ASSOCIATION SELECTS FAIRHEAD TO ATTEND RECREATION SCHOOL

Forty Men And Women Seniors Chosen From American Universities

SCHOOL OPERATES FOR SEVEN YEARS

George Fairhead, Rockford, Ill., has been selected by the National Recreation association as one of the forty young men and women seniors in American colleges and universities to attend the National Recreation school in New York City next year. Fairhead is a senior in the school of education, a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity, Lettermen's club, and has letters in football, basketball and golf.

From the candidates who qualify in scholastic and potential leadership ability the association admits this limited number each year to receive professional training in community recreation.

The course is for one year. Practice and demonstration rather than theory comprises its method. Athletics, social recreation, community music, community drama, dramatics, handcraft, folk dancing, nature study, camping, boys' and girls' clubs, home recreation, community centers, problems of finance and publicity and school recreation are some of the principal subjects in the curriculum. Correspondence, reports, problems and other recreation material received from all parts of the world are available for research work by the students.

The faculty has been drawn from city recreation departments and universities in many states and includes: Augustus D. Zansig, director of National Music service; Joseph Lee of Boston, "father of the play movement in America"; William Burdick, director of the Playgorund Athletic league of Baltimore; George Hjelte, director of recreation, Westchester County, N. Y.; Dorothy Enderis, associate superintendent of education, Milwaukee, Wis.; Dr. William G. Vinal of Western Reserve university; Professors J. E. Nash and Frank S. Lloyd of New York university; Eva W. White, Boston, and a number of recreation specialists of the staff of the National Recreation association and other well known leaders in the field of leisure time activities.

The athletic fields and lake of Central park and the gymnasium and swimming pool of the Hecksher building where the school meets are used by the students throughout the course.

The National Recreation association, which established the school, was founded in 1906 by Theodore Roosevelt.

Blue Key Entertains Cast Saturday Night

Kenneth Wyard Is In Charge Of Plans For Brevities Informal Affair

The 1932 edition of the Bison Brevities will be revived Saturday night when Blue Key, sponsor of the annual all-college revue, gives an informal party in Festival hall for all members of the show cast and producing staff, from 8:30 to 11:30.

Kenneth Wyard is in charge of general arrangements. It is required that one member of each couple must have been a member of the cast or producing staff. Guests will be required to sign a register at the door, giving the part they played in connection with the Brevities.

Chaperons will include Prof. and Mrs. Homer B. Huntoon and Mr. and Mrs. Dudley C. Bayliss. A number of special entertainment features are being planned by the committee in charge. Bill Euren's Collegians will play.

Al Bengston and His Music

Al Bengston and His Music have been engaged for the Junior Prom next Friday night. The eleven piece orchestra has played at the Russiana Nite club, New York City; Texas Guinan Show Place, Freeport, Long Island; the Pitken Royal Cafe, Brooklyn, N. Y.; the Andrews Hotel, Minneapolis; the Minnesota homecoming dance; and over station WRHM.

Junior Committee Issues Invitations To Guests For Formal April 29

Schwehr, Rush Return From Denver Meeting

Delegates From Nine Mid-West Schools Attend Engineers' Institute Session

Leo Schwehr, student chairman of the North Dakota State college branch of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers, and Prof. H. C. Rush, counselor of the branch, returned last Tuesday from Denver, Colorado, where they attended the conference of the student branches of the Institute, on Friday and Saturday, April 15 and 16.

While at the conference, which was attended by delegates from North Dakota State college, North Dakota University, South Dakota State School of Mines, South Dakota university, University of Wyoming, University of Denver, University of Nebraska, University of Colorado, and Colorado State Agricultural college, representatives had their headquarters at the University of Denver. Friday morning was spent in the presentation of papers by delegates, and Friday afternoon in visiting the town of Denver. Saturday morning was also spent in presentation of papers, with luncheon at the Buchtel club in Denver at noon, and inspection trips in the afternoon.

Rush gave a paper at the conference on the question, "What Should Be the Place of the Engineer in Present Day Life?" Schwehr gave a short talk on how the student branches of the Institute can aid in developing personality and leadership among its members.

Schwehr, who is a junior and a member of Tau Delta Pi, honorary engineering fraternity, was elected chairman of the local branch of the Institute last April 9. He succeeded Fred Payne. Other officers are Robert Nettelnd, vice chairman, and Vance Schneider, secretary-treasurer.

KAPPA SIGMA CHI HAS FOUNDERS' DAY BANQUET

Kappa Sigma Chi, social fraternity, will celebrate its Founders' Day at a banquet in the Gardner hotel tomorrow evening at 6:30 o'clock. Covers will be laid for forty-eight people. Greydon Owens is in general charge of arrangements.

Hartley Eckstrom, president, will act as toastmaster at the banquet. Dr. D. S. Dedrick, Prof. P. J. Iverson, Dean A. E. Minard, Prof. Rudolf Otterson, Dean I. W. Smith, and Dean H. L. Walster, of the faculty will be guests. Each will give a short talk after the banquet. Honorary members, including Don Hay, Prof. L. L. Scanton, and Chris Jensen, will be present, as will Gustav Geissler and Clarence Swallers, alumni. Lawrence Forman, active member, will talk on "The History of Our Fraternity."

