North Dakota State Places Second In Satisfactory Work

Johnston Covers Schools of Varied Range and Standard In Survey

North Dakota State is second in a list of 30 institutions sending students to the school of arts and science at the University of Minnesota who do satisfactory work, according to a report recently published by Dean J. B. Johnston, head of the school of arts and science.

The survey made by Mr. Johnston covers the period from 1922-1930. During that time 32 people were transferred to Mr. Johnston's school from this college, 55 per cent of them doing satisfactory work.

In his report Dean Johnston covers 30 schools of varied range and standard. Figures used are based only on the school of arts and science.

Four promotions in the college R. O. T. C. have been authorized by Major E. A. Lathrop, head of the military staff at the college.

Frank Seebart has been designated as colonel, and Hjalmar Johnson as a lieutenant-colonel. Norman Todd was selected as major, and Melvin Johnson was promoted to a captaincy.

Bison Debates With Concordia Students

Concordia College Meets State In Three Encounters Set For Next Week

Three community debates on the question, "Resolved, that congress enact legislation providing for the centralized control of industry," have been definitely arranged for next week by Donald G. Hay, instructor in public discussion. Concordia college representatives will be the opposition in each instance.

Gerald Stevens and Clifford Maloney will uphold the negative side of the question for North Dakota State college at Twin Valley, Minn., on Monday, Jan. 18, at 8 p. m. In the second debate Joseph Paulson and William Stewart will debate on the negative side at Frazee, Minn., Tuesday, Jan. 21, at 8 p. m. Leonard Gilles and Clifford Maloney will oppose Concordia before the Periscope club at the Fargo Y. M. C. A., Thursday, Jan. 21, at 8 p. m. Another exhibition debate between members of the North Dakota State college debate squad is also being arranged for the coming week.

In both of the Minnesota debates the audience will give the decision. Speeches will be twelve minutes in length with rebuttals scheduled for six minutes. At the Periscope debate each side will talk for forty minutes.

Wesley Bruns, president of Dacotah chapter of Alpha Zeta, national honorary agricultural fraternity, was its delegate to the Biennial Conclave of the organization held at Chicago, Illinois, in Dec. 29, 30 and 31. Thirty-nine chapters were represented at the meeting. Mr. Bruns is also a member of Phi Kappa Phi, honorary society, and Kappa Sigma Chi, social fraternity. He is a senior in the school of agriculture.

PRESIDENT SHEPPERD COMMISSIONS WOMEN AT MILITARY FORMAL

Misses Jane Canniff and Ethel Cone Receive Honorary Commissions

FOLLOWS GRAND MARCH

Committees Plan Unusual Lighting Effects For Party Scene In New Building

Inaugurating a new custom at the Military Ball this year, President Shepperd will commission an Honorary Lieutenant Colonel in addition to commissioning an Honorary Colonel as was done last year. Commissions this year will be presented to Jane Canniff, Honorary Colonel, and to Ethel Cone, Honorary Lieutenant Colonel.

Presenting of the commissions will immediately follow the grand march at 8:45 p. m. Miss Canniff has been selected by the Battalion staff to fill the vacancy of Honorary Colonel, left by Eleanor Burnett who is leaving school. She is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. Miss Cones' sorority is Phi Omega Pi.

"With the annual Military Ball only a week away, committees are working hard to make this one of the most successful formal affairs," said Malve McKeane, ball manager, today.

Unusual lighting effects will be used in the physical education building where the formal will be held on Jan. 23.

Flying Firecrackers

Whoops! The Reds are with us! For many nights now I have been thrown from my bed by the shocks vibrating from one end of the building to the other. I have torn wildly to the hall—only to behold men tearing recklessly up and down the hall in their pajamas peering in every corner, under every door, and over every transom. "What, what I pray you is the cause for all this commotion?" I ask them this two—yes, even three times, and finally I get my answer. In unison their voices chorus, "We protest this new non-resident ruling; we think it's lousy; we won't stand for it." After which remark, they chortle with glee and throw a bomb-sized firecracker over the nearest transom.

To prove that they are in deadly earnest the boys have taken to wearing red pajamas—and what is worse, they have secured several soap boxes and are holding meetings every night for the purpose of planning bigger and better ways to contest this ruling.

One earnest young Communist remarked to me as a parting thrust, "And what's more if the new non-resident ruling goes into effect—and they also keep these d---d fuzzy blankets—I certainly won't come back to school."

