VOLUME XLV.

STATE COLLEGE, NORTH DAKOTA FRIDAY, APRIL 11, 1930.

NUMBER 43

Helen Jenson Makes Highest Term Average

Registrar's Figures Give 94.5
As Best Grade
Recorded

RONALD OLSON LEADS CHEMISTS

DeKleine, Comm, Garlid Among First Five On the Honor Roll

Helen Jenson, Freshman in the school of education, headed the college honor roll for the winter term. Miss Jenson's average of 94.5 was the highest recorded, according to figures released from the office of the registrar yesterday.

Ronald Olson, Junior in the school of chemistry, was second with an average of 94.4. Olson has been near the top of the honor roll every term during his last two years in school. E. Hoyt DeKleine, Senior in the school of science and literature, ranked third with an average of 94.2.

Edward Comm, Freshman civil engineer, and Gerald Garlid, Freshman in the school of science and literature, tied for fourth place with an average of 94.1. Sarah Olson, Junior in the school of science and literature, maintained an average of 94 for the winter term. Hartley Eckstrom, Freshman chemical engineer, and Reynold Fredeen, Junior in education, tied with an average of 93.9. Edwin Minard, Senior in the school of chemistry, with an average of 93.8 and Carl Hoyem, Sophomore civil engineer, with an average of 93.7, complete the honor roll.

Rifle Team Loses National Title

Better Score Than Last Year Insufficient For Matches

With reports of the match not yet fully complete, Captain Frank Ross announces that North Dakota State college rifle team lost the national intercollegiate title, won by this college for the past two years. The North Dakota State rifle team of 1930, though it piled up a slightly better score than the championship team of 1928, met with greater opposition this year than ever before. Colleges, according to Captain Ross, have been gradually increasing the effectiveness of their rifle teams and some very exceptional scores were turned in during the recent match.

Although the rifle team of 1931 will lose five of its high scoring riflemen, Captain Ross expresses confidence in his team for next year. The riflemen that the team will lose are: Alvin Lee, Arthur Johnson, Kenneth Piper, Morris Barks, and Frank Dvorak.

The winner of the national intercollegiate match has not been announced as yet, pending reports from the University of Hawaii.

Men's Glee Club Sing In "Old Heidelberg"

The entire State College Men's Glee club will appear in "Old Heidelberg" which begins at the Orpheum theater next week and runs till Saturday night. Guy Beach is directing the production.

Each night ten members of the glee club will sing several songs in the student chorus. The play is the original of the Student Prince which was such a popular success as a light opera. Several numbers from the musical play will be sung. Among them appear: "The Marching Song", "The Drinking Song" and other popular selections.

This is the first time that Guy Beach has used any of the musical talent from the college and the appearance of the glee club marks an important step in developing the chorus.

MAY'S PARTNER

Helen Stokke

Miss Helen Stokke has been chosen as the partner of Leo May. Miss Stokke is a sophomore and resides in Grafton. The couple will have one of the places of honor in the Grand March. Her sorority is Gamma Phi Beta.

Summer Session Fortunate With Gardner Return

Noted Educator Here From June 17 Until July 26

The summer session of the North Dakota State college will open officially June 17, and will close July 26, 1930, according to Dean A. D. Weeks, chairman of the summer school committee.

An outstanding feature of the summer school will be the retaining of Dr. Gardner G. Basset, graduate of Clark university, Dartmouth college, and fellow of Johns Hopkins university, who has a rich background of experience behind him, including: directorship, of the psychological clinic, University of Pittsburgh; director of mental hygiene work in connection with Stanford university; professor of psychology at the University of Kentucky, at Lexington.

"It is anticipated that Dr. Basset's daily conferences on Educational and Vocational Guidance and Mental Hygiene will be a distinct feature of this summer session," Dean Weeks remarked.

Another attraction will be the addition of unit courses, or courses in prescribed fields, which will be given for one week only, and will carry with them one-half or one credit hour. These courses have been planned with special attention to people not especially interested in working toward a degree. B. C. B. Tighe, principal of Fargo high school, will give courses in Parent-Teacher associations and problems, and plans for character formation among children of the high school age. Practical one-week courses in Agriculture, Botany, Chemistry, Education, History, Journalism, Home Economics, Mathematics, Physical Education and Physics, which are designed with special emphasis on their practical value, are to be featured.

In addition to this the regular Basic courses will be given.

