

Bison Avenge Nodak Victory By Winning Non-Conference Struggle on Saturday Evening

Athletic Building To Be Started In Spring

New Structure Will Have
Seating Capacity
For 3,500

Appropriation of $210,000 has been made by the State Board of Administration and the State legislature to construct one of the largest and best equipped physical education-auditorium buildings in this part of the northwest on the North Dakota State college campus. Work will begin early this spring. Seating capacity will total 3,500 persons. Plans, being drawn up by Braseth and Houkom, Fargo architects, will be finished in a short time.

The structure will be 250 feet long and 111 feet wide, the major part of which will be a huge auditorium, 158 feet by 108 feet. Three large basketball courts will be made in the auditorium. Storage rooms for 4,000 portable chairs will lead directly off from the main room. Other rooms will include quarters for the medical staff, coaches, athletic directors, secretaries, nurses, supplies, dressing rooms and lockers. There will be one large main entrance and two side entrances for players and officials exclusively.

Never, after its construction, will students of N. D. S. C. have to watch a basketball game under such taxing conditions as were prevalent at the recent conflicts. The main court will be directly in the center of the room, 90 by 50 feet, and spectators will be afforded an unobstructed view from both sides of the court and to a height of 30 feet.

Brevities Ticket Sales Are Brisk

Vic Madsen Predicts That Seats
Will Be Sold Out for Revue

With the ticket sales campaign hitting full stride this week, prospects are that every seat in the Fargo High School auditorium will be sold out several days before the opening performance of the Bison Brevities, March 3.

Victor Madsen, in charge of the drive, was quite unprepared for the heavy demand of the 15 organizations competing for the cup, handing out 1500 tickets the first night. All the ducats are now out, and all Vic has to do is to wait for the money and worry about scalping.

A small section of reserved seats will be on sale at Sherdal's Jewelry, Saturday, March 1.

Band Gives Concert During Convocation

Program Will Be Broadcast
Over WDAY Wednesday Evening

A convocation concert will be given by the N. D. S. C. Gold Star band, under the direction of Dr. C. S. Putnam, in the college armory tomorrow morning at 9:40.

Included in the program are: North Dakota Hymn by Foley-Putnam; March—El Riad Temple, by Alger; Overture—Egmont, by Beethoven; Caprice—Puchinello, by Herbert; Suite—"Four Ways", by Eric Coates; Mexican Serenade—Estrellita, by Ponce; Grand Entry March of the Bajars, by Halvorsen; Selection from the Desert Song, by Romberg; and the finale—The Yellow and the Green, by Minard-Putnam.

This program will also be broadcast over radio station WDAY tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock.

NORDSTROM SETS
PACE FOR SCORERS

Fast Breaking Offense, Strong
Defense Prove Too Much
For N. D. U.

Displaying a fast breaking offense and an impregnable defense the Bison cagers scored a brilliant 30-17 victory over the Nodaks Saturday evening to take the sting out of the 21-20 defeat handed them by the Nodaks the preceding evening. Friday's loss lowered the Bison conference standing to a tie with the Nodaks for second place.

The Bison offense was led by Gergen, May and Nordstrom who fairly swarmed over the Nodak defense which wilted altogether before the powerful attack in the second half. Nordstrom carried off the high point honors by caging five field goals and making good three free throws. May, Bliss and Gergen each tossed in a pair of double counters.

Nordstrom scored first. Nordstrom sunk the first field goal of the game when he converted a pass received from May into points. A few seconds later Nordstrom brought the Bison total to three by counting a free throw. Brown then counted for the Flickers, caging a goal on an out of bounds play. Lowe, Nodak guard, tied the count by making a gift shot. In a pass from Bliss, May put the Bison in the lead by a 5-3 count.

Nodak cagers then counted six points in rapid succession while the Bison were only able to collect one and the Flickers were given a 9-6 advantage. Following the Flickers' scoring spree they were held scoreless until half time. Nordstrom made good an attempt from the foul line and immediately after scored a field goal. Johnson then knotted the count by tossing in a free throw after being gathered by Wexler.

