Dean Gives Figures On Term's Absences

Total of 1,122 Students Incur No Penalized Absences Last Fall Quarter

A total of 1,122 North Dakota State college students were without any absences incurring penalty during the last fall term and under the new absence system inaugurated on this campus last fall, according to figures just released from the office of the dean of men. Under the "no-cut" plan during the 1930 fall term, there were 656 students without any unexcused absences.

The new plan permits students to obtain two unexcused absences in each course without penalty. Not a single unexcused absence without penalty was permitted under the old system.

During the 1930 fall quarter, a total of 2.03 unexcused absences per student was recorded. Figures for the last fall term show that each student incurred 1.76 absences above the two permitted cuts.

The figures compiled for the last term indicate that the seniors have the best regard for the new system. Only .275 penalized absence per student was recorded for the senior class. Juniors had .481 penalized absences each; sophomores, .893, and freshmen, .939.

There were 196 students during the last quarter without a single absence, excused or unexcused. A total of 264 students had no unexcused absences.

For the last fall term and the 1930 fall quarter, the general institutional scholastic average remained the same, 80.2, an indication that the new system apparently caused no change in scholastic attainment, records of A. H. Parrott, registrar, show.

In addition to the marionettes Mr. Sarg has many other interests. Just recently his sketches have been appearing in the Saturday Evening Post and other national publications.

According to report his talks are informal and individuals in the audience are frequently used for subjects. It is expected that some of the time will be given over to an explanation of the marionette performances.

Bison Gain Lead In Conference Race By Two Weekend Basketball Tilts

State Defeats Defending Champions In Game at Vermillion Saturday Night

CAGEMAN PLAY S. D. U. AGAIN THIS SATURDAY

Trouncing the Morningside Maroons by a 32 to 17 score at Sioux City Friday night and then upsetting the defending conference champions, South Dakota university, at Vermillion, by a 19 to 17 count in an overtime period Saturday night gave Coach Saalwaechter's Bison cagemen the undisputed lead in the North Central conference basketball race.

Bob Weir, lengthy Bison center, led his teammates to victory by annexing 16 points in the Friday game at Sioux City. The Morningside team was unable to cope with the Bison fast breaking offense and the North Dakota five turned in their second victory over the Maroons this season.

Coyotes First Conference Defeat

The Bison triumph over South Dakota university marked the first conference defeat for the Coyotes in four starts. The game was at no time entirely dominated by a single team. South Dakota obtained a five point lead but were forced to relinquish their advantage shortly before the half. The first period ended 12 to 11 for the invaders. The second was rough and exciting, the final gun finding the teams deadlocked at a 17 all count.

In the overtime period Nordstrom was replaced by Fairhead who tossed in the only score of the extra five minutes to supply the necessary margin for a third straight conference victory.

McKay and Nordstrom were the Bison defensive pillars while Arthur was the greatest offensive threat. Walker and Hoppel starred for the Maroons.

Bison Strong Title Contenders

North Dakota State's victories on their present tour will play an important part in the race for conference honors. Saturday they will meet the South Dakota Coyotes at the local gym. If they capture this clash they will have only to face the Nodak quintet in the remaining two conference meets.

Under Coach Saalwaechter's supervision the present Bison team possesses the greatest possibility of capturing the conference crown of the past several years.

Between Halves

By EVERETT WALLUM

It is too early yet to predict championships for the scrappy Bison basketball team but we believe one thing has been pretty well established: the Bison have the best defensive strength in the conference.

COACH SAALWAECHTER

This was shown here again Saturday when the local athletes held South Dakota university to 17 points after allotting Morningside the same total Friday evening. In the Coyote game the Bison showed a determination reminiscent of a few years back when a powerful troupe of Jackrabbits were turned back here 21 to 12 after the Bunnies defeated the University of N. D. 50 to 30 the night before.

It is something of a record holding Adkins, prize high scoring forward of the loop, without a goal from the field. Steve received a terrific jolt in his attempt to retain high honors.

REPORTS SAY ADKINS HAD TO GET UP FROM THE SICK BED TO PLAY. WE BET HE DIDN'T FEEL MUCH BETTER AFTER THE GAME.

If the crowd doesn't turn out for the home battle with the Coyotes next Saturday, there's just no interest in basketball. The Coyotes will come back snarling at the foe which rudely menaced their championship security.

Robert Weir, big Bison of the North, seems to enjoy southern grazing. Bob was high point man in each of the first two games. Morningside suffered most from his underbasket play, Robert annexing 16 points—just one less than the entire Maroon total. (yocal louth makes good).

George Fairhead, the lad whose sensational basket added considerably to the Bison peace of mind in the Coyote game, received just compensation for the broken leg he received on the same floor two years ago. At that he took a big chance in making that basket—what if his friends start calling him Dick Merriwell?

A COUPLE MORE BROKEN LIMBS AND THE BISON MAY COAST THROUGH IN EASY STYLE.