Leo May Selects Helen Stokke For 1930 Junior Prom

Aberdeen Man Is Football
Captain And Fine Athlete

Leo May, fourth in line at the annual Junior Prom which is to be held at the Crystal Ballroom on April 25, has selected Miss Helen Stokke of Grafton, N. D., for his partner. Miss Stokke is a Sophomore and is enrolled in the school of Science and Literature. Her sorority is Gamma Phi Beta. Mr. May, Aberdeen, S. D., is enrolled in the school of Education and is a member of Theta Chi fraternity. May is the outstanding athlete of the class, captain-elect of the 1930 football team, and has been president of his fraternity the past school year.

The Prom committee has adopted a new policy this year whereby there will be four members of the Junior class in line. They are to be followed by the committee heads.

Harry Chalmers and His Bubbblers of Duluth will play at the ball, according to Bernhard Benoit, manager, and Johnnie Johnson, music chairman. This eight piece band is one of the leading orchestras in the northwest.

Informal dancing will commence at 9:00 and continue until 9:30. Permission has been secured so that dancing can continue until 12:30. There will be twelve dances with two extras.

Several themes are being considered by the decoration committee, headed by Robert Carlson, and the selection of a definite theme will be made in the near future.

Tickets for the Prom were placed on sale Monday by Charles Hedlund and they can be secured from representatives, at each fraternity, or committee heads.

The school of agriculture was second with an average of 82.1. Home Economics, with an average of 81.6, was third. Mechanic Arts students with 81.5 were fourth. Other schools with their averages are as follows, science and literature, 81.3; chemistry, 80.0; and pharmacy, 81.3.

Papyrus Ebers Says "Chain Store System Rotten" In Edition

Pharmacy Magazine Has Very Interesting Articles On Drugs

"The Chain Store System is rotten to the core," says the late edition of Papyrus Ebers, a magazine published in the interest of Pharmacy by the North Dakota Pharmacy Club. The magazine goes on to add that "the wolf at the door can always be turned into a fur coat," and also asks: "How can students be expected to pass the course in show-card writing when it is reported that a member of the faculty was flunked out after attending class three times?"

These and other snappy observations go in to make the March 1930 edition of Papyrus Ebers a most interesting number. There is a very good article by Dean Sudro on "Perfumes"; a discussion of the Capper-Kelly Bill; a story on Pharmacy in Germany, by J. R. Bowdon; one on sales building ideas by Walter Engard; besides many others of equal significance and importance.

Exchange System

Papyrus Ebers, a name taken from the first written discussion of medicines as found in Egypt, is subscribed to by North Dakota drugstores, and by Alumni that have gone out from out School of Pharmacy.

The staff for this issue included: Doris Sommer, editor; Leonard Reager, desk editor; Helen Fetsch, Frank Sykora, Harriet Hallenberg, Laura Stika, reporters; Dan Baillie, business manager; Alfred Forbord, circulating manager; L. McDonald, advertising, assisted by James Parkins and George Salaba.

OUR FACULTY
So much has been said in The Spectrum, the Bison, the Fargo Forum editorials, College and State, relative to the high caliber of the student body, the athletic teams, stock judging groups, etc. But nothing seems to find print which concerns the faculty of North Dakota State. For instance, we hear continually about the growing enrollment, that is, the quantity theory of success. Critics seem to forget the quality back of this phenomenal expansion. One of the surest guarantees to prospective Bison of the worth of our faculty should present itself in this popularity, a settled characteristic of this institution.

High school students throughout the Northwest who are now debating the choice of a college, will do well to consider this aspect. And to such individuals, reached by The Spectrum exchange system, may we extend the invitation of our annual May Festival. You will do well to attend this display, staged for your benefit, and while here, take advantage of the expert advice of the Deans of the several "Schools" on the campus.

The dates are May 9th and 10th. Plan for it—We need you high school students; you need us.

And to the student body—plan to have several home town friends here for the event. Begin now! Give them the opportunity of interviewing our faculty.

PAPYRUS EBERS
Contains a very good observation, which goes like this: You get business—
By asking for it.
By hunting it up.
By sweating for it.
By planning for it.
By advertising for it.
By delivering the goods.
By learning from others' experience.
By beginning when the customer is born.
By salespersons who know the follow ups of the mailing list. If you don't believe these brutal facts, try sitting home on the sofa, twiddling the thumbs, waiting for business to come in on a silver platter.

been torn up. Indeed, we frequently find, according to Dean Minard, evidences of a hilarious night before. Just who it is, or who are they? Who are using room 125 of Science Hall in which to stage a revival meeting, or log-rolling convention, or what?
FROM NOW ON A CLOSE WATCH WILL BE KEPT! OFFENDERS WATCH OUT!

