Ronald Pearce Is Outstanding In Grumpy Role

Boerth as the Niece and Heilman as Her Fiancee Do Excellent Work

PLOT IS VERY CLEVER

Cayou, Fredrickson, and Ash Carry Minor Roles Efficiently

Due in a great part to the excellent acting of Ronald Pearce in the title role, the Edwin Booth term play "Grumpy" attained considerable success in its presentation Wednesday, Feb. 19, in the Little Country Theater.

Pearce showed an understanding and development of the difficult interpretation of an old but still vigorous criminal lawyer which he succeeded in keeping until the curtain went down. Ruth Boerth and Charles Heilman playing opposite each other as Grumpy's niece and her fiancee, respectively, did their usual excellent work, while Arthur Cayou, Clark Fredrickson, and Carl Ash carried minor roles with distinction.

It is true, however, that this play is one of the effect of which would be hard to spoil. It is the cleverly told story of the robbery of a diamond, and its recovery through the astuteness and wit of "Grumpy". Not only is the plot well-knit but the lines are exceptionally clever. It was produced by an English company in London headed by the famous actor, Cyril Maude, several years ago and played a phenomenal run there.

The cast included also the following: Donald Lieb, Jean Pote, Callista Berrigan, Harold Julsrud, Rod McMillan, and Gerald Garlid. Prof. A. G. Arvold directed the play.

Rifle Team Primed For Victory Over "U"

The North Dakota State rifle team is primed to win the shoulder-to-shoulder match to be held with the University rifle team in Grand Forks tomorrow and incidentally to avenge last week's defeat, according to Captain Frank Ross, coach.

The rifle team trained hard this week and now feel confident that they will outshoot the Nodaks in their coming meet.

JOURNALISM CLASS HAS NEW PROJECT

Journalism 6 class in advanced reporting under the supervision of T. Worden Johnson are carrying out a new project. Each Thursday one student reads and reports to the class on certain chapters in the text book. This is done for two purposes, first so that the students will not find it necessary to purchase a very expensive text book; and second that they may spend the time, otherwise used in reading all of the assignments, in writing news. A requisite of 50 column inches printed in either the Fargo Forum, papers or The Spectrum must be handed in to the instructor in the form of a notebook with the time and place of publication of each article by the end of the term.

Mr. M. Willows, field agent for the National Recreation school, New York, visited State college Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. The purpose of his visit was to find community recreation leaders who plan to enroll at the New York school.

PHI OMEGA PI INITIATES FOUR
Phi Omega Pi announces the initiation of Verna Johnson, Gertrude Pulscher, Bernice Emmons, and Lois Julian, on Sunday morning, Feb. 9, in the Masonic Temple. The pledges of the sorority gave a breakfast in honor of the new initiates following the services.

An outdoor swimming pool is included in the building program of Oberlin college.

WILHELM TELL WILL BE GIVEN NEXT WEEK

"Wilhelm Tell", the immortal drama by Frederick Schiller will be given in the Little Country Theater Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. The class in advanced play production has charge of the play.

The scene of this classic is laid in the Swiss Alps. The scenic effects of the production are being made by Kathryn Engbretson, Laura Watkins, Emma Nelson, Dorothea Olson, Vera Hoople, and Lois Klinsmann. The lighting effects will include the storm and the sunshine of the Swiss. A string orchestra has been procured that will play the music from the original score.

With Kenneth McCullough as the son of Tell, the advanced production class has worked out a most ingenious scheme for removing the apple after Tell, senior, has fired his arrow. The tickets are now on sale by members of the class.

McDunn Chooses Partner For Ball

Claire Peterson of Fargo to Assist Pan-Hellenic President

Miss Luella McDunn, president of the Pan-Hellenic council and leader of the fifth annual Charity ball, has chosen Claire Peterson of Fargo as her partner for the big formal party at the Crystal ballroom next Friday evening.

