1932 Bison Editor Says Yearbook Will Be Best In History

Staff Members Have Appointed Majority of Helpers to Aid Work

WALLUM HAS CHARGE OF CLASSES SECTION

Bureau of Engraving Representative Pleased at Progress Made so Far

With plans made for nearly all sections of the book, and the work on pictures for the classes section and the military department already under way, Elene Weeks, editor, announced yesterday that the staff felt confident of the success of the 1932 Bison. Mr. A. A. Segal, college head of the Bureau of Engraving, Minneapolis, who was up recently to hold a last minute conference on the art work for the annual, expressed himself as very well satisfied with the progress made.

Staff members have already appointed the majority of their assistants, and together with them, are beginning to lay out details for their sections. Those who have appointed their assistants are Kathryn Engbretson, Bison Life editor; Eleanor Payne, Lois Klinsmann, Dan Howell, Karl Gerteis, activities editor, has chosen Bob Conley, and Ward Swanson, Velva D., woman's athletic editor has asked Paula Verne, Marjorie Metcalf, and Minerva Streed to assist her, Clark Fredrikson, organization editor, has appointed Constance West, Sally Hunkins, Waldemar Knudson, and Jack Grohnke. Amos Wallum, editor of last year's book, who is taking charge of the classes section, has as his assistants Helen Rainville, Elizabeth Olson, Joyce Peterson, Myrna Ottinger, Cy Marks, Leonard

BLAKESLEE WILL HEAD SIGHT SINGING CLASS

Miss Blakeslee, the head of the voice department, is organizing a sight-singing class for men of the college to be held in her city studio at 9 1/2 South Broadway on Wednesday evenings. The first meeting will be next Wednesday evening, Oct. 29. Any further information regarding this class may be procured by conferring with Miss Blakeslee.

Three Rifle Men Are Honored During Review

Schoessow, Gilnet, Vogel Receive Awards for Work at Camp Perry

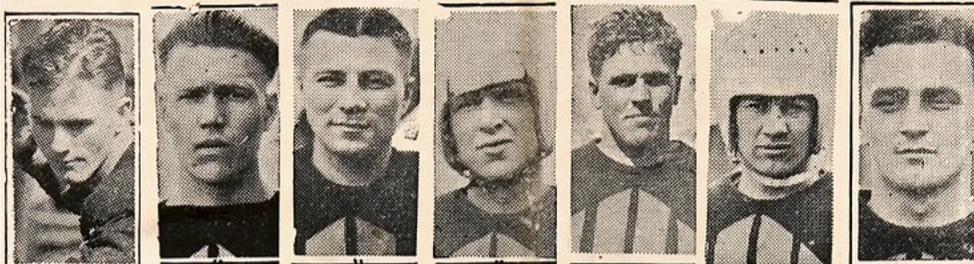

Features of the Military Review Friday morning were the recognition of three members of the Seventh Corps Area Officers' Training Corps Rifle Team and the first appearance of newly elected cadet sponsors.

Glen Schoessow, Raymond Gilnet, and Clarence Vogel received gold medal decorations by virtue of their being members of the Seventh Corps Area Rifle Team.

A letter from Johnson Hagood, Major General of Seventh Corps Area states: "Such excellent results demonstrate a highly gratifying degree of skill and team-work and reflect great credit on the individual members of the team."

Mary McLane, Minot, is now R. O. T. C. Battalion Sponsor for the coming year, the other sponsors and their platoons are: Ruth Dyson, 1st platoon; Helen Fredrickson, 2nd platoon; Annabelle Knowles, 3rd platoon; Alpha Knight, 4th platoon; Charlotte Howland, 5th platoon; Bernice Emmons, 6th platoon; Ethel Kraft, 7th platoon; Gertrude Almos, 8th platoon; Doris Sommers, 9th platoon; Emily Samuelson, 10th platoon; Elizabeth Woolledge, 11th platoon; Katherine Anderson, 12th platoon; Lillian Flatter, band.

