"Grumpy" Cnosen For Edwin Booth Term Production

Play Will Be Presented On Wednesday Evening, February 19

HEILMAN, BOERTH, AND PEARCE HAVE LEADS

Drama By Hodges And Percyval Will Take Place Of "It Zat So"

"Grumpy", a play in four acts, by Horace Hedges and T. Wigney Percyval, has been selected by the Edwin Booth Dramatic club as the winter term production for the organization, to be presented in the Little Country theatre Wednesday evening, Feb. 19, at 8 o'clock. A. G. Arvola is directing the cast.

The keynote to the plot of the play is the detection of a thief through the consummate shrewdness of an old man. The robbery takes place in the home of a Mr. Bullivant, whose nephew, Ernest Heron, has been entrusted with a large uncut diamond. The discovery and accusation of the thief who stole the diamond is brought about through Mr. Bullivant's shrewdness only after many problems have been solved and many humorous and mysterious situations have been encountered. Ronald Pearce will interpret the part of Mr. Bullivant, and Charles Heilman will have the role of Ernest Heron. Ruth Boerth will play the part of Virginia Bullivant, Mr. Bullivant's grand-daughter.

Among the other students who will take part in the production are: Clarke Fredrickson, who will play the part of Rudbeck, Mr. Bullivant's valet; Arthur Cayou, as Mr. Jarvis; Carl Ash, as Mr. Valentine Wolfe; Gerald Garlid, as Dr. Maclaren; Donald Lieb, as Keble; Harold Julsrud, as Merridew; Roderick McMillan, as Dawson; Jean Pote, as Mrs. Maclaren; and Celeste Berrigan, as Susan. Plans to present "Is Zat So?" had been made by the Edwin Booth club but because some other Fargo organization was preparing this play for presentation, the members decided to stage "Grumpy".

Dance Proceeds Will Furnish Club Rooms

A dance following the University-State basketball game Saturday, Feb. 15, will be sponsored by the alumni and faculty of N. D. S. C. The proceeds of this affair will go into the purchase of furniture, pictures, and curtains for the alumni-faculty club-rooms on the first floor of the Main building.

The club rooms have already proven a popular center for student, faculty, and alumni groups at the college. Through the efforts of acting President Shepperd, Professor Arvola, and Richard Kraft the club rooms which were formerly the Bison and Spectrum offices have been redecorated and modern electrical fixtures installed.

M. E. Tindall, alumni secretary, states that such a rendezvous is urgently needed at N. D. S. C., pointing out that both alumni and faculty groups in the past have noted the lack of such a place from expressions received at the office and pledges made by faculty and alumni members. With proceeds from this social function it is expected that furnishings will be completed in time for the June commencement at the college.

EDWIN BOOTH CLUB TO CELEBRATE BIRTHDAY

Edwin Booth Dramatic club of the North Dakota State college will hold open house for its new members and casts of the plays, "William Tell", and "Grumpy", on the anniversary of its birthday, Monday, Feb. 10.

Five new members will be initiated at this time in the Little Country Theatre before the tea, with Ruth Whitney, president, in charge.

ROOTER KING ELECTION

Tomorrow night at the Morningside-Bison game there will be a selection of a cheerleader and two assistants. Those wishing to try for the positions will lead a "Yea, Bison" between halves. Selections will be based on the amount of applause given at the end of the yell. The student commission especially urges that there be several applicants in order to secure a good rooter king for next year.

Debators Preparing For Coming Season

Walla and Buchli Will Meet Manitoba Agricultural College Here

Ten students under the direction of Donald Hay, debate coach, are preparing for the year's debate contests and are spending many hours each week in research and study of current problems.

Chester Walla, Tioga, N. D., and Albert Buchli, Golden Valley, N. D., will meet the Manitoba Agricultural college team here March 5, in the Little Country Theatre. This is a dual debate and the subject to be argued is the rum running question. Loyal Gast, Beltrami, Minn., and Donald Lawrence, Fargo, will debate the same question at Winnipeg.

On March 18, Joe Paulson, Portland, and Mart Vogel, Perham, Minn., will oppose the University of South Dakota at Fargo, upholding the affirmative of the question—Resolved, that: Advertising is harmful to society.