Over 200 couples are expected to attend, according to Miss McDunn. Among the honored guests of the evening are: President and Mrs. J. H. Shepperd, Dean Alba Bales, Dean and Mrs. L. L. Carrick, Dean Pearl Dinan, Dean and Mrs. R. M. Dolve, Dean and Mrs. A. E. Minard, Dean and Mrs. A. D. Weeks, Dean and Mrs. H. L. Walster, Director and Mrs. P. F. Trowbridge, Director and Mrs. C. E. Munroe, and Dean and Mrs. W. F. Sudro.

Miss McDunn, besides being Pan-Hellenic president and Charity ball manager, is a member of Phi Kappa Lambda sorority. Peterson is a member of Alpha Sigma Tau.

Formal dancing will begin at nine o'clock and last until twelve. Dr. and Mrs. A. K. Smith and Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Hunter will chaperone the affair. The music will be furnished by the Red Jackets.

Students in the junior and senior sections of the Architecture department have entered a contest sponsored by the Pan-Hellenic council. The contest involves posters dealing with some aspect of the Charity ball.

Fox Undefeated As Featherweight King

Eliminations in Golden Glove Tournament Attract Large Throng

"Casey" Finnegan will have to build a larger arena if Lieut. Fay Smith continues to put on the popular boxing shows that he has so far. The large throng lustily gave their approval of the best boxing card seen in college circles, last night.

Charlie Fox, of Leeds, N. D., successfully defended his laurels in the featherweight division in the main go of the Golden Glove tournament staged in the college armory last night, when he defeated Louie Kromarek of Scranton, N. D. The majority of the fans seemed to believe that Kromarek should have had at least a draw with the champion. The first and second rounds were fairly even with few solid punches landing effectively, both battlers being contented to feel each other out. The third round found both battlers fighting at top speed, Kromarek tying the champion up whenever he started to rush in close. Fox landed several telling blows, but Kromarek's ring generalship offset this to swing the round to a fair draw. Fox came back strong in the last round to swing the judges in his favor, by rushing Kromarek repeatedly. Both boxers got a big hand when they left the ring.

REDEEM THEM NOW

Anyone who has a ticket for Gamma Tau Sigma's humor magazine, the Bull Bison, and wishes to redeem it for a copy must do so some time before Monday noon. There are very few copies of the publication available. Adolph Pahl, business manager of the 1931 Bison, is eager to get an accurate check on the number of copies sold. Remember that Monday is the last day that tickets can be redeemed. If you did not get a copy of the Bull Bison, you had better do so immediately.

Lambdas Will Have Official Inspector Here March First

Montana State Dean, Four Minnesota Actives to Be Guests

Phi Kappa Lambda sorority will be officially inspected by Alpha Gamma Delta, national social sorority, on March 1.

Miss Gladys Branegan, Dean of Home Economics at Montana State college, Bozeman, has been appointed official inspector. Miss Julia Riser of Birmingham, Alabama, who is National Extension Chairman, will also come to Fargo at that time.

Four active members from Delta chapter of Alpha Gamma Delta at Minnesota University will be guests of Phi Kappa Lambda sorority at the Charity Ball, and will spend the weekend here with the national inspectors. Other members of Alpha Gamma Delta who will be week-end guests of Phi Kappa Lambda include Miss Reefa Tordorff of Valley City who is a member from Beta chapter, University of Wisconsin; Miss Madge Runey, Bismarck; Mrs. F. W. Piek, Carrington, and Mrs. Paul Smith, Amenia, who are members of Delta chapter, University of Minnesota.

Plans for the entertainment of the visiting Alpha Gamma Delta members are nearing completion. Mrs. A. E. Cannon, Alpha Gamma Delta member from Epsilon chapter at the University of Kentucky, will entertain the visitors at dinner on Friday evening, Feb. 28. On Saturday, March 1, the college will entertain at a luncheon at the Pacific house; that same evening patronesses and alumnae members of Phi Kappa Lambda will give a buffet supper at the home of Mrs. Kent Darrow. Saturday afternoon the active chapter of Phi Kappa Lambda will give a tea in Ceres hall parlors. Mae Borgen is in charge of general arrangements.

