Phi Kappa Phi Holds Annual Recognition Day

Thorson Releases Program For All College Festival

Election Of May Queen Planned For Convocation, May 27

May 27 is rapidly drawing nearer and with it the annual all-college day. With the day so near, Erling Thorson, president of the Student Commission, announces a tentative program for the day. This program is so arranged that something on the program will be of interest to each student.

The day's activities will begin at 9 o'clock when the R. O. T. C. battalion will conduct the annual clean-up of the campus and at which time the twelve platoons will compete for the cup. Following the clean-up, the Senior Staff will serve coffee and doughnuts to the cadet corps. At 9:40 the students will assemble in the armory for the convocation of the day.

A feature of the convocation will be the election of the May Queen from three candidates selected in today's election. The time in the armory will include the Frosh-Sophomore song contests as well as the various acts. The judging of the costumes will also take place in the armory.

At 1:15, following the dinner hour, The 1932 Bison will be distributed to the students, and the actives on Dacotah field will begin, which will include the flag rush, the tug-o-war, baseball, men's and women's tennis, speed ball, women's fencing contests, and other attractions.

At 4:00 o'clock, the students will assemble near the library for the pageant of the crowning of the May Queen, which will end the afternoon's activities. In the evening the annual sport dance will be held in the armory. Miss Mary Powers, social commissioner, will be in charge.

Y.M.C.A. Makes Plans At Weekend Outing

Cabinet, Faculty Men Spend Saturday, Sunday At Lake

General plans for a full year's program of varied activities for the college Y. M. C. A. were made at a weekend outing of the newly-elected officers, committee chairmen and faculty representatives at the Waldron cottage on Lake Cormorant, Saturday and Sunday.

Extensive activity during freshman orientation week and in athletic, social, and religious affairs are being planned by the cabinet for the coming school year.

Although committee appointments have not yet been completed, chairmen will announce their assistants before the end of the school term so that plans for Y affairs may be completed by the opening of the fall term.

Among the students attending the outing were: Leo Anderson, president; Donald McKechnie, vice-president; Harry Hanson, freshman committee; Jordan Engberg, athletics; Gordon Prescott, religious chairman; Gerald Garlid, publicity chairman; and Edgar Johnson, library chairman.

Dr. W. C. Hunter, Dudley C. Bayliss, Rudolf Otterson, Al Severson, and Leonard Severson accompanied the cabinet members.

SIGMA PHI DELTA

Gordon Strong and Ralph Simenson spent the weekend at their homes in Valley City.

Roger Deyoe spent the weekend at his home in Marion.

Russell Rosholt, Moorhead, was pledged May 12.

Mel Johnson, Tony Quam, Eddie Both, and Wally Lovness spent Sunday in Halstad. Wally Lovness and Tony Quam played with the Halstad baseball team.

Leaders At The Annual Senior Prom

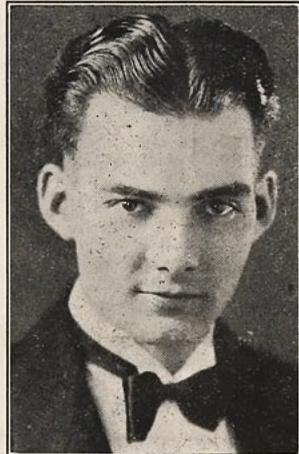

Roland Olson

Margaret Hagen

Helen Carstenson

Neil Baldwin

Second in line at the Senior Prom will be assistant prom manager Roland Olson and his partner Margaret Hagen. Olson is a member of Kappa Sigma Chi social fraternity, Blue Key, Phi Kappa Phi, Scabbard and Blade, and Alpha Phi Omega, honorary fraternities. Miss Hagen is a member of Alpha Xi Beta sorority. Baldwin is president of his class, a member of Delta Kappa Sigma social fraternity and Blue Key and Kappa Tau Delta, honorary groups. Miss Carstenson is a member of Phi Omega Pi, social sorority.

IMPORTANT NOTICE!

All senior girls keep the noon hour of all-college day free, as there is to be a senior girls' luncheon at that time. Music, dancing, short speeches, and blues singing combined with good eats are sure to make this affair a success from beginning to end. You will be approached by some member of Senior Staff in the next few days. Tickets will be sold for the price of thirty-five cents. Plan to be there, and watch The Spectrum and bulletin boards for further information.

