like a cement mixer you've got another guess coming! No, I'm not sick, you dish-faced chimpanzee, and quit blowing cigarette smoke at me. All I want's a little privacy, and My Gawd, try to get it! Now, trot along, old horse-face, and if you see that d--ned Tom Cat hanging around give him a pitchfork and send him over to the Gamma Rhos.

Flippen's fairest performers caused much interest among some of the collegiate lady-killers. Which reminds us, one college wit claims fan-dancers are becoming so common that in another year people won't pay car fare to see one . . . unless she has cellophane feathers in the fan.

Kellogg Will Leave For Federal Work

Dr. C. E. Kellogg, State college professor of soils, has been loaned to the Bureau of Chemistry and Soils of the United States department of agriculture for a three months' assignment of work with the Tennessee Valley authority. He will leave soon for Washington to complete arrangements.

Under the Tennessee Valley authority, which is establishing a community featuring decentralization of industry, he will direct the mapping of soils, especially in the watershed above the Norris dam.

Dr. Kellogg has recently been promoted from assistant professor to professor of soils. During his absence Kenneth Ableiter, who holds an M. S. from the University of Wisconsin, will have charge of the department. Mr. Ableiter has spent three years on developing the land classification of North Dakota

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

If you were all Smillie when you told your Cross sweetie you had been out to Skie with your Sister how would the Story Striker?

Would the Marcks change and would the Hamlet Sway if the Storms broke the Fake Dyke below the High Hill? Through Haze would you Hunt a House where a wind didn't Howel? Could the Cooke stand a Holaday even if we Kent?

Keep Cool Darling and don't Denio that we have made Nichols from the Sharp new Deal.

Would the horns Blair and the gossips Buss if some coed sneaked out the Eastgate and went Farrar on Foote with some Ruud Strong Freeman who was a Lacy Lein Forman on the campus? Then Erickson would have to Hammer shut the Doer.

Student Opinion....

More Pacifism?

Since the militarist had his innings in this column last week, perhaps the pacifist might be allowed to have his this week.

To those who everlastingly find fault with every attempt to foster world peace by such means as the League of Nations, World Court, etc., only one thing need be said—if you don't try to abolish war you can be damned sure you will never get rid of it. If world peace is not in truth attainable, there is, of course, no need to persist in such attempts; if it is, perhaps a little support—even reserved support—would be more in order.

I am not going to make the mistake of quoting any figures relative to the monetary costs of war; for, by careful selection of such statistics one can thereby prove almost anything. Suffice it to say that war costs are stupendous and, if they cannot be wholly justified, represent a sizeable loss to someone—that poor old taxpayer.

Sadly enough, attempting to prevent war by "adequate" armaments inevitably serves to defeat its own purpose. Of course, the other fellow always has a bigger navy than you. The reduction of armaments is to war what a like reduction in armaments (machine guns, Colts, etc.) is to forceful crime—it lessens the means with which to fight. Men have not yet learned to buy guns for "self-defense" and not use them for "self-help" also.

And what if the U. S. is seventeenth on the list of national armaments? We have part of our armaments in the undeniable good will of Canada, the backwardness of Mexico, and two nice wide oceans. What if France has a billion dollar defense on her German frontier?

Perhaps, if we had a few good military officers produced at Annapolis and West Point each year and if we had a small yet decent navy and air force—perhaps, that would be enough of active armament for the U. S.—G. H.

College Cafe Conflagration Causes Consternation

While many of the campus characters were either in the last stages of dunking their doughnuts or in the first stages of picking their teeth at the College cafe last Monday noon, their habitual beginning-of-the-week lethargy was rudely interrupted by the sound of fire engines tearing madly down Thirteenth street. Only the freshmen present showed any signs of interest. The sound of sirens brought tears to the eyes of Betty Healy and Grace Martin as they recalled the not-too-distant past when they used to drag their dolls to every blaze in the neighborhood and to some that were not in the neighborhood. However, the careless nonchalance of the upperclassmen was destroyed when flames and smoke began to issue from the awning in front of the eat shoppe.

"Women and children first!" shouted "Oilcan" Miller as he dashed madly out the door.

"Walk on your own feet, you big bully," whimpered "Buff" Thompson as some poor human trod on his number twelves.