Friday morning the following girls, representing the chapter of Alpha Gamma Delta sorority at the University of Minnesota, will arrive: Misses Mary Jane Grimes, president, Irene Fogarty, Mary Whitcomb and Jane Scott.

(Alpha Gamma Delta sorority was founded May 30, 1904, at Syracuse university, New York. There are now thirty-nine chapters of the sorority.)

Sigma Taus, Kappa Phis Win Easily

Gamma Rhos and Theta Chis Suffer Losses at Hands of League Leaders

The Sigma Taus and Kappa Phis came through with wins in the interfraternity basketball league when they defeated their respective opponents with comparative ease. The Taus defeated the Gamma Rho quint by a 23 to 12 score. Braus and Allison were the mainstays for the Taus, while Robertson and McKinnon were the Rhos' best. The Kappa Phis defeated the Theta Chi aggregation by a 20 to 10 score. Hermes and Lonsbrough were the stars for the winners, while Raymond and Hill were the threats for the Theta Chis.

Four Teams Oppose University Forces at The Forks Saturday

Several Hundred State Boosters To Leave By Car or Great Northern Special For Renewal Of Annual Interstate Feud

The second section of the Bison-Nodak feud will be resumed at Grand Forks Saturday night at 7:30 o'clock, when the two teams meet in the second conference game. The winner will have a chance of tying South Dakota "U" for the championship of the conference, this being contingent upon the outcome of the S. D. U.-S. D. S. game at Vermillion.

Coach Leonard Saalwaechter of North Dakota State, expects his team to win both games at the Forks, and return home with State championship. "Saaly" supports his confidence on the performance of the Bison in the second game with the "U" here last Saturday. He believes the boys were really in form that night, and will maintain that calibre of play these last two games. State was the master in every department of the game then, and they are going to remain in this position if Saalwaechter's predictions are accurate.

Gold Star Band Plays Concert

Program Was Also Broadcast Over WDAY Wednesday Evening

Playing the first convocation concert of the winter term last Wednesday, the Gold Star Band under the direction of Dr. C. S. Putnam presented one of the finest and best executed group of numbers heard on the campus for some time.

The program opened with the North Dakota Hymn by Foley-Putnam. The second number on the program was a March—"El Riad Temple dedicated to El Riad Temple of Sioux Falls, S. D., and written by a friend of Putnams. The difficult "Egmont Overture", by Beethoven was followed by a light Caprice, "Puchinello", by Victor Herbert. Perhaps one of the most popular numbers of the program was the Suite—"Four Ways" by Eric Coates. The two numbers played by the band were "Eastwards", depicting oriental music and "Westwards" or the music of America in its most modern form. The Mexican Serenade—"Estrellita", by Ponce and the Yellow and Green completed the program.

This program was also broadcast over station WDAY. According to reports and letters received by Putnam, the Broadcast was one of the most popular of the series that have come from Music Hall.

DEAN OF WOMEN GOES TO NAT'L CONVENTION

Pearl E. Dinan, Dean of Women, left last week for Atlantic City, N. J., to attend the annual meeting of the National Association of Deans of Women which is being held there Feb. 19-23.

Sunday, Feb. 17, Dean Dinan spent in Madison Wisconsin at the University looking over problems that confront the deans of a larger school.

Following the convention Dean Dinan will go to New York to attend some committee meetings. She will return to Fargo March 1.

During her absence, Mathilda B. Thompson of the mathematics department has been taking charge of the Dean's office in the afternoon.

KAPPA DELTAS GET BOXES OF CANDY ON MONDAY

Active and pledge members of Kappa Delta sorority were the lucky consumers of two five-pound boxes of candy last Monday night. "Gil" Johnson sent one of the boxes announcing his engagement to Robina Wylder, alumna who is teaching at Coopers-town. Merrill McCurdy sent the other announcing his to Florence Ruud.