Felber Represents University At Third Prom Next Friday Night

GOVERNOR HEADS LIST OF GUESTS

Clare Schrag and Glade Cowles In Line As Guests Of Leaders

Invitations will be issued today to honor guests for the annual Junior Prom in the physical education building April 29, according to Veronta Weppeler, who is arranging for guests and chaperons.

Heading the list of honor guests will be Gov. George Shafer and Mrs. Shafer. An invitation will be extended to Fred Felber, junior ball manager at the University of North Dakota, to be fifth in line when the grand march forms at 9 p. m. Invitations are also being sent to Pres. and Mrs. J. H. Shepperd, Deans and Mmes. A. E. Minard, A. D. Weeks, I. W. Smith, R. M. Dolve, H. L. Walster, W. F. Sudro, and L. L. Carrick, and Deans Alba Bales and Pearl Dinan, Dr. and Mrs. P. F. Trowbridge, Dr. and Mrs. C. S. Putnam, Maj. and Mrs. E. A. Lathrop, and Messrs. and Mmes. C. F. Munroe, A. H. Parrott, H. W. McArdle, C. C. Finnegan, and Homer Huntoon. Chaperons will be Capt. and Mrs. J. B. Conny and Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Kellogg.

Vivian McKay, most representative athlete, and third in line, will have as his guest Miss Clare Schrag, Phi Omega Pi, and freshman in the school of education. Donald Arthur, class president, and Miss Glade Cowles, Kappa Delta, will be fourth in line.

Members of the committee will meet in The Spectrum office Wednesday at 5 p. m. to make final arrangements and to check on the ticket sales. Tickets may be secured from members of the committee, fraternity representatives, and from the Bookstore. People not in college may secure them at the Service Drug or at the Broadway Pharmacy. All ticket purchasers are asked to fill out the stubs attached to the tickets that a complete guest list may be published in The Spectrum the day of the Prom.

LETTERMEN SPONSOR ALL-COLLEGE TONIGHT

With the N. D. Lettermen's club sponsoring the affair, an all-college party will be staged in Festival hall from 8:30 to 11:30 p. m. today. One member of each couple must be a student at the college.

Chaperoning the party will be Messrs. and Mmes. C. C. Finnegan and Robert Lowe. Maurice Ellingson is in charge of general arrangements. A charge of 50 cents per couple will be made.

Appreciative Audience Greet Opera Presented In Festival Hall Last Night

Plant Science Club Elects Lars Jensen President Of Group

Club Holds Meeting In Botany Department Rooms Tuesday; Admits New Members

Phytois, campus plant science club, elected Lars Jensen, Oberon, president at its meeting last Tuesday evening in the botany department rooms in Science hall. The club also named Charles Waldron, Fargo, vice president, and Robert Weir, Fargo, secretary-treasurer. Irvine Dietrich, Mandan, is retiring president.

Eight new members were taken in by the club at the meeting. The new members include: Donald Groom, Langdon; Elroy Johnson, Audubon, Minn.; Thomas King, Starkweather; Clinton Mogen, Carlson; Gale Monson, Argusville; Arthur Nelson, Dazey; Enoch Norem, Hallock, Minn., and Roy Simenson, Agate. Reginald Denio, Fargo; Leo Anderson, Englevale, and John Spaulding, Sherwood, were named on a new nominating committee, which also includes as faculty advisers Dr. H. C. Hanson and Prof. C. B. Waldron.

Plans for a field trip to Itasca state park, Minnesota, on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, May 20, 21 and 22, were made at the meeting. Phytois has taken over responsibilities for arranging and planning the details of the trip. Besides members of Phytois, students who are enrolled in advanced courses in the departments of botany, forestry, and soils, will make the trip. Accompanying them will be Dr. H. C. Hanson, Dr. A. D. Stoesz, C. B. Waldron, L. R. Waldron, Charles E. Kellogg, and O. A. Stevens, instructors in the respective departments.

In charge of arrangements for the field trip is a committee including Charles Waldron, Leo Anderson, and Reginald Denio. The trip will be made by automobile, and the group will stay at buildings which are the property of the University of Minnesota. While they are at the park, the forestry, botany, and soils groups will separate for individual study.

Pi Gamma Mu Conducts Organization Survey

Results To Be Tabulated And Point System Worked Out For Students

Pi Gamma Mu, national honorary social science fraternity, is conducting a survey of student activities at the request of the registrar's office; the purpose of it is to determine how many organizations there are on this campus, what the objectives of the various groups are, how many students they involve, and how much duplication of membership there is in the different societies. Organizations are being approached through their secretaries. After being approached by several people on this subject the registrar's office determined to conduct this survey and asked the members of Pi Gamma Mu to be responsible for it.

A committee of six was appointed to supervise the work. They are E. A. Willson, Paul E. Zerby, Norma Cavett, Emilybelle Craig, Harold Nelson and Fannie Zimmerman.