Largest Parade For Homecoming Leaves At 10:45

Winning Floats, Costumes, Groups Will Be Announced by Twelve

UNIVERSITY GROUP TO JOIN IN MARCH

Receiving Stand Will Hold Notables Assembled for Bison Roundup

When the Homecoming parade leaves the college at 10:45 this morning it will be the largest and most glamorous of its kind ever seen here. There are nearly thirty entries according to John Doerr, head of the committee in charge.

The winning floats, individual costumes, and costume groups will be announced as soon as the judges are able to return to the campus. The winning floats will be on display at the Bison-Sioux clash at Dacotah Field this afternoon. The traveling loving cup is the award for the best float and ten dollars is the prize for the best individual costume.

The first section of the parade which joins the college contingent at the Great Northern tracks includes cars carrying the Governor, Board of Administration officials, members of the City Commission, Pres. J. H. Shepperd, and Emily Samuelson, Bison Homecoming Queen. The ROTC corps and the Gold Star Band comprise the second section.

U Students Join Parade

Students and alumni of the University of North Dakota and the University band comprise the third section of the parade and will join the march at the G. N. depot. The floats and costume groups in numerical order will follow. The fourth section of the parade has been reserved for the Old State Grads and the college faculty.

Pass in Review

The parade will be reviewed from the reserved parking space opposite Herbst's Department Store by the Governor, President Shepperd, the City Commissioners, and other distinguished visitors. According to plans laid out by the committee the line of march will go south on Thirteenth St., then east on Eleventh Ave., turning south on Broadway into the downtown district.

Cayou Named Rooter King By Committee

Alumni, Coaches, Faculty, and Students Give Talks at Rally Friday

Arthur Cayou, Bismarck, was named rooter king and Jack Knight and Byron Schram, St. Cloud, Minn., assistant rooter kings by five judges from the faculty at the "Good News" rally in the college armory at 8 p. m., Thursday.

Selection of the pep leaders was based on personal appearance, presentation, response of the audience, ability of the contestants, and the responsibility of the individual.

M. E. Tindall, secretary of the alumni association and general Homecoming chairman presided at the rally which was the last call to alumni and followers of the Bison to attend the 1930 Homecoming. Traditional songs and yells were given by the students. Dr. C. S. Putnam led the Gold Star band in special and original numbers for Homecoming.

Specialty numbers included a Pep club demonstrations of college yells; popular songs by the Phi Omega Pi trio, including Dorothy Chard, Bernice Emmons and Eleanor Erickson; musical numbers by the Delta Kappa Sigma trio, William Shine, Robert Olsen, and Horace McGrath and the Gamma Phi Beta duo including Helen Jensen and Jean Pote.

MEMBER NORTH CENTRAL PRESS ASS'N.

A SINCERE WELCOME

We can do no more at this season than express our sincere pleasure at the return of Bison grads. The years that they spent in school is the history of the institution. They graduate and become part of the State and as the years roll by we hear very little of them.

When Homecoming comes around each year we have the opportunity of renewing our old friendships, and recalling the glamorous days of yore. Not only is the renewing of friendships important but the growth of the college from year to year is quite worth while returning to see.

This year we present a new boys dormitory. The product of many years of planning and a symbol of perseverance. The building was begun with a plan of financing it through a bonding company. The financing system was alleged to be unconstitutional until last year when the supreme court decided that college officials could go ahead and accordingly the building was completed on the foundation that had been standing for three years.

The new physical education building that was approved by the legislature will be completed next year. The foundation is now in and the basement may be used as an indoor track. When completed the athletic plant will be one of the finest in the North west.

Besides the buildings on the campus, the enrollment has shown an increase every year. The Freshman class has been the largest beginning class at any state institution for the last two years.

The athletic development has been steady and gradual coming to a head in this afternoons game. For the last two years Finnegan and Lowe have been working with the Stamping Herd. They have been very successful and deserve the support and praise of anyone interested in the welfare of North Dakota State.

In recounting some of the developments of the school we do not want to lose sight of the fact that this is your homecoming and we welcome you to the Bison Roundup.