The University of Hawaii has a new nutrition laboratory in which the chief work will be in connection with the study of Japanese foods.

Many Fans to Go

With the prospect of ideal weather conditions this week-end, the number of fans planning to go to Grand Forks for the games is increasing rapidly. For those who do not care to drive, the Great Northern has offered special rates for the round trip. The train will leave Fargo at 10 o'clock, and arrive in Grand Forks shortly after noon, and the return trip must be made not later than Monday night. The fare and a third rate is $3.76, and students can purchase tickets in Matt Tindall's office before 5 o'clock Friday, or on the train en route. The Gold Star Band, and the Pep Club plan to accompany the team, and lead the support of State college backers.

Other Contests Planned

Besides the varsity battle, there will be other Bison-Nodak contests Saturday. The two freshman teams will play the second game of their series in the afternoon, and the State rifle team will shoot a match with the Nodaks in an attempt to avenge their defeat of last Saturday. If weather permits, the varsity hockey teams of the two institutions will furnish entertainment for followers of that sport. The competition will be culminated by the clash between the two varsity basketball teams, which should pack the armory both Saturday and Monday nights.

Programs Slated For Convocations

Two convocation programs have been arranged by Dean A. E. Minard, dean of the school of Science and literature, which will be presented Feb. 28 and March 3 at 9:30 a. m. for the student body.

The first presentation will be offered by the Tiffany Male quartet sent out under the auspices of the University of Minnesota. They have performed several previous times before the college body.

Miss Suzanne Kenyon, concert soprano under the supervision of Harry and Arthur Culbertson, concert managers of New York city, will be the second attraction on the schedule. She appears in costume for Italian, French, Chinese, and southern selections, which will make up her program.

INDOOR GROUP PHOTOS COMPLETED FOR BISON

By snapping the Cosmopolitan club executive committee, the Owl Studio photographers concluded the taking of indoor groups for the 1931 Bison. The first of these pictures was taken Tuesday, Jan. 28, while the last was taken Tuesday, Feb. 19.

The response of the organizations to the schedule was excellent, according to Ralph Huff, organizations editor. Mr. Huff announces that the outdoor pictures will be taken in the near future.

"Because of a new camera room," said Mr. Huff, "the group photographs will be much superior to those of last year." A. R. Scherling, of the Owl Studio, and the official photographer for the annual, was in charge of the groups.

A Criticism!

Wednesday's convocation program presented the Gold Star Band rendering a concert of great merit. One is forced to concede that the possibilities lying in a military band are quite remarkable. We were chiefly interested in the selection, "Westward", a rendition that stood out among the several numbers. This was played with a technique bordering on poetic fervor. Its effect on the audience was marked.

The band acted as a unit. However, one must commend the percussion section alone, and also the base section. Gerald McNally stood out in the latter group. Led by that exceptional musician, William Euren, the trumpet section was brilliant, and surpassed the efforts of the reeds. William Watson led the clarinets in a creditable manner. Doctor C. S. Putnam conducted the organization in his usual, careful way, and made the program doubly interesting with his words of explanation.—H. H. P.

Practice What You Preach, Spectrum!

Last week we published a report on the fire hazards existing on the campus. Mr. Richard Kraft informs us that steps have already been taken to clean up the Science Hall attic "suffering from twenty-nine years of neglect." He went on to add that perhaps the greatest fire hazard exists right at home, in the Spectrum office! Students persist in smoking in this room. Several discarded cigaret butts have burned holes in the floor. The danger of a general conflagration is significant.

HENCEFORTH—NO SMOKING IN THE SPECTRUM OFFICE.

THIS RULE WILL BE ENFORCED BY THE EDITOR AND THE STAFF. REMEMBER, LEAVE YOUR CIGARETTES, CIGARS, OR PIPE OUTSIDE!