Felber Goes In
Letich injected Felber into the contest but this was like tossing a glass of water to a drowning mother-in-law for Gergen left Jarret in the rear and counted under the basket to place the Bison in the lead. Nordstrom, who had gained much practice at the free throw line, was given another opportunity which he made good, bringing the Bison total to 12. Bliss on a beautiful one handed attempt placed the Bison in front at 14-9 just before the gun sounded ending the initial half.

During the rest period Saalwaechter must have unleashed a vocal attack which had more blinkety blanks in it than a brand new check book for when the half opened the Bison let loose a vicious attack on the Nodak basket. Gergen showed his heels to Jarret again and raced the full length of the floor to sink a shot under the Bison net. Nordstrom duplicated Gergen's feat and made good a setup giving the Bison a substantial 18-9 margin. Nordstrom then grabbed a pass from May and collected two more

KAPPA PHIS CELEBRATE DURING FOUNDER'S DAY

The Alpha Kappa Phi fraternity's annual Founder's day celebration, taking the form of a luncheon and after-dinner speeches by prominent Alpha Kappa Phi and A. T. O. alumni, was held at the chapter house Saturday noon, February 15. Dick Stoudt, toastmaster, Albert Severson, and George Mayoue, Alpha Kappa Phi alumni, and Joe Bridston and John Falkenger, A. T. O. alumni from Grand Forks, were the speakers on the program. The active chapter, alumni, and pledges with several A. T. O. guests from Grand Forks were present. The A. T. O. were E. Olson, E. Palmer, F. Olson, Glen Fellman, and Hugh Brisbane.

TAG SALES OPEN WED.

Last Saturday night we BEAT THE "U" by a goodly score, which goes to prove that we can do it again if we want to; everybody knows that "Doc" and HIS BAND helped plenty to win that game.

This Saturday we play the "U" at Grand Forks and we must have the band there to help us win. As has been customary in the past, the Student Commission will sponsor a tag sale which opens Wednesday morning, to finance the trip. To send the band proper $250 will have to be raised by next Friday night. So let's go. Everybody do their bit, and remember the tags cost only a quarter, and a quarter never put anybody on the financial rocks.

Edwin Booth Play Involves Mystery Of Stolen Jewel

Edwin Booth Play Involves
Mystery of Stolen
Jewel

Ronald Pearce as Mr. Bullivant will have the leading role in "Grumpy", a play in four acts by Horace Hodges and T. Wigney Percival, which the Edwin Booth Dramatic club will present tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock in the Little Country Theatre, as the winter term production of the organization.

Ruth Boerth will play the part of the heroine, Virginia Bullivant, a grand-daughter of Mr. Bullivant. Charles Heilman will play opposite her in the role of Ernest Heron, to whom a large uncut diamond has been entrusted. It is around the robbery and discovery of the theft of this stone that the plot, containing many problems and humorous situations, is woven.

Other members of the cast, which is directed by A. G. Arvold, are: Clark Fredrikson who will play the part of Ruddock, Mr. Bullivant's valet; Art Cayou, as Mr. Jarvis; Carl Ash, as Mr. Valentine Wolfe; Gerald Garlid, as Dr. Maclaren; Donald Lieb, as Keble; Harold Julsrud, as Merridew; Roderick McMillan, as Dawson; Jean Pote, as Mrs. Maclaren; and Celiste Berrigan, as Susan.

Ruth Whitney, president of Edwin Booth, has announced the appointment of the following committees in charge of the production: costume, Elene Weeks; property, Dorothea Olsen, Clark Fredrikson, and Harold Julsrud; property, Jane Eddy; lights, Jesse Reynolds; business, Ruth Whitney; scenery, Elsmere Chamberlin, and Gerald Garlid; ushers, Elene Weeks and Emma Nelson; and tickets, Jesse Reynolds.

Spectrum Leads Inspection Of All Campus Buildings To Ascertain "Fire Hazards"

Accommodation For Two Hundred in New Dorm

Proceedings Await Return Of
A. W. Fowler From Eastern Trip

Approximately 200 men out of the total enrollment of 1142 men in college will be housed in the new dormitory which is to be built on the campus this spring where the present basement stands, according to the plans drawn up for the structure.

Campus fraternity houses have capacity for 204 actives and 40 freshmen making a total of 244 men housed by them. Out-of-town men in the freshman class, attending the N. D. S. C., include 447, in the sophomore class, 184; in the junior class, 124; and in the senior class, 109, making a total of 864 men on the campus from localities outside of Fargo, Moorhead and Dilworth. There are 278 local men students, making the total school enrollment of men students, 1142.

