

Pre-cast cradle system dropped into place on top of the columns, followed by the concrete slab walkways and permeable grate assemblies.

Connection detail of track system to the lower barge section of dwelling.

Segmented grate system provides safety while walking on the ramp while still allowing water, light, and air penetration as needed.