CORONATION

The coronation of a Homecoming Queen is to be an annual event of the Bison Roundup and is in our opinion a fine feature. In our last issue we assailed the method of choice, but on further investigation we find that under the circumstances the steps taken were the only ones open to the Student Commission and the committee in charge of the selection.

The coronation will take place this afternoon and the honor is falling to one of the most deserving women on the campus. She has been especially active in outside activities and among her accomplishments are listed the social chairmanship of the Student Commission, member of Guidon, and many group offices.

We take this opportunity in retracting anything that may have been injurious to Miss Samuelson and congratulate the Commission on its choice.

"THE ETERNAL TRIANGLE"

OR

"Why Was Margy Left in the Cold?"

The thrilling melodrama in one act with time out for putting practice on our newly installed miniature golf course and possibly a lemon pie thrown in!

It came upon a midnight clear! Yeah... Static! List my children! It was like this. 'Way up from the frozen wilds of Lakota where men are men and women are nervous came Enid Metcalf this Fall. Little did she wreak of the horrid duplicity of men that was to be her experience. (Conductor, play some thing soft and sweet with the accent on the crescendo) Ah! How villain Lagerberg's eyes lighted up when he espied Little Enid coming down the promenade!

The Villain

"Heh! Heh," spake the debonair one, stumbling over a salesman's sample case of complexion cream and falling prostrate over Little Enid's path, "hast perchance lost yon 'kerchief?" "Sez you!" peeped Little Enid, dropping curtsy and fluttering eyelashes. Will the police never come? On and on rides Dupholph Deeber to save the day for dear old Doober!

"Yey! I knowed you waz Margy Metcalf's little sister the first time I layed eyes on yez." This in childish treble while retrieving complexion cream samples.

"Oh! Goodie! Goodie! Ah! Gee, kid, I didn't mean you was a goodie. What I wath going to thay maybe you could take me out walking in youre automobul and buy me an ith cream cone, Margy wouldn't care, an' be-sidh I been hearing tho, mucht about you."

"It ain't true," replied Walt sheepishly and tugging at false moustache, "I don't even know th' gal."

Just then Margy hove in sight.

"Lo Marg! Howsa' kid?" and Walt coughs nervously discarding Camel and hunts for Murad. Marg during this process looks off toward Lakota while Little Enid looks for an aeroplane. At this juncture some one drops a fullfrog from Science Hall and it goes splosh! right on the pavement. Sweet dreams, children.

"Stop me if you've heard this one," sez "Red Rabbit" Jarrett.

And on Homecoming, too!
Notice, Peepin' Pete: If "U" don't stop pickin' on me I'll be "Sioux-in" "U" . . . by everyone else.

Telephone girls are the only ones that can roll their r's but the Sioux can roll their whoops!

"This is the Gnaws that refreshes" murmured Jeanne Murphy as she bit into a Bison sandwich.

Sophomore: President—Merelyn Jahr, Fargo. Vice-President—William McDonald, Mandan. Secretary—Hartley Eskstrom, Fargo. Treasurer—Jack Vincent, Fargo.

Juniors: President—Orville Isley, Verona. Vice-President—Kenneth Wyard, Fargo. Secretary—Hjalmer Johnson, Fargo. Treasurer—Roderick McMillan, Bentley.

Seniors: President—Neal Baldwin, Fargo. Vice-President—Arthur Knight, Fargo. Secretary—Emily Samuelson, Underwood. Treasurer—Katherine Knerr, Fargo.

PHI KAPPA PHI HOLDS FALL TERM MEETING

The fall business meeting of the honor society, Phi Kappa Phi, was held in the Seminar room of the Administration building, Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 22, 1930. President A. F. Hunsaker presided. The following committees were appointed: program—Dr. A. D. Whedon, Dean Dinan, and Professors Doerr and Pearson. The membership committee consists of the following members: Dr. Carrick, Miss Thompson, Mr. Otterson, and B. F. McCaul. The names of seniors elected will be announced at a later date.

It is hoped that with the keen competition now displayed this year's Homecoming parade will be the most unusual and colorful one in the history of North Dakota State College.