DOWN WITH FUZZY BLANKETS! DOWN WITH NON-RESIDENT RULINGS!

SCABBARD AND BLADE ELECTS FIVE MEN

Pledging services will be held at 4 p. m. today in the new armory for five newly elected members of Scabbard and Blade, honorary military fraternity. Hjalmar Johnson, captain of Scabbard and Blade, will be in charge of the services.

Those to be pledged at this time include: Melvin Johnson, Norman Todd, Edward Comm, Earl Grove, and Stanley Thompson.

Women's League Holds Organization Meeting Monday In L. C. T.

Organization Will Elect Ten Women To Membership In Women's Senate

An organization meeting of the Women's League will be held in the Little Country theater at 4 p. m. Monday, announced Dean Dinan today. At this time the personnel of the Women's Senate will be elected.

"On entering college every woman automatically becomes a member of the Women's League," said Miss Dinan today. "In the past the organization has met only once a year, but plans are under way now to have one meeting a term and we are anxious to have all college women present at this first meeting."

Comprising the Women's Senate are ten women chosen from the Women's League. Three are first chosen from each college class, the two having the highest number of votes being chosen for membership. These in turn elect two members at large from the four other running candidates.

In the past the organization has sponsored several campus projects including the installation of rest rooms for women.

In charge of arrangements is Torwald Thompson, assisted by William Theiss.

Alpha Sigma Tau announces the formal initiation of Captain Bart Conny in services held in the chapter house at 8 a. m. Sunday.

SPECTRUM TABULATION SHOWS NO ENROLLMENT FROM MOORHEAD HIGH

Only One State Student Considers Return Under New Fee Ruling

DATA GOES TO BOARD

Several Non-Resident Students Add Adverse Comments To Questionnaire

Tabulating of figures in The Spectrum Non-Resident Questionnaire was completed last night. Of the 85 Moorhead high school seniors filling out the questionnaires, 41 per cent would come to North Dakota State under the old ruling. Not one would pay $300. Only one of the college students voting would consider coming back next year under the new ruling.

Through the courtesy of S. G. Reinertsen, superintendent of the Moorhead high school, all seniors filled out the questionnaire. Non-residents were asked to answer these questions: Had you anticipated coming to North Dakota State next year? Would you come if the new non-resident ruling were in force? Would you come if the present non-resident fees were still in effect?

Only one of the students voting on the campus would consider coming back next year, but this individual thinks the rule unreasonable and unfair. Three were doubtful if they would come back here to school regardless of tuition fees or not. Twelve of those voting would enroll at the University of Minnesota.

These figures will be sent in tabulated form to the Board of Administration at Bismarck who have indicated they will meet next week to reconsider the ruling.

All students were asked to add personal remarks that a consensus of student opinion might be more accurately determined. The following are a few of the more varied ones gleaned from them:

"Does the board believe this rule is in line with the depression?"

"Does the Board think this is a Middle West Yale or Harvard?"

"North Dakota is receiving enough money in the state through board, clothes, etc., to satisfy its taxpayers, directly or indirectly."

"The University of Minnesota has a $10 non-resident fee. Do the officials believe North Dakota State is 10 times as valuable as the U. of Minnesota? Absurd!"

"It is silly and unfair. If other states would take the same attitude, North Dakota would produce few doctors and lawyers."

GAMMA PHIS TO HOLD OPEN HOUSE SUNDAY

Alpha Omicron of Gamma Phi Beta will hold the third of a series of open houses for campus fraternities on Sunday, January 16 when they entertain Delta Tau Epsilon and Kappa Psi between the hours of five and seven in the chapter house.

In charge of arrangements is Margaret Fleming assisted by Phyllis Tritchler and Eula Miller. The color scheme will be carried out in black and white. Mrs. Albert Birch will preside at the tea table from five to six o'clock, and Mrs. Rolfe Tainter from six to seven o'clock.

Misses Mary Powers, Miriam Narum, and Marcella Ike will present a musical program, assisted by Rhoda Marr, soloist.

At the next open house Gamma Phi Beta will be hostesses to Kappa Sigma Chi and Sigma Phi Delta.

Non-Resident Tuition

Results of the Spectrum Non-Resident Questionnaire taken this week were most satisfactory. It was interesting to observe that only one student would even consider coming back to North Dakota State under the new ruling.

We are grateful to S. G. Reinertsen, superintendent of the Moorhead high school, in helping us to determine the sentiment of the seniors under his direction. Not one of these who were anticipating enrolling here next year would come under the new ruling.