FATHER AND SON GO GAMMA RHO

When Christian Bjornson, freshman in agriculture at the North Dakota State college, was initiated into active membership in Alpha Gamma Rho Friday, his father, Ben Bjornson, Mandan, a state veterinarian, went through the same ceremony, becoming a member of the national agriculture fraternity.

And Christian's uncle, S. K. Bjornson, Chicago, graduate of the college here, now national president of Alpha Gamma Rho, was present to see his brother and nephew become members of his fraternity.

It was founder's day for Alpha Gamma Rho last Friday, the fraternity celebrating its 22nd birthday. Initiates besides the two Bjornsons, included Robert Klusman, New Salem; Albert Buckli, Hebron; Earl Hodgson, Gardner; Anton Bruner, Drake; Harold Shafer, Bismarck; Arthur Hoveland, Maddock; Harold Wales, Van Hook; William McDonald, Fargo; William Grey, Valley City.

From the college, alumni members were Walter Davidson, Dr. H. L. Walster, Dr. J. H. Shepperd, Cap E. Miller, C. B. Waldron and Dr. O. O. Churchill.

Dr. Churchill was toastmaster; Harold Shafer of the new initiates, H. P. Sullivan, retiring president, S. K. Bjornson, national president, Leonard Luther, noble ruler, Epsilon chapter here, and William Guy, of the first class of initiates in Epsilon chapter gave talks.

The national president was presented with an overnight bag and a suitcase by Epsilon chapter. Prof. J. T. Thompson gave a talk on the history of Alpha Gamma Rho and the history of Epsilon chapter.

Will garters be worn 15 years from now? Judging by the students of Washington and Lee university the answer is "no." Estimates show that only 20 percent of the students there wear garters. These statistics show that garters are rapidly becoming a thing of the past. The garterless fad, started 10 years ago as a mere collegiate whim, has now grown to become a convenience and comfort.

Something new in dramatics at Kansas university is being tried out. One of Octavius Roy Cohen's plays, a farce comedy of negro life, "Come Seven", is to be presented by an all-negro cast, selected from students on the campus.

Wise Guy vs The Sceptic

Dear Johana:
TODAY AN OLD COLLEGE FRIEND OF MINE STAGGERED UP THE BROWN, ROOT-BOUND PATH TO MY CABIN. It was really quite touching to appreciate the exertions which this broken product of the screeching city endured to reach me. I was moved and surprised that anyone cared to pay me a visit. After mutual greetings had been exchanged he plunged into an account of his work as a famous doctor. The dialogue moved in this vein:
" - - - and then I placed the cadaver upon a slab, first removing the cranium, and then the throat. A study of the upper portion of the trachea, cortex, cerebral hemispheres, gyri, medulla oblongata, failed to find the cause. Thereupon, I had my assistant remove the ventral portion, disclosing a perfect heart, pair of lungs, and spinal cord. We were at a loss. I placed the bones in a crucible, and heated for three hours, adding two grams of potassium. Then - - - etc. etc."

After he waddled away I became oppressed with a profound melancholy. The mood intensified until the buzzing in my eardrums, and the ache of the lower jaw, began to have their effects. Most ghastly and blinding lights shot through the eyeballs; sweat poured from the scalp, matting the hair; I became obsessed with an idea of death, and fled terrified down the mountain slope. My nightmare must have carried me beyond ordinary strength, for consciousness eventually left me.

I awoke calm but sad. I, who pretend to move in the upper hemispheres of thought, totally upset by the fascination of science. Why had I chosen my present vocation? Alas, think of what we intellectuals miss, in our petty squabbles among fundamentals. Think of the adventure, thrill of discovery, excitement of experimentation.

Yes, science is one world; business is one world; art is one world; philosophy is another. I chose the latter. Was it a mistake? Johana, did you give cars consideration to choosing a life work, or did you get in a rut and consider the route too late to alter?
I have been unable to overcome my melancholy. Is the end lunacy? Maybe I'm not such a wise guy.

Michael.

Dear Mike:
Why get into such an involved discussion - - - the average reading public likes slap-stick comedy. Besides, you are nothing but an immature thinker.

