Women Vote On Proposed Revision To Constitution of Women's League

Women's Senate Would Have Approximately 17 Under New Plan

NEED 210 AFFIRMATIVES

Governing Body Has Only 12 Members Under Old System

Women students on the campus this week are voting on Article 4 of the constitution of the Women's league. The ballots were mailed from the Dean of Women's office the first of the week. "We are particularly anxious to receive at least 210 affirmative votes before next Tuesday in order that the newly organized Senate may have its picture taken for the 1933-Bison," said Miss Dinan today. To date 118 affirmative votes have been cast.

Under the proposed revision the Women's Senate would be composed of the following: women members of the Student Commission; members of the Cosmopolitan club; members of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet; member of the Senior Staff; the member of Panhellenic who is next in line for the presidency of the association; the presidents of the Ceres hall club, W. A. A., Home Economics club, Art club, Freshman commission, and the presidents of the six sororities. The Dean of Women shall act as an ex-officio member.

At the present time the Senate is composed of twelve members consisting of two chosen from each college class, two from the high school and two members chosen at large.

Every woman on the campus automatically becomes a member of the Women's League on matriculation. On most campuses this organization is one of the strongest women's groups.

Band Gives Varied Program Yesterday During Convocation

Putnam Directs "Youth Triumphant" As Feature Number On Program

A highly varied program was presented by the Gold Star Concert band under the direction of Dr. C. S. Putnam in convocation Thursday morning. Numbers presented ranged from the stately "Hymn and Processional" by Carl Busch to the farce "The Band Didntstrick."

Featured on the program was the overture, "Youth Triumphant," by Henry Hadley which is the national high school class B contest number for 1932. This the band played with an unusual understanding of the spirit of the composition. Their "Juba Dance" proved interesting with the ever fascinating negro rhythm. The whole program was a finished product showing the musical appreciation of the band members.

The complete program presented is as follows:

North Dakota Hymn, Foley-Putnam; The Conquerors, Drumm; Overture, Youth Triumphant, Hadley; Hymn and Processional, Busch; A Cullud Bahbaque, Ham Trombone, Fillmore; Morceau, Midsummer Night's Serenade, Albeniz Op. 232; A Chinese Episode, The Lady Picking Mulberries, Kelley; Juba Dance, Dett; The Yellow and the Green, Minard-Putnam.

Sorority Plans Service

For its annual candlelight service, members of Omicron chapter of Sigma Alpha Iota have arranged a program of organ, vocal, and string numbers to be given at 4 p. m. Sunday in St. Marks English Lutheran church. The program is open to the public.

EIGHT ORIGINAL ONE-ACT PLAYS PRODUCED

Eight original one-act plays were produced by members of the class in advanced play production last Tuesday evening in the Little Country Theater.

The plays and their authors are: The Only Way Out, Jeannette McComb; The Family Doctor, June Kremer; Mei, Mei, Deborah Ekrem; True Politeness, William Maloney; Number 13, Clifford Bowman; One Dark Moment, Marie Wilds; Paid Interference, Anne Heiberg; and Oh Ossia, Emily-belle Craig.

Novel Parties Are Arranged By Three Mens Greek Groups

Gamma Rhos, Alpha Tau Omega Group Have Joint Affair; Delta Taus Hosts

Two novel parties will command the social limelight this evening when the "Agrato" and the George Washington dancing parties are given, the former by Alpha Gamma Rho and Alpha Tau Omega pledges and the latter by Delta Tau Epsilon.

The "Agrato," a name formed from the combination of the fraternity letters, is an institution never known before on North Dakota State college campus since it is a party given jointly by the two fraternities.

For this affair Festival hall will be decorated in keeping with a cannabillistic theme and the Campus Rounders will play jungle tunes for the dancing, after which the party will go to Ceres hall. There lunch will be served in cabaret style and a program of vocal and instrumental music, featuring a medley of songs of Alpha Gamma Rho and Alpha Tau Omega fraternities, will be given.

Chaperoning this party are Mr. C. A. Sevrinson, Mr. C. F. Monroe, Mr. C. E. Kellogg, Mr. George P. Goodearl and Mr. Victor Sander.