Y. M. C. A. CABINET MEMBERS APPOINTED

The recently appointed cabinet members of the College YMCA with the name of the committee that they head, follow: Membership, John Spaulding; publicity, George Probstfield; library, Lawrence Erickson; social, Gordon Lillcrap; athletics, Frank Forbes; freshmen, Arthur Knight; religious, Elbert Watkins; and student representative, Erling Thorson. These men will serve as the heads of their respective committees throughout the present school year.

Other officers elected last spring follow: President, Carl Albrecht; vice-president, Glen McCleary; recorder, Ralph Heggeness; treasurer, Clarence Orness; and D. C. Bayliss, an instructor.

BISON BARBECUE

In keeping with tradition the annual Baby Bison Barbecue is now in progress at the gate. Mr. George Mayoue, who has arranged this part of the Homecoming program, has made every effort to have this side of the activities excel in all respects the barbecue of other years.

"It rests with the student body to make this part of Homecoming a success. This year an exceptionally fine animal has been secured and we are anxious that all students, alumni, and faculty members share in this activity to make it a success," said Mr. Mayoue in an interview yesterday.

Lunch can be secured here as reasonable as at any of the downtown eating places.

Out of the 125 students enrolled in the School of Science and Literature, the department of Business and Commerce heads the list with 38 students. The pre-med students come second with 14 students, and 14 in the miscellaneous list. There are 10 journalism students, 11 in Education, 10 in law, and 4 in the dental section of the Pre-medical School.

RESERVE WEAKNESS IS BASKETBALL TROUBLE

Track, Crosscountry, Boxing Becoming Important Activities at State College

After seeing the lean side of many football years, the State College Bison of 1930 have suddenly grown sleek and fat under the capable coaching of Charles C. Finnegan, the famous up-set man of the northwest, and his good man Friday, alias Bob Lowe.

Finnegan and Lowe made their debut at State College as a coaching combination in 1929. They had a tough row to hoe. Material was limited and green but the schedule was tough. However, they worked hard, presenting the college with a fine eleven, a team which was successful in winning three games, tying two, and losing three.

Before 1929, the Bison colors were never carried very far or high. In 1928 and 1927, the teams lost most of their encounters; lack of material and experience proved to be the big disadvantages.

Having already defeated such teams as S. D. U., Morningside, St. Thomas, and Davis-Elkins there is no doubt that the Homecoming game will be a real battle.

Casey has aroused his chargers to great heights; the great secret of Casey's success (and it is not a secret) is the fact that he "dominates without domineering."

Basketball Prospects Good

Basketball, without a doubt has become one of the best sports at this institution. Since "Saaly" took over the reins in 1925 the sport has improved by leaps and bounds. Every year the team has been right in the midst of the fight, has never been more than two games behind the conference winner. "Saaly's" teams have never been beaten by a larger margin than ten points. The team has always been handicapped by an utter lack of reserve material. Many close games have been lost due to this cause.

Prospects are very good for a real team this year. The aggregation promises to be slightly inexperienced but with the stars from the last years frosh team "Saaly" should mold a combination that will cope with the attack of any team in the conference. A fall tournament has been started for the fraternity teams. Through this means "Saaly" expects to select men for his reserve material.

Track Has Developed

Track has made more progress than any other sport in the institution. "Saaly" assumed the duties as mentor in the spring of 1926. A very small squad turned out and only one man was taken to the conference track meet. Last spring more men turned out for track than any other sport. Each year the Bison have garnered more points than the previous year. Last year Blakeslee set a new record in the pole vault, and Ole Sand set a new record in the 220 low hurdle event.

Every spring a fraternity track meet is held. Last year 135 men entered the meet. Alpha Kappa Phi secured the most points.

State College has won two out of three meets from the University, last year losing by a one point margin.