Proceedings for the new dormitory are being withheld until A. W. Fowler, one of the originators of the Fowler, Hamilton bill for appropriation of the dormitories, returns from an eastern trip. A new building association will be formed on his return to carry out the designs for process.

Amelia, Tower City Win Play Contests

Cass County One Act Competition Brings Six Schools Here

Amelia and Tower City were the winners in their respective divisions in the second annual Cass county one-act play contest, held in the Little Country Theatre Saturday afternoon. Competing in the division for consolidated grade schools were Mapleton, Amelia, and Gardner. The winning play was "Our Aunt From California." The Gardner play, "Post Mortems", was given second place, and Mapleton received third honors with the production, "Trusting Place."

Buffalo, Casselton, and Tower City were entered in the division for classified high schools. "Riches", presented by the Tower City cast, was given first honors. Buffalo students presented "The Unseen", and Casselton gave "The Mouse Trap."

Judges for the contest were Miss Norma Goodin, Fargo; Miss Borghild Bue, Moorhead; and J. R. Mashek, Fargo. The general chairman of dramatics was O. A. Nelson of Amelia, and Miss Della Green, Casselton, was chairman of the one-act play committee.

FIVE MEN PLEDGED ALPHA PHI OMEGA

Five men were pledged to Alpha Phi Omega, honorary chemistry fraternity, Wednesday evening, February 12. The services were conducted by Kenneth McCullough, president of the organization.

The pledge group includes Edgar L. Crewe, Bismarck; Frank Seebart, Lakota; Clifford Bowman, Moorhead; Harold Lundgren, Fargo; and Murray McGregor, Wheatland.

KAPPA SIGMA CHI GUESTS

Ralph Diehl of Castlewood, S. D., Kappa Sigma Chi alum, was a visitor at the house last week-end. He attended the Bison-Nodak basketball series.

Mr. H. Sinclair and Mr. K. O. Holter of the U. of N. D. were dinner guests at the Kappa Sigma Chi house Sunday.

Mr. Harold Bower from Page, N. D., was a Kappa Sigma Chi visitor Friday evening.

Chemistry and Agriculture
Buildings in Good Condition

REPORTERS FIND FEW "FIRE TRAPS"

Findings Are Unofficial But
Tend to Show General
Conditions

Editor's Note: The recent fire loss suffered by the Moorhead State Teachers College prompted The Spectrum to make local investigations as to the fire hazards on our campus. Two staff assistants made surveys of existing conditions. The report follows, containing facts which in their judgment merit your consideration.

The Report

This report is submitted with the understanding that its authors realize their meager knowledge of the science of fire inspection, and advise that its contents be not considered as official. Our observations, those of average on-lookers, are as follows:

The buildings showing the most modern precautions against fire are the Chemistry, Agriculture and Dairy buildings. These three buildings are practically fireproof throughout except several of the rooms in the Chemistry building and material stored in the basement of the Agriculture building, all of which would burn very rapidly but would not greatly damage the buildings themselves.

Science Hall is modern in nearly every respect as to fire prevention, except that there are several places in the building, such as the attic, which could very easily be the starting point of a disastrous fire.

The Carnegie Library, Mechanic Arts and the Main buildings are not fireproof. Adequate fire fighting apparatus is needed to safeguard the many valuable articles and records that are held in those buildings.

Termed "Fire Traps"

The Armory, Francis Hall, Veterinary building, Barracks, Music Hall, the Mill, where the college doctor has his office, and several other structures, such as the steam engine laboratory, might all be adequately termed "fire traps." These buildings would burn like tinder when once ignited. There is a depressing lack of adequate fire fighting equipment in those buildings and a fire with a moderate headway could quickly shut off the means of escape for any students caught within the buildings.

In the Veterinary building there are no fire escapes and a long wooden staircase is the only connection between the first floor and the upper part of the building. If, for instance, the long wooden staircase should catch fire, any student caught on the second floor would not be able to escape without injury, unless given outside assistance. The Barracks and Francis Hall are two buildings that would burn very easily and very rapidly.