According to recent press dispatches it would seem that the Board of Administration will reopen the question next week and consider all protests at this time.

We are glad that they have consented to reconsider and we feel sure that when they investigate further the many sides of so important a question and give attention to all the formal statements of disapproval pouring in from all over the state that they will repeal the ruling which would be so evidently disastrous to all the institutions of the state.

Women's League

Perhaps one of the most important events scheduled for next week is the organization meeting of the Women's League on Monday in the Little Country Theater.

This organization is one of considerable strength on other campuses and has infinite possibilities here if all college women will only take an active part in its activities. There are projects at the present time that need the backing of just such an organization.

We would urge all women students on the campus to attend the meeting on Monday that they may become an active part of this organization.

Press Censorship

The following editorial was taken from the news bulletin issued weekly by the executive secretary of the National College Press association.

Inasmuch as recent surveys of the intercollegiate press situation have shown not only that a major part of that press is censored, but that it likewise seldom shows concerted action, associations such as the National College Press association are of particular importance at the present time. Through such associations, pressure can gradually be brought to bear upon the various administrations which are censoring college newspapers with the ultimate result that the college press in the United States will be able to drive straight into existing evils in the world of education without fear of cramping at the hands of a narrow censorship. Also, with such censorship gradually beginning to disappear, concerted drives by several college papers may be made to effect changes in existing features of the educational system, or to create new situations or systems.

The Columbia Spectator, because it has been treated with fairness and a true "hands-off" policy by the university administration has been able to criticize most violently where it has believed that such criticism has been warranted—and it will continue to do so. In the recent much-publicized football controversy which was opened by Spectator, changes in existing football conditions were brought about at Columbia whereas nothing could have been accomplished under a censored system. The value of concerted action was also illustrated during the same period when the New York University Daily News, after consulting with Spectator, launched a subsidiary campaign at that institution which brought about radical changes in football administration there.

It is my opinion that the greatest value of associations to bind together college newspapers is to present a strong front against censorship and against every feature of the educational system which may seem in error to a majority of the newspapers in such an association. Every college newspaper which does not belong to an active association in this field should bend every effort toward securing such membership at the earliest opportunity.—By Reed Harris, Editor-in-Chief Columbia Spectator.

Student Opinion

When I attended the dedication of the new gymnasium, the speakers stressed the fact that the building would enable a larger number to actually participate in basketball. However, as the situation now stands, two perfectly good courts are continually idle. In the afternoon the casual observer will see a surplus of cage enthusiasts crowded on the middle floor. The varsity and freshmen squads utilize all the desirable hours, so that there is little time left for the eager, yet less skilled men.

This situation could be remedied by tearing down one side of the bleachers; or at least one half of the south side. A little concentrated effort on the janitors' part would insure a hasty disposal and erection of the stands at opportune times. Then there is the possibility of high school boys helping, and thus gaining entrance to certain varsity games. They'd probably sneak in, anyhow. Perhaps there is a small expense involved, but not enough to make it a paying proposition to keep such fine floor space under cover. When several big games are to be held within a week, this dismantling process would not be the expedient course of procedure—but there are times when there are greater intervals between games. I don't want to be just another radical, but there must be a more efficient way. More athletics for a greater number!—W. E. S.

College Entertains Farmers, Homemakers At Annual Institute

Representatives From North and South Dakota, Minnesota Attend 33rd Meet

North Dakota State college and Fargo will be hosts to nearly 1,000 farmers and their wives coming from North and South Dakota and Minnesota, who plan to attend the Thirty-third annual Farmers' and Homemakers' week held at the college, Jan. 19 through Jan. 22.

A varied program has been arranged for the many visitors, according to W. C. Palmer, secretary of the Farmers' and Homemakers' week. Each day will mark a number of programs designed to aid the farmer and homemaker.

For the men guests there will be meetings of the Crop Improvement association; North Dakota Livestock Breeders' association; Holstein, Short-horn, Duroc Jersey breeder organizations. The annual convention of the North Dakota Beekeepers association, North Dakota Wool Pool and a meeting of the North Dakota Grimm Alfalfa association will be held during the week.

A three-day homemakers program has been arranged for the ladies by Dean Alba Bales of the school of home economics. Feature speakers include Miss Orinne Johnson of the Farmers' Wife magazine of St. Paul, Miss Lillian Cook, state librarian at Bismarck, and Miss Bales.

