State College Debaters Meet South Dakotans

Students From Two Schools To Present Arguments Here Wednesday Evening

WILL DISCUSS WAR DEBTS

Spalding, Martin Argue Debt Cancellation In Last Debate For This Season

In the last intercollegiate debate of the 1932-33 season to be held on this campus, the representatives of North Dakota State college will meet a two-man team from South Dakota State college Wednesday, April 5, in the Little Country theater with the question: Resolved: "That the United States should agree to the cancellation of the interrelated war debts," as the topic for discussion.

Horace Spaulding, Jamestown, and Frederick Martin, Fargo, speaking in the order given, will uphold the affirmative side of the question for North Dakota State. They will be opposed by Holger Peterson and Walter Slocum of the sister state school.

This debate will inaugurate the use of the Oregon plan in intercollegiate competition here. A feature of this manner of procedure originated by J. Stanley Gray of the University of Oregon is a period of cross-examination and questioning of each speaker by the opponents in a manner similar to legal court procedure. The direct clashes resulting have led to increased interest in the debates and the plan has proved its efficacy in college competition in the west and in community debates here.

Spaulding has taken a prominent part in speech activities on the campus in the fields of dramatics and debate for the past two years. He is a member of the Edwin Booth Dramatic club and played the leading male role in that organization's winter term play "You Never Can Tell." Last season he argued the income tax question in several community debates.

Martin has had three years debate experience, both intercollegiate and community, as well as considerable experience in dramatics. He is a member of Edwin Booth and is secretary.

Turner's Orchestra Furnishes Music At Annual Junior Prom

Bismarck Musicians To Play For Affair In Physical Ed Building April 21

Music for the Junior Prom, to be held on April 28 in the physical education building, will be furnished by Harry Turner and his orchestra, according to an announcement made today by Idan Flaa, prom manager.

Turner's orchestra is one that has gained recognition throughout the northwest and far west. During the earlier part of the season they were engaged by a night club in Seattle, Wash. After their contract had expired in that locality, the orchestra was engaged by the managers of the Dome dance pavilion in Bismarck and have been playing in that vicinity since. Victor Schmaltz, a former North Dakota State college student, is associated with the orchestra. The orchestra has a reputation for being able to play outstanding dance music, and the program for the Junior prom calls for an exceptional group of numbers.

The program for the evening will consist of twelve dances, with formal dancing scheduled to start at 9:30 o'clock and continuing to 12:30. Prior to the formal dancing, a half hour of informal dancing will be arranged. The orchestra will present a group of feature numbers, in which group Schmaltz will have a part.

John Gabe, chairman of the committee on lighting arrangements for the prom, has a system of indirect lighting worked out that will be in keeping with the occasion.

Tickets for the prom may be secured from any of the committee members and from fraternity representatives. The Service Drug company, the Cook Drug company, the Y Dugout, and the book store have all consented to handle the tickets for the affair.

College Students Participate In League Of Nations Assembly

ALL-COLLEGE PARTY IS GIVEN TONIGHT

An all-college party will be staged tonight in Festival hall in honor of the members of the North Dakota State college basketball and football teams, according to members of the student commission, who are in direct charge of the affair. Messrs. and Mmes. C. C. Finnegan, Robert Lowe, and Leonard Saalwaechter will act as chaperons. Music will be furnished by the Red Jackets, and the party is free to all students on the North Dakota State college campus. Frances Kingsbury, social commissioner, is in direct charge of arrangements.

Gamma Phi Betas, Kappa Sigma Chis First In Averages

Kappa Kappa Gammas, Delta Kappa Sigmas Runnersup In Social Groups

Gamma Phi Beta, with an average of 86.5, led the social sorority and fraternity honor roll for the winter term. Kappa Sigma Chi led the fraternities with an 85.1 average.

Kappa Kappa Gamma was second among the sororities with 85.5; Phi Mu third with 84.3; Phi Omega Pi fourth with 84.2; Kappa Delta fifth with 84.1; and Alpha Gamma Delta sixth with 84.

Delta Kappa Sigma placed second among the fraternities with 84.3; Sigma Phi Delta third with 84; Theta Chi fourth with 83.8; Alpha Tau Omega fifth with 83.3; Alpha Gamma Rho, sixth with 81.7; Kappa Psi, seventh with 81.7; Delta Tau Epsilon, eighth with 80.8; and Alpha Sigma Tau ninth with 80.5.

The average of 89.5 made by the Tau Delta Pi was the highest of all organizations. Lincoln Forensics club was second with an average of 89.4. Others are Scabbard and Blade, 88.8; Kappa Delta Pi, 88.6; Senior Staff, 88.2; Pi Gamma Mu, 87.7; Alpha Phi Omega, 87.6; Sigma Delta, 87.6; Alpha Zeta, 87.2; Woman's Senate, 86.9; Phi Upsilon Omicron, 86.9; Student Commission, 86.7; Blue Key, 86.7; Delta Psi Kappa, 86.7; Art Club, 86.5; Edwin Booth Dramatic club, 86.5; Panhellenic Council, 86.3; Sigma Tau Delta, 86.1; Bison Staff, 85.8; Gamma Tau Sigma, 85.7.

Phi Kappa Phi Plans Spring Meet Tuesday

Phi Kappa Phi, national scholastic fraternity, will hold its regular spring term meeting next Tuesday, April 4 at 4 o'clock in the Seminar room in Main building, Miss Mathilda B. Thompson, secretary-treasurer, announced today.

Besides regular business of the society, Tuesday's meeting will be marked for the election of the incoming officers for Phi Kappa Phi and for election of students to membership. High scholastic achievement is one of the prime requisites for an invitation to the organization.

Dr. L. L. Carrick is present president of the local chapter of Phi Kappa Phi.

NOTICE

There will be a meeting of the Board of Publications on Wednesday, April 5, 1933, at noon. It is very urgent that all members be present.

—George Toman, President.

Model Meeting Takes Place In Moorhead On April Seventh-Eighth

By HOWARD KILBOURNE

Representing delegates from four Latin and South American republics, members of Sigma Delta Discussion club, local international relations group sponsored by the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, will participate in the third annual Model League of Nations assembly, Friday and Saturday, April 7 and 8, at Moorhead State Teachers college.

Abbie Porter, Frederick Martin, John Dixon, and Howard Kilbourne are respectively the chairmen of the four Pan-American delegations, Guatemala, Panama, Brazil, and Bolivia.