The results of the survey will be tabulated, and a point system worked out in order to control to some extent the extra-curricular activities of students.

At convocation Tuesday morning, April 26, at 9:40 in Festival hall Mr. Kopplin will give an illustrated lecture on the Indians of the southwest.

Chicago Opera Company Gives "The Barber of Seville" On Lyceum Course

COMIC PRODUCTION SCORES SUCCESS

Concluding Program Gives Students Taste Of Great Music

An appreciative audience greeted the presentation of the opera "The Barber of Seville" by Rossini, in Festival hall last night as the final number of the lyceum course given by the Chicago Opera company.

The jovial, comical spirit of the opera was captured in the first scene and was held throughout the performance. This mood was introduced to the audience when shortly after the beginning of the story the village barber, Figaro, sang his famous song telling of his various duties. This same rollicking feeling was kept throughout. Figaro, the barber, was outstanding in his work. This blundering, scatter-brained fellow was able to work the situations of the story around to a happy conclusion. His vocal solos were all in keeping with this spirit.

The part of Rosina, the heroine, was colorful. Her rich, brilliant voice gave life and interest to her songs.

Dr. Bartolo, the blustering old guardian of Rosina, and the lawyer added comic elements, as did also Count Almaviva, the love sick suitor of Rosina, in his own way.

The music throughout the production was lively and full. It gave the students of North Dakota State a taste of opera music as it is heard in opera realms. Costumes and settings were in keeping with the story situation. It was in truth a production of interest throughout.—A. O.

Nine Plan To Attend Convention Saturday

First Regional Convention Of Sigma Tau Delta Meets At Jamestown Saturday

Claire Newell, president of Omicron Gamma chapter of Sigma Tau Delta, will be the official delegate of this chapter at the regional convention of the organization to be held in Jamestown Saturday, April 23. Representatives from the chapters at Moorhead, Jamestown, Fargo, and Aberdeen, South Dakota will be present; this is the first convention that this region has held.

Delegates will register Saturday morning and will be entertained at luncheon in the homes of various members of the Jamestown chapter; in the afternoon the convention will assemble for the regional meeting. At this time several original compositions will be read by delegates of the four chapters represented. The Jamestown chapter will be hosts at a banquet given Saturday night for all delegates. After the banquet they will be guests at the presentation of Sheridan's "The Rivals."

Miss Eloise Waldron and Mr. Leon Hartwell, faculty members, plan to attend. Students who plan to go are Aldyde Pinkham, Viola Dixon, Edward Hanson, Mary Healy, Ruth Barrett, Gerald Garlid, and Abbie Porter.

STUDENTS HAVE DEBATE FOR PERISCOPE CLUB

Debating the question, "Resolved, That the eighteenth amendment should be repealed," William Stewart and Clifford Maloney appeared before the Periscope club at their regular meeting in the downtown Y. M. C. A. Thursday night. Robert Haggart was chairman. Stewart upheld the affirmative, and Maloney, the negative.

All-College Day

According to present plans there will be no All-College Day this year because student groups on the campus refused to cooperate with those in charge or to offer any suggestions to make the day worth while.

Since 1907, the approximate beginning of the traditional day of celebration, All-College Day has undergone many changes and taken on many new aspects. In the beginning it was more destructive than constructive, a day given to harmless fun and ridiculous costumes. However, in recent years the crowning of the May Queen, a student convocation, the distribution of The Bison, various contests, and an all-college dance have made the celebration more constructive and more satisfying.

As a college primarily of industrial and mechanical arts we have few traditions. It does seem the ones we have ought to be worth keeping. It is unfortunate that Blue Key and Senior Staff did not see fit to cooperate with the committee on the proposed plans. These organizations wish to retain their own recognition ceremonies, but there are other honorary groups on the campus in addition to Phi Kappa Phi who could announce their members at this time. An all-college convocation is still feasible; some departments on the campus might willingly present features such as a style show that would demonstrate the work of the department and prove entertaining as well.

The Y. M. and Y. W. C. A.'s are anxious to promote faculty-student mixers. The lunch hour of All-College Day would prove an opportune time for such affairs. In the afternoon the final games of both the intramural and interfraternity baseball tournaments might be played followed by the crowning of the May Queen and the sport's dance sponsored by the Student Commission at night.

We believe that these are just a few of the suggestions that might be offered. Here is a worthwhile and feasible project that the new Student Commission might promote by calling a meeting of representatives from every organization either honorary or social to secure ideas and opinions.

Let's see the Commission take the initiative that one tradition may be saved.

Joiners

Within a short time all the honorary organizations that haven't already done so, will be issuing invitations to new members who will be immensely flattered and grateful for the privilege of wearing another insignia.

The complacency and gratitude with which we eagerly accept these invitations prepares us to some extent for a survey of the modern American scene, dominated as it is by Rotarians, Lions, Kiwanis and What-Nots! America is a nation of joiners. Either we have to band together to keep up our courage or else, as was cited in "The American Bandwagon" these organizations provide an opportunity for us to dress up and play Indian.