Committees that have been arranging the Agrato party, under the direction of Howard Renwick, Alpha Tau Omega pledge, and Albert Herner, Alpha Gamma Rho, are: decorations—Childs Hallenberg, Howard Mitchell, and Arnold Chamberlin, Alpha Tau Omega, and George Sullivan, Gordon Wallace and Percy Larson, Alpha Gamma Rho; entertainment—Dale Iverson, Alpha Tau Omega, and Alfred Garnaas, Alpha Gamma Rho; programs—Robert Miller, Alpha Tau Omega; frappe—Wendell Schollander, Alpha Tau Omega, and Carl Freeman, Alpha Gamma Rho; refreshments—Howard Renwick, Alpha Tau Omega, and Wilfred Plath, Alpha Gamma Rho; furnishings—William Stewart, Alpha Tau Omega, and Walter Altenbernd, Alpha Gamma Rho. The finance committee for Alpha Tau Omega fraternity is Horace Spaulding and Guy Springer.

Guests will include Prof. and Mrs. O. A. Barton, Miss Pearl Dinan, and many alumni of each fraternity.

The George Washington party will be held in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium which will be decorated in colonial style. Dancing will be informal until 9 o'clock when program dancing begins.

Arranging the party for Delta Tau Epsilon is Gus Younger, who is being assisted in decorations by Walter Johnson, Everet Hougen, Elmer Bothun and Dean Vigen, and in programs by Carmen Hunt.

Chaperons for the social are Mr. Rudolf Ottersen and Mr. Leonard Sackett.

There will be a meeting of Gamma Tau Sigma in The Spectrum office at 5:30 p. m. Tuesday.

STUDENT COMMISSION GIVES COLONIAL BALL SATURDAY IN FESTIVAL

Governing Body Invites Faculty And Students To Costume For Event

As one of the principal features of the college observance of the Washington bicentennial, the student commission is sponsoring an all-college Colonial Ball to be held at 9 p. m. Saturday in Festival hall.

"Students are invited to appear in costume but they are not to stay away Martha Washington, and Mart Vogelers, social commissioner, today. "However, it will add to the attractiveness of the Ball if all students who can will come in costume," she added.

Decorations carrying out a colonial theme will be used in transforming Festival hall into the ball room of George Washington's home, Mt. Vernon. Music will be furnished by Bill Euren's Collegians.

A reception of guests by Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Whedon, faculty George and Martha Washington, and Marth Vogel and Alice Bender, students representing George and Martha Washington, will precede the dance. Faculty members and students will come attired as revolutionary notables. Among them will be, in addition to the Washingtons, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Arvold as Benjamin and Mrs. Franklin; Mr. and Mrs. Rudolf Otterson as James and Dolly Madison; Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hunter as John and Abigail Adams; Mr. and Mrs. Homer Huntoon as Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Hamilton; Miss Harriet Pearson as Betty Washington Lewis; Miss Ruby Grimes as Catherine Schuyler; Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Dice as John and Mrs. Marshall; Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Sevrinson as Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Boone; Ora Hammerud as Nelly Custis; and William Krause and George Coffey as Sevier and Robertson, Tennessee frontiersmen.

Among the features being arranged for the function is a minuet dance to be presented by Delta Psi Kappa, honorary physical education sorority. Those taking part will be Ora Hammerud, Margaret Fleming, Bernice Streit, Alpha Knight, Ellen Kelly, Minerva Streed, Irene Beyer, Myrna Ottinger, and Ruth Clement. Myrna Ottinger, sorority president, and Ruth Ballard, physical education instructor, will direct the feature. Additional features will be presented by the orchestra.

Dancing hours will be from 9 p. m. to 11:30 p. m. Miss Mary Powers, social commissioner, and Erling Thorson, commission president, are in direct charge of arrangements.

Y. W. C. A. Schedules Washington Program

World Fellowship Committee Plans Tea on Bicentennial Program

Members of the dramatic group of the Y. W. C. A. will present a feature number at the Washington Tea which is to be given by the Y. W. C. A. of the North Dakota State college in the library of the Y building on Monday, Feb. 22.

Other numbers on the program are as follows: A reading, LaVerne Dickinson; vocal solo, Rhoda Marr; reading, Alice Whitver; and a saxophone solo, Elizabeth Russell. Piano numbers will be given throughout the program by Virginia Landbloom and Marcella Ike.

The hours for the affair which is being sponsored by the world fellowship committee of the Y. W. C. A. will be from 3:30 to 5:30 p. m. Miss Pearl Dinan, dean of women, will preside at the tea table.

Stockwell Announces Formation Of Group To Continue Work

Wesley College At Grand Forks Withdraws Support From This Institution

A corporation to continue the work in religious education at this college after the withdrawal of financial support by the Wesley College School of Religion at Grand Forks has been formed by a group of Fargo citizens, it is announced by Walter L. Stockwell, president of the newly organized corporation.