According to the agenda drawn up by the committee in charge at M. S. T. C. the program opens Friday afternoon, April 7, with a session of the League Council of 19 members, which will discuss the world economic situation and the proposed world economic conference. Such vital and absorbing questions as managed currency, the gold standard, and tariff and trade regulations will be discussed following the parliamentary procedure employed in actual League meetings with the delegates expressing particularly the views and attitudes of the countries they represent.

Friday evening interest will be centered in the first plenary session of the League of Nations assembly in which every member nation of the League will be represented by one of the participating schools. The main topic for discussion will be the Sino-Japanese conflict in Manchuria with special emphasis upon the report of the Lytton committee and the adoption of that committee's findings. Of lesser importance perhaps but equally instructive will be the discussion in the same assembly session of the Gran-Chaco dispute between Bolivia and Paraguay and the recent developments in the Leticia dispute between Peru and Colombia.

Saturday morning will again find the delegates of all countries in the League as well as United States which sits in as an unofficial observer in the two previous meetings present at a world disarmament conference.

Latest word from Moorhead indicated that more than fourteen colleges throughout Minnesota and North Dakota would take part in the proceedings. Besides North Dakota State, Mayville Normal, Valley City Teachers and the University of North Dakota will send delegates. Concordia college of Moorhead has accepted an invitation to participate as well as St. Olaf, Hamline, St. Thomas and all the Minnesota Teachers colleges.

Connolly In Charge Of Today's Edition Of University Paper

Spectrum Editor Visits Campus Of Upstate School In Editors' Exchange

Returning the visit of Wesley Meyer, editor of the Dakota Student, University of North Dakota weekly, to the State college campus last week, Robert Connolly, editor-in-chief of The Spectrum, left early Wednesday morning for Grand Forks, where he will edit today's issue of the University sheet.

The edition of this week's issue of The Student by The Spectrum editor is a part of the policy of the editors' exchange, for the purpose of sponsoring good will between the two schools, inaugurated last year by Marjory Archer and Don Reinhold, ex-editors of The Spectrum and Student, respectively.

Active in journalistic circles on the North Dakota State college campus since his freshman year, Connolly is vice president of the local chapter of Theta Chi fraternity, is a member of Gamma Tau Sigma, honorary journalistic organization, Sigma Tau Delta, national English group, and is a cadet lieutenant.

While at the University, Connolly will be the guest of the Editor Meyer at the Sigma Nu house.

Today's Spectrum is in charge of associate editors, Gale Monson and Arnold Chamberlin.

State Y Groups Hold Conference April 22 And 23

Convention Scheduled To Take Place At Jamestown College Next Month

AUBREY IS MAIN SPEAKER

"What Next For Me?" Chosen As Theme For Year's Meeting

The North Dakota State YMCA-YWCA conference will be held this year on April 21 and 22 at Jamestown college, it was announced today by Leo Anderson and Margaret Dadey, presidents of the local YM and YW cabinets, respectively.

"What Next For Me?" has been chosen as the theme of this year's conference. It will be discussed with special reference to those college students who are becoming alumni this spring. Dr. E. E. Aubrey of Northwestern university at Evanston, Ill., has been chosen as the main speaker.

Leading the delegation from North Dakota State college will be the presidents of the two cabinets. Leo Anderson, present president of the YM cabinet, will attend in the capacity of group leader on "Cabinet Training." Dr. W. C. Hunter of the history department and Rev. Ralph Conard of the Plymouth Congregational church in Fargo will also attend in the capacities of group leaders. The college delegation will consist of old and new cabinet members.

Schools included in the conference besides State college are the University, Ellendale Normal and Industrial school, Minot State Teachers college, Jamestown college, and Valley City State Teachers college.

Odin Ramsland of the University is this year's conference president, with Anderson acting as vice president.

Carnegie Fund Brings London Professor On World Affairs Here

Charles D. Booth Will Lecture In European History And Diplomacy Classes

Charles Douglas Booth, member of the Institute of International Affairs of London, as visiting Carnegie Professor sent by the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace will arrive on the campus of North Dakota State college Saturday, April 1, for a several weeks stay, according to a telegram received by Dean A. E. Minard, head of the department of science and literature.

Arrangements to bring Mr. Booth here were made through President Nicholas Butler, of Columbia university, director of Carnegie Endowment for International Peace. Sigma Delta, international relations club, is a project of the Carnegie Endowment.

The plan which Mr. Booth will follow as a part of his capacity here is to address students in a course in modern and contemporary history conducted by Dr. W. C. Hunter at eleven o'clock, Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays, and one in American foreign policy, conducted by Dr. A. F. Hunsaker at eight o'clock on Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays.

All lectures will be open to the general public as well as to students and will include at least one convocation besides the class room talks. Mr. Booth will speak at the economic conference sponsored by the Model League of Nations assembly at Moorhead State Teachers college.

Mr. Booth has conducted similar lectures through at Denver University and at Park college, Parkville, Mo., on the same program under Dr. Butler. His work requires no financial obligation on the part of the college.

Included in the tentative lectures Mr. Booth will give are topics on Fascist Italy, Austro-German union, the Balkan states, the Pan European idea, and the Permanent court of International justice at The Hague. Mr. Booth is author of "Islands of the Aegean" and other works on International subjects.

Harold Fredrikson and Frank Walz, juniors at the University of Minnesota and former Alpha Sigma Tau members, have been visiting friends on the campus this week.

Bison Brevities Cast Plays To Packed Houses In Two Performances Given Here

Playing to packed houses of enthusiastic audiences the fifth edition of the Bison Brevities closed Wednesday evening on an entirely new type of Brevities production sponsored and managed by Blue Key fraternity.

Using a new medium, Blue Key this year sponsored an original all-college musical comedy, "Sky High," the script, music and lyrics of which were the work of Morris and Henry Olson. In addition to the Olson brothers, over seventy-five students cooperated with Blue Key and the directors of this new type of show a memorable one, with its direction and management directly in charge of James Konen.

Cline Leads Individual Averages For Winter Term With Ninety-Six

College Maintains 81.8 Average With Women Again Leading Men By 1.7 Points

Students of North Dakota State college made a general average of 81.8 with eleven students having averages above 94.4, the men having an average of 81.8 and the women having an average of 83.5, during the winter term completed March 15.