The disarmament question will be contested by Harold Peterson, Fargo and Lawrence Nilles, Casselton, in a debate with South Dakota State. Representatives of Montana State college will debate the same question here, opposing Mathias LeFor, Gladstone, N. D., and Donald McKechnie, Gilby, N. D.

North Dakota State was the first college in the country to send debate teams to both the eastern and western coasts. A debate tour to the western coast has been made several times beginning with the debate held with the University of Southern California in 1914. In 1923-24 the eastern coast was invaded by Jonas Sturlaugson and Snorri Thorinnsson, who defeated the University of Maine, New Hampshire Agricultural college, and the Massachusetts Agricultural college.

Rudd's Orchestra Plays For Revue

With the engagement of Harry Rudd's orchestra for the Bison Brevities which will be presented at the Fargo high school auditorium March 3 and 4, progress of the acts have been developing rapidly. Prof. Homer B. Huntoon, director of the revue, has been supervising rehearsals daily and reports that the production is well on its way to completion.

Mr. Rudd's orchestra consists of six pieces under a director who has played in Fargo orchestras for many years.

Nothing is being left undone to secure the best stage equipment for the production, Mr. Huntoon stated.

Gamma Tau Sigma Pledges Three Journalists Wed.

Gamma Tau Sigma, honorary journalistic fraternity, pledged Gerald Garlid, Cooperstown; Robert Allison and Milton Hagen, Fargo, at a regular meeting held in the Bison office Wednesday afternoon.

These men have shown outstanding talent along journalistic lines. Allison and Hagen are on The Spectrum sports staff and Garlid is a reporter.

One dollar an hour is being paid to 36 men and women of Columbia university for drinking coffee in an experimentation class in psychology. The experiment will try to settle the controversy over the merits and demerits of coffee. During three four-hour periods of tests about 1,000 cups of coffee were consumed.

College Library Is Overcrowded

Chief Librarian And Eight Assistants Comprise Personnel

46,560 VOLS. FILL SHELVES

Extensive Service To Clubs And Readers Rendered By Mail

It is to the library that the student turns to use the telephone, to write a letter home, to read current events, to meet a friend or to laugh over a joke in a light magazine as well as to consider the more serious studies of college life. "In the past ten years, books in every class have more than doubled and some have quadrupled in circulation. The greatest gain in any one class has been in biography, probably due to the fact that more interesting lives of men and women are written than ever before," according to Mrs. Ethel McVeety, librarian.

At present the college library has a total of 46,560 books, employs a chief librarian, six assistants and two part-time student helpers. Because of a request made at the beginning of the fall term by the student body, doors are open now from 7:50 a. m. to 10 p. m., in place of the old hours. About 8,000 books are found in the Agricultural, Chemistry, English-Education, Home Economics, Public Discussion, Marketing and Social Science, and Veterinary and Zoology departments, since capacity of the main library building will not permit this excess of material.

One-third as many students have been counted in the building in one day as have been on the entire campus during that time," says Mrs. McVeety, "and the library only seats 100 persons comfortably at a time. Nothing has been attempted outside of routine work because of crowded conditions."

Bulletins from every state in the union and 31 foreign countries come to the library in every morning's mail to aid solving perplexing problems. By parcels post it extends helping hands to alumni, club women and high school students throughout the state. The library has a unique and valuable collection of unaccessioned pamphlets and clippings. It carries out an inter-library loan system with the Library of Congress, Minnesota university library, North Dakota university, St. Paul Public library, Surgeon General's office, and the United States department of Agriculture. Exhibits are continually on display illustrating details of college departments, the lives of great men and national customs.

By means of a record kept by the persons in charge at various hours, it has been found that from 8 to 9:30 p. m. is the busiest time after dinner. An average of 177 students come in age of 800 students per day use the library.

The basement of the building is used as overflow from the first floor, including storerooms, binding rooms, Library Methods classroom, document room and periodical room. Everything in the basement as well as on the main floor is arranged in class order. Library Methods classes have been given since 1913 and are now a requisite for graduation.

INTERIOR DECORATION CLASS MEETS FEB. 10

For the first meeting outside the practice house of the adult education class in interior decoration the women will meet in the home of Mrs. W. J. Ford, 1022 Tenth St. S., on Tuesday, Feb. 10. A schedule of other homes to be visited is being arranged.