"Pay your bill!" cried Tillie as the last of them streamed out to safety.

Not forgetting their Horatio Alger, those two sterling characters, Miller and Thompson, formed a bucket brigade (they always were good at throwing stuff) and assisted the local fire laddies in extinguishing the conflagration. The excitement over, the bored collegians returned to their cold pork chops and to talk about Flippen's fan dancer.

(Editor's note: As this edition goes to press it is rumored that Fire Chief Sutherland has recommended the boys of the bucket brigade for a Carnegie medal. Which reminds me that those two lads were always rather meddlesome).

STATE COLLEGE BAND TO BROADCAST TODAY

The Gold Star band will be on the air over WDAY at five o'clock this afternoon. They will present the following program:

March, "Purple Pageant," by King; overture, "The Silver Cord," by O'Neill; cornet solo, "The Lost Chord," Sullivan, played by Earl Turnblad; march, "The Fairest of the Fair," Sousa; "Prelude" by Jaernefelt; and "The Spirit of Youth," by Goldman.

DEAN'S LIST STUDENTS HAVE GOOD ATTENDANCE

Scholarship and attendance bear a close correlation on this campus, according to results drawn from the dean's list, established for use under the new cut system. No student having an average of better than 84 took as many cuts as all students were allowed last term.

In making out the list, student averages were classified. Then the list was checked to remove the names of those who had taken twice as many cuts as the number of times their various classes met during the week. No one student was eliminated.

Homemakers' And Farmers' Week Is Ended Yesterday

The thirty-fifth annual Farmers' and Homemakers' gathering that has been in session on the campus for the last three days was brought to a close last night with the Little International Livestock show in the livestock pavilion.

Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, North Dakota and western Minnesota farmers and their wives thronged the campus, receiving and exchanging information that will help them solve some of their particular problems.

Under the direction of A. G. Arvold, founder of the Little Country theater, the program Tuesday was devoted to Neighborhood day. Following a supper in the Lincoln Log cabin, representatives of seventeen rural communities demonstrated typical rural programs.

Highlights in the Wednesday schedule were the Beekeepers' annual meeting, the Crop Improvement association meeting, and the lyceum address by Sidney Montague.

A recognition banquet was given Thursday noon by the Saddle and Sirloin club and the North Dakota Livestock association. The afternoon was taken up by a Homemakers' tea and an address on production loans.

Hebron Rancher In Hall Of Fame

Because of his contributions to the livestock industry of the state, Matt Crowley, pioneer cattleman of Hebron, was honored at the Saddle and Sirloin club and State Livestock Breeders' banquet in the Lincoln Log cabin last night by having his portrait hung in the Saddle and Sirloin Hall of Fame during the Farmers' and Homemakers' week now in session on the campus.

While Crowley maintains a large herd of Hereford cattle on his western Dakota ranch, he is also an ardent lover of saddle horses. High grade Percheron and Shire draft horses are also a part of his farming scheme. The ranch supports about 1,000 head of cattle and horses at present, and it was this interest that led to his being chosen for the Hall of Fame.

In the fall of 1933 Crowley gave to the State Historical society a tract of land containing large quantities of Indian relics. This plot of land has been named Crowley Park.

The Story Of Johnny And His Owl

"Oo-oo-oo-oo, I'm a night owl"—only Johnny Hamlet claims that his recently released bird was a Northern Great Horned owl. Be that as it may, the owl answered to the name of Percicacity (Percl for short) which, according to Johnny, means quick-wittedness.

The bird was the gift of a Finnish trapper—named Rainobakkenta, by the way—to Johnny, made several months ago—goodness knows why.

Because he "couldn't train owls and girls at the same time" Hamlet released the bird from a second story window of the physiology room at approximately 4:30 Saturday afternoon, Jan. 13. Percicacity was reluctant to leave—he needed prodding with a broom but after being so rudely treated, Poor Percl lost no time in heading straight north. In case you're in the habit of encountering owls you'll know this notorious fellow by the band he wears around his leg, for he was government banded before being "kicked out."

He was trained for falconry—"almost," adds Johnny, who spent much time trying to give him an English falcon training with hood, jessus, spool-trim, and dally routine. It is to be hoped that his liberal education will stay with him and help him along in this big, bad world.