LOYD CLARK IS NEW GLEE CLUB PRESIDENT

Officers for the Mens Glee club of N. D. S. C., were elected at a rehearsal of the organization last Sunday afternoon.

Lloyd Clark was chosen president and Harold Julsrud, vice-president and publicity manager. Other officers include John Johnson, secretary and librarian and Lawrence Parsons, treasurer and manager. Regular rehearsals of the club are held every Thursday at 4 p. m. and Sundays at 3 p. m.

All men interested in assisting Prof. Homer Huntoon in accompanying the glee club report to him as soon as possible.

Hazel Heald, Dorothy Norby and Robina Wilder were week-end guests at the Kappa Delta house.

FIRE HAZARD!

The inspection of campus buildings as carried on by The Spectrum has assured us that no general fire hazard exists to worry the minds of students. We boast several fireproof buildings, and in the main, the others are not serious fire traps.

The chief worries appear to be: the attic in Science Hall, the several frame structures, Francis Hall, and the basement in the Ag building wherein is stored the motion picture films. Attention to these instances is no doubt necessary.

Our general conclusion is that ordinary care on the part of the student body is the main requisite to a 90% fire hazard. The matter of carefulness calls to mind the recent fire in one of the waste baskets in Science Hall, said fire being caused by a cigarette butt. Common sense is the best protection discovered by the insurance companies. Let us exercise it when in the buildings.

SCHOLARSHIP OFFERED AGRICULTURE SENIORS

A scholarship of $660 has been offered an approved senior in agriculture at the North Dakota Agricultural college, who wishes a Master's degree at Massachusetts Agricultural college, according to T. Worden Johnson, instructor in journalism at the college.

Mr. Johnson was advised by G. O. Oleson, extension editor of the Massachusetts college, that the applicant would do part-time work in publicity, the rest of the time to be devoted towards a degree. Selection of a student for the scholarship is now being considered by H. L. Walster, dean of agriculture, and C. I. Nelson, bacteriology specialist.

The agricultural college is the only institution to which this offer has been made, Mr. Oleson states.

Eighteen is the ideal age to enter college, according to a survey conducted at the University of Syracuse. Students at the institution believe that matriculating at an earlier age keeps men from activities and prevents them from enjoying college.

Students in horticulture at Ohio State do practical work in city parks under a gardener who worked in the Royal Gardens of Emperor Franz Joseph in Austria.

Ebullitions of Ebony Blott

By Everett Wallum

We haven't got our new dormitory, but we put the Nodaks to sleep, anyway.

And our freshmen beat their freshmen, which shows that we are a lot greener than they are.

Judging from the condition of the Flickertail rooting section, their water system up there is still on the blink.

When the spectators got the Bull Bison, they didn't care if we won or not.

While the subscribers "ate the magazine up", not one of them slept on his stomach that night.

The results of that last game were so terrific that one of the upstaters even swore off drinking—even.

And Kennie McCullough grew an inch.

Which is an achievement worthy of special mention.

The Nodaks like to broadcast the games, and they sure got the air Saturday night.

SOME OF THE WATCHERS EXPRESSED THE WISH THAT THE BLACK STRIPES ON HOLZER'S SWEATER WERE IRON.

DICK IS ALWAYS OFFERING HIS WHISTLE TO THE CROWD. SOME DAY SOME KID IS GOING TO TAKE IT AND HAVE A HEL-LUVA TIME.

WHILE THEY HAVE NEVER BEEN CREDITED WITH AN AMAZING SENSE OF HUMOR THE FLICKERTAILS SURE GOT THE POINT IN THE FIRST GAME.

THE CAPTAIN OF THE VISITORS SAID THEY DONE IT UP "BROWN".

He would.

With his sex appeal, the exotic Holzer should be with Warner Bros.

He has never won medals in a hog calling contest, but he sure can call his fowls.

Which doesn't mean that he's chicken.

He says he calls them just as he sees them. He'd sure be a puzzled poker player.

But Dick's all right and we're all for him. We Fargoans never did understand those fellows from Moorhead.

A fellowship of $1,500 offered in each of six departments was the plan announced by Chancellor Lucius C. Clark of the American university, Washington, D. C., last week. The fellowship applies during the academic year, 1930-1931.

The departments are: Philosophy, International Law, History, Constitutional Law and Government, Economics, Psychology.