Sixteen women have enrolled in the course which is given in connection with the college with Miss Christine Finlayson, state supervisor of home economics education, in general charge, and Mrs. T. W. Johnson, instructor. The work is open to all Fargo women and is given free of charge.

The group held the first meeting on Jan. 10 and will continue to meet through February. The practice house has been the chief object of study so far.

ALL-COLLEGE

Now is the time to get your dates for the all-college that will be held tomorrow night after the game. Grace Reynolds, social commissioner, announced that there would be room for everybody on the campus. The Vagabonds will furnish the music. This is the second all-college dance given this year.

Publication Heads Attend Conference

Presler, Welch, and Pahl Leave For Vermillion By Car Yesterday

Three representatives of State left yesterday morning by car for Vermillion, S. D., where they will attend a meeting of the North Central Press association being held today and tomorrow.

Henry Presler, editor-in-chief of The Spectrum; Ralph Welch, business manager of The Spectrum; and Adolph Pahl, business manager of the 1931 Bison, are making the trip. They arrived at the University of South Dakota last night, where they joined the other delegates from the Conference schools. Today and tomorrow will be spent in round table discussion of the journalistic problems confronting the college editors and business managers. Tomorrow evening the judges will announce the winners of newspapers and annuals.

Members of the conference include: North Dakota State, South Dakota State, University of North Dakota, University of South Dakota, Morningside, and Creighton university. The delegates will return Monday.

Skaret Gets Mention In Paris Competition

Alf Skaret, student in the Department of Architecture, was awarded Honorable Mention in the recent first preliminary elimination of the annual Paris Prize "Competition", which is sponsored by the Institute of Beaux Arts of New York.

Although this mark will not allow Mr. Skaret to continue in the second competition, it is a signal honor which has not been won by a student of this college for several years, according to Mr. Homer Huntoon, head of the Department of Architecture. Approximately 890 drawings were submitted during the contest, and of these only 15 or 20 received any marks.

The problem this year consisted of drawing a Peace Memorial which was to be placed in one of the round-points, or point of several street intersections, in Washington, D. C.

OVER 35 REPORT FOR ORCHESTRA REHEARSAL

Continued progress is being made by the State College Concert orchestra, according to Dr. C. S. Putnam, director. The orchestra held its third rehearsal in the Music hall last evening. The orchestra, which is expected to have a membership of 35, has begun the rehearsing of Beethoven's Sixth Symphony and other concert numbers, said the director. Plans are also being made to present a concert soon, during a convocation period.

Poultry Department Installs All - Electric Incubator

The Poultry department installed a Petersime all-electric automatic incubator of the latest design, last Monday. The machine has an automatic shutoff control battery and temperature indicators which regulate the degrees of heat within the incubator. A large fan revolves around the egg cases at 114 revolutions a minute and keeps the air in motion and aiding in maintaining a uniform temperature throughout the machine. The incubator has a capacity of 1400 eggs and a device which turns them all at the same time. The incubator is set for the first hatching next Saturday.

If South Dakota U. Drops Two Contests State Has Chance

MORNINGSIDE HERE SATURDAY EVENING

Vern Goodwin Out For Year With Broken Bone In Thigh

Every team in the conference will go into action this weekend, and after the smoke of battle has cleared away Saturday, North Dakota State fans will either have a renewed hope of winning the conference title or will be more willing to concede it to South Dakota university. The only chance of bringing an undisputed championship to N. D. S. would be in case the Coyotes lost two of their three remaining games, and the Bison win their last three.

It is highly improbable that things will work out in as ideal a way as this, but according to Coach Saalwaechter, S. D. S. has improved much more than S. D. U. and should win at least one of the two games with the Coyotes. This would give the Bison a tie for first place in the final standings if they succeed in defeating Morningside, and the Nodaks in both of the conference struggles with them.

Morningside Is Tough The chief worry at present is the Morningside game here Saturday. The Maroons have been tough opposition for all the conference teams, but have been able to defeat only the Nodaks. The Sioux City aggregation is represented by a big, powerful team which has improved at every start, and right now they are plenty hungry for victory. Saaly expects his charges to come through with a win Saturday, but the huge crowd which will pack the old armory, will undoubtedly see as good a battle as has been played here this year, and every point will come only as a result of hard work or brilliant basketball.