SOPHOMORE CLASS FROLIC AT PARTY FRIDAY NIGHT

Approximately 150 couples were present at the annual sophomore frolic held Friday evening in the Crystal Ballroom from 8:30 to 11:30. Music was furnished by the Red Jackets and programs of black and white celluloid were given the guests.

Chaperons were Drs. and Mmes. A. K. Smith, and C. E. Kellogg. General arrangements were made by Merlyn Jahr, president of the sophomore class, William McDonald and Jack Vincent.

An important business meeting of Sigma Tau Delta will be held in the Faculty-Alumni club rooms at 4 p. m. today.

McMorran, Young Get Scholarship Awards

City And College Pan-Hellenic Groups Have Annual Banquet Monday Night

Betty McMorran and Bethel Young were the recipients of the two scholarships by the city and college Pan-Hellenic Councils at their annual banquet held last evening in the Elks club. Miss Beatrice Olson, dean of women at the University of North Dakota, was the guest speaker for the evening. "Scholarship and Education" was the topic of the address.

Miss McMorran, Lawton, is a sophomore in the school of home economics and a member of Phi Upsilon Omicron. Miss Young, Rugby, is a junior in the school of home economics. She is a member of Alpha Gamma Delta sorority and Sigma Delta discussion club.

Receiving the guests with Miss Matilda Thompson, general arrangements chairman, was Mrs. Walster, president of the Pan-Hellenic association; Miss Olson, Miss Pearl Dinan, and the presidents of the sororities on the campus. Preceding the banquet a short reception was held. Musical numbers were furnished by the various members of the sororities who sang some of their chapter songs.

Max Hinman won the featherweight championship of the college on Friday afternoon by defeating Ed. Dehne, Bismarck, in a private bout.

Dr. Ross A. Gortner Speaks Tomorrow Morning At 9:40

TWENTY-FOUR OUTSTANDING SENIOR MEMBERS TO BE HONORED; VAN VORST TO RECEIVE THE WALTER STOCKWELL AWARD; SPRING INITIATION WILL BE CONDUCTED IN EVENING.

North Dakota State College's chapter of Phi Kappa Phi, national honor society, will hold its seventh annual recognition day, Wednesday. Dr. Ross A. Gortner, head of the division of agricultural biochemistry at the University of Minnesota, will be a guest of the organization during the day and will address a convocation in the college armory at 9:30 a. m.

Twenty-four outstanding senior students elected to the society during the last year will be honored at the convocation which will open with the singing of the North Dakota hymn. Benjamin V. McCaul, secretary of the chapter, will present the new members.

Amos Van Vorst, a senior in the school of chemistry, will be awarded the Phi Kappa Phi prize from Walter L. Stockwell. Van Vorst was selected for the honor as the most representative student. Among his organizations besides Phi Kappa Phi are Kappa Sigma Chi, Blue Key, Scabbard and Blade, and Alpha Phi Omega. E. Hoyt DeKleine was winner of the first Stockwell award in 1930.

Gortner to Speak

"Biochemistry and the World Today" will be the topic of Dr. Gortner's address. He is a member of the Nebraska chapter of Phi Kappa Phi and holds membership in several honor and scientific organizations besides being an author and an editor of note. Musical numbers will be played by the Sigma Alpha Iota ensemble at the convocation closing with the singing of "The Yellow and the Green". Dr. L. L. Carrick, president-elect will preside.

Miss Harriet Pearson will honor Dr. Gortner at a breakfast in her home at 8 a. m., Wednesday. Guests will include Dr. Gortner's Nebraska classmates and friends residing in Fargo.

Sigma Xi club of the college will entertain at a luncheon in the Lincoln Lob Cabin, Wednesday noon, honoring Dr. Gortner. Dr. A. K. Smith is in charge. More than 20 faculty men on the campus are members of the club for scientific research.

Five Initiated

Local officers will conduct initiation services for five students elected to Phi Kappa Phi during the spring term at 6 p. m., Wednesday. The initiates are: Lois Minard, Richard Maxwell, Lyle Behan, Georgina Metzinger, and Francis Dutee.

The closing event for recognition day will be the annual banquet at the Powers hotel at 6:30 p. m. Dr. Carrick will be toastmaster. As vice-president-elect of the chapter, Mrs. H. L. Walster will give a toast to new members with Amos Van Vorst responding. As the main banquet speaker, Dr. Gortner will speak on "Science and Civilization".