Sideline Synopsis

"Red Rabbit" Jarrett was about as effective as any man who has been covered by Pete Gergen this year. The "Flicker Flash" connected with only one field goal in the two games.

Clem Letich seems to make good use of rabbits in connection with basketball teams. We would like to have the rabbit's foot he was carrying Friday night.

The so-called rabbit's foot looked to be nothing more than a good example of psychology. The Nodaks having all to win and nothing to lose, played the hard-fighting brand of ball typical of a team in that position. The Bison, laboring under the strain of adverse conditions of psychology, were over-anxious, and more nervous than they have been in previous games. Saturday, when things were evened up, State showed our friends from the North what they can expect in the next two games.

The best we can hope for now is a three-way tie for first place in the conference, with the two South Dakota schools, but State must stop the Coyotes Thursday, and we will have to beat the Flickers. With the two universities playing on their home floors, it is not exactly logical to predict that they will both lose.

The big objective for Saaly and his boys now, is to be sure to bring the State championship back with them when they return from Grand Forks, and pray for South Dakota State to help them get a tie for the conference title.

"Stretch" Weir makes a good Baby Bison, and should be a big help to the varsity when he gets his growth. Against the University Yearlings Saturday, McKay, Schwartz, and a few other boys showed the Bison fans that basketball material will be abundant for a few more years, at least.

The first round of play in the fraternity league succeeded in eliminating only two teams, and developed six strong combinations, any one of which is capable of making a worthy bid for the title. Each team has been defeated at least once and the first round of competition furnished no definite clue as to who to pick for the winner. Every game in the play-off should be a real attraction.

"The Great Slattery" has finally been beaten, but fight fans will get a treat when Jim appears in his new role of announcer, at the fight card Thursday night.

Featherweights mix in title exhibition. One other bout to be arranged.

The Featherweight championship of the college will be at stake Thursday night when Vincent Kromarek will battle the champion, Charlie Fox, in the main event of a 28 round boxing card to be staged in the college armory. Fox bested all the contenders in this division last year to become a popular leader of the featherweights. He expects to repeat again this season but some pin strong hopes on the challenger after the exhibition he gave in his last start, when he handed Andy Lynn a real boxing lesson. Kromarek will have a decided advantage in reach and in height and it is on these basis as well, that we look for a tough evening for the champion.

The semi-windup bout will bring together two battlers who have gained quite a reputation among the boxing fans at this institution. Johnny Scalf started off this years work with a popular verdict over the last seasons welterweight champion, Verne Skjonsby. Scalf gave the fans a real treat in his last fight, having the champion out on his feet in the last round. We are making no predictions as to the outcome Thursday night, when he meets none other than Herb Karges, a strong middleweight contender of last year. Karges has taken off considerable weight and now is a full fledged welter. Karges fought in some of the most talked about battles last year, always pleasing the rail-birds with his willingness to mix it.

This bout will probably be the class of the card as far as mitt tossing is concerned.

Schoenfelder Meets Loy
"Dolly" Schoenfelder, the conqueror of Jim Slattery, will exchange blows with Ted Loy in a heavyweight bout. Schoenfelder will have a decided advantage in weight, but according to Lieut. Fay Smith, instructor in the manly art, this boy Loy is some scrapper and should offer the "Aberdeen Assassin" an interesting evening.

Bill Gray, scrappy Bison frosh football man, will tangle with Joe Selliken, another football warrior, in a lightheavyweight bout which promises to be a real slug fest. These two boys are plenty tough and it is our guess that there will be only one in the upright position at the end of the battle.

Dutch Pung, who knocked out Shorty Weshnevsky on a recent card, will try to best the clever Myron Wurdemaen in a welterweight clash. Both boys won their respective fights on the other cards quite handily, and should give a real exhibition when they tangle.

Bobby Ward, the grinning lightweight from Bismarck, will try to keep in the win column when he meets Bobby Netteland in the curtain raiser. One other bout is to be arranged later.

The tournament has made great progress so far and from now on when winners meet winners the shows should be worth going a long ways to see.

According to a Detroit specialist, the average professor is 15 percent more brainy than the average coed.