Leading students are Marlin Cline, sophomore in the school of agriculture, 96; Ellen Blair, freshman in the school of home economics, 95.9; Hartley Eckstrom, junior in chemistry and engineering, 95.8; Frieda Panimon, freshman in science and literature, 95.7; Jeanette Panimon, senior in science and literature, 95.6; Howard Kilbourne, junior in science and literature, 94.8; Kenneth Hansen, junior in mechanical engineering, 94.7; Gordon Johnsgaard, junior in agriculture, 94.7; John McCarthy, sophomore in mechanical engineering, 94.6; Bjorn Dahl, freshman in pharmacy, 94.4; and Frederic Muir, freshman in chemistry, 94.4.

Seniors having an average of 83.9 top class groups. Juniors follow with 83.5; sophomores, 80.6; and freshmen, 78.5.

By schools, averages are home economics, 82.9; education, 82.8; science and literature, 81.7; chemistry, 81.4; agriculture, 81.3; mechanical arts, 81.7; and pharmacy, 79.8.

Richard Randlett Is Scholarship Winner

Richard Randlett, dramatic director and Lord Durham in the Bison Brevities, has received a scholarship to a summer course at the Pasadena California Playhouse, Pasadena, Calif., in directing and producing.

The policy of the amateur theatrical group is to produce plays and premieres with professionals playing in the same production as students. Included in the actresses who will play this summer is Blanche Yurka, who starred in "The Sea Woman" and "The Squall," screen plays.

Trips to the MGM, RKO and Fox lots and to the Max Factor makeup factory are a feature of the summer course, according to Mr. Randlett. About three hundred pupils are chosen over the United States to take part in the session which will last from six to eight weeks.

Besides his dramatic work in connection with the Bison Brevities, Mr. Randlett has traveled with the Guy and Eloda Beach Stock company.

HOWARD KILBOURNE IS SIGMA DELTA PRESIDENT

Howard Kilbourne, Fargo, was elected president of Sigma Delta discussion club at a meeting held recently. Abbie Porter, Fargo, is retiring president.

Installation services for the new group of officers will be held on Sunday evening in the Kappa Kappa Gamma rooms. Officers to be installed in addition to Mr. Kilbourne are Donald Fredrikson, Fargo, vice president; and Ray Cruden, McHenry, secretary-treasurer.

Topics to be discussed following the installation of officers are "The World Economic Situation," with Abbie Porter, Frederick Martin, and Ray Cruden leading the discussion, and "The Disarmament Conference," with Olive Ringen, Donald Fredrikson and William Heller leading the discussion.

The fact that the show this year was a musical comedy makes it virtually impossible to compare it with any of the previous editions which were both competitive and non-competitive, but which consisted of individual and group acts with little unity. In a musical comedy some sort of plot is necessary; less variety is possible in the costuming, scenic and chorus effects because of the unified theme to which all phases of the production must lend something toward the total effect. In a sense then the Brevities this year was an experimental production, not only as to type, but also as to direction, for this was the first time in Brevities history that the entire work of presenting the show was done by students alone.

Perhaps the most noticeable feature of the show was the balance of the cast which presented it. No one individual "walked away with the show," but all contributed many fine things toward its final effect, making the grand finale as smooth as any in Brevities history.

In the last analysis the performance itself is small measure of the actual work and value of the Brevities. It takes an intimate connection with the production to realize, and then only imperfectly, the amount of organization and mass of detail that goes into the business of presenting a balanced and smooth running edition.

All in all, then, the fifth Bison Brevities had its big moments and its smaller ones, but in both it was a credit to those who presented it and to the college itself.—M. H. A.

Callinan Is Elected Senior Ball Manager At Meeting Tuesday

Choice Of Graduating Class Is Active In Affairs On College Campus

Frank Callinan, Fargo, was chosen at a meeting of the senior class held on Tuesday noon in the Little Country theater to manage the 1933 Senior ball, it was announced today by Frank Clark, president of the class.

Callinan will graduate from the school of education this term. He is active in campus affairs, being a member of Delta Kappa Sigma fraternity, president of the local chapter of Pi Gamma Mu, national social science group, a member of the Newman club, participant of Bison Brevities cast during his first three years at college, and a member of the Gold Star band four years.

Other business taken up at the class meeting Tuesday included an announcement by A. G. Arvold concerning graduation ceremonies and by Everett Wallum, alumni secretary, regarding Alumni day.

The date and list of assistants for the ball will be announced in the near future, Callinan stated today.

SPRING ELECTIONS ARE SCHEDULED FOR APRIL 11

April 11 has been chosen for the annual spring elections rather than April 3 as was previously announced, according to Carmen Hunt, commissioner of elections.

Because all petitions for members of the board of publications must be registered with the commissioner of elections at least ten days before voting takes place and no petitions had been received by Mr. Hunt March 24, elections will be postponed. The final date for the receipt of petitions is Saturday, April 1.

At this election eight members of the board of publications and the board of athletics will be named.

CITY GOVERNMENT

Graft and corruption and just plain waste and inefficiency have become the center of attention as the most important barriers to economic recovery through the reduction of taxes. Nowadays all public institutions are the targets of tax reduction zealots. That there is extravagance and corruption in many cities and states cannot be denied. But too often recently it has been apparent that tax reduction has been achieved through emaciation of the essential functions of government, rather than through elimination of the parasites of political patronage.

Particular attention has been focused upon one phase of this problem, city government, by a series of articles recently appearing in a national magazine which exposed the tremendous costs of one large city. We do not believe that a similar condition exists in the city of Fargo.

A survey of living costs at fifty colleges and universities throughout the nation, made by a national fraternity, revealed the fact that North Dakota State college had the lowest costs in the country. This fact coupled with efficient instruction and low tuition costs has made this school extraordinarily popular. One of the most significant factors in achieving low living costs has been the low tax rate in this city. Economical and efficient government prevails here, and at the present time Fargo is entirely free of bonded indebtedness. The present per capita cost of government in the city of Fargo is forty per cent under the average for all cities, and fully sixty-five per cent less than that for New York City. In the past four years the cost to taxpayers has been reduced twenty-five per cent and further reductions will undoubtedly be made, barring unfavorable developments.

North Dakota State college and the city of Fargo may point with pride to the fact that city and college officials give the taxpayer an honest and efficient return for his money. Obviously, it is necessary that such a condition continue. While it is true that in the past college-trained men and women have been our poorest citizens, this must no longer be true. The present depression makes imperative efficient government, and this can only be obtained by a discerning choice of governmental officials by intelligent voters.

BISON BREVITIES

Finis has been written to another production of the annual Bison Brevities. The entire directing and managing staff of the show, as well as the cast, is to be congratulated for the fine way in which they "put it over."