Dr. A. D. Whedon is head of the general committee in charge of arrangements for the day. Misses Harriet Pearson and Pearl Dinan are assisting him and Miss Esther Latzke is in charge of the dinner.

Fall Members Honored

FORMER S. C. STUDENTS HONORED AT MINN. "U"

Marvin Spielman and Sempel Yuster, former North Dakota State College students and graduates in the school of chemistry in 1929 and 1926 respectively were elected to the Minnesota chapter of Sigma Xi, national honorary society for graduate students in any of the sciences. Both men are now working toward higher degrees in the department of chemistry at the University of Minnesota.

Mr. Spielman carried off all college high honors in scholastics for several consecutive terms while attending here. His home is at Larimore. Mr. Yuster, a Fargo man, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Yuster, at 1345 Third Ave. N.

Senior President To Be Recognized At Formal Prom

Assistant Manager Olson Picks Margaret Hagen For His Partner

Recognition of the president of the senior class will be made at the annual Senior Ball Friday evening when Neil Baldwin and his partner, Helen Carstenson will follow Roland Olson, assistant ball manager and his partner in the grand march third in line. Mr Baldwin has been very prominent in the class of '31's activities before being elected to the presidency of his class last fall. His position of third in line is also a recognition of Mr. Baldwin's past achievements.

With the ball becoming nearer, Wallace Lovness, the manager of the formal, states that this year's affair will be charming in every detail. The spring theme is being carried out to perfection and will aid materially in the success of the party. The orchestra to be used at the ball has not yet been announced, but the people who intend to attend will be pleasantly surprised.

Added features for the affair will be well worked out before Friday, and with the regular features will assure every one attending a wonderful time. It is the opinion of Mr. Lovness that the ball will eclipse all other balls of the year in attendance.

Thoraldson Wins Competition Prize

Zwerg And Bordeleau Place In Second And Third Positions

Byran Thoraldson, junior architect, won first prize in the annual sketching competition which is held each year under the direction of Dudley C. Bayliss, freehand instructor. Henry O. Zwerg, senior, placed second, and Al Bordeleau junior, was third.

Fourteen sets of drawings were submitted and each set consisted of three copy sketches and three originals. First prize, awarded to Thoraldson, was a copy of Frank Lloyd Wright's new book, "Modern Architecture". Zwerg received a copy of Metal Plate Lithography as second prize.

Judges for the contest were: Miss Dorothy Hatch, Miss Mae Kelly, Harold Bechtel, Paul Jones, and D. C. Bayliss.

RESPONSIBILITY

If four years in college did nothing else for us than to give us a sense of responsibility as a part of our ethical code it would have accomplished a great deal.

How often we describe a person as one "who doesn't care", "the happy-go-lucky type". True these persons are the life of the party and are great fun to be with until one has known them long enough to know all their jokes and irresponsibilities. But even their friends never call on them for aid in time of emergency. Not because they aren't clever or capable, but merely because they aren't dependable.

We all know the type that lands on every committee and never goes to committee meetings. Then there is the person who in a spirit of enthusiasm enters some activity and works erratically for awhile until his enthusiasm "peters out" and then someone else takes hold and does all the work while our enthusiastic erratic gets all the credit.

They say there is a law of compensation. When we think of all the plodders we know who can be depended upon for every emergency and yet who work in obscurity while their charming irresponsible brethren hold the limelight and receive all the publicity—well then we wonder about the compensation.

COORDINATION

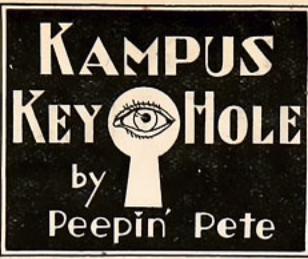

The war cry of the existing educational system seems to be, "Specialize". Naturally a certain amount of specialization is necessary to make a success of any of the many professions. However, it seems rather narrowing that this demand should be made of us in college.

Fortunately there are still many persons who deplore the passing of the old academic type of college with its ivy-covered walls, its learned professors who can converse intelligently on almost any phase of life, and its broad curriculum which aims to help students to live and not to make money.

We say it is fortunate that these persons still exist because of the trend the colleges are so evidently taking. Over two hundred men and women will be graduated from this institution in one month. Every graduate will have a very definite major and minor. We shudder to think what the results would be if one of these chemistry majors were given a rudimentary examination in English grammar and literature or if the English major were given an examination in practical chemistry.