George is an ideal utility man. When things are going a little tough and there is need for fresh blood he's just the type to go in and break up a game.

That most people are eye-minded rather than ear-minded was the result of research conducted by Dr. M. Metfessel at the University of Southern California. Normal individuals, he determined, assimilate 65 percent of their knowledge through the visual organs and approximately 25 percent as the direct result of auditory experiences. The remaining 10 percent of one's knowledge is obtained through touch, sense and smell.

Germans Think Too Much

"American people have much more common sense than Europeans when they get through college," is what an exchange student of Temple university says. "People over there are always thinking, thinking, thinking—about philosophy, or some such thing. We have not many sports nor extra-curricular activities," she lamented. "I saw my first football game here. It was marvelous. Do you know what I thought they were doing when the players all stood together at the beginning of the game? I thought they were having a prayer."

No Inter-Fraternity Matches Until After Bison-Coyote Tourney

College Boxers Prepare For First Conference Meet On Feb. 12

There will be no Golden Gloves elimination tournaments at North Dakota State college, until after the Bison-South Dakota University fight tournament at Vermillion, Feb. 12, it was announced today by Lieutenant Fay Smith.

Rigorous training will be kept up by all prospective members of the team which will invade the ring of the South Dakotans next week. Challengers in each weight division will be chosen by Coach Smith before the boxing tourney.

Will Dedicate Gym

Another fight tourney has been added to the Bison schedule for 1932 with the acceptance of the invitation of the scrappers from Moorhead State Teachers' college to put on several bouts at the dedication of the new gymnasium at that school. The date of the completion and dedication of the new building is still indefinite.

With a number of contests scheduled, the Bison boxing team is still on the lookout for promising champions in the lightest class, the bantamweight and featherweight, Lt. Smith says. Strength in these two divisions would fill a needed gap in the present team.

Many Bouts Planned

After the South Dakota University imbroglio, boxing will be carried on in rapid style at the new physical education building, according to Coach Smith. In harmony with the most extensive intramural program in the history of the college begun this term, inter-fraternity boxing and elimination contests will be conducted almost nightly in order to aid the athletic program. The matches will prepare the fighters for the University of North Dakota matches here later on this term.

South Dakota State is still a prospective entrant in the North Central conference fighting race and plans are being pushed at that school for bouts with the University of South Dakota, according to information received here. Morningside will not enter a team.

Putnam Is Honored By Governor Shafer At Assembly Friday

Veteran Band Leader Receives Commission of Lieutenant Colonel On Staff

Twenty-nine years of service to North Dakota State college resulted in honor for Dr. C. S. Putnam Friday. At a special assembly of the cadet corps in the new physical education building at 4:15 p. m. the college's veteran band leader was presented an honorary commission of lieutenant colonel on Gov. George F. Shafer's personal staff.

The governor was represented personally by Col. George Russ, Fargo, commanding officer of the 352nd Infantry. The El Zagel Shrine Bugle and Drum corps also did honor to Dr. Putnam by presenting him with the insignia of his rank, the lieutenant colonel's silver leaves.

Assembled for the occasion were the entire cadet corps, members of the military staff at the college, cadet sponsors, and Dr. Putnam's Gold Star band.

Before the presentation of the commission to Dr. Putnam, special orders issued by Major E. A. Lathrop head of the college military department, were read: "The cadet corps has assembled today to do honor to one who has served this institution for 29 years. He has built up the musical part of this organization from a very small group, to a band which we are all proud of and which has set a high standard, not only in music but in its excellence in drill formation. The corps feels honored that it can turn out on this occasion to pay honor to Dr. Putnam, who has been selected by high governmental authorities for an appointment which he richly deserves."

While his Gold Star band played, Dr. Putnam was escorted to the line of military representatives by Hjalmar Johnson, cadet lieutenant, where Colonel Russ presented the commission signed by Governor Shafer and Robert Byrne, secretary of state. Following the presentation the cadet corps passed in review.

In line with Major Lathrop and Colonel Russ were: Dr. J. H. Shepperd, president of the college; Capt. E. A. Zipfel, Fargo, infantry reserve; Capt. George J. Jackson, Fargo, infantry, United States army; Ned Hinkle, president of the El Zagel Bugle and Drum corps; Richard Still, vice president of the corps, and members of the military staff of the college.

At A. C. 29 Years On Jan. 11 Dr. Putnam celebrated the 29th anniversary of his arrival at North Dakota State college. Several years after his graduation from a Chicago medical college he established a practice in Fargo but when his office was destroyed by fire in 1903 he affiliated with the college as an arithmetic instructor. It was in the spring of 1903 that he first organized the band which today has won recognition as a Gold Star band of 95 members.

While practicing the medical profession at Ada, Minn., some years before he set up his practice in Fargo, Dr. Putnam was named captain of I company, third regiment, Minnesota National guard. About five years ago he was given honorary membership in the Fargo-Moorhead Officers Mess. Recognizing his service to the college, Blue Key service fraternity presented him with a "doctor of service" degree in 1930.