While here, Percicacity's home was that of a king—or is it president, maybe a Ford, anyway—Hamlet's garage. His chief outdoor sport was hunting rabbits. The source of his wim, wigor, and witality was raw meat and as for beverages he was a dry, never known to take liquid of any shape or form. His pet peeveance was people—all people, even his trainer.

Now if you be from Missouri and desire proof, see Johnny Hamlet in person. He'll be only too glad to show you pictures taken by Dr. A. D. Whedon of poor dear gone Percl.

Theater Restages First Production

"A Russian Honeymoon," the first play to be staged in the Little Country theater, will be presented as the feature play of the twentieth anniversary celebration of the opening of North Dakota State college's world-famed play house.

According to present plans, former students who played the major roles twenty years ago will again take the leads. These people have not as yet assured the directors that they will be able to come.

The story takes place in the house of a Russian shoemaker where a disguised count sets about to subdue the pride and temper of his wife who before her marriage was a serf. As Pretuchio tamed Katherine, he tames her. However, she managed to send an appeal to the count's sister for protection. Her husband is arrested by his own guards and the wife is given an order of separation. Having received it, she repents and declares that though her husband is a serf, she cannot leave him. Finally, Gustave appears in his true character and enfolds her in his arms. Love conquers pride and temper.

Notice—Alpha Zeta will meet this Wednesday evening, Jan. 24. Roy Simonson.

YMCA Entertains Freshmen Tuesday

Fencing and boxing contests, musical numbers, tall stories, card playing, and tap dancing were the forms of entertainment provided the freshman boys at the smoker staged for them by the college YMCA last Tuesday evening. Harry Hanson and Bob Lacy were in charge of arrangements.

Principals in the fencing exhibition were Frank Nemzek, Dan Cooke, and Mickey Kirkness; participants in the boxing match were Wimpy McGee and Dick Hamilton. Providing the musical features were Freddie Martin, singing and piano playing; Sanford Lee, Alvin Krein, John Metzger, F. H. Hilborn, and Frank Peterson, song leading; music, a Little German band; and Norton

CATHOLIC STUDENTS' CLUB HOLDS FIRST 1934 MEETING

The Newman club, organization for Catholic students of the college, held its first meeting of 1934 at the K. C. hall, Fargo, Sunday, Jan. 14.

The discussion, led by James Long, was on the attitude of the church on Socialism. John Sevendants gave a news report on the recognition of Russia. Plans for a dancing party to be held soon were discussed and committees appointed. Hugh Anstett was appointed general chairman and Ruth Clemens, Marian Powers, and Lee Gress his assistants.

At The Theatres

Roxy

Spencer Tracy, as a sign painter with high ambitions, and Marion Nixon, as the artist's inspiration, now appear at the Roxy theater in "Face In the Sky." How Miss Nixon unknowingly is the model for 'the face in the sky' is a very interesting story.

Watch Clyde Beatty play with death in "The Big Cage" next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at the Roxy. Thrills that are real, thrills that are not in the script, add to the excitement in this thrilling film of an animal tamer. Anita Page supplies the feminine interest

Fargo

"Little Women," generally accounted the stand-out picture of the year, opens tomorrow at the Fargo theater, featuring the famous Katharine Hepburn as Jo of the four sisters in the Louisa Alcott story. The other sister parts are taken by Joan Bennett, Jean Parker, and Frances Dee. Paul Lukas and Edna May Oliver are also included in the cast.

State

El Brendel and Walter Catlett, former Ziegfeld star, pair in the great laugh provoker, "Olson's Big Moment," coming to the State theater for today and tomorrow's showing.

"The Invisible Man," an H. G. Wells imaginative creation compared to "Frankenstein," "Phantom of the Opera," etc., plays at the State next Monday and Tuesday.

"So-o-o-o-o," Ed Wynne, with a super cast, including Dorothy Mackaill, "Chic" Sale, and William Boyd, comes to the State for his only movie appearance this year in "The Chief" next Wednesday and Thursday.

Twenty-nine Are Registered For Teaching Course

With twenty-nine college students taking part in student instruction in seventeen different classes, the winter term of Education 408, student teaching course, is well under way, Prof. P. J. Iverson, training high school superintendent, stated today.

All of the practice teachers are required to have not less than ten observation hours during the term, five of which must be in their major.