Nodaks Gain Tie After Victory In Friday Night Go

Bison Overcome Eight Point Lead Only To Lose Bitter Struggle

BROWN SINKS GOAL IN FINAL SECONDS

Gergen, Nordstrom, And May In Fine Form In Series Opener

Friday's contest which was won by the University proved to be the most thrilling contest of the season. The 2500 fans witnessing the contest were kept on their feet during the last six minutes of play when the Bison, who were eight points in the rear, hit their stride and overtook the Northerners, gaining a 20-19 lead with 1 minute and 45 seconds of the game left to play.

The Bison succeeded in stalling for a large share of the remaining time but with 10 seconds of play left there was a mad scramble for the ball under the Flicker basket. Bison and Nodak players were battling the ball about in the air and Captain Brown of the University gave the ball a lacrosse type which sent it through the basket for a 21-20 victory.

Saaly's men succeeded in gaining an early lead over the Nodaks, annexing four points before their opponents were able to score. The Flickers were able to tie the count at six all and at half time the Grand Forks quint had obtained a 9-7 advantage.

As the half opened the Bison scored to even up the count. Duchene and Lowe rung up a couple of long shots which coupled with counters from the free throw marker gave them a 19-11 advantage. At this point the Bison started their spirited offensive drive which nearly carried them to victory.

Gergen, Nordstrom, and May showed up in fine form for the Bison. Bliss captured the scoring honors with a total of six points. DuChene was the outstanding player on the Nodak quint and also took scoring honors for his team.

Comets Gain Hold On Second Place

YMCA-A Team Drops Into Tie For Third With Vodden's Quint

Last Wednesday's basketball affray at the Y. M. C. A. brought a break in the tie for second place between the Y-A team and the Collegiate Comets in favor of the Comets. The battle was hotly fought with Y-A five leading by 7 to 4 at the half. Aandahl, midget captain of the Comets, broke through for two field goals in the last few minutes of play to put the game on ice. He and Blake were tied for scoring honors with two field goals each. Anderson played well at guard for the Comets. C. Quimmell led the Y-A scoring with two double counters and two free throws.

The Y-B team and Steffenson's Bear Cats mixed in a one-sided tussle that ended at 69 for the leaders of the league, the Y-B gang, and 4 for the Bear Cats. At the head of the Y-B bunch, as far as scoring was con-

Vodden's quintet led by 33-20 in their encounter with the Farm Husbandry boys. The game placed Vodden's in a tie for third place with the Y-A team. Simonson and Jordahl were outstanding players for Vodden's, Simonson netting six field goals and two free throws, and Jordahl placing four double counters. Olhler played well for the Farm Husbandry netmen scoring two field goals and four free throws.

Thrills Featured Last Minute Play Of Yearling Game

Viv McKay And Bob Weir Play Fine Ball For Baby Bison

In a game which possessed many thrills during the last five minutes of play, the Baby Bison triumphed over the Nodak Yearlings by a 34-33 score. For the first three periods the Bison demonstrated their superiority over the rival freshman quint but weakened by numerous substitutions the first yearmen nearly fell prey to a last period rally made by the University.

Viv McKay made a pronounced fact that he will more than likely occupy a position on the 1930-1931 varsity team. McKay, flashing 57 varieties of speed, squelched Nodak scoring attempts and brought the ball back up the court with unusual bursts of speed. Bob Weir, towering Frosh center, showed plenty of possibilities in the center position. Weir led the Yearlings in scoring, sinking six field goals and making good a trio of free throws for an aggregate of 15 points.

Lowemen Take Lead
Bob Lowe's Yearlings took command of the game in the opening minutes and shortly before the half time were heading University aggregation, 17-5. The Nodaks scored five points while the Bison were collecting two and the half ended with the Baby Bison on the controlling end of a 19-10 count. The Bison continued to increase their lead following the opening of the closing stanza. Arthur and Swartz were sent from the floor after each had committed four fouls. The Nodak Frosh overtook the Bison knotting the count at 27 all. The Bison pulled away to a three point lead but the Flickers managed