Benidt Selected As Junior Prom Manager

Bernard Benidt was selected manager of the Junior Prom at an election held by the Junior class last Tuesday. This election was unique in that no girls were present and the choice of manager was left entirely to the men who got along so harmoniously that the choice was nearly unanimous.

Benidt states that the assistant and committee heads have not been chosen as yet, but that these appointments will be announced in the near future. No definite date for the Prom has been decided upon, although it will most likely be staged the latter part of April.

Benidt is a member of Alpha Sigma Tau fraternity, a Junior in Agriculture, and lives in Lidgerwood.

BREVITIES TICKET SALES COMPETITION ON TODAY

Opening volleys of the Bison Brevities ticket sales campaign opened today with 15 campus organizations competing for the large cup to be awarded the winner. The show will be held in the Fargo high school auditorium, March 3 and 4. Tickets will be sold for $1, limited blocks of reserved seats to be on sale at Sberdahl's Jewelry at a later date. Victor Madsen, Starkweather, has charge of the drive.

"Students wishing to postpone purchase of tickets on the theory that there will be 'plenty left' are apt to be disappointed unless they make sure of their pastebord early," was Mr. Madsen's advice. "Demand for seats are unusually heavy downtown."

A daily record of sales will be kept by Mr. Madsen to prolong interest in the campaign.

WHAT'S COMING?

The Gamma Tau Sigma magazine of State College satire—the first of its type ever to be published on this campus. The Spectrum feels that the advent of this magazine on the campus will be heartily received by the student body. We urge you to make sure that you get your copy by making reservations with any of the members of the local journalistic fraternity. As only 800 copies will be available, according to present plans, it behooves each and every one to act promptly. The fun journal should be one of those relics of college days which all desire to keep for years.

originally anticipated. The bone fracture was not discovered until a local physician examined the leg, so there is no hope of seeing either Goodwin or Fairhead in action again this season. The loss of these two men will put the Bison at a disadvantage, which might prove to be pretty serious since the three Sophomores who will have to fill the gaps are sadly lacking in experience, having had little opportunity to perform in the harder games this season. All three of them—Nordstrom, Seitz, and Thomassen—are plenty capable, however, and may step into their more difficult roles and click like veterans.

We wear they're going to have Latin quarters at the architects' ball tonight. Before we go we're going to find out how much that is in U. S. money.

The scene is laid in Paris in hopes of attracting some American halves.

THE DANCE IS CLOSING AT 11:30 SO THAT THE ARCHITECTS CAN GO BACK TO THEIR CLASSES.

The architects' cat won't be there as this is one night they put on the dog.

They've all got out their pen and ink so they can draw a crowd.

NO DIFFICULTY SHOULD BE ENCOUNTERED IN GETTING A FRENCH SETTING. WE NOTE THAT MANY AN ARCHITECT GETS A FRENCH SETTING IN FINAL EXAM.

An Apache dance is billed as a feature. If they must wrestle, why don't they enter the tournament?

A blue print of the party shows that a lot of rough sketches will be on hand.

SEVERAL SCOTCHMEN WILL GIVE EXHIBITIONS OF FREE HAND DRAWING.

At least in their dancing, the architects will be able to make some use of their slide rule.

Alf Skaret says he isn't going to shine his shoes as he doesn't want the party to reflect on the school.

THEY ARE NOT ALLOWED TO GET BLIND DATES BECAUSE OF THE EFFECT IT MIGHT HAVE ON THEIR PERSPECTIVE.

Architects may be able to draw houses, but we've never seen one draw a full moon.

Speaking of houses, gossip has it that this isn't going to be a one-story party.

AND THE STORIES THEY DO TELL!

We'll bet when they come to refreshments that the party will revert to the American type.

Woods' Quartet Give Lyceum Number

BY ELENE WEEKS

Featuring a monologist and three vocal soloists, the Jack Woods' Quartet presented the fourth of a series of Lyceum number Wednesday evening in the college armory.

The program presented ranged from the ever-present "Cavalleria Rusticana", and Mendelsohn's "Spring Song" to a group of darkie songs and variations on Dvorak's "Humoresque". "I Never See Maggie Alone", and the old "Lazy Daisy". The most outstanding number presented with the bells was the "Sunday Morning in London", an imitation of the church bells of the British capitol on the Sabbath.

The selections as a whole were undistinguished either by technique interpretation, or choice. The bell-ringing attracted attention because of its novelty, but the voices and the several cello solos were very mediocre.