Practice teachers are: Abbie Porter—history; Henry Bottemiller, Elbridge Holland, John Pederson, William Thies, Esther Tonneson, and Thora Nelson—mathematics; George May—boys' physical education; Ruth Clemens and Lorraine Brakke—girls' physical education; Robert Paris is acting as boys' adviser and Helen Gelnett as girls' adviser; Aurora Haas and Jerome Lamont—history; Ruth Clemens—French; George Collings—biology; Lorraine Brakke and L. R. Comstock—commercial geography; Kenneth Hamry—commercial law; Ruth Dyson and Rudolph Hehr—English; Lawrence Forman—Chemistry; Helen Lierboe—English; Elmer Troseth—physics; Arnold Chamberlin and Rudolph Hehr—English; Robert Paris and Elizabeth Westin—social science; and Rudolph Hehr—wood shop.

Advisors in the courses are: Prof. C. A. Severson, history; Prof. Ruby Grimes, mathematics; Bob Lowe and Dean Pearl Dinan, physical education; Dr. L. Metzinger, French; Dr. W. N. Keck, biology; Prof. P. Iverson, commercial geography; Prof. G. Lawritson, commercial law; Prof. E. Waldron, English; Prof. F. Wenger, chemistry; Prof. H. M. Hoffman, physics; Prof. C. A. Severson, social science; A. E. Anderson, work shop.

Students are required to meet once a week with Professor Iverson in a general conference which takes the form of a faculty meeting. They consider all matters of high school teaching, management, and discipline.

Professor Iverson states that the officials of the city schools in Fargo have been very kind, courteous, and friendly in regard to observing the work of the college seniors. He requests that those students planning to practice teach in the spring term confer with him as soon as possible in order to facilitate the work for the directors.

WOMEN'S SENATE WILL ENTERTAIN AT MIXER

A mixer for freshman and sophomore women will be held Sunday, Feb. 4, it was decided at a meeting of the Women's Senate, an organization composed of representatives from all women's organizations on the campus, at a meeting Wednesday afternoon. It was also decided that the rest rooms in Ceres hall should be painted, the CWA to furnish the labor. The next meeting of the Women's senate will be Feb. 7.

Ruth Moore will be in general charge of the mixer. Heads of the various committees are: Isabelle Humphreys, refreshments; Mildred Peterson, decorations; Alyce Connolly, invitations; and Virginia Landbloom, entertainment.

Class Dramatizes Children's Story

The presentation of "Jack and the Beanstalk" by the story-telling class under direction of Alice Bender in the Little Country theater on Saturday, Feb. 10, at 10:30 a. m., will open the three-day celebration, Feb. 10, 11, and 12, of the twentieth anniversary of the Little Country theater.

The play is an annual project of the story-telling class and is entirely a student production. The committees are: staging, Maxine Hall, Jerome Reep, Lyle Sturgeon, Ralph Hanson, Slava Maly, Marjorie Smith, Mary Elizabeth Ricker, Frances Baxter, Marvine Hall, and Eleanor Isaack; promotion, Ruth Cooley, Marjorie Laliberte, Lawrence Melzer, Harriet Berg, Betty Christenson, and Esther Erickson; costuming, Mamie Naaden, Harriet Colburn, Mildred Peterson, Lorraine Schneider, Gertrude Bachlund, Joy Boardson, Daisy Glosner, Lois Waldron and Beatrice Ness; features, George Collings; miniature set, Emil Stern, Pearl Reed, and Dorothea Kemp; and lighting, Jerome Reep, Lawrence Melzen, Lyle Sturgeon, and Lemar Issac.

All children of the community are welcome to attend.

Engineers Issue Publication Soon

The second quarterly publication of the North Dakota State Engineer will be ready for distribution the second week of February as announced by Paul Deal, editor in chief.

The issue will feature the question of current importance to North Dakota, the projected diversion of the waters of the Missouri river as a measure for Mississippi valley flood control, and the replenishing of North Dakota's rivers and streams. Kenneth Ellison, who has studied the question, will review the project. Other features of the issue will deal with the Boulder dam project, current railroad problems as well as articles of engineering interest on the campus.

Editor Deal announces the appointment of Gordon Strong, mechanical engineering, as business editor to succeed Ray Cruden, who has not returned to school for the second term.