Nearly every American college campus is over-organized; cluttered up with people who are bent on honoring us for something even though it be catching. These very facts make the strong nationalization policy the most widespread movement in the country today—we are all aching to go "national." Would that we were all aching to go "native."

Utopia to the average college senior represents a place where one could go to college—not where one went to meetings. Unfortunately few collegians discover this before they're seniors and well on the inside looking out.

Right now all the fraternities and sororities are pushing their pledges into activities; and when John brings home his bid to One More Meeting the brothers and sisters will smile fondly on him and tell each other what a wonderful pledge John turned out to be!

We wonder. That's why we are urging you to read the honorary invitations two ways. Give proper consideration to the financial obligation and the social obligations demanding time an effort before the glamour of another insignia makes you a "joiner."

Student Opinion

What has happened to all the good intentions of the college executives' championing the safety of the little blades of grass on the campus? For the past several years imperative statements have been erected in psychological spots on the growing green sward to stand as a barrier against wayward feet that have a tendency to crush the struggling vegetation. This year the jade spears can boast no succor from glaring commandments in tempting pathways. What is the cause? Just because the sod withstood a couple years of North Dakota drought is it to be left to the mercy of trampling humanity?

'Twould perhaps be a trivial damage if the campus were only subjected to the tread of a wandering few who are a minute late for astronomy class, but when a herd of rough and tumble fraternity men take the field three times a day for a session of baseball and football it must discourage even the quack grass. Seems as though there should be four years of compulsory physical education instead of one.

And even if it's not bad enough to convert our mistreated campus into a gridiron and diamond there are a few who even find it suitable for a golf course. Of course most of the students in our halls of learning and along the walks can sense the approach of a golf ball and escape complete annihilation by a deft swan dive or a back flip but no such luck for the turf when a scintillating mashie pares off a yard strip. It wouldn't be bad if the golfers were golfers, but when they turn out to be sorority girls it looks bad for the course. I'll bet in a week the ground around the library will look like one of the agricultural experiment fields.

Perhaps if the college officials laid down a law or two on restricting all pedestrians to the walks the campus would look as attractive as the rest of our school. It really shouldn't be necessary but it seems the sword is mightier than the pen and it would be nice to have a campus of which we can be proud.—B. B.

ALPHA PHI OMEGA ELECTS ARTHUR LARSON

Alpha Phi Omega, honorary professional chemistry fraternity, held its annual meeting after a dinner at Ceres hall at 6:30 p. m. Wednesday, April 20.

Following the social meeting was a business meeting at which the new officers were elected. The officers are: master chemist, Arthur Larson, to succeed Frank Seebart; vice master chemist, James Konen, to succeed Harold Lundgren; bursar, Gestur Johnson, to succeed Clifford Bowman; recorder, Donald Lieb, to succeed Arthur Larson; historian, Hartley Eckstrom, to succeed John Rooney. Twenty were in attendance at the banquet. Dr. L. L. Carrick was the only faculty member present. The other members are Messrs. C. J. Sunde and T. H. Hopper. Clifford Bowman was in charge of arrangements for the dinner.

CONSTITUTION

THE BOARD OF PUBLICATIONS OF THE NORTH DAKOTA AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE

(Revised upon Authority of the student Body, Granted April 14, 1932)

Article I—Name

The name of this organization shall be the Board of Publications of the North Dakota Agricultural College. It shall hereinafter be referred to as the Board.

Article II—Membership

Section 1. The Board shall consist of nine members: four members of the senior class, two members of the junior class and one member of the sophomore and two members of the faculty. Each of the two members of the faculty shall be appointed by the president of the college for one year or until a successor is appointed. The Editor of The Bison and the Business Manager of The Spectrum of one year shall ex-officially constitute two of the senior memberships of the next year and should either one of these be unable to serve, his place on the Board shall be assumed by the other major appointee (Article III, Sec. 5) of the same year for the same publication. The five other members of the Board shall be elected.

Section 2. At the regular student election of the spring term, the members of the junior class shall elect one from their own number to serve on the Board for one year; the members of the sophomore class and the members of the freshman class shall at the same time and in like manner each as a group elect one of their members to serve on the Board for a term of two years.

Section 3. Each candidate for membership in the Board shall submit to the Commissioner of Elections at least ten days in advance of the date set for the election a typewritten petition that shall set forth his experience or training in journalistic activities and shall be signed by at least twenty-five members of the student body.

Section 4. Except for purposes of organization, membership on the Board shall begin September 1.

Section 5. A vacancy on the Board shall be filled by a vote of the membership of the class whose representation on the Board is affected and at a meeting of the class that shall have been announced together with its purpose in at least two issues of The Spectrum immediately preceding the date for such a meeting.

Section 6. No member of the Board shall at the same time serve on the staff of any of the publications of the Board.

Article III—Organization and Duties of the Board

Section 1. Six members of the Board shall constitute a quorum.

Section 2. After the membership of the Board shall have been determined as set forth in Article II, Section 1, it shall meet on the third Tuesday of the month of May for the purpose of electing officers but it shall not otherwise function as a Board until September 1 following.