The fact that State college students, and only State college students, were entirely responsible for the success of this year's show, is something worthy of consideration. It shows that there is no lack of talent, no lack of executive ability among them. It shows what a group of young amateurs can accomplish when they cooperate toward such an end.

Comments heard on every side indicate that this year's Brevities were better than last year's, or any year's. The staging, the costuming, the music won universal praise. In spite of the difficulties that necessarily had to be surmounted, the production was a success from every standpoint.

In advertising the school, the Bison Brevities has come to be an important factor. The two packed houses to which they played is evidence enough for that. It is to be hoped that Blue Key can continue its sponsorship of the show in years to come.

EDITOR'S LAMENT

Getting out a paper is no picnic.
 If we publish original matter, they say we lack variety.
 If we publish things from other papers, we are too lazy to write.
 If we stay on the job, we ought to be out rustling news.
 If we don't print contributions, we don't show proper appreciation.
 If we print them, the paper is full of "junk."
 Like as not, some fellow will say we swiped this from another paper.
 He's right—we did.

ROWDY REMARKS

Now that the "Comedy of Errors" at Bismarck is over the process of reconstruction must begin. Perhaps the legislation, contrary to fact, was actually moved to that delirious city of Jamestown.

Campus political geni are again rearing their heads—candidates from Prom leaders made delightful marionettes, which brings to mind—which frame was nearly split because of the gal who is to cling to the arm of which Junior leader? And they say that "Bass-toting" Frank Callinan garnered several votes by promising to rid himself of the moustache—of course, that's only hearsay. We think it was his "ad lib."

Heard after the Brevities—"Better'n Ziegfeld's Follies!" "You don't mean to say that a guy like that can put on a show like that?" "Such a crooner—n-n-nyah!" "That blonde in the center looked—m'm!" "John is so cu-ute! —and Devilan—!"

Will the work of the "smutty magazine" crusaders cramp the style of the "Pull Pison?"

The POP's have ordered their pledges not to think say or wonder about anything in the presence of anyone—it gets printed—so the POP pledges say.

And watch for surprises when next election day rolls around though elections really have a value which borders on "nil"—but it gives the moguls and a few ambitious people a chance to wrack brains and sling mud.

Did you hear that—one of our instructors was a scandal "coylumnist" who is still talked about at his alma mater—and that we have a racketeer's daughter in our midst?—or that a band leader in New Rockford thinks one K. D. is O. K.?—or that some of our worthy legislators at Bismarck use an ex (x) when attempting to sign their names?

Kappa last line—"Meet us at the Virginia every Saturday night—more fun!" (Note—this is subject to change by "Rosie Standards.")

SPECTRUM CRITIC

"State Fair," the show which made such a hit with theater audiences here recently, plays a return engagement at the State theater today and tomorrow. Will Rogers and Janet Gaynor play the leading roles in this interesting play of a farm family who meet interesting things in a week's visit to a county fair.

"Blondie Johnson," the story of a girl who came from the farm to the city, starring Joan Blondell, shows at the State on Monday and Tuesday.

The most sensational screen spectacle of the year "42nd Street," comes to the Fargo theater Saturday.

The all star cast of this great photoplay is headed by Warner Baxter, Bebe Daniels, George Brent, Ruby Keeler and others.

"42nd Street" is a show within a show. Its swift-paced sequences graphically present the launching of a Broadway musical. But this is not all, there is a gripping human interest story—a throbbing drama of the theater of today. The heartaches—the good hearted camaraderie—the care-free days when there is money in the pockets and work ahead. You'll get to know them all in "42nd Street"—the chorines—one hundred and fifty of them—stars, directors, singers, song-writers, hoofers, crooners, comics, juveniles, ingenues—gorgeously costumed—set in lavish scenes, the life, love and lures of backstage drama made into a gorgeous screen spectacle of beauty, youth, love, melody, song and dancing feet. This show presented to the public by the Warner Brothers.

Showing at the Roxy theater the last half of this week is Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell, irresistible pair, together again for "The First Year". This photo from the play by Frank Craven quite adequately pictures trials and tribulations accompanying the first year of married life. As the Gaynor-Farrell team again scores a hit, put this picture on your theater-going list.

A mystery thriller will visit the Roxy the first half of next week. This picture "By Whose Hand", finds much suspense and action amidst murders. Leads in this picture are taken by Barbara Weeks and Ben Lyon.

Jackie Coogan, now 18 years old, has registered as a student at the University of Santa Clara, it was announced this week. The former boy motion picture star, who expects sometime to act for talkies, successfully tried out for a position as cheer leader and is prominent in undergraduate activities during the year.

SCHOLARSHIPS OFFERED TO STATE STUDENTS

The Drama League Travel bureau, a non-commercial organization, has at its disposal scholarships covering full tuition for the six weeks summer session at the Central School of Speech and Drama, affiliated with the University of London. These scholarships are primarily intended for students interested in literary and drama study, but are also given for the more important purpose of promoting international understanding.

Students of the theater and teachers of drama and its allied arts are eligible to come before the committee on awards, and application blanks may be obtained from the League's headquarters in the Hotel Barbizon-Plaza, New York.

THE DOUBLE

Once Overs on Personalities and Things Collegiate Through the "Specs" of The Spectrum Spectator

We nominate for the most unusual accident of the week the maid in a local fraternity house, who fell out of the top strata of a double-decker, landed on a table's edge and was knocked unconscious. She has spent the greater share of the week in a lower berth, recuperating. We suggest that hereafter regular Army air training and Alpine climbing tests be given all who attempt to sleep in the "uppers".

We wish to apologize to the University headline artist for not explaining thoroughly why the boxing matches between the two schools were cancelled. "Insufficient interest" was not the whole cause. Walt Jahnke and Ed Dehne were both laid up with injuries and one of the other members of the team has his hands full in local boxing circles.

The North Dakota State college junior electrical engineers think that their electrical course is a "world beater" for low markings. This week we heard one which sets new marks for rigid professors to shoot at. In his forty-two years of teaching, a professor of logic at the University of Southern California has given out but two A's.

Tulane has, with the co-operation of Newcomb girls, installed a gigolo club. Through this gesture, fellows who have social equipment but lack the money can secure dates who are willing to pay all the expenses. The idea has not panned out so well, however, and a certain minister in Shreveport has already given a sermon denouncing this infamous group.

This time of the year usually finds basketball games quite rare, but Randolph-Macon University is solving the problem by having a game between the fat and the skinny students in the college some time this month. Again the terms "fat chance for winning" and "skinny chance for winning" are synonymous.