Boxing Introduced in 1928

Boxing was introduced into this school in 1928 by Lt. Fay Smith. The sport immediately became popular and 35 men turned out the first year. An elimination contest was staged to decide the winner in each division; the winners were: Featherweight, Fox; Lightweight, Molitor; Welter, Skjonsby; Middle, Bollman; Light-heavy, Lonsbrough; Heavyweight, Friberg. Last year 77 men turned out for boxing and Smith developed some real scrappers. After the school tournament four men were taken to the A. A. U. meet at Minneapolis. Ted Loy won the light-heavyweight championship and the Gene Tunney trophy. Dvorak and Molitor were runners-up in their respective weight divisions. Pung was eliminated in the first bout. Loy whipped such men as Sankey of Minnesota and Lindley of Yale. The winners in their respective weight divisions were: Fox, Ward, Scalf, Dvorak, Selliken, and McMillan.

PILOTS THUNDERING HERD

Captain Leo May
Leo May, Captain of the Thundering Herd of North Dakota State College, is shown in one of his favorite postures. May was the first choice of the North Central Conference coach for the mythical first team and is one of the best punters in the loop. At Morningside last week May averaged 44 yards on each kick. His educated toe is bound to be one of the sore spots for the Sioux when the rivals clash this afternoon.

Conmy Directs Hockey

Hockey, up until the present time has received little attention from the school. Captain Conmy did some very fine work with the team last year after taking them over. He took charge of the squad in the middle of the season and the men immediately showed a reversal of form. They gave the big ten teams a real battle and whipped Concordia and the University.

Only one man was lost by graduation and under the capable guidance of Captain Conmy the team should play a brand of hockey that will be hard to beat. Seven excellent prospects from the frosh team will be seeking positions on the varsity this winter.

"Saaly" Started Cross Country

Cross country was started in this school by L. T. Saalwaechter. His main idea in doing this was to build up men for distance running in track.

The harriers have won the conference championship for three consecutive years. Every year a dual meet is staged with the University of Minnesota which Minnesota has won by a narrow margin each year.

Chemistry Places Large Percentage

"Are we going to secure a position immediately following graduation from this institution?" This question confronts nearly every college senior. Records issued by this college show that those students who have been trained and specialized in one field of service have a decided advantage over those whose courses cover a general field of learning.

The School of Chemistry up to date has the distinction of securing positions for practically every one of its graduating class. Last spring it placed 95% of its graduates.

The personnel and present location of the chemistry '30 class are as follows:

Harry W. Conroy, State Regulatory department, Bismarck, N. D.
Michael L. Fogarty, Fairmount, N. D.

Saalwaechter Plans For Great Basketball Team

Reserve Strength Being Developed By Frat Tourney

Freshman, Varsity Practice Is Combined Three Times During Week

FOOTBALL OCCUPYING SEVERAL LUMINARIES

Weir, Giant Frosh Prospect, Will Make Strong Bid for Center

While the Bison are riding roughshod over their grid opponents, plans are being made for a great basketball team. The lack of reserves has been the Bison weakness for the last few years. Last year when the Bison left for their three game trip at the southern end of the conference, they were leading the North Central Conference. In the very first game George Fairhead, a regular forward, broke his ankle. In the second game Verne Goodwin, another regular forward, broke his leg. This left Saaly without two dependable men during the middle of the conference battle.

This year Coach Saalwaechter has started a Fall basketball tournament for the purpose of uncovering some good material for early practice.

Three days a week Saaly has a combined practice of Freshman and Varsity prospects. Among the Varsity men is Bob Weir who stands six feet seven inches, and he should make a strong bid for the center position. Other early prospects include Ed Jesson and Pete Euren, two regular Frosh men from last year.

The only early lettermen from last year to report for practice is Eric Nordstrom. He proved to be the spark plug of the Bison offense last year, and he should have a big year.

Football Claims Many
Football claims the rest of Saaly's prospects of last year. Leo May will be back for his last year of Varsity basketball, and this should be a big year for Leo. Verne Goodwin has recovered from his leg injury of last year and can be counted upon to make anybody hustle to keep him from a regular berth. Jimmy Berdahl, a fine prospect from the last year Frosh team, has all that is needed to put him up among the first string men.