Section 3. The Board shall hold regular meetings on the first and third Tuesdays of each month from September to May inclusive except in periods of school recess. Special meetings of the Board shall be called by the president of the Board at the request of five members of the Board.

Section 4. The Board shall elect one of its members to serve for one year as president and he shall serve as Commissioner of Publications. It shall appoint a secretary who will be responsible for an adequate accountability of all funds accruing to the Board and shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board.

Section 5. The Board shall have complete control of The Bison and The Spectrum. It shall formally elect the editor and the business manager of The Bison and the editor and business manager of The Spectrum, and these four when elected shall constitute the "major" appointees referred to in Article II, Section 1. The Board shall also have final responsibility in the appointment of all assistant editors, business manager and all staff employees. It shall adopt such regulations as it may deem necessary for the proper governance of its appointees and for the performance of such duties as it may assign to them, and shall have the right of dismissal for any failure to comply therewith. It shall determine the rate of pay for each of its appointees. It shall establish an adequate system of accounting of all funds whatsoever that shall accrue to it.

Article IV—Amendments

Section 1. Amendments to this constitution shall be made by a three-fourths vote of the Board of Publications after the same have been considered at two previous meetings and have been published in two issues of The Spectrum prior to the final vote.

Section 2. Amendments to the by-laws of the Board of Publications may be made by a three-fourths vote of the Board after any proposed amendment has been considered at one previous meeting of the Board.

The Recent Board Action

By J. H. SHEPPERD

On Monday, April 18, at 3:30 p. m., the Board of Administration met, by agreement, all of the Deans, Professors, Instructors, Stenographers, Janitors, Firemen,—in fact all persons whose names appear on the college payroll, in the Little Country theater and told them at first hand what the financial situation of state institutions is and why they are resorting to a twenty per cent cut in the maintenance funds of all institutions and especially why they deem it necessary to take ten per cent from the salary of each employee of the institution as a part of that cut.

They invited a full, free, formal discussion by the employees and answered such questions as the group cared to ask. In this discussion they assured the employees that at such future time as the financial situation returned to normal they will restore the salaries to the present basis if they are in power at such time. They explained that the personnel of Boards change at frequent intervals and that it would therefore be useless for them to promise that restoration would be made at a particular time since they can only guess when the State's tax collections will become normal and if that occurs after their successors are in office they would not have the power to make such an arrangement.

NEW INTERFRATERNITY TRACK PLAN RECEIVES APPROVAL OF GROUPS

Each Fraternity Should Elect Track Coach To Select Most Eligible Men

NEW POINT SCALE MADE

The new plan for the interfraternity track meet which has been devised by Coach L. T. Saalwaechter has been receiving severe scrutiny by the different organizations on the campus and is meeting the approval of most of the different groups.

Much comment has been made on the new point scale whereby more of the inexperienced men will be able to garner points. This will tend to make the meet a bigger success due to the fact that more men will be entered and more men will score.

Each fraternity should select a track coach in order that he might be able to select the best men, for each fraternity is limited to 25 participants. One fraternity is getting its entire group out next weekend to get a definite check on the possible candidates.

Prepare for Relays

The varsity track candidates are working daily in preparation for the Dakota Relays which will be held at Sioux Falls on May 5 and 6. "Saaly" plans to take a mile and half mile relay team to compete in the conference class. There is a possibility that he might take Carmen Hunt to compete in the special high jump event it he gets into proper condition before that time.

Men who have been working out daily in preparation for the relay events are Jack Grohne, Myron Pond, Gordon Horner, and George Kafton. Roderick McMillen, anchor man for the mile team, broke a bone in his ankle last week and will be unable to compete during the remainder of the season. Most of these men are utterly lacking in experience and it is very probable that they will not make a very good showing.

Tryouts for the team will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock and also on Friday of next week. Men who have not been working out regularly are invited to run Friday to give Saalwaechter a definite lineup on possible candidates.

CONFERENCE NET MEET REPORTED CANCELLED

Word has been received unofficially by C. C. Finnegan, head of the department of physical education, that the annual North Central conference tennis track meet scheduled for this spring at the N. D. S. C. courts has been cancelled as an economy measure by the members of the conference.

Although no definite action has been taken to this effect, it is expected that schools will refrain from sending representatives to the meet.

Work on the school courts will get underway immediately under the direction of Dick Kraft, superintendent of the college grounds. Student employment will be utilized for repair of the courts.

Utah university at Salt Lake City has just signed an unusual contract with a nationally advertised salt company. The engineering students at the Utah institution are to drain all of the salt out of the great salt lake during the coming summer vacation, wrap it in ten-pound bags of cellophane and ship it to Idaho university where the Ornithology students will use it to catch birds of paradise on their forthcoming trip abroad in the wilds of Africa.

Vassar and Wellesley colleges have decided to change the name of their annual Daisy Chain event held in May. Because of the depression and the high price paid for cut flowers the name has been changed to the Dandelion Chain. Harvard, Yale, and Boston university students are to help the co-eds in making arrangements for this strenuous athletic combat to be held later in the season.