No, my friend, the end is not lunacy, but exaggerated introspection.
About choosing a life work. The great diversity of man's available professions indicates a great diversity in man himself. Each can find work nearest to his heart; the great tragedy is that few are courageous enough to overcome the obstacles in entering said labor. They adopt a middle course, the easiest way, by pursuing the available profession, thereby increasing the probability of future unhappiness.

Cheer up my boy; forget the critics. Every man has his knockers, those individuals who make up a pseudo-professional class in themselves, having no real ability, and taking no part in the art itself. Read Amy's "Dinner Party."
Johana.

The parking situation at the University of California became so drastic that it became necessary for the board of regents of the institution to appropriate $24,000 with which to develop a permanent auto parking stand on the campus. Official estimates indicated that over 3,000 cars are parked daily by students and instructors.

State College Frosh Show Promise

Fine Aggregation Of Prep Veterans Report To Saaly

Murner, Ellingson, Goodman Are Point Winners In Events, Distance

McKENDRY BEST HURDLE PROSPECT

Schwartz May Come Through In The High Jump This Year

Future track teams of North Dakota State will be hard to beat if the Freshman aspirants of this year have anything to do with it. Coach Leonard Saalwaechter seems highly pleased with the men he has signed up, characterizing the Baby Bison cinder men as one of the best aggregations of record breakers that he has had for many years.

In the sprints, Coach Saalwaechter has Murner of Aberdeen, S. D., and Ellingson of Mohall. These two are expected to show their heels to any others in the ranks. With the signing of Goodman of Devils Lake the Frosh have one of the best distance men of State; he captured first in both the mile and the half mile in the state high school meet of a year ago.

McKendry State Winner

The hurdles bring also some winners of last year from high school in McKendry and McDonald of Mandan, who captured first and second respectively in the high school meet, and Murner who also tries the art of clearing the barriers.

In the weight events, the Frosh have Schroder, Graid Forks, to put the shot; Enders, Fargo and McKay, Valley City, in the discus; and Orness, Valley City, to throw the javelin. These men have all proved their superiority in these events and are expected to do a great deal. Schroder, Enders, and Orness have all placed first in both May Festival and State meet competition while in high school.

High Jumper Good

Competition in the high jump will be extremely keen in the Freshman ranks this year with the presence of Schwartz of Bismarck, who has shown a great deal of promise while in high school by setting a new May Festival record in the event and also by tying the state record last year.

The mile and two mile runs have attracted two men from the cross-country squad of last year. They are: Stenier of Hazelton, and Hall of Starkweather. These two have shown their capabilities by giving the varsity runners of last year many a merry chase.

The pole vault has a number of candidates who are expected to win points in the future, including Edlund of Fergus Falls, Kampstad, a man who has won recognition from the U. of Washington for his work in the event, and Harold Dwight, who also is expected to furnish some keen competition.

Besides these leaders in the various events, there are signed up a number of other promising candidates who can certainly be counted on to offer some stiff competition. They are: Roberts, Quinnild and Pung in middle distance; Horn in the two mile; Hemple, Booth, Lee and Call in the high and low hurdles; Houtcooper, Lee and Cayou in the broad jump; and Hall and Golden in the high jump.

Baseball Equipment Aired as Fraternity Baseball Approaches

The baseball season is not very far away; at least this weather has brought the baseball paraphernalia out at quite an early date. And why not? The campus organizations have been waiting to make another tight race such as was experienced in the basketball tournament.

The Kappa Phi, pennant winners of last year, are sure to be in the fight for this season's trophy. They are a hard outfit to beat, whether it be in baseball, basketball, or flinch. And speaking of flinch, there seems to be a few fraternity teams that simply will not flinch at the task of whipping the Kappa Phi. The runner-up Delta Sigs, they run up everything but the first place quints, say that they will have nothing left in their path at the end of the season. Maybe they will get a new monicker, who knows?

Now, after all their advertising, we might add that the Theta Chis, Kappa Psis, Gamma Rhos, and Sigma Taus are also going to finish at the top, according to rumors. Now if six teams are going to finish the season at the top, we would ask, "At the top of what?" And perhaps the Sigma Phi Deltas and Kappa Sigma Chis will be there, too, but that seems a bit unusual for "our Boston teams." They certainly deserve to get their names on the other end of the standings, however.

The schedule and starting date for the great conflict will be announced next week.