At the University of Texas a Greek letter club has formally put a skunk through initiation ceremonies. Before this was done though, the animal went through a minor operation.

Michigan university has installed insurance policies for students who feel that they might flunk a course. According to this insurance, all those failing in the subject in which they have a policy, are given enough money to enable them to repeat the course the following term or in summer school.

A number of the exchanges in The Spectrum office contain articles concerning the inauguration of "Dutch Date" weeks in various of the schools. Not bad, we comment. For once a female chiseler would be chiseling herself.

Now is the time for football coaches to start spring football but we don't know—

And then we wonder what stories and experiences Ye Editor will bring back from up-state. This business of running another man's "business" may lead to lots of trouble. (?) Rumor has that it did during last week's visit—as far as local circles are concerned.

OUR INTERESTS ARE MUTUAL

STATE COLLEGE is the largest and most important business in Fargo. Unless its faculty and employes are adequately paid, unless its students are afforded the broad training which the institution was founded to provide, it cannot prosper. Any detriment suffered by State College reacts against the prosperity of this community.

College and city are a partnership. Here the harmonious inter-relationship between college and city is traditional. We express at this time our deep appreciation for the generous help given the various city departments by the technical staffs of State College in past years.

Even as State College is facing vital problems, even as State must overcome serious obstacles in its march forward, — so the city of Fargo now faces a crisis in its history. It is in the midst of a program to provide an adequate supply of water for domestic and industrial uses. It must complete pending plans to establish a modern sewage disposal system. It must have lower gas and electric light rates. These are times when the retention of experienced and capable men is necessary if we are to hold fast to the achievements which we have inherited from twenty years of capable self government. These are times when the disruption of time proven administrative staffs of either institutions would be folly.

Standards must not be lowered. Men are more important than property.

We have common interests. We face common problems. We invite the faculty and students of State College to march forward with Fargo in the solution of these problems.

GLOBE-TROTTERS MEET ALL-STAR BISON TEAM HERE MONDAY EVENING

Weir, McKay, Arthur, Blakeslee, Olson and Kvenmoen Are State's Basketeers

GAME WILL CLOSE SEASON

Downtown Clubs Sponsor Game With Traveling Quint For Charity Fund

As a final curtain for the current basketball season a team which is composed of the seniors of this year's North Dakota State team and three graduate members, will oppose the Globe-Trotters at eight o'clock Monday evening in the physical education building. The game is being sponsored by the Fargo Cosmopolitan club and the proceeds will go for a fund for crippled children.

Bob Weir, center, Viv McKay, guard, and Don Arthur, forward, and for two years all-conference selections in the North Central conference, will form the nucleus of the local team. Besides these men, "Casey" Finnegan has enlisted the services of Walt Olson, who will occupy the remaining forward position, and Joe Blakeslee is to work with McKay in the backcourt. Ronnie Kvenmoen, prominent in local court circles, will be held in reserve.

The Globe-trotters, a colored quint, have played several engagements in the two cities, as well as the surrounding territory. They have been victorious in all of their encounters in this sector but Finnegan believes that he has a group of men that will offer more opposition than any group that the colored boys have come up against.

This outlay of stars have been practicing together every day for better than a week, and have shown remarkable form in their practices with combinations offered by Coach Saalwaechter which have been made up of freshman, sophomore and junior members of the college teams.

A close score is predicted for the outcome, as all the Trotters' games have been within four points. The one characteristic of all of their contests seems to be to allow their opponents a lead in the scoring throughout most of the game, and then during the last few minutes of play, to step out and cinch the victory. However, with this aggregate of stars, anything can happen, and the opposition is liable to be plenty tough.

Thirteen Co-Eds Form Rifle Team

Annual Selection Announced By Military Department Authorities

Thirteen North Dakota State college co-eds were named members of the 1933 girls' rifle team, it was announced today by Maj. E. A. Lathrop, military department head.

Rhoda Clausen, Fargo, heads the list with the highest score of 100, a "possible". Following her were Elsie Raeshke, Goodrich, 98; Courtney Cannon, Fargo, 96; Louisa Gantner, Maddock, Thelma Liessman, Bismarck, and Harriet Horton, Mankato, Minn., 95; Eleanor Johnson, Fargo, and La Verne Hanson, Clifford, 94; Ruth Johnson, Adrian, Esther Moe, Fargo, Mary McNair, Fargo, and Janette Greenshields, Fargo, 93; and Mary Bibow, Fargo, 90.

The thirteen coeds were selected from a group of about fifty candidates for positions on the team.

Three fraternities at the University of Wisconsin were on probation as the result of asserted violations of rushing rules adopted by the interfraternity board last year. The board at that time decided to eliminate rushing during the period known as "orientation week." Names of the houses on probation were not announced.

Faculty members of the University of Arizona agreed to donate one day's salary each month to create a fund for the relief of needy students.

All candidates for the 1933 football squad, and all men who have signed up for the football coaching class that is being offered this term, are requested to meet in the physical education building Wednesday, April 5, at 4:15 p. m.

Twenty Basketball Men Receive Letters

Ten Varsity Players, Ten Freshmen Get Awards For Season's Work

The members of the 1933 conference championship basketball team and squad who will receive letter sweaters and gold basketballs were announced by C. C. Finnegan, athletic director of

At a recent meeting the Student Commission decided to award yellow letter sweaters to Charles Brown, rooster king, and Bob Yirchott, assistant. The awards have been ordered and will be made to the men upon arrival.

Brown is a junior in the school of engineering and has been rooster-king for the past two years. Yirchott is a freshman in the school of engineering, and was in charge of the rooster section of Fargo High school before coming to North Dakota State.

North Dakota State college, Thursday. Ten varsity awards are to be made upon the recommendation of Coach Leonard Saalwaechter, the Bison mentor.

Those who will receive the awards will be Bob Weir, center; Don Arthur, forward, and Viv McKay, guard, all seniors and two year conference selections; Bud Marquardt, Acey Olson, Lyle Stinson, Grant Mickelson, Curtis Denenny, Arnold Mickelson and Childs Hallenberg, student manager.

Pete Gergen, freshman mentor, has recommended numerals and sweaters for ten of his players who composed the squad that handed the Sioux Frosh two defeats, and otherwise had a successful season. The men receiving the awards are: Russel Anderson, Carson Noecker, Arnold Bernard, Don Bettchen, Stanley Maynard, Neville Reiners, Gregory Sloan, Sam Dobervich, David Casselman and Arling Jacobson.