With an exhibition of wild colt breaking, Harry D. Linn., field representative of the Iowa Horse and Mule Breeders association, will be one of the feature workers of the first day of the meet.

Communities from every part of the state are planning to enter into the festivities of Neighborhood Day, Tuesday, Jan. 19. The different groups will put on plays and programs in friendly competition. Neighborhood Day, under the supervision of Prof. A. G. Arvold, founder of the Little Country Theater movement, has outgrown the experimental stage.

Featuring a sorority dog show and a co-ed milking contest, the Little International Livestock show will be held Thursday evening, Jan. 21. Other events of the college students' show include stunts and an orchestra, and the fitting and showing of horses and cattle (dairy and beef) swine, sheep and poultry by students enrolled in the school of agriculture. More than 100 entries are expected by Carl W. Roberts, Ege-

Between Halves

By EVERETT WALLUM

Probably it is a good thing Bison basketballs will not reopen their conference drive until January 29. Olson and Arthur should be ready by then.

Don't think Saalwaechter won't need the missing pair of forwards. January 29 is the opening of the annual southern trip during which three games are played in four days.

THIS JAUNT INTO SOUTH DAKOTA AND IOWA HAS ALWAYS BEEN THE FLY IN THE BISON CAGE OINTMENT. THEY HAVE ALWAYS BEEN ABLE TO CAPTURE ONE OUT OF THE THREE, OCCASIONALLY TWO, BUT NEVER ALL THREE. IF THEY COULD DO THAT THEY'D GET THE CHAMPIONSHIP.

Travel costs make it imperative that the Bison play thrice in four days. This gives a break to teams in the southern end of the loop who must meet only two quints in the northern journey.

We are yet unable to understand the results to date of the Cobber-Dragon series. Sliv Nemzek's quint holds a two to one margin over Cleve's Minnesota college champions. From what we've seen of the two teams Concordia is the better by considerable; surely if they always played the sort of game we witnessed Tuesday they should vanquish the Dragons with little trouble.

But against the Cobbers the Robinson brothers pop 'em in with devastating regularity; which tends to prove that hot basket shooting will beat any kind of offense. Knowing this, the fans flock to see the two Moorhead rivals tangle.

SOUTH DAKOTA STATE'S 40 TO 21 VICTORY OVER MORNINGSIDE SERVES NOTICE THAT THE BISON WILL HAVE A HARDER TIME THAN USUAL TAKING IN THE BUNNIES ON THE TRIP SOUTH.

The only material result of this game is virtual elimination of Morningside from championship consideration. We believe none of the other four teams will be eliminated until the last few games are played.

If anyone wants to dope the North Central champ, he's welcome. One might guess at the results but there isn't much to go on at this stage of play.

The entire situation, it seems to us, depends on Coach Hoy's Coyotes. Are they as good as last year, or have they slumped? If less effective than a year ago, and comparative showing indicates they are, they'll have to look to their laurels. The Bunnies have undoubtedly improved. Coach Letch's Sioux seem to be better with a strong list of reserves, and the Bison, with Olson and Arthur available, are admittedly above last year's quotation.

THE BISON, EVEN WITH THEIR GREAT ARNOLD-MILLER-BLAKELY TEAMS, HAVE NEVER WON UNDISPUTED POSSESSION OF THE CONFERENCE CAGE TITLE. A GREATER CREIGHTON OUTFIT NOSED THEM OUT IN 1925 AND INABILITY TO SCHEDULE CREIGHTON IN 1926 RESULTED IN MORNINGSIDE GETTING THE OFFICIAL CHAMPIONSHIP. THE BISON WERE RECOGNIZED AS THE BEST TEAM IN THE LOOP IN THE LATTER YEAR, HOWEVER.

At this banquet one master farmer of North Dakota will be honored in a portrait hanging ceremony, and the college judging teams will receive medals. H. G. Zavoral will talk on the Russian situation.

American Society of Civil Engineers May Install Chapter Here

Local Organization Seeks College Consent; Awaits Final National Approval

A new national organization, the American Society of Civil Engineers, may install a chapter on the North Dakota State college campus during the next few weeks, it was announced today by Prof. Waldo Smith of the civil engineering department.

With the election of officers and discussion of plans, organization work in the bringing of this society to the college was begun Tuesday afternoon by the architectural and engineering students instrumental in the movement.