The best sure fire prospect to come to the Bison camp in years is none other than Viv McKay, the all-state man from Valley City. It would be hard to keep a man of McKay's ability off of any team and big things are expected of Viv.

Paul Bunt will be heard from when practice is officially called. Paul is a natural all around athlete and if he does not make the first five, there will be five mighty good men working for Saaly this winter in the Bison lineup.

If hard luck gives George Fairhead a rest, George should be playing with the best. There is not a faster man in the conference on the court than Fairhead and we all hope that George will get an even break to show what he can do.

All in all it looks as though Saaly will have some fine material for his team this year and some good reserve material also. It will be a hard job to try and name the first five out of the fine prospects this early. The team this year should be very fast.

In order to keep his men in good shape and together during the Christmas holidays, Saaly is planning a trip for his boys. No matter how many games are won on these trips the Bison are always ready to start off on the right foot when the conference opens.

DATES IN CARLOADS

"Now remember that I want a tall blonde with curly hair."

"And I want a short one with straight hair."

"All right. Let's see, that makes two of them and four of the other. Wait until I do some phoning."

"Brrrrr. Brrrrr. Kappa Phi house. Yeah, this is Bill talkin'. Blind dates! Boy I'll say! Say how many do you want? Four blondes with curly hair (that takes in me); three with straight hair, one short and fat, and one with red hair. Lord! what taste some of those dames have. Well, give me the list and I'll hitch 'em up. Cy doesn't fit any of those descriptions. Suppose you've got a date there that would tackle him? Yeah? Well, that's swell."

"I guess I've got the list now. You warn the boys and I'll arrange introductions at the hop Thursday."

"There he is, Ruth, that one over there beside the boy in the gray coat."

"What! That one with the horn-rimmed spectacles? He actually looks intelligent. I could not stand that."

"Oh, no. Not that one, the one on the other side."

"Great Heavens! You don't mean him. I went through the grades with him. This is terrible."

"Well, why didn't you warn me. How about the one behind him. You don't know know him at all. Fine! Come over and suffer introductions."

And so it goes with those terrible things called blind dates. You can't trust them any farther than you'd trust a negro with a water melon.

Bison, Sioux Captains Have Brilliant Career

May, Jarrett Are All Around Stars in Three Different Sports

Leo G. May, captain and outstanding fullback of the 1930 Bison grid machine, has always played a prominent part in the athletics of his high school and college.

While at Aberdeen high school, May won 4 letters in each major sport and captained the basketball team in 1927. He won first in both the shot put and discus at the state track meet in 1927. May was selected on the all-state team in both football and basketball for two years. He starred on the basketball team, which attended the National tournament at Chicago. Besides his athletics he was very prominent in other school activities.

May's college career in athletics has brought him even greater fame than his high school exploits. He has won numerals in the three major college sports and two letters in each. His second year he played fullback on the varsity team, receiving honorable mention on the first all-conference team. Last year he received two outstanding honors: he was selected fullback on the all-conference team; he was chosen to lead the Bison football team in 1930 succeeding "Cod" Ordahl. In track he was high point man for the season and in the University meet he was the high individual scorer.

In addition to his enviable record in three branches of athletics, May has maintained a good scholastic average. Last year he served as president of the Phi chapter of Theta Chi Fraternity. May is vice-president of the N. D. Lettermen's club, a member of Blue Key, national honorary service fraternity, and is a captain the ROTC corps.

Captain Jarrett

Captain "Red Rabbit" Jarrett is captain and outstanding player on the Sioux team. His entire career as an athlete has been one of outstanding achievements and great successes.

During his sojourn at Grand Forks high school he made 4 letters in each of the major sports. He was selected on the all-state team in football and in basketball, and he still holds the high school record of North Dakota in the broad jump. "Red" attended the national basketball tournament at Chicago for two years with his high school team.

In college, he has continued his successes. Last year he was chosen halfback on the all-conference team in football and placed second to Sand, conference champion, twice in the North Central Conference track meet, and was one of the most outstanding men on the basketball squad. "Red" is a very good leader for his team and is being watched by people from all parts of the country, due to his exceptional ability.