Chemistry Graduates Carry On Research

Forman, Ryan, Rooney Act As Research Assistants For Dr. Douglass

There are three graduate assistants doing research work in the field of organic chemistry according to Dr. L. B. Douglass, acting associate professor of chemistry.

Mr. Lawrence Forman, one of Douglass' research assistants, takes nicotine—the same that is derived from tobacco and used as an insecticide—and oxidizes it with nitric acid. This nicotinic acid he changes by a series of reactions to nicotinic oil, compound somewhat related in active principle to the irritating agent in oil of mustard. This compound has never before been prepared and its reactions are being studied with various amines in preparing thio-ureas.

Laurence Ryan is carrying out some reactions with an acid derived from fural, which in turn is prepared from corn cobs, or hulls, etc. This furoic acid is changed progressively to furoyl mustard oil and to various thio-ureas. Dr. Douglass prepared the mustard oil and some of the thio-ureas as part of his doctor's thesis and Mr. Ryan is extending the work. Mr. Ryan treats the thio-urea with mercuric oxide, securing a derivative of urea.

John Rooney is studying a series of ring-compounds in which a molecule contains a five-membered ring of atoms consisting of three carbons, one oxygen, and one nitrogen. These compounds are called oxazolidines. In the preparation of these compounds he is using cyanogen bromide, a substance which was used as a tear gas and as a lethal gas in the World War. On this account Mr. Rooney was forced to borrow a gas mask from the local military authorities to complete some of his work.

A recent poll at Tulane university shows that the students care little for the return of (legal) beer. Some claimed they did not drink, some preferred speakeasy liquors, and others took to home brew.

Theta Chi and YMCA Meet To Determine Interfraternity Title

Monday and Friday Evenings Mark Last Games In Fraternity Tourney

The basketball game held last night between the Theta Chi fraternity and the Y. M. C. A. opened a three-game series to determine the winner of the inter-fraternity basketball tournament. The remaining two games will be played off at 8:00 o'clock in the physical

The college Y. M. C. A. quint won the initial encounter with the Theta Chis Thursday afternoon at 5:00 in the physical education building, by a score of 23-11. The second game of the series between these two teams is to be played this afternoon at the same time. The games are open to the public at no charge. If the Y wins the second game the series will be over; if not, the play-off will take place Monday night at eight o'clock.

cal education building on Friday and Monday evenings.

The Theta Chi fraternity captured first place in their division by winning over Alpha Sigma Tau, Alpha Tau Omega, Kappa Psi, and Sigma Phi Delta fraternities.

In the second division the Y. M. C. A. became the leaders by defeating Kappa Sigma Chi, Delta Tau Epsilon, Delta Kappa Sigma, and Alpha Gamma Rho fraternities.

This season's inter-fraternity race has been watched with much interest as there have been several startling upsets by teams which lost their early games and then came back to conquer their more polished rivals. In the first basketball frame the Theta Chis pulled away from their slump to swamp the Alpha Sigma Taus, and in the second division the Y. M. C. A. cinched their right to lead their frame by defeating the Kappa Sigma Chis and the Delta Tau Epsilon fraternity.

UNIVERSITY STUDENTS SEE BISON BREVITIES

Attending the Bison Brevities Tuesday night were a group of University people who were guests of Blue Key and the management. Among those attending were John Howard, University musical director; Joseph Mader, Flikerail Follies faculty director; Dell Wade, Follies student director; Wesley Meyer, president of Sigma Delta Chi, Follies sponsor; Ernest Wenner, member of Sigma Delta Chi, and stage designer; Hursel Kallsted and Clyde Herreid, Follies musical directors; and Misses Murray, Johnson and Forbes. Following the show they were guests at an informal entertainment in the Brevities headquarters.

Members of Blue Key and the producing staff will be guests of Sigma Delta Chi at the eighth edition of the Follies to be given at the University May 22 and 23.

Faculty Team Wins Volleyball Tourney

A. C. Team Number One Defeats Fargo YMCA Hawks In Deciding Game

After advancing to the finals in the Fargo-Moorhead volley ball tournament, the A. C. team number one, composed of faculty members of the North Dakota State college, gained the volleyball tournament title in defeating the Fargo Y. M. C. A. Hawks in the final game staged in the Moorhead State Teachers' college gym on Saturday afternoon, March 25.

The picked college team was composed of Horace Barnett, Haven Kaslow, Albert Severson, Max Hughes, Glenn Lawritson, Marathon High, Chris Kaslow, Harry Hoffman, and Archie Higdon. The Y. M. C. A. Hawks, regarded as the best at the "Y" was composed of Millard Rudd, Charles Hughes, W. J. Peters, Paul Thomas, George Soule, Carl Nelson, R. L. Humphreys, and Maurice Persillon.

Reports from the game indicate that Barnett and Kaslow, of the State college club, showed remarkable ability at spiking the ball; that Severson made prominent his playing by expert relaying; and Lawritson and Hughes played strongly on defenses.

The first round matches consisted of the following contests: M. S. T. C. defeated the Fargo high faculty; A. C. team number one defeated the Y. M. C. A. Jays; Y. M. C. A. Hawks defeated the Moorhead business men; and A. C. team number two defeated the Y. M. C. A. Bugs. In the semi-finals the first college team defeated the state teacher's faculty and the Hawks defeated the second college team thus leaving the final battle to A. C. number one and the Hawks of the Y. The first half of this tournament was staged in the state college gym.

COLLEGE HIGH SCHOOL PRESENTS CLASS PLAY

treasurer of the Lincoln Forensic club, honorary debate organization on the campus.

Peterson and Slocum are both seniors at their institution. Peterson is president of Blue Key, national men's honorary fraternity, and has been active in intercollegiate debate during his four years at South Dakota State. He was one of the delegates which represented his school at the Pi Kappa Delta, national honorary debating fraternity, tournament last year when he won high honors in extempore speaking. Slocum was also a representative of his institution at this tournament and this year won the South Dakota State oratorical contest.

Both of these debaters are again representing their college in the debate tournament at the province convention of Pi Kappa Delta, which is to be held at Jamestown college on April 6, 7, 8. They will be accompanied here by Prof. George McCarty, head of the department of speech at South Dakota State.

DELTA SIGS GIVE LOQUATIOUS BALL

Fred Anderson has been elected to lead the second annual "Loquatous Ball" held by the Delta Kappa Sigma fraternity in Festival Hall at 8:30 Saturday evening.