Since 1921 the work of religious education at the college has been carried on by the Wesley college of Grand Forks. Recently Wesley college found it necessary to confine its work to the state university. It is in order that the work begun by this college may not be lost that the corporation has been founded, according to Mr. Stockwell.

This group has been incorporated under the name of the Fargo School of Religious Education. Its work, as stated in the articles of incorporation, will be "to continue the work of the Wesley College School of Religion established at the North Dakota Agricultural college in 1921 by maintaining and conducting a school of religious education in affiliation with said agricultural college, without sectarian bias and not for the promotion of any denominational interests."

Mr. Stockwell, in a statement given out today, said: "The trustees of this corporation are well known citizens of Fargo and represent the finest spirit of cooperation among members of different denominations and faiths. This is an absolute guarantee that the instruction will have no sectarian bias."

"It is intended that the instruction shall be in religious fundamentals which all agree are essential to stability of character in men and women. The work so far has been so satisfactory that it is unthinkable that it cannot be continued. It will be the purpose of the corporation to continue the school at present in the quarters now being used with the hope that within the next three or five years a suitable building may be erected. Meanwhile it will be necessary to appeal to the friends of the college and of this form of education to undertake such financial support as possible.

"We firmly believe that the citizens of Fargo will appreciate the value of this kind of education and will rally to its assistance. No one who thinks clearly fails to appreciate the fact that the stability of our social, economical, and political order is dependent upon men and women well grounded in fundamental religious convictions. We have no misgivings whatever about the work which will be carried on by this corporation through the services of Dr. Airheart. He has firmly established himself in the confidence not only of the college but of the community."

The men who have associated themselves together to form the corporation are Walter L. Stockwell, Harlow L. Walster, Arthur W. Fowler, Dr. Walter Lee Airheart, H. T. Alsop, H. F. Emery, William F. Kurke, J. F. McGuire, E. J. Schonberg, Col. M. F. Steele, Sam Stern, W. T. Stevenson, B. C. B. Tighe, Adam Spelletich, Lief Henning, M. B. Parsons, and W. C. Hunter.

Tableaux, Colonial Exhibit and Tea Features Program On Sunday

HUNTER HEADS COMMITTEE

Judge Burr Speaker at Convocation Terminating Observance Monday

Commemorating the 200th anniversary of the birth of George Washington, the college will open its three-day celebration of the bicentennial tomorrow afternoon, it is announced by Dr. W. C. Hunter, head of the committee in charge of arrangements.

The formal opening will take place when a dramatization of the federal constitutional convention of 1787 will be presented by members of the Lincoln Forensic club and the Sigma Delta Discussion club, at 3 p. m. in Festival hall. The program will be open to the public, according to Prof. C. A. Sevrinson, who is supervising work on this part of the festival.

A colonial ball will be given by the student commission in Festival hall at 9 p. m. Saturday. Students and faculty members are invited but not required to appear in costume to be received by Mart Vogel, official George Washington for the three days, and Miss Alice Bender, official Martha Washington. The ball is to simulate an affair at Mt. Vernon. As features, a minuet dance will be enacted by members of Delta Psi Kappa, physical education sorority, and additional features will be presented.

Student Directors Coach General Acts In 1932 Brevities

Blue Key Presents Fourth Edition of Bison Brevities On March 7 and 8

Under student direction the 1932 edition of the Bison Brevities is gradually taking shape. The dancing choruses with practice daily will be ready for the presentation when the curtain rises in Festival hall March 7. A second showing will be given on March 8.

Ben Boyden, a sophomore in chemistry, is in charge of the dancing choruses. Having done some professional work at Jamestown, where he makes his home, Boyden was employed by the management of the production. A military tap dance chorus under his direction will be one of the special features of the revue.

An athletic chorus coached by Jack Vincent promises to offer something in the way of variety. Vincent has been very successful in his dancing work having directed the winning chorus in the Alpha Kappa Phi Brevities act last year. Vincent is a member of Alpha Tau Omega and Blue Key fraternities.

The opening chorus will be under the direction of Frances Kingsbury and Ey Hammer. Both women have had considerable experience with dancing especially Miss Kingsbury who has taken the leading parts in several dance recitals given here each spring. She is a member of Kappa Delta sorority.

An original ballet written and directed by Frances Wright is to be one of the show's high spots. Miss Wright is a professional dancer and has been very active in dance recitals here. She will also direct an adagio number. Her sorority is Kappa Delta.

Jean Pote has been placed in charge of two short plays which will utilize much of the dramatic talent of the Brevities. Miss Pote has been outstanding in campus dramas having taken leading parts in several plays produced on the Little Country Theater stage. She is a member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority and Edwin Booth Dramatic club.