So it is in every school. We are grinding out specialists—mostly theoretical specialists at that—and not well educated men and women of learning—no not even men and women with a passionate desire to learn.

All new cabinet members of the Y. W. C. A. should report to Mrs. Teet some time during the next two weeks for a personal interview.

PEEPIN' PETE THROWS ADVICE TO LOVELORN

Thousands Shout as Author Debunks This Thing Called Love

(Along with thoughts of June brides, graduation, and things like that, the author thought he would submit for his readers a list of personal observations based on what they tell us. As growing a beard is another word for doing a "Gaffney", so now we will do a "Mencken" column.)

A woman was arrested the other day for stabbing her husband in the abdomen with a can-opener. Being a modern bride she probably thought that was the way to a man's stomach.

Lots of these brides have visions of a vine-covered cottage with roses around the door only to find that the roses are dandelions and the vines are Poison-ivy.

Marriages made in Heaven often turn out to be Hell on earth.

Wedding bells are the rattle of dirty dishes in the sink.

Many marriages go on the rocks when the blushing bride presents her husband with a batch of baking powder biscuits.

There's many a slip twix't the rumble seat and the altar, so the term, "bride-to-be", is applied to the gal as sort of a tentative title, filling in the slack time up to the ceremony at the church.

The bridal veil more often hides a vale of tears and a dirty neck.

THE GAL WHO TRIPS AND RUNS UP TO THE ALTAR IS THE SAME GAL WHO TRIPS UP HER HUSBAND FOR A FIVE SMACKER TO REPAIR THE RUNS IN HER HOSIERY.

"Wedded estate" means nowadays a little two-by-four apartment.

A woman may lay her traps for a man, but after she says "I do", she may as well keep her trap shut.

A MAN'S HOUSE IS HIS KINGDOM BUT HIS WIFE WILL TELL HIM THAT KINGS ARE NOT VERY POPULAR THESE DAYS.

Marriage is like going to bed in a warm room and then finding out in the morning that the fire has gone out.

A woman might call her soul her own, but her spouse might call her

Love makes the world go 'round, the poets say, but they ought to see how, after a few years of married life, the bride grows round.

The poet who said something about the flower in the crannied wall should see some of these kitchen-mechanics tossing the flour about their own particular crannied wall.

THE GUY WHO SUCCUMBED TO THE DUMB DORA WHO GURGLED BABY-TALK TO HIM FINDS HIMSELF WALKING THE BED ROOM FLOOR AROUND P. X., LEARNING EXACTLY HOW A BABY TALKS.

Love flies out the window when the lord and mister doesn't find the time to put the screens on that keep the flies out.

The gal who feeds mushy talk to the fellow before she marries him is the same one who will feed him that kind of breakfast food 365 mornings out of the year.

These flowers that blushed and bloom'd unseen to waste their freshness on the desert air, or words to that effect, are the kind who will not hesitate to waste their freshness on the ice-man.

After some of these "shot-gun" marriages the poor sap finds out that the gun wasn't loaded either.

The fella that warbled about music being the food of love never had a live in one of these radio-infested apartments.

The guy who thought he married for love soon finds out that it consists of . . . "Oh I saw the loveliest dress today . . . only five dollars", or, "I wish I could have the lovely dresses that Mrs. Smith has," etc. etc. Lovely, lovely, lovely.

THE BRIDE DOESN'T BLUSH BECAUSE SHE'S EMBARRASSED. SHE'S JUST TRYING HEROICALLY TO KEEP FROM LAUGHING OUT LOUD AT THE NITWIT SHE HOOKED FOR A MEAL-TICKET.

That marry last line: You know we're married now, dear.

Installation services for the new cabinet members of the Y. W. C. A. have been tentatively set for Thursday, May 29 at 4 p. m. in Ceres Hall parlors. All members are invited. The freshman commission will receive the guests. Members of the advisory board will be honor guests.

University Track Team Downs Saaly's Charges

BISON OUTSCORE IN FIELD EVENTS BUT LOSE ON CINDERS

Schwartz Wins High Jump At Six Foot Mark; Tarbell High Scorer

The North Dakota University track team defeated the State College team in the annual dual meet by the score of 78 to 53.