EXAM. DATES SCHEDULED FOR MARCH 10, 12, 13

Only seven weeks remain to prepare for final examinations. March 10, 12, and 13 have been scheduled for the term's reckoning, according to reports from the registrar's office with the last week in January given over to mid-term tests.

The winter term of this school year is ten weeks long. Instructors' first reports are due to the various deans February third.

First Bell Award Lecture Monday

The first in a series of eight lectures on the nature and scope of the Bell scholarship award to be presented to a student on the North Dakota State college campus during the spring term is scheduled for Monday, Jan. 22, in the engineering building, room 22, and will feature Dr. L. R. Waldron as speaker.

Dr. Waldron, who is one of the fifteen Americans honored with membership in the Linnean Society of London, England, will lecture on "Selecting a Subject."

In charge of the arrangements for future lectures of this nature are Deans R. M. Dolve, chairman, Alba Bales and A. E. Minard.

Campus Cafeteria Flaunts New Sign

For a long time people have come out to the college campus and looked for the cafeteria with ill luck—unless they asked several people—because it was not advertised in a prominent manner.

In the past week a sign bearing the word "Cafeteria," written in Old English lettering, has been placed to the side of the east entrance of Ceres hall. Haile Chisholm, master artisan, donated the iron holder for the sign, and one of Homer B. Huntoon's architecture classes donated the work on the sign.

Mrs. N. C. Gilbert, manager of the dining room, states, "Already I have noted an increase in patrons, and I wish to thank Mr. Chisholm and Professor Huntoon for the interest they have shown."

Arlene Burt, '31, Kappa Delta, has received a position as student dietitian at the St. Luke's hospital, Kansas City, Mo. Miss Burt is a graduate from the school of home economics.

Faith in our Bison was still more revived last weekend when we received news of their ten-point victory over the Superior Teachers' Yellowjackets.

You've probably heard this before, but it made those green and yellow cagers feel awfully good to defeat a team by more points than the University did.

Bob Lowe's material seems to be slowly but surely developing into a real basketball team. Witness the gradual improvement on the part of Curt Denenny if you don't believe it.

Stan Maynard was able for once last week to tell the rest of the team what he thought of their playing. Was he surprised when he dropped in those baskets?

But the boys will run into real competition when they meet the travelling Jackrabbits from South Dakota State tomorrow night. We're looking for a Bison victory, but not for a very big one.

Struggle among intramural teams for the basketball championship has distracted our attention somewhat from the varsity outfit. The YMCA's and the Theta Chis seem to be slated to fight it out again this year.

When talking about the heroes in sport, there's always some that go unsung. Among them are the members of this winter's varsity and freshman hockey teams.

Those State college skaters are playing this year entirely without the aid of a coach, and are doing some pretty good puck-chasing. For evidence of this, regard the win the varsity sextet turned in last night against the Falcons to go to the top of the Inter-city league.

We hope that State college students won't overlook the good work these hockey men are doing.

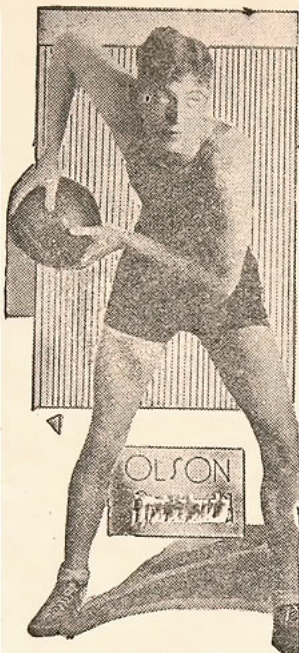

Here's a reminder for Pete Ger-gen: when the University Sioux come down here to play the Bison, they will bring with them a bunch of Baby Paposes that'll have plenty of wares to show as far as basketball is concerned. They may not all be Meinhovers, but—(remember Mayville).

Note: This column is ultra anonymous.

Varsity Hockey Team Defeats Baby Bison

Continuing the hockey games being played at the Island Park skating rink, the Bison varsity defeated the Baby Bison 6-3 last Tuesday night. Previously, the varsity had won from the Rockets, an independent team, and lost to the Fargo high school. The Baby Bison lost to the Moorhead Independents, Fargo High school, and the Falcons.