Washington

Every man has his own heroes. Every man finds his own significance in the character of the world's heroes. To one man, Washington is the warrior whose genius brought the rude armies of the infant Republic to victory over the forces of a mighty empire. To another he is the statesman who guided its destinies during the formative years, and whose counsels touching national policies must be implicitly followed, no matter what changes time may have wrought in the position of America among the nations of the world.

But whichever phase of his activity we consider, Washington stands as a supreme example of strength of character. The man who can stand alone, who can move steadily forward along the lines his judgment indicates, who in the end is able by sheer moral force to bend the most stubborn opposition to submit to his leadership—that man is truly great. When we see Washington holding his eternally-dissolving armies together by the force of his personality, inspiring them with his courage to endure unspeakable hardships, to face impossible odds, imbuing them with his own indomitable spirit until the ultimate victory was achieved; when we see him rallying the wavering faith of his countrymen in the ideals of liberty, even to the extent of frustrating the incipient plot of his troops to make him a king; when we see him, after the nation is established, daring to follow his own statesmanlike judgment in the face of universal public opinion, until he was burned in effigy in the streets of his own capital, yet by the relentless might that was in him carrying his policies to a successful conclusion; then, and not till then, do we have the full measure of the man.

Most people do not know, or have forgotten, that stanzas of Kipling's "If" were inspired by the character of George Washington, being written and published in connection with a story touching the President's dealing with Citizen Genet:

If you can keep your head, when all about you
Are losing theirs, and blaming it on you;
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
But make allowance for their doubting, too;
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken
Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you gave your life to broken,
And stoop and build them up with worn-out tools;
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
To serve your turn long after they are gone,
And so hold on, when there is nothing in you
Except the Will, that says to them, "hold on!"
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run,

A. D. 1750—G. Washington decides that life is just a bowl of cherries.

Yours is the earth, and everything that's in it—
And which is more, you'll be a Man, my son!

That was George Washington, whether serving as soldier or statesman.

The 11:30 Curfew

"Thou shalt not," says the college ruling and so at the eighth dance on our programs we gather our belongings and go looking for something else to do.

We fail to see what there is about a college rule that makes it traditional, unchangeable, and sacred—even when it's obsolete and makes us look a bit absurd to our University neighbors.

To be explicit: why should all parties end at 11:30 on Saturday nights? What is there about 11:30 that is more respectable than midnight? Why should we bother going to a dance following a basketball game and dance perhaps an hour and a half from 10-11:30 p. m.

Last weekend just such a ruling made us ridiculous in the eyes of visiting University students. No less than ten such made pointed comments to us about this 11:30 p. m. curfew.

Tomorrow night in conjunction with the Bi-centennial celebration the Student commission are sponsoring a Colonial Ball following the game. They are anxious that as many as possible appear in costume. Yet, we wonder how we can go to a game, get into a costume, get to the Ball, attend the reception and still do enough dancing to make it worth the effort.

We feel quite sure that if the Social Committee were to make a thorough investigation they would find few modern co-educational institutions with such regulations.

Before Christmas we called your attention to the 4 a. m. breakfasts at the University of Minnesota following the Military Ball. Just last week we noticed in a South Dakota exchange that dormitory women were being given 2:30 a. m. leave for special parties.

However, we are not asking for 4 a. m. breakfasts or 2:30 a. m. leaves—all we want is dancing until midnight.

A. S. C. E. PARTICIPATES IN EXHIBITION MONDAY

The American Society of Civil Engineers, though the newest organization on the North Dakota State college campus, is planning to participate in the Washington bi-centennial exhibition Monday, according to Christian Meckler, president.

Work of preparing a miniature exhibit to show the ability of Washington as an engineer is being cared for by a committee. Carl Hoyem is chairman of the committee, which was selected at the meeting of the group held Wednesday evening.

Plans for the year's schedule for the society were outlined at the Wednesday evening meeting by Prof. Harley Slocum, of the college civil engineering department.

Guests from the Phi Delta Theta, Alpha Psi Delta, and Beta Theta Pi fraternities at the University of North Dakota, spent last weekend at the Theta Chi house.

Professor Redman was a dinner guest at the Kappa Psi house Sunday.

James Foley, Marvin Kjelstrup and Milton Anderson, University of North Dakota, were guests at the Kappa Psi house last weekend.

William Lenhardt, alumnus of Alpha Sigma Tau, spent last weekend at the fraternity house.