The Bison outscored the Nodaks in the field events, but the University runners gathered enough points in the track events to win by a large margin. The Nodaks placed two men in each of the track events except the 440 yard dash and the 220 yard low hurdles.

Probably the most outstanding event of the day was the half mile event. Roy Pearson, sophomore distance star of the University squad transversed the 880 yards in the surprisingly fast time of 1 minute 59.6 seconds. He also could have won the mile event with ease, for he loped in leisurely behind his teammate, Bud Thornton.

The individual scoring honors went to Hugh Tarbell, who placed first in the 100 yard dash, second in the high and broad jump, and third in the 220 yard dash for a total of 12 points in the four events. He was closely followed by August Schwartz and Lafe Ludwig. Schwartz pleased Coach Saalwaechter a great deal when he cleared the bar at 6 feet in the high jump. He also won first in the broad jump with a leap of 20 feet 8 3/4 inches. Ludwig won first place in both of the hurdle events.

Other high point men for the Bison were Leo May, first in the shot and second in the discus; Rod McMillen, second in 440 and 880 yard events; Jack Grohnke, second in the 220 and third in the 440 yard dashes; Paul Bunt, first in the javelin; Leo Thomason, second in the 100, third in the pole vault, second in the 220 yard low hurdles, and third in the 120 high hurdles; Ernest Hall, winner of the 2 mile event; and Clarence Orness, second in the javelin and third in the discus.

The University quartet ran the half mile relay in 1 minute 34 seconds to win easily from the Bison. Tarbell, Ferry, Simons, and Raabe made up the team for the Nodaks.

The summary:
100 yard dash—won by Tarbell, U.; Thomason, S. C., second; Simons, U., third. Time—10.5 seconds.

One mile run—won by Jack Thornton, U.; Pearson, U., second; Robertson, S. C., third. Time—4 minutes 51.2 seconds.

Shot put—won by May, S. C.; Burma, U., second; Eckholm, U. Distance—41 feet 6 1/2 inches.

220 yard dash—won by Setterlund, U.; Grohnke, S. C., second; Tarbell, U., third. Time—23.1 seconds.

120 yard high hurdles—won by Ludwig, U.; Mosher, U., second; Thomason, S. C., third. Time—17 seconds.

440 yard run—won by Ferry, U.; McMillen, S. C., second; Grohnke, S. S., third. Time—52.3 seconds.

Pole vault—won by Jacobson, U.; Bid Thornton, U., second; Thomason, S. C., third. Height—10 feet 9 inches.

Discus throw—won by Urevig, U.;

May, S. C., second; Orness, S. C., third. Distance—122 feet 3 1/2 inches.

Two mile run—won by Hall, S. C.; Baird, U., third; Bud Thornton, third. Time—10 minutes 45.4 seconds.

220 yard low hurdles—won by Ludwig, U.; Thomason, S. C., second; McKendry, S. C., third. Time—26.6 seconds.

High jump—won by Schwartz, S. C.; Tarbell, U., second; McKay, S. C., third. Height—6 feet.

880 yard run—won by Pearson, U.; McMillen, S. C., second; Jack Thornton, U., third. Time—1 minute 59.6 seconds.

Broad jump—won by Schwartz, S. C.; Tarbell, U., second; Raabe, U., third. Distance—20 feet 8 3/4 inches.

Javelin throw—won by Bunt, S. C.; Orness, S. C., second; Webster, U., third. Distance—157 feet 8 inches.

Half mile relay—won by U., (Tarbell, Ferry, Simons, Raabe); S. C., (May, Mc Kendry, Grohnke, Thomason), second; U., (Eckholm, Madson, Ludwig, Doerr), third. Time—1 minute 34 seconds.

Founded at the University of Maine in 1898, Phi Kappa Phi is an honor society composed of professors, graduate and undergraduate students from all departments of the university or college in which a chapter is located. Emphasizing scholarship in the college students is its primary object. Not more than one-fifth of the senior class membership may be elected to Phi Kappa Phi. The local chapter was founded in 1913.

Among the speakers since the first recognition day in 1925 there have been: Dean A. E. Minard, dean of the school of science and literature; Dean Cowley-Carroll, former pastor of Gethsemane Cathedral; Dr. Carlton R. Ball, regent general of the national society; Judge A. G. Burr of the North Dakota Supreme Court; and Dr. Gottfried Hult, professor of classical languages and literature at the University of North Dakota.