Golf Team Strong For 1930 Campaign

Cook, Fairhead, Faber Will Form Nucleus; Frosh Material Good

The State college will be represented by a formidable golf team again this year in spite of the loss of Leroy Boyd, one of last year's stellar performers. Paul Cook, George Fairhead, and Tony Faber are back better than ever. If Cook's trophies were not acquired at a pawnshop, it would seem that Bobby Jones himself should have all the opposition he cared for in a match with Paul.

Maybe our veterans are good, but we have more talent in Bob Olsen and Bob Danstrom. The freshman material is composed of Don Nichols, Freddy Anderson, Bill Heller, and Jimmy Slattery.

The varsity squad has several games scheduled with the University and possible games with other state institutions. At present the freshmen have only the games with Fargo high.

BROADSIDES

By Cliff Bollman

Well, tonight's fight night at the Armory.

ANYBODY MISSING THESE FIGHTS MUST BE MARRIED, IF SO, BRING THE WIFE SHE MIGHT ENJOY SEEING ONE FOR A CHANGE.

Dvorak says that the teachers don't sound tough to him.

They may be able to teach some things but we don't believe that they can teach Dvorak and his boys much about boxing.

If McMillan is sporting a black eye tomorrow just remember that he is playing football.

CASEY SAYS THAT HE HAS A FEW TIGERS UNDER LEASH HIMSELF. AND THAT'S NO BULL EITHER, ROD.

WE SEE THAT MOLITER HAS BEEN WORKING HARD FOR HIS BOUT TONIGHT. WELL KID GIVE IT TO 'EM, WE'RE ALL FOR YOU.

We don't know Stevens' middle name but you can bet that it won't worry Johnny much tonight.

Bond says that boxing may be tough on the mug but there's nothing like going out with Bob Lowe and the boys getting a few on the shins.

We propose 12 ounce gloves and bedroom slippers for all football candidates.

North Dakota State has a new triple threat man. Between football, track and Boxing we don't see how Rod McMillan has any time to follow the plow.

THERE WILL BE A BUSY NIGHT FOR THE LIGHTWEIGHTS.

TOO BAD THAT WE CAN'T PUT THEM ALL TOGETHER AND THEN TAKE ON CARNERA. THREE 135 POUNDERS WOULD BE ABOUT THE RIGHT SIZE FOR HIM.

We wonder who belongs to the two-bit idea.

There must be a lot of Irishmen around here the way they're trying to keep the Scotchmen from seeing the fights tonight.

Well we will certainly have to present the special hand painted gaboon to any Scotchman who would miss an attraction like tonight's for two-bits.

THE GAMMA RHOS TOOK THE BOXING TROPHY.

It looks as though they will have to take the shovel off the mantle to make room for it.

WELL—SEE YOU ALL AT THE FIGHTS TONIGHT, BUT BEFORE LEAVING WE HEREBY CHALLENGE ANYBODY WHO DOESN'T BELIEVE THEM WORTH THE MONEY TO AN ORATORICAL JOUST TO BE STAGED IN THE LITTLE COUNTRY THEATER ON THE FIFTH WEEK OF NEXT MONTH.

An egg-rolling contest down Mount Oread is to be one of the kiddie features of the night rodeo at the University of Kansas Relays, April 18.

Hamline university has the distinction of having one of its graduates not only a doctor, but also a lawyer. If this is not a record, maybe the fact that this person is a woman will clinch the case.

Tourney Winners To Receive Awards

The winners of first and second places in the recent Golden Glove tournament held in the Armory will be presented with medals in connection with the boxing bouts to be held there tonight.

Many of the winners appear on the card tonight and the fans will probably have their last chance of seeing them in action this year.

The Gamma Rhos will also be presented with a beautiful trophy for garnering the greatest number of points in this tournament. This is the first year that a trophy has been offered to fraternities for boxing, which was made an inter-mural sport this winter.

The athletic department believes that the tournament was a great success and is another big step forward in their campaign of developing athletics for all.

State Fighters, Teacher College To Meet Tonight

Tiger Bielfeldt, Frankie Dvorak Will Tangle In The Headliner

Six four round bouts are scheduled between Moorhead State Teachers and State boxers at the Armory tonight at 8:00. These fights are the first of their kind to be held in North Dakota where boxers representing two schools clash.

The card will be headlined by Frank Dvorak, State, crashing football middleweight. Dvorak will mix with Albert Zech of Moorhead, champion of the Minnesota National Guard. Dvorak has been doing some nice fighting this year and will represent State at the A. A. U. Golden Glove tournament to be held under the auspices of the Minneapolis Shriners later in the month at Minneapolis. He will be forced to the limit tonight against Zech, who is rated as one of the best amateur middleweights in Minnesota. Other boxers may represent State at this tournament, according to their showing made tonight.