Bison Defeat Sioux In Conference Tilt Last Friday Night

University Wins From State On Saturday Night With 39-22 Count

Indian signs went for naught at the new gym Friday night when it was conclusively demonstrated that it takes more than a tribe of invading Sioux warriors to stop a Bison stampede. The State college netmen successfully covered one of the remaining few laps to a North Central Conference championship title by defeating a visiting Nodak quintet by a 31 to 19 count.

It must have been a potent brew that Medicineman Clem Letich prepared in the Sioux camp overnight for the vanquished Tribe returned to the non-conference game Saturday evening to sink a total of 39 arrows in the tough hide of the Bison while only 22 Redskins were trampled by the Herd.

McKay Leads Attack

The conference game was featured by the brilliant defensive work of the Bison who were led by Viv McKay, star guard from Marion, North Dakota, Walter Olson, forward, held the giant Nodak center, Ted Meinhover, reputed threat man for the U., to a total of three points.

Closely following McKay in game honors comes Don Arthur Mandan forward, who contributed 12 points to the Bison cause with spectacular long shots to give the yellow and green netmen a comfortable edge shortly after the half time period. When the gun sounded for the recess the Bison maintained a 12 to 9 lead.

Hardly less effective was Bob Weir, Leo Thomasson and Walt Olson, each displaying a splendid floor performance.

For the University Felber and Dablow caused the Bison greatest trouble. Felber annexed 8 points for the Sioux.

Second Game Ragged

Coach Leonard Saalwaechter started his entire second string line-up in the Saturday game. Taking advantage of their less impenetrable opponents the Nodak five launched into a scoring orgy that reached a 26 to 6 tune at the half. At the start of the second period "Saaly" inserted his first string, lacking only Walt Olson who was on the bench with a sprained ankle suffered

State Riflemen Win From U. In Match

Bison Outscore Sioux Twenty-Six Points In Friday Range Match

The North Dakota State college rifle team successfully defeated the University of North Dakota marksman in a shoulder to shoulder match on State's rifle range last Friday. The margin of victory was twenty-six points, State's total being 662 and the University's 636.

Five shots were fired by each competitor on one prone, one kneeling, and one target standing. Thus, the highest possible total score that could be shot was 150. Lawrence Ryan, Otto Wollhowe and Elmer Bothun of the State college rifle team each fired a 50 in the prone position.

Firing records are as follows:

BISON	Pr.	Kn.	St.	T'tl
Lawrence Ryan	50	47	42	139
Ed Comm	48	46	42	136
Otto Wollhowe	50	42	40	132

the previous night. With George Fairhead at Olson's forward berth, the Bison outscored and outplayed the invaders for the remainder of the game but were unable to overcome the decisive lead established by the U. quint.

In this clash there were no outstanding performers although Viv McKay at guard proved high point man for the Bison with a total of six points. Meinhover and Felber were the University mainstays.

BISON ENGAGE BUNNIES IN LAST HOME BATTLE TOMORROW AT 7:30 P.M.

Quintet Tries For Victory To Climb Conference Championship

With utter hopes of clinching the championship of the conference, the Bison basketball team will meet the strong South Dakota State college team on Saturday evening at 7:30.

Game 7:30 Saturday

The game was formerly scheduled for Friday but due to improper train connections it was necessary to change the date to Saturday, and play in Grand Forks on Friday. By playing in Fargo on Saturday the South Dakota team will be able to depart for home on the same day while they would otherwise have to stay over in Grand Forks until Sunday.

Due to the fact that the Colonial Ball is being held on the same night, the game will start at 7:30.

South Dakota State recently surprised sports writers by defeating South Dakota university. The Bison were extended to the limit in both of the engagements with the Coyotes so a close game can be anticipated for tomorrow night.

If Coach L. T. Saalwaechter can guide his team to a victory over the powerful Jackrabbit quintet, he will have brought the championship to the Bison stronghold for the first time in many years.

During this week, the team has been working hard in order that they might be able to show the best form of the season against the Jackrabbits. The over-confidence bug has not crept into the Bison camp and they are totally aware of the fact that they have two extremely worthy opponents to combat before they lay aside the Green and Yellow suits for another season.

Baby Bison Defeat Sioux Yearling 38-29

Coach Lowe Uses Entire Squad For Initial Encounter With Sioux

Showing the same supremacy on the basketball court as they exhibited on the gridiron, the North Dakota State college freshmen decisively defeated the Sioux yearlings last Saturday afternoon in the new physical education building by the score of 38-29.

The difference in the score does not indicate the superiority of the Baby Bison for Coach Bob Lowe chose to use his entire squad throughout the game. With but eight minutes of the first half of the game being played, the starting lineup gained a 11 to 3 advantage. From this point on frequent substitutions marred the effective team play of the Bison yearlings.