Besides his very fine work in athletics, although he has to work his way through school, Jarrett has done much in his college and is a member of Blue Key, Sigma Chi Fraternity and was chosen chairman of the Junior Prom.

Members of the building committee for the college YWCA are Loriss Sheldon, chairman; Grace Hunkins Marjorie Miller, Eulalie Huckle, Doris Lathrop, and Helen Louise Clemens. Projects for making money will be considered by the committee throughout the year. Jeanette Burseth is a new member of the office committee.

Martin Altenburg, class of '30, is the official state seed inspector for the State Seed Inspection department at the State College. His territory includes the northern Red River Valley section.

PEP RALLY HELD AT FARGO THEATER WED.

Something new in the line of a pep rally was held Wednesday night at the Fargo theater, according to R. L. Nippert, manager, who arranged a Bison night for that occasion to give college students a chance to let the air ring with their cheers.

As an added feature Mr. Nippert showed five minutes of Bison football squad movies, which were taken on the local campus some time ago. This is the first time any of the Bison grid-ders have appeared on the screen.

Along with the pictures, the manager used music by the Bison band, and cheers by Bison rooters under the direction of Arthur Cayou.

ALPHA SIGMA TAU ENTERTAINS PREPS

Alpha Sigma Tau entertained Saturday night in the college YMCA in honor of their pledges. Jack Mund was in charge of the general arrangements.

The decorations featured the pledge motif. Around the walks were lighted outlines depicting various phases of college life. The fraternity colors, old rose and grey were used in pillars of crepe paper which hung from the ceiling. During the course of the dance each of the pledges was introduced.

Judge and Mrs. Munson and Prof. and Mrs. Homer B. Huntoon acted as chaperons.

Debate Tryouts Are Planned October 29

Five Minute Talks on Selected Subjects Constitute Trial for Class Teams

Try-outs for the annual inter-class debates, sponsored by the Lincoln Debate Club, will be held in the Little Country Theatre, Wednesday, October 29, from 2 until 5 p. m.

New propositions have been chosen for debate this year. However, a five minute talk on any subject is all that is necessary for a try-out.

In the tentative schedule are some attractive debating tours and, in view of the fact that no previous experience is necessary, ought to attract large numbers to the try-outs.

After careful consideration the club has chosen the following for debate this year:

1. Resolved: That excessive smoking is deteriorating woman's intellect.
2. Resolved: That fifty per cent of those who matriculate at this institution are unsuited for a college education.
3. Resolved: That State College should establish adequate rest rooms for men in the several buildings on the campus.
4. Resolved: That Freshman hazing should be abolished.

ALUMNI ARRIVE AT FARGO TO ATTEND HOMECOMING

By car and train, from every direction, hundreds of alumni and sport enthusiasts began arriving here for North Dakota State College's Homecoming and, with good weather in the offing, Fargo may be guest to the greatest assemblage of visitors in history when Bison and Nodak footballers square off for the all important grid game this afternoon.

Interest in the contest has increased hourly to such a pitch that Bison athletic officials are making last minute renovations in the stands and bleachers to accommodate the largest crowd ever to witness a football game in North Dakota.

Never before in the state has the athletic stage been set so perfectly to draw the fans. Neither team has lost a game and the fracas will result in one of the two elevens being simultaneously crowned state and North Central Conference champion.

Prospects of the first Bison win over the Sioux in four years has brought the State College alumni to the Homecoming, while equally bright chances of the Nodak's third straight state and conference win has prompted several thousand University delegates to witness the joust.

Football attendance predictions are admittedly uncertain, but Casey Finnegan pdaes the expected crowd at 10,000. Whatever the attendance, there'll be at least a score times that many throughout the state with little on heir minds but football until the score is known.

More than ever before, North Dakota has gone "football".

NATIONAL INSPECTOR TO VISIT THETA CHI

Mr. Clair N. Fishbell, national traveling secretary of Theta Chi fraternity, will visit with Phi chapter next week. He will arrive here from Minneapolis, on Monday, where he is now inspecting Alpha Phi chapter, at the University of Minnesota.