All members of the fraternity are to meet at Festival hall at 7:15 where they will be placed in "vehicles" which will convey them over the route of the city street car line. Each man's partner is to be on the street car line and is to board the "vehicles" within 60 seconds after the conveyance has stopped for her. The girls are to prepare a shoe box of lunch for themselves and their escorts to appease their appetites during the dance. It has been ordered by the committee in charge that everyone must be garbed in some manner to fit into the spirit of the ball.

The "Grand March" will begin at 9:00 and is to be followed by a "dedication service" at 10:00. At 11:00 a loving cup, which was won by Jean MacMillan last year, will be awarded to the girl judged to be dressed in the most original manner.

The dance is to be a nonprogram affair and the schedule of dances for the evening are Paul Jones dance, broom dance, tag dance, circle dance, and an old time dance. Throughout the evening while the dance is in progress a treasure hunt will be staged.

Chaperons and honoraries for the occasion are Dr. and Mrs. Hunter, Capt. and Mrs. H. J. McChrystal, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Parrott, Mr. R. Warner, Dr. and Mrs. C. S. Putnam, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Smith, and Dr. and Mrs. Pote.

BEER GARDEN IS THEME FOR FROLIC

Appropriate to the day when the United States goes off the bootleg standard and the new deal finally arrives, the sophomore class will use the Dutch beer garden as the theme for their spring frolic to be held in the Crystal ballroom Friday evening, April 7.

Decorations will be modeled on the beer garden theme. Music and refreshments will also co-operate in producing the German atmosphere. Specialty features are planned for the entertainment of the sophomores and their guests in order that it may be one of the most amusing parties of the year, according to Kenneth Hamry, president of the sophomore class.

Chaperons for the occasion are Mr. and Mrs. T. Worden Johnson.

BEN BOYDEN HEADS DELTA TAUS

At a meeting held last Monday evening by Delta Tau Epsilon fraternity, Ben Boyden, Jamestown, was elected president of the group. Glenn Vantine, Grandin, and Carmen Hunt, Hannah, were re-elected to the positions of vice president and house manager, respectively. Other officers include Julian Rostvedt, Newburg, secretary; Loyal Nerdahl, Sharon, historian; Emery Braasch, Ryder, sergeant-at-arms; Elbridge Hollands, Fargo, publicity manager; and Robert Darling, Fargo, alumni secretary.

KAPPA SIGMA CHIS ELECT OFFICERS

Hartley Eckstrom, Fargo, was re-elected president of Kappa Sigma Chi fraternity at the annual election of the group held last Monday evening. Harold Sorenson, Devils Lake, was named vice president. Other officers include Earle Jennings, Fargo, secretary; Verne Kasson, Blaisdell treasurer; Andrew Aandahl, Litchville, steward; Lloyd Owen, Kindred, historian; and Ralph Hanson, Kindred, grand censor. Hartley Eckstrom and Gale Monson were named interfraternity council representatives.

FRANK SANDERS HEADS A. T. O.'S

Frank Sanders, Enderlin, is the newly elected president of Alpha Tau Omega, succeeding Phillip Koppang, Lisbon. Other officers elected by the group include Horace Spaulding, Harvey, vice president; George Nichols, Fargo, secretary; and Jordan Engberg, Crosby, treasurer.

SENIOR STAFF HONORS JUNIORS

Honoring a group of women in the junior class of North Dakota State college, members of Senior Staff, honorary senior women's organization, will be hostesses at a tea in the practice house Sunday evening from 4 to 5:30. Guests will include women of the junior class having averages of 82 or above. Misses Alba Bales and Matilda Thompson will preside at the tables. In charge of arrangements are Misses Margaret Dadey, Mary Powers, Ruth Barrett, Marjory Archer, and Aldyth Pinkham, active members, and Miss Esther Ratzke, honorary member.

Edwin Perry and Russell McLagan, senior Kappa Sigma Chis, spent Wednesday and Thursday in Minneapolis, taking entrance examinations to the U. S. Air corps.

TRYOTA CLUB IS HOSTESS AT TEA

The Tryota club will entertain the faculty members and students of the home economics department at a program and tea to be held in the Lincoln Log cabin at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The program to be presented includes a play, "The Man Upstairs," directed by Sally Hunkin, and a saxophone solo by Elizabeth Russell.

Miss Kathryn Jensen, dean of home economics at Moscow university, Idaho, who is visiting in Fargo, will be an honor guest. Phyllis Tritcher is chairman of the refreshments committee. She is being assisted by Eula Miller and Luella Furcht.

ALUMNI ENTERTAIN FOR PHIS

Mmes. H. G. Anderson, F. J. Brinley, Misses Minnie Anderson and Lucille Horton, members of the alumnae chapter of Phi Mu sorority, will entertain the alumnae, active and pledge members at a tea Sunday afternoon, April 2, in the home of Mrs. Anderson, 1317 Third Av. N. Hours for the affair will be from 3:30 to 5:30.

FRATERNITY HAS FOUNDERS' BANQUET

Members of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity held a Founders' Day banquet at the chapter house last Monday evening immediately preceding annual elections. Dr. George Foster, alumnae, acted as toastmaster. Among the other alumni present were Albert Severson, Elsmere Chamberlin, Irving Anderson, Donald Clark, Art Schollander, and Frank Chaney. Prof. C. A. Severson, honorary member, also attended the banquet.

MARGARET OLSON IS KAPPA DELTA HEAD

New officers for the Kappa Delta sorority are Margaret Olson, Fargo, president; Grace South, Casselton, vice president; Mildred Thorstad, Hillsboro, secretary; Imogene Ward, Minnewaukan, treasurer; Helen Skei, Fargo, assistant treasurer, and Ruth Moore, Fargo, editor.

Lorraine Brakke, Gamma Phi Beta, spent last weekend with friends in Minneapolis.

Don Lieb, Alpha Sigma Tau, spent the weekend at his home in Ortonville, Minn.

Veronta Weppeler, Jamestown, won the Phi Omega Pi scholarship bracelet, given each term to the girl who raises her scholastic average the most. Hermoine Hanson, Fargo, was the winner of the bracelet in the fall term.

Helen Miller was a guest at the Phi Omega Pi house Monday evening.

Guests Monday night at the Kappa Delta apartment for dinner were Lyra Shure, Helen Pease and Virginia Yircott.

Ralph Erlanson was a guest at the Delta Kappa Sigma house Monday evening.