Herman Witasek was the only Sioux cager who was able to penetrate the strong yearling defense in an effective manner. He led both teams in scoring honors with a total of 19 points. Tommy Crouse and Homer Stevens were the only other Sioux freshmen able to score from the field.

The entire State college squad performed in a capable manner but Bud Marquardt, Lyle Stinson, Grant Mickelson and Acey Olson led the attack in scoring and defensive play.

Marquardt and Olson tied for scoring honors with ten points each. Mickelson played an excellent game at his guard position and left his duties long enough to count six points, while his running mate, Stinson, proved exceptionally effective on the defense.

These two strong freshman teams will clash again next weekend during the second series of events at the University.

FRAPPE AND WAFERS
Leeby's
We Make The Good Kind

Between Halves

By EVERETT WALLUM

We have been questioned considerably of late by those doubting that a win for the Bison Saturday would bring us our first undisputed North Central conference championship. Nevertheless, such is indeed true—unless you want to run in the cross-country championships.

It is a more or less popular belief that Bison football and basketball teams of 1924, 1925 and 1926 had things their own way. Bison teams during those years were unusually strong but there was always something to interfere with a clear title.

THE BASKETBALL TEAM OF 1925 HAD AN EXCELLENT RECORD AND A POWERFUL TEAM BUT, AS USUAL, THERE WAS A COLORED GENTLEMAN IN THE PULP. THAT NEMESIS WAS CREIGHTON, THEN THE MOST POWERFUL INSTITUTION IN THE CONFERENCE. THE BLUE JAYS TOOK A PAIR TO CINCH THE HONORS. THE BISON GOT SECOND.

The next year, with Creighton considerably weakened, the Bison were conceded the best team. Something again turned up to thwart Red Blakely & Co., however. This was a ruling that a team had to play every other team in the conference at least once. Creighton, despite protests, refused to schedule a game with the Bison, this despite the fact that the Blue Jays were conducting a nationwide "Come to Creighton" campaign that year. As a result the title was awarded Morningside. The Bison beat the Maroons at Sioux City, 23 to 17.

The 1925 football season did give the Bison a championship but, far from being undisputed, two others were tied for honors. The three leading teams were the Bison, Creighton and Nebraska Wesleyan, the latter two no win other conferences. All were undefeated.

IF THE LOOP MEMBERSHIP WERE THE SAME THEN AS IT IS NOW THE BISON WOULD HAVE A FORMIDABLE SPORTS RECORD FOR THE YEAR 1925-26, TAKING UNDISPUTED CHAMPIONSHIPS IN BOTH MAJOR SPORTS.

In years previous to the banner season mentioned above, the principal Bison stumbling stone was State college of South Dakota. We hope the Bunnies are a little more respectful towards our pennant aspirations Saturday.

Playing for the last time on the home floor are five seniors, three of whom, Thomasson, Nordstrom and Olson, have been playing more or less regularly all season. Out of respect to these as well as Seitz and Fairhead, fans should turn out in full force tomorrow.

Sigma Tau Delta held its regular bi-weekly meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Sackett Sunday evening, Feb. 14. Manuscripts were read by Mr. Sackett, Mary Healy and Edward Hansen.

Miss Hannah Etelson, Hatton, and Miss Mildred Faulkenger, Grand Forks, University students, were down for the Bison-Nodak games over the weekend. They are members of Delta Zeta sorority.

Intramural Hockey League Successful According To Conmy

Estimated That Eighty Students
Played Regularly; Sixty
Played Full Time

That the inauguration of an intramural hockey league was a decided success, is the opinion of Capt. J. B. Conmy, hockey tutor, in a statement made by him today.

"If for no other reason than that a large number of students obtained good, healthful, outdoor exercise, the campus hockey league was a success," Capt. Conmy says. "It is estimated that eighty students played regularly throughout the schedule, while at least sixty more got in some play. Considering that the hockey player breathes in pure, clear air, and does not fill his lungs with dust and dirt, he is obtaining maximum benefit from his exercise.

"The fact that weather conditions made for a late start, which necessitated a very concentrated schedule, detracted a little from the attractiveness of the league play. The development of defense players and goal tenders was most remarkable.

"Sportsmanship predominated. Hockey is a rough game, and can be a very 'dirty' game. No instances of deliberate 'dirtiness' were noted throughout the playing of the schedule.