Tiger Cy Bielfeldt will carry Moorhead's hopes against Rod McMillan, the fighting lightweight from Mott, in the semi-final. Bielfeldt's rushing tactics are always the delight of the fans but Rod's flashy right is liable to terminate things before the fight is over.

Johnny Bond will exchange punches with Moberg of Moorhead. Bond is runner-up to Dvorak for the championship of the school. This will be a middleweight bout.

Three lightweight bouts are carded. Bobby Ward, who defeated Johnny Moliter in a close fight for the lightweight championship, will tangle with Ruegamer of Moorhead with Moliter meeting Art Stevens in another bout. Burton Pinkham, semi-finalist in the school tournament, meets Leonard Hendrickson in the third 135 pound bout.

This card is not a true intercollegiate match as all weights are not represented. The athletic officials of both schools have selected the best available talent in both institutions in order to make the card an outstanding attraction. Boxers in every weight are not at hand to make the best matches so that the welterweight and featherweight divisions are not represented.

This is the first attempt at such a program as this and there will be a charge of 25 cents for all students.

GAMMA PHI BETA

Gamma Phi Beta announces the pledging of Catherine Myers and Myrna Severin of Fargo, on Monday evening at the chapter house.

April 23 Is Date For YMCA Election

Glen McCleary, Carl Albrecht Are Candidates For President

Election of officers for the college YMCA will be held on Wednesday, April 23, in the Y building. Candidates for the several offices have been named.

Glen McCleary and Carl Albrecht are entered in the race for the presidential office, the candidate placing second assuming the vicepresidency. Entered in the contest for the office of treasurer are Linell Johnson, George Probstfield, and Walter Lagerberg. Ralph Weible and Erling Arnstad are candidates for recorder. Three students are in the race for student representative, being Clark Fredrikson, Erling Thorson, and Clarence Orness. Entered as candidates for members of the board of three members are Albert Severson, Rudolph Otterson, and Dr. C. I. Nelson.

The present officers of the YMCA are Joseph Lindgren, president; Eugene Huckle, vice-president; Martin Altenberg, treasurer; Jesse Reynolds, recorder; and Gilbert Johnson, student representative.

HERE AND THERE

Iowa may revise its 1930 grid schedule so as to include games with Big Ten teams.

Coe college fraternities will be required to have house mothers at their chapter houses, beginning next September.

Twelve hundred fans turned out recently to witness an intra-mural boxing match at the University of Washington.

A library clock "that will run" is the contribution of this year's senior class of the Utah State Agricultural college.

Men at Northwestern university cannot have dates for athletic contests. It is an old tradition still enforced because it is believed that dates detract men's enthusiasm for game and do not show respect for the players who are unable to bring girls.

PUTNAM, TINDALL SPEAK AT BANQUET

Dr. Putnam and Matt Tindall, alumni secretary, are to be principal speakers at the alumni banquet to be given at the Curtis hotel in Minneapolis, Monday, April 14.

About thirty alumni of North Dakota State college are expected to attend. The Northern States Power Company orchestra will play, Dr. Putnam directing several numbers as guest conductor.

Three Hundred Attend Recital

Nearly 300 persons attended the annual dance recital given by Miss Dorothy Cole and the classes in gymnasium and dancing last night in the Little Country theater. The same program will be given tomorrow night.

A Nautch dance done by Miss Alpha Knight was the outstanding number on the program. Miss Knight demonstrated her skill with the grace of a professional. The dance depicted the Indian dancing maiden. Helen Jensen, Walterine Berry, and Rhoda Marr interpreted a Polish group of friends chatting between the dances. Dorothy Smith and Crystal Mannes in their Moslem sword dance showed a grace and charm in handling the swords through the intricate interpretation.

About 50 women participated in recital. The affair is given two nights this year because of the lack of space to meet the requirements of the spectators. The Armory was not large enough to hold the audience last year.

The University of Southern California is offering a course in Photoplay for juniors and seniors. Several prominent motion picture stars, directors, technicians, and producers have accepted the invitation to lecture. Among them are: Mary Pickford, Louella Parsons, Fred Niblo, Hugo Risenfeld, William De Mille, Sid Grauman, Hobart Bosworth, Karl Strauss, Jane Murfin, and William La Baron. The course was started last spring. It was so successful that it will be continued again this year and possibly in the future.