Football Candidates Complete Ten Spring Practice Sessions

Gridiron Aspirants Vie For Eastern Trip Next September

The aspiring football candidates have just about completed one-half of their gruelling spring training grind under the capable guidance of coaches C. C. Finnegan and Bob Lowe. Lieutenant Smith and Peter Gergen have been assisting in teaching the fine points of the game to the candidates. Thursday evening marked the ninth night of the session which will consist of 20 practices.

At the end of the practice sessions, the squad will be divided into two sections and a regulation game will be played in which all of the new rules will be enforced.

This week was confined mainly to hard scrimmages due to the fact that the new system of plays requires an exceedingly smooth working backfield. Thus, offensive play has been stressed to bring about good timing, smooth running, and clever blocking.

Short on Tackles

The linemen have been showing up well on the defense and the line shows a lot of promise. However, the coaches are still looking around for tackles that will team with Walter Schoenfelder and fill the gap in the line left by Rod McMillen and Walt Shamp through graduation. Harold Miller and James Thompson have been working at the position.

Next fall there will be a real battle to see who is going to fill the guard positions. Many excellent guards have been drafted from the yearling squad whom will give the regulars a real fight for the position. Hill Elwin and Leonard House have been showing exceptional ability at the guard post. Harvey Erlenmeyer, Orton Halvorson, and Richard Van Hook are all capable candidates and will not give up the assignment without a big fight. Merlyn Jahr, regular guard from last season, has not been attending practices very regularly and will be hard pressed for a position.

Ends Strong

The end position seems to be just as strong as the guard position with such men as Roman Meyers, Acey Olson, Bud Marquardt, Melvin Berdahl, Lyle Stinson, and Warren Pederson working for positions. Meyers has been showing up exceedingly well and is one of the toughest men out for the spring training.

Bob Paris, veteran center, is showing good form on the defense and when the lineup is chosen for next fall he will be a hard man to keep off the team. Earl Thomas, freshman prospect, has been strong on the defense but has been weak on passing.

Vicious tackling, hard blocking, clever running, driving line smashes, and sparkling individual play has characterized the entire spring session thus far. Possibly the big incentive for this outstanding play is the fight to see who will make the trip east next fall to play against the Army and George Washington university.

ANDERSON RE-ELECTED HEAD OF COLLEGE "Y"

At its election held last Tuesday, Leo Anderson, Englevalle, was re-elected president of the college Y. M. C. A. Three other officers were also re-elected, including Paul Deal, Starkweather, as secretary; Harrison Maker, Hunter, as treasurer, and Jack Vincent, Fargo, as student representative. In addition to these officers a vice president will be selected by the cabinet, and chairmen of the various committees will be named by Anderson. These offices will be filled sometime before the state Y. M. C. A.-Y. W. C. A. convention at Valley City April 29 and 30 and May 1.

With the coming of spring and "balmy" breezes the girls of Barnard college have substituted afternoon "teas" for afternoon "tees."

Alabama U. Has Guest Editor

The University of Alabama and Howard college inaugurated the idea of guest editors in the south with the issue of April 15. Elwood Richardson, editor of the Crimson-White at the University of Alabama, attended the sessions of the National College Press association in Lexington, Ky., in November.

Two All-American football players from the University of Southern California have accepted positions as teachers of home economics at the National Research Institution of America.

The University of Rochester has abolished all classes before 11 a. m. The officials at that school state that students might as well sleep at home as sleep in classes before 11 o'clock.

Freshmen at the University of Florida are required to master the art of parachute jumping before being classed as sophomores. And that, we opine, is something to get up in the air about.

All members of the honor society at the University of Vermont are required by law to enter their dormitories at night through the second floor windows.

Art Club Makes Prizes

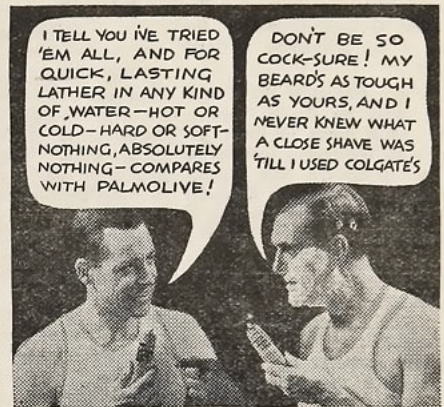

Making bridge prizes was the project undertaken by the members of the Art club at their meeting in the Art studio last night. These prizes are being used for the benefit bridge party to be given by the members of the Faculty Women's club for the scholarship fund maintained by that organization. Miss Anthony and Miss Garrison will supervise the work which is being planned by Lois Minard.

Lorraine Brakke, Helen Fredrikson, and Olive Ringen, Gamma Phi Beta, will spend the weekend in Davenport.

$25,000 IN PRIZES!

and may the best "Blurbs" win

464 cash prizes each month—2 first prizes of $500 each

GET into this shaving cream "blurb" contest, men! Who are you for—Walt or Bill? Palmolive or Colgate's?