ALL RIGHT, you don't need to. Here's a camera that requires practically no thinking. Just take it out in the sunshine, set for snapshots, and shoot. It's all so easy that you can't go wrong. Simple for time exposures too. Remember the name—No. 1A Ready-set Anso. Takes pictures 2 1/2 x 4 1/2, the most popular size. Price only $13.50. If you prefer the No. 1 size, 2 1/2 x 3 1/2, we have the new No. 1 Anso Junorette, which is also a Ready-set with the same helpful features. If you already have a camera which requires thinking, come in and get an Anso Light Meter for $1.50. Shows in a jiffy how to set the shutter under any light condition for the best degree of exposure. Works with all films and means better pictures.

points for the Bison. Bliss then followed in bringing the Bison total to 22. Johnson registered a free throw and Bliss likewise was given an opportunity from the pay bar. Bliss' attempt was wide but May broke through the Flicker defense and followed in to give the Bison a 25-9 advantage.

Bliss and May Out
Dick Holzer, the Catface Klem of the North Central Conference, waved his index finger at Bliss and gave the latter a ticket to the showers. Bliss, who had been fighting harder than any man on the court, was replaced by Walt Olson. Holzer then issued out May a pass for the same route. This darkened the outlooks for the Bison for May had been contributing much to the fast Bison offensive attack. Thomasson then took over the berth occupied by May and Captain Peter Gergen inaugurated a stalling game.

Gillson, scoring a single counter from the free throw line, gave the Flickers their first counter in twelve minutes of play. Olson followed in a free throw attempt and brought the Bison count to 27. In the remaining minutes of play the Nodaks counted seven points while the Bison brought their total to 30.

Johnson, playing guard for the Bison, frustrated several scoring attempts made by the Flickers. Johnson also made it impossible for the University men to follow in shots by repeatedly taking the ball off the bank board. Olson, Thomasson, and Seitz proved themselves capable reserves, good accounts of themselves while in the fray. Olson gave the Nodak guards much trouble in their attempts to overhaul him on the court.

Bison Puck Chasers Outclass University

Blakeslee Leads State Skaters in Brilliant 4-1 Victory

Captain Bart Conny must have had something up his sleeve, and if he did he certainly turned it loose when his Bison hockey team trampled the upstate sextet Saturday, four to one.

Playing a brand of hockey far superior than any yet shown this season, the Herd outskated, outchecked, and outscored the University in one of the hottest contests of the season. Several hundred fans were thrilled with the fast pace and the furious body checking of the two teams.

The University scored first when Hendricks, a wingman, skated down with but one minute left of the first period to push the puck past the State goalie.

In the second period the Bison sextet came back strong and kept the puck in University territory nearly every minute of play. Joe Blakeslee, Bison wing, found the net for two scores, both shots being unassisted. Near the end of the period, Captain McGrath garnered the other point for the Bison with a beautiful back-hand shot, unassisted.

The third period found the teams battling on more even terms although the play was generally in the University territory. McGrath succeeded in slipping through one counter in this period bringing the count four to one. Blakeslee and Stefferud were the main cogs in the Bison win, while Ray Larson and Martin showed the way for the Flickertails.

Mail or present your suggestions personally to those in charge, and you will help to avert an impending disaster as well as a nervous breakdown among the first night's audience.

Six Teams Remain In Fraternity Race

The fraternity loop ruling has been changed so that the six leading teams are to play a one round schedule with the championship figured on a percentage basis of games played in both the first and second rounds. Under the previous ruling the four high teams were to play an elimination tournament of three games to determine the winner of the cup.

The six remaining teams in the league are the Delta Sigs, Sigma Taus, Kappa Phis, Kappa Psis, Theta Chis, and Gamma Rhos. Competition should be keen since all remaining teams are evenly matched.

In the college army at 9 o'clock tonight the Theta Chi and Kappa Phi open the new schedule, and at 10 o'clock the Gamma Rhos meet the Sigma Taus.

The schedule for the week is as follows: Tuesday, Feb. 18, 9:00, Theta Chi vs Alpha Kappa Phi; 10:00, Alpha Gamma Rho vs Alpha Sigma Tau. Wednesday, Feb. 19, 9:00, Kappa Psi vs Delta Kappa Sigma; 10:00, Theta Chi vs Alpha Gamma Rho. Thursday, Feb. 20, 9:00, Alpha Kappa Phi vs Kappa Psi; 10:00, Alpha Sigma Tau vs Delta Kappa Sigma.

A field house that cost $125,000 and has a seating capacity of 6,000 was recently opened at the University of Missouri.