During his stay here he will have conferences with chapter officers, committees, local alumni members, several faculty members, pledges, and a meeting with all active members.

Mr. Fishbell is an alumni member of Mu chapter, at the University of California.

Tumbling Classes Will Be Organized Soon

Mattingly Instructs This Group Twice a Week at YMCA

Tumbling at this college will be under the sponsorship of the athletic department of the College YMCA this year, according to Meredith Mattingly, who will again instruct in this form of gymnastics in addition to his college work in architecture. A meeting of those interested was held at the College Y gymnasium on Wednesday evening at 7:30 in order to allot applicants to classes and to discuss the program for the coming year.

These classes will meet twice a week in the north part of the YMCA gymnasium, where members will learn and perfect various ground tumbling, parallel bar and pyramid building acts. Ground tumbling includes hand balancing, kys, somersaults, hand-springs, and many other similar developments of agility and muscle coordination.

Freshmen are to be reminded that membership in the tumbling class will automatically excuse them from physical education work without the loss of school credit hours. The best group in the tumbling class will be awarded military decorations in the spring.

Students who have already signified their intentions of being in the tumbling classes are: Orville Isley, Wayne Eickenberry, Peter Stensgaard, Wilson Pierce, Herman Johnson, Gust Gerletz, Roy Shuldheiz, Paul Roshoet, Rudolph Anderson, Leo Schwehr, Nelson Robinson, W. F. French, Barton Rosen, Hubert Smith, C. Orvedahl, Victor Eddy, Lester Wyman, Hardies Elefson, Norbert Restemeyer, Joe Lindgren, Ralph Siminon, M. and W. Werking, Milton Lee, Don Lieb, Robert Connolly, Max Hughes, Norman Todd, Monroe Wright, and Don Harris. This list consists of upperclass men. A number of freshmen will most likely swell the list over the fifty mark.

Students Defying Fate At Festival

Rumors are floating over the campus that certain courageous individuals are defying fate and actually inviting the black cat to cross their path on Wednesday, Oct. 29.

At 8 p. m. on this eventful date the fifteenth annual Harvest Festival will be held in the Little Country Theatre, arranged by the classes in public discussion.

"The Black Cat" is a festival in three parts. Part one is concerned with the story of the festival and will be staged under the direction of Claire Newell. "Signs and Superstitions", the second episode arranged by Myrna Ottinger, will depict the carnival, and Rachel Sanderson is brewing the Witch's Stem to be served by witches and pumpkins in the Log Cabin.

To still further defy fate, the committee have set the admission price at 13 cents.

Miss Olive Francis, manager of the University bookstore, will be the guest of Miss Emily Dakin, manager of the North Dakota State bookstore, during Homecoming this week.

Paposes Trounce Bison Yearlings

Yearlings from North Dakota State meet defeat at the hands of the Sioux Paposes in the opening encounter of the season between the two schools. The margin of 19-0 showed the advantage held by Upstate frosh.

Pearson seemed to be the main cog for the University youngsters and had pretty near his own way in running the ends and picking the holes through the line made for him by his mates. Jacobson aided considerably in the Bison offense which functioned spasmodically. Toman of the Bison was quite badly injured. He entered the game with a bad ankle.

1932 BISON EDITOR SAYS YEARBOOK WILL BE BEST IN HISTORY

Luther, Curt Ball, John Mund, Ethel Renwick, Gertrude Almos, Erling Thorson, Joe Lindgren, Owen Bertelson, and Joe Paulson.

Other editors who have not as yet announced their staffs are, Agnes Weible, administration editor, Kenneth Wyard, athletic editor, Ruth Barrett and Clayton Reeves, art, and James Konen and Donald Halladay, photography.

Although the theme for the 1932 Bison will not be made public until later in the year, it has been thoroughly worked out, and will contain a modernistic element. There will also, according to Miss Weeks, be marked changes in several of the sections, and the scenic layout will be different from anything ever used in a State yearbook.