FARGO HIGH STUDENTS WILL SEE BREVITIES

Students of Fargo high school will have an opportunity to see the Bison Brevities at a matinee March 3 in their auditorium, it was announced today by Everett Wallum, manager of the fraternity-sorority revue sponsored by Blue Key fraternity. Value of the contact between high school students and the college was given as the reason for the matinee which will be open to prep theatergoers at 25 cents.

Owing to lack of adequately constructed shooting gallery plans for a Creighton rifle team have been postponed indefinitely, according to ROTC instructors. The present gallery is too small and poorly equipped for efficient practice, they said.

N. D. Creamerymen Attend Creamery Short Course

Creamerymen from the surrounding territory attended the second annual creamery short course held during the past week in the dairy department of North Dakota Agricultural college.

A. W. Rudnick, supervisor of field work in dairy manufacturing at Iowa State college, and Chris Jensen, instructor in dairying at the local college, were in charge. A series of lectures and exercises in laboratory work comprised the course of instruction for the creamerymen.

The Montreal English Rugby club has received a tentative invitation from Yale university to take a Rugby team here next season for the exhibition game at New Haven. It is quite certain that the game will be arranged.

ADVERTISE IN THE SPECTRUM

Over the Horizon

HERE they come—the nucleus of an all-electric merchant marine. Yesterday, they were a dream. To-day, they are well over the horizon, linking the ports of the east and west coasts with fortnightly service. The goal of the Panama Pacific Line is to build three more turbine-electric ships, thus enabling weekly New York-Frisco sailings.

Even now, the three liners, California, Virginia, and Pennsylvania, constitute the largest fleet of turbine-electric commercial ships in the world.

Besides propelling these ships, electricity hoists freight, raises anchors, mans pumps, turns rudders, drives winches, and warps the vessels into their berths. It lights lamps, spins fans, operates elevators, cools and cooks food. Its magic touch is apparent on every deck.

All electric equipment, above and below deck, is a product of General Electric.

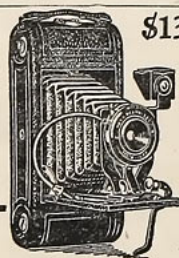

The planning, production, and distribution of such equipment has been largely the responsibility of college-trained men who are working with General Electric and who have aided in bringing these ships over the horizon.

Boxing Matches Scheduled For This Evening

Skjonsby - Scaif, McMillan - Anderson Bouts Draw Much Interest

BOXING CARD

Main Event—8:00

- Johnny Scaif vs Verne Skjonsby 145 lbs.
- R. McMillan vs A. Anderson 195 lbs.
- Jim Slattery vs W. Schoenfelder 195 lbs.
- Vincent Kromarek vs Andy Lynn 126 lbs.
- Dietrich vs French 155 lbs.
- Bill Gray vs Wessner 175 lbs.
- Gingerick vs Hedahl 155 lbs.
- Wurdeman vs Anderson 147 lbs.

The second boxing show of the current school year will be given tonight at 8:00 o'clock. This card will include two fights in class I, in comparison to only one in the last show.

The main event of the evening will bring together two boxers well versed in the manly art and a pair that is certain to give the customers a real treat for their money. Scaif regards this bout as the toughest battle that he will encounter in his probable rise to the top of the welterweight division. On the other hand he feels confident that he will take the measure of Skjonsby, the welterweight king. Skjonsby has made no predictions as to the outcome but it is a well known fact that this boy is not to be played with, which was proven by the way he sailed through this division last year, so a real battle is anticipated when these boys meet in the squared circle.