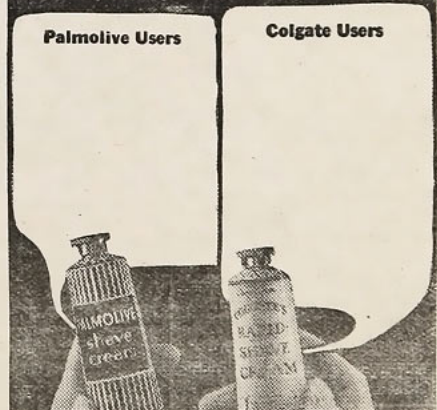

We've discovered that men are rabid on the subject of shaving creams. Just try to tell a Colgate user there's anything better! Or try to convert a Palmolive user to anything else. You'll soon find out!

These are the two leading sellers among all shaving creams. Think of that—in a field of 176 competing brands! What we want to know is—why do you like Palmolive? Or why do you swear by Colgate's? Tell us!

Hence this little contest. There's money in it—lots of money. Get some of it! Help Walt out. Or help Bill out. Notice the two empty "blurb" spaces in the picture at the right. In ONE of these spaces (or on a separate sheet of paper) write what you'd say in favor of Palmolive—or what you'd say in favor of Colgate's. Write it now! And note! Mention your dealer's name. Then if you win, he'll win a prize, too.

Come on you shavers—Get in on this $25,000 argument

Walt wants you Palmolive users to say your say. Bill says "Stick with me, you Colgate users." If you don't use either, start now and take a shot at this real money. And, don't forget, give your dealer's name!

CONTEST RULES

MAIL your "blurb" with name and address to Contest Editor's Dept. CN-164, P. O. Box 1133, Chicago, Illinois.

The prize money (totaling $25,000) is divided into six sets of monthly prizes (each set totaling $4200). At the end of each month prizes are awarded (see list at right) for the best "blurbs" received during that month, as follows:

- Feb. 29, $4200 Mar. 31, $4200
 - April 30, $4200 May 31, $4200
 - June 30, $4200 July 31, $4200
- (Contest closes July 31, 1932)

Contest is open only to residents of the United States and Canada. Employees of the manufacturers and their families are not eligible to compete.

In event of a tie, each tying contestant will be awarded full amount of the prize tied for. Decision of the judges shall be final.

Some hints to help you win

Here are some facts about the world's two largest selling shaving creams—Colgate's and Palmolive. Here are some of the reasons why men prefer these famous shaving creams.

PALMOLIVE

1. Multiplies itself in lather 250 times.
2. Softens the beard in one minute.
3. Maintains its creamy fullness for 10 minutes.
4. Fine after-effects due to olive oil content.

COLGATE'S

1. Breaks up oil film that covers each hair.
2. Small bubbles get down to the base of the beard, hold water against each hair at skin-line and soak it soft where the razor works.
3. Gives a close, skin-line shave due to small bubble action.
4. Gives a lasting, 24-hour shave.

Here are the prizes for each month—464 in all!

George Starr Lasher, Theta Chi President, Visits State Campus

Installation Of New Chapter
At University Is Complete Tomorrow

For the first time since the local chapter was installed into Theta Chi fraternity in 1917, North Dakota State college is today host to a national president of the national fraternity.

George Starr Lasher, head of the journalism department at Ohio State university at Athens and national president of Theta Chi, arrived early this morning at the North Dakota State college campus. He is meeting with faculty and with active and alumni members of Theta Chi before going on late today to participate in the installation of Beta Gamma chapter of the fraternity at the University of North Dakota.

Twenty-five members of Phi chapter will leave today for Grand Forks to be present when Alpha Psi Delta, petitioning local, becomes a member of the national fraternity. John Rooney, official chapter delegate, left Thursday to be present at a special meeting of the installation officials Thursday night.

Installation services of Alpha Psi Delta begin at 9 a. m. Friday and continue into Saturday afternoon, according to John Rooney, who will assist with the arrangements for the work. Among those on the committee are: Robert H. Hoge, Huntington, West Va., national executive secretary; former Gov. Theodore Christianson, Minneapolis, national vice president; B. F. Spaulding, Fargo, former justice of the supreme court of North Dakota; Homer E. Dixon, Phi '15, of Grand Forks; Sanford H. Ashley, Grand Forks, a member of Alpha chapter at Norwich university; Merwin Lytle, Illinois '21; Chicago, Ill.; John Rooney, Phi chapter at North Dakota State; John C. Hubbard, Alpha Pi chapter at the University of Minnesota; and Clifford Richards, Alpha Mu chapter at Iowa State college.

A special delegation of visitors from Grand Forks will come to Fargo to visit Phi chapter after the completion of the installation, Donald Arthur, president, announced today. National President Lasher will return directly to Athens without a stop in Fargo after the ceremonies at the university.

KAPPA DELTA PI HOLDS ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Nineteen students of the school of education were elected to membership in the Kappa Delta Pi, honorary educational fraternity, at a five o'clock meeting of the group in the faculty-alumni club rooms last Tuesday.