"The high light of the entire schedule was the spirit shown by Alpha Gamma Rho. Without a player of prior experience; with a team of men who could just skate—and no more; with a severe licking staring them in the face at every start, they played their schedule through, did not forfeit a game, took their defeats like men, and left after their last game asking that the league be continued next year so that they could have opportunity to avenge some of their losses of this year."

GOLDEN GLOVE BOUTS FOLLOW BASKET TILTS

Unless a proposed high school basketball tournament is scheduled to use the physical education building main floor during the coming week, a number of Golden Glove bouts will be fought off in the days following the South Dakota State game, Lt. Fay Smith said today.

Many promising aspirants are in tip-top shape for fighting and are willing to pit their chances for college titles at any opportune time, Lt. Smith says. Selection of winners in each weight class will be a haphazard thing until the elimination tournaments are completed.

Both North Dakota and South Dakota university boxing teams are to be contested by the Bison within the next few months. Regular tournaments on the North Dakota State college campus will be begun soon to prepare the college scrappers for their serious competition later on.

Sigma Delta will hold its regular meeting Sunday at 6:30 in the Graver hotel dining room.

SIDNEY LANDON COMES HERE FEBRUARY 24 AS LYCEUM SERIES NUMBER

Impersonator Gives Characterization of Literary Figures On Program

Sidney Landon, well-known character impersonator, will appear on the twenty-first annual college lyceum series in Festival hall, Wednesday, Feb. 24. This is the fourth number of the current series.

Faithful reproductions of Mark Twain, Josh Billings, Victor Hugo, Bill Nye, Longfellow, Thackeray, Tennyson, Kipling, Holmes and other are accredited to Mr. Landon. Made up with wigs and grease paints, he then goes ahead in the process of covering up his own identity, by quoting from the men impersonated. One of Mr. Landon's most popular presentations is of Mark Twain making his historic birthday speech. Humorous readings by F. H. Smith, James Whitcomb Riley, and Bill Nye are favorites with him. Poems by Rudyard Kipling, Poe and Longfellow are also frequently included on his repertoire.

Of the characters he impersonates and of those whose works he reads, Mr. Landon knew Riley, Twain and F. Hopkinson Smith personally. Because he has been in close contact with these literary men and studied their surroundings and cultural backgrounds, Sidney Landon is able to add a new dignity to the art of impersonation. Aided by interviews with relatives of these famous personages, plus a vivid imagination, Mr. Landon is able to give realistic interpretations to his "Great Literary Men," which affords a popular and unique intellectual diversion.

All students of the college will be admitted to this performance upon presentation of their registration cards.

YVONNE FLEURY SPEAKS TO GERMAN ORGANIZATION

Speaking on "Life in German Switzerland," Miss Yvonne Fleury of the foreign language department addressed the German club at its regular meeting Thursday evening, Feb. 18, in the college Y. M. C. A.

Miss Fleury, whose home was in French Switzerland, has studied and taught in the German portion, making her well acquainted with that district. Other parts on the program were a story told by Harold Lundgren, "The Erl King," read by Jeannette Hooper, and a German dialogue given by Miss Luella Anderson and Miss Fannie Zimmerman.

Amendments to the constitution of the organization were discussed and voted on and the meeting was adjourned.

TROWBRIDGE SPEAKS TO CHEMISTS' CLUB

Dr. P. F. Trowbridge of the North Dakota State college experiment station was the feature speaker of the evening at the regular monthly meeting of the college Chemists' club held last night.

A regular business meeting, with John Rooney presiding, preceded Dr. Trowbridge's talk, which dealt with the relations between the work of the experiment division with the field of chemistry.

THREE DAY CELEBRATION OPENS WITH CONVENTION

ed by the orchestra. Mary Powers, social commissioner, and Erling Thorson, commission president, are in direct charge of arrangements for the function.

The college will entertain Sunday, Feb. 21, with a series of exhibits portraying the life of Washington and the life of colonial times. They will be on display in Old Main at 3:30 p. m. While some guests are viewing the exhibits, others will be watching tableaux of Washington's life, given by the Edwin Booth Dramatic club under the direction of A. G. Arvold and Alice Bender. Before departing the guests will be served a colonial tea by the school of home economics in the Lincoln Log cabin, which will be converted into a home economics kitchen by Phi Upsilon Omicron, home economics sorority. Miss Harriet Pearson and Audrey Medley are directing the exhibit work.

A convocation at 9:40 a. m. on Monday, Feb. 22, will mark the termination of the celebration. It will open with an impersonation of the picture, "Spirit of '76", with Doctor C. S. Putnam's Gold Star band playing a march composed by Sousa and dedicated to Washington as an accompaniment. A tableau, "George and Martha Washington at Home", will be second on the program. The band will again play, this time a medley, "Music of Washington's Time". Following this, a short concert, "Washington First of All", will be presented by a mixed chorus of fifty voices, under the direction of Homer Huntoon and Ada Blakeslee.