Bison Brevities

In two weeks the North Dakota State show will be presented to the public. This offering is one of the greatest advertisers of the institution we attend. The time is now ripe for concentrating attention on the event (with apologies to the Charity Ball). Sponsored by the school, under the immediate direction of Blue Key fraternity, and the student body, the Bison Brevities is of utmost significance. We are trusting the group managers and Messrs. Wallum and Huntoon to present acts of high caliber. To the student body is given the task of backing the project—yes, we MEAN BACK IT! Give the show a backbone of public interest. Make Fargo and Moorhead think Mr. Ringling and Mr. Borah have come to town! Anyway, be there with your Aunts and Uncles.

Watch!

For the Special Edition next Tuesday.

The Nation's Greatest Danger

Some evangelists say it's Atheism; women's clubs point to Sunday movies; the cigaret is deplored by W. C. T. U. workers; modern novelists lament the industrial system and magazines are horrified by the younger generation. Radicals tell us that imperialism, wealth and its concentration, increase of divorce, spell our downfall. Indeed, if one believes all that clutters conventional literature he fears the future.

What is the greatest danger threatening the nation? None of the above "calamities" affect all classes. There is, however, one great danger weighing upon every man, woman, and child, namely, SUNDAY NEWSPAPERS.

Sunday newspapers! The Bible for us all! The Almanac for world's greatest authors. Here we find the super-structure—the cook book, short story, history, philosophic authority, picture gallery, medicine cabinet, cure-all, movie, moral guide, travel tour, patented piece of trash! Never has man so reached the ultimate of knowledge.

Witness the life of an American. On Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, he works all day; comes home too tired for intelligent reading—goes to a movie, or bridge club, or dance, or golf course. He wants to rest the brain, and does. On Friday he works hard to get ready for the week-end, and on Saturday celebrates. Sunday morning we see our paragon lying in bed, a dark brown taste in his mouth, a box of pills, and the Sunday newspaper. Spread before startled eyes are lurid tales to excite his nerves, half-baked stories of Custer's Last Stand, Dorothy Dix or some other authority on love, reams of sport news, the Katzenjammers, and a tale of a runaway white girl in an African jungle, illustrated in color. There is enough punk literary effort to consume a day's reading; if it is the New York Times, a week's reading is afforded. Mr. Public spends his only spare day in reading trash.

We are approaching the Dark Ages!

Ebullitions of
Ebony Blott
By Everett Wallum

ALARMED AT THE SPECTRUM'S SURVEY OF THE CAMPUS IN SEARCH OF FIRE HAZARDS, WE HAVE MADE OUR OWN INVESTIGATION WITH THE FOLLOWING RESULTS:

Cliff Booke's Mustache — This smouldering sage brush bears every semblance of an evil menace. Like the sun, it's continuous heat is propagated by disintegration of atoms. No insurance carried.

Bull Bison—We found many burning remarks about this publication, but there is too much carbon to burn. Editors have life insurance but none for fire.

Dr. Airheart—As a minister he is always eager to strike matches.

Library—Constant cold looks by ever watchful attendants would seem to dispel danger here.

Music Hall—Must watch out for long-haired musicians who like to fiddle while things burn.

Gunroom—This place will bear watching. After spending a whole day listening, we heard Captain Ross holler "Fire!" many times. Friction of Sarge Culpepper's shoes as he madly races hither and yon about his work is also cause for alarm.

Little Country Theater—Best keep all hands on extinguishers when Alf gets hot under the collar. Alf best wear asbestos collar.

Armory — No danger from lit matches on floor. Match will wreck building, causing ceiling to smother conflagration.

Fraternity Houses—Grave danger of spontaneous combustion from oiled hair.

Sorority Houses—Cold shoulders make these safe.

Ole Sands—If flames leap fast, Ole leap faster.

University—Cold feet and lack of water supply makes the upstate institution safe.

Ceres Hall—Have fire escape, but what if fire won't escape? Plenty water in soup.