Officers were elected for the coming year. New executives include, Madeline Kaiser, president; Harvey Melby, secretary-treasurer, and Agnes Mohr, historian.

A banquet and initiation will be held in May for the new members.

Over Three Fourths N.D.S.C. Students Working Part Time

Employment Bureau Appeals To Fargo Residents For Miscellaneous Jobs

"Over 75% of our students depend upon part time work as an aid to their presence in college," states Mrs. Psyche Gooden, head of the college employment bureau. "Odd jobs, after-school employment and in a few cases permanent positions among residences and business places in Fargo and Moorhead result in a means of a higher education for this big percentage of North Dakota State college students."

"Some difficulty has been experienced by the bureau in obtaining work for such a huge number of applicants," states Mrs. Gooden. "The past winter has been a hard one for the working student and unless immediate employment can be found several men and women seeking a degree will be forced to discontinue attendance for the remainder of the spring term."

"Many students registered in the bureau are experienced in special types of work. In addition there is a ready supply of persons eager to do small jobs and errands about the city homes and stores. Employers seeking student workers can be assured of securing young men and women who are honest, refined, courteous and who come from some of the best homes in North Dakota and western Minnesota. Work done by members of the college student employment bureau is guaranteed as the finest type."

In attempting to find employment for students, Mrs. Gooden has sent 500 letters of application to the Moorhead-Fargo business house and 3000 letters to city homes. Students are capable of any work including stenography, typing, bookkeeping, saleswork, clerking, merchandising, meat cutting, painting, carpentering, oil station work plumbing draughting, electrical work, barbering, janiting, cooking, baking, waiting, dish washing, ushering, nursemaid work, tutoring and numerous other tasks.

RETIRING OFFICERS FETE COMMISSION MEMBERS

Members of the new student commission were entertained by retiring members at dinner in the Waldorf hotel, 6:30 Tuesday evening.

Arrangements were in the hands of Mary Powers, retiring social commissioner. Erling Thorson, retiring president, acted as toastmaster. Included in the program were installation and instruction of the new members.

Y Has First Faculty Student Entertainment

Faculty Members And Students
In Engineering Are YMCA Guests

At a first of a series of faculty-student mixers, the college Y. M. C. A. Wednesday evening entertained faculty members and students of the school of engineering, in the Y gymnasium between the hours of 7:30 and 8:30.

About 150 men were present. A program was given by the various departments of the school of engineering. Dean R. M. Dolve opened the program with a short talk on the opportunities presented to college men students by the "Y" and its work. Members of Atelier Chat Noir, architect's club, gave impersonations of faculty members; members of the local branch of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers staged a harmonica contest; and Otto Woodward, pianist, was presented by the mechanical engineering department. The remainder of the entertainment consisted of card playing. Coffee and doughnuts were served.

Dudley Bayliss, "Y" secretary, was in charge of the mixer. Faculty members and students of the school of agriculture will be entertained at the next mixer, which will be held next Wednesday evening.

Club Players Stage "Justice" As Final Drama This Season

Cast Gives Successful Program
In Little Country Theater;
Bender Directs Cast

With the presentation of "Justice," four act tragedy by John Galsworthy, Tuesday night, the Edwin Booth dramatic club of North Dakota State college completed a successful dramatic program for the year. The cast was directed by Alice M. Bender with A. G. Arvold, supervising.

A plea for social justice is presented in the drama. Hazel Swanson, Fargo, as Ruth Honeywell, and Grant McCullough, Fargo, as Falder, who is convicted of forgery, did fine work in the leading roles. Miss Swanson nicely retained an emotional quality essential to her part. In the third act, a prison scene, McCullough did an especially fine piece of work acting the whole scene in pantomime.

The entire second act was devoted to a session in an English courtroom. Leonard Gilles, Fargo, as Cleaver, a shrewd attorney, and Clifford Swanson, Fargo, as Frome, Falder's counsel, were effective in interpreting roles of rival lawyers. Lester Wyman, Westhope, as Cokeson, played one of the important roles with considerable feeling.

Included in the supporting cast were: Selden Catlin, Arthur; Gerald Garlid, Cooperstown; Anthony Faber, Bismarck; Donald Lawrence, John Dixon, Robert Benton, Gerald Stevens, Frederick Anderson, Lyle Phillips, Robert Parrott and Kenneth and Maitland Wyard, Fargo—G. G.

First Woman Editor Dies Monday Evening

Carrie Dolphin Edits Bison As Major Activity On Campus

Carrie Dolphin, first woman editor of a North Dakota State publication, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. M. C. Holt, Monday. Miss Dolphin was the editor of the 1926 Bison.

While a student here she was prominent in campus activities, being an active member of Phi Kappa Lambda sorority, now Alpha Gamma Delta, editor of the Bison in 1926, co-company sponsor, member of the Art club and on The Bison and Spectrum, college paper, for two years.

She was on the staff of The Fargo Forum the summer of 1927, leaving when she became ill. She returned as a feature writer in 1929 and that fall went to Chicago, where she became associated with the Chicago Herald and Examiner, doing social news and feature stories from the Gary, Ind., bureau.