Chosen as president of the petitioning organization was Christian Meckler, senior in the civil engineering department. George Toman was elected vice-president of the group. Horace Muller is secretary and William Watson is treasurer as a result of the balloting, Tuesday. Prof. Waldo Smith, who is a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers, was chosen faculty advisor.

The local organization is now awaiting formal consent of the college and final recognition from the national society for its charter, according to Professor Smith.

The function of the society is the promotion of interest in and the discussion of the problems characteristic of the civil engineering profession. There is stress placed on the relations of the problems of the civil engineer with those of the architects and of other engineers.

Next Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock, a second meeting of the local group is planned. The meet will be held in Room 22 of the Engineering building.

The Kappa Delta Mothers' Club has completed plans for a benefit bridge to be held Saturday at 2:30 p. m. in Festival hall. Mrs. Robert McGrath, president of the Mothers' Club, is in general charge.

Kappa Sigma Chi announces the formal initiation of William Thies, Fargo, and Greydon Owens, Englevale, at the chapter house on Sunday morning.

COBBER TEAM DEFEATS BISON BY 28-19 SCORE IN TUESDAY EVE GAME

Cobbers Start Game With 3-0 Lead; Score 11-8 At First Half

BISON DEFENSE IS STRONG

Hilde Stars for Cobbers; McKay And Nordstrom Show Nice Floor Work

A sure shooting invasion of Cobber netmen tipped the dope bucket to score a 28-19 victory over the Bison quint in an exciting fray at the new gym Tuesday night. The Concordia five took advantage of every opportunity to score while the Bison muffed a large share of their attempts at the basket.

Pat Hilde, the ambidextrous Cobber forward, started the scoring shortly after the opening play of the game with a one handed toss from the side and followed with a gift shot to give the Cobbers a 3-0 lead. The Bison continually peppered the hoop with shots but were unable to count enough to overcome the visitors lead. The half ended 11 to 8 for the boys from across the river.

Bison Rally

The second period found the Cobbers gradually increasing their lead with the Bison still consistently missing the ring. With two minutes to go Saalwaechter's charges launched a rally with the score 26-13 for Concordia. Two field goals by Fairhead and another by Nordstrom left the score 26-19 but the time was too short to enable the Bison to cut down the Cobber lead and the game ended as Hilde made another spectacular shot from the foul line.

Bison Defense Strong

McKay and Nordstrom contributed good floor strategy for the Bison while Nordstrom was successful in collecting scoring honors with seven points. Although the Bison offense was slightly ineffective the defense was strong and Concordia was seldom able to work the ball past the foul line. The entire Cobber five worked well together with Hilde carrying off the scoring laurels. They exhibited a smooth performing quintet and fully deserved a win.

Two independent teams, captained by Clarence Olson and Max Schafer, are the remaining entrants. Practice begins on the college rink tomorrow.

SIX WOMEN ENTER MILKING CONTEST

As a feature of the Little International Livestock show at the North Dakota State college, Thursday, Jan. 21, the annual coed milking contest will be held.

According to Ted Umhoefer, superintendent of the contest, the following coeds will compete: Myrna Ottinger, last years' champion, Fargo; Ruth Olson, Hansboro; Helen Fredrickson, Davenport; Jean McMillan, Fargo; Nita Oleson, Fargo; and Margaret Allen, Jamestown.

There will be prizes given for the first three places in the contest. These prizes have not been announced as yet but will be announced in a later issue of The Spectrum.

Helen Fitch, Phi Omega Pi, received the sorority scholarship bracelet to wear for the next term.

Frances Holes, Hunter, is visiting her sister, Dorothy, at the Gamma Phi Beta house this week.

Eric Tonn, a student at the State college last year and who attended school at Valley City last term, has resumed his studies at the A. C.

College Worth $65,000

The college graduate may expect to earn $175,000 during his life span, whereas the high school graduate will earn only $110,000, according to William Atherton Du Puy, executive assistant at the Department of the Interior, who has just completed a statistical study of the earning power of education. This sets the value of a college education at $65,000.

In sharp contrast to the boy with but grade school training, the high school graduate at 18 earns $800. At 22 he nets annually $1,500, the maximum of the average income of a man with grade school education.

The college graduate begins to earn at the age of 22. He starts off at about $1,400, but this is less than the high school graduate makes at that age, because the latter has been at work four years. By the time the college graduate reaches 26 years of age his income goes up rapidly while that of the high school graduate mounts more slowly. Between 43 and 48, the college man's earnings usually reach a point of rapid increase, while the high school man's income is stationary and his momentum slackens. At 60 the college man is earning $4,000 a year, and at 70, his income drops to $3,500.