As this issue went to press it was learned that the Bison varsity hockey team defeated the Falcons, 3 to 2, in an overtime contest last night. This puts the Bison in first place in the Inter-city league.

Acey Olson, State college guard, is setting a hot defensive pace this season. During the last three games the man Olson was assigned to guard has not scored a single field goal. In addition to this, Acey is one of the main factors in the Bison passing game.

Basketball Tourney For Girls Begins

The interclass basketball tournament, open to all college women, will begin Monday and continue throughout the week.

All games are scheduled between the hours of 4:30 to 5:30 with the exception of Monday. Hours then are from 4:00 to 5:00.

The schedule is Monday, freshmen vs. sophomores and juniors vs. seniors; Tuesday, sophomores vs. juniors and freshmen vs. seniors; Wednesday, freshmen vs. juniors and sophomores vs. seniors; Thursday, freshmen vs. sophomores and juniors vs. seniors.

Between halves of the South Dakota-Bison game tomorrow evening, varsity and freshmen football men will receive recognition of the athletic department and the college by the presentation of sweaters. Dr. O. O. Churchill, member of the Athletic Board of Control, will make the presentation.

State College Scores 33-23 Victory Over Wisconsin Team

Redman Team Leading In Men's Volleyball Contest

Team F, captained by K. Redman, is leading the men's faculty volleyball for the winter term with a total of 157 points.

Captains and standings of the other teams are as follows: E. J. Sunde, team A, 148; J. R. Dice, team B, 149; L. L. Nesbit, team C, 150; T. W. Johnson, team D, 153; L. F. Marcy, team E, 146.

Six Teams Win Intramural Games During Past Week

Among the victors in intramural basketball contests this week were the YMCA team, with two victories, the Kappa Sigma Chis, the Alpha Gamma Rhos, the Theta Chis, the Alpha Sigma Taus, and the Delta Kappa Sigmas.

In a contest played Monday evening the rangy YMCA quint won a thrilling 22-18 encounter from the speedy Kappa Sigma Chi outfit. Red Striker led the Y onslaught with 11 points, while Jordahl, sharpshooting center, and Aandahl, mid-get guard, played stellar games for the Kappa Sigma Chis. This game broke a 25-25 deadlock played last week.

Tuesday night the powerful Theta Chi quint defeated the Alpha Tau Omega combination 38 to 12. Diminutive Fritz Hanson led the Theta Chi scoring with 18 counters, while Chloupek played a bang-up guard game. In the second game the Alpha Sigma Tau five defeated the Cosmopolitan club quint 16 to 9.

In Wednesday night's opener, the Alpha Gamma Rhos bested the Kappa Psi 27-15. R. McKinnon led the victors' attack with 13 points while Skurdahl played a nice game at guard. Osman was the big gun for the losers with 7 points. In the other game the Kappa Sigma Chis romped to a 51-21 win over the Dormitory club. Jordahl, Stephan, and Aandahl garnered 20, 14, and 11 points, respectively, for the victors.

Last night's play was featured by a 39-13 defeat administered to the Delta Tau Epsilon team by the YMCA's. In the second game, the Delta Kappa Sigmas were victorious over the Sigma Phi Deltas, 16 to 12.

Superior Teachers' College Falls Before Bison Onslaught

In one of the biggest upsets of the season, the fast-improving Bison quint shot and passed its way to a 33-23 win over Superior State Teachers' college last Friday night, at Superior, Wis.

The Herd flashed a smooth offensive and displayed a consistent defense. Pretz Reiners and Acey Olson playing in the guard positions, besides being important factors in the passing attack, kept the Yellowjackets from getting set for their shots. Stan Maynard, substitute forward, exhibited some real class as he led his teammates in scoring, amassing eleven points with four field goals and three gift shots. Marquardt, regular forward, was recovering from a slight illness and played only part of the contest.

One of the interesting facts to be deduced from the game was the comparative scores of this game and the Nodak-Superior fracas earlier in the season. The Sioux won a nine-point victory from the Yellowjackets while the Bison came out ten points ahead.

This game wound up a series of warm-up games before the regular conference schedule of contests gets under way.

Dr. P. W. Philpot, evangelist, and A. E. McKee, tenor, appeared jointly at a convocation in Festival hall last Wednesday morning.