Delegates Arrive For Farm Managers Annual Convention

Canadian Members Represent Over Million Acres Farm Land

Farm managers from several states and a delegation from Canada will attend the twenty-second annual winter session of the Northwest Farm Managers association to be held today, Wednesday, and Thursday, at the Gardner hotel. The Canadian group will represent over one million acres of land alone; American and South American members represent one and one-half million acres of land. North Dakota, Minnesota and South Dakota have the largest number attending, according to Prof. Cap E. Miller, secretary-treasurer of the organization.

Today's program will include registration; welcoming of visitors by the Fargo committee of business men; introductory remarks by President Frank W. Reineohel, Larimore; problems of farm management, discussed by Walter Reed, Fargo; land classification by T. O. F. Herzer, Winnipeg, Canada; costs of production, by F. Paul Smith, Amenia, N. D.; sheep problems, Bill Guy, Amenia; public market, W. A. Cleveland, N. D. A. C.; and a business meeting.

Wednesday's outline for work is as follows: Livestock marketing, C. R. Wright, Fergus Falls, Minn.; Summer fallow, Roy Johnson, Casselton; International Livestock show and exposition, President J. H. Shepperd; farm fence, Ed. Traynor, Starkweather; Hog house door, N. D. A. C. students; wire fence, Morris Barks, N. D. A. C.; wire fence, Helmer Nannenga, Fargo; bracing system, W. B. DeNault, Jamestown; corner-less barnyard, Robert Reed, Fargo; combine, Colin Monek, Jamestown; annual banquet at Elks temple.

On Thursday they will elect officers for the coming year, make plans for the summer tour, discuss livestock management by J. W. McNary, Ellendale; seed business, Sam Provan, Amenia.

N. D. A. C. students majoring in farm business and marketing will conduct an information bureau for the benefit of the visitors at the hotel under the supervision of Prof. Benj. V. McCaul, Clyde Barks, Martin Altenburg, Fred Schroeder, Monroe Kirk, and Martin Peterson.

The president of Ohio State university has halted a campaign by an aeronautical society on the campus to raise $25,000 for the purchase of two planes.

STUDENT OPINION

Dear Editor:

The fire Sunday night, Feb. 9, at M. S. T. C. has created much discussion of the possibilities and probable effects of a fire on our own campus.

Last week I was up in the attic of Science hall. Even if fires had not recently been impressed upon my mind, I could not have avoided noticing the menace there, endangering our largest building.

The attic itself is a gaunt wooden structure of old dried timbers. About the room are scattered decrepid cages, lockers, and shelves loosely constructed of wood. Over everything there is a magnificent layer of dust awaiting the opportunity to explode. The floor and shelves are littered with paper, cardboard, loose excelsior, straw bundles, cartons, pamphlets, and combustible trash of all sorts—crowded into every conceivable corner. Strung about the blackened rafters are defunct electrical fixtures and wiring—some properly insulated; others strung about on nails. On the wall are large switches and fuse boxes operating rickety seed sorters and cleaners with their sparking electric motors and oil laden bearings.

A perfect place for Old King Fire to plant the seeds of destruction. Science hall is an old building; there are no fire escapes; the floors are highly oiled; and the wood is old and dry. How quickly it would burn no one knows, but it probably would not be a prolonged affair. Within the walls are contained immense stores of valuables, some replaceable with money—many of them priceless: furniture, laboratory equipment, libraries, museums, machinery, office equipment, research materials, papers, records, etc.

A few of the newer buildings on the campus are of fireproof construction. Most of them are older wooden structures. Their loss would present innumerable difficulties, both financial and otherwise. It would therefore be well for the administration to make a survey of the buildings on the campus and investigate those fire hazards, such as wiring and storage of combustible material, which might be easily and cheaply eliminated. Let us take a lesson from M. S. T. C.!

Signed: E. Hoyt DeKleine.

The building program at the University of Illinois for this year includes three new buildings, a chemistry annex, a medical and dental laboratory and a women's gymnasium.

The chemistry annex will be the first building to be completed. The cost of the building will be approximately $335,000.

Plans for the new medical building, which will cost $1,500,000, are now being completed by a Chicago architect. The plans for the new women's gymnasium are also being drawn.