McMillan in Shape

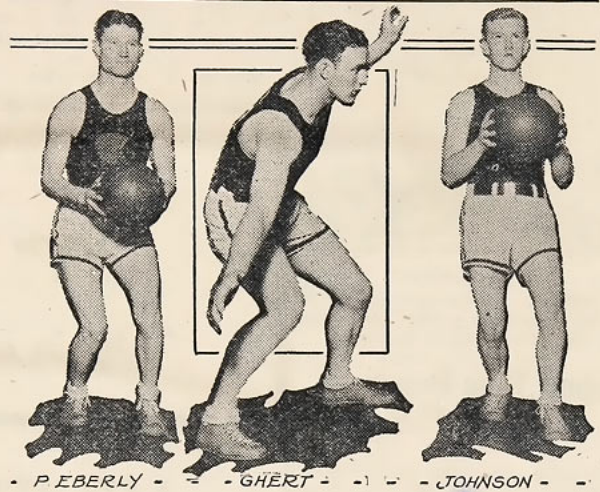

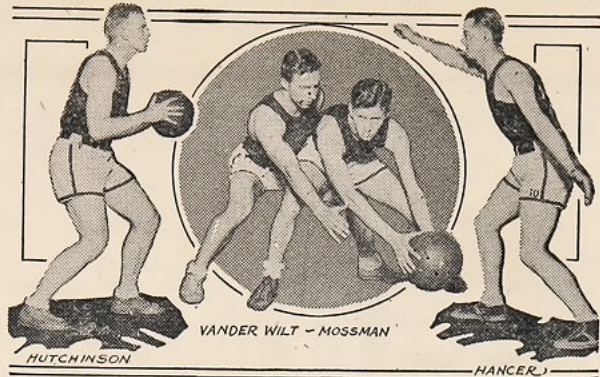

Rod McMillan has added considerable weight and has entered the heavyweight division in quest of the vacated throne. He will meet Archie Anderson, rugged contender of last season, in the semi-windup go which promises to be one of the best battles on the card. Anderson has been working out regularly since the opening of the season and is in the best of condition for this important battle. McMillan was one of the most colorful battlers that fought in last year's tournament, and is looked upon as one of the strongest contenders for the heavyweight crown. He was not a bit bashful in saying that he would take his rugged opponent into camp when they clash tonight.

The card would not be complete without Jim Slattery giving an exhibition. This popular heavyweight will tangle with Schoenfelder in the bout preceding the semi-windup. Schoenfelder worked off eight pounds in a recent workout, and says he is in good condition and will give the Bismarck boy a beating. Slattery, as usual, is plenty confident and promises that there will be only one in the upright position when the smoke has cleared away at the completion of hostilities.

Five Other Bouts

The five other bouts scheduled for tonight's show will be well worth watching and might uncover a strong contender for some of the champions. The way the crowd conducted itself at the last fight was not entirely satisfactory and if they keep on booing the fighters and decisions, it may spoil the sport at this institution.

C. C. Finnegan, athletic director, has completed arrangements to handle an unusually large crowd. General admission will be fifty cents, and the students will be admitted free upon presentation of their ticket books.

Vodden Outfit Lose To League Leaders

YMCA-A Team and Comets Deadlocked For Second Position

The YMCA League basketball continues to be led by the Y-B team which defeated Vodden's team by a score of 49-18 in one of the games played Monday evening. Spalbury and the Hart brothers piled up the greatest share of the score, Spalbury planting eight field goals; L. Hart, seven; and W. Hart, three. For Vodden's team Simison and Jordahl starred.

The Y-A five conquered the Farm Husbandry gang by 24-15. Quimel scored three double counters and two free throws for the Y-A team and Elefson of the same team followed with three field goals and one free throw. Farm Husbandry's outstanding man was Tweed.

The Collegiate Comets retained their position by defeating Steffenson's quintet 29-10. Deight and Larson for the winners and Olson and Baird for Steffenson's showed the best work.

This series of games places the Y-A team and the Collegiate Comets in a tie for second place. Vodden's team, who were in the tie until their last game, sank to third place.

Sigma Taus Down Kappa Phis 19-11

In the feature game of the fraternity league Tuesday night, the Sigma Taus defeated the Kappa Phis, 19 to 11, to gain undisputed possession of first place in the loop. The Taus played intermittent, steady and brilliant basketball, taking advantage of every momentary letup in the play of the losers.
The half ended with the two teams tied at five all, but at the start of the second period, the Sigma Taus pulled away, and were never headed. A rally in the last period brought the Kappa Phi within two points of the leaders, but from then on, the Sigma Tau offense functioned its best, and they pulled away to a comfortable lead. Braus was the big threat for the winners, while Hermes did the best work for the Kappa Phi quint.

In the other game of the evening, the Kappa Phis upset the dope by winning from the strong Gamma Rho outfit, 22 to 16. The Rhos were off guard, and got away to a poor start. The game was a bitter struggle, but the Kappa Psi defense was working well, and they held the ags at bay to keep their lead until the final whistle.