BOOK REVIEW

COLOR

By Countee Cullen
"Yet I do marvel at this curious thing To make a poet black, and bid him sing."

Perhaps—and yet out of tragedy, as Poe said, comes the greatest art. Tragedy is the most positive, the most absolute and real of all emotions and moods—and yet out of this accident of birth which has surrounded Countee Cullen with all the constituents of material misery and pain and broken pride for this: his race, out of the Tortured writings of a sensitive soul and mind chained by the word "nigger" we have some of the most sincerely intense and deeply emotional lyrics that any man has ever sung, black or white.

Within Countee Cullen has concentrated all of the bitterness, the injustice of the handicap of race and birth. He has not been able to bear it with criminal acquiescence nor to surmount it with that belief that God is good, and that in the end all knots will be untied and all injustices repaid. To him it is a slowly turning knife within his heart by day and night, a flame in his heart by day and night, a flame unquenched, a heaviness unloosed.

It is, perhaps, the price that he must pay for the almost priceless gift of song and the heritage of beauty—it is, at least, a medium for the delicate lyrics, etched for all time by the bitter acids of personal and racial tragedy.

Fordham university of New York offers 20 courses in Irish.

Saturday football traffic, the survey revealed, as a rule runs speedily and orderly, but what delays are caused are usually the result of antiquated machines with neglected motors, defective brakes, or steering apparatus. The college student with his over-loaded, dilapidated wreck of a car is the principal offender, the report concluded.

Thirty coeds of the University of Hawaii at Honolulu met recently and formed the first Women's Glee club which the school has had.

Three Teams Dispute Second Place Honors

Comets, Y-A Quint, and Voddens Tie With .714 Percentage

A hot battle of YMCA league basketball teams for second place was staged in the mixup last Monday evening. A three-way tie was the outcome. Vodden's taking a 14-11 game from the Collegiate Comets, the previous holders of second place, and the Y-A team winning over the Hot Shots both tied the Comets for second.

In the Vodden-Comet mix Jordahl of Vodden's led in the scoring with four field goals. For the Comets McKay scored high with two field goals. Berntson piled up 13 points for the Y-A of the 24-18 score in the Y-A and Hot Shot clash. In the last half of play Sannes for the Hot Shots placed two double counters and a free throw, and Stende of the same team tallied five points.

The Bear Cats came through with their first victory of the season, a victory over the Farm Husbandry quint by a score of 19-12. Baird led the play for the Bear Cats by making three field goals and two free throws. Waldron followed in the scoring by credit for seven points. Benedict with five points was the pace setter for Farm Husbandry.

Tappa Keggs forfeited a game to the Y-B team, which heads the league by two games. In a previous report the Hot Shots should have been awarded a forfeited game by the Tappa Keggs. By mistake the forfeit was reversed.

The standings of the teams follow:

FIVE STATE TITLE SEEKING NODAKS

Pictured above are five classy Nodak performers. DuChene, brilliant sophomore guard, will be a hard man to watch, for in the past he has spoiled many victories for his opponents. Wexler, another sophomore, has played brilliantly all season, and should cause the Bison forwards no little worry. Jarret, the little red head, will no doubt work in his usual capable manner. Storheim is a star Nodak center, who saw no action in the recent series but probably will be used to quite an advantage in these last two important games. Lowe, classy guard, will undoubtedly menace the Bison forwards.

Oratory Contest Rules Announced

Fifteen Hundred Words Is New Limit—First Prize Is $1500

The Spectrum has been authorized to make the first announcement on the N. D. S. C. campus of the many changes in the regulations of the 1930 National Intercollegiate Oratorical Contest on the Constitution which have been announced by the director of this year's contest.

The ten minute limit has been abandoned and a word limit of 1500 words has been set. The total amount of the prizes remains $5000, the lowest prize being raised, however, to $400, but the first prize remains $1500.