Judge A. G. Burr of Bismarck will then present the address of the morning, with "George Washington" as his subject. A final tableau will be offered, and the program will close with the Gold Star band playing. Dean A. E. Minard is in charge of arrangements for the convocation.

Assisting Dr. Hunter on the bicentennial committee are Prof. A. G. Arvold, Dr. H. L. Walster, Miss Harriet Pearson, Ora Hammerud, and Donald Lawrence.

STUDENT GROUP GIVES ACROBATIC EXHIBITION AT UNIVERSITY GAME

M. Mattingly Directs Fourth Consecutive Program Friday Night

For the fourth consecutive year, a group of North Dakota State college students presented a program of acrobatic entertainment between halves of the conference game with the University of North Dakota in the new physical education building Friday night. The program was staged under the direction of Meredith Mattingly, senior in architecture, who is in charge of several classes in acrobatic work.

Besides Mattingly the group of entertainers Friday night included Ben Boyden, Byron Tharaldson, Orville Isley, Leo Schwehr, Forrest Swisher, M. Lee, Paul Rosholt and Milton Samuelson.

With a large number of students enrolled, plans are being made for an extensive spring exhibition featuring various types of acrobatic and dancing entertainment. One of the features of the show will be stunts by a comedy team including Byron Tharaldson, Forrest Swisher, Milton Lee, Paul Rosholt and Milton Samuelson. A tap dance chorus of women has been organized by Ben Boyden, sophomore in chemistry. The group includes Myrna Ottinger, June Freeden, Irma Jane Hanley, Ruth Hartman, Bernice Streit, Ev Hammer, Lois Rudrud, Lewistia Hanley, Ruth Clemens, Eunice Conlon, Mary Healy, Evelyn Davis and Eunice Lund.

A pyramid act will be staged by a group of women students under the direction of Mattingly. These girls are: Ellen Kelly, Lorraine Scribbins, Eunice Lund, Minerva Streed, June Freeden, Dorothy Lockwood, Bernice Streit, Georgina Brindle, Beatrice Bowman, Louise Barton, Ruth Hart, Frances Hedner, Theodora Huntley and Ruth Hartman.

A class of 20 men is active in tumbling work directed by Mr. Mattingly. Students enrolled in the class are: Melvin Earley, Robert Miller, Albert

BALES SPEAKS ON "HOME LIFE IN ENGLAND"

The Tryota club, an organization for sophomore and freshman girls in home economics, held its regular meeting Feb. 17 in the Y. W. C. A. After the regular business meeting Dean Alba Bales spoke on "Home Life in England." Elizabeth Russell played a saxophone solo.

Sigma Delta, national discussion club, will hold its regular bi-weekly meeting in the dining room of the Graver hotel, Sunday evening at 6:30. Henry Horton, recently returned from Japan, will lead the discussion on life in Japan.

Ruemmele, Clifford Orvedahl, Ward Dwight, Forrest Swisher, Milton Samuelson, Paul Rosholt, Douglas Frazee, Halley Broderson, Ole Rice, Byron Tharaldson, Kenneth Hanson, Alfred Bordeleau, Leo Schwehr, Lloyd Moore, Orville Isley, Milton Lee, Nestor Hensler and Earl Jennings.

The first acrobatic act presented between halves at the university game was in 1929 when Meredith Mattingly and Cy Lonsbrough presented a group of acrobatic stunts. The following year tumbling became a regular activity of the college Y. M. C. A. with Mattingly as instructor, through the influence of Rudolf Otterson, at that time secretary of the organization. Later tumbling was incorporated into the regular work of the athletic department.

DEPTH SOUNDERS FOR AIRCRAFT

WITH the application of electricity to aircraft instruments, another chapter was written in the annals of air transportation. To-day's ship is not only swifter but safer and more dependable. Modern depth-sounding devices indicate instantly the height of the ship above the ground surface. A unique feature of General Electric's recently purchased monoplane is the almost completely electrified instrument panel.

Intermittently operated air whistle is directed downward. The echo is picked up in a receiving megaphone, and the sound is heard through a stethoscope. The elapsed time between the sound and the echo determines the height. Tests show that water, buildings, woods, etc., produce echoes that are different and characteristic.

Besides developing a complete system of aircraft instruments, college-trained General Electric engineers have pioneered in every electrical field—on land, on sea, and in the air.