Coed Rifle Team Matches Planned

Challenges Received From Wichita And Vermont
Universities

The North Dakota State college women's rifle team is planning to engage those of other schools in postal matches according to word received from Col. E. A. Lathrop, advisor of the group. Challenges have already been received from the University of Vermont at Montpelier, and from the University of Wichita, Wichita, Kan.

At the first meeting of the team last week, forty-three girls turned out for practice. The official team will be selected from the ten highest scorers during the term, the final matches being held in one day. Inter-sorority matches are being contemplated, according to Phyllis Tritchler, manager.

 In A Social Way

The Cosmopolitan club party, to be held in Festival hall between 8:30 and 11:30 this evening, and the dance sponsored by the Lettermen's club which will follow the game Saturday evening, are the major social events for this weekend. The Lettermen's dance will also take place in Festival hall from 9:30 to 11:30.

Sidney R. Montague, Regina, Sask., Wednesday evening's Lyceum speaker, made an honorary member of the local group of Sigma Phi Delta fraternity last spring, was honored at a dinner given in the chapter house Tuesday evening at which time he was presented with his pin. He also was a luncheon guest of the fraternity Wednesday noon.
 Mr. Montague is under the management of Abner M. Ingebretson, M. E., '26, alumnus of the local chapter of Sigma Phi Delta.

More than sixty alumni and active members of Theta Chi fraternity were present at a dinner in honor of Walter M. Faries, president of the national board of trustees of Theta Chi, at the local chapter house Tuesday noon. Guests were Dean I. W. Smith and Registrar A. H. Parrott.

At services held last Monday evening Wallace Widdifield was initiated into Alpha Gamma Rho, fraternity, and William Ostrom, Herbert Schmallen, and Milton Martin were initiated into active membership in Delta Tau Epsilon fraternity.

The active members and pledges of Kappa Delta sorority will have a fudge party Sunday afternoon at the home of Margaret Olson, president of the active chapter, 1401 Ninth Street south.

Alpha Gamma Rho announces the pledging of Thomas E. Smith of Corvallis, Mont., and John Halcrow, Bowsmont, at the chapter house on Monday evening.

Unusual Costumes Appear At Gala Beaux Art Dance

Sheiks, shebas, sailors, peasants, merchants, travelers, nobles, and beggars gathered for a gala festival celebration in a Moroccan market square where they made merry in yellow sunshine and were romantic in blue moonlight, danced, sang, dreamed, revelled, and heartily and unforgetably enjoyed themselves at the Beaux Arts ball last Saturday evening, when they were transported to a land of beauty, romance, color, and leisure—Morocco, for the evening.

Adopting the idea from the Beaux Arts balls, outstanding social events put on yearly by architects and artists of eastern cities, the Atelier Chat Noir and the Art club outdid themselves in making this a party which will be hard to surpass as the year's outstanding social event.

Led by William Akeley, general chairman of Atelier Chat Noir, with Charlotte Treat; and Amy Glaser, social chairman of the Art club, with Donald McNaughton, the grand march resembled a colorful double caravan of jewelled, masked, and veiled traders coming together in Morocco from all parts of the world.

Second in line were Irene Gast, president of the Art club, with Lloyd Hanson; and Edward Mahlum, president of Atelier Chat Noir, with Helen Fredrikson; third were Marion Van Vorst, Art club head of decoration, and Clarence Olson; Robert Landbloom, in charge of the decorations for Atelier Chat Noir, and Marion Brainerd.

Bill Breitenbach and Helen Simmons, the fiftieth couple to enter the hall, reigned as sheik and sheba until the best-costumed couple, Milton Lee and Cecil Olson, were selected. A program of music and dancing followed their enthronement on the ornate dias. Courtney Cannon gave a Moroccan village dance and Norin Johnson sang "Pride of the Caravan." Erlys Hill, in a minaret window, was serenaded by Frank Sanders with whom she sang "One Alone" from "The Desert Song." At the close of the program the guests unmasked.

A Person Receiving Proper Eye Attention

Never has been known to regret it. Even if the improvement in vision is only slight from the use of glasses it is distinctly worth while, and of great benefit to the patient. Our trouble is to get you to believe that Maybe Your Eyes are below 100 per cent efficient. Always glad to find out for you.