A new list of subjects, more in keeping with the maturity of college men and women, has been announced. The 1930 subjects are:

The Constitution of the United States. Constitutional Ideals. Constitutional Duties. Constitutional Aspirations. The Constitution and the Supreme Court.

The Place of Constitutional Law in American Life. The Constitution and National Progress.

The Constitution and Contemporary Executive Practices.

The Constitution and American Economic Policies.

Constitutional Incentives to Individual Initiative.

Constitutional Guarantees to All American Citizens.

The Constitution and International Affairs.

American Youth and the Constitution. The Constitution and Its Founders.

This contest was inaugurated and is conducted by the Better America Federation of California. Last year 542 colleges and universities entered the contest. Every college student in America is eligible to compete. The finals will be held June 19 at Los Angeles. The entries close March 25 and each college or university should have selected its orator by April 15. Information concerning the details of the contest may be obtained from P. Caspar Harvey, Contest Director, Liberty, Mo.

There is a law in Oregon forbidding persons to wear emblems of a society to which they do not belong. Coeds do not seem to be affected by the law.

HERE AND THERE

Recently a crowd of 4,500 New Yorkers stormed the American Museum of Natural History in that city, attempting to see a motion picture on the subject of Einstein's theory of relativity. The auditorium had a seating capacity of only 1,400 and admission was by invitation only. The question is raised whether the mob gathered because of a desire to attain knowledge of the subject or out of curiosity?

Williamette college boasts of having in its enrollment one of the youngest freshmen that has this year enrolled in any college in the country. The young collegiate is Harold M. Finley and his age is 13. When he was 8 years old his intelligence is said to have been equal to that of the average 16 year old boy.

FOX IS UNDEFEATED FEATHERWEIGHT KING

he is cracked up to be, when he won a popular decision over his tough opponent, Herb Karges, of Fargo. This was one of the best fights seen in this vicinity. These two boys stepped four furious rounds at top speed without a letup. The first round was about even, both fighters landing hard rights and lefts in furious exchanges. In the second round Scalf rallied at the last to gain the round by clever counter punching with his left. Karges was the aggressor at the start but slowed down considerably near the end.

Both fighters kept up the terrific pace in the third round, with Scalf having a decided edge by his excellent counter punching. His attack was too much for Karges to handle in the last round, and had the tough Karges wobbly at the end of the milling.

Ted Loy, of Stranton, N. D., gained a technical knockout over Dolly Schoenfelder after 35 seconds of fighting in the third round. Loy was much the better boxer making Schoenfelder miss again and again and slipping a few solid punches in between. Loy hit Dolly with two hard rights in the third that sent the "Assassin" to the canvas. Schoenfelder attempted to get up but his legs failed him and Loy was awarded a technical kayo.

Selliken Gets Decision
Joe Selliken of Grafton won a judges' decision over Bill Gray of Valley City in a lightweight bout by landing the cleaner punches and doing most of the leading. Both fighters started out slow but by the time the last round was started they were mixing it at a fast pace. Selliken seemed to be in better condition than his opponent, Gray tiring noticeably near the end.

Bobby Ward of Bismarck won every round to take the fight handily from Bobby Netteland of Oakly, Minn. Ward was the master boxer throughout, landing repeatedly to have the Oakly boy pretty well worn out at the end of the contest.

Dutch Pung of Calio gained his second knockout in as many starts when he flattened Myron Wurdeman of Mandan after one minute of fighting in the first round. Both boys boxed cautiously at the outset until Pung connected with his right to Wurdeman's ear which sent the Mandan boy to the floor.

The curtain raiser brought together two welters who put up one of the greatest battles of the card. These boys were Roy Johnson of Sutton, N. D., and Phil Robinson of Berthold, N. D. There was little to choose between the boys, both swinging fists that landed with regularity. The judges called it a draw and they will fight it out on a later card.

Sam Chesley was the referee, while John Martin and Charlie Dawson did the judging. Jim Slattery was in his new role as announcer.