Bison Prepare For Busy Boxing Season

Inter-mural Conference And Other Matches May Face Fighters

Boxing training in the fighting quarters of the Bison is progressing at a good pace in preparation for the 1932 season, according to Lt. Fay Smith, tutor of the college scrappers.

"The first of the several intermural matches will be run off in the first part of February," Coach Smith says. "They will be conducted then in order to help pick contenders for the trip to South Dakota university for the conference boxing tournament between the Bison and the Coyotes on February 12."

Later in the season the Bison will entertain the fighters from the University of North Dakota at Fargo in another conference match.

An invitation was received recently from the South Dakota State School of Mines for a five man boxing team from North Dakota State college to journey to Rapid City, South Dakota, to put on a match with a like team from that school. Several other matches may be suggested during the season with South Dakota State college a probable entry into the North Central conference boxing race.

The new physical education building has proven a training aid to the boxers, according to Lt. Smith, who conducted classes in self defense for several years in what is now the basement of the men's dorm.

An improved cinder track, modern showers and several fighting rings in the floor of the new building are utilized in helping the fighters get into top trim.

FRESHMEN INSTRUCTED IN ATTACHMENT USES

Viola Miller of the supervised educational department of the Singer Sewing Machine company of St. Paul, Minn., is instructing the freshman clothing classes in the use of attachments and care of the Singer sewing machine this week.

Miss Miller goes to all the state colleges and universities in her territory and gives about six hours of instruction to each group of girls. Each student is required to make a sample book of attachment problems and gets a certificate of completion from the Singer sewing machine company if the work is satisfactory. There is only a small percentage of the students who do not get certificates due to the cooperation the schools now give. This is Miss Miller's third trip to the North Dakota State college.

"Untrained Cubs" Burden Colleges, Educator Finds.

(NSFA)—Students entering college from the secondary schools are for the most part so poorly trained that the college can no longer assume that even the graduates of the "better" preparatory schools have acquired the fundamental preparation necessary for thinking, Dr. Bernard Iddings Bell, warden of St. Stephen's College, Columbia University, declares in his annual report to Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler.

"Deplorable though it be," Dr. Bell said, "a college of today must expect to devote at least half of the four short years in which it has its students, to an attempt to supply to those students training which ought previously to have been given them."

"At eighteen years of age an English lad or one on the Continent if he has mind enough to justify his going to the university, is ready for the university. At the same age in this country he is mostly an untrained young cub. It normally takes the junior college years, and sometimes the senior college years as well, to lick him into such shape that he may begin to work for himself at scholarly tasks."

Professional School Accepts Every Credit Earned at N.D. State

Ronald Pearce Is Third Year Foreign Service Student In Washington, D. C.

Not a single credit hour obtained during two years of work at North Dakota State college was questioned by officials in the school of foreign service at Georgetown university, Washington, D. C., when Ronald Pearce, student at this college last year, entered the third year of the professional school, one of the few students to enter without any conditions, according to a letter received from Pearce by Dean A. E. Minard, dean of the school of science and literature.

Completing his second year of work at the college here last spring, Pearce went to Washington last fall to receive his professional training. Prominent in campus activities, Pearce was a member of Delta Kappa Sigma fraternity. Pearce was a member of the Edwin Booth Dramatic club having played a number of leading roles in collegiate dramatic productions.

"If any students consult you as to opportunities in the foreign field in the service of the government or a private corporation, and you so desire, you may give them my address and I will endeavor to aid them as much as possible," Mr. Pearce writes to Dean Minard.

Students at Princeton Prefer Mind to Muscle

(NSFA) — Tradition at Princeton University repeated itself a week ago when 545 freshmen voted that a Phi Beta Kappa key was distinctly more desirable than an athletic monogram. Education seemed to be the prime factor causing 327 members of the class of 1935 to register, the results of the annual PRINCETONIAN questionnaire further showed. Answers to the query, "Why I came to Princeton, showed that 163 were lured by the name and reputation, while family tradition and contacts were responsible for the entrance of seventy. The PRINCETONIAN, university newspaper, was voted the most favored extra-curricular activity, while the glee club received seventy-eight votes for popularity. More freshmen smoke than not, but the abstainers exceeded the drinkers by over 165 votes, as compared with a slight margin the other way around last year. The Phi Beta charm was more desired than a varsity letter by a majority of 196.