Dean Vigen, Lake Park, Minn., was a guest at the Delta Tau Epsilon house Sunday.

Elroy Johnson, St. Hilaire, Minn., spent the weekend at the Delta Tau Epsilon house.

Saturday, March 28, is the date the "Strollers Vodvil", annual presentation of the student body of the University of South Dakota, will be shown.

Phi Delta are winners of the intramural basketball tourney at the S. D. U. Phi Dels are tied with Theta Chi at the N. D. U.

TAU DELTA PI HOLDS PLEDGING SERVICES

Pledging services for ten students in the school of engineering were conducted Tuesday by Tau Delta Pi, honorary engineering fraternity, with Edward Comm, president, in charge.

Former Faculty Head Is Campus Visitant

Home Economics Dean Studies Conditions In United States, Abroad

Miss Katherine Jensen, former dean of the home economics department at the North Dakota State college who has been a guest in Fargo and at the college during the last week, is on a sabbatical leave from the University of Idaho where she is head of the home economics division.

During her absence from the University, Miss Jensen plans to travel in the United States and Europe studying the various conditions of home economics work in the large colleges and cities. To date she has visited schools in Seattle, California, Los Angeles, Baton Rouge, Nebraska and North Dakota, taking particular note of the home economics work done in the colleges, hospitals and cafeterias in these places.

From here Miss Jensen will go to the colleges in the east to study the more highly organized home economics work. On May 4 she will sail for Europe touring the Mediterranean and visiting such places as Genoa, Venice, Constantinople, Cairo and the Holy Land. From there she will travel through Germany and France, up along the coasts of the Scandinavian countries, landing at Oslo and Bergen. She will complete her tour by visiting the British Isles.

Senior Staff Lists Thirty-Two Students On Term Honor Roll

Service Group Announces Names Of Girls With Highest Averages

Senior Staff, women's service organization, named to its honor roll thirty-two women students, ten per cent from each class, whose averages ranked the highest during the past term, it was announced today by Veronta Weppeler, president of the Staff.

It is a part of the service program of the organization to each term publish a list of the highest ranking, scholastically, women students. The procedure is intended to give recognition to girls of high scholastic standing and thus to furnish an incentive for others to higher standards.

Of the girls named this term, eight were seniors, nine juniors, seven sophomores, and eight freshmen, comprising ten per cent of each class.

Seniors named and their averages and the school they are enrolled in, are: Jeanette Panimon, science and literature, 95.6; Gladys Stegner, home economics, 92.5; Ruth M. Johnson, home economics, 92.4; Madeleine Kaiser, education, 91.9; Margaret Fleming, education, 91.7; Janette Greenshields, 91.7; Catherine Kremer, education, 91.4; Helen Miller, home economics, 91.2; and Kathryn Tharalson, home economics, 91.2.

Juniors: Margaret Olson, home economics, 94.1; Ruth Clausen, science and literature, 93.6; Helen Lierboe, education, 93.1; Olive Ringen, home economics, 92.8; Helen Robbins, science and literature, 92.3; Gretchen Hunsaker, science and literature, 91.7; Leona Siegel, science and literature, 90.9; Irene Gast, home economics, 90.2; and Katherine McDermott, science and literature, 89.9.

Sophomores: Vernetta Hidde, pharmacy, 92.5; Esther Tonneson, education, 92.0; Jane Nichols, science and literature, 92.3; Charlotte Thingstad, science and literature, 90.4; Margaret Hanson, education, 89.5; Isabelle Humphreys, home economics, 89.4; and LaVernis Hidde, education, 89.1.

ALPHA PHI OMEGA PLEDGES FIVE MEN

Five students in the school of chemistry were named pledges of Alpha Phi Omega, honorary chemistry fraternity, at a meeting held yesterday in the chemistry building. The men thus honored were Harry Hanson, Fargo, and Lloyd Owen, Kindred, juniors; and Clarence Johnson, Fargo, Donald Robbins, Fargo, and James Slattery, Helena, Mont., sophomores.

Local Debaters Meet Minnesota U Team

Entering into forensic competition with a member of the Big Ten conference for the first time in the history of debating at this institution, two students of North Dakota State college will leave next week for Minneapolis to meet representatives from the University of Minnesota on Saturday, April 8, in a discussion on the question: "Resolved: That at least one half of all revenues for state and local purposes should be derived from sources other than the real estate and personal property taxes." Making the trip as representatives of this school will be Clifford Maloney, junior in science and literature, and Clifford Swanson, sophomore in science and literature. Both are from Fargo.

The debate with Minnesota was arranged through the influence of Leonard Gilles, former student at N. D. S. C. and debater here last year. Gilles is manager of the Minnesota debate squad which includes Harold Fredrickson, another former student and debater of this institution. Both have taken part in several intercollegiate debates this season, as representatives of Minnesota.

UNIVERSITY CUTS 100 PHONES

One of the first economy moves at the University of North Dakota at Grand Forks now underway is the cutting of nearly one hundred telephones from the college exchange. About $5500 in the items of telephone service alone is being cut by this action, it is reported.

State College Grad Candidate For Mayor

Fred O. Olsen, '00, Is First Alumnus To Try For Position

For the first time in history, a graduate of North Dakota State college is a candidate for Mayor of the City of Fargo. Fred O. Olsen, who graduated in the class of 1900 from the school of engineering, is that candidate.

Mr. Olsen has, since his graduation, been closely connected with the college and has always been known as a loyal supporter. Soon after graduation, he was elected director of the struggling Alumni association, which he helped to form and which he served as president for a three year term.

Like the greater share of North Dakota State college's earliest students, he obtained his education largely through his own efforts, earning his way through college by working in the botanical and horticultural departments and in other work. Besides participating in both football and basketball, he was high in his scholarship and was elected among the first members of Phi Kappa Phi on this campus.

Both Mr. Olsen's son and daughter attended North Dakota State college, Robert having graduated from the school of architecture in 1931 and Elizabeth now ranking as a senior in the home economics school.

Harold Sorenson, Kappa Sigma Chi, attended his parents' silver wedding in Devils Lake last Tuesday.

Business Is Good.....

THE number of students at the North Dakota Agricultural College exceeds by 18 percent the attendance of four years ago. And in spite of adverse times the number now attending is only 6 percent below last year. "Business is good," says our President, J. H. Shepperd. "The volume has increased and the quality improved," he adds.

Prepare now at a Class "A" College and be ready to take advantage of the golden years ahead. Your College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts offers everything to complete an education in either agriculture or any of the useful sciences.
